NEGRESS STABS COMMON LAW MATE TO DEATH

McKinney Towson Dies Of Wound Inflicted By Cordelia Gibbs; Affray Took Place In Road In Front Of House As Towson Chides Wife

WITNESS FINED $200

McKinney Towson, 31 year old negro, died Saturday night in the Homeopathic Hospital, Wilmington, from a stab wound inflicted that afternoon by his common-law wife, Cordelia Gibbs. Cordelia, who was arrested shortly after the stabbing took place, is held in the New Castle County Workhouse, without bail, on a charge of murder. The stabbing took place in the road in front of the house where the couple lived, on the road which connects South Chapel street and the Cooch's Bridge-Christiana road.

The Gibbs woman admitted stabbing her "man," but said that it took place in the house. Nelson Price, colored, and said to be the only witness of the affray, testified that the stabbing took place in the road. He said that the woman was in the house next door, occupied by Sherley Smallwood, white, and came out when her husband came home. Towson started to reproach her for something, and she walked up to him and plunged a large Boy Scout knife in his breast. The knife penetrated the left lung and the heart.

Towson was carried into the house, and Smallwood called Dr. Wallace Johnson, who came in response to the call and dressed the man's wound. Dr. Johnson called the ambulance and the police.

Newark Town Officer Cunningham and State Highway Police Officers Jewell and Leach went to the house where they arrested the Gibbs woman. She was taken to Wilmington.

The ambulance, driven by Thomas Sprugel, had misunderstood directions and had proceeded to Glasgow. Officers Leach and Cunningham started after it to direct it to the house. Just this side of Glasgow they stopped Nelson Price, who was zig-zagging down the road, and arrested him for drunken driving. At a hearing before Magistrate Thompson, it developed that Price was a witness of the stabbing. He was fined $200 on the charge of drunken driving, and held in $1000 bond as a material witness of the stabbing affray. He made a statement at the hearing. His fine was paid and bond deposited, and he was released.

The officers said that the Gibbs woman had been drinking, but that she did not show signs of intoxication. She and her husband had quarreled frequently, and about a month ago he had struck her on the head with a single tree he had taken off a mowing machine. It is thought that the murder was not premeditated because Cordelia had been keeping up the premium payments on Towson's insurance. Two years ago when the couple lived in one of the cannery shacks, they were arrested several times for disorder and fighting. On one occasion, the Gibbs woman attacked Chief Keeley when he went to place her under arrest.

Towson worked for the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, and had the reputation of being a steady worker.

LOCAL DAIRYMEN ELECT OFFICERS

Wallace Cook Chosen President Of Newark Branch Of Inter-State Milk Producers' Association

About 20 dairymen attended the meeting of the Newark local branch of the Inter-State Milk Producers' Association held Monday evening in Wolf Hall. Election of officers for the coming year and talks by I. R. Zollers, of the Philadelphia Association, and County Agent Ed William, Jr., were features of the meeting.

H. Wallace Cook was re-elected president for another year. Other officers elected were: T. Harold Little, vice-president; H. C. Milliken, secretary; Howard Williams, treasurer; and Leslie Ford, member of Executive Committee. T. Harold Little and Chester Patterson were chosen as delegates to attend the annual meeting to be held in Philadelphia on November 19 and 20.

Mr. I. R. Zollers, assistant secretary of the Inter-State Milk Producers' Association, was present in place of Mr. H. D. Allebach, president of the organization, who could not attend on account of a conflicting engagement. Mr. Zollers discussed the present market situation as regards the Philadelphia Milk Shed which covers all of the milk in that city and adjacent ones. He explained how the Inter-State Association was making considerable headway in looking after the milk producers' problems in the whole territory. He told of the recent price advance of .25 per 100 lbs. to the milk producer and how this figure was finally arrived at by arbitration under the direction of Dr. Clyde L. King, eminent milk economist.

Through misinterpreted news stories that went out to the public at the time of the advance in price on September 1; many dairymen believed that the milk company was receiving one-half of the advance of one cent per quart while the dairymen were getting the other one-half or the .25 cents advance. The assistant secretary explained very fully the details of this price agreement between the association and cooperating milk dealers, after both sides had agreed to abide by the arbitration decision of Dr. King. He said that the extra money received by the milk companies from this advance of one cent per quart did not go into their profits, but was all written off against loss of sales due to increase in price, increased drivers commissions and that the price was increased only on quart packages and not on pints which make about one-fourth of all of the companies sales. Coupled with the .25 a hundred increase this made up the complete .46½ per 100 lbs. or 1 cent per quart increase to the consuming public.

Mr. Zollers also cautioned the producers not to over do the market by flooding it with milk due to the new plans whereby a dairyman can make a new basic quantity during October, November and December, if he wishes to do so.

County Agent William discussed the results of the first six months of the New Castle County Cow Testing Association. He said, in part, that if the herds in the association continued to produce during the next six months as they have averaged in the past six, he expected that about five herds would produce around 300 lbs. of butterfat.

PREVENT FIRES SCHOOL SUBJECT

Fire Prevention Week Observed By Local Schools With Programs Teaching Safety

During this week in the Newark Schools emphasis is being placed on the matter of Safety in connection with Fire Prevention. In the social science classes stress was laid on the economic and safety point of view. The science classes turned their attention to "what to do in case of fire"—the use of extinguishers and causes of fire which are the direct result of carelessness. In health and hygiene classes special stress was laid on first aid in case of injury from fire. The agriculture classes directed their attention to safety from fire on the farm. Fire insurance was studied in the classes in arithmetic.

