Y. M. C. A. Campaign Closes

Contributions from Town and College Approximate $3000

Delaware has over-subscribed to the Y. M. C. A. War Fund, as little Delaware has a habit of doing in war fund campaigns.

Pledged to raise $500,000, the State has made a grand total of $508,568, with subscriptions still coming until the close on Saturday. Henry B. Thompson, chairman, found the last part of his speech drowned in a tumult of cheers and applause when he made the announcement that Delaware had again gone over the top. About 200 campaigners were at the final luncheon in the Hotel duPont rose room Saturday.

Dean Hayward, of the Agricultural department, Delaware College, chairman for Newark, has today issued the following statement:

"In the drive of last week to raise thirty-five million dollars for war work for the Y. M. C. A., Newark's contribution was divided into three separate and distinct funds. The students and faculty of the Women's College raised $1,000; the students and faculty of Delaware College contributed $1,300, and the community subscribed $563.75, making a total for Newark of $2,863.75.

The chairman of the Community Committee takes this opportunity to express his appreciation of the loyal manner in which the people of Newark went down into their pockets for this cause—a cause that will do much not only to comfort our own boys who are fighting our battles for us but also to supply necessities which are needed to keep many in the prison camps of Europe from actual starvation. We are all proud of the fact that our State and town are doing their part so well in our great national crisis.

WEDDING

MURRAY-POFFENBERGER

The marriage of Miss Marguerite Poffenberger, and Mr. James Fielding Murray, both of Wilmington, was solemnized on Saturday, November 10th, at three-thirty, in St. Thomas P. E. Church, Newark, of which the bride's father was a former pastor. The Rev. John J. Murray, rector of the church of St. Bartholomew, Baltimore, father of the groom, officiated. Only intimate friends witnessed the ceremony.

The bride wore a crown of white net over silk, charming in its simplicity, and a veil draped with orange blossoms. Her bouquet was a shower of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Pauline Poffenberger, and her friend, Mrs. M. J. Poffenberger, both of Philadelphia, who wore a pretty frock of burnt orange silk, and a large picture hat of black. She also carried roses. The bride was given away by her brother, De Clifford Poffenberger, of Wilmington. Mr. Murray, of Baltimore, brother of the groom, acted as best man, and Mrs. C. E. Burnley presided at the organ.

Following the ceremony an informal reception was held at the home of Mrs. John Elliott, after which the bride and groom left by automobile for a wedding trip. They will reside at Parlin, N. J., where Mr. Murray is employed by the duPont Company.

All over actual expenses will be given to the Newark Branch Red Cross.

Thanksgiving Proclamation

Governor John G. Townsend, Jr., has issued the customary proclamation designating Thursday, November 29, as a day of Thanksgiving and Prayer in which he says:

"Thanksgiving is distinctively American. It is a part of our national life, and upon the spirit of its recognition rests the stability of our institutions. Observed by our fathers in the hardships of Colonial days, it gained official recognition in the nation's stress under Lincoln. With such history and such recognition, it is peculiarly fitting that today, with democracy on trial, we should bow in thankful acknowledgment to a guiding Providence.

"With the idea and ideals of Calvary standing at bay, humanity, with beseeching confidence has appealed to the strength of America for relief and life itself. That we are privileged to give our harvests to starving nations, and of our manhood in defense of honor, is foundation for sincere thanksgiving. Never in the history of

SCOPE OF EXTENSION WORK WIDENED

Specialists In All Parts of Delaware

When Congress passed the Emergency Food Bill $13,300 was assigned for work in Delaware. According to the plan this money is to be spent entirely in the salaries and expenses of county and home demonstration agents. The fund has made it possible to materially increase the extension forces. At the present time there is a county agent at work or appointed for each county in the state, under the direction of the State Leader of County Agents, M. O. Pence. In New Castle County Mr. R. O. Bausman is in charge of the work; in Kent, Mr. H. H. Zimmerley; in Sussex, Mr. Kauffman, who succeeds Mr. W. C. Pelton, will begin work on December first. In Home Demonstration Work, under the leadership of Miss Gertrude M. Blodgett, there will be at an early date agents appointed for the city of Wilmington, rural New Castle, Kent, and Sussex counties. In addition Miss Clara Nixon, who has been in Sussex since last May, will, after December first, give all her time to poultry work among farm home makers of that county.

The agricultural staff of Delaware College has increased from 7 in 1907 to 29 today.

The men have purchased a victrola, but have very few records, and any contributed will be appreciated. The Delaware men, the communication also states, are in need of small flat pillows, size 18 x 18, covered with khaki-colored cloth. Anyone having feathers for pillows may use any material convenient for tying, leaving them at headquarters where the local committee will supply them with covers of the proper color. Further particulars may be received upon application to Mrs. C. B. Evans or Miss Gripe.

CLASS IN RADIO WORK ORGANIZED

Twenty-five Men In Attendance

Classes in radio-work, organized by Dean A. R. Cullimore, of the Engineering department of Delaware College, have been organized at Delaware College and in Wilmington. Both classes have started off successfully with full enrollments and large waiting lists. Class No. 1 opened in Newark last Wednesday night with 25 men in attendance. The class was conducted by Mr. McConnell. There were 46 applicants for admission to the class, but as only 25 could be accommodated, 21 had to be put on the waiting list. Class No. 2 will open this Wednesday night in Wilmington with a full enrollment. There are 12 men on the waiting list of this class.

