Chas. Laposki Struck On Highway

Newark Ambulance Rushes Him to Homeopathic Hospital; Condition Critical

Just opposite the Ball Run Garage on the Lincoln Highway, at about 9.30 this morning, Charles Laposki, of Hockessin, was struck by a car driven by Abram P. Krash, of 15th and Race streets, Philadelphia.

Krash was driving in the direction of Newark and as he was passing the Ball Run Garage, Laposki, who was standing behind a truck, owned by Ivan Simpson and parked on the road, headed north, suddenly ran from behind the truck and was struck by the side of Krash's machine. Laposki's arm went through the windshield and he was thrown forcibly to the road. He was unconscious when picked up by Krash and Simpson; and Krash, taking him in his car, drove rapidly to Dr. Wallace Johnson's office in Newark. Dr. Johnson found one arm broken and a badly fractured skull, and after dressing his injuries had him rushed to the Homeopathic Hospital, Wilmington, in the Newark ambulance. Dr. Johnson said there was slight hope for his recovery, but he was alive and conscious when Walter Powell, who drove the ambulance, left him at the hospital.

Krash went directly from Dr. Johnson's office to the office of Magistrate Thompson, where he gave himself up. He said that there were no actual eye witnesses as Ivan Simpson, who was sitting in the truck, did not actually see the accident occur. He said that Laposki came from behind the truck on a run just as he was passing and that it would have been impossible to have stopped or swerved to miss him. Krash will be released on a $5,000 bond without hearing.

Ambulance Busy Last Friday

After a short rest from its long run of last Friday morning, the Newark ambulance was called out again in the afternoon to bring back Josephine York, colored, from the Homeopathic Hospital, Wilmington. William Clancy and Alfred Ewing made the trip.

WILL ATTEND MEETING

Mrs. Thomas Preston, formerly Mrs. Grover Cleveland, and other members of the National Board will be present at a meeting of the Neighborhood Needlework Guild in the Legion Building at Kennett Square, Pennsylvania, tomorrow, Thursday, afternoon. Mrs. Preston is national president of the organization.

Mrs. Charles B. Evans, Mrs. George L. Townsend, Mrs. Charles McCue, Mrs. C. O. Houghton, and Mrs. J. Ivin Daycut from this town will attend the meeting.

MRS. WHEELLESS ADVISOR FOR HIGH SCHOOL GROUP

The High School class of the Girl Reserves, numbering about thirty-five, held their first meeting of the school year in the High School gymnasium on Monday of this week. Mrs. Wheelless was elected advisor for the group. Plans were made for the next meeting on Tuesday, October 19, when new officers will be elected and a program rendered.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS CLOSED

Marshallton public schools are closed this week, because of two cases of scarlet fever. Scott Norris in the seventh grade, a younger brother and their mother, Mrs. Norris, are the cases reported.

PAINTING UP

The Pennsylvania Railroad station at this place and the office of Robert Ford, adjacent to the station, are being newly painted.

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK IN SCHOOLS

All grades of the public school system have been actively engaged in following an intensive program on Fire Prevention Week. The program has included all phases of fire prevention and fighting. A full program of the week's activities will be published in next week's issue of The Post.

Sypherd and Turner In C. C. Finals

Dr. W. Owen Sypherd and H. A. Turner will probably settle the golf championship of the Newark Country Club on Saturday afternoon. This is expected to be a tight match as the medal scoring of both men is in the middle 80's. Mr. Turner has been going great guns all season, winning both the President's and Treasurer's cups and may have the edge, though Dr. Sypherd is a hard man to beat in a match game.

The semi-finals, were played last week when Turner defeated R. G. Brinton 6 to 4, and Dr. Sypherd defeated J. M. Terrill 4 and 2.

Richard Warpole Expired This Morning

Another Old Resident Passes at Age of 80

At 7 a. m. this morning Richard Warpole died at the home of his son-in-law, John Ramsey, on Cleveland avenue. This makes the second passing within two days of two of the oldest and most interesting residents of Newark.

Mr. Warpole suffered a stroke yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock, but had been in excellent health up to the minute he was seized. Mr. Warpole came to this country from England when he was 5 years of age and has lived most of his life in this section. He was engineer at Jacob Thomas' wall paper factory until it burned down years back. He had worked as engineer in both the Curtis Mills and with the old Fibre Company. Since the death of his wife, 19 years ago, Mr. Warpole has lived with his son-in-law, John Ramsey and has been retired for a number of years. Mr. Warpole is survived by two daughters, Mrs. John Ramsey and Mrs. Florence Batley. Services will be held at his late home on Cleveland avenue at 2.30 on Saturday, the Rev. Frank Herson officiating. Interment in Newark Cemetery.

REV. HERSON ASKS TO BE CHANGED

At a recent quarterly conference held in the Methodist Episcopal Church of this town, and presided over by Dr. J. W. Colona, the District Superintendent, the Reverend Frank Herson, at the close of the usual business, informed the meeting that at the next session of the Wilmington Conference he would ask the presiding bishop and his cabinet for a new appointment. The announcement was a surprise to all present.

Reverend Herson came to the Newark Church in the spring of 1913 from the Trinity Church in Philadelphia. He has remained here for nine years, the longest pastorate in the history of the local church. Mr. Herson has been very successful in all of his work, and the new church building which will be erected in the spring, is largely due to his efficient work and leadership.

The church has taken no action in the matter of this resignation, and Mr. Herson has no plans for the future.

VISITING NURSE ON DUTY

Newark's visiting nurse, Miss Alice Leak, has been on duty since October 1. She will respond to the call of anyone in town from 8 a. m. till 5 p. m. The time limit of each visit is one hour, and those who can afford to pay for her services are supposed to do so. The charge is one dollar per hour. Only the attending physician may call the nurse outside her regular hours, and he will do so only in cases of emergency, when other help cannot be procured. Miss Leak's phone call is 14-W.

