Newark Girl's Visit To Ceylon

By Edith DeLong
International Farm Youth Exchange
Representative for the U. S.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William B. DeLong, 56 Sunset Road, Newark, Edith DeLong is spending six months in the island country of Ceylon as a U. S. representative in the International Farm Youth Exchange program.

A college graduate and biological technician, she is one of several hundred young people from 43 countries participating in this year's exchange program to promote better understanding among people of many nations.

Delegates share ideas and ways of life with people of their host countries by living and working in the homes of rural families.

Following is Miss DeLong's latest report on her visit, which began last June.

I recently went to a village where they make pottery. They make mostly for cooking and it is sold in stalls. There are six main kinds, each of which comes in various sizes, from tiny to huge. They get the mud and clay from the paddy fields.

After the shape is made on a hand-turned wheel, the bottom still isn't dry. I was very puzzled as to how you put a bottom on a round-bottomed pot, but a woman took a block of wood and a mallet and pounded it into shape. It is really fascinating. After drying some, they simply stack them up, cover with mud and straw, and build a fire underneath to fire them.

The village blacksmith uses coconut shell charcoal. He had a nice set-up. He also has a carpentry shop, so he'll make a cart or wagon, including wheels, on request.

I have been learning to make a lot of "short cuts." I just hope I can do it when I get home. For some of them I won't be able to find the ingredients, and I don't know how substitution will be — but we'll try.

We visited a village where the whole place is set up on a co-op basis — all the mills (grinding and saw), textiles, coconut industries, hospital, theater, and a co-op stores where people must buy their rationed rice. It is a private co-op, except any loss is subsidized by the government. You must be a member to sell your paddy (rice and husks) for the government-guaranteed price. It's been going for the last 24 years and is a lot more prosperous than most other villages.

Saw the place where scarves are printed. Actually saw some yarn being dried. The printing was hand-dyed; dye is applied on a very fine nylon net pattern and rubber with a wide rubber mallet. The co-op has about 9,000 members and is worth RS 10,000,000.

Have been visiting a lot of people. Even if we go bright and early in the morning, we are fed.

We've been on two picnics. One we had by a tank and the other was next to the ocean. Once we took sandwiches, bought biscuits (cookies), had plantains, and bought meat (pastry) crust which is wrapped around meat and vegetables prepared in a dry curry.

The other time we took a Ceylon-style lunch box. It consists of four enamel dishes stacked up with a handle and cover. Usually rice is put in one and curries in the other. This was fixed with rice and curries already in it. Many people take their lunch with them to work.

The other favorite way is to have it fixed at home and delivered at lunch time. If it's in the city, a man on a bike goes to each house and collects the packets and delivers them. If it is a plate with rice and curries on it, another plate over and all wrapped in a gaily-colored piece of cloth.

If it's in the village, the women usually bring the rice in a basket, with curries wrapped in a plantain leaf, and water in a jug to the field. Plantain leaves are used for wrapping all meat when it is bought and food, too, lots of times.

When some girls I know went on a train they mixed the rice, gravy and curry into a thick mixture — put a glob in the center of the leaf — folded it around and were all set.

The day we had the picnic on the ocean we made a trip to a fishing village. It was fun. Saw them unloading fishing boats and then selling the catch. There were easily 20 kinds of fish, crabs (some 8-10-in. across) and shrimp. The men give it to the women to sell. These were the real bums, hard gals of the waterfront.

Mr. Wattageadu, host, said they were yelling a really colorful stream of language.

Their homes are huts of woven palm leaves (cudjun) along the beach. Some are protected by palms; others are left to be wind-swept.

On the same day we visited the Coconut Research Station. If you think research is discouraging, I've found the most — a palm doesn't come into bearing for five years, and only after 12 years does it reach peak bearing, and only after 25 can you analyze statistics. There is no vegetative propagation either. How about that for incentive!

Also visited the Rice Research Institute. It seems that a lot of people are missing the boat on yield by not using proper methods — true the world over, I guess. Anyway, if the present situation is corrected and some new lands are opened, a quarter of a century will see Ceylon self-sufficient in rice. They are now importing half of what they need. All rice is government-subsidized.

Dan Rineer At Maryville Attains College Choir

Daniel Rineer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel A. Rineer, of 53 Small's Mill Road, Newark, is a member of the Maryville College Choir, nationally recognized musical organization, heard frequently on radio and television, and which makes an annual tour in Eastern United States churches and high schools.

Next spring's tour will take the choir to Chicago, Detroit, Indianapolis, and St. Louis.

Dan is a senior at Maryville, a coeducational, four-year college of the liberal arts and sciences, in the foothills of the Great Smoky Mountains in East Tennessee.

MRS. WERNER HOSTESS TO BIBLE CLASS

The Ladies Bible Class of the Newark Methodist Church will meet Tuesday evening, Nov. 17, at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Susie Werner, 18 Minquill Drive, Silverbrook.