GLEE CLUB WORK BEGINS

Combined Chorus of 100 Voices

The two glee clubs of Delaware College held their first rehearsals last Thursday evening under the direction of T. Leslie Carpenter of Wilmington. One club is formed of men, and the other of women, students and faculty of the two branches of the college, and each numbers fifty or more voices. They will be trained separately as a rule but on occasions will combine, forming a chorus of over one hundred mixed voices. Rehearsals will be held regularly on Thursday evening under Mr. Carpenter's direction.

The clubs contain some unusually fine vocal talent, and the members read and acquire music rapidly as a result of the musical training in the secondary schools.

Mr. Carpenter will devote one morning each week to private teaching at the college in voice and piano, and also in harmony, counterpoint and musical composition.

ELMS SET OUT ON CAMPUS

Horticultural Department Selects And Plant Trees

The horticultural department of Delaware College, under the direction of Professor C. A. McCue, has recently completed the work of setting out 98 American elms, on the new campus of the College. The trees have been planted in two partial double rows, according to the landscape design of Day and Klauder, architects, the idea being to give a hedge effect rather than a tree effect. "It will be at least ten or fifteen years," Professor McCue stated today, "before the general idea will be apparent to the public." The elm is a slow growing tree, its average life being 300 years. Many specimens, however, thrive for 400 years.

All of the trees were selected from the Thomas Meehan nurseries, of Thesher, Pa., by the horticultural department. They are very uniform and super excellent specimens.

College Farm Sells Stock

The College Farm has recently sold four Guernsey cows and a bull to the New Castle County Workhouse farm.

Local Men Leave for Camp Dix

First Negro Contingent from New Castle County Leaves

Rural New Castle county sent its first contingent of negro men to the National Army on Monday. They left Newark on the 9:38 o'clock P. M. & W. train for Wilmington, where they joined the other Delaware contingents for the trip to Camp Dix, Wrightstown, N. J.

The rural New Castle county contingent represented 15 per cent of the district's quota making 32 men. Of this number 30 were negroes and two white men. The white men were W. L. Beck, of Delaware City, a Delaware College graduate, who had charge of the contingent until Camp Dix was reached and Daniel Slack, of Newark, who was Beck's assistant. Harry B. Guest of Marshalon, a third white man was to go, but failed to report to the Local Board and consequently will have to give a satisfactory explanation for his absence or be sent to Fort duPont as a slacker. It was necessary to send four alternates to take the places of principals who did not go.

The men were marched from the headquarters of the Local Board in Purnell Hall to the Old Station. Many friends of the men were at the station to see them off. J. Pilling Wright, chairman of the Local Board, Dr. W. Owen Sypherd and Dr. Walter H. Steel, also members of the Board, were also at the station. This makes a total of 129 men or about 60 per cent of the quota who have been sent from this district. Of those previously sent only 7 have been rejected because of physical defects. Those who made up the contingent on Monday were as follows:

W. L. Beck, captain, and Daniel Slack, his assistant.

OXFORD BOY WRITES OF EXPERIENCES IN FRANCE

Wonders at Those Who Seek Exemption from Service

The following letter, written by Richard Burns of Oxford, Pa., appeared in the Oxford Press of November 15. Coming straight from the war zone to his mother here, the authenticity of the statements made, cannot be questioned. In France, Oct. 19, 1917

Dear Mother:

Since writing to you last I have gone through an experience that makes me appreciate why these French are fighting so valiantly. Last Sunday about 500 refugees were brought in to these barracks prior to their distribution among the different homes in this town. They were from Northern France, principally around the district of Lille. The Germans are hard pressed to find sufficient quantities of food to feed their own army, so that the civilian population of the invaded districts become a burden to them. Consistent with German cruelty these people are either left to starve or else are returned to the French. A humanitarian effort does not induce the Germans to return them but the supposed fact that they will prove an additional burden for France to feed. The Huns (for that is a suitable name for the Germans, and one that they are called today throughout Europe), see to it that no man or woman is returned who can possibly be of any military value. Only children under sixteen, both boys and girls, and men and women over forty-five are allowed to pass through. The men retained are used for military purposes, such as building new trenches or constructing roads and railroads. There is no pity shown to them and many a Belgian or Frenchman has dropped dead from exhaustion. The women are used for purposes almost unmentionable. Each girl is assigned to two German soldiers. She has to wash his clothes and do anything for them that they might wish.

If the girl is pretty or attractive she is given to an officer. After the English have captured new trench systems they have found these girls in the huts of the German officers; it is a system of slavery more horrible than anything the world has ever witnessed.

These refugees that came here arrived just before dark. The natural result was confusion. To see those old men and women with their only possessions in the world being made to suffer needlessly was too much for us. About fifty of us volunteered our services, as Americans will do the world over, and order was soon brought back. A collection was taken among the company and 110 francs, or about $22, was secured. If pay day had been a recent event the amount would easily have been a thousand francs or more.

I took charge of sorting their baggage and helping them find their beds. One old woman whom I judge was about 80, had lost everything she had. I hunted all over but could not find her belongings. To make matters worse she had lost the location of her bed. They had had a long trip that day and she was growing weaker all the time. At last I finally persuaded her to get into an empty bed and then hunt for her baggage the next day; she finally consented, so I made her bed and got her into it. As I was leaving she grasped my hand and said Mercei, Monsieur Mercei, Je fatigue (Mercei, Mr. Mercei, I am so tired). She could not get done thanking me. The words Je fatigue, I am tired (still ring in my ears. Poor old woman, I felt so sorry for her, for to be far from home and separated from your family when that age, seems to me a terrible way to end one's life.

