LEGION POST HEARS TALK BY REES

Experiences In China Described By Legion Head

Role of the Flying Tigers and the exploits of the 14th Air Force in China were described by Dr. Carl J. Rees, post commander of the J. Allison Post No. 10, American Legion, at the organization's social meeting this week.

Dr. Rees recently returned from Peshi, China, where he served with the 14th Air Force.

He discussed events leading to the formation of the American Volunteer Group, which later became known as the "Flying Tigers."

Also described were the plight of the Chinese people and the devastating effects of the Japanese war. Foremost among the many impressions he brought back from China was the fact that the Chinese people regard the United States as their greatest friend among the nations to whom they look for leadership.

Correction — Dr. Johnson Was Major, Not Lieutenant

A news story carried in this newspaper last week erroneously stated that Dr. Wallace M. Johnson had been released from the U. S. Army with the rank of lieutenant.

This was in error. Dr. Johnson entered the service as a lieutenant, was soon promoted to captain and had the rank of major when released from service several weeks ago.

The lines containing this information were unintentionally omitted from the story carried last week, for which we are sincerely sorry.

Following the return of Dr. and Mrs. Johnson from Michigan where they are currently visiting, Dr. Johnson will complete renovation of his offices and resume his practice at 237 East Main Street at an early date.

His debut as a violin soloist in Town Hall, February, 1941, marked the first all-violin recital at the Hall in almost two decades. His second recital, on February 13, 1942, won him the Town Hall Endowment Award. He left the NBC Symphony Orchestra under Toscanini to enlist in the United States Navy, and is now first violinist and a frequent soloist of the U. S. Navy Band Symphony Orchestra, in Washington. He was granted special leave for this occasion.

In addition to being a superb performer, Mr. Vardi has shown great promise as a composer. He will play one of his own compositions, "Suite on American Folk Tunes," on Friday evening. Also included on the program will be a paraphrase on the Blue Danube waltzes.

We haven't forgotten this boy...have you?

He hasn't forgotten.

We haven't forgotten, either, soldier.

Not you—or the hundreds of thousands of other veterans who have sweated and bled and given their hands, legs, eyes, minds—yes, and their lives—while we sat at home, cheering.

ON OCTOBER 29TH, the last—and the most important—Bond drive yet made in this war begins... the great Victory Loan.

Secretary of the Treasury Vinson has directed a message to every firm in this city—just as he did to us—asking for co-operation in this—your chance to express your thanks to the boys who won this war.

He is asking labor and management, working together, to contribute once more, as they have done so successfully in the past, to the achievement of E. Bond goals.

The only way this can be accomplished is by accepting a definite quota—and then meeting it. Both the men and women on pay-rolls and the plants themselves should accept these quotas.

The great Victory Loan will help provide cash for many purposes.

It will help raise the money to get our boys home. It must raise the money to give them their mustering-out pay and veterans benefits—educational and all the rest.

It will help pay for war goods already used and take care of contract terminations.

Most important, it will do everything money can do to help patch up the broken bodies and lives of men like this.

For this is the loan with a heart. Of all loans in this war, it is the most human. It pays for healing instead of killing—mercy instead of pain.

Can any businessman look a Victory Bond salesman in the eye and say the Victory Loan is less important than the others—or that he cannot pledge his firm to meet the quota which the Treasury asks him to accept?

We think not. And so we here sign our names in pledge that we accept our quota and will do everything in our power to meet it.

We know we can count on other Americans to do the same.

LET'S ALL MEET OUR QUOTAS IN THE VICTORY LOAN

Just because meat and butter are no longer rationed don't mean that they are plentiful. If you think they are, just try to buy a pound of butter someplace where you're not well known... and liked.

Ration book holders are warned by O. P. A. NOT to throw their ration books away... just in case... because stamps are still needed for the purchase of sugar, the stamp currently valid is No. 38. It will be good for five pounds of sweetening through December 31. Anyone having surplus sugar stamps may leave them at our office.

Harry H. Cleaves killed a deer (four-legged). An excerpt from last week's paper says, "While he was driving home, Harry H. Cleaves, owner of the Cecil Democrat at Elkton, struck and killed a deer when the animal leaped over a fence into the road in front of his automobile."

"The accident occurred Sunday night (Nov. 18) while Mr. Cleaves was driving to Newark. The deer was turned over to William Wideman, game warden."

The account fails to state what disposition Game Warden Bill Wideman made of the deer. I haven't noticed any venison steaks being mentioned lately, have you? Or, have you?

Those fortunate enough to have duets to the Army-Navy Classic in Philadelphia Saturday might do well to acquire one of those maps designed to show out-of-town spectators the easiest and quickest routes to Municipal Stadium, issued by the Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce and Board of Trade.

The maps may get you there but we bet they don't help the traffic situation after the game is over.

While on the subject of this game, we predict that Army's greatest eleven will swamp Navy by thirty points, or more. No, we won't risk much on it... except our reputation as a prognosticator.

