PRICE FIVE CENTS

$500 FIRE THREATENS BUSINESS DISTRICT

Roberts Store Damaged By Fire Early Wednesday

The prompt action of a member of the Newark Police Department prevented what might have been a serious fire early Wednesday morning.

Town Officer Norval Robinson, while patrolling the streets of the town, discovered smoke pouring from the ice cream store operated by Denver Roberts in the State Theatre and speeding to the fire house he turned in the alarm.

The Aetna Hose, Hook & Ladder Company responded with two pieces of apparatus and when the glass in the door was broken it was found that a short circuit in the motor of the ice cream cabinet had set the store on fire.

Dense clouds of smoke hampered the firemen for a while until they put on smoke masks and entered the building with booster streams. The flames were confined to the one store but smoke filled the theatre and other parts of the building. Upon the arrival of Herman Handloff who opened up the theatre, the blowers were put in operation and the smoke was quickly forced out of the theatre.

The entire stock of Mr. Roberts' store was destroyed as well as the majority of the fixtures and he stated that his loss would come close to $500 which included the motor. Mr. Roberts stated that he had no insurance on his stock.

HULLIHEN LEGION SPEAKER

"The War" Is Discussion Topic

Dr. Walter Hullihen, president of the University of Delaware was the guest speaker this week at the monthly meeting of J. Allison O'Daniel Post No. 10, American Legion in their rooms in the Old Academy building.

Following a routine business meeting presided over by Dr. Carl J. Rees, vice-commander Dr. Hullihen led a round table discussion on "The War" and those taking part in the discussion were: Commander Paul D. Lovett, Dr. John B. Downes, Dr. T. A. Baker, Dr. J. Fenton Daugherty, Dr. Paul K. Muselman, George Haney, Gerald M. Gilligan, Carroll W. Mumford, W. Floyd Jackson, Wayne C. Brewer, Robert Boyd, George A. Hyde, Fremont Loefell and Dr. Rees.

The general idea of the discussion was making an appraisal of the war as it now stands and the necessary steps which must be taken before the war is won. It was brought out that must guard against over-optimism. Plans for Post-War were discussed and the changes that may occur in the lives of the people and the government in relation to foreign powers.

Dr. Hullihen said that every nation is ready to believe that it is far superior to any other nation and this is by no means untrue of our country. We must not depreciate our enemies just because they are enemies. Rather we should recognize the strength and power of our enemies and at all times be ready to cope with them.

The letter stated that they had received a report from the Army Headquarters via their operator at Cape May that colored flares were seen several miles south of Elkton. The report was stated to have originated from the observation post at Chestnut Hill.

After investigation by the Naval Intelligence it was discovered that the flares in question had been sent up by testers of the Triumph Explosives Company on their pyrotechnic proving grounds at White Hall on the Elk River.

Although the flares reported at this time proved to be of an innocent character this may not always be the case and the observers should be complemented on the accuracy of their report.

TEST RAID HELD FOR MEDICAL UNITS

Medical Unit Practice Test Reveals Flaws In Organization

The current series of tests of the efficiency of civilian defense medical units in New Castle County was completed on Sunday with drills at Delaware City, Middletown and Newark.

The test raid in Newark was the first experienced since the middle of December and was not a general air raid as there were no whistles and sirens blown.

Civilian Defense workers were notified by phone when the yellow signal came over the wires at two o'clock and everyone quietly went to their respective stations. Traffic moved as usual with the exception of areas where test incidents were being held and in these areas traffic was detoured around with no interruptions.

At headquarters following the test raid it was stated that the test was far from a success as many defects in the setup and operations were brought out. It was pointed out that in several cases ambulances were sent out with no one but the driver on the machine and casualties were picked up at the scene of accidents without any first aid being given which in case of a real raid might have resulted in the death of the victim.

Three incidents were staged, the first being the supposed dropping of demolition and incendiary bombs by raiding enemy planes in the center of town. Handloff's 3 and 10-Cent Store was supposed to have been bombed with several persons caught in the damaged building. Hot electric and telephone wires were supposed to be down on the street and water mains were burst and walls were in danger of toppling over on rescue workers.