This is only one experience among the many. One little girl, younger than sister but resembling her, came to me to help her find her mother; under her arm she carried a little white dog, the only thing that she owned. Her big brown eyes were so pitiful that a lump came into my throat for I could not help thinking suppose these people were the ones I love. A similar thought came to most of our fellows, and as one fellow said afterwards: "It is easy to see now why the French are such fighters, for my part, I am willing to stay here five years, if necessary, to save my folks from such a fate." That is the sentiment of all the men now, for as long as the German power endures, such a fate threatens our homes. How there can be any slackers or so many wanting exemptions is a mystery to us. Just one more illustration of German heartlessness: The next day a mother who had a sick child, about six years old, came into our barracks in order to get warm, as the weather is growing very chilly. We got some hot milk for the child and some bread and jam for the woman. There was a red sear across the child's hand. We asked what caused it and she told us how the Germans had taken her two older daughters away from her and as they were being dragged out this little child had run after its sisters and had grabbed hold of the door. The German officers pulled the door to on its hand and had gone away leaving the child in agony until the mother could reach it. That is the kind of men the Germans are. They are depraved beasts, not men. Yesterday our commander received this letter from the the French general commanding this district:

"The Commanding General instructs me to inform you, and the troops under your command, that he highly appreciates the voluntary and generous assistance given by the American soldiers quartered in the Barracks, to the refugee families, repatriated from the invaded districts. He also wishes me to tell you how the sympathy shown to these unfortunate French people by the American Allies has deeply touched all of us, who having witnessed it desire to have it appreciated." You can see from this letter that our efforts were appreciated. I worked hard for four solid hours that night and I would have been willing to work four more for our reward came in seeing the look of thankfulness that came into the faces of those poor people. My hand was grasped many times that night and the "Mercei" that always accompanied was spoken from the bottom of their hearts. God forbid that such a calamity ever comes to our homes for the misery and suffering in Belgium and Northern France has never been half told, for there are no words in the English language to express it.

This is just a little description of why America is in the war and why she must stay until her aims are accomplished. It is only an example of daily experiences of many of the American soldiers in France. We are all hoping the war will soon be over, but not until this menace to our homes and our loved ones is forever removed.

RICHARD. P. S.—Company E has taken ten thousand dollars of the new Liberty Loan. If the other companies do as much the Nineteenth Engineers will have contributed fifty thousand dollars.

Are you folks back home doing as much? If you can't come across here do your bit, no matter how small.

STUDENTS PRESENT ORIGINAL PROGRAM

Various Magazine Departments Suggested

Saturday evening the Dramatic Club entertained at an open night. "The Women's Home Learn-All," a loving magazine, was presented. Some of the scenes were in tableau form, while others were little plays. Miss Paulina Smith, the president, and Miss Anna Scott, chairman of

The first thing in the magazine was the cover. This tableau representing a soldier bidding his sweetheart good-bye, was posed by Margaret Reynolds and Alice Jefferis. Next came the advertisements, Dutch Cleanser, which was posed by Helen Baneroff; Corn Flakes, by Kathryn Robbins, and Cream of Wheat by Victoria Zukowsky. The music section, which followed, was a dramatic recitation, "Dresden China," by Miss Paulina Smith. The art section was prepared by Miss Mary Dennison, and introduced by Miss Catherine Fletcher. The first luring picture representing Corpaecio's "Singing Boy," was posed by Alice Roop. Elizabeth M. Jones took the part of the "Girl with the Muff," by Madame Le Brun. Charlotte Easby and Kathryn Robbins posed as the partrair of Madame Le Brun and her daughter. While the Spanish Dancer, "Carmencita," was posed by Laura Rodney, in brilliant red and black.

The department of Fashions was well represented. Miss Olga Seifert, as the French Modisti, displayed to the audience four exquisite costumes, loaned for the occasion by Braunstein of Wilmington. The costumes were worn by living models. Miss Rodney wore the college frock, Miss Alice Fisher the Grenadies Street suit, Miss East-by the afternoon gown, and Miss Rouse, the charming evening gown. The department of Food Conservation was not forgotten. Miss Dorothy Newton, from behind a table covered with suggestive cans of fruit, vegetables, addressed the audience in a humorous way, urging patriotism through conservation.

RED CROSS CHAIR-MEN DENY RUMORS

Believe They Are Circulated By Enemy

Harvey D. Gibson, General Manager of the American Red Cross, has sent the following telegram to Red Cross Division Managers:

"It is evident that rumors and innuendoes, critical of and calculated to embarrass the Red Cross, are being industriously circulated as part of an anti-patriotic propaganda. Insofar as such statements or questions are merely efforts to obtain information they should be earnestly and sincerely met, but many of the stories, utterly unwarranted in fact, emanate simultaneously from too many different parts of the country to be merely accidental.

Suggest you advise all Chapters to tell all workers officially and advise local press and every one with whom they come in contact of the character of the movement which is on foot, and ask members and public generally to proceed on the theory that nothing against Red Cross should be believed until investigation. Ask each Chapter send to Division Headquarters account of all such rumors and criticisms being circulated as well as statements of source from which they come.

"Every criticism should be carefully investigated and if found to be justified the cause for criticism should be removed either in the Chapter at Division Headquarters or at National Headquarters. In all cases the Red Cross will bring facts to attention of interested persons. Very important that Division Headquarters and each local Chapter be made to understand that reputation and standing of the Red Cross locally is in hands of local officers, and interested workers and members, and that every criticism or innuendo against Red Cross should be immediately challenged and followed up. The Red Cross is being run as an open book, it has no secrets, it is making a sincere effort to serve mankind, and is doing it as carefully and economically as it knows how. Its accounts are to be audited by the War Department, and the utmost effort is being made to give publicity to all its activities.