Mrs. Francis L. Hall is co-hostess.

PERSONALS

Bill Leedom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Richard P. Leedom, is a freshman at the University of Delaware after attending Westtown School for the past three years. He is manager of the varsity soccer team.

Brother George, a senior at Newark High School, is a member of the Yellowjacket soccer varsity, and another brother—Richard, Jr.—is a second year student at the RCA Institute in New York City.

Mrs. Iva W. Mumford, Mrs. Janet Johns, and Mrs. Ida Winter have returned home after a three week tour of Spain, Italy, and England. In Palma de Mallorca, Spain, they visited Mrs. R. C. Emmert of the Dinner Bell Inn, Rehoboth.

Mrs. Paul D. Owens, Jr., was matron of honor for her sister, Miss Diane Elaine Bishop at her marriage to Frank Robert Henderson on Nov. 6, in Zion Evangelical Lutheran Church, Wilmington.

William F. Wagner was best man at the wedding on Saturday of Miss Carol Ann Davis and Mr. Donald Murray Shrenk in St. James Episcopal Church, Newport.

Mrs. J. Harvey Dickey, South College Avenue, visited her uncle, Mr. Elmer P. Corrie, and Mrs. and Mrs. Ellery Ward in Chestertown, Md., on Saturday.

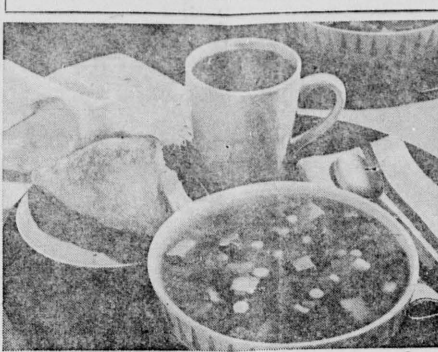

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald W. Garner of Crompton, Calif., are receiving congratulations on the birth of a daughter on Nov. 7. Mrs. Garner is the former Kay Mann, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Mann, Lehigh Road.

Mrs. Mann flew to California on Sunday, where she will visit her daughter and family.

Mr. and Mrs. George Clifford Lawson, Jr., of 14 Mallboro Drive announce the birth of a son, George Clifford Lawson III on Oct. 31 in Union Hospital, Elkton, Md.

The old prospector came down out of the hills for the first time in years and died when he saw his first automobile. He didn't see it soon enough.

New Soups Add Zest to Fall Meals

With the nip of fall in the air, homemakers find a new zest in meal planning. The warmth of heartier menus suits the season.

To add even greater taste-tempting goodness to fall tastes, two new condensed soups have appeared on the grocery shelves. Both of these newcomers will bring enthusiastic approval from all ages.

Canned Condensed Old Fashioned Vegetable Soup is a tasty blend of kitchen-cut garden vegetables and enriched pearl macaroni in a meat and vegetable stock. The result . . . a great long-simmered real home-made flavor. The other arrival is Noodles & Ground Beef Soup, a completely different kind of soup. Three different sizes of noodles, lots of tender ground beef, and pieces of tomato and other vegetables in a rich meat stock make up this robust soup. What great newcomers for soup centered meals! Fill the tureen with either of these and the meal is practically complete.

For "occasions" for either family or friends, dress up the Old Fashioned Vegetable Soup with sliced zucchini and crumbled bacon. Serve it with piping hot corn bread (made from a packaged mix) and peaches topped with crunchy broiled coconut. Here is a "convenience" meal at its best.

Add a colorful note to the Noodles & Ground Beef Soup when it's star at meals, garnish of chopped hard-cooked egg will please the eye and palate.

Desire is prayer; and no loss can occur from trusting God with our desires, that they may be moulded and exalted before they take form in words and in deeds.

Needlecraft News

by Nancy Baxter

KIT YOURSELF RIGHT INTO THE CENTER OF THE FASHION TRIANGLE! Here is one of this season's most important accessory shapes, giving you a triple helping of glamour and pointing up some of the loveliest trends of the year.

RECIPE FOR GLAMOUR
A generous amount of lace, currently one of fashion's most important features . . . plus a dash of gentle femininity, the newest in chic looks . . . and a dash of fringe, just for sheer luxury . . . all add up to one of the loveliest styles to be found anywhere! It's so light and delicate that I know you'll be surprised at how quickly and easily it can be finished. This one is Canary Yellow and done in soft but warm knitting worsted with speed No. 13 Needles . . . it couldn't be easier or more flattering. Try it with your sleeveless sheaths or as a little bit of extra warmth over suits—it will add so much to many things in your wardrobe.

