Chicken Cited Best Buy During Next Two Months

"Look for chicken at the store counter the next two months when you want your best buy in meats," says Ed McCauley of Seaford, president of the Delaware Poultry Industry, Inc. He urges Delaware housewives to set an example of chicken-buying for their big-city cousins in the East this fall.

Ordinarily poultry purchases by housewives ease off during the early fall, McCauley points out. This year, however, the extra big supply of broilers, plus a heavy market crop of laying hens just the right size for medium roasters, make it apparent that chicken will continue to be "the" bargain in quality meats throughout the fall.

The annual family barbecue supper for the Red Clay Creek Kiwanis Club will be held Saturday from 3 to 7 p.m. at Camp Mattahoon along Mill Creek, with Robert Manning, general chairman. Tickets are available from members.

The Hockessin-Yorklyn Lions Club held its first dinner meeting Tuesday night at the Lamborn Library. Mrs. Margaret Manning, a member of the House of Representatives from this hundred, was the guest speaker.

Beginning this fall, all meetings will be held the second and fourth Tuesday of each month. All meals will be catered by Thompkins, from Kennett Square, Pa. Lloyd B. Russell is the new president and Paul A. Cochran is program chairman. Harmony Grange draped its charter and adopted resolutions on the death of two members—Annie Derickson, a continuous member for 63 years, and Sue Brackin, also a past Harmony Juvenile matron—at the first fall session last Monday night.

Delegates named to the New Castle County Pomona Grange meeting tonight at Centerville with Center Grange as host, are Paul Nelson, Mrs. Paul Mitchell, and W. H. Naudain, with alternates Ronald Nelson, Mrs. Marvin Klair, and Mrs. Paul Nelson.

The ways and means committee served 300 persons at the annual banquet of Southern States Cooperative last Wednesday night.

Mrs. Paul Nelson and Joseph Mitchell told of their trips this summer—the Nelsons to Florida, and the Mitchells to the New England States and a tour of Gaspe Island along the St. Lawrence River.

William Naudain and Sallie Evans gave educational talks. Naudain, one of the four state winners in 4-H to attend the American Institute of Cooperatives at the University of Illinois, told of his experiences and the paper he prepared and read. Miss Evans told of her pen pal in India as a National Grange project. She read excerpts from six letters, and showed Indian magazines her pal has sent her. She also sends American magazines to India.

Mildred Naudain conducted musical bingo. Harmony Juvenile Grange resumed its monthly sessions last Friday evening and monthly square dances were scheduled to begin Sept. 18. The members are requested to have their yearly projects to the matron, Mrs. W. H. Narvel, by Sept. 20.

Relatives from the hundred who attended the wedding of Miss Barbara Louise Aungst and Mr. Kenneth Irvin Klair last Saturday afternoon in the Presbyterian Church at Mechanicsburg, Pa., were Mrs. Emily Klair, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Gass, Mr. and Mrs. J. Gheen Stephenson, Mrs. Einar Stoutland and daughter Chrissie, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Klair, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph I. Klair and daughter Erica, Mr. and Mrs. William Klair and family.

Mr. and Mrs. William Green and children of Willow Run, and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Musser and children of Christiansburg were guests.

The reception followed the ceremony on the lawn of the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Klair in Mechanicsburg.

William, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilkinson, Hockessin, was one of two students of the 1959 graduating class of Alexis I. DuPont High School to win a $400 scholarship. Wilkinson is going to Rutgers State University to study aeronautical engineering. He is an active member of the Civil Air Patrol.

Peggy Harris and Sidnee La Fountain returned Tuesday from spending the summer working at Pine Cliff Lodge at Newbury, N.H. Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Harris made the trip to New Hampshire this past weekend for the girls.

Miss Harris leaves next Sunday for Oxford, Ohio where she will begin her studies at Miami University as a sophomore.

Miss La Fountain will return to the University of Delaware. Spending the summer working at Pine Cliff Lodge at Newbury, N.H. Hockessin, will enter Virginia Intermont College, Va., this month. Marcia Harmon of Valley Road, returns to Hanover College, Ind., as a senior this fall.