"Please see to it that these suggestions are made the subject of an earnest circular to every Chapter, urging the utmost thoroughness in attention to this matter. Answer."

Colored Resident

Buried Last Sunday

William Harris, colored, of Newark, who died on Thursday, November 8th, at the County Hospital, from tuberculosis, was buried on Sunday, November 11th, from the residence of George Watson. Madam Phaton Rose, of Wilmington, was in charge of the funeral. We, the colored people of this town, highly appreciate Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Watson's kindness to the deceased, when in his worst illness. Though a stranger to them they opened their doors and made him welcome. We also thank the many white friends who contributed toward his burial expenses. William was a law abiding citizen, friendly, cheerful, and good-hearted to all. He was from Virginia but no relatives could be located. He was a member of the local club known as Zig Zag, which attended the funeral in a body. Rev. W. H. Forward officiated.

ROADS RULE THE WORLD
Not kings nor congresses, not courts nor constables, not ships nor soldiers. The road is the only royal line in a democracy, the only legislature that never changes, the only court that never sleeps, the only army that never quits, the first aid to the redemption of any nation, the exodus from stagnation in any society, the call from savagery in any tribe, the high priest of prosperity, after the order of Malchisedec, without beginnings of days or end of life. The road is umpire in every war; and when the new map is made, it simply pushes on its great campaign of help, hope, brotherhood, efficiency and peace.

ACTIVITIES OF THE RED CROSS

Chairman of War Council Tells of Work Done

In response to a request by Henry P. Davison, Chairman of the Red Cross War Council, for a complete report on the work being carried on by the American Red Cross in France, the following cable has just been received from the Paris Headquarters of the American Red Cross:

"We have just completed a gift of $5,000,000 to needy sick and wounded French soldiers and needy families of soldiers.

"We have established twenty dispensaries in the American Army zone to care for the resident civilians and to improve health conditions in that section before the coming of our troops.

"We are providing a dental ambulance at a port in France for the use of our soldiers and sailors, and have organized a nurses' service for American Army use.

"Our hospital distributing service sends supplies to 3,423 French military hospitals and is laying in a large stock for future needs; our surgical dressings service supplies 2,000 French hospitals, and is preparing immense supplies for our own army.

"We are operating at the front line, in cooperation with the French Red Cross, ten canteens and are preparing to establish twenty more.

"We are operating six canteens for use of French soldiers at important railway centers, where we serve about 30,000 soldiers a day, and are planning many more.

"In Paris canteens, operated by us with the French, we are serving enormous numbers of soldiers as they come and go.

"We soon expect to have ready 12 rest stations for our own troops at important railway centers; also recuperation camps at suitable places for many of our soldiers.

"We are providing an artificial limb factory near Paris, and special plants for the manufacture of splints and nitrous oxide gas.

"We have contracted for a movable hospital in four units accommodating 1,000 men.

"A recreation center in connection with hospitals and diet kitchens.

"A casualty service for gathering information in regard to wounded and missing, and a medical research bureau.

"Our work with the civil population covers mainly children refugees and tuberculosis.

"We have opened a children's refuge and hospital at a point in the War Zone, where several hundred children have been gathered to keep them away from danger of gas and shell fire.

"At another point among the wrecked villages we have established a medical center and a traveling dispensary to accommodate 1200 children.

"We have undertaken extensive medical work for the repatriated children at Evian, about 500 of whom are daily returned to France from points within the German lines.

"We have also opened a hospital and convalescent home for these children at Evian, where we are also operating an ambulance service for the returning repatriates who are now coming in at a rate of 1000 a day.

"We are about to establish infant welfare stations in connection with each dispensary in the nation-wide system planned by the Rockefeller Foundation.

"We have taken over and are carrying on and developing an extensive tuberculosis work formerly in charge of Mrs. Edith Wharton and other Americans.

"We are completing, for the French, an unfinished tuberculosis sanatorium near Paris, and are adding to the barracks erected by the city of Paris. This means adding 1000 beds to those now available for tuberculosis patients.

"We are organizing a comprehensive health center in one of the departments of France.

"We are making arrangements on a large scale to help refugee families through the winter with clothing, bed, and shelter, and for this work the entire devastated district of France has been divided into six districts with a resident Red Cross delegate in each, and warehouses have been established at four points to which are shipped food, clothing, bedding, beds, household utensils and agricultural implements.

"We are carrying on repair work in four villages in the devastated region to enable returned families to stay throughout the winter.

"We are co-operating with French agencies in various kinds of relief work in the principal agricultural centers in the devastated region, and are supplying portable houses for the use of the families which have returned to this region.

"We are providing barracks to assist in the work of training disabled soldiers, and we expect to establish for them experimental agricultural stations.

"We are organizing extensive work for relief of Belgians, both children and grown people, and in this connection we are establishing warehouses near the Belgian front in order to assist the Belgians who may be liberated by a change in the fighting line.

"We are aiding the Queen of Belgium in her work for the children, and are assisting in the support of hospitals and other work for relief of Belgian soldiers.

"In addition we are bringing a certain number of children from occupied Belgium into France where they may be cared for.

"To enable us to carry on our work we have established large central warehouses in Paris, and distribution warehouses at important points from the sea to the Swiss border. In these warehouses will be stored hospital supplies, food, soldiers' comforts, tobacco, blankets and household goods, kitchen utensils, clothing, beds, and other articles for relief.

