FOR INSPECTION
JULY 15

NEWARK, DELAWARE, THURSDAY, JULY 15, 1937

NUMBER 25

TESTING LANE OPENED EARLY FOR AUTOISTS

Chief Inspector Urges That Numbers Be Located And Made Readable

ACADEMY STREET SITE
Walter Dent Smith Endorses
Annual Inspection Before
Safety Council

Locate the serial and engine numbers on your cars and have them cleaned for easy reading. Scrape the 1936 sticker from your windshield. Have your registration card and operator's license handy and sign your 1937 inspection card in ink.

This is the advice offered motorists by John Fisher, of Milton, who is in charge of the automobile inspection lane which opened here yesterday. The lane will be operated daily through Saturday, July 24, when it will move to Delaware City. Shifted from Orchard Road, where tests have been made for the last seven years, the lane is being operated on Academy Street below Lovett Avenue.

Inspection Compulsory

While the inspection of all motor vehicles registered in the state is compulsory under Delaware laws, no charge is made for the tests which are carried out by the Motor Vehicle Department under the general direction of Charles L. Terry, Jr., commissioner.

Although the local lane was not scheduled for opening until today, Mr. Fisher, after inspecting state-owned cars, accommodated private automobiles placed in the lane yesterday.

A hearty endorsement was given the annual testing of cars Tuesday, when former Secretary of State Walter Dent Smith, president-manager of the Delaware Safety Council, stated at the semi-monthly meeting of the board of directors, held at the du Pont Hotel, Wilmington, that vehicular defects were a contributing factor in 15 per cent of all motor vehicle accidents.

SPECIAL SHOW AT STATE FOR YOUNG "DUCKS"

Movie Benefit Wednesday To Provide Funds For Free
Swimming

Tickets for the benefit motion picture show scheduled at the State Theatre next Wednesday night for a Children's Swimming Fund were distributed for sale this week by the Lions Club of Newark, sponsor of the plan.

Through the generosity of Louis Handloff, owner of the popular cinema house and a member of the service organization, receipts for the night will be turned over to Dr. J. S. Gould's committee to use for free swimming in the University of Delaware pool by children unable to pay. George Danby, past president of the local Lions organization and a past governor of the Capitol District, is in charge of ticket sales for the special show.

Feature Comedy Billed

"Nobody's Baby," a Hal Roach-Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer feature comedy, introducing the irresistible Patsy Kelly with a new partner in laughs, Lydia Roberti, will headline the Handloff-Lions program. Robert Armstrong and Lynne Overman do their part to create many mirthful moments as male assistants to the Misses Kelly and Roberti.

As student nurses, the two girls' social life is centered around a "flat foot" (cop to you) and "Scoops," a newspaperman, who gets them involved in a night-club mystery. The film is fairly filled with heh, heh, heh! (Thanks to Screen Snaps.)

Popular short subjects round out the bill which will be offered at the usual hours of 7:30 and 9:15 o'clock, daylight time, at no advance in the regular tax.

In addition to seeing a worthwhile program, patrons will be able to aid an even more worthwhile project for kids deserving of a free chance to stretch themselves in a supervised and purified pool.

Rural People Showing Deep Interest In National Convention Of Grangers

By Robert Yearsley

Lecturer, Delaware State Grange
A great coming event of interest to the rural people of America, and especially to all members of the Grange organization, is the 71st annual session of the National Grange, which is to be held this year at Harrisburg, Pa. The dates are November 10-18. An expected attendance of upwards of 15,000 Grange members will make the city of Harrisburg a busy place for ten days, and rarely has any convention been held which brought together more people from the farms.

Thirty-five voting states will be represented in the National Grange session this year, reaching from Maine to Oregon and from Minnesota to Texas. Thousands of members will drive their own cars to Harrisburg, and within a day's driving distance of that city live more than 300,000 members of the Grange; New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio being the three largest states in point of membership.

The "high spot" of the Grange convention will be on Friday, November 12, when the climax degree of the Order (the Seventh) will be conferred four times during the day, with an expected total class of fully 10,000 candidates. Already large numbers of Grange members in many states are looking toward Harrisburg and the opportunity there to advance to the topmost round of Grange ritualism. At the Hartford, Ct., session three years ago, the Seventh Degree class numbered almost 13,000 candidates, following a class nearly as large in 1930, when the convention was held in Rochester, N. Y.