In the junior senior high school assembly on Wednesday the First Year Junior High, section 7-2, presented a Safety Playlet, under the direction of Miss McKinsey, entitled "The Banishment of King Carelessness." The theme of the playlet was that with the aid of everybody Common Sense and Safety were able to banish Carelessness, Fire and Disease.

BEAGLE TRIALS HERE THIS WEEK

Eastern Beagle Club Has One Of Largest Fields In Its History; Will Hold Show On Saturday

The fifteenth annual trials of the Eastern Beagle Club started near Newark on Monday morning, and will continue until Saturday afternoon. The club, which comprises members from Delaware, Maryland, Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Virginia, has been holding its trials here for a number of years, and this year the entry list is one of the largest in its history. Last night the club held its annual banquet at the Delaware Tea House.

On Saturday afternoon the club will introduce an innovation to the meeting. There will be a specialty show of the beagles held in the Newark Armory, and about 30 dogs will be judged on the bench. The judging will start at 2 o'clock, and Fred Heyler, of Gladstone, Pa., will make the awards.

The members of the club are making their headquarters at the Washington House, and the dogs are quartered on the Thomas Claringbold farm, near Roseville. The trials are run in that vicinity.

Two trials were run yesterday, the 15 inch all age class for males, and the first series of the 15 inch all age class for females.

The winners in the finals for the males were: First, Bowen's Dix, owned by J. L. Bowen; second, Paul's Dale Select, owned by H. F. Edwards, of Malvern, Pa.; third, Paul's Dale Chatter, owned by W. N. Paul, Moorestown, N. J.; fourth, Yellow Creek Pat, owned by H. P. Evans, Mt. Holly, N. J.; fifth, Vagabond Bob, owned by O. R. Grove, Newark, N. J. There were 29 dogs entered in the class.

There were 18 entered in the 15 inch class, and the following will run the final series today: Haig's Temp's Bumbo Polly, Roanok Crafty, Ridges Lassie, Marlbrook Toots and Oswco Trizite.

There 13 inch derby will also be run today.

It is thought that because of the large number of entries, the trials will not be completed until Saturday afternoon.

Ross S. Robinson, of Wilmington, is president of the club, and William T. Roe, of Sudlersville, Md., is secretary.

60 COWS PASS 1000 LB. MARK

Herds In County Association Make Fine Milk And Butter Averages

Sixty cows, owned by members of the New Castle County Cow Testing Association, produced over 1,000 lbs. of milk each during the month of September. The highest producer gave 2,028 lbs. of milk during this period, while the next in quantity gave 1,491 lbs. Both were Holsteins. Ten cows made over 50 lbs. of butterfat per animal for their owners. These figures were taken from the monthly summary of the association by the tester, Mr. Alois Leinen.

Mr. Leinen supervised the milking and testing of 381 cows during the month, and with 51 dry cows the total number owned by members was 432 cows. On average figures each cow's product was valued at $22.20 produced at a .29 feed cost for one lb. of butterfat or $1.19 feed cost for each 100 lbs. of milk. The total feed cost for the average cow was $6.89 and she produced 687 lbs. of milk and 23.1 lbs. of butterfat during the 30 day testing period.

The mixed Guernsey and Holstein herd, owned by Wilson T. Pierson, of Hockessin, led the association with an average of 33.95 lbs. of butterfat and with an 890 lb. per cow average of milk. Mr. Pierson has 15 cows in his herd and all were in production during the month. The next five highest average herds in butterfat were: Pussey Passmore, Talleyville; 30.46; Fred Stafford, Centerville, 28.9; George Burge, Middletown, 28.4; Karl Feucht, Elkton, 27.7; Brookwood Farm, Greenville, 27.1.

In milk production the five highest herds after Mr. Pierson's were: Fred Stafford, Centerville, 883; H. W. Cook, Newark, 853; Brookwood Farm, Greenville, 850; Karl Feucht, Elkton, 759; and B. V. Armstrong, Middletown, 712 lbs. milk per cow.

"With a very large majority of Holsteins in the association, it is to be expected that this breed would predominate in milk production and probably in butterfat production," commented Mr. Leinen when he presented the following six highest individuals in butterfat. 1st, Fred Stafford, Holstein, 66.92 lbs.; 2nd, Wilson Pierson, Holstein, 64.80 lbs.; 3rd, Pussey Passmore, Jersey, 59.89 lbs.; 4th and 5th, Karl Feucht, Holstein, 55.84 and 52.99 lbs.; and 6th, Fred Stafford, Holstein, 52.60 lbs. butterfat.

The September test completed the first six months of the association and now is the time for any new members who want to join to see the County Agent, Ed William, Jr., of Newark, Mr. Paul Mitchell, president, of Hockessin, or Mr. J. R. Danks, secretary-treasurer, of Winterthur. The association officials are anxious to increase the membership and they invite any dairyman in the county who is interested to get in touch with any of the above mentioned people.

Rubbish should be placed on the curb the night before the collection.

ANGLE PARKING PLAN REJECTED BY COUNCILMEN

Decide Main Street Too Narrow To Permit Parking At Angle; Suggest Time Limit Parking; To Improve Sewage Disposal And Power Lines

PETITIONS

At the regular monthly meeting of the Council of Newark, held Monday night, it was decided the plan of establishing angle parking on Main street would not be practical, and that some other measure would have to be adopted to relieve the congestion in the business district.

The plan for angle parking on the north side of the street had been suggested by the Chamber of Commerce, and had been written into an ordinance by the Council. The ordinance had had two of its necessary three readings. It was decided that Main street was too narrow for such a parking system, and that traffic congestion would be increased by it. It was suggested that a parking time limit be enforced to keep all-day parkers off the street. It was also suggested that Center street, newly improved, be made a one-way street. This, it was thought, would relieve some of the parking congestion.