COLOR CHOICE

My choice was Canary Yellow but there are so many beautiful shades to choose from . . . Black might be yours for glamorous evening wear or Walnut or Pearl Grey to use with your trendiest suit . . . or if you want to be fashionably outstanding, use a rich, jewel-like Cardinal Red! Free instructions are available by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope to the Needlework Editor of this Newspaper. Ask for Leaflet No. PK 2724.

Contributions Of Clothing Sought With Bundle Days

Delawareans, who have good serviceable clothing no longer needed for use by their own children, are requested by Gov. Elbert N. Carvel to donate such items for distribution to needy children elsewhere in the United States and abroad.

In a statement endorsing Save The Children Bundle Days, Nov. 16-20, the chief executive praised the 6,000,000 American school children, including many students from Delaware, who last year "showed their concern for the welfare of less fortunate children by collecting an estimated 2,000,000 pounds of clothing for distribution by the Save The Children Federation."

Miss Coblenz will speak on "Holiday Foods."

Hostesses will be Mrs. Robert S. Wilson and Mrs. Henry R. Folsom, Jr., assisted by Mrs. W. S. Hamilton, Mrs. R. Fouracre, Mrs. John Link and Mrs. Thomas L. Dickey.

The collect will be led by Mrs. G. Taggart Evans, and the pledge by Mrs. Louis J. Brown.

Presiding at the tea table will be Mrs. Lewis A. Stearns and Mrs. T. D. Mylrea.

Mrs. Harold E. Reeser and Mrs. Albert Gillespie are in charge of the car corner.

Carline Chickadel Elected Freshman Class President

University of Delaware freshmen recently elected Carline F. Chickadel as class president.

Other officers elected are Vice-President James Wright; Secretary Bonnie Lynn Hecy; and Treasurer Robert C. Meehan.

Wright won his vice-president's post after a special run-off election with Herbert R. Tunnell. They were tied after the first ballot.

Troop 56 Scouts Entertain Fathers At Camp Rodney

Boy Scouts of Troop 56, sponsored by the Newark First Presbyterian Church, recently visited Camp Rodney for their annual father and son weekend camping, with 25 boys and 16 adults staying in the Pioneer Camp of three-sided cabins.

Early Saturday morning, the kitchen crew went to Brown Lodge to prepare breakfast, and head chef was Bill McIntosh. His crew included Bill McIntosh, Tom Barr, Dave Murray, Kirk Bailey and Ken Snow.

In the afternoon football game, all boys over 14 played against the rest of the troop—and won. The winners played the fathers—and won again.

A Saturday night movie was shown at Brown Lodge, and on Sunday, religious services were attended.

The fathers went on a scavenger hunt. Scouts attending camp were John Frame, Eddie and Dave Newman, Chris Pearson, Jeff Ziller, Jim Polanco, Kirk, Allan, and Craig Bailey. Robin Whitlock, David Copley, David P. Gohardtsbauer, David P. Gohardtsbauer, Walter Hewes, George Murray, Roy Moore, Don McIntosh, Phil Woods, Wallace McKee, Jerry Nelson, and Paul Bolgiano.

Scout Leaders Bruce Warren and Ronald McLain were in charge. Scribe David Murray reports.

Bachelor Cotillion Scheduled Nov. 27 In Country Club

Plans have been completed for the first annual Bachelor's Cotillion to be held for members and guests on Friday, Nov. 27, from 9 to 12 p.m., at the Newark Country Club.

Membership in the Bachelor's Cotillion is open to all male members of the former Newark Cotillion, who are in the 10th, 11th and 12th grades, or who are 1964 high school graduates.

A few subscriptions are available for boys recommended by parents of former Cotillion members. Requests should be made to Mrs. Bernard Doordan, 1004 Baylor Drive, Newark.

Deadline for accepting new members is Nov. 20.

The committee for the Thanksgiving dance includes Mrs. Brown, chairman; Mrs. Elwood Bailey, Mrs. A. L. Dollins, Mrs. Bernard Doordan, Mrs. Edwin Hein, Mrs. John Henderson and Mrs. John Searl.

MENTAL HEALTH BENEFIT
A three-day antique exhibit and sale sponsored by the Kent County Mental Health Association, will be held at the Maryland National Guard Armory in Chestertown, Md., Nov. 12-14.

VA INSURANCE
Veterans interested in the new law reopening National Service Life Insurance may obtain a general information sheet at any VA regional office. Manager Leon Fields of the Wilmington Veterans Administration regional office, said today.

City Council
Sidewalk construction on Casho Mill Road to serve the new elementary school was approved with no assessment costs to be levied; and installation of a water main on Old Coach's Bridge Road to tie in with a main at the Kennedy Turnpike was authorized.

Councilman Henry R. Folsom, Jr., presented proposed procedure for employment of the city's alderman with information obtained from neighboring states of Maryland and New Jersey. A minimum annual salary of $5,000 was recommended, along with a schedule of regular hours. Alderman McCann and Solicitor Lewis are to present recommendations for the alderman's hourly schedule.