C. OF C. PLANS SPECIAL DAYS FOR BARGAINS

August 3 And 4 Tentatively
Set For First "Dollar Days" In Years

PILNICK IS CHAIRMAN

Sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce, the first "Dollar Day" to be offered shoppers in Newark in several years will be staged on August 3 and 4, if the plans being made by Myer Pilnick, chairman of the mercantile division, are carried out. President George F. Jackson and Herman Handloff, secretary, of the commerce group are assisting Mr. Pilnick in arranging what is hoped will be a smashing two-day sales event.

About 40 local merchants and business houses are being contacted as participants in the movement to bring shoppers here and to concentrate the buying done by Newark people in Newark rather than in neighboring cities and towns. Merchants already lined up in the drive are preparing to make it the finest and most outstanding event from the viewpoint of the conservative shopper ever promoted here.

Pilnick Holds Hopes

Mr. Pilnick states that a preliminary survey he has completed of preparations of merchants shows that never in the history of a sales event in Newark have indications shown the possibilities of such bargains and such values, as may be offered if the merchants agree to cooperate.

The plan has been under discussion for weeks and some merchants have been quietly combing wholesale markets and laying plans for drastic reductions on their present stocks to offer buyers from adjoining sections of Maryland and Pennsylvania, in addition to nearby Delawareans.

Official "Dollar Day" stores, if the plan is adopted, will display a distinctive emblem and price cards, both of which will be provided by the Chamber of Commerce. Shoppers will be urged by the committee in charge to do their buying in those stores displaying the uniform signs and price tickets as they designate those merchants officially participating in the event.

Changes Noted On First Visit Here In 33 Years

Mrs. Ada Vandever, 244 Alverdo Ave., Chula Vista, Cal., who formerly resided in the home now occupied by J. E. Morrison, Creek Road, made her first visit to Newark last week in 33 years. She was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. Franklin Fader, 287 W. Main St.

Astounded at the growth of Newark that has taken place during her long absence, Mrs. Vandever was particularly impressed with the beauty and layout of the University of Delaware. Old College Hall was the lone building on the campus when she resided here.

Her husband, a noted balloon builder and flier, died three years ago. Her son, Earl W. Vandever, who was a classmate of Mr. Fader's at Newark Academy, is in the laundry business in Glendale, Cal.

REFUTES CHARGES

CHIEF ELMER ELLISON

Denying that the Aetna Hose, Hook and Ladder Company refused to pump water from cellars following the record storm on July 5, Chief Ellison denounced his critics this week. While admitting that he refused to permit the only piece of fire apparatus now in service to leave the engine house due to a possible fire emergency, he stated that cellars were being pumped out with a machine suited to the purpose.

He made reference to a similar situation in Talleyville, where the fire engine, being used to pump water from cellars, was delayed in answering an urgent call to a blaze.

CREDIT HEADS AT SALISBURY

Delmarva Officers Assemble
For Coordination Of Work
As Service Medium

L. D. Caulk, of Woodside, president; S. M. Harrington, Dover, secretary-treasurer; and directors, Albert O. Gray, of Kirkwood, and H. C. Milliken, Newark, of the Delaware Production Credit Association have returned from a group meeting of production credit association directors at Salisbury, Md., on June 29 and 30. S. M. Harrington, secretary-treasurer of the association announced this week.

The new Salisbury Production Credit Association, Delaware Production Credit Association, Denton Production Credit Association, Southern Maryland Production Credit Association and the Tidewater Production Credit Association were represented at the group meeting, which was also attended by representatives of the Production Credit Corporation of Baltimore.

Purpose of Meeting

"The main purpose of the meeting was a discussion of coordination of activities, speeding up of service to association members, economy of operation, and ways and means of reaching all potential farmer members," Mr. Harrington said.

"The Delaware Production Credit Association," Harrington further stated, "is a local unit of the Farm Credit Administration which has been set up to loan money to farmers to pay expenses of crop production, such as fertilizer, labor needs, machinery; to purchase livestock and other farming operations which require short-term borrowing. The present rate of interest is 5 per cent, and the method of repayment is based on the farmer's ability to repay."

STATE STARTS BUILDING NEW COUNTY SPANS

Six Timber Bridges Replace Structures Destroyed By Storm July 5

SUFFOCATION VICTIMS

Two Negro Workmen Die
When Buried By Cave-In;
Recovers From Shock

Six new permanent creosoted timber bridges, costing approximately $16,000, to replace those destroyed by the Christiana River and its tributaries on July 5, will be erected immediately by the State Highway Department.

Earl E. Downing, division engineer for New Castle County, said this week that 300 men are being used to clear up debris, make fills and repair surfaces damaged by the most violent storm ever recorded in this section of Delaware.