Two petitions were read to the Council. One was from William A. Lair, Jr., of Landenberg, Pa., asking that the Council reimburse him for damages to the amount of $12.45. These damages were sustained by a truck he was driving which went into a ditch on East Main street. The opinion expressed by the Council was that the accident was caused by Lair's carelessness, but an investigation was ordered.

Mayor Collins read a letter from J. K. Johnston, vice-president of the National Vulcanized Fibre Company, in which Mr. Johnston asked what the Council intended to do about the condition of Margaret street, which runs past the National plant, and over which is a railroad spur into the plant. Mr. Johnston stated that with every rain this street was down and covered the railroad crossing, and that cars had been derailed because of this condition. He said that this had been brought to the attention of the Council on numerous occasions, but that nothing had ever been done.

Mayor Collins stated that the condition presented engineering difficulties and that the matter had not been ignored. He said that he would make it a point to meet Mr. Johnston on the ground, and see if something could not be done to improve this street.

It was announced that the electric light bulb contract was about to expire, and that local dealers could submit bids on a basis of $300 requirements.

CHAS. PIE WINS GOLFING TITLE

Defeats Brother In 36 Hole Final For Newark Championship; Youngest Club Titleholder

Charles Pié was crowned golf champion of the Newark Country Club on Saturday, when he defeated his brother, Paul, Jr., 9 and 8, in the 36-hole final round of the championship series. Charles, who is 16, is the youngest player ever to have held the championship of the local club.

The championship, this year, developed into more or less of a family affair with the Pié family. Two weeks ago, Charles put out his father, Paul F. Pié, Sr., and went into the final round with his brother, Paul F., Jr.

Charles has been playing remarkable golf all season, and a few weeks ago established a new amateur record for the local course with a par 70. This mark has only been bettered by one player, Eddie Ginther, the local professional, who holds the course record with a 66 made this summer.

F. I. Crow won the final in the second sixteen of the club championship matches by defeating H. C. Souder, 3 and 2.

On Saturday there will be a one-club tournament at the Newark Country Club.

However, the firemen seem to be getting it under control.

Weir, pastor of Lower Brandwine Presbyterian Church, will be the speaker for the afternoon service. This rally-day service is an annual event, and special reference is made at this time to the cemetery adjoining the church, and an effort made to raise funds for its care and upkeep.

Beginning with Sunday, October 20, the regular preaching service will be at 2:30 o'clock in the afternoon, with Sunday School immediately preceding, at 1:45.

of the business session: Vocal solo, "Little Pal," Frances Louth; Jewish Song, R. Earle Dickey, A. Durrell Vincent, George McCarns; and two guessing contests, the first won by Mr. Charles Beatty and the second won by the men's team, Mr. Spence, leader.

Chicken thieves have recently become active again in this vicinity. Three times they have visited the poultry houses of Mr. Frank Moody at Silver Hill Farm. On another occasion Mr. G. Paul Murray, living on the road to Cooch's Bridge, lost practically all his laying hens. In some neighboring communities, the farmers have organized in order to make an effort at stopping these depredations, but so far with little success.

What might have been a serious accident occurred just outside of Christiana early Saturday evening. A young man and a young woman in a Viking car, sailing along the road from Hare's Corner to Christiana, making sixty miles an hour, failed to make the turn at the intersection with Bears Road. Instead, the car kept straight ahead, crossed the Bear Road, climbed the bank on the other side, and came to a stop in a field on what is known as the "sand-lot," sunk to the fenders in the ground softened by a week of rain. After long and concerted effort on the part of a number of passing motorists, the big car was put back on the road and proceeded on its way with no damage to itself and no injury to its occupants. Fortunately it was for them, however, that at that particular spot there are no trees, no deep ditches, and no telegraph poles to interfere with the rush of a heavy car leaving the road at such a speed.

Mrs. James Appleby and her cousin, Mrs. Smith Rettew, who has been visiting her for some time, were dinner guests on Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Vernon Lynam, of Stanton. Later in the afternoon and evening, Mrs. Appleby entertained Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brierley, of Newark, and Mr. and Mrs. Herman Henderer and Mr. Harry Fritz, of Wilmington.

Little Miss Ella Mae Maclary, daughter of Mrs. R. Elisabeth Maclary, formerly of this place, returned to her home in Newark Sunday evening after a two weeks' visit at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Maclary, of Newport. While there, Ella Mae celebrated her fifth birthday, and in honor of the event her grandparents entertained at a birthday dinner on Sunday.

Miss Frances Louth and Mr. Robert Sapp were Sunday visitors at the home of Miss Elizabeth Campbell, of Stanton.

Miss Katherine Phelps spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Phelps. Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. Phelps also had as guests, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Appleby of near New Castle, and Mrs. William H. McCoy, of Hare's Corner.

Mr. Olan J. Cleaver is suffering from an infected finger, caused by running a splinter in it while at work at the Krebs Chemical Works in Newport. His injury is being treated by Dr. Merritt Burke, of Newark.

Mr. Charles Burge, who has been seriously ill at his home here for several weeks, is reported as slightly improved, though still confined to his bed.

Pacifism and Peace

In other columns on this page appears a letter written by Mr. Edward L. Richards, in which he defends the cause of pacifism and takes us to task in a kindly way for an attack on pacifistic organizations, which was made in the September issue of The Post.

We know that Mr. Richards writes sincerely and with the highest motives in mind, and we have the same hope for America that is expressed in the quotation, which Mr. Richards enclosed with his letter. We do, however, differ with Mr. Richards, and with most pacifist organizations as to the practical procedure to attain the ends of peace.