The title "judge" is to be conferred upon the alderman at the suggestion of Newsman Henry Davidson, to "lend dignity to the office," Folsom proposed.

A public hearing on the annual report of the Newark Planning Commission was scheduled for Nov. 30, at 7:30 p.m.; and an executive session with the State Highway Department was scheduled by council for consideration of Elkton Road reconstruction, at 8 p.m., Dec. 8.

"It's easier to keep track of dates when there are no meetings," a councilman observed.

The first reading of an ordinance to rezone property on the north side of East Main Street and west side of McKees Lane from RD to RA was approved; and council authorized trade-in of a damaged police car for a new one; the application of oil and chip surface on Darlington Lane at a cost of $250; and micro-filming of municipal records at a cost of $2,378.65.

Folsom pointed out that one councilman and three municipal committee members were in arrears with money due the city, and his proposal that public office holders be dismissed when their indebtedness exceeds 60 days, was approved. The measure is to become effective next January—"at least 60 days from tonight," Folsom advised in an effort to provide adequate time for settlement of debts by those concerned.

A budget plan of payment for municipal electric service was approved; the name of Maple Avenue in Lumbrook was changed to Elm Avenue to avoid a conflict with existing street names; and audit of the alderman's docket was approved.

Councilman Doehert congratulated Solicitor Lewis on acquisition of the Crossan property for city extension of Barksdale Road, but Ken Lewis said that he could not "take credit where credit is not due," citing Doc MacLary of the Newark Real Estate Association as responsible for purchase of the site for the city.

"You can talk all night," Mayor Shields said, rapping with the gavel at 10 p.m. "but this meeting is adjourned."

Requires Heart Surgery

Souris Chrisula

18-year-old resident of Athens, Greece, Souris Chrisula was brought to the United States for probable heart surgery, with proceeds from the statewide Heart Fund Bowling Tournament this week.

Other proceeds will help support the Delaware Heart Association program of research, education and service.

VA Hospital Open House

"Curtain Going Up" To Be Senior Play At Christiana High

"Curtain Going Up"—the senior play to be presented at Christiana High School in December—is a comedy dealing with trials and tribulations of putting on a class play.

The cast includes a grouchy janitor with a vinegary tongue, and a stage-struck heroine with her bewildered boyfriend. Their antics add much to the fun of the play.

The vanishing of playbooks on the first day of rehearsal; high school romances; a concealed campus "actor," an athlete feeling awkward as an actor; a flowery professional actress with advice; and a banker's daughter driven to stealing by her father's ambitions, keep the play moving at a lively pace.

During the show, performers will be on the stage and in the audience. Tryouts are being held for seven male and 10 female roles.

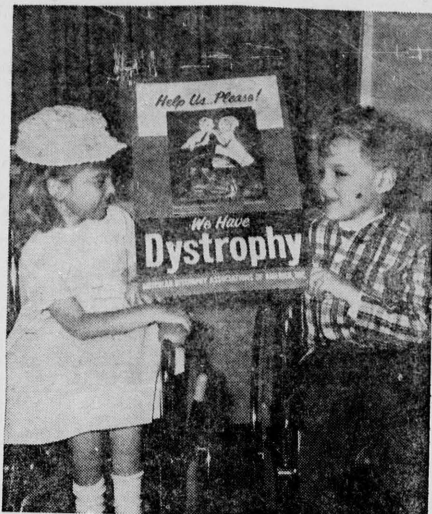

Mrs. Frances M. Patonovic is senior play director.

Bids Due Nov. 24 For Road To Relieve Ferry Traffic
Sealed proposals for construction of a highway and high level bridge between Route 14 and the Lewes-Cape May ferry will be received by the Delaware State Highway Department on Nov. 24.

According to William J. Miller, Jr., director of the Delaware River and Bay Authority, the State Highway Department will construct the 1.95 mile roadway for the Authority as a by-pass around Lewes, where ferry problems develop on peak ferry traffic days.

Drama Conference To Feature Survey By Louise Goddin

A report on the first survey of dramatic programs in Delaware schools in 30 years, will be a major feature of a conference at the University of Delaware this Friday, as representatives of the educational theatre division of the Delaware Dramatic Association gather at the Dramatic Center for an all-day meeting.

Mrs. Louise Goddin of the Newark school district, made the survey which takes in all phases of school dramatic programs: curricular and extra-curricular work, financing, play selection, production organization, preparation of teachers, teaching load for directors of dramatics, creative dramatists and facilities.

Friday's session also includes a lecture-demonstration of Reader's Theatre by Judith Espinola of the university department of dramatic arts and speech, and a discussion of children's theatre by Maizie Weil and Frieda Reed of Upper Darby (Pa.) High School.