Hockessin Friends Meeting is planning for a United Nations weekend on Sept. 26-27, when members from the UN will be entertained. On Saturday evening, there will be a covered dish supper and social.

Next Sunday, the fall and winter schedule will be resumed with meeting at 10:30 and First Day school at 11:15 a.m.

The following members of Waverly Club are planning to attend the fall conference of the Delaware State Federation of Women's Clubs today at the University of Delaware in Newark: Mrs. Granville Eastburn, Mrs. H. C. Mitchell, Mrs. Leslie Eastburn, Elizabeth Peach, Mrs. Alfred Morse, and Mrs. Joseph Mitchell.

Of local interest is the announcement of the engagement of Miss Beverly Elaine Bicknell of Mill Creek Trailer Park to Curtis Slicer, Jr., of Newport. Both are graduates of Conrad High School. Miss Bicknell is an active member of Limestone Presbyterian Church.

The Fidelis Fellowship will sponsor a chicken barbecue on Sept. 19 from 4 to 8 p.m. at the social hall. Miss Norman Hitchens of Little Baltimore, will be hostess to the Booster Circle next Monday at 8 p.m. The Helping Hands Circle will meet next Tuesday at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Walter Lee, North Church Road.

Ebenezer Kindergarten will open next Monday at 9 a.m. at the Ebenezer Church House.

The first fall meeting of the Women's Society was held last week at the church. Mrs. Ferris Dempsey had devotions, and Mrs. Gilbert Unger and Mrs. Louise Dempsey gave reports, and five dollars was given to home missions.

The Mite Circle reported sewing for the fall bazaar on Oct. 10, the date of the annual chicken and oyster supper.

Amity circle is conducting a study of Luke's Portrait of Christ. Painting and papering the interior of the parsonage was reported completed during the summer.

Dale Nowland, attending the U.S. Navy Electronics School at Jacksonville, Fla., and Sgt. William Nowland, Camp Lejeune, N.C., spent the Labor Day weekend with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Gifford Nowland. They joined with their parents, their sister, Joanne Nowland;

Mr. and Mrs. Gifford Nowland and son Christopher; Barbara and Carol Jordan for a family birthday dinner given their uncle, Dr. Harry Keech of Philadelphia who was celebrating his 90th birthday. The affair arranged by their aunt, Allene Worth, was held Sunday at the Red Rose Inn, Jermersville, Pa.

Red Clay Creek Presbyterian Church
The Rev. George T. Jamieson attended the 32nd stated meeting of the New Castle Presbytery last Tuesday at West Nottingham Presbyterian Church, Colorado, Md.

Promotion Day will be held next Sunday at both church school sessions.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nichols and son, of Paper Mill Road, moved last Friday to their new home on Unami Trail near Milford Cross Roads.

Limestone Presbyterian Church
Fourteen women of this congregation attended an orientation meeting last week at Emily P. Bissell Hospital when they were acquainted with opportunities for service in occupational therapy, caring for children, visiting patients, and assisting with clerical work.

The board of deacons will hold a meeting next Monday at 8:30 p.m. at the home of Carl Hansen, Cooper Farm. On Tuesday at 8 p.m., the board of trustees will meet at Marvin Klair's home on Limestone Road.

The Wimodausis Home Demonstration Club will hold its first fall meeting next Wednesday at 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Howard Ferrier in Roselle.

Larry Ulmer and Roddy Gillespie were given a surprise farewell party last week by the young people of Red Clay Creek Presbyterian Church. Larry leaves this month for the U.S. Navy and Roddy, with his mother, Mrs. Frank Gillespie, left Sept. 2 to join Mr. Gillespie in Saudi Arabia.

JARMON-LEHMAN NUPTIALS SUNDAY

The marriage of Miss Patricia Ann Jarmon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Selby Jarmon, 1318 Barksdale Road, Newark and Mr. Joseph John Lehman, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Lehman of Newark took place Sunday afternoon, Sept. 6, at 5 o'clock in St. John the Baptist-Holy Angels R. C. Church, Newark. The Rev. James T. Hammer performed the ceremony.