Dr. Glen Skinner and his crew were rushed to the scene along with fire apparatus and ambulances. Dr. Skinner's crew took care of unexploded Please turn to Page—2

FOOD GOALS FOR 1943 SHOW WAR CROP NEED

R. L. Walson,
County Agent
Urges Increased
Farm Production

The county and community committees of the A.A.A. committee of New Castle County met at the County Extension office in Newark on Tuesday to study and go over the 1943 A.A.A. program and the 1943 food goals. County chairman Barton T. Hopkins of New Castle presided over the meeting and explained why the group had been called together.

Ralph L. Walson, county agent, in explaining the 1943 program and the food goals said that again this year there would be payments for corn and wheat allotments with adequate provisions for the farmer to grow all he could.

The 1943 program calls for an increase of 25 per cent in hog production over last year. A two to five per cent increase is indicated for milk cows, and eggs. Although no goals have been suggested regarding broiler production, it is estimated this may be increased by about eight per cent. It was also suggested that the following war crops be increased in New Castle County: tomatoes, sweet corn and peas for canning; white potatoes for market, and soybeans for oil.

George M. Worriow, associate director of extension explained the meaning and purpose of Mobilization Day and said that the government from the president down, felt that the farmer should have some form of recognition for a 1942 job, well done. Mr. Worriow urged greater production for the year 1943 as there was a greater need for all food commodities.

At one o'clock the group listened to the radio broadcast over station WDEL by Dean George L. Schuster, director of extension and Clarence E. Ocheltree, chairman of the state war board who spoke on Food Goals for 1943.

Each farm in New Castle County is to be visited by a Community Committee member and will be urged to meet his 1943 Food Goal. New Castle County has a definite Food Goal that the farmer is urged to meet.

Machinery and farm labor problems were discussed and plans were made to solve these problems if possible.

SCRAPBOOK MADE AT CHRISTIANA

Jeep Ride
For Bond
Purchasers

The pupils of the school completed the "Schools At War Scrapbook". This book consists of newspaper clippings from our local paper, photographs of our scrap pile with the scrap drive captains, photographs of the historic Salem School bell, stories written by children on various topics, scrap song including cartoons to illustrate each line of the song, original mathematics problems dealing with War Bonds and Defense Stamp sales, graphs showing how the sales increased over the period of weeks, etc.

This book was sent to Dover where it will be judged among other books of a similar nature and later the State Office will send five representative scrapbooks to the Education Section in Washington.

Mrs. Arthur Vandepoole comes to school each week on Wednesday afternoon, to deliver to the children Defense Stamps which they have ordered. When a book is filled and the child is ready to purchase a War Bond when Mrs. Vandepoole will take the child to Wilmington and have a ride on the "Jeep."

The United States Treasury Department has announced new awards for schools reaching certain goals in their war effort. In addition to the certificate for framing to be given every school enrolled, and the Liberty Brick to be presented by school children to the State of Delaware on February 22nd, it is now possible to earn the right to purchase and fly the "Schools At War Flag." A school to be eligible for this honor must show 90 percent of its students regularly purchasing war stamps or bonds through the school every month. The flag shows in blue the Minute Man surrounded by thirteen stars on a white background.

Our goal is to reach 90 percent and maintain it. All children are urged to buy stamps at least once during each month through the school.

The amount of money invested in War Bonds and Stamps, to date, in the Christiana School is $1262.33.

FAMILIES URGED TO RAISE OWN FOOD NEEDS

Canning And Storage Of Foods Will Aid Greatly

Every quart of food canned by a Delaware farm family is one great step toward meeting 1943 Food for Freedom production goals, Miss Louise R. Whitcomb, home management specialist for the Delaware Agricultural Extension Service, says.

"Home production and preservation of food is a necessary part of the 1943 food goals. By conserving food on the farm we make more supplies available to the armed forces and allies as well as to war workers in our own country," she says.

