

Campus

THE BLUE HEN

OLD COLLEGE

*Lend me of thy dignity, O stately walls
And thy traditions, honored halls.*

THE LIBRARY

*Thy age is but an infant's—
Thy knowledge beyond all time.*

THE BLUE MEN

THE CAMPUS

(Looking South)

THE BLUE MEN

HARTER HALL

New thy bricks and mortar are Yet old in pleasant memories.

THE BLUE HEN

WOLF HALL

*Though modern are thy chambers,
They speak of ancient alchemy.*

RECITATION HALL

*Cold walls without a soul—
The sounding boards of knowledge.*

OLD COLLEGE
(From Recitation Hall)

THE BLUE MEN

PURNELL HALL

*Thy ancient ivy-covered walls
Will e'er part of me remain.*

THE BLUE HEN

FRAZER FIELD ENTRANCE

THE GYMNASIUM

THE BLUE HEN

THE KNOLL, HOME OF PRESIDENT HULLIHEN

THE INFIRMARY

THE BLUE HEN

WOMEN'S COLLEGE OF DELAWARE

THE BLUE HEN

Alma Mater

Come ye forth all ye sons to greet her
To your Alma Mater sing,
Let our song rise to tell her glories,
Let each voice with gladness ring
Of her fame let us ne'er tire singing
Let her victories be told —
We can well be proud of dear old Delaware
So cheer the Blue and Gold

CHORUS

Rah! Rah! Rah!
Hurrah for Delaware!
Rah! Rah! Rah!
With name and fame so fair
Hurrah! Rah! Rah!
May her glories never grow old!
Boys let's cheer that name so dear
Hurrah for the Blue and the Gold.

True her blue as the skies of heavens
Purity and worth her gold;
They stand forth a banner emblematic
Truth and honor they unfold.
Raise this flag to the starry heavens
And when they her folds behold,
Off will come all hats and then just once again
We'll cheer the Blue and Gold.