Mrs. John Lehman of Hillside Heights, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, was the bride's only attendant and Mr. Raymond Karpinski of Newark was best man.

Miss Jarmon is a graduate of the Newark High School and attended the University of Delaware.

Mr. Lehman attended the University of Delaware and is employed with the Thiokol Chemical Company.

A reception at the home of the bride's parents followed the ceremony.

Following a wedding trip in the Catskills the couple will reside in Newark.

Y'S OWL 4-H PLAN PARENTS' NIGHT

The Y's Owl 4-H Club started plans for Parents' Night, heard a safety talk, and saw a civil defense film "Food for Thought" at the monthly meeting last Thursday at the home of Jean Shakespeare.

Becky Bachman, Barbara Gregg, Richard Ulmer, Faith Dawson, and Kurt Bachman are the committee in charge of the parent program.

The nominating committee headed by Sandra Seymour, R. Ulmer, J. Shakespeare, and Patty Goff, will prepare a slate of officers for election next month.

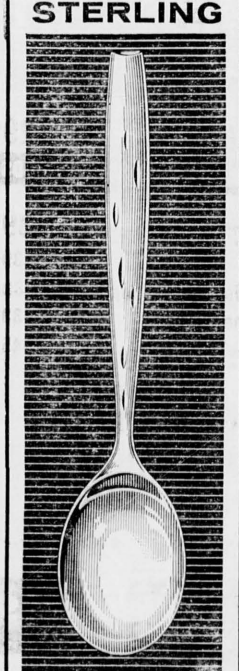

Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Ulmer, Barbara Gregg and Mrs. Nelson Goff told of the leaders' weekend at Camp Barnes, and Nina Dawson led group singing with songs she learned at Camp Barnes.

Richard Ulmer, safety chairman, gave rules for safe riding a bicycle, and Patty Goff had a demonstration on indoor gardens, showing how to plant an African violet from cuttings.

College Students' Failure To Graduate Menaces Third Of New Freshman Classes

One out of every three young people who enter college fail to graduate.

Why? John W. Shainline, dean of students at Gettysburg College, says, "Educators are spending endless hours of study to find the answers to this question. But some facts are clear."

"At the very least, two and a half million young Americans will be in college this fall. Of these, over a million will be freshmen. And more than one-third of those freshmen will never graduate," Shainline observes.

Others are drafted. Some drop out because of poor health. Many leave for personal reasons—marriage, family concern or just the realization that college is not the place for them.

"But the principal concern of colleges is the withdrawal of students who have the potential to graduate, but who simply fail," the Gettysburg dean says.

"All college deans in this country would agree on one point, I believe. The major problem of the college freshman is that of adjusting to a new kind of life in which he is expected to behave like an adult."

"What happens to a student in college during the first year or two depends on whether he or she is ready to grow up, ready to understand what college is," Dean Shainline says.

"Colleges must attempt to prove very early that the freshman year is not a high school grade 13. The

Sports writer Bill Wallace reports for the New Yorkers: "Dave Nelson said that the best teams in the year-old Middle Atlantic Conference (Rutgers, Lafayette, Delaware, etc.) are just as good if not better than those in Ivy League and this typist is inclined to believe him.

"In fact, we will go along with just about everything Nelson has to say because this dynamic little guy is as important and respected as anyone in all of college football. However, outside the fraternity in which he is known as the coaches' coach, who has never heard of him? "Nelson, a short chunky 39-year-old with a 19-year-old's crewcut, is the football coach and athletic director at the State University of Delaware, a co-educational institution of 2,400 students that only in the last decade has had a football reputation of merit. Nelson's teams are invariably winners, they always look good and when he has a lucky streak with the material, his clubs can be powerhouse.

"Delaware is loaded." "Except for a depleted lack of speed and the absence of two or three real 14-karat players, Delaware is loaded this fall with 20 tried veterans and the Blue Hens will make Lafayette or Rutgers sweat to win the title in this eight-team conference.