PARENT-TEACHER SOCIAL

The Parent-Teacher Association of Hillside School, near Thompson Station, will give a pie social on Thursday evening. Each lady, married or single, is expected to furnish a pie. There will also be ice cream on sale. Everybody is invited to attend.

ANNUAL POULTRY SUPPER

The Head of Christiansa, Presbyterian Church poultry supper will be held on Thursday, October 28th, from 5 p. m. on.

This famous supper has been held annually for 200 years.

REGISTRATION OCT. 16

All voters are urged to come out and register on Registration Day, October 16.

Mrs. Steele Stricken Suddenly

Mrs. Harvey Steele, wife of Harvey Steele, one of the managers of the Curtis Paper Mill, was stricken suddenly with heart failure last Friday evening and died within a few minutes.

Mrs. Steele had been in poor health for some time, but on Friday she had made a trip to Wilmington by motor and in the evening had driven up town to Newark.

Mrs. Steele, with her husband and daughters, came to Newark from Adams, Massachusetts, a number of years ago and her charming personality had won her a large circle of devoted friends.

Funeral services were held last Sunday at 4 o'clock, the Reverend Hallman officiating. Interment was at Adams, Massachusetts.

Mrs. Steele is survived by her husband and two daughters, Myrtle and Mildred. Myrtle Steele is dietician at the Philadelphia Hospital.

President And Governors To Meet

Luncheon Arranged by National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution

The National Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution, co-operating with the Women's Committee of the Sesqui, and Mayor Kendrick, of Philadelphia, have arranged a program for Monday, October 11 that will attract nation-wide attention. A luncheon has been arranged at the Bellevue-Stratford for President and Mrs. Coolidge, for the Governors of the thirteen original states and their wives, and for the regents of the State D. A. R. organizations. Governor and Mrs. Robinson and Mrs. John Pearce Cann, of this town, will represent Delaware.

At one o'clock, there will be a tree-planting ceremony in Independence Square, when trees given by the National D. A. R. will be planted by the governors of the thirteen original States. A spadeful of soil from the state which he represents will be turned by each governor as he plants the tree to be given for his state. Mrs. Cann has sent the Delaware soil to Mayor Kendrick, and, as Governor Robinson speaks and plants the Delaware tree, she will place the marker on it, which shall tell its story.

Pictures will be taken of the exercises and will later be shown by Pathé News.

LAYTON-HERRINGTON WEDDING

Friends here have received announcement of the marriage last Saturday, in Philadelphia, at the Church of the Holy Trinity, of Dr. Caleb Rodney Layton, of Georgetown, and Miss Fannie Satterfield Herrington, of Dover. The wedding was a very quiet one, attended by only a few relatives and friends.

Dr. and Mrs. Layton are prominent Delawareans, and both have rendered signal services to their State. Dr. Layton has been State Auditor, Secretary of State, and has served two terms as Congressman from Delaware. His wife served for twenty-eight years as chief clerk in the Secretary of State's office at Dover. After the death of Secretary of State Taylor she was appointed to that office by Governor Robinson, but resigned after a few months. She is considered an authority on incorporation law.

Dr. and Mrs. Layton will live in Georgetown.

PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATION MEETING

The first meeting of the Newark Parent-Teacher Association for this year will be held in the assembly room of the High School next Tuesday evening, October 12, at 7.45. Parents and interested friends are urged to come. The evening will be a social one and a pleasing program will be arranged.

Mrs. Guy Hancock is president of the association this year.

Prominent Cecil Countian Dies

Hugh W. Caldwell, Superintendent of Schools, Succumbs After Operation

Hugh Wright Caldwell, superintendent of public schools for Cecil County, Md., died Monday afternoon at the Maryland General Hospital, Baltimore. While he had been ill for several weeks it was not until last Friday that his condition was considered serious. He was removed to the hospital in Baltimore where an operation was performed on Saturday for ulcers of the stomach. He was apparently recovering when he was taken worse at noon Monday, and died at 2.30 o'clock.

Mr. Caldwell was 49 years old and was born in Philadelphia, Aug. 2, 1877. His parents were Thomas and Jennie W. Caldwell. His early education was received in the public schools of Cecil county, West Nottingham Academy and he was one of the first graduates of the Jacob Tome Institute and the honor man of the class. Since graduation he has completed courses at Harvard University, the University of Pennsylvania and the Johns Hopkins University. He taught school for some time and then was made principal of the high school at Chesapeake City, which position he filled for nineteen years. Ten years ago he was made superintendent of county schools; in 1906 he was made secretary and treasurer of the Maryland State Teachers' Association, which position he held at the time of his death.

In 1908 Mr. Caldwell married Miss Minnie Smithers Reed, of Chesapeake City, who survives him, with one son, Hugh W. Caldwell, Jr., aged 11 years; also one sister, Mrs. Dr. W. G. Jack, of Liberty Grove.

Mr. Caldwell was prominent in the affairs of the Masons and Odd Fellows and was organizer of the Chesapeake City Fire Company.

The schools of Cecil county have been ordered closed by the School until after the funeral. His remains were brought to his home in Chesapeake City Monday evening by Undertaker Pippin, of Elkton, and his funeral will be held on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, from his late residence, with interment in Bethel Cemetery.

Ambulance Takes Long Trip

Fast Trip to Baltimore Last Friday

Last Friday morning at 3 a. m. a hurry call came in for the Newark ambulance to go to Chesapeake City and take Mr. H. W. Caldwell to Baltimore.