Some 300 teachers and students from Delaware schools are expected to attend the Friday conference.

On Sunday, community theatres representatives will meet at the Howard Johnson Motor Inn in Newark to elect officers. Speakers at the luncheon meeting will be Charles McKinney, president of the Eastern States Theatre Association; John Haven, an official of the American Community Theatre Association; and Dr. C. Robert Kase, chairman of the university drama department.

Friday and Sunday meetings hinge on passage of a constitutional change at the 25th meeting of the Delaware Dramatic Association today at the Holiday Inn. Speaking at tonight's dinner meeting will be Jay Carmody, critic with the Washington Post.

New Bridge Construction Progresses Satisfactorily

After inspecting new construction from the top of the 400-ft. towers of Delaware Memorial Bridge, Delaware River and Bay Authority commissioners pronounced progress on a second span as satisfactory.

"The second bridge, just 250-ft. north of and parallel to the present structure across the river between Delaware and New Jersey, is scheduled for completion in mid-1967 at a cost of approximately $75,000,000.

Col. Edward G. Allen Cites Success Of ROTC Grads

University of Delaware ROTC graduates again have made favorable showings in basic branch schools.

Army authorities recently notified the university's military science department that of 52 officers commissioned last June, who attended nine-week branch schools, 21 were rated in the top third; 20 in the middle third; and 11 in the lower third.

Col. Edward G. Allen, Delaware professor of military science, noted that no Delaware graduates in recent years have failed the basic branch course, and in fact, existing records show no failures.

NROTC Provides Students Chance For Free College

High school seniors and graduates have only until Nov. 20, to apply for the Navy's Reserve Officer Training Corps.

Applicants will take the nationwide competitive examination on Dec. 12, as the first step toward appointment as Midshipman.

Designed to supplement the officer output of the Naval Academy, the NROTC program makes it possible for a young man to earn a regular commission while studying at one of the 52 civilian colleges which has an NROTC unit.

All tuition, fees and books are furnished by the navy, and the student receives a retainer of $50 per month for not more than four years.

During the summer the student goes on interesting training cruises to many parts of the world.

After completing a four year college course, he is commissioned in the Navy or Marine Corps and goes on active duty as a career officer.

He receives the same promotional opportunities, duty assignments and benefits as Naval Academy graduates.

High school seniors and graduates who will be at least 17 but not 21 years of age on June 30, 1965, may apply for the navy college aptitude test. Those who make a qualifying score will be given a thorough physical examination in January and February, 1965.

Approximately 2,000 will be selected to begin their naval careers in college next September.

Application forms are available at local high schools, and Navy recruiting stations or from the Chief of Naval Personnel, Department of the Navy, Washington, D. C.

Physical Education Plant Improvement Scheduled At U. D.

In a little more than a year the University of Delaware will have one of the finest physical education and athletic plants in the East.

Trustees of the university and President John A. Perkins requested the state legislature for aid, and the state responded with a $1,526,000 appropriation.

Construction bids are scheduled for this January.

The land for the proposed athletic complex around the present stadium site, and original stadium construction were provided through private gifts.

Plans include a 360x180-ft. field house with training, equipment, locker, shower, laundry and ticket facilities for the athletic program.

The structure also will contain a 220-yard tartan surface track, and areas for track and field events; a baseball infield, pitching area and batting cages; and a wrestling loft.

Surrounding the 13,500-seat Delaware Stadium will be eight new fields—a baseball park and a separate field for the freshman team, fields for lacrosse and soccer with separate fields for the freshmen, and two football fields.

A quarter-mile all-weather track will be located directly east of the stadium, with an adjacent field event area.

Construction of these new facilities will release present fields and buildings on the north campus for intramural and physical education programs, as well as varsity basketball and swimming.

Additional buildings are planned for the north campus to improve the area for these activities.

Richard P. Fox is the architect for south campus construction.

God has endowed man with inalienable rights, among which are self-government, reason, and conscience.

Australian Teacher Visits Christiana For Science Study

Raughley Bovell, educator from Perth, Australia, visited Christiana High School last Monday to observe science classes and to study the school data processing system.

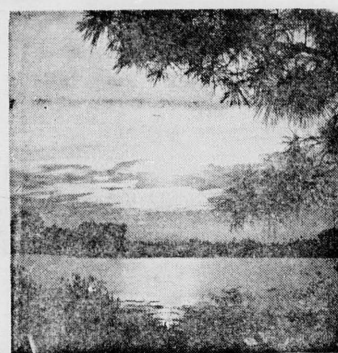

One of two Fulbright students studying in this country, Bovell is working for his master's degree at Columbia University, and upon return to Australia, will be in line for a supervisory post in the science field with the Ministry of Education.

He has been a science teacher and head master at a school near Perth. In comparing students in Australia and America, the Australian teacher said American students are more adept in verbal communication—express themselves more fluently than their fellow students "down under."