"Two hundred tons of supplies are arriving in Paris daily, and 125 tons are being reshipped to various branch warehouses.

"Our total warehouse capacity is 100,000 tons, and the warehouse personnel at present numbers 125 men, many of whom are volunteers—American men of education and business training not eligible for military service.

"Our transportation department, with a personnel of about 400, handles our supplies and furnishes automobiles for use in our work. It has an organized force at every port in France, and is able to handle about 350 tons of supplies daily.

"We use 400 motor car vehicles, 250 of which are trucks of various sizes.

"In addition we are preparing to operate a motor bus line through Switzerland from Germany to the French border to aid in transportation of repatriates and exchanged prisoners. We operate seven garages and make all repairs on our own cranes."

Newark, Del., Please Notice

In the picturesque language of George Ade, "the train seldom hesitates in going to Oskaloosa, Kas." The depot is more than a mile from the town.

Richard Earle, of "A Daughter of the Sun" company, which is the attraction at the Orpheum this week, was visiting a friend there last Summer, and having a business engagement in St. Joe, he was in a hurry to connect with the only train that left the town that day. He was riding to the depot in the hotel bus and was greatly annoyed by the bad road and the general debility of the team.

Finally, when the balky horses stopped altogether and Earle heard the whistle of the train in the distance, he lost patience and turning to the driver of the stage, said:

"What on earth made they build that depot so far from the town?"

The bus driver shifted his quid of tobacco. "Because they wanted it to be near the railroad, I reckon," he said.—Philadelphia Press.

ENDOWMENT CAMPAIGN ON To Provide For Denominational School

A campaign among the Methodist Churches of Delaware to raise a fund of $210,000 for the endowment of the Wesley Collegiate Institute (formerly the Dover Conference Academy) was successfully launched at a dinner given in Grace M. E. Church Parish house, Wilmington, last night. Judging from the spirit of the meeting, it is reported, there seems little doubt that the money will be raised by December 20, when the campaign closes. Bishop William Fraser McDowell was the guest of honor, and following the dinner he was introduced by Dr. Randolph.

The bishop delivered an address of wit and wisdom that stirred the company to much enthusiasm. He presented the cause of Christian education in forceful and apt language. He spoke with experience, because prior to his being elevated to the episcopacy, he was president of a great university in Denver, Colorado, and secretary of the Board of Education of the Methodist Church.

Henry R. Isaacs, a graduate of the Dover Institute, followed the bishop in a brief address, as did Calob E. Burehena, an alumnus of the Institute, who was accorded an enthusiastic reception because of his recent effort to make Wilmington a "dry" city.

John S. Mullin, Jr., a trustee of the Dover institution, made an address of much interest, recounting the great good that has come to the State through the work of the school. Dr. Leitzell, who is to conduct the campaign, presented the working plan and won the support of each diner through his magnetic personality. Melville Gambrell made an address of encouragement offering substantial help, and the dinner came to a close with the singing of "America."

The campaign that began last night is a part of the nation-wide movement in the Methodist Episcopal Church to raise $35,000,000 for the endowment of the educational institutions controlled by this church. The Board of Education of the church has raised in similar campaigns during the past two years over $10,000,000 for schools and colleges under Methodist control.

Things To Be Thankful For

Let us be thankful that even though our country is at war, we are fighting for no territorial indemnity for ourselves.

That, even though food is dear, we have as a people felt as yet no touch of actual want.

That there is no danger of an invader's foot upon our shores at this time.

That, even though there is industrial and practical strife within our own borders there is no division that justice and reason cannot bridge.

That, while all the world fights, all men talk of peace.

That there is a strong probability that Thanksgiving, 1918, may be the Greatest Peace Jubilee of all time.—Arm Life.

TRAVEL ON THE HIGH SEAS

Description of a Recent Voyage as Related by Correspondent

A letter recently received by Mrs. J. Wilkins Cooch of Newark, from a cousin, Miss Elizabeth S. Webb, for the last ten years a mission worker in Turkey, gives a vivid account of the traveler's experience on the high seas. Paragraphs from the letter follow:

"After going on board the steamer in Bordeaux we sat looking at the shore for a whole week, waiting for larger guns (the steamer was to be used in the future for transporting troops), our party was not allowed to return on shore because of our having come from an alien country. Finally three six inch guns were put in place, and the next day we started down to the mouth of the river, sixty miles, where they were tested by firing twenty shots apiece. Then another wait of twelve hours for a convoy, and at last on the eighth day a final start out to sea. A convoy of three vessels of various sizes, accompanied us, (one on each side while a third ran from side to side in the rear). At one time an aeroplane flew in front to make sure there no submarines.

No ship of this line had sailed for three weeks so our boat was crowded, American boys returning, French officers coming over to help train troops, men who had been sent over on various missions by our Government, students for Bryn Mawr, the captain of a sailing vessel which had been sunk by a submarine, teachers, tourists, trades people and our own missionary party of ten. After about ten hours the convoy left and we found ourselves alone on the open sea. A notice in each state-room informed passengers that in case of danger we would be notified by three long whistles, when each should put on her life-belt and immediately go on deck to the number given in the notice. (Ours was No. 7).

A notice on the bulletin board said that by order of the Captain none of the passengers were to undress the first two nights. The first two days we were all called on deck for life boat drill. Each put on her life belt and stood at her proper number while we were inspected to see that they were properly put on. For all it was a serious thing some did look indescribably funny. Our three French sisters, with their large wing-like caps and full skirts, some of the men, and probably we ourselves. Above each number was a life boat, containing bread and water, hanging really so that it could be lowered at a moments notice.