This was in the district covered by the Elkton ambulance, but the Elkton machine was in New York. Ira Shellender and Alfred Ewing made the trip, covering 130 miles in all. Through the prompt response of the Newark men, Mr. Caldwell arrived in time for an immediate operation.

VAN G. SMITH HEADS FACULTY CLUB

The first meeting of the Faculty Club of the University of Delaware for the school year and the annual business meeting was held Monday evening. The following officers were elected: President, M. Van Giessen Smith; vice-president, E. Conover; secretary and treasurer, L. Blumberg; executive committee includes the officers and C. L. Benner and G. L. Schuster; social committee, F. S. Lagasse, R. B. Mathews and E. C. Byam.

MISS FELL ENTERTAINS

Miss Alice Fell entertained at a party at her home on Wollaston avenue, last Wednesday evening. Among the guests were Miss Alberta Johnson, Miss Edith McCarns, Miss Naomi Davis, Miss Grace Holden, Miss Elizabeth Lindell, Miss Margaret Jarmon, Miss Doris Jarmon, Miss Bonnie Walker; Messrs. Frank Smith, Sam Sweeney, Charles Sweeney, James Jackson, Milton Jarmon, Selby Jarmon, Bill Johnson, Wesley Dempsey, Bill Richards, Kennedy Fell, William Bland, Herman McCarns.

The evening was spent with music, dancing and playing games. Refreshments were served at a late hour.

Prof. Runk's Brother Holding Own

Professor Runk, of the University Experiment Station, has received word that his brother, O. N. Runk, who was seriously injured at Madisonville, Kentucky, last week, was holding his own and that his chances for recovery were favorable.

Mr. Runk had one foot caught in a frog on the railroad track and was struck by a train before he was able to pull his foot loose. Both legs were so badly mangled that they had to be amputated below the knee.

Newark H. S. vs. Dover High

Will Play in Newark at 3.30

On Friday afternoon, the Newark High School football team is going to meet a tough opponent in Dover, in their first game on the D. I. A. A. schedule. Newark has beaten Dover for the past two years and hopes to make it three straight.

Last year's game was very tight, but Newark came out on the top of a 9 to 6 score. This season Dover, although defeated by Tome School last week 19-0, is expected to put an exceptionally strong team on the field and a team that will outweigh Newark. However, while Ferris School only furnished a light work-out for the local boys, there was indication of potential power in all departments of the game. Newark's dash, speed and spirit is expected to more than offset any advantage Dover will have in avoirdupois.

Two Arrests Tuesday

The State highway officers were busy yesterday and brought two prisoners to Magistrate Thompson for arraignment on charges of reckless driving. Highway Officer Hession brought in Arthur Taylor, of Elkins Park, Pa., who was fined $25 and costs, and Highway Officer Leach brought in Frank Moran, of Newburgh, N. Y., who was assessed the same amount.

Lodge Notes

MINNEHAHA WILL RAISE CHIEFS

On next Tuesday's sleep Deputy Great Sachem Chambers of Wawa Tribe, will visit Minnehaha Tribe No. 23, with his Great Chiefs for the purpose of raising up the newly elected officers.

BAND PRACTICE

On Thursday evening, October 7, Minnehaha Band will resume rehearsals in the Town Council Building, and it is hoped all members will be on hand as there is some important business to transact.

OSCEOLA LODGE TO ATTEND CHURCH SUNDAY

All members of Osceola Lodge, No. 5, Knights of Pythias, are urgently requested to assemble for divine service at the First Presbyterian Church, on Sunday, October 10. Meet at Fraternal Hall at 10 a. m.

NEWARK RESIDENT DOUBLY STRICKEN

Arthur Hauber, of this town, has received news of the death by drowning, last Friday night, of his brother-in-law, George Derbyshire, a prominent business man of Philadelphia. Mr. Derbyshire, with a party of friends, was spending the week-end on a yacht near Augustine Beach. During the night, he stumbled and fell overboard. The engineer, who witnessed the accident, says that Mr. Derbyshire's head must have struck the boat, injuring him, for his body was not seen until found the following day at three o'clock. Funeral services will be held in Philadelphia today. Mr. Derbyshire is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Flora Hauber, of Wilmington.

Mr. Hauber's father, Anton Hauber, of Wilmington, is a patient at Delaware Hospital, suffering from a broken shoulder and other serious injuries received when he was struck by an automobile at Tenth and King streets, on September 23.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY

The Woman's Auxiliary of St. Thomas' P. E. Church will meet Friday of this week, at 2.30, in the Parish House.

George W. Hill Died Suddenly

Passed Away in Few Minutes After Stroke of Apoplexy

On Monday Newark sustained another sad loss in the passing of George W. Hill, one of Newark's oldest and most beloved residents.

Mr. Hill, whose 88th birthday was August 7, was taken with a stroke of apoplexy while reading the paper on his front porch on Chapel street. The end came within a few minutes.

Mr. Hill's sudden demise has been a great shock to his friends, because, in spite of his advanced years, he had been very active and was in good health up to the time of his death. He took a great interest in all activities in Newark and had always been foremost in any movement for the promotion of civic betterment. At the time of his death he was following the World Series closely on the radio, and had planned this week to listen in on all the games. Mr. Hill had always kept fresh his interest in Newark and its people and had a list of friends planned for each day that he would get around to see. He celebrated his 88th birthday by going on the annual excursion of the Continental Fibre Company to Riverview Beach. Samuel J. Wright, organizer and president of the Continental Company, until his death two weeks ago, had known Mr. Hill since boyhood and the two old gentlemen spent most of the afternoon together.