"The Delaware offense once again will be the famous 'single wing-T' evolved by Nelson over eight seasons here and now copied nationwide. Hoping not to lose all our readers at this juncture, we might say the offense has a basic winged-T backfield alignment with guards and even tackles pulling out from the balanced line to help achieve single-wing, 2-on-1 blocking at any hole. There are many other refinements and Nelson and his staff are in constant demand to attend coaching clinics and explain all, which they do willingly.

Top Plagiarists

"Delaware's most famous plagiarists are Forest Evashevski, of Iowa, and Paul Dietzel, coach-of-the-year of 1958's No. 1 team, Louisiana State. Evashevski is a long-time buddy of Nelson's, dating back to undergraduate days at Michigan and he kidnapped Davey at a football coaches' convention in Los Angeles in 1956. Delaware had just rolled through three good seasons and Evashevski said to Nelson, 'Listen, you little squirt, you know you've got something and I want it. Don't hold out on your Uncle Frosty.'

"Nelson gave freely, going to Iowa to help install the new offense. The Hawkeyes went to the Rose Bowl that fall, missed the Big Ten title by a game the next year and won it last season. They were acclaimed for an ingenious new attack which little Delaware's rivals had been trying to cope with since 1951. But Evashevski insisted that Nelson receive credit for much of his success and today tells Dave 'I'm the guy who made you famous.'

"Nelson would be a lot more famous and wealthy, too, if he coached at a more prominent football school. But he is loath to leave Delaware. 'I have everything I want. This is a wonderful little town for raising a family. They know me here and there's no pressure, no push.' So Nelson stays on like the large contented frog in a small pond without sharks. And the university benefits with topflight football," the Herald Tribune's Bill Wallace concludes.

DuPont Sportsmen Plan Public Shoot, Dinner Outdoors

The Du Pont Fish and Game Association will hold its annual shoot and outdoor dinner on Saturday afternoon, Sept. 19, at the Louviers Trap and Skeet range. This year, activities will be open to the public.

Events beginning at 12:30 p.m. will include a trap and skeet shoot, a ham shoot, mo-skeet, and a bait-casting contest. The rifle and pistol range also will be open.

An outdoor chicken dinner will be served at 4:30 with tickets offered at the trap and skeet field. House this Saturday and Sunday between 1 and 4 p.m. only.

Interested shooters and their families will be welcomed.

Ed Hoffman is president; Henry White, program chairman; Joe Schranke, ticket chairman; and Warren Lauder is in charge of publicity for the Du Pont Fish and Game Association.

Ties Feature Play In Member-Guest Golf Tournament

Three teams deadlocked for first place in Class A for the member-guest golf tournament over the weekend at the Newark Country Club.

The teams of Dean-Pfeiffer, Matheson-Glover, McSpadden-Brodie, all had scores of 65.

The teams of Stewart-Ackerman and Bauer-Treadway were deadlocked with 66's.

The Class B winner was the team of Thompson-Maxwell with 63, while the Ott-Peoples tandem took second with a 64, and LeFashion-DeCampi and Paeello-Thomas tied for third with 66's.

A fifth-place tie was between Angstadt-Smith and Ryan-Oliver, with 67's.

In Class C, five teams tied for first with 65's—Paxton-Brown, Stephenson-Kay, Christian-White, Liedlich-Miller and Anderson-Tyhanic.

The tournament, which honors one of England's foremost poloists of the 1930's, who played with and against America in the famed international matches of that decade, was initiated last year when the U. S. Intercollegiate team, touring polo

Victors Announced For Swim Events Held At NCC Pool

Racing events for youngsters were conducted by Joseph J. Crowe at the Newark Country Club swimming pool on Labor Day.

Cindy Jones and Sara Rice won the flutter-board races for non-swimmers under six years of age; and Patsy Van Name won the race for boys and girls who learned to swim at the pool this summer.

Lois Young won the free-style race for boys and girls, six to nine; Patsy Clements and Steve Mitchell won the boys' and girls' potato races in the 10-13-year class; and Sandy Stephenson and Scott Williams won the free-style events for 10-13-year old boys and girls.