How thankful we are that it never became necessary to put our lessons into practice. When night came all the port holes were darkened by wooden shutters and a canvas curtain was drawn around the deck. While in the submarine region an effort was made not to have loud talking or unnecessary noise. I think every one breathed more freely when we got out to mid-ocean and realized that the danger was largely past. Imagine our joy when awaking Wednesday morning, October 10, we saw from our portholes the buildings on Long Island and knew that our voyage was over.

PLANS COMPLETED FOR POULTRY SHOW

$550 In Cash Prizes

Heeding the warning issued by the United States Department of Agriculture to conserve the poultry industry of Delaware as well as the nation and to put a stop to the wholesale slaughter of hens and pullets, the Diamond State Poultry and Pigeon Association will give its eleventh annual exhibition in Wilmington during the week of November 26th.

The United States Government has appropriated $144,000 to the American Poultry Association to encourage the breeding of pure bred fowls, and the State Board of Agriculture of Delaware, realizing that the poultry industry is the one business which is capable of producing meat for food consumption within four months from the time of hatching or breeding, has appropriated $300 to be distributed as cash prizes as an inducement to the farmers and breeders of Delaware to save their stock by showing the same at the coming show. Added to this amount the officials of the local association have secured $250 or more from private citizens and this money will also be used as cash prizes for the breeders.

Among fowls to be shown will be winners at the Trenton State Fair, Madison Square Garden, Hagerstown Fair, Delaware State Fair, Reading Fair, and others of note.

The fowls to be exhibited will outdo the goose that laid the golden egg in that they are egg producers and with eggs selling at 70 cents a dozen a laying pullet is almost equal to a "Liberty Bond."

This year's exhibition is in charge of William H. Sevier, who had charge of the affair last year, which was a success in every way. The executive committee in charge of the approaching show and other officers in charge of the show, are:

John G. Hartmann, first vice-president; Herbert Thornett, second vice-president; Harry E. Vincent, treasurer; William H. Sevier, secretary.

Executive committee—C. Barker McCulloch, chairman; Hon. Newton L. Grubb, Charles C. Speakman, Ralph Dale, William E. Langshaw, Lewis Fell.

Superintendent of Poultry—Walter F. Lenderking; assistants, Fred R. Campbells, Mrs. George A. Wolf, Geo. W. Hyatt.

Superintendent of Pigeons—Augustus F. Wahl; assistant, Thomas B. Donnelly.

Judges—Newton Cosh, W. J. Stokes, Lewis Fell.

Girls Form Athletic Association

Miss Mary Dennison, president of the Junior Class, has proposed a plan which the Juniors have been working on for some time; that is, the formation of an athletic association. This association will provide for inter-class basketball and tennis tournaments. Already the Sophomores and Freshmen have organized basketball teams and are planning a game in the near future. After discussion the student body voted to have an athletic association which the Juniors should further plan and organize, and a committee was appointed to draw up the constitution.

Errors Corrected

In the article appearing in last week's POST, under the caption, "Dr. Mitchell moves to New Home," Page 1 the name of the president of William and Mary College, Virginia, was incorrectly printed as Colonel Endi. It should have been Colonel Ewell.

In the article on page 7, "County Agent Compiles Dairy Ration", an error in the first paragraph in corrected as follows: Feed—Cotton seed meal—cost of feed, per ton, $60; protein 5.40; corn—per bushel, $1.36, etc. as printed.

Executive Board Meeting

A meeting of the Executive Committee of the Board of Trustees of Delaware College was held on Monday, November 12, at Brook Farm, the home of the president, Mr. Henry B. Thompson. Messrs. C. B. Evans, Daniel Corbit, H. R. Sharp, Chancellor Curtis and Dr. Mitchell were present.

Notives have been mailed announcing the regular meeting of the Board of Trustees to be held at the College on Tuesday, November 27th, at ten-thirty.

December Cosmopolitan

December Cosmopolitan, now on sale, will prove a mental stimulus to those who love good literature. Articles, serials and short stories by the world's foremost writers, illustrated by the most brilliant artists of our time—are not only interesting and entertaining, but highly inspirational as well.

Fannie Hurst, with her characteristic skill, has woven a beautiful tale of true and unselfish love in "On the Heights," "The Other Lobster," the first installment of a two-part story by Gouverneur Morris, is written in the customary fascinating manner of this versatile writer, and Edith Maevane offers a problem for deep and serious discussion in "For She Loved Much." There is another enchanting Henry the Ninth story, by Samuel Merwin, entitled "The Stimulant," and "In Came a Fat Man," by George Randolph Chester, the 101st story written around the characters of Wallingford and Blackie Daw.

Rex Beach reveals himself in the new light of a humorist in "On the Trail of the Cowardly Cougar," which relates his and Fred Stone's experiences when they went mountain-lion hunting in the wilds of Northern Arizona.

"Some Axioms of War Work," the second of a series of brilliant articles by Arnold Bennett, which will prove a real inspiration to the women of this country who are anxious to assist in war work.

Herbert Kaufman has written another sagacious article, "Stars, Not Stars," while Ella Wheeler Wilcox writes of "Knowledge" as only a brilliant and gifted woman may.

Lillie Langtry, the famous beauty, tells of her meeting with old King Leopold of Belgium in her interesting memoirs—and George Ade continues "The Fable of the Rise and the Flight of the Winged Insect," another of his inimitable Fables in Slang.