Mr. Hill was born in Cecil County, Maryland, near Appleton, on the Big Elk River, and was a paper maker by trade. As a young man he moved to Newark and farmed one of the Dean farms. After a few years of farming he returned to Cecil County and then went into the Spring-Lawn Paper Mill at Lewisville, Pa., then operated by the Curtis Brothers, who were also operating a mill in Newark. This mill at Lewisville, on the Big Elk, was later sold to Magargee Brothers and was burned many years back.

Mr. Hill came to Newark for the Curtis Brothers in 1888 and worked in the local plant for 25 years. After this, he worked in the Newark Post Office; later going to the Newark plant of the American Vulcanized Fibre Company, where he remained until he was 85 years of age. For the last three years he has remained at home, but in good health, and nearly every clear day has found him on the streets of Newark, taking an active interest in everything going on.

Mr. Hill is survived by four sons, two daughters, ten grandchildren and two great grandchildren. The immediate members of the family are his sons—J. Scott Hill, of Havre de Grace; Harry E. Hill, Newark; W. S. Hill, Newark; Lester E. Hill, Newark; and his daughters—Alice and Elizabeth Hill, with whom he lived. Mr. Hill's wife died 13 years ago. There will be a short service at his home in Newark on Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock and he will be buried at Lewisville, Pa., where a service will be held in St. Johns M. E. Church. Mr. Hill was one of the organizers of the local conclave of Heptasops.

Race Horses Shipped Yesterday

Yesterday afternoon, Mr. R. A. Smith shipped 14 thoroughbred horses of mixed ages to different tracks for the opening of the winter meetings. These horses belong to J. Livingston, western sportsman, and have been in training under the direction of Mr. Smith, on his farm just across from the University Experimental Farm. This farm, which was formerly run by Dr. Murray, has sent a number of high class stake horses to the tracks, and there were several in yesterday's shipment that promise high class performance.

STATE P-T. A. MEETINGS FOR MONTH

October 9, at County Court House, Georgetown; State Senator Elisha Steele, presiding. October 17, Laurel High School, Samuel Steen, chairman. October 24, Dover High School, F. C. Bancroft, chairman. October 31 at Thomas F. Bayard School, Wilmington, Mrs. Arthur T. Ginn, presiding.

Money To Burn!

That was our nation's fire-loss in 1925, according to the National Board of Fire Underwriters, the country's authority on the subject.

$13,689,432!—that was the increase over 1924. The increase in the annual fire-loss since 1923 is $403,759,969!

Who pays this tremendous annual tribute to destruction? Not only the owners of the property destroyed. Not only the families of the 20,000 persons who die in fires every year. Every resident of the country pays his share.

For this loss, exceeding half a billion dollars annually, is what keeps insurance-rates high. These destructive fires—one dwelling-house burns in our country every four minutes day and night!—are what make it necessary for the tax-payers to maintain fire departments. The national fire-loss is a national problem. For that reason, President Coolidge has set apart this week for public instruction as to the causes of fires and means of preventing them.

Just what this half-billion-dollar drain on our national wealth means may be visualized this way:—Uncle Sam, in taxing the incomes of his people, allows an exemption of $200 for every child. That is exempted, presumably, because it is sufficient to keep a child in school for a year. On this basis, it appears that the money we waste by fires every year would keep more than 2,000,000 children in school.

Yet we go on wasting it—for it is waste because it can be prevented. Insurance experts, fire department officials and engineers firmly state that 75 per cent of the fires that cause this tremendous total loss are preventable.

How? By being careful with matches, cigars and cigarettes? Certainly; that would help. By keeping chimneys clean so that they don't throw burning embers upon roofs? Surely; that's a wise precaution. The reason why buildings burn is that they are built so they will burn. The fundamental way to prevent their burning is to "Build so it won't burn."

This doesn't necessarily mean that the average home-owner must adopt expensive masonry constructions to substitute the traditional American wood-frame house. It means to build wisely with wood—use wood if necessary, but protect it at its most vulnerable points.

Boyish Bob Becoming Passe

In an informal interview the other day, Miss Mary Ellen Ellis, of Ellis Sisters, told of her experiences at the National Hairdressers Convention, held this year in Philadelphia, September 13 to 17.

Miss Ellis said that the styles in hairdressing were undergoing radical changes and the close cropped bob, it was predicted, would very soon pass out. Formal occasions now demand a more elaborate coiffure than can be built on a boyish bob and the younger girls are letting their hair grow out. For sport and everyday occasion, a moderate bob is still considered smart, but it must be of sufficient length to allow an arrangement of artificial hair for evening and formal afternoon affairs. There were no bobbed heads shown at the convention and the styles were in close arrangement with bunches of curls at the side of the head. The most popular coiffures shown were flat in back with the hair drawn to the side, giving a trim appearance, relieved with marcelling and little elaborations over the ears.

Mrs. Frederick A. McLaughlin of Chicago (Irene Castle), was quoted as saying that she deeply regretted having started the bobbed hair craze, because it had been carried to extremes, generally with a considerable loss of feminine charm. Mrs. McLaughlin said that she still wore her hair short, but so it looked soft and fluffy; that women with small heads should never wear their hair cropped.

CHILDREN TO BE GUESTS OF SESQUI MANAGEMENT

Thousands of children will be the guests of the management of the Sesqui-Centennial International Exposition, in Philadelphia, at the observance of "Public School Day" on October 9. The Exposition will be thrown open to the juveniles from opening time at 9 a. m. to 4 p. m.

A letter has been sent by E. L. Austin, director general of the Exposition, to the Board of Education announcing that passes would be sent to all schools in Philadelphia with an invitation from Mayor W. Freeland Kendrick, inviting every boy and girl to visit the Exposition on that date. A special program of interest to the children is being arranged for all parts of the Sesqui.