In the roster of many of the pacifist organizations appear names of citizens of the highest ideals and motives, and these organizations and names are being used by the Communist party in its campaign of subversivism against the government, institutions and ideals of this nation. Disarmament and pacifism are two of the strongest factors in the campaign of the Communist (Third) International in America; and the Communist party is counting on these factors to weaken this nation to a point where Communism can forcibly establish its doctrines of atheism and anarchism in this country.

Some of the pacifist organizations have been organized by the Communists, but the most useful of the pacifist organizations to the program of the Communists are those who have no taint of Communism connected with them. Into such organizations, the Communist party has cleverly insinuated disguised agents of its own, to see that the work of the organization is directed along lines useful to the purpose of Communism. We will take one such organization, and one such individual as an example. Mr. Richards mentioned Frederick Libby in his letter, so we will take Mr. Libby, an active and influential member of the National Council for the Prevention of War. Here is an organization which has the support of many influential, highly respectable and patriotic citizens. They form a highly respectable and unwitting mask for a character of the type of Libby. Probably not many of them know that Libby has been forbidden speech in the schools of Washington, D. C., because of treasonable and seditious utterances against the Government of this country; and that Libby has been actively identified with organizations supported by the Garland Fund, a fund established by the infamous and notorious free-love advocate, Charles Garland. There is just where the pacifistic danger is greatest. In respectable organizations, which have been made tools to serve the purposes of Communism. In them, Communism works secretly and insidiously, disguised by apparent high ideals of patriotism.

We do not feel that the ends of World Peace can be obtained by this Nation through disarmament and pacifism. In fact we feel convinced that these two factors would produce just the opposite effect. We want America to be the leader in the move for World Peace, and we believe that America will eventually lead the forces that will provide World Peace. But we do not believe that America can do this if it disbands its armies, junks its navies and leaves its shores unprotected. It will take force to produce peace just as force produced peace in 1918, and America must be in a position to preserve the sanctity of its own institutions, before it can be a dominating element in the establishment of World Peace. There are times when militancy is the shortest road to peace. Even Jesus Christ, the Man of Peace, became militant when the occasion required it, and used force to drive the money lenders from the Temple.

Practically speaking, we do not believe that pacifism and peace are synonymous; or that pacifism will produce peace in the world, today. Just as America must have police to maintain peace, so must the world be policed to keep peace. We do not want America a militaristic nation, but we want America to be strong enough to maintain peace for itself and establish and maintain peace for the rest of the world. In order to do this its strength must be evident, and it must be ready for use if needed. Consider what conditions of peace the world might have today, if in 1917 America had been completely disarmed, and if its citizens had all been extreme pacifists, refusing to fight.

Fire Prevention Week

This week is designated, nationally, as Fire Prevention Week, and agencies and institutions throughout the country are releasing educational propaganda on the prevention and the combatting of fire.

Our local fire record for the past year has been good, but there have been heavy fire losses, particularly in the rural districts, which have been due to lack of necessary precautions.

There have been many chimney fires due to unclean chimneys. These could easily have been prevented. The local Fire Company recommends the use of Kill-Soot, a powder which will clean a chimney, or extinguish a fire in a chimney. It is inexpensive and easy to use, and there is no reason why any chimney should be allowed to foul to the point where it will catch fire.

Probably the greatest fire losses during the past year have been due to lack of water supply on farms to fight fire. The local firemen have been urging farmers for years to build ponds near their buildings so that an adequate water supply is available in the event of fire. Such a pond is very valuable fire insurance.

Fire Prevention Helps

The following fire prevention helps have been suggested by the officials of the Aetna Hose, Hook and Ladder Company:

Put the Fire House number on the cover of your telephone book. (Aetna's number is 329.) If you live in the county be sure to give explicit directions for reaching your place. Keep your chimneys clean. Don't let oily rags and waste accumulate in garages. When making a fire call, tell the operator, "It's an Emergency Call!" Burn rubbish and papers in a metal can or wire container. Cut down high grass and weeds. If you are in the country, provide a water supply for fire. Call firemen first, then fight the fire yourself. Don't burn grass or rubbish on a windy day. Don't pile rubbish against buildings. Don't drive within 300 feet of a fire engine, and don't part within 500 feet of a fire.

In Defense of Pacifist Organizations

We are publishing the following letter and quotation, sent us by Mr. Edward L. Richards, because we have considerable respect for Mr. Richards' opinions, and because we are impressed with much that he says. In our editorial column, under "Pacifism and Peace," we are making comment on Mr. Richards' letter.—Ed.

Newark, Del., October 5, 1929. Mr. Chas. B. Jacobs, Jr. Dear Mr. Jacobs:

I have been reading The Newark Post ever since Everett Johnson started it and am among the many who appreciated him, his paper and the things for which he stood. You are continuing his motto—"Good Roads, Flowers, Parks, etc." which makes me feel that you are trying worthily to follow him. In the December 22, 1926 issue of the Post under your associate editorship, you reprinted a Christmas editorial written by Mr. Johnson. He could not have written that had his heart not been overflowing with love, peace, good will and friendliness to all and I do not believe he, if living now, could construe the work of the organizations to which you call our special attention in your issue of September 26th, as promoting a type of sackerism and un-Americanism really to be astonished and alarmed about.

I am interested in and contribute toward some of these organizations and cannot bring myself to feel, that by so doing I am doing wrong. I am willing to grant that your Army friend and these organizations are working for the same end and that some of the latter's ideas are impractical, but as promoters of ideals and practical working forces which side is best, his or theirs? Jesus, who was in Everett Johnson's mind, as I understand him, was not at all concerned about preparedness even for defense but he was concerned and very busy, not only preaching on Sundays and special occasions, but actually putting into practice love, understanding and good will, making them practical working forces in the lives of those with whom he came in contact. It may take a little more faith to trust in these higher and finer forces than in guns but surely we can, with better grace, pray for their effectiveness. Anyway, I feel happy in the company of at least some of your frowned upon organizations and could not resist the impulse to write you in their defense.