Then, of course, the three vastly interesting and absorbing serials are continued—Owen Johnson's "Virtuous Wives," "Camilla," by Elizabeth Robins and "The Restless Sex," by Robert W. Chambers. —Adv.

We Make Sure of Your Satisfaction

THAT'S the important thing when you buy; satisfaction; you can't get more than that. We make sure you'll get it here by quality, style, service, or money cheerfully refunded.

HOW much time and thought can you give to your wardrobe

TO get full style and quality—value in your clothes you must do one of two things. You must become a combination style, fabric, tailoring expert or you must rely upon the combined judgment of experts in all three subjects.

There is perfect blending of expert clothes judgment in Snellenburg Clothing—for instance take our overcoats.

We are showing for the young men a splendid array of military effects, such as "trenchers," belted backs, pleated backs—each coat just brimming over with style and snap, but at the same time within the bounds of good dressing—that is, not too extreme.

The fabrics are exceedingly fine, too—embracing many English, Scotch, Irish and American weaves in all the modish colorings.

At the factory (which, by the way, is our own) only expert clothing workers are employed, therefore you may rest assured that the tailoring is the best—absolutely.

This feature of operating our own factory also does away with the "middleman," the clothing coming direct to you. This saves at least 25 per cent.—sometimes as much as 33 1-3 per cent. for you.

Below is the range of our Overcoat prices, but come in regardless of whether you buy or not—and allow us the pleasure of showing you just the style you have been looking for.

COW TESTING ORGANIZATION ASSURED
County Agent Bausman Emphasizes Advantages

Enough members have been secured that the re-organization of the Diamond State Cow Testing Association is assured. Negotiations are now being carried on with a competent man from the middle west, with the approval of the association, to do the testing and keep the records. It is the desire of the association that the work begin at an early date.

It is to be regretted that every farmer who has ten or more cows is not a member of a cow testing association. Due to the high price of feed and labor it is more important this year than ever before that the dairy herd be entered in the testing association. A good cow will make as good a profit as she ever did but a poor one will lose far more money. A poor cow is worse than no cow. Occasionally a farmer states that he can tell his poor cows. Obviously he has an idea but to actually know is another thing. When the performances of the various cows in the herd are considered, that some of them start in with a heavy milk flow but drop off in a few months, that others start off with only a fair flow, but continue it throughout the year, and to know the cost of the feed that the various cows have consumed; I say to have all these facts in mind for each cow at the end of the year with any degree of accuracy where no records have been kept is a thing which the best dairymen of the country have found to be impossible.

Some of the farmers of the county have been informed that only the well bred herds should be entered in the testing association.

This is far from true. In fact, the purpose of the association is to take the very ordinary herd, test each cow and at the end of the year weed out those that have shown themselves to be unprofitable. We then advise raising the heifer calves from the best cows and we have found that after the farmer finds that the production of his herd is increasing, he is generally in favor of buying a better bull.

The County Agent is simply assisting the cow testing association to re-organize. If you are interested, write him or phone him at Newark.

DELAWARE PUTS UP SPLENDID FIGHT

Holds Swarthmore In First Half

Delaware was defeated by Swarthmore on Joe Frazer Field, last Saturday, by the score of 27 to 0. After playing Swarthmore 0 to 0, in the first half, Delaware weakened and the "Little Quakers" were able to pile up 27 points. The showing made by the "Blue and Gold" against their strong opponents was pleasing to every Delaware rooter, and especially their work in the first half when they practically out-played the Garnet eleven. By sheer fight and grit the "Blue and Gold" eleven held the much superior team on the defensive during the first half.

Wilson kicked off for Delaware, and, after two attempts to make gains, Durbin rumbled, giving Delaware the ball in the centre of the field. The Blue and Gold, through the fine work of Stewart and Plan, worked the ball to Swarthmore's 25-yard line, and Captain Wilson attempted a drop-kick from the field, but it failed. Delaware finished out this period with the ball in Swarthmore's territory all the time.

In the second quarter the "Little Quakers" were also on the defensive, but kept the ball near the centre of the field. Durbin and Cornog, Swarthmore's star backs, were unable to make any impression on Delaware's line in the first half. The entire Delaware team played a plucky game in the first half.

Stewart and Plan made gains, while Swarthmore made but two first downs during the half. Delaware followers were jubilant when the half ended 0 to 0.

In the third quarter a punt by McCaughan was blocked and bounced fifteen yards back of the line of scrimmage. Gillespie grabbed the ball and raced 15 yards for a touchdown. This returned to Swarthmore players the confidence which Delaware had knocked out of them in the first half. From that moment the Quakers had the advantage. They had to fight, nevertheless, for each of the three other touchdowns they made. Cornog and Westcott made substantial gains which resulted in the touchdowns. Gillespie and Howell, Swarthmore's ends, played an excellent game and were stars on the defensive.

The score indicates what a stiff fight Delaware put up. If the spirit of the team had not broken by the fluke which gave the first touchdown the score might have been a tie. Swarthmore got the breaks.

Marston and Fouk showed up well on the defensive. Jones also played good at centre. The absence of Carter in the game on account of a bad ankle, caused a certain lack of "pep" among the players. "Bess's lively chatter" seems to keep the "pep" of the team up. Every man deserves special credit for the game he put up and the Coach is to be congratulated on the result of the game. Altho Delaware came thru with the short end of the score the showing was excellent and with all conditions considered the game from a Delaware standpoint was a success.