The team of Sandy Stephenson, Susan Hilton, Liz Sinclair and Donna Meade won the medley relay for 10-13-year-old girls, and Steve Mitchell, Dick K'burg, Robert Cronin and Ricky Van Name made up the boys' relay winning squad. These boys also won the bench race.

Diana Duff, Susan Weimer, Sally Statton, and Janice Fennel won the bench race for girls, 14-16.

Mary Ann Houtt, Joyce Stonecipher, Marylane McBurney, and Susan Duff won the 14-16-year-old girls' medley relay, and Ben Moore, Frank Scott, Tom Tarring, and Terry Crowe won the boys' event.

Joyce Stonecipher and Susan Duff won the life-saving carry race; Bob Deck won the towel and free style races for 14-16-year-old boys, and Susan Duff won the free-style event for girls.

Betsy Dollins, Carol Scott, Rita Haight, and Betsy Goddin won the bench race for 10-13-year-old girls.

England in turn presented the collegians with a twin cup and it was proposed that identical trophies be played for each year in America and England.

Public Scrimmage For Yellowjackets Planned Saturday

Injuries, illness plague Coach Bob Hoffman's Boys in Pre-Season Practices

The Newark Yellowjackets will scrimmage against the Malvern Prep griders this Saturday at 10 a.m., and the public is invited to attend this scrimmage session of the local Blue Hen Conference champions, for the admission price of one bar of soap—any kind of soap.

Coach Bob Hoffman has been plagued with illness and injury to members of the Yellowjacket squad, and Halfback Norman Neide, a letterman from last year's Blue Hen Conference championship team, is out for the year with an injured vertebra.

His brother, Fullback Bill Neide, suffered a concussion in recent practice, but is back in action.

Center Alvin Beldyk and Bob Raun have been sidelined—Beldyk with a shoulder injury, and Raun with a kidney ailment that just escaped surgery, and Halfback Marshall Saunders, Fullback Bob Burton, and End Les Money have been on the sick list.

The latest calamity involved End Ronnie Pyle with a good—or bad—case of heat exhaustion.

"Despite our troubles, the boys have been working real hard," Coach Bob Hoffman reported yesterday. "And it's been just as hot and humid in practice for the other teams on our schedule."

With only 38 men on hand when fall practice started last week, Bucknell football coach Bob Odell had a job on his hands trying to find the right men to fill vacancies left by graduation losses and to give added depth to a team that won only one of nine starts last season.

Delaware closes the season with Bucknell at Lewistown, Pa., on Saturday, Nov. 21. Last year the Hens won 28-8.

One of the biggest problems facing Odell is to find enough men to man the interior of the line. With only five tackles and six guards on the squad and a mere four lettermen among them, several veterans and some promising sophomores will have to do a big job.

Next Sunday's 3 p.m. outdoor field match will be sponsored by the Princeton and Yale Alumni Clubs of Wilmington for the benefit of their scholarship funds.

Gampy Pellegrini Holds Edge For Post As Delaware's Starter At Quarterback

Philadelphia's Gampy Pellegrini still appears to have the edge over sophomores Barry Fetterman and Gary Hebert for the Blue Hen quarterback job, although he missed Saturday's drill with a slight case of tonsillitis.

"Pellegrini is a much improved quarterback over this time last year," Coach Dave Nelson admitted, adding that "the other two boys did an exceptionally good job after working only a week with the system."

Nelson said the lettermen are putting in strong bids to retain their status. In the backfield Jack Turner and Tony Suravitch have been running well at halfback and John Bowman has been effective at full. A big advancement is noted in the performance of junior halfback Dave Benner.

Four lettermen at end are led by Dick Broadbent, last year's leading pass receiver, who, end coach Ivan Wirtzski claims "could be one of Delaware's greats."

Along the line, Coach Mike Lude has happily noted the progress of Jim Garvin, of Philadelphia, who with Wilmington's Leon Dambrowski leads all other guard candidates.