Bridges to be built are: one near Dayett's Mill, Cooch's Bridge; one on the Chestnut Hill Road, near Welsh Tract schoolhouse; three on the road from Christiana to Cooch's Bridge; and one on the dirt road connecting South Chapel Street and Cooch's Bridge, south of Newark.

Prefer Boiled Water

Most of the inhabitants of the flooded area have refused to have their water chlorinated as they prefer to boil it rather than put up with the taste of chlorine, inspectors of the State Board of Health reported last week.

Two Negroes were suffocated Monday afternoon when buried by a ditch cave-in near Cochran's Store, Capitol Trail and Harmony Road.

The two men, Perry T. Lewis, 42, of 122 Logan Street, Wilmington, and David Tucker, 19, of Belvedere, were engaged in a bridge replacement. Their bodies were dug from under tons of dirt by fellow employees of George and Lynch, Dover contractors.

Harry M. Faunce, of Port Penn, inspector on the job, organized and directed the rescuers. The Newark ambulance rushed the bodies to Wilmington, but the men were believed to have been dead when released from the ditch.

New State Books List Telephones For Convenience

A new telephone directory containing in a single volume the listings of subscribers in every community in Delaware is being delivered throughout the state. Distribution began today and will be completed Saturday.

This announcement was made today by J. Edward Murphy, manager for the Diamond State Telephone Company, who pointed out that 41,000 copies of the new Diamond State directory will be delivered. A force of 60 men will make the distribution.

The new book contains 36,800 listings in the white section. These include all subscribers in Delaware, together with those in 21 nearby out-of-state points which are called frequently. The yellow section contains listings of business subscribers in Newark and adjacent communities.

Explains Arrangement

"This new arrangement of the white section," Mr. Murphy explained, "was introduced in order to make the directory a more complete reference medium. It makes instantly available listings which heretofore subscribers could obtain only by calling 'information.' This feature should prove to be a real time saver to telephone users."

There are thousands of new and changed numbers contained in the new directory. Hence Mr. Murphy urged everyone to consult the new book for the correct numbers before placing calls, especially to subscribers in Laurel, Seaford, Bridgeville and Greenwood. In these communities the dial method of operation is being placed in service on July 16. This necessitated changing all telephone numbers there.

"Occasionally," Mr. Murphy concluded, "memoranda, papers or other valuable material are inserted between the pages of the telephone directory by subscribers. For this reason a last minute check of the old directory before it is collected may save a long and possibly fruitless search later on."

IMPROVED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL Lesson

By REV. HAROLD L. LUNDQUIST,
Dean of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.
© Western Newspaper Union.

Lesson for July 18

LESSON TEXT—Exodus 3:13-16; 4:10-16; 5:1.
GOLDEN TEXT—The Lord will give strength unto his people.—Psalm 20:11.
PRIMARY TOPIC—When Moses Was Afraid.
JUNIOR TOPIC—Moses Made Ambassador.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—God Stands by His Workers.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Strong in the Strength of God.

Never in a hurry! Who? God. He needed a human leader to bring his chosen people up out of the bondage of Egypt and he spent 80 years getting him ready—40 years learning all the wisdom of Egypt, and 40 years learning the lessons of God, patience and humility, on the back side of the desert.

Infinite and omnipotent is God, and he may move with faster-than-lightning speed. But usually we find him working out his blessed purposes, normally, quietly, but always "on time."

Our lesson brings before us the meeting with God which preceded the appearance of Moses as the head of the nation of Israel in its mighty conflict with Pharaoh. We find him first proceeding with commendable care but then going on in unfortunate humility which amounted almost to unbelief and which resulted in the substitution of his brother Aaron as his spokesman, but eventually we do see him going about his difficult task with resolution and courage.

I. Justifiable Caution (Exod. 3:13-16).

Neither God nor man dare entrust a high and difficult commission to a foolish man who brusquely "rushes in where angels fear to tread." The fact that one feels fully and unhesitatingly qualified to take over such a responsibility is almost a certain indication that he is not the man to assume it.

The ambassador must have credentials. God's representative has them. When "they shall say"—what an important and difficult situation that creates. The one who speaks for God must expect not only the scornful bitterness of God's enemies, but also the unbelieving questions of those he seeks to serve.

"What shall I say?" asks Moses, and God answers that he may say that "I AM" had sent him. This name of God reveals him as the eternal, independent, self-sufficient, self-existent, immutable, personal being. Consider, Christian brethren, whose we are and whom we serve. Here indeed is "inspiration in excess of duty," real equipment for Christian life and service.