The case of Larry McPhail, big-mouth of the New York Yankees, on charges of assault and disorderly conduct at Bel Air, Md., originally set for Monday was postponed until December 10. But it is kept postponed until feeling dies down and it's forgotten all about. Then, it'll probably be nolle prossed or some other legal term that means "hushed up."

Our ego was bolstered recently when we read that ours is one of the oldest professions in existence in these United States.

According to better authority than we are, occupations of the Mayflower passengers included: Merchant, steward-servant, servant-man, lady's maid, bound-boy, Printer and Publisher, physician, jailer, tradesman, wool-carder, farmer, lay-reader, silk-worker, husbandman, carpenter, cooper and seaman.

We'd feel better about the whole thing if that "jailer" had been left out. The exterior appearance of St. Thomas Church has been considerably improved by a coat of paint or two... the same could be said of the Newark Post Building... if we could afford the paint.

One of our former staff-members, Frank Megaragee by name, has returned from the Army and is back at his old stand... on the sports and assistant-editor desk of Newark's greatest weekly newspaper.

Frank is possessed of a marvelous memory... or so it seems to us. He says it's nothing more than his military training and inherent intellect. Mary (the IV) was looking up the files to see if she could find his social security number, he not having been on the payroll since 1943, when the said military quiz kid popped up with the numeral all from memory. Thinking that no one could remember that kind of figures for three years, we scoffed at him but were chagrined when the records revealed that his memory was faultless. The number: 164-16-9078 sounds like the war debt, don't it?

And a little old two-digit numeral, 89, won a pair of nylon's at the Country Club shin-dig Saturday night. Nope, wasn't us. But, it was the lady sitting right next to us. Lightning may not strike twice in the same place but that just proves that it can come darn close.

Just in case you didn't see it in the apology printed elsewhere in this issue, we wish to say here that we are well aware that Dr. Wallace M. Johnson was released from Army service with the rank of MAJOR.

An item in last week's paper stated that he was a lieutenant. This was purely and positively a typographical error. One entire line, which stated that Dr. Johnson entered the service as a lieutenant and was released as a major, was unintentionally, unpromptedly, unwilfully and unforgivably left out. So, please lay-off, won't you... or did you never make a mistake?

Even if we had done it intentionally or ignorantly (which we didn't) we would have chosen a lesser dignity than Dr. Johnson whom we love, respect, honor and sometimes obey.

Travel and hotel reservations are booked solid until after the first of the year, we hear.

A Wilmington sports writer referred to the Newark High School football team as "Smooth as Silk" which, we thought was aptly put. But, even Silk hits a snag now and then as was proven by the 12-2 verdict against the locals in their Turkey Day clash with the Conrad Redskins. Newark put up a commendable effort but just weren't equal to downing the Redskins... on the muddy field.

YELLOWJACKETS DEFEATED BY REDSKINS, 12 TO 2, IN THANKSGIVING DAY GAME

High School Fights Losing Battle In Veritable Sea Of Mud Before Wildly Cheering Crowd; Complete 1945 Season With Record Of Four Won, Three Lost

The Newark High School Yellowjackets wound up their 1945 season in a sea of mud, if not a blaze of glory, by going down to a 12-2 defeat at the hands of the Conrad Redskins on the Richardson Park gridiron Thanksgiving morning before about 2,500 wildly cheering and highly partisan spectators.

Coach Stanley Gibbs' cohorts put up a valiant battle but were simply outplayed and outweighed by a superior team in the heavy going. Had the field been dry, it might have been another story as the local passing and running attack bogged down completely in the goo. Their only touchdown opportunity was thwarted on the one-yard line in the first period, when the Redskins took over on downs.

Despite the poor condition of the playing field, the game was marred by only two fumbles, and the combination of Jesse Malinowski, Lou DiMaio and Ray Norris proved to be the better mudders, rolling up nine first downs to the Yellowjackets' five.

The Yellowjackets found the sloppy going too much of a handicap, and with one exception, were never able to gain consistently. On this one occasion with Silk and Griffin carrying the ball they fell short of a touchdown on Conrad's one yard stripe, but salvaged a safety for their efforts, when two plays later Malinowski in attempting to kick out of danger, received a bad pass from center that found him dancing back and forth behind his own goal line to be eventually hit by a whole host of Yellowjacket tacklers.

In the opening period Conrad took possession of the ball for the first time on their own 40 after Newark was forced to kick on their first series of downs. Before the Yellowjackets were able to organize their defenses, Conrad peeled off five first downs the culminated with Norris scoring on a quarterback sneak.

Newark took its turn in the second quarter in picking up some first downs and yardage, but unlike the Redskins, failed only one yard away from a touchdown. On their last effort at scoring, Don Griffin shot a buck pass over the Conrad line that bobbled around the receivers of both clubs, but in the end it was grounded and the drive was over. Two plays later, they accounted for their only score when Malinowski was trapped in the end zone.

Conrad Clinches Win

The third quarter was fought for the most part in mid field. The Yellowjackets took over late in this period on their 12 and after three plays found them back on the eight, Silk kicked out on their 25 yard mark. On three plays Malinowski brought the ball back to the same point and two more plunges at the Newark line this time by DiMaio, resulted in the Conrad halfback going over for the touchdown.