The enclosed card, "America First," sponsored by our friend, Frederick Libby's group, expresses, it seems to me, a type of worthy Americanism. With best wishes to you, Very truly, Edw. L. Richards.

America First

Not merely in matters material, but in things of the spirit. Not merely in science, inventions, motors, and skyscrapers, but also in ideals, principles, character.

Not merely in the calm assertion of rights, but in the glad assumption of duties.

Not flaunting her strength as a giant, but bending in helpfulness over a sick and wounded world like a Good Samaritan.

Not in splendid isolation, but in courageous cooperation.

Not in pride, arrogance, and disdain of other races and peoples, but in sympathy, love, and understanding.

Not in treading again the old, worn, bloody pathway which ends inevitably in chaos and disaster, but in blazing a new trail, along which, please God, other nations will follow, into the new Jerusalem where wars shall be no more.

Some day some nation must take that path—unless we are to lapse once again into utter barbarism—and that honor I covet for my beloved America.

And so, in that spirit and with these hopes, I say with all my heart and soul, "America First." —Bishop G. Ashton Oldham.

The Atheistic Movement In the United States

The following letter from Lieutenant Victor E. Devereaux deals with the atheistic factor in the general program of the Communist program in this country. As atheism is one of the dominating tenets of Communism, its growth in the United States is of particular significance. Lieutenant Devereaux is armed with authoritative facts, and his letter makes startling reading. It is reading that should awaken the public to a realization of the actual and serious menace of a force back of the promotion of such doctrines.—Ed.

Port Du Pont, Del., October 7, 1929 Mr. Charles B. Jacobs, Jr., Editor, The Newark Post, My dear Mr. Jacobs:

The series of letters which you have so kindly published for the information of your readers, have dealt principally with the insidious and destructive forces of communism in the United States; the facts given have established a definite relationship between communism-socialism and pacifism in the prosecution of the communist program the world over, and a number of detailed instances have been cited showing the methods used in playing up human responsiveness by the anti-American organizations, in order to gain their ends.

Closely interwoven in this unending chain of subversivism is the atheistic movement in the United States, a movement that openly, wilfully and deliberately attacks God, Home and Country. In consideration of the evidence in my possession, I do not hesitate to say that the American Association for the Advancement of Atheism, commonly known as the 4A, is one of the most insidious, dangerous and destructive organizations of the anti-American forces. This infamous, blasphemous body, together with other atheist organizations such as the "Freethinkers of America" and the "American Anti-Bible Society," have deliberately set out to destroy religion and the Church.

Like that of communism-pacifism-socialism, the propaganda of atheism is insidious, and creeps in upon us when we least expect it. From their own records we read: "The spread of Atheism is evident in the changing of the governing relations of the two sexes. Divorce is more freely granted; Birth Control is widely practiced; and Eugenics is gaining ground. Birth Control is practical Atheism."

Looking further down the report of the 4A, I find the following: "Christmas is more and more being celebrated without reference to Jesus. Easter too is ceasing to be a holy day. It also is of pagan origin. We challenge the clergy to explain why Easter is a moveable date. Easter derives from 'Astarte.'"

The American Association for the Advancement of Atheism gleefully boasts of the futile attempts to stem the spread of atheism, and tells of its plans to establish branches in every center of population, and to maintain representatives in every community. It advocates an Atheist International, and states that its officers are now engaged in organizing the World Union of Atheists.

This Godless organization borders on the ragged edge of its privilege of free speech, when it states: "The hour to overthrow the Church has come.

Arise, ye prisoners of the priest! Strike down the God superstition! The Clergy are powerful because you are on your knees. Stand up! Cast aside supernatural faith and fear! Be men! Prepare for the oncoming religious revolution."

Such is the openly avowed intention of the 4A, which also claims to have Student Forums in various schools and colleges in the United States. It claims a recent branch in a California high school, for instance, which calls itself "The Hedonic Host of Hell-bent Heathens." There is probably no doubt that they are "Hell-bent."

Listen to this: "In high schools and colleges, as well as preparatory schools, there are Atheist societies, which though not organized by the 4A, were the result of its activity. These societies are numerous. They are not affiliated or even in touch with us, but should be. Members becoming acquainted with them should inform us so that we may render proper aid."

Again, "There is much Atheism in the Church. Heresy is rampant among the clergy, a few of whom openly express their rejection of religious dogma, without fear of expulsion. Even the Methodist Church now tolerates clergymen, such as the Rev. Dr. James Hardy Bennett of New York, who preach that Jesus was physically the son of Joseph and Mary, who told the Virgin Birth story to shield themselves. There is an increasing number of clergymen who conduct 'services' at which no prayers are offered and where no reference is made to God. A greater number employ the old theological terms, but explain that they speak figuratively."

Is not the moral code based on religious teachings? Is not the home the foundation upon which the moral code rests? Likewise, is not the home the keystone that supports substantial and just governments? The home in which religious sentiments are wanting, is absolutely the breeding place for hatred, for those who, angered by their own failures, and filled with hatred for their more successful brothers, are eager to carry the red flag of anarchy and preach the destructive doctrines of communism. The inference is obvious; atheism is the religion of communism, and is just as surely destructive of God, Home and Country, as is communism-pacifism-socialism.