But Moses seems to be unable to see beyond his own human infirmity even in the light of such a glorious revelation, supplemented as it was by miraculous powers, and we find him showing an

II. Unjustified Humility (Exod. 4:10-12).

When God calls a man he knows his limitations—why then should one plead them as an excuse for not serving? The excuse of Moses that he was not a fluent speaker has been the stand-by of unwilling workers all through the ages. When asked to lead a prayer meeting, teach a Sunday School class, conduct a young people's meeting, thousands have lamely thus excused themselves and missed a blessing.

The perfect answer of God in v.11 merits attention. God made your mouth and mine. He gives us the power of speech. He asks not the eloquence of polished rhetorical periods, or the flights of man's imagination. He wants but the incomparable eloquence of his own words on our lips. Dr. Richard Ellsworth Day in "Bush Aglow" rightly points out that this was the secret of the power of D. L. Moody.

III. Unnecessary Substitution (Exod. 4:13-16).

Loving and patient is our God, but there is a boundary line to that patience. Moses went too far in his humility and reflected on the ability of God, who promptly substituted Aaron as the spokesman.

Gracious was He in thus providing a helper for Moses. But one wonders what Moses missed of blessing and power because of his slowness of heart.

IV. "And Afterward" (Exod. 5:1). Commissioned, bearing credentials from the infinite and eternal "I AM," and with a strong and eloquent brother by his side, Moses stands before Pharaoh to say in God's name, "Let my people go."

Preparation and the holy privilege of fellowship with God are to make us ready for service. While it is folly to go unprepared, it is double folly to prepare and then fail to go when God commands.

Morning and Evening Prayer.
It is well to let prayer be the first employment in the morning and the last in the evening.—M. Luther.

As He Sees Us
As we come to know ourselves through and through, we come to see ourselves more as God sees us.

The Counters of Wise Men
Words are the counters of wise men, and the money of fools.—Hobbes.

At right is a section cut from a smooth, worn tire, with non-skid protection worn off. Tires in this condition are liable to punctures, blowouts and skidding.

At left is section cut from a new Firestone tire. Note the thick, non-skid protection against skidding, blowouts and punctures. Come in and see by actual demonstration.

Responses Like This Are Always Appreciated—Corrections Welcomed

Newark, Delaware
July 12th, 1937

Mr. Charles H. Rutledge
Editor, Newark Post
Newark, Delaware
Dear Sir:

In your interesting article on the flood damage of last Monday night there is a section concerning certain criticism against the firemen for refusing to use the fire engine for pumping out the flooded basements, including the basement of the Memorial Library. While it is true that the fire engine was not brought to our relief it is not true that we were refused relief. Mr. Elmer J. Ellison brought a gasoline engine pump to the Library as soon as the rain ceased and worked at getting the water out of the basement until about three a. m. This was of great assistance to us in preventing even greater damage to our books, and we wish to express our appreciation for this service.

Sincerely yours,

(Signed) E. B. CROOKS,
Chairman of Library Committee

Advice From An Expert

Apply kerosene lightly to the skin on the areas where the presence of chiggers is suspected, advises Dr. Paul L. Rice, extension entomologist at the University of Delaware, then take a hot bath immediately. Lather the body freely with medicated soap, letting the lather dry on the skin for 15 minutes before removing it. Scrub well during the bath with a coarse washrag or brush to dislodge the chiggers as much as possible.

Better still, take precautions before going into woods, underbrush, or grassy areas where there are likely to be chiggers. Wear leather leggings or high-top shoes over the trousers. Or better still, dust the body and underwear with flowers of sulphur, an inexpensive powder sold by druggists. A light application of kerosene to the outer clothing, such as work clothes or overalls, is also a good preventative.

IT CAN BE DONE

EDGAR A. GUEST is a go-getter. That's the ruling philosophy of his life, and of the well-loved poems that his life has brought forth. If a thing is worth doing, according to this poet who glorifies "just folks," just do it, and the chances are that it will be done well, if you really want to do it.

So when, early this spring, Edgar Guest had an idea for a new radio program, the first thing he thought of was the great throng of plain American citizens who have done things well, who have done them against odds and have done them well because they wanted to and wouldn't give up.

He instituted a search, first of all, that reached from one end of the country to the other, finding these people in big towns and little ones, in the greatest cities and the smallest crossroad hamlets. Everybody told him that the job was impossible, that ordinary folks of the type he sought would never come all the way to Chicago just to go on the air, and he would get nothing but polite jeers for all his labor.

"You're all wrong," said Guest to his friends. "This is a job I'm going to like, and I know it can be done."

He unearthed one, and then another, and still more, and on April 6th put on his first program featuring the life story of Dr. F. E. Austin, retired Hanover, N. H., professor who discovered and first marketed ant palaces.