NEW CROP-DRYING DEVICE

Revolutionary Machine Cuts, Dries and Bags Product In An Hour

On Friday, September 24, at the Plainsboro plant of the Walker-Gorden Dairy Company, Arthur Mason's new crop drying device was effectively demonstrated before a large gathering of agriculturists. This was the first public demonstration of the machine, and when put into general use promises to cut many hours from the harvesting time as well as to add appreciably to the value of the crop.

An hour after green alfalfa had been cut and carried to the dryer, it was dried and placed in bags in the form of alfalfa meal, a process which under the best weather conditions takes two days for sun drying with a loss of considerable of the nutrient value of the crop through depreciation and fermentation.

The machine is designed to work in any kind of weather and, it is predicted, will have a more revolutionary effect on certain angles of the agricultural industry than that of the McCormick harvester and reaper.

Mr. Mason, the inventor, is from Chicago and was formally with the Bethlehem Steel Corporation. The dryer is designed so that smoke and hot air dry and cure the crop as it passes on an endless belt through the apparatus.

Among those present at the demonstration were: Frank H. Willits, Secretary of Agriculture of Pennsylvania; Karl E. Parks, the Federal Department of Agriculture, and a large turnout from the New Jersey Alfalfa Growers' Association.

"Seed Of The Brute"

Monday, October 11, will be more or less of a red letter day in the life of Robert Ames, the prominent American actor who is featured in Brady and Wiman's production of "Seed of the Brute," which begins a three-day engagement at the Playhouse, Wilmington, on that date.

Not only will it mark his return to the speaking stage after a year and a half spent on the west coast making moving pictures under the direction of Cecil DeMille, but it also signalizes the stage debut of his seventeen year old son, Robert, Jr., who is getting his first taste of life behind the footlights by acting as assistant stage manager for his distinguished father.

According to the advance whisperings, "Seed of the Brute" is a vividly frank drama of a certain phase of life in a small mid-western city, and is said by those who have seen it in rehearsal to afford Mr. Ames a particularly congenial role in which he will undoubtedly score an even greater personal success than he did several seasons ago in "The Hero."

Housewives are often disappointed when cream fails to whip or when the whip does not "stand up" stiffly. Sometimes this fault is due to the dairyman's furnishing cream with too little fat. Cream should contain at least 30 per cent fat in order to give a satisfactory whip. In some cases the housekeeper probably has not kept or whipped the cream at a low enough temperature. Cream for whipping should be thoroughly chilled. In hot weather the bowl of cream may be set in a pan of ice water during whipping.

An electric waffle iron should never be greased.

Fire Prevention Week

The current week has been set aside, nationally, as Fire Prevention Week. The different civic and private organizations that are concerned with the control and prevention of fire loss, use this opportunity to awaken the country to its responsibility in combating the fire menace, through preventative measures.

The national statistics on fire loss of property and life need no dramatization, for they are appalling; and the most appalling part is that a great percentage of this loss has been through easily prevented fires that were caused by inherent American carelessness.

In gratifying contrast to these national figures are the figures on fire loss in Newark proper, over the past year. They are only, approximately, $3,000; compared to a national waste of over $500,000,000. This exceptional record has been due to the efficiency of the local department in subduing fire after it had started, and to the practical and effective propaganda that has been disseminated throughout Newark by the Fire Department and the public schools. Even that small loss could have been reduced in several instances had the fire department been called before amateur efforts had been used to check the fire. —H. B. J.

Reverend Herson's Faithful Service

Word has reached this office of the resignation of Reverend Frank Herson as pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church of this town. Mr. Herson has been with us for nine years, longer than any other pastor of the Methodist Church. That fact bespeaks a work worthwhile. In that length of time, the pastor of a church makes many contacts; he touches many lives and solves many problems. He knows the heart-aches and joys of many persons, and endears himself to his people. The Post regrets that Mr. Herson feels that he must leave our town.

An American Home

Club women of the State of New York are exhibiting a model American house, planned for a family of five, with a yearly income of $25,000. The house, which has every comfort and labor-saving device, has been erected at a cost of $75,000.

This project may serve a purpose; those who have incomes of $25,000 a year may need help in planning to live on that amount in a $75,000 house, but we think the real challenge is to plan a house that is comfortable and easily kept for a family of five with a yearly income of $2500 a year.

That would be a real achievement. Thousands of club women all over the country could contribute ideas, for there are thousands of women trying to solve that very problem, creditably, quietly, even cheerfully.

Then, too, it is a decided comfort to think that there is a vast difference between the model American house and the model American home.

How Autos Help Railroads

Because the railroads are fighting what they call unfair competition from motor vehicles, many persons assume that these two agencies of transportation are engaged in a war of extinction and that one must prevail at the cost of the other. This belief is based upon complete misapprehension of facts and conditions. It is true that motor trucks and passenger buses have cut deeply into railroad revenues, even causing the abandonment of some branch lines, and the demand that these new common carriers be brought under public regulation is well grounded. But it is likewise true that the motor vehicle is much more than a competitor; it has become a useful adjunct of railroad operation and a source of railroad prosperity.

In a recent address President Crowley, of the New York Central, admitted that the competition is felt, as it must be when there are 50 automobiles in use for every passenger car in the country, a motor truck for every freight car, and 3,000,000 miles of free highways as compared with 250,000 miles of railroad trackage. But he held that the decline is temporary, for the railroads will benefit from the stimulation by the automobile of the desire to travel. Moreover, he noted that three-fourths of the railroads' business is freight, and they are now carrying the greatest tonnage in their history, much of it due to the enormous expansion of the automobile industry, so that their losses in short-haul passenger service have been more than made up.

A factor of still greater moment is the increasing use of motor vehicles by the railroads themselves. "Proper co-ordination of motor vehicle and steam railroad service," said Mr. Crowley, "makes the latter more efficient." Far-sighted executives long ago realized this, and are extensively employing the new equipment to supplement the old.

