Dear Sister

I received a your Letter this evening and was glad to hear from you said you wanted me to Send you a my Likeness you said you had one But it was not a good one i think it is much Better than I am you said the old folks was looking for me to come home tell them for me that they may take it out in looking Tell Alfred as he has put of answering ^{my letter} for so long a time
that he need not answer it at tall

I wish you would tell father that I do not want him to come to see me for I know he would not not come as I would wish him to come therefore I do not want him
to come at all Beshure and tell him or send him
word