Interesting personalities followed that first program thick and fast. A lady dog detective from New York City and a lady baseball scout from Texas compared notes with the owner, engineer, trackwalker and chairman of the board (four men rolled up in one) of the world's shortest railroad, in Ohio. Then there was the Chicago policeman who, at the age of forty, decided to become an attorney. At the same time she was suddenly burdened with the care of her orphaned grandchildren. She was a perfect personality for "It Can Be Done."

The number of these interesting people with "It Can Be Done" histories increase every week when the show goes on over the National Broadcasting Company's blue network every Tuesday at 8:30 P. M. eastern daylight time. Clayton Buckner, now president of Waco Aircraft Corporation, who made his boyhood dreams build him an airplane factory, has appeared, and so has Mrs. William Walrath, famous founder and director of "The Cradle" at Evansville, Ind., an institution that has placed more than 3000 homeless children in adopted families.

Rufus Woods, of the Grand Conlee Dam Commission; Roselle Brewer, twenty-three-year-old blind girl who is one of the most popular public speakers in the middle west; Gretchen Reichard, waitress who took up parachute jumping as a part-time job and was the second woman in the country to receive a glider license; Mrs. Henry Howard, head of the society which puts books for sailors on every ship of our merchant marine—still they keep coming, and still Eddie Guest keeps hunting for them in Maine, Florida, Idaho, South Dakota, or wherever his unerring instinct takes him.

"It Can Be Done" is a monument to "Guest and his Guests," and the fine principle that draws them all together.

Friday and Saturday

America's fastest growing comedy team, Bob Burns and Martha Raye, are co-starred for the first time in "Mountain Music," a gay story of life among the hillbillies. The careers of both Burns and Miss Raye have been unique in movie annals. Both came to pictures from radio and made their debuts in "Rhythm on the Range." They made such a brilliant showing in this film that Paramount signed them to a long term contract. "Mountain Music" is ideally suited for Burns' unique talents, its locale is in the Ozark Mountain region, the country from which Burns hails from and which he made famous over the air. The supporting cast includes John Howard, Rufe Davis, Fuzzy Knight, and Terry Walker.

A thrilling western will be added to the bill on Saturday.

Monday and Tuesday

With three famous stars heading its cast, Bette Davis, Edward G. Robinson and Humphrey Bogart, a drama of the prize-ring called "Kid Galahad" will have its local showing these two days. Made from the best-selling novel by Francis Wallace, ace sports fictionist, this Warner Bros. thriller deals not only with those elements of the boxing ring with which everyone is familiar, but with the behind-the-scenes maneuvering of fighters and managers. Besides the three well-established stars previously mentioned, there's a new star, revealed in the person of Wayne Morris, a 23-year-old newcomer who plays the role of Kid Galahad.

The latest issue of "The March of Time" will be added to the bill each evening.

Wednesday

"Nobody's Baby," the Hal Roach-M-G-M feature comedy, introduces a new comedy team. Patsy Kelly and Lyda Roberti are the pair. Along with these two stars of comedy will find Robert Armstrong and Lynne Overman doing their part to make everyone happy that sees this picture. As student nurses the two girls' social life is centered around a "flat-foot," (cop to you) and "Scoops," a newspaper man who gets them involved in a night club mystery. I can't tell you all, come see the film and then go home happy.

Thursday

The legion of Claudette Colbert fans who have grown accustomed to seeing their ideal in snappy, fast-moving roles, have a treat in store this day when the lovely brunette star arrives at this theatre in "I Met Him in Paris," a comedy as witty and scintillant as the gay French capital and the snows of the Swiss Alps, where the action of the film takes place. Melvyn Douglas and Robert Young, who both appeared in previous Colbert hits, are cast in the roles of the two writers who meet Miss Colbert on vacation in Paris, and simultaneously fall in love with her. This picture presents Miss Colbert exactly as we fans have demanded her in another role like she did so well in "It Happened One Night." See it readers, its OK.

Lightning Victim Recovers

Struck by lightning at the height of the storm on July 5, Willard E. (Dutch) Weller, of Rex Mills, was knocked unconscious. He was rescued by Randolph and Rodney Eastburn and rushed to Dr. E. Earle Weg-genmann for treatment of shock and first degree burns.

A check-up on damages in White Clay Creek Hundred revealed the total loss of a valuable river-bed field on the property of J. E. Morrison, Creek Road. Developed by his father, the field was used to grow high-grade celery by the present owner of the property.