"Year-round gardens, wherever possible, should be planted so the farm family will have adequate amounts of health-giving vegetables so essential in the diet of every one producing for Victory."

Transportation facilities will allow only the hauling of necessary food. Machinery, labor to process and transport food, tin, and other normal supplies are short. Every bit of food produced at home frees that much food for the Armies, allies, and war-populated cities.

A goal for every Delaware farm family in 1943 is to preserve and store as much nutritious food as possible for home use. Special emphasis should be put on raising at home the family's poultry, eggs, milk, butter, cheese, dry beans, peas, fresh and stored vegetables and fruits, and at least all the meat allowed the family under rationing.

Town and city dwellers can help to serve their country by planting community plots or allotment gardens. However, the seed, fertilizer, and insecticide supplies are such that they must not be wasted in infertile ground or by neglecting the garden.

All possible home food production is not only a patriotic duty but a necessary insurance that national health will be kept up to par for the arduous war tasks farm and city people alike must perform.

WAVES ARE ROLLING

The Navy started out a short time ago to enroll 25,000 Waves, and almost before Admirals could say jack-rabbit nearly 40,000 women had signed up on programs to replace men in jobs. At the time of our first World War women mobilized for sewing, knitting and light work. Their main job, however, was winning "equality of the sexes" and they got Nation-wide Suffrage into the Constitution in 1919. Women began widening the scope of their activities and tens of thousands of them moved into clerical employment and business. For many years women have demonstrated their superiority in the use of the hands for deft operations. For a century women have been telling men to "let me take that, your hands and thumbs are too clumsy." This bitter truth has been admitted by the male of the species—which seems to be proved by a statement from Eastern Aircraft at Linden, New Jersey, that 75 per cent of all welding trainees for their Division are women. Another group of women in training, whose ages also range from 21 to 45 years, are being hired, put on payrolls and sent to Rutgers University to study mechanical drawing, metallurgy, shop materials, mathematics, blueprint reading and other subjects. The women are paid $130 a month, and the first group of graduates will take over actual jobs this month.

Thousands of women are employed at this moment in the manufacture of the finest precision instruments in various war production plants, especially those that were set up by the automobile industry. The reason is that this industry has for more than 30 years developed the finest and most accurate technique. Women possess the "delicate touch" and that's why there are Waves, welders, and women workers taking over so much important work in industries, and releasing men for places where brawn and muscle is especially needed.

HEADACHE FOR THE MERCHANT

Price fixing may sound simple to the man in the street. But it is a monumental headache to thousands of retail merchants.

Never before have the people and the industries of America faced the necessity of donning a regulatory straitjacket such as is embodied in the deluge of pamphlets now reaching storekeepers from Maine to California. Everything from gum to tractors is being "fixed" or "frozen." The price of each item on a retailer's shelves must be carefully set according to formula.

The policies and methods used in enforcing these new laws will make or break the entire price fixing effort. Long before the establishment of the price laws, retail merchants bent every effort toward holding down inflationary rises in the cost of living. They did an effective job for which they received praise from high government officials.

And now these same merchants, many hundreds of thousands of them, are striving valiantly to comply with the complicated ceiling decrees issued from Washington. A great many of them have unknowingly become lawbreakers because they have found it impossible to quickly understand the technical rules. Their cases deserve far different consideration than those of the very few who maliciously seek to evade the law. In this instance the old saying that ignorance is no excuse should not be applied. Ignorance, if you wish to call it that, is a very definite excuse.

And if the administering officials are wise they will not begin our new authoritarian era by fining or throwing any erring storekeeper in jail until they have determined his intent. After all, our main job is to win the war, not persecute good American citizens.

A WAY TO HELP WIN

Waging a total war makes so many requirements of the people, in so many different ways, that we are apt to overlook some of the really important things we can do.

One of the opportunities which have not been taken seriously enough by many of us is that of selling a typewriter to the armed services.

