Prayer by the Chaplain, Rev. Thomas: Almighty God, in a day when hatred, suspicion and distrust are abroad in the world; when the forces of bigotry, intolerance and prejudice would undermine the pillars of our most cherished institutions, we hang our heads in shame and humbly seek Thy forgiveness for the things which are done in the name of Democracy. We live in a changing world but there are some things that remain: right remains the same, justice is unchanging and truth is the same yesterday, today and forever. Guide us by Thy Spirit O God and save us from all selfishness and petty bickering; preserve us from everything that would reflect unfavorably on our way of life or bring into question our form of government. And now, our Father, we unite our hearts in prayer for one of our number who lies on a bed of suffering; we remember as well the good wife of another member of this body. Reveal Thy presence to them, ease their pain and, if it be Thy will, may they have a speedy and complete recovery. Comfort and strengthen their loved ones in these anxious hours. May they know that Thou dost not willingly afflict and that "all things work together for good to them that trust Thee." May these sad providences draw us closer to Thee and bind us in the bonds of fellowship, friendship and Christian love. Through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Prayer by the Chaplain, Rev. Thomas: Almighty and eternal God, Thou hast made us in Thine own image and endowed us with powers which, if rightly used, have infinite possibilities for good. Suffer us not to be so caught up in the pursuit of the things which perish that we forget that which is eternal. Guide us in the diligent use of our talents that we may prove worthy stewards of Thy grace. In a day when lawlessness is rampant and our national security is threatened, make us alert to every opportunity to restore confidence in government and promote harmony and good will among men. Give us height of wisdom, depth of understanding, and breadth of compassion, and enable us to submerge all lesser loyalties in the interest of the common good. Through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

Prayer by the Chaplain, Rev. Thomas: Almighty and eternal god, Thou creator of the universe and God of all nations; Thou art our God and our fathers' God. We are conscious that our supreme need is Thy presence and approval in all our undertakings. Increase our faith in Thee and Thy purposes for good for all mankind. We thank Thee for the wisdom, courage and sacrifice of those who have preserved our nation and made it a power in the world. We render our humble praise to Thee for those who gave their last full measure of devotion in war. They have passed to us the torch; be it ours to hold it high. May men of good will everywhere enlist against the enemies of mankind. Hasten the day when ignorance, diseases, greed, lust, dishonesty, and lawlessness shall be banished from the earth; when the sword will be beaten into plowshares and the spear into pruning hooks. When truth and righteousness shall cover the earth as the waters cover the sea. We pray in the name of the One whose teachings have given us the principles of Thy Kingdom, the One Who is the Prince of Peace, our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. Amen.

Prayer by the Chaplain, Rev. Thomas: Almighty and eternal Father, we thank Thee that thou art nigh unto all that call upon Thee. We invoke Thy presence as we enter upon the work of this day. Draw near unto us and bless us according to our needs for we would be wise and profitable servants. We have sinned against Thy love. We have followed dreams that died and joys that faded. We have listened to the shallow counsel and wandered in strange paths. Cleanse our hearts from false estimates of our own worth and attune our hearts to Thy will. Forgive us for those things of which our conscience rebukes us and lead us into unselfish service. Through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.