Newark made one more effort at advancing into Conrad territory, time and the 10 point handicap was too much for them to overcome.

An interception by DiMaio in the waning minutes of the game closed out Newark's last bid for a win. The victory by the Yellowjackets ended their season with four wins, two defeats and a tie.

POST GRID SEASON BOWL TILTS LISTED

Schedule Of Games Expected To Be Completed By Week's End

The colorful pageantry of the current grid season gave signs this week of flaring up in a final blaze as post season bowl games began definitely to show up throughout the nation.

The unbeaten and untied Oklahoma Aggies and the once-beaten St. Mary's Gaels were named to the Sugar Bowl at New Orleans. By the end of the week the picture probably will be complete.

This is how things stand now: Sugar Bowl (New Orleans) — Oklahoma Aggies vs. St. Mary's.

Rose Bowl (Pasadena) — Alabama vs. Southern California or Washington State.

Orange Bowl (Miami) — Holy Cross vs. opponent still to be named.

Sun Bowl (El Paso) — New Mexico vs. opponent still to be named.

Cotton Bowl (Dallas) — Southwest Conference champion, probably Texas, against an opponent still to be named.

Shrine Bowl (San Francisco) — East All-Stars vs. West All-Stars.

Oil Bowl (Houston) — Teams still to be named.

Nothing yet has been heard about the North vs. South game, held at Montgomery, Ala., last year; the Vulcan Bowl at Birmingham; the Flower Bowl at Jacksonville; the Lily Bowl at Hamilton, Bermuda; the Pineapple Bowl at Honolulu; the Spaghetti Bowl at Florence, Italy; the Riviera Bowl in Marseille; or the Tea Bowl in London.

Alabama's Rose Bowl opponent will be decided by the U. S. C.-U. C. L. A. game on Saturday. U. S. C. needs only a tie to gain the coveted spot, but a defeat will give the honor to Washington State.

The University of Miami, Louisiana State, Tennessee and Georgia have been prominently mentioned among the teams from which Holy Cross' Orange Bowl opponent will be named, while either Denver, Wake Forest, Southern Methodist or Virginia is expected to play in the Sun Bowl against New Mexico.

Texas needs only to defeat the Texas Aggies Thursday to enter the Cotton Bowl. Tulsa, which beat Georgia Tech in the Orange Bowl last Jan. 1, may be invited to this bowl.

ARMY-NAVY CLASH RATED TOP GRID GAME OF YEAR; MYTHICAL CROWN AT STAKE

Many Local Fans Plan To Be Among The 105,000 Expected To Jam Franklin Field For Saturday's Historic Tilt

Grand wind-up to the 1945 collegiate football campaign comes this Saturday with the season's game of games from the standpoint of color and grid interest — the Army-Navy clash in Philadelphia, when the all-powerful cadets and the hard-fighting gridders conduct miniature civil war in Franklin Field.

Local interest in the meeting is running high, with many fans planning to make the pilgrimage to the Quaker City Bowl.

The game of the year will find Army rated about a four touchdown favorite to make unbeaten but one-tied Navy its eighteenth straight victim over a two-year period. The greyclads will be aiming to become the first West Point team in history to go through two seasons without a tie or a loss.

About 105,000 fans, including President Truman, will pack Philadelphia's Franklin Field to see whether the mid-dies who finally began to click in their last two contests, can stop Army touchdown twins — Glenn Davis and Doc Blanchard — and crack the great Army forward wall.

While the cadets and middies will be battling for the national title, the Trojans of Southern California and the Texas University Longhorns will strive to gain their respective conference nominations for the Rose and Cotton Bowls.

The Trojans must defeat U. C. L. A. to win the Pacific Coast Conference Championship and the right to meet Alabama in the Pasadena classic. If the Trojans should lose, the Washington State Cougars, who finished this season Saturday with a 7-0 triumph over Washington, will grab the title. Southern California whipped Oregon State 34-7 in its last outing and has a 43 conference record. Washington State won six and lost two games.

Texas, idle last week and leader of the Southwest Conference race with a 4-1 slate, collides with Texas A. & M. (3-2) Thursday while Saturday Rice (3-2) meets Baylor (1-4), and Southern Methodist (3-2). Unless Texas wins the conference fight could end as a three and possibly a four-way battle for the championship.

The Bowl pictures elsewhere began to shape up as the Orange Bowl committee selected Holy Cross and the Sun Bowl named New Mexico as one of its teams. Army and Duke both declared themselves out of any post-season games but the bowl committees had plenty to choose from among Oklahoma A. & M., St. Mary's of California, Tennessee, Virginia, Temple, Tulso, Louisiana State, Denver and Georgia.

Narrowest escape for his ship came one night when a Jap bomber pilot dropped three eggs so close they sprayed water over the bridge. There were a few other close calls, including a hide-and-go-seek skirmish with a Jap task force during the first battle of the Savo Islands in the Solomons.

Death Toll For World War II Set At 22,060,000

The Second World War killed 22,060,000 persons and wounded 30,440,000 according to an estimate made by the Vatican from its own sources and other international agencies.