This need is real. Advice from Washington is that the Army has made a really desperate plea to the WPB for immediate delivery of 200,000 of the 300,000 typewriters it requires. Our military leaders want these machines at once, for use in the field. Any brief study of modern warfare makes it evident how important they must be in coordinating lightning thrusts at the enemy. The need of the Navy is so acute, it is reported, that Admiral King ordered that the usual complement of typewriters on ships be cut down so that new vessels can be supplied.

In total, the requirement is for 600,000 fighting typewriters, standard model, made since 1935—every one of them needed for a fighting unit. The only way in which these machines can be secured is for the public to sell a share of its supply. There is no other source.

Americans in our smaller towns, as patriotic as those in the larger cities, have sometimes found it difficult to contact an authorized Government contractor about machines they wish to sell. Knowing the complexities of the job, that is understandable. However, Maxwell V. Miller, recently appointed executive director of the Royal Typewriter Company's drive to help the WPB in the job, has announced that a letter to him at 2 Park Avenue, New York City, will get his immediate attention if you are unable to locate one of these contractors.

THE BIG IDEA

Washington expects the United States to build the World's biggest Army, and do it as fast as possible. Right now, the formula provides for drafting 18-19 year olds. Some discussion of a counter proposal is to the effect that military and civilian manpower must be balanced—and it is out of balance at the present time in many ways, including farm labor and war production.

Delaware Has Food Administrator
Appointment of E. Mitchell Announced
Delaware has a food administrator. After months of delay, back as far as May, the appointment of Edmund Mitchell of Wilmington, has been announced by the president. Late in May, Governor Townsend was asked to present names of business men, financially able to give their time, for consideration.

The names of Ex-Governor Charles R. Miller, Harlan G. Scott, and Josiah Marvel were presented. Later Pierre S. duPont and Winder Laird were given. Then a name was asked for of a man in close touch with the farmer. Horace L. Dilworth, Master of Grange was suggested. Still again—the name of L. Scott Townsend was given, he being the State Representative of the first Food Conference at Washington. All these names failed approval. Months rolled by and every state except Delaware had its Food Administrator. Josiah Marvel was named as Director of the Pledge Card Campaign by Mr. Hoover was asked to care for the work until appointment was made. While he was suggested in the original list presented, he failed to gain Washington approval for the permanent appointment.

Two local basketball teams played Tuesday evening and while both teams played a grand game both were nosed out by close margins.

The University of Delaware Blue Hens suffered their second defeat of the season when the Washington College combine invaded the new field house and walked off with a victory.

The Hens did not do so good for the first three periods. On several occasions they passed the ball right into their visitors' hands. Of course, it is nice to be friendly, but that is not the way Bill Murray says it. Now Bill, who is the coach of an undefeated team, said "Never Give Them A Break." Anyway the Hens came back in the final period and played a bang-up ball game but then it was too late and Captain George Barlow looked as if he was out on his feet.

The Newark High School Yellowjackets lost a hard one when they bowed to the Brown Vocational by one point. Well anyway the Jackets have been playing better ball than has been seen on the local court for a long time.

Coach Gillespie has really went to town with the material on hand and has developed some good players. Clifford Lee who looks like an advertisement for the kind of clothes the well dressed college lad should wear and is in reality a darn good airplane spotter has developed into a mighty good center on Coach Bills team. No, that Lee feller is not the only player on the team.

Don Huston is doing a swell job and for that matter Don was high scorer for the evening. One thing about Donald, he is really serious in his basketball playing. Well Don, keep up the good work and do as good a job Friday night.

Did Wally Dunsmore do any good? Well, he made a few points. Just nine to be exact, two more than that Cliff Lee boy. But I really believe Wally could have done better. I don't think Wally should confine himself to only nine points. He should never be satisfied with anything less than 12. If he had scored 12 points Tuesday the Jackets would have won.

Of course Wayne Pollari did a good job but I believe he will do an even better job when the Jackets meet the Kennett Pike team on Friday night. Go to it Wayne, here's hoping.