Baechtel, Horn Join Capt. Art Durham On Injured List As Vikings Lose By 8-0

Minus the stellar services of Co-Capt. Art Durham and Steve Horn—starting tackles suffering from knee injuries—and without their No. 1 Fullback Dick Baechtel, who had a leg broken in the Wilmington High School game the week before—Coach Bill Horney's Vikings still held Dickinson to a slim two-point victory in the final period when Quarterback Gil Jackson passed to Chuck Haines for a 25-yard touchdown play.

Durham was injured in early season practice, and Horn hurt his knee in the same game with Wilmington that cost Horney the services of Baechtel.

Co-Capt. Art Durham is to receive a report from the physician this week, and may see action this Saturday morning when the Vikings entertain Mt. Pleasant at 10:30 on the Newark High School field.

A second period safety gave Dickinson the 2-0 halftime lead last week, and after a scoreless third quarter, Dickinson scored a touchdown in the final period when Quarterback Gil Jackson passed to Chuck Haines for a 25-yard touchdown play.

Dickinson with a 3-4 record, shares fourth place in the Blue Hen Conference with P. S. du Pont, while the Green Knights who meet Christiansburg this week, are 1-5-1.

And Mt. Pleasant's lone victory was a surprising opening win over the powerful Newark Yellowjackets—Coach Bob Hoffman's defending champions of the conference.

Horney's Vikings are 0-7, but they have been edged in some squeakers, including a 7-0 decision to undefeated Brandywine. And the Bulldogs wrapped up the Blue Hen Conference championship last Saturday with a 34-6 win over P. S. du Pont.

Playing for Christiansburg last Saturday against Dickinson were Don Straughn, Roger Hunt, Pete Bazzell, and Greg Kracher at ends; Co-Capt. Bub Hackney and Harold Boyer, tackles; John Cornell, with Bazzell shifting from defensive end to an offensive guard spot; Mel Potter, center; Roger Barnes, quarterback; Jack Hopper, Joe Thomas, Dave Taylor, Mike Horney, and Don Grinnage, halfbacks; Al Dagger taking over for Baechtel as fullback; and Carl Gibson, safety.

Treasurer For TD Club

John L. Murray

At last Monday's luncheon meeting of the Newark Touchdown Club, John L. Murray was elected club treasurer, succeeding Sgt. John W. Wells, Jr., who resigned because of his new assignment with the Delaware State Police.

A Newark High School graduate, Murray is assistant vice-president of the Farmers Bank of the State of Delaware, and past-president of the Newark Lions Club.

At last Monday's luncheon meeting of the Newark Touchdown Club, John L. Murray was elected club treasurer, succeeding Sgt. John W. Wells, Jr., who resigned because of his new assignment with the Delaware State Police.

Hunting along the Delaware River's sandy beach near Odessa last Saturday afternoon, Francis H. "Bully" Richards shot his first wild Canada goose. And the term "wild" is used advisedly with "first goose" because Master Richards shot another Canada goose some years ago—a savvy specimen staking claim to a place in the area about the Richards farm pond off New London Road—anything but mild-mannered "tame" game that was particularly truculent toward Billy Richards.

This goose died of lead poisoning with the interception of an accidental shot from a 22 calibre rifle. Anyhow, Saturday's Canada honk—strong and free and fresh from the Delaware River—was knocked out of the sky with a well-placed blast from a 20-gauge shotgun, and a boy hunter's first goose shot in wild flight, attains near immortality. And this one was a big beauty.

Billy, far more enthusiastic than the chase than for subsequent cleanup duty, donated the goose to a friend, who in turn sold a portion of the bird to a local restaurant. The Zieglers family ate a goose-picking pie in a backyard off Academy Street in the chill of last Sunday night—and the plucked and drawn gander changed hands again to wind up in the freezer of Bliss Brice Riedy to provide the piece de resistance for this Sunday's supper in honor of visiting Florida Lady Hilda Pate.

Frith, VanGrofski Add Two Records To Blue Hen Book

The pasting combination of Tom VanGrofski and Wes Frith added two marks to the Delaware record book in the Blue Hens' 21-0 loss to Temple last Saturday.

VanGrofski, 185-pound quarterback from Bloomfield, N. J., completed eight passes to set a new season standard for completions before leaving the game with a twisted knee.

The lithe junior now has completed 69 of 122 passes for 920 yards and five touchdowns. He broke Don Miller's 1952 record of 62 completions, and moved in on two more of Miller's marks.

Van is only seven yards shy of Miller's season total offense record of 965 yards and is 102 yards behind his 1954 standard of 1,022 yards gained passing in one season.

VanGrofski had already broken one of Miller's marks, completing 15 passes against Gettysburg to better Miller's one-game total of 14 against Bucknell in 1953.