Otto Fad and Newark's Ray Klapski are ahead of the other tackles but 240-pound Mike Boyd is showing tremendous promise.

Captain Mark Hurm of Newark is holding down the center post for a third year. Lude recalled one drill last year when he had Fad (230) in center. Leonard Nelson (205) was in the line.

"Man, that's a pretty solid line," he smiled. Leonard Nelson is one of the newcomers who are threatening Nicknamed "Earthquake" for his tonnage, Nelson has been coming from tackle to center, and is making rapid progress in his new position. From Newark, he is one of the largest linemen Coach Nelson has had.

In the backfield, Ken Schaefer, speedy halfback from Orlan, N. J., may be the Hens' new star. The search for a breakout player has been going on since Pellegrini. Another sophomore who might be heard from is Earl Ritchie, Tackle Irv Regan, of Baltimore.

Other newcomers along the line who will definitely help are Earl Ritchie, Tackle Irv Regan, of Baltimore, and Ends Bob Brown, Roger Hoffman.

Chesapeake Bay is considered by experts to be the source and center of the world's supply of striped bass or rockfish, but the salt water sportmen to the north of us are doing right well with strippers in the Atlantic—rock or strippers that dwarf their kinsmen in the bay of Maryland and Virginia. And we haven't seen anything like them along the Delaware coast, either.

A total of 49 strippers weighing 50 pounds or more have been entered in the R. J. Schaefer 1959 Salt Water Fishing Contest—whoppers that have been battled, beached, or boated from waters off New Jersey, New York, Rhode Island, Connecticut, and Massachusetts.

Among the recent Schaefer super strippers are a 53-lb. 8-oz. monster taken by Wally Brown of Norwell, Mass., with spinning tackle, and a 15-lb. test wisp of monofilament line; a 52-lb. 8-oz. tackle buster taken from the surf at Provincetown, Mass., by Paul Sussman of the Striper Club of Brooklyn, N. Y., and an even 55-pounder that must have almost drowned Ed Thiriot of Blackstone, Mass., in a strenuous surf struggle at Orleans.

Big Blues have been making the surf interesting for Montauk men off Long Island, with George Shaw tangling with a 13-lb. 12-oz. blue on spinning gear, and Joe Rohan, Jr., of the Jones Beach Fishing Club, beaching a 14-lb. 3-oz. blue tiger with a plug at midnight.

Pete Fitzpatrick is the director of Schaefer's 13th annual salt water Fishing Contest. And we believe you, Pete.

In contrast with reports from Montauk and Massachusetts, we managed to catch one medium-sized flounder in the surf from the beach near the Coast Guard Station south of Rehoboth last Saturday.

A not-so-mild nor'easter was tossing the Atlantic's spindrift into the faces of the few surfmen on the beach, and casting against that wind did little to enhance the pleasure of the outing. And an unbelievable abundance of calico and blue crabs on the ocean floor discovered and dispatched each pair of fatback filets flung futilely into the foaming sea.

The one good strike of the three occurred during 2 most of the morning and part of an afternoon's fishing occurred—as usual—when we were least prepared for it.

On one of the few occasions when we sat down on the sand, something struck solidly, nudging off with the power of a truck and dragging a tired surfman to his feet and down to the edge of the sea before the star drag on the reel could be loosened to relieve the strain.

The reel sang for about 25 yards and then all went slack, including the tense jaw of the angler.

It might have been one of Schaefer's big blues or strippers because whatever it was, wasn't hooked. Reeling in, we found hooks, line and leaders intact—and we've never missed hooking a big sting ray or shark. At least, until then.

Mrs. J. Leslie Ford, who entered Memorial Hospital for training, spent the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fox.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Leslie Ford entertained Bessie Davis and the Rev. and Mrs. Clarence Hoffman of Elsmere at dinner in the Glass Kitchen at Glasgow on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Burge and sons spent the weekend at Rehoboth Beach. Mr. and Mrs. Neal Hambleton of Chevy Chase, Md., spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Fox.