Oh, yes, Fuzzy Morrow also plays on the team with all the rest of those great stars. Now our Harry was good also, but we don't have to tell him that, Harry knows it. The only fault I have to find with friend Harry is that he spends too much time up in front of the movies watching the girls. Possibly he thinks some good-lookinger will come along and ask him to see the movies with her. Now, Harry, you might catch cold if you spend too much time out in the fresh air and we are looking for you to put across a win for the old home team Friday.

Yes, there are more players on the high school team but these five big shots expect all the free publicity or their feelings will be hurt. Cataldi is not bad and the same goes for Davis. Now guess which Davis I mean? My friend Brandon is not the one but Brandon shows promise of making a good varsity man next year. I won't mention anything about that good-looking Talucci guy. He drinks too much milk to be a good basketball player, but what he does to the girls' hearts—my oh-my, Joe, you are all right and so is each member of the team, even the ones I have not mentioned. Just win that game Friday.

As the firemen were ready to leave the fire at Denver Roberts ice cream store, Frank Glenn, owner of the State Restaurant, sent word over that if the firemen would come over he would furnish free coffee. Now when the local firemen have anything offered to them free in Newark they are so dumb-founded that they just got on the engine and roll back to the firehouse before they realize that they missed something. You see—Whenever we are sent for to come to Elktion we are sure of getting some hot coffee and sandwiches if the weather is cold, but not in Newark. Why in dear Old Newark it is just not done.

How was the fire discovered? Well believe you me, our Newark Police Force is on the job at all times. Town officer Norval Robinson was patrolling the town streets and when he saw smoke he hopped on his little police car and dashed for the fire house to turn in the alarm. Norval has an application in at the fire house and he soon expects to become one of Newark's finest. It has been stated that Chief Ellison has given the new candidates a book on how to be a fireman in six lessons and anyway Robbie said that he and Jim Smith both wanted to become as good fireman as Bud Wassmer.

One thing that has the writer of this column guessing is—Where did all the people who attended the movies last Saturday night hide their cars before they went up Main Street. Well if they all walked it won't be long before our shoe stores and shoe repairmen begin to cash in and they should make a fortune if this gasoline situation keeps up.

Yes we had a test air raid last Sunday and was everything perfect? Well I guess not. At the incident staged on Main Street in front of the five and ten Libby Sullivan was supposed to have come in contact with live electric wires and Laura Renshaw was supposed to have a severed artery took time out to give artificial respiration. Had the incident been real Miss

Regional Conference At Deer Park

"War-time Responsibilities of Southern States Cooperative and Its Members" is the subject of an address which J. E. Givens of Baltimore, a representative of the cooperative, will deliver at a regional board conference at the Deer Park Hotel in Newark Tuesday evening, January 19, at 7 o'clock.

H. H. Nuttle of Denton, Md., a member of the organization's board of directors, will preside and deliver an address. A report on the cooperative's activities will be given by P. E. Mullinix of Elktion, and group singing will be led by Mrs. John Astle of Rising Sun. The board members will discuss neighborhood transportation pools as well as any topics which may be presented from the floor.

Members of local Southern States boards and their wives in Cecil county, Md., New Castle county, Del., and Nottingham, Pa., are being invited to the conference.

OPA has indicated its approval of this and the other regional board meetings planned by Southern States as essential and has given its permission for farmers to use gasoline to attend.

Renshaw would have been up with the Angels about this time.

Another thing, the walls of the ten cent store were supposed to be falling down and all those people who were supposed to be trapped in the store came out the front door. Had the incident been real they would have had a brick or two hit them on the dome. The proper thing would have been for them to go out the back door. Well, that is why we are having these tests. They help to show up what is wrong with our setup, and the town of Newark should well be proud of the organization that has been welded together by certain individuals who have given a lot of their time to this grave matter.

The Newark public will soon be saluting a number of our local ladies who have been named Captains. Anyway they have enlisted in a great cause. They will soon go among their fellow townsmen and receive the donations that will be waiting for them to turn over to the Delaware War Relief Chest. Now folks when, you give, don't forget these Captains. They deserve whatever praise there is.