Table with 2 columns: Delaware and Swarthmore. Lists players and their positions.

Touchdowns—Cornog, 3; Gillespie. Goals from touchdowns—Redpath, 3. Substitutions—Roach for Tyson, Holson for Mackie, Tyson for Carter, Loose for Marston, Holton for Mackie, Mackie for Holson. Referee—Merrill, Yale. Umpire—Sigman, Lafayette. Head linesman—Hoskins, Lafayette.

DELAWARE HAS ONE MORE GAME

Will Close Season With Mt. St. Mary's On Thanksgiving Day

As there will not be another game until Thanksgiving, Day Coach Baumgartner gave the Delaware College football squad a rest the first two days of this week. There was no practice Monday or Tuesday but the work was resumed this afternoon. The game on Thanksgiving Day will be the last of the season.

The squad welcomed the two days rest following the hard game with Swarthmore last Saturday and the lay off will no doubt benefit most of the squad, as they had been going hard since early in September with very little let up.

While the season has not been a great success, the schedule has been one of the hardest that a Delaware team has tackled for some years. It was the first season for Baumgartner as Coach, he succeeding William J. McAvoy, who had coached Delaware eleven for ten years and who is now a lieutenant at Camp Dix. Coach Baumgartner did not come to Delaware until about one week before the opening game which was with Maryland A. C., and consequently had little chance to get the squad in shape for that contest.

Opinions differ as to the work of the new coach, but there seems to be general satisfaction with the results obtained, taking into consideration the inexperienced material that he had to build a team from. There have been a number of set backs due to injuries and numerous changes were made by the coach to try and get a winning combination. The loss of Clancy who sustained a fractured collar bone shortly after the first game, weakened the team considerably, as he was by far the best end in the squad.

The showing of Delaware against Swarthmore in the first half of the game on Saturday was a surprise to everyone. The blue and gold put up a fight that made every son of Delaware proud of them, but the weight of the "Little Quakers" was too much for them in the last half.

To date Delaware has won two and lost five games. The team started off by losing to Maryland A. C., at College Park after Coach Baumgartner had been in charge but one week, and consequently had little opportunity to even judge of the ability of the members of the squad. This defeat was followed by a victory over Haverford on the latter's grounds which was the first time in many years that a blue and gold team had won from Haverford. Delaware next lost to Western Maryland and Dickinson, but defeated Gallaudet and then lost to Stevens and Swarthmore.

The game with St. Mary's Thanksgiving Day should bring out a large crowd. The two teams are apparently evenly matched and there is prospect of a close game. Mt. St. Mary's defeated Delaware last Thanksgiving.

Basketball At Women's College

On Friday, the first interclass of basketball given in the history of the Women's College was played between the Sophomore and Freshman classes. The game was swift and well played from start to finish. The Sophomores coming away with the laurels to a score of 18-4.

The Sophomores and Seniors vied with the Freshmen and their sister class, the Juniors in cheering. The class of '21 showed the most "pep" under the leadership of Carolyn Ray. The playing of Misses Mesick and Reynolds for the Sophomores and Misses Van Sant and Easby for the Freshmen was most commendable.

The line-up was as follows: Freshmen: Van Sant, Forward; Reynolds, (Captain); Dodson, Mellwaine; Layton, Centre; Mesick; Rodney, Baneroft; Easby, Dougherty; Fowler, Guard; Referee—Miss Bigelow.

SNELLENBURG ISSUES ANNIVERSARY BOOKLET

Twentytwo Years of Progress Recorded In Its Pages

From the presses of The Star Publishing Co., the publishers of The Sunday Star, The Delaware School Journal and Delaware State Medical Journal, there appeared in the store of N. Snellenburg and Company early last week a 96-page booklet, "The Twenty-second Anniversary Messenger and Christmas Shopping Guide of the N. Snellenburg Store."

This publication is declared to be one of the finest pieces of printing which has ever been turned out in a local print shop.

The Snellenburg Company spared no expense to make this souvenir booklet one worthy of public comment and one which will be pressed into service many times during the coming weeks while Wilmingtonians are buying their Christmas gifts.

No better description of this booklet can be presented than an article which appeared in The Labor Herald of yesterday, which read in part:

"Without a doubt, the booklet is one of the finest pieces of literature ever issued in the city. On one of the pages appearing in the booklet is a splendid letter of congratulation from Mayor John W. Lawson.

"The leading editorial is headed 'Of Wilmington, By Wilmington, For Wilmington,' and is really a gem of thought. "Under the caption 'The Store of Known Values,' George Frank Lord, advertising manager of the duPont Company, writes a most interesting article.

"Then a brief history of the store's progress is given, and a number of the bright store editorials that have appeared in the Wilmington newspapers are reproduced. A large number of nationally-known firms whose lines are distributed by the Snellenburg Store, publish announcements in the booklet.

"An authentic dress chart for the fall and winter appears in the booklet.

"Photographs of the salespeople and office force are reproduced. About the only thing that is missing is a cut of David Snellenburg, the genial manager of the Snellenburg Store, to whose credit rests the honor of building up one of the city's and State's most influential and successful mercantile institutions. F. Ray Phillips, the capable advertising director of Snellenburg's, deserves credit for the manner in which he arranged and edited the Twenty-Second Anniversary Messenger.

"A letter of congratulation from the Central Labor Union appears on page 64."

This booklet is being mailed out to customers of the local store or it may be obtained by applying at N. Snellenburg and Co. Store at Seventh and Market streets, any time before the supply is exhausted.

Scrubs To Meet National Farm School