The whole plot was buried under a gravel embankment that washed from under the tracks of the Newark and Pomeroy Branch of the Pennsylvania Railroad, northwest of Newark. Several hundred cubic yards of gravel were swept over the field by a force of water that threatened to wash a cider mill, located along the highway, into White Clay Creek. About 30 yards of track were left suspended without support other than end plates on the rails when the embankment washed away.

Luxury's Lap

The luxuries of yesterday are common possessions of today. Witness the radio, electric refrigerator and other home appliances. Now it is the turn of the vacuum cleaner and washing machine, and other things electric.

The ads in this newspaper, by popularizing these articles, have widened the demand for them, paved the way for large-scale production and have thereby brought down manufacturing costs to a point where the price has enabled more families here to afford them.

Our ad pages offer one way in which advertisers can help lift the level of living to luxury's lap.

The Little Giant

Baseball fans throughout the Delaware Peninsula are registering praise for the pitching feats of such stalwarts as Comellas and Kohlman of Salisbury, and Howard Killen with the Dover Orioles. The praise is merited and any excitement among the fans is justified by the excellence of the hurlers' individual talents.

Our nomination for the best chucker on the Peninsula, however, is Paul Whiteman. Little has been said of his deeds to date, but Paulie is enjoying one of the greatest seasons in his grand career. After suffering an injury to his right shoulder during the winter, when a shotgun "kicked" the joint out of place and threatened to end his hurling days, Whiteman has "come back" to win six games against a lone defeat.

"THE ROAMER"

R-W-R

Scoreless Wonder

Handing George Winter's powerful Diamond Ice and Coal Company co-heros their first setback of the season, 7-4, at Middletown on May 2, Whiteman has since registered wins over the following teams: May 9, Oxford, 15-1; May 30, Milford, 3-1 in 13 innings; June 20, Bridgeton, 5-0; July 4, Woodstown, 21-0; and Sunday, Diamond Ice and Coal Company, 2-0.

The Dicos beat Whiteman at Continental Field on May 16, when he was batted from the mound as the Jackets took a 13-to-4 setback. Holding the vaunted Brownies runless while besting talented "Tut" Talley in a great duel Sunday, Paul not only gained sweet revenge for his lone defeat, but ran his string of scoreless innings pitched to 30.

Not since Milford counted a lone run in the eighth chapter of the 13-inning battle on Decoration Day has an opponent scored against Whiteman. That Milford run constitutes the only marker charged against him in 37 innings.

He is the only pitcher to hold more than one victory over the Diamond Ice array, which is something out of the ordinary to write home about.

R-W-R

Unfortunate

Whiteman's work emphasizes the need for league baseball to stimulate interest in the game. Less than 50 people paid to see the contest Sunday despite the fact that it was a "natural" in every sense of the word. Diamond Ice, with any of its hurlers working—Rawley, Winter, Kline or Talley—was sure to be well represented on the hill, while Newark, with Whiteman throwing them up, never has to take a back seat. That lad is magnificent. The game was of the sort that is satisfying to fans, but they don't go in for the independent variety.

Put the high-stepping Jackets, and they are looking great this year, in a hot scrap for a pennant and the new stands that are going to waste at Continental Field wouldn't be big enough to accommodate the crowds. It would be great advertising for the town, and would give the players something more than mere exercise for the afternoon.

R-W-R

Citronella Circuit

Now that the mosquitoes have wised up to the fact that the big lights at the various parks in the Eastern Shore League draw people, they are swarming to the games for nightly feasts. . . . Dover players keep a "fit gun" on the bench as a defense against the pests. . . . Concessionaires would do well to add citronella to their supply of soft seats, peanuts, pop and the like.

Norris Edward Covington, Slim to you, who is known from Miami to Atlantic City, via Newark, as Federalburg's greatest booster also has quite a reputation as a talker. . . . Slim was speechless the other night, however. . . . A close follower of the Eastern Shore loop and a Dover partisan too, expressed, in Slim's presence, the opinion that Federalburg's team isn't so hot. . . . For once in his life the affable and usually valuable "Burgher" was flabbergasted. . . .

TOP OF ROUND ROBIN CONTEST

Ned McCully And Steve Bartosheski Advance To Semi Finals
Of Men's Singles; Former Downs Tom Laskaris; Blue
Hen Ace Scores 6-4, 6-4 Win Over Dr. Kase
By Ace Seeds

Resorting to a sizzling chop stroke in the closing games of her match, Miss Ann Chalmers succeeded in taking the measure of Miss Mary Lou (Reds) Gaffney, 6-4, 6-4.

In a see-saw first chucker, with Miss Chalmers' forehand drives featuring the play, the former Newark High School athletic star, succeeded in grabbing Miss Gaffney's last service to take the set. Long rallies and hotly-contested deuce games spotted the match.