Two observers at the Chestnut Hill observation post have been cited for being on the job. Well, Chestnut Hill Post seems to be one-up on Dr. Rees' pet post up at Possum Park.

It has been stated that those good people who spend their time at the Warning Center never seem to get any mention. Well, Arthur Tomhave has done a great job with his warning center. We are told that there are more than 125 regular and about 25 substitute workers at the center and it has never been closed since it was first started.

Taking an early lead the Shoremen led the Hens 16 to 8 at the end of the first period with Frank Samele sinking three shots from action in a row and one score from the foul stripe. Big Ed Legates found the basket once in the first period and Captain George Barlow scored twice from action and sank one foul shot. In the third period the visitors scored nine points to the Hens five points giving them a 25 to 13 lead.

During the third period Washington College increased their advantage to 34 to 20 and then staved off a Delaware rally in the final period, when the Hens racked up eleven points to the shoremen's lone field goal.

The Shoremen outscored the Blue Hens 16 to 11 from the field but trailed at the penalty mark 9 to 4. Frank Samele, a lad from Connecticut led the scoring for Washington College with 7 field goals and three fouls for 17 points with Captain George Barlow leader for the Hens with 13 points.

Delaware Jay Vees defeated the soldiers from Fort duPont in the preliminary by a score of 44 to 25.

1943 FOOD PRODUCTION GOALS ARE ANNOUNCED

Most Crop, Livestock Quotas Are Increased

Delaware's 1943 food production goals call for increased production of essential war crops. Announcement of the food goals was made at a meeting of the State USDA War Board and agricultural leaders in connection with the Delaware Farm Mobilization Program.

The goals, presented by A. D. Cobb, planning specialist for the Delaware Agricultural Extension Service, were developed by the United States Department of Agriculture on the basis of the country's needs and available facilities in the different states, and were reviewed and some changes made, by the Delaware USDA War Board, meeting with farmers of the State.

The goal announced for hogs calls for an increase of 25 per cent over last year's production. A two to five per cent increase is indicated for milk, cows, eggs, corn, and soybeans. The production of hens and of barley is suggested at the 1942 levels. Although no goals have been suggested regarding broiler production, it is estimated that this may be increased by about eight per cent. The goal for rye calls for a 10 per cent increase, while wheat acreage will probably be decreased by a small percentage.

No goals have been suggested for production of canner crops. Some reduction is expected, however, because of transportation, fertilizer and labor problems. These same conditions may also force a decrease in some of the other crops for which higher goals have been set.

A joint committee of the Delaware Farm Mobilization Day Committee and the Delaware USDA War Board is at work on possible solutions to problems which will face farmers in meeting these goals.

OPA Rules on Sports Cars

Use of passenger cars to take college or high school teams to athletic contests would violate the Eastern ban on pleasure driving, the Office of Price Administration ruled today.

But it's all right if players ride in the cars of coaches or game officials. The coaches have been allotted gasoline to meet their occupational needs, an OPA spokesman said, and there is nothing to prevent them from taking players along.

The ruling draws a line between amateur and professional players. Members of pro teams would be eligible to drive to their contests because games are their business, but for amateurs the contests are classed as pleasure.

BRACK-EX CHURCH TO CONSERVE FUEL OIL

Red Cross, Week-Day Meetings Stopped

Brack-Ex, Jan. 13 — The trustees of the Brack-Ex Methodist Church at the January business meeting took action to conserve the use of the church fuel oil by stopping the use of the church on Sundays. They will investigate the possibility of getting equipment with which to convert the heating system back to coal.

The trustees notified the local Red Cross group that they could no longer furnish heat for the surgical dressing classes held each Wednesday, and also stopped all week-day meetings.

A coal stove will be set up in one of the smaller rooms of the church for the full-week prayer services, and other small gatherings.

Leonard E. Barnes conducted the meeting and was also re-elected president. Other officers elected were: Vice-President, Warren H. Reuss, secretary, Ralph E. Magaw, and Treasurer, Warren A. Manuel. Committees will be announced later.