The Pennsylvania Railroad pioneered the movement several years ago, when it substituted motor trucks for way trains in the handling of package freights and less-than-carload shipments in the section between Philadelphia and Wilmington. Savings in time and operating costs proved so substantial that today the Pennsylvania has established 33 motor truck routes, serving 500 stations along 1000 miles of line. These are operated by private companies under contracts. In addition the railroad itself is going to enter the business of passenger-carrying by automobile, the initial line being between Waynesburg and Washington, Pa.

The development of the motor vehicle presents a problem of concern to the public as well as to the railroads. It can be, and should be, worked out to the advantage of both.—Philadelphia Record.

A person's real life is led in his head, and is known to none but himself. All day long, and every day, the mill of his brain is grinding, and his thoughts, not those other things, are his history. His acts and his words are merely the visible, thin crust of his world with its scattered snow summits and its vacant wastes of water—and they are so trifling a part of his bulk; a mere skin enveloping it. The mass of him is hidden—it and its volcanic fires that toss and boil, and never rest, night nor day.—Mark Twain.

Newark Century Club

There was a pleasant hour at the New Century Club Monday afternoon, when the doors were thrown open after the long summer recess. Old members cordially greeted one another and new ones were welcomed.

The new president, Mrs. Alec Cobb, in a gracious speech, reaffirmed her intention of giving herself unstintingly to the work of the club. Her chief concern being to serve acceptably and well.

The delightful music of the afternoon was provided by two Wilmington friends, Mrs. Work, violinist, and Mrs. Hitch, who played the piano accompaniments.

Mrs. R. W. Heim, one of the State vice-presidents, made a brief speech. She was followed by Mrs. Clarence Frain who is now one of the national directors. She gave a brief sketch of the outstanding things the General Federation is striving to do. Those who heard Mrs. Frain felt that the Delaware clubs will be ably represented in the Councils of the General Federation.

The chair called on Mrs. Neale to speak in appreciation of the club's late friend and benefactor, Mr. Samuel J. Wright. Mrs. Neale, because of her intimate knowledge of the difficulties encountered in building the Club House, knew well the value of Mr. Wright's counsel, and also the considerable material aid he gave to the club. That interest did not cease when the Club House was completed. Again and again he stepped into the breach when repairs were needed or improvements desirable. Our loss is indeed very great.

Mrs. Cann, chairman of the Resolutions Committee, presented the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, The Supreme Ruler of the Universe has, in His infinite wisdom, seen fit to remove from our midst our friend and benefactor, Mr. Samuel J. Wright.

WHEREAS, His genial disposition, thoughtfulness, and generosity will be greatly missed by the members of the Newark Century Club; be it

Resolved, That we express to his family our deep appreciation of his many kindnesses to this organization, together with our sincere sympathy in their hour of sorrow and bereavement. And be it further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved family and that they be spread upon the minutes of this organization.

On October 11 the club will meet to hear the reports from the Biennial Convention of the General Federation. It is expected that not only the authorized delegate, but all those who attended the convention, will contribute something.

Grace S. Wilkinson,
Secretary pro tem.

Opera House Launches Unique Adv. Plan

The Newark Opera House has this week put into effect a clever advertising scheme in which they have enlisted the co-operation of nine local merchants.

Each merchant has been given an allotment of tickets with his name printed on them, which he will give with every twenty-five cent purchase of merchandise. These tickets presented at the box office on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday will be good for ten cents on an adult ticket and five cents on children's admission. The tickets will good for the next three months. The merchants co-operating are: C. B. Dean, Powell's Restaurant, J. F. Richards, Home Drug Store, Newark Candy Kitchen, Geist and Geist, Marritz Department Store, Barrows Barber Shop, and the Newark Radio Store.

The Vanishing American
On Monday and Tuesday, the Opera House will show the pictorial reproduction of Zane Gray's story, "The Vanishing American." This picture is said to be the most authentic portrayal of Indian life ever presented in a motion picture.

PRIZES MONDAY NIGHT

On Monday and Tuesday the Opera House will show Zane Gray's story, "The Vanishing American," featuring Richard Dix. Mr. Blest has arranged an essay contest for the High School in connection with the picture. The essays will be on the American Indian and will be judged by a faculty committee. The prizes are, 1st prize, $5.00; 2nd prize, $2.00; 3rd prize, $1.00, and several prizes of tickets. "The Vanishing American" is said to be one of the most authentic portrayals of Indian life ever shown in motion pictures.

Newark Defeats Du Pont Golfers

Ginther Takes Pro Match From Fisher 3 Up

In a Nassau team match with the du Pont Country Club held at the local course last Saturday afternoon, Newark Country Club won by a point score of 28 to 21. Eddie Ginther, professional of the Newark Club, took Tommie Fisher, du Pont pro, into camp to the tune of 3 up, in a 9 hole match. Ginther shot a 37 and Fisher picked up on two holes so did not come in with a medal score.

The Newark golfers deserve considerable credit for winning this match as they met a contingent from one of the most difficult courses in this section of the country. In the point scoring, one point was scored for each 9 holes and one for the match. Tie matches were not played out.

Delaware Loses Hard Game 6-7

"Doggy" Draper Breaks Ankle In Second Quarter

Delaware University opened its football season last Saturday on Frazer Field with a run of hard luck. While the statistics of the game gave Delaware the edge, Drexel scrambled off with the scoring honors by one point. A missed try for goal by Flinn in the second quarter and a lucky touchdown and perfect kick for goal by Drexel in the fourth quarter, gave Drexel the game 7 to 6.