Continued Monday afternoon, after darkness had halted the proceedings last Thursday, the two leading stars in the tourney held service again until the last game, when the Wilmington ace, confronting an effective chop stroke, weakened before Miss Chalmers' change in pace to drop the match and the lead.

Extended Match

In a long drawn-out affair, Mrs. Connie Goodwin copped her first victory in the tourney by annexing a win over Mrs. Louise Goddin by 8-6, 7-5 counts. The match was marked by long rallies, with Mrs. Goddin's chop strokes failing to register against the victor's hard-driving tactics.

The victory placed Mrs. Goodwin in fourth position with a percentage of .333, trailing Mrs. Elizabeth Reese who remained inactive during the week.

Remaining matches are as follows: Mrs. Goodwin vs. Mrs. Reese; Miss Chalmers vs. Mrs. Reese; Mrs. Goddin vs. Miss Chalmers and Mrs. Goddin vs. Miss Gaffney.

Some progress was made in the men's singles tourney as Ned McCully, 1935 champion and fourth seeded star, and Steve Bartosheski, University of Delaware freshman sensation and third seeded player, advanced to the semi-final round by virtue of easy victories.

McCully experienced little difficulty in driving Stylist Tom Laskaris from the court in straight sets by counts of 6-2 and 6-3. The victor's consistent court game was too much for Laskaris' stroking, who made his way to the quarter finals via Lee Rice's forfeiture.

Dr. C. R. Kase felt the sting of a student's racquet when the abbreviated Bartosheski administered a 6-4, 6-4 trouncing to the local prof. The match was well-played throughout, but the Hen ace kept the play under control at all times, applying the pressure whenever it was needed.

Chris Laskaris Advances
In the same bracket, Chris Laskaris, the recipient of a default from his brother, George, advanced to the quarter finals by pounding out an easy conquest over Bob Medl. Laskaris piled up a 6-2 win in the first set and then continued his winning ways by completing the match in an efficient manner, 6-3.

Chauncey Wheelless, second seeded star in the tourney, will face Laskaris in the quarter finals for the right to meet Bartosheski.

In the upper bracket, McCully will meet the winner of the Williamson-Carey conflict. The former advanced through the second round by virtue of Jack Sinclair's forfeit.

Seeded stars have experienced little trouble thus far and all indications point to the top-notchers facing each other in the semi-final round. Wheelless should easily score over Laskaris while there is little doubt over the outcome of the Carey-Williamson tilt.

Doubles Started

George Mix and El Miller opened the doubles tournament by trouncing the Harry Williamson-Bill Fletcher team to the tune of 6-1, 6-4. Mix and Miller, playing constant and at times, hard tennis, had little difficulty in annexing the match as they forced their opponents into numerous errors.

Ned McCully and Jack Bridge-water also advanced via a 6-2, 6-3 victory over Tom Laskaris and Marshall McCully. The two winning teams will meet for the privilege of entering the final round. The remaining first round match will see the Bob Hancock-Dave Cronhart combine facing Chris and Lee Laskaris.

Thirty-two pill chasers will line up on Saturday to enter into the competition for the President's Cup at the Newark Country Club. The qualifying round was held last Saturday, Sunday and Monday with B. F. (Sanky) Richards of Wilmington, compiling the low gross score of 73. Don Tammany, another Wilmington golfer, 16 years old, sporting a handicap of 22, chalked up the low net count with a 66.

H. A. Turner, also of Wilmington, will defend his 1936 title in this elimination event which creates much interest and excitement around the local links.

Legion Defeated
By Fibremen But
Conquer Jackson

Thrown for a 14-to-10 loss in a slugfest with Continental Diamond Fibre last Friday night, Roy Hill's American Legion Juniors stepped on the gas to defeat Jackson's Hardware, 5-4, in a well played contest Monday. The games opened the second half of the Newark Twilight League race.

Melvin Brooks and Gregg divided the hurling chores for the Legion outfit in the winning effort against Jackson's, with Bud Lloyd and Gene White working for the losers. The slugging Hardwaremen were held to three blows. Bob Pilnick, who is playing a whale of a fielding game for the Legion, delivered a timely triple that aided in the victory for his mates.

Hancock Belts Homer

With Jack Daly going the distance for Continental in the Friday tussle, the young Legionnaires slammed the agate for 14 bingles, including a home run by Billy Hancock. Henry Brooks and Grundy served time on the mound for the Legion. They were nicked for 17 safeties.

