Relay for Life

Community walks for cancer research

BY MEGHAN VANDERVEER

Nearly 1,000 participants gathered to battle cancer at the fourth annual Relay for Life Saturday night at the Bob Carpenter Center. Participants from 135 teams raised more than $185,000 for the American Cancer Society.

Junior Alex Tenes, chairwoman of coordination and events, said the event is an important addition to the fundraising efforts of the ACN.

"Cancer affects so many people but I think that sometimes it’s not talked about and that’s why we are able to make everyone aware of what is happening," Tenes said. As the sun set, the crowd began to walk around the track, and the teams turned on their own lights.

Among the first to take the lap around the field were the house teams - a track that was once used for track and field meets.

Tents and tables were set up as many participants included students, faculty, staff and community members.

The event included a number of exciting activities for the participants to take part in,

including live entertainment, a silent auction and food to name a few.

Teams began fundraising in November in support of finding a cure for cancer.

Participants included students, faculty, staff and community members.

The annual event included a number of exciting activities for the participants to take part in,

including live entertainment, a silent auction and food to name a few.

Junior Elizabeth Behr, the entertainment chairwoman, said she was impressed to see the diversity of participants during the luminary ceremony.

"White bags were illuminated in honor of the loved ones who have been taken by cancer and with the words of loved ones who have been taken by cancer," she said.

"This is their way of expressing their love and admiration to those who have been taken by cancer."

"We’ve learned as a team that it’s important to support one another and to continue walking around the track," she said. "I think most of us will come back next year."
Police Offers Competition to Newark Eateries

BY MIKE BAZZETTE

Pizza U, which offers competition to the Neapolitan-style, classic New York-style eateries, is trying to please the college students who are on low budgets while providing itself with a classy restaurant setting. Michael Stagl, owner of Pizza U, includes a variety of items on his menu that matches the students' requirements.

PUBLIC CITIATION

A man was caught by police sleeping in public on Walker Street outside the Newark Public Library. He was cited with a noise violation, but then he was asked to leave the building and observed at 3:30 a.m. He was ordered to leave the area.

Officer switched lights to 2:30 a.m.

PUBLIC OUTAGE

Songwriter visits Scrooge

BY NICOLE QUITTERER

Singer-songwriter Kate Kilmann interviewed a crowd of students at the University of Delaware's Campus Programming Advisory Board's second annual "Scrooge." The lights dimmed as Kilmann, wearing blue jeans and a black sweater over a white t-shirt, spoke passionately about her path to success, putting the focus on the listeners.

Kilmann also demonstrated at one of the many events that she is not only a singer, but also a songwriter. The Songwriter's "A Quote that introduced her to her first album, "Kilmann." The song, "Give a Little" was one of the many that she performed during the event.

Kate Kilmann performed in the Scrooge Thursday as part of SCAF/R's Series.

Peridot Christiana was the emcee at yesterday's multicultural event. She reflected on her own experiences and expressed her appreciation for those who were present, as well as her gratitude for the gathering.

"I'm happy to be here," she said. "I feel good for students that everyone can come together and share their experiences."

While the event was focused primarily on the students, Peridot also extended her message to the community at large, emphasizing the importance of unity and understanding.

The event included a variety of performances, including music, dance, and spoken word. The performances were held in the University's Cultural Center, and were open to all members of the campus community.

Peridot ended the event by thanking everyone for their participation and encouraging them to continue working towards a more inclusive and diverse environment.

Ant Difrero is a graph designer with a voice that can rock the hardest one minute and soothe the next. Difrero doesn't seem to care what other people think of his fearlessness, or that he's not afraid to let his voice be heard. "I'm just doing what I love," he said.

Difrero's passion for his craft is evident in his work, and it shows in the quality of his pieces. His designs are always fresh and unique, and he's not afraid to take risks with his art. "I'm just doing what I love," he said.

Difrero is a perfect example of how one person can make a difference in the world of design. His work is a reminder that even the smallest of gestures can make a big impact.

For university students, it’s all about convenience. If we need something, we go to the closest place possible because we’re too lazy to walk far. That’s why the majority of coffee shops in campus have become major hangouts for students who want to study, meet up with friends, or just enjoy a quiet afternoon. However, Dunkin’ Donuts is a different story. It’s not just a place to grab a cup of coffee, it’s a place to hang out with friends, work on assignments, or just relax.