We must concede that the Church and the School are the strongest bulwarks of civilization. Here our youth is taught to believe in God, and to understand the philosophy of mankind. If we, as upright American citizens, fathers and mothers of American youth, are going to allow the destructive forces of Anti-Americanism, Anti-God, and Anti-everything under the sun that is decent, to invade our schools and churches, without lifting a hand against them, we might as well supinely prepare for "The Day" when communism intends to turn the world topsy-turvy with an enveloping mantle of red.

Very sincerely yours, Victor E. Devereaux, 2nd Lieut., Eng-Res. Secretary-Treasurer.

It was voted to buy one pump for the sewage pumping station to replace a pump which was not equal to the work. It was stated that the practice of allowing clothing, wood and other material to enter the sewer made this necessary.

It was voted that the Mayor and the light committee be authorized to purchase necessary materials to extend the power and light lines, as a measure to cut down loss in voltage. The Wilmington Traction Company will do the work at their own expense.

A bill of $9,211.50 was presented by the Olivere Construction Company for work already completed in the street improvement program. It was decided to pay this bill, withholding 15 per cent.

Councilman Hubert reported that street lighting was badly needed on South Chapel street, and it was decided to install two additional lights. William J. Lovett was appointed to serve on the Permanent Memorial Committee to replace ex-Councilman Henning.

The treasurer reported $89,200.87 in the treasury on October 1. The Alderman deposited $344 in fines and license fees.

SENATOR CLAIMS RURAL SCHOOLS ARE NEGLECTED

Editor Newark Post: We read from time to time about our State School Board, also the Governor has requested this board to have all of the school buses and drivers examined, this is wise and the proper thing to do. If they had taken the hint, last January, when I called on Mr. Holloway and Adams with a fellow Senator at their office in Dover. At this time I made request to have signs placed north and south of the school on the main highway leading north to Newark and south to Dover, etc. I also advised them of the dangerous curve south of the school. At this time also called their attention to the crowded condition of the bus; boys and girls sitting on each other's laps; not enough seats; also the reckless manner in which it was driven at times around this dangerous curve. Mr. Adams replied and said that each school bus had $100,000 insurance on it, as much and to take for granted that money would be paid if children were injured. This was all I got out of him on this subject.

Relative to the signs he said they would be placed. This went on for months. I met the gentleman again and jogged his memory. He said that he had taken it up with the Highway Department, and to date we have no signs. The only school in the state that has no safety signs is Welsh Tract. I also spoke to them of manner that children had of getting to and from school. Children must walk 3 miles to school unless their parents hauled them. I told them that a bill would be passed to compel them to haul the children. The bill did pass and the limit was a half mile. This bill passed the Senate with all 17 members voting and a large majority in the House. The School Board got busy and it was killed by veto. At the next session it will be passed earlier in the session and we will have our chance to help the little children that plough through the snow and rain.

One day last week two little girls left Pleasant Valley School to walk to their homes, one and one-quarter miles, it was raining very hard at the time. They had walked about one-quarter of mile when the school bus passed them. Did it stop, I say it did not. The worst of it was that it was not half loaded as it had brought the Newark children home and was returning to Newark.

I do not think that many people would have passed them. This is what the School Board does for the rural children.

Signed, Frederick D. Downs, State Senator 6th Dist.

NEWARK OPENS WITH VICTORY

High School Eleven Defeats West Nottingham, 20-0; Second Team Scores In First Period

The Newark High School football team opened its season, here, Saturday, by beating West Nottingham Academy, 20 to 0. Coach Gillespie started the second team and it made a touchdown and a safety in the first quarter. The regular line-up was later put into the game, but substitutions were frequent, so that nearly every man on the squad had a chance to play. Captain Frank Mayer was the only regular in the backfield; "Rip" Smith and Ned McCully both being on the casualty list. However Smith was in uniform and would have been used if needed.

Newark made its other two touchdowns in the second and third periods. Nottingham, constantly on the defensive, never came within threatening distance of a score.

The features of the game were Captain Mayer and Dean, a substitute back. Dean's plunges through the line and swoops around the wings were responsible for substantial gains and he will make a strong bid for a berth on the varsity line-up. The work of Willis and Widdoes on the ends was also impressive.

Newark will play its first league game, here, on Friday, against Middletown. The game is called for 3 o'clock. Line-up:

Newark High W. Nottingham
West... left guard... Gardner
Johnson... center... Reese
Benson... right tackle... Ardenger
Widdoes... right end... Poist
Fi. Mayer... quarterback... Brown

Touchdowns—Mayer 2, Barrow.
Safety—Newark. Substitutions—For Newark: Sommermeyer for Rittenhouse; McDowell for Vanney; Wallace for McDowell; Surratt for West; Gallagher for Benson; Willis for Widdoes. West Nottingham: McCush for Poist; Poist for Crosby; Crosby for Reese. Referee—Loomis. Umpire—Winters. Headlinesman—Doordan.

AN ECONOMIC PHENOMENON

A recent estimate places the number of shareholders in American industries at 15,000,000. Twenty years ago the number of persons possessing stock was about 500,000, one-thirtieth of the present total.

It is no wonder that we are hearing more and more about the stock exchanges of the country, and that a steadily increasing percentage of our citizens are interesting themselves in finance. So general has our prosperity become that for the first time in history the person of average means finds himself in a position to buy an interest in the companies which he patronizes or works for.

The development of stock exchanges in leading cities is reducing the possibilities for crookedness and fraud and enabling the general public to more easily become an active factor in the industrial and financial structure of the country.

This is an outstanding economic movement of the century. Its social and political implications cannot be measured. They cannot even be imagined at present. If the facts of today are any augury for tomorrow, the present investment trend of our nation will bring greater prosperity, comfort and power to the masses of the people.