Frith, 194-pound end from Flourtown, Pa., grabbed five of VanGrofski's passes against the Owls to establish a Delaware season record of 32, topping the 30 catches by Jimmy Thomas in 1949.

Frith set the one-game record for receptions with eight in the Blue Hens' opener with Hofstra. The lanky senior has caught 50 passes, with two games remaining in his Delaware career.

Halfback Bill Hopkins continued his attack on the Delaware season rushing record set by Jack Turner with 874 yards in 1953.

Hopkins, a 185-pound speedster, has picked up 822 yards in 138 carries, an average of 5.9 yards per carry.

The senior halfback's performance this year moves him up to seventh on the all-time rushing list with 1,143 yards in his varsity career. His 89 yards against the Owls moved him to within 52 yards of sixth-ranked Tony Tote (1,195).

Hopkins continues to lead the Blue Hens in scoring with nine touchdowns for 54 points. Fullback Mike McCann is second with three TD's for 18 points.

The Blue Hens outgained the Owls on the ground 103-79, and in the air 132-74, for a total offense edge of 235 to 153.

Coaching Rivals Hoffman, Horney Guests Of TD Club

Bob Hoffman and Bill Horney, head football coaches for the Newark High School Yellowjackets and the Christiansburg High School Vikings, will be guests of honor for the Newark Touchdown Club's noon luncheon meeting next Monday at the Horseshoe Carriage.

Horney's Vikings in the high school football season wind-up Thanksgiving Day morning at Delaware Stadium.

At last Monday's meeting of the "Touchdown Club," Marty Finerty, University of Delaware director of athletic ticket sales, presented this narrative with a movie of the 1964 Delaware-Gettysburg Game—the Hens' first loss of the season as the M.A.C. champs were shot down 22-13 by the Bulldogs.

OFF AND RUNNING by John I. Day

Racing President

When Andrew Jackson was first boomed for the Presidency in 1822, his hometown newspaper, the Nashville Whig put his name in nomination in colorful, if somewhat oddly punctuated, style:

"Great Racing!" the headline read: "The prize to be run for is the Presidential Chair! . . . There have already four states sent their nags in . . . stud? and if so, let it be called Old Hickory."

As it turned out, Old Hickory lost a photo finish to John Quincy Adams in that race but subsequently, when Jackson did take up residence in the White House he missed his race horses. It wasn't long before a draft of Thoroughbreds arrived from his now famed home, The Hermitage, near Nashville. They were accompanied by his trainer and his jockey, all under the management of that picturesque clerical turfman of the period, the Reverend Hardy M. Cryer.

They proceeded to race at the tracks in the vicinity of Washington and while they were programmed under the name of A. J. Donelson, the President's Secretary, their ownership was no secret.

Delaware Faces 6-1 Rutgers At Stadium After 20-0 Loss To Owls In 4th Period

Coach Dave Nelson's Blue Hens, 3-4 after their 21-0 loss to Temple last week, take on a powerful Rutgers team this Saturday in Delaware Stadium.

The Owls scored all their points in the final frame at the local stadium last Saturday.

Rutgers has 20 lettermen returning from last year's squad plus a bevy of talented sophomores.

Senior quarterback Roger Kallinger directs the Scarlet winged-T offense, and he is a big factor in their success this year.

Rutgers' better than second-string at the beginning of the season, Kallinger has already passed for more yards than the entire Rutgers team did last year.

The 160-pounder has completed 63 of 106 passes for 693 yards and four touchdowns, compared to 672 yards for the Scarlet in nine 1963 games.

Brendel, a 214-pound junior, is Rutgers' top rusher with 366 yards in 100 carries, an average of 3.7 yards per attempt.

Stegmann, a 190-pound speedster, has been splitting the left halfback chores with veteran Chet War. Mudge is the regular right halfback.

Hopkins Cage, Mat Tests Added To Hen Home Card

Two home events have been added to Delaware's 1964-65 winter sports schedules.

Delaware Frosh Of Flynn, Case Win Over Owlets

Mike Zaunzi's educated frosh helped Delaware's freshman football team to a 23-13 victory over Temple in Philadelphia last Friday as the Blue Chicks of Coach Jimmy Flynn and No. 1 Rooter Dick Case concluded a 2-3 season.

It was Mike's 31-yard field goal in the second period that broke a 7-7 deadlock and started the Chicks on the way to win.

The 195-pound Huntingdon (Pa.) product had kicked the placement of Delaware's second TD in the opening period, and added another PAT in the third period.

Delaware's ground attack featured Fullback John Miller's 66-yard run for a third-period touchdown, and acquired 266 yards, while the defense limited Temple to 20.

In the air, the Owls had a big edge. Jim McIntire, who tossed one TD pass and set up another, gained 19 yards with 18 completions out of 45 tries.