Delaware's tough luck started with the first play of the second quarter, when "Doggy" Draper, Delaware fullback, was carried off the field with a broken ankle. Not daunted by this misfortune, Delaware made the first score of the game within two minutes of the end of the second quarter, when Loveland, on a forward pass from Sweeney, scored a touchdown. However, Flinn missed the kick for the extra point which eventually cost Delaware the game. The Blue and Gold kept the lead till the last quarter when Oberholtzer, Drexel substitute end, won a name for himself by scooping up a fumble by Loveland and racing to the two yard line before Loveland did his best to redeem himself by bringing him down. Sulklin, Drexel fullback and captain, wormed over the line in two bucks through center. Butler kicked the goal for the extra and deciding point.

Delaware lost a ripe opportunity to score in the first period. Captain Lohman kicked off for Delaware to Drexel's 15-yard line and on the second play Smith, Drexel halfback, fumbled. When the heap was unpeeled, Cal Coppock, Delaware's veteran tackle, was found at the bottom, hugging the ball. With the ball on the

Appointments In Cadet Corps

Captain K. S. Whittemore, U. S. A., assigned as adjutant of the Reserve Officers Training Corps, University of Delaware, has, by order of Major Underwood, announced the following permanent appointments of cadet non-commissioned officers.

To be Cadet Sergeants: William B. Derrickson, Jr., Raymond K. Grubb, Charles Gurney, Jr., William Kretzsch, James E. Wilson.

To be Cadet Corporals: Winfield S. Adams, Ralph S. Baker, Edward W. Cannon, E. Filson Carmichael, Arthur C. Churchman, Ellis P. Cordray, Roy F. Corley, Jr., Fred B. Creamer, William A. Danes, John B. Derrickson, Oakley C. Eskridge, Theodore R. Fleetwood, Joseph F. Gordy, John I. Hoffecker, Robert T. Jaquette, Aubrey R. Kelly, Charles F. Kelly, Jr., Eber T. LeGates, David C. Lloyd, David S. Loveland, Jr., Robert J. McLucas, Harry L. Maier, Jr., James G. Maloney, Warren A. Moritz, Francis I. Ponsell, Glenn B. Puséy, William U. Reybold, Jr., Francis H. Roemer, Clinton L. Smith, Samuel I. Spiegler, August F. Walz, Frederick T. Warrington, Jr.

To be Cadet Corporals: Samuel R. Wharry, Nathaniel W. Wolfe, John F. Wright, John W. Day.

25-yard line, Delaware lined up with Loveland in position for a kick, but he made an end run for a gain of 8 yards. On the third down, Carlon threw a perfect pass to Sweeney who was standing on the goal line, but to the dismay of everyone, who was not rooting for Drexel, he dropped the ball. Drexel held for downs and then kicked out of danger.

After the injury to Draper at the start of the second quarter, Delaware played determined football, and made a first down. Drexel then stiffened and Carlon of Delaware and Butler of Drexel exchanged three punts. A run around end for 12 yards by Loveland and two line plunges by Sweeney, brought the ball to Drexel's 25-yard line where Flinn tried for a field goal and missed. With two minutes of the quarter to play, Drexel fumbled on her 20-yard line and Coppock, who was on the ball in every play in the line, recovered his second fumble. Rose, who had replaced Carlon at quarter for Delaware, called Sweeney back for a pass, which he shot with deadly accuracy straight into the arms of Loveland, standing on the 10-yard line. Loveland whirled and dashed across the line for the touchdown. Flinn missed his kick for goal.

The third quarter had its thrilling moments, but there was no scoring. After the kick-off for Delaware by Lohman, Carlon and Butler traded punts. By the middle of the period, Drexel was within 35-yards of the Delaware goal, where she tried a place kick and failed to get it over the bar. Drexel made her only first down of the game in this period, but lost some of the glory of the achievement by having 5 yards of it given her by a penalty to Delaware for off-side.

The last quarter brought Drexel its winning score. In the middle of the period Butler punted for Drexel and Loveland, receiving, fumbled in the middle of the field. Oberholtzer who scooped the ball on the run took it to the two-yard line, where Drexel was able to shove it over and and kicked successfully for the extra point. With the score against them, the Blue and Gold played inspired football but it came too late. Two end runs by Loveland each gained a first down and line bucks by Sweeney and a pass, Sweeney to Rose, netted two more. Rose tried for a field goal at the final whistle and failed.

Coach Forstburg's charges showed unexpected promise, even though defeated in their first start. Delaware made nine first downs to one doubtful one for Drexel, and showed a co-ordinated fighting spirit when coming up from behind. The rough spots looked glaring because they happened to come up at critical moments.

With the exception of the few costly slips, the backfield played smart football and with another week of polish should be able to give a good account of themselves in any company. Carlon ran his team in a masterly fashion. His kicking, passing and ball running left no opening for criticism. Sweeney and Loveland with the exception of a costly fumble apiece carried their share of the burden well. Sweeney, who stands six feet two, should be a strong factor in the aerial game as he handles a football with the ease and accuracy of a Muller. Flinn, who replaced Draper

Ferris Cadets Give Way Under Smashing Attack

Newark High School opened its football season last Friday, running rough shod over the Ferris Industrial School to the tune of 41 to 0. The game was a disappointment in getting a real line of Newark's strength, as a wet field and light opposition prevented Newark from launching a fast attack.

The Newark backfield distributed honors fairly evenly, Riley and Whitman each getting 2 touchdowns and 2 extra points; Jaquette and Morris contributed touchdowns. Doordan, end, made the other point. Riley's speed and weight told in the line plunges; he tore off tackle in the first few minutes of play and made the first score of the game.

The Newark line was not called on often for defense, as most of the Ferris School plays were around end, but they stopped whatever came their way and opened gaping holes for the back field to dive through. Mayer was outstanding on the defense.