GUINEA FOR GAME

Guinea fowl are used extensively as a substitute for game birds and guinea raising in small flocks on general farms is becoming more profitable. The demand in late summer at city markets is for young birds weighing from 1 to 1 1/2 pounds. As the fall season advances heavier birds are in demand. Guineas are fed in much the same way as chickens, but they need less feed as they are natural rangers and obtain much of their feed in that manner.

We begin by fooling others and end by fooling ourselves.—Imperial.

Blue and Gold Defense Proves Strong In Checking Attack Of Heavier Team

The University of Delaware football team opened its fiscal year, last Saturday, at New Brunswick, with Rutgers. Delaware did well financially, and also made an excellent showing in football. The light and inexperienced Blue and Gold eleven, with only two weeks' practice behind it, held the burly, well-trained and drilled Rutgers team to a score of 19 to 0.

Rutgers made a touchdown in each of the first three periods, and was held scoreless in the last. Delaware made one bid for a score when Kane, the Blue and Gold left end, intercepted a pass and ran it back to Rutgers 20 yard line. Rutgers then suffered a 15 yard penalty, and Delaware tried vainly to break through for the other 5 yards, but was unsuccessful.

While Delaware was unable to develop much in the way of a sustained offense against its heavy opponents, it showed a strong and varied defense. Kane, Warren and Benson stood out in defensive work in the line, and the backfield was able to smother Rutgers aerial attack.

PENNA. COURT RULING IMPORTANT TO MOTORISTS

Proceedings for minor offenses under the Motor Vehicle Code recently passed in Pennsylvania must be brought before the nearest available magistrate and if instituted elsewhere, will be set aside for want of jurisdiction, according to an opinion of state-wide effect handed down by President Judge Hargest of the Court of Common Pleas of Dauphin County, in the case of Commonwealth vs. H. B. Good.

A defendant proceeded against before a magistrate not having jurisdiction, may follow one of two courses. He may waive a hearing or may submit to a hearing and then appeal; and in either case when the matter reaches the Court of Quarter Sessions may move to dismiss for want of jurisdiction.

Commenting on Judge Hargest's opinion, Linnaeus L. Hoopes, Executive Secretary of the Delaware Automobile Association, A. M. A., Eleventh and West streets, Wilmington, Delaware said:

"This opinion is of State-wide importance to motorists traveling in Pennsylvania. As this State is so close it is of particular importance to Delaware motorists. It is the first judicial interpretation of one of the most important procedural provisions of the new Code. It applies to all the numerous summary offenses under the Act, including speeding, reckless driving and defective lights, but not to the more serious cases known as felonies or misdemeanors, complaints with relation to which may be brought before any magistrate in the county in which the offense was committed. A very important feature of the opinion is the declaration by the Court that whether the case proceeds to a hearing before a magistrate and the defendant appeals, or whether the defendant in the first instance exercises his right to waive a hearing, the question of jurisdiction can be raised when the case reaches the quarter Sessions. This decision will undoubtedly be used as the basis for steps to break up the unwarranted practice of certain State highway patrolmen in instituting all their cases before a few selected magistrates, who in the course of time fail to act impartially but at the dictations of the officer."

In the case before Judge Hargest, the testimony disclosed that the defendant was stopped by a constable about one-eighth of a mile from the border line of Penbrook, near Harrisburg, and was advised that his rear light was not burning. The constable, instead of bringing the complaint locally, filed it before Alderman Charters, of Harrisburg, although there were two justices of the peace in the Borough of Penbrook and one alderman in the City of Harrisburg who were nearer to the point of violation, and it was clear that at least two of them were available. The defendant appeared before the Harrisburg alderman and waived a hearing, and when the matter came up before the Dauphin County Court a motion was made to dismiss the proceedings on the ground that they were fatally defective because the alderman before whom they were instituted, had no jurisdiction. The case was dismissed by Judge Hargest, who declared:

"The statute is plain, positive and mandatory. Jurisdiction was given to the nearest available magistrate, and there were three nearer than the alderman before whom the charge was brought, two of whom, as far as the evidence disclosed, were available. We may say, in passing, that committing magistrates should first inquire into the jurisdiction, under this statute, before accepting cases. The defendant lost no rights by waiving a summary hearing and giving bond to appear in court. He could raise the question of jurisdiction at any time. Even though he had taken an appeal it would not have operated to give consent to jurisdiction. When, therefore, the evidence disclosed the lack of jurisdiction of the alderman it was the duty of the court, on motion of the defendant, to dismiss the case, which was done."

THE DAY

Dawn had come modestly clad in gray, banded faintly in rose. The wind had seemed a bit brusque in its greeting. It caught the yellowing leaves from the thinning branches and bore them down the orchard lanes with a great show of fierceness only to swing back with a soft little song as daintily as a lullaby. But the Quaker-like dawning had remained unmoved and somber. Only the sudden gleam of the great glorious sun, thrusting back the curtains of the sky, awoke it from its meditative attitude. And what a change!

From horizon to horizon bent the blue and gold of Autumn. The brown and ripened shrubs climbed the hillside and limned the spent garden beds. The goldenrod flashed its torch on a vagabond march with the sunflower. The wild aster tossed a rowdy head that had forgotten the fresh beauty of its early blooming.

Nuts dropped in swift staccato from swaying boughs and the brooklet murmured incessantly in its progress over its pebbly bed. It was going, going in a sparkling happy haste, binding by a silver cord the dreaming, sunlit hills.

The sweet, forgettable scents that only Autumn can brew were freed at every footfall. The smoke of burning brush drifted up and clung with its delicious woody breath to hair and garments. Only the lengthening shadow had turned the kypsy feet to the homeward road.