Dunkin’ Donuts is known for its wide variety of coffee options, from classic brewed coffee to flavored drinks like mochas and lattes. But it’s not just the coffee that sets Dunkin’ Donuts apart. The store is decorated with bright colors and fun posters, creating a lively atmosphere that draws in customers. The staff is friendly and always ready to help, making customers feel welcome and at ease.

The coffee at Dunkin’ Donuts is always fresh and well-made. Whether you order a classic black coffee, a fancy latte, or a hot chocolate, you can be sure that it will be delicious and served with a smile. Dunkin’ Donuts also offers a wide variety of pastries and donuts, making it a perfect spot for a quick breakfast or afternoon snack.

For university students looking for a place to study or hang out with friends, Dunkin’ Donuts is an excellent choice. With its convenient location, friendly staff, and delicious coffee and pastries, it’s a great spot to grab a cup of coffee and catch up with friends.

Savory news is not a problem. “We always keep all merchandise in stock and our employees are counting in everything the customer needs,” she says. “The store is in good condition,” the says. “We earned special forms of customers in the past months, selling licenses for the bodybuilding classes and 12-month contracts for the shopper on the go.”

The story also offers the Pathmark Advantage Club card offers, including sales and special offers. There is no better feeling to a "budgeted college student than having the option to shop anywhere, even if it’s Wal-Mart or a local Supermarket.”

“I have seen people who live in Newark, work in Newark, and go to Pathmark.”

In the end, the Pathmark employee, in the country’s largest supermarket chain, says it is a “combination of additional fruits and vegetables that makes for a happy shopping experience.”

Now here’s the twist: Don’t go to Pathmark on an empty stomach.

been taken a beating? Well, if so, you are not alone. Since its employment through Roberta’s back door, while turning students are Miss Stueck and dropping plans around Newark, The Review has had its share of advice for the recent trips and skin cancer facts, more than one million people suffering from skin cancer, but most of these trips are to skin cancer awareness websites or other methods, as well as approximately 5% of These methods range from the use of tanning booths to sun tan lotions, and more than one million people have used tanning booths.

Although the use of sun tan lotions is still widespread, the use of tanning salons is on the rise. Many people agree with photographs, but also want to avoid the dangerous tanning bed. The self-applied tanning from bottled lotions is still a viable option.

Stacey Brown, local commissionaire at Happy Days’ in Babbling Brook, recently unveiled its latest skin care product, the bottlized customer’s Ardath Latex and Ardbath line. Stacey says another feature that sets this line apart is that you can use it on your face.

There are still other options for those looking for the sun-baked look.

Men’s basketball signs three new recruits for season

BY MIKE MILLER

The men’s basketball program began its recruiting season last week, when it announced the addition of three high school players to its roster.

“I’m really happy with the three kids we’ve added to our team,” coach Greg Price said. “I think they’re all really good players and they’ll contribute a lot to our program.”

One of the players, Mark Henderson, is a 6-foot-5 forward from Palms High School in West Palm Beach. Henderson averaged 15 points and 4.5 rebounds per game his senior year and was named the team’s most valuable player.

“Mark is a great player,” Price said. “I’m really excited to have him on our team.”

The other two players are both 6-foot-3 guards. One is a junior from Edgewater High School in Fort Lauderdale, and the other is a senior from Deerfield Beach.

“Both of those players are really good players,” Price said. “I think they’ll fit in well with our team and help us to improve our defense.”

Henderson will play the small forward position, while the two guards will split time at the shooting guard and point guard spots.

“We’re really excited about the addition of these three players,” Price said. “I think they’ll help us to take our team to the next level.”

The three new recruits will be eligible to play in the 2023-2024 season. They will have two years of eligibility remaining.

Knicks need zen
P.K. Subban, the top prospect in the 2016 draft, is a forceful presence who can turn around any situation. The New York Knicks, he is the one and only Phil Jackson.

Some might say Jackson, 81, is a wise general of course of time. The "Zen master" guided Michael Jordan and left the Chicago Bulls with six championships in the 90s.

In his new role, Jackson must be expected to turn around the Knicks, who haven't been a winner since 2013.

Born in the Philippines, Subban is a multi-talented athlete who has played hockey and basketball. He is known for his ability to read the game and make quick decisions on the ice.

Subban has been a fan of the New York Knicks and has expressed his desire to work with Phil Jackson.

Phil Jackson, who has won 11 NBA titles as a coach, is expected to bring a new era of success to the Knicks.

Subban is expected to bring a new level of intensity to the Knicks, who have struggled in recent years. He is known for his ability to read the game and make quick decisions on the ice.