Coach Malin, of Newark, sent in his second team at the end of the second and fourth quarters. They were out-weighted in about the same proportion that Newark's first team out-weighted Ferris. However, no score at fullback, needs to brush up on his kicking.

The entire Delaware line played good football in all departments of the game. Lohman and Glasser, on the wings, tackled viciously and were fast on getting down the field under punts.

was made against them and Smith, second string halfback, contributed some pretty broken field running.

The Ferris School Cadets, coached by Colonel Tanner, were greatly out-weighted and lack the reserve forces that Newark was able to send into the game. However, they played fast, aggressive football and, while the score was sadly against them, they were in there trying up to the final whistle. Tanga and Campbell saved the occasion in a number of instances with hard tackling.

The Newark second team lined-up as follows: Holloway and McCully, ends; Edmondson and Cole, tackles; Walton and Crooks, guards; Amos Jaquette, center; Williamson, quarterback; Frank Mayer, fullback, and Zabenko and Smith, halfbacks.

Referee was Manns, of the University of Delaware. Timekeeper, Scott.

PUBLIC HEARING

The War Department, having under further consideration the petition of several operators of fish pounds in the Atlantic Ocean within the limits of the Wilmington, Delaware, District, which includes the Atlantic Coast from Island Beach Coast Guard Station, New Jersey, to Cape Charles, Virginia, to extend seaward and otherwise modify the lines limiting areas, prescribed by the Secretary of War as zones, within which fish pounds may be authorized, a public hearing upon the subject will be held by the undersigned in the Council Chamber on the third floor of the Tenth street end of the City and County Building on King street, in Wilmington, Delaware, at 10.30 a. m. (Eastern standard time), on Friday, October 15, 1926.

All interested parties are invited to be present at the above time and place, particularly navigation interests and the officials charged with licensing and regulating the fishing industry in the Atlantic Ocean along the coasts of New Jersey, Delaware, Maryland and Virginia.

Oral statements will be heard, but, for accuracy of record, all important facts and arguments should be submitted in writing, as the record of the hearing will be forwarded for consideration by the War Department. Written statements may be handed to the undersigned at the hearing, or mailed to him beforehand.—Earl I. Brown, Colonel, Corps of Engineers, District Engineer.

Agitation For Newark Football Club

The wealth of high class football material concentrated at present in Newark has started agitation for a town team to play at least a Thanksgiving Day game.

With James Keeley, the Cornog boys, the Robertson brothers, Cooper, who played with the Canton Bulldogs, and a number of other nationally known players that are in this section at present, Newark has the opportunity of putting a team on the field that could match strength and experience with any outfit in the country.

Apples may be canned as whole, in pie pieces, or whole in sirup. They may also be baked and canned.

Report Of Egg Laying For August

The following is the report of the Delaware Farm Egg Laying Contest for the month of August. This is a part of the co-operative extension work in agriculture and home economics of the State of Delaware.

Table with 2 columns: Item and Value. Includes Total number of farms reporting (106), Total number of pullets (12,043), Average number of eggs per pullet (11.7), etc.

Flocks Classified According to Size

Table with 3 columns: Small flocks (1-99 birds), Medium flocks (100-399 birds), Large flocks (400 and over). Includes Total No. flocks (32, 83, 16), Average No. pullets per flock (76, 225, 520), etc.

Table with 3 columns: Farm Number, Number of Birds, Av. No. Eggs per Bird. Includes Best flock of pullets (1-99) (65, 75, 19.2), Best flock of hens (1-99) (33, 40, 21.8), etc.

* Mixed flocks are flocks of hens and pullets running together.

Select Your Breeders Now

The Hens—September and October are the best months to select the hens for use as breeders next spring, because it is so easy now to pick out the best hens in the flock.

To qualify for a breeder a hen should meet the following requirements: First—Not stop laying before October 1st. If she is laying her comb will be red, her vent large and moist and her pelvic bones at least two fingers apart.

Second—Heavy layer during past year. If she has been a heavy layer, all the yellow color will be bleached out of her beak and legs. Her head will be strong and smooth, her eyes bright and wide open. Her pelvic bone will be thin and two to four fingers apart; her abdomen large and soft and her skin thin and loose on the body.

Third—Well-made body, vigorous and disease free. Breeders should have large capacity for heart and lung action and food digestion. This is indicated by a large heart girth (spring of ribs), deep chest, long wide back, and deep, full abdomen.

Fourth—Pure bred. The breeders should have the proper color, type of comb and body, and other character for the breed which it represents. And above all, they should come from a strain or family that has been bred for egg production.

The Cockerels—If you have not saved enough breeding cockerels from your own flock, now is the time to buy some. Several good poultrymen in Delaware have kept a large number of cockerels to select from, and will have many good ones to sell during October and November.

Pullets, Scratch Grain, and Floor Litter

Every poultryman knows that he must keep his pullets in good flesh in order to prevent a fall molt. One way to do this is to feed heavily on scratch grain. When the pullets are first moved into the house their grain should be fed in a very shallow litter until they learn to scratch for it.

1926 Pullets

Until November 1st do not include in your record the pullets hatched in 1926.

Downie Bros. Wild Animal Circus Coming

Downie Bros. Wild Animal Circus which will be seen in Newark for one day only, October 8, gives at noon the most novel and unique street parade in the world. Instead of the many cumbersome horse drawn vehicles of bygone days this modern circus parade is composed of a "Mile of Motor Trucks."

The Kiddies all enjoy the clowns. Downie Bros. have twenty-five of the funniest fellows you will see in a long time, headed by Bruce LaFarra, Brownie Silverlake, George Barton and Geo. Everett, Frank Barreau and many others.