Continental tossers registered their second triumph of the second half Tuesday night when Reggie Conway held National Fibre to three hits for a 4-to-1 victory over Boney Jackson. Bill Barrow had a perfect night at the plate, collecting three hits, including a double, in as many times at bat. Aaron (Rube) Argo, with two singles and a triple, accounted for all of National's hits.

Following is the complete second-half schedule as drawn up by Thomas Kay, Sr., of Elk Mills, at the request of Ellis Peabody Cullen, secretary of the loop.

A double by Mike Peterson and a timely home run that flew from Egnor George's big bat in the third inning gave "Peerless Paul" Whiteman a well deserved edge over Tut Talley, 2-0, Sunday at Continental Field. Less than 50 spectators paid to see the Jackets humble the Diamond Ice and Coal Company team of Wilmington in the third and deciding game of the series that opened early in May.

In marking up his third straight shutout, Whiteman held the slugging Dicos to six scattered blows and retired ten by the strikeout route. It was sweet revenge for the diminutive righthander who was driven from the hill for his lone loss of the campaign by the selfsame Wilmington contingent on May 16.

Fresh from several successful seasons in organized ball, Talley also hurled a great game. He forced seven Jackets to wave at third strikes while limiting them to five bingles. Only the extra-base barrage in the winning third chapter stood between the home crew and a shutout. The contest was limited to seven innings by agreement.

Finds Batting Eye

In addition to his masterful mound work, Talley cracked out three hard-hit singles for half of the Dicos' collection of bingles. Welsh, Riley and Jewell were the only other opponents able to solve Whiteman's offerings for safeties.

Alex Kelleher and Bob Duffer, each fanning three times, looked foolish as they waved at Whiteman's sharp-breaking drop ball. Welsh and Crowley, once each, and Jewell, on two occasions, were other strikeout victims.

Talley whiffed Peterson, George, Sheats, Barrow and Daly once apiece, while Egnor fanned at the breezes on two appearances at the plate.

Only one Newarker was able to advance as far as third base, outside of the scoring inning. After Barrow had singled in the fourth, Roberts forced him at second. He advanced on a wild pitch and took third when Elliott dropped Daly's fly, but died as Egnor fanned and Whiteman bounced out to Crowley.

By BILL FLETCHER

IT'S A LAMENTABLE FACT that the second annual NEWARK POST tennis tournament should be marred and spoiled with a series of defaults which may or may not be a reflection of the lack of enthusiasm on the part of many of the contestants.

It is true that in a few cases the tennis players encounter some unforeseen event which necessitates their dropping out of the play, but many times the default comes about through a combination of inexperience and an "I don't-care" attitude.

Among the four players occupying the quarter finals in the upper bracket, three advanced to this position via the "drop out" route, a situation which is a black eye on any affair. A lack of enthusiasm and interest seem to be the primary factors in the wrong results the contestants have taken.

"Old Man Weather" evidently heard of his depression tears and decided to take a week of the opportunity time to "drop out" for he poured forth with a deluge of rain that wrecked the courts and did not little damage as he was drenching the players' zest for the game is concerned.

It is evident, however, after taking everything into consideration, that the real interest in the game is not here and hopes of forming a tennis club might just as well be pushed into the background. A small group, representing a minority of those who like to play a racket, are willing to cooperate and have cooperated in every way possible, but the number is small, and it is to be of any consequence.

two runs when Peterson slammed a double to right center after Whitman had kicked to Riley for the initial out in the third. Myers lined to Welsh for the second out as Peterson held second.

With a count of three-and-two on him, George dug his cleats into the ground and slammed Talley's sharp curve over the leftfield fence to cross the plate behind Peterson for the only runs of the afternoon.

Diamond Ice threatened in the fourth when Riley pumped a single to right, Elliott was safe on Myers' fumble of his fly and Talley drilled a single to center to load the cushions with none away.

Stupid base running by Elliott, who wandered off second when Crowley popped to Daly, resulted in a double killing and Duffy struck out to end the uneasiness on the Newark bench.

SEVERLY BURNED

Picking up a "live" electric cable carrying 2300 volts at Charleston, Md., Monday, Martin suffered harsh burns on his left hand, both shoulders, his head and back. He was saved from being electrocuted when a youth used a board to knock the cable from his grasp.

Martin was treated at the Union Hospital, Elkton, before being taken to St. Francis' Hospital, Wilmington, on Tuesday. There is a possibility that the injured hand will have to be amputated.

Proprietor of the State Billiard Parlors here, Martin is one of the leading pocket billiard players in this section. He was runner up to Chess Huss of Oxford in the Tri-State cue circuit last winter.