Mrs. Joseph T. Laws, Jr., returned from Riverside Hospital on Saturday, much improved.

Mrs. Allen Brown, who underwent surgery on Tuesday at Wilmington General Hospital, is much improved.

Robert Moore will have his tonsils removed at Memorial Hospital on Friday.

Mrs. Fannie Dasher, who fell and fractured her hip three weeks ago, is much improved at her home. Charles Moore, Jr., returned home Thursday after spending four years in Japan.

The Ladies of Glasgow M. E. Church will hold a covered dish supper next Wednesday evening. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moore entertained at their home on Thursday evening in honor of their daughter Mary Louise Moore's 14th birthday. Games and dancing were enjoyed and refreshments were served.

The Bear Home Demonstration Club will serve lunch at a public sale for Charles Moore on Saturday, Sept. 19.

Friends and relatives were shocked to hear of the sudden death of Julius C. Barr, 79, son of the late Robert and Hannah Barr, who died at the home of his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Brown, near Glasgow on Monday afternoon.

He is survived by five grandchildren. Services were held in Glasgow Methodist Church this afternoon at 2 o'clock, with interment in Potomac Presbyterian Cemetery. The Rev. Irvin Pusey and the Rev. Harold Davis conducted services.

Mrs. J. Leslie Ford entertained at a luncheon at her home on Wednesday. Guests included Mrs. Cynthia Moore of Collins Park; Mrs. Pearl Wilson of St. Georges; Mrs. Mabel Lank of Richardson Park; Mrs. Edith Warton of Wilmington; Mrs. Grace Knotts of Marshallton; Mrs. Florence L. Brown of Newark; Mrs. Sara L. Dayett of Glasgow; Mrs. Ethel W. Laws of Cooch's Bridge; Mrs. Marie Shannon of Wilmington; Mrs. Betty Burge and sons of Bear; Linda Shannon of Wilmington; Mrs. George R. Moore and daughters Judith Ann and Joyce Lee Moore.

The 32nd annual reunion of the family and friends of Joseph T. and Mary V. Laws was held on Labor Day at Port Herman, Md., with 133 persons present. A dinner was served at 12:30 p.m.

Officers for the coming year are President James Laws; Vice-President William Crompton; Secretary Mrs. Julian Sheets; and Treasurer Norman Laws.

Gifts were presented to the youngest, John Potts, Jr.; oldest, Mrs. Lillian Roberts; and to Mrs. Lloyd Sheets and to Julian Laws for having the most grandchildren, each with 12.

A poem composed and read by Mrs. William Crompton traced the Laws Family from the marriage of the late Joseph and Mary Laws to the present time.

Those present included Mrs. Lillian Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. William Crompton; Mr. and Mrs. James Roberts & family; Mrs. Betty Andrews and sons; Mr. and Mrs. J. Theodore Laws; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Laws, Jr., and family; Mr. and Mrs. Tunis Foltz and family; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Branner and sons; Delaware and Harold Laws; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brooks and family; Mrs. Sara Dayett; Mr. and Mrs. John Jordan and daughters; Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Ogden and sons; Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Boggs Proclaims "Citizenship Day" For September 17

In proclaiming Thursday, Sept. 17, as "Citizenship Day," and the period Sept. 17-23 as "Constitution Week," Gov. J. Caleb Boggs this week urged all of Delaware's schools, colleges, churches, veteran and other patriotic organizations to mark these occasions with "appropriate ceremonies and activities stressing the full significance of American citizenship."

Referring to the Constitution as a document that "not only formed the foundation of our own nation but provided the pattern for many other nations that later sought liberty and justice under the law," Governor Boggs pointed out that "it is most fitting that all our citizens, both native-born and naturalized, observe the birthday of the Constitution."

The observance, according to the chief executive, should have significance for Delawareans who, he said, "take special pride in the fact that our state was the first to ratify the Federal Constitution."

The gubernatorial proclamation also called for display of national and state flags as "visual reminders to all of us to protect and practice the rights and privileges granted by the Constitution and sustained and defended by generations of dedicated Americans."
