Dover Del Jun 14. 1862

My Dearest Lou

I hasten to drop you a line informing you that I will be down one day next week without fail. I expected to come down to day until about five minutes since, when I find that I have to remain in Dover this afternoon, and have also to be here on Monday. My Company is progressing finely. I have some 38 names upon the roll.

The mail is already closed, and I am writing in the Post Office

Excuse this note

I Remain

As ever

Lou J Seward

Only yours