A contract to have the parsonage connected with the New Castle County sanitary sewerage disposal system was awarded to Stewart Brothers, of Richardson Park. Work will be started at once.

The executive meeting committee of the Parent-Teachers' Association of Oak Grove School held a meeting Friday night in the home of Mr. and Mrs. David F. Collins, of Brack-Ex. Mr. Collins, program chairman, has arranged for a special program in observance of "Neighborhood Night", and invitations have been sent to all local churches; also Civic and public organizations.

Lynam. There were 45 blue stars and one gold star on the flag, honoring boys and girls who were constituents of the Newport Methodist Church or Sunday School, or whose parents are affiliated with the church. He stated he was accepting the flag on behalf of the church, representing the young men and women in the Armed Forces of our Country who are fighting to defend the American way of life.

Guns—Planes—Tanks QUICK!

"LISTEN, Bud—glad to see you getting along. Sure, I know you've had to tighten your belt—for a long time you took it on the chin, and now you're getting good pay.

"That's O.K. with us soldiers. You've got your part to play, just as we have ours. You've got to make the stuff—and we've got to deliver it.

"But just a second . . . maybe it's none of our business, but, say, are you throwing your money around?

"Here's something straight from the shoulder. You see, we soldiers want to feel that we're not fighting alone—that you're behind us—every one of you, man, woman and youngster.

"How? Listen . . .

"How many WAR BONDS are you buying? Are you in on the Payroll Savings Plan? If you're not, you'll get in—won't you? This is your war—isn't it? We're fighting for you, aren't we?

"So look . . . When they come around to you, at your job, and ask you to put aside TEN PERCENT of your earnings every payday—a dime from every dollar—you'll do it, won't you—for us?

"You'll get a WAR BOND every time you've saved $18.75—and that Bond will build up, year by year, to $25 in ten years.

"So you're helping us and protecting yourself at the same time by your savings. Can't beat that, can you?

"We've got to have guns and planes, and tanks, and ships and bullets—and you've got to pay for them—from your own, voluntary WAR BOND savings.

"Invest a dime from every dollar in us—and keep it up, week after week, month after month. Give us the things we need to fight—that's all we ask. Then count on us to blast hell out of the Japs, the Huns, and their whole bloodthirsty gang.

"O.K., Bud—now let's go!"

5 REASONS WHY

1. By investing in War Bonds you help provide the planes, the tanks, the guns and the ships we must have to survive and conquer.
2. You prove that you are a patriotic American.
3. You aid the morale of our fighting men, by showing them that the entire Nation is behind them.
4. You prove to our enemies that we are a United People.
5. You protect your own financial future, as every $18.75 you invest in a War Bond brings you back $25 in 10 years. You make the world's safest investment, by buying a share in the world's most powerful country.

Victory or

by one-thousandth of an inch

THE power to destroy our enemies depends among other things on precision in making planes, tanks, ships, guns and ammunition.

An error of one-thousandth of an inch in some vital part may cause a plane or a tank to stall at the critical instant, a torpedo or a shell to miss its target—may decide life or death, victory or defeat.

Precision in making war machines demands accurate tools—most important of which are the EYES of war workers.

Unless you who work in war plants can see well, you cannot do your work well—a single error by one of you might cause a fatal disaster.

REMEMBER, YOU NEED GOOD LIGHT FOR GOOD SIGHT. Without good light good sight is impossible.

Fortunately lighting standards today—in factories, offices, homes and other buildings—are much higher than they were a few years ago.

The War Production Board says in a recent official publication to improve plant efficiency:

"Good lighting sharpens the worker's most important faculty—sight. It is an effective means of increasing shop efficiency and maintaining production at a high level.

"The more light, the greater the speed and accuracy of seeing."

"Speed" in seeing increases production.

"Accuracy" in seeing insures precision—perfection—planes and tanks and other tools that will not fail fighting men.

THEY must see well to fight well—YOU must see well to work well.