How lovely had been this day! A loveliness tangible enough to stamp

THIS WAS NOT DONE BY MAGIC

This is no isolated case. Hundreds of houses have been changed in as revolutionary a manner. Not by magic. Merely by the application of a few modern touches here and there, enhancing the beauty and impressiveness of a home considerably at a modest cost to the owner.

What the owner of the house shown above has done, you can do. The business men in this town are ready to assist you in every way.

Modernizing your home is an investment, not an expense. It augments the value of your property. It makes your family happier. It adds to the attractiveness of the community in which you live and thus proves a mighty aid in the march toward greater community prosperity and civic pride.

WHALE MEAT AS FOOD
Many of the older New Bedford whalers, who as young men were frequently absent from one to two years on whaling voyages, will testify to the excellence of this cetaceous mammal's flesh. All whales are really excellent food, but the irregular supply prevents the widespread use of whale meat, although occasionally it is to be found in New York restaurants, while one can often buy it canned. In flavor it strongly resembles the best of beef but is much more tender.

ENGAGE EXTRA HELP AT PERFECTION COMPANY

Extra workmen have been engaged at the plant of the Perfection Incubator Company, foot of Orange street, Wilmington, to assemble the incubators ordered for fall delivery. During the past week seven men were engaged. The majority of these incubators, which are from 12,000 to 15,000 egg capacity, are being shipped to points in New York, Pennsylvania and New Jersey. They are sent in car-load lots. The men who were taken on at the plant were carpenters, painters and pipefitters.

In addition to shipping these incubators, the company has started deliveries of its finely constructed storage brooders, which are the last word in devices of this kind. They are three and one-half by six and one-half feet in size and contain 10 baskets, each having a capacity of 150 chicks.

PRINTS 210,000 FORMS FOR ONE CUSTOMER

When presented with a silver loving cup at the annual convention of the United Typothetae of America, held in Washington, recently, William E. Taylor, president of the printing firm bearing his name, at Twelfth and Orange streets, Wilmington, graciously turned it over to the woman representative of the Evansville, Ind., Typothetae. Both these units were in the Ratio for Printing Management Contest, each receiving one hundred per cent. Mr. Taylor was alternate for the Wilmington Typothetae and was awarded the cup for six months, after which it was to go to Evansville. He thereupon turned it over to the Evansville delegate, and it will remain in that city for six months.

Mr. Taylor's plant has been operating on an overtime schedule for several weeks now, because of the large amount of work on hand. He recently completed 2100 copies of the Du Pont Company telephone directory, which numbers 52 pages, and also a run of 240,000 various forms, which were shipped out of town. This order weighed one and a half tons. At the present time, besides a number of smaller contracts, he is printing 50,000 forms for a local industrial corporation.

On next Monday evening, which will be the last before the Grand Lodge meets, all members are requested to be on hand, as the social committee has a big surprise on hand.

I. O. R. M.

STEPHEN OTT CHURCH HAS SPECIAL SERVICE

More than one hundred people gathered on Sunday in the Stephen Ott Church, located on the Pleasant Valley road. This church was built by Stephen Ott in February, 1871.

Dr. Walter E. Gunby, of Newark M. E. Church, gave a very pleasing address. William Walton, Superintendent of the Church Sunday School, led a special song service of Rally Day songs. Miss Florence Walton sang a beautiful selection. Miss Walton is organist and teacher of a young girls' class. She is one of the earnest workers who help to make the Ott Church Sunday School one of the largest in the rural sections.

Mr. Herbert Wood, Sr., on behalf of the Sunday School, presented Superintendent Walton a beautiful gold pin with the name Ott Chapel engraved on it, and also a fine fountain pen. Mr. Wood spoke of the Little Church in the Wildwood; how the little birds gathered in the trees in the church yard as if to help the children sing their praises to God; also how the merry squirrels chattered among the trees as it seemed they also were anxious to help. He spoke of the many years of faithful services Mr. Walton had rendered and all the more important, it being the Superintendent's birthday.

Mr. Wood is teacher of the Ladies' Bible Class, of which he is very proud. Mr. Wood is also known as the Poet of Pleasant Valley.

Mrs. Frederick D. Downs, of Welsh Tract, gave a pleasing recitation, "God's Works." People from several States were present at the services.

Newark Methodist Church

Rev. Walter E. Gunby, Pastor Next Sunday will be Rally Day in the Church School. The previous two Sundays have been used as promotion days, and the school is "set-up" for an aggressive campaign for the months ahead. It is highly important that every scholar be present and "on time" next Sunday for a good start.

Mr. Herman Wollaston represented the Church at the District Meeting held in Grace Church, Wilmington, Monday. The meeting was well attended, and the varied enterprises of the Church were ably represented by speakers from the various boards of the church, including also Bishop W. F. McDowell, of Washington, D. C.

Quite a number of our people are availing themselves of the opportunity for special training courses in the Elkton Standard Training School now in progress, meeting on Monday nights, through a period of six weeks. Mrs. W. E. Gunby is one of the Instructors, and the Pastor is the Dean. Several of our people attended the Rally Day service at Ott's Chapel recently, Dr. Gunby making the address on the occasion.

As we write these notes the Church is joyfully anticipating a very profitable gathering here on Thursday. The District Meeting of the Women's Home Missionary Society will convene with us for an all-day session.

The Pastor was the speaker at the Vesper service at the Women College last Sunday evening, and reports a very pleasant visit and helpful service.

Holiness Christian Church

Rev. W. F. Hopkins, Pastor At the Holiness Christian Church Sunday night, Rev. A. E. Frederick, Evangelist from Grier City, Pa., brought a powerful message on Judgment, to a large interested congregation. The singing and playing of Harold B. Hess and Sophia M. Hess, Gospel Singers, is pleasing and interesting. These services will continue every night this week at 7.30. The public is invited.