He completed one to Dan Maurer in the first period and the receiver ran to the Delaware one before he was caught from behind by Dave Vidon. From that point, Mike Derchak powered across.

Delaware Quarterback Frank Lizenhold emulated McIntire in the second period, connecting to Angelo Napolitano in a 25-yard scoring drive. Zaunzi booted the extra point that tied the score, then put Delaware ahead to stay, 10-7, with his field goal.

Despite McIntire's excellent passing, it was one of his aerials that led to Delaware's second TD. Vidon pulled down one and ran 40 yards to Temple's 25 in the third period. Halfback Art Smith backed up the interception a few plays later by scoring from four yards out.

It was Temple's first defeat after wins over Hofstra and Drexel Tech and a tie with Gettysburg.

Bob Stehr, a 6-1, 190-pound junior, is the leading receiver for the Scarlet Knights with 19 catches for 233 yards.

He is only two receptions ahead of his sophomore replacement, Jack Emmer, who has grabbed 17 passes for 246 yards and a TD.

George Lamb at safety, Jerry Seiser at tackle, and Capt. Bob Norton as linebacker, are standouts for Rutgers' defensive unit.

The Scarlet Knights will be out to avenge a 14-3 loss suffered at the hands of the Blue Hens last year.

Hopkins Cage, Mat Tests Added To Hen Home Card

Two home events have been added to Delaware's 1964-65 winter sports schedules.

A varsity basketball game with Johns Hopkins—originally scheduled to be played in Baltimore on Dec. 2—will be played on the same date in Carpenter Field House.

Charley Hayman's 3 TD's Pace Newark's 47-13 Win Over Wilmington High School

Halfback Charley Hayman tallied three touchdowns as Coach Bob Hoffman's Yellowjackets bowled over Wilmington High's Red Devils in a 47-13 tidal wave of scoring power unleashed last Saturday morning on the Newark High School field.

Hayman scored on a nine-yard dash in the first quarter and Halfback Dick Fulton placed-kicked the extra point to give Newark a 7-0 lead. And the Yellowjackets rang up three more touchdowns in the second period for a 26-0 advantage at halftime.

End Larry Tucker took a pass from Quarterback Norris Saunders in a 16-yard scoring play to open the second stanza, and again Fulton's kick was in there.

Hayman broke away on a 48-yard touchdown raffle, and it was Hayman again with a one-yard scoring plunge.

Wilmington got on the scoreboard early in the third period when Harlan Mitchell kicked the extra point to a touchdown, and Matsusaki kicked the extra point.

But Newark nullified this bit of scoring in the same quarter when End Steve Mitchell took a pass from Saunders with a 21-yard scoring play, and Fulton kicked the point.

Fullback Donnie Walp plunged one-yard for a fourth-quarter touchdown, and Wilmington retaliated with a scoring drive culminating in a five-yard slant by Lothrop.

In the story book play of the day, Charley Hayman fumbled a Wilmington kickoff, and Fulton fielded the bounding ball to romp 55-yards for the Yellowjackets' final touchdown. And both of Fulton's fourth quarter place kicks were good for the extra points.

In the Yellowjacket line-up last Saturday against Wilmington were Mitchell, Tucker, Conway, Hayman, Orville Wright, and Dave Graybell, ends; Co-Capt. Ricky Hicks, Bill

698,581 Fans Bet More Than $36-Million With Brandywine Raceway 60-Night Card

It's a politician's year in the U.S.A. but even the seagor smarmers had to take a backseat to horsemen at Brandywine Raceway for awhile as the silk-clad wheelers and their sulky-pulling steeds fashioned one of the greatest seasons in the track's history.

Brandywine's 12th annual meet, a straight 60-nighter from July 6 through Sept. 12, was replete with thrills and excitement from start to finish.

Racing buffs numbered 698,561 for the meet, a nightly average of 11,642, and they wagered $36,450,091 for a nightly average of $607,501.

The Aug. 8 card was the biggest, with 18,502 fans betting $499,333. Delaware had its treasury enriched by $1,332,674.69. Broken down, $2,757,539.19 came from the mutual handle at 31 1/2 per cent, and $5,952.30 came from admissions at 10 cents a head.

In the racing department there were three national season's records and five all-time track records established; one national season's, and one track record equalled.

On the national roster Brandywine boasts pacers Gallant Knight and Key Wheel with 2:03.1 clockings which stand as the best in the nation for three-year-old geldings; pacer Christmas Time with a 2:01.1 as best among sophomore fillies; and trotter Argo Kid with a 2:04.4 which matched the record for three-year-old geldings set by Genard Mire.

Track records which went by the boards were credited four for the gals and one for a gelding. Four-year-old pacing gelding Frank T. Ace, with Olin Davis driving, replacing Mr. Nickawampus' 2:02.4 of 1962 with a glittering 2:01.1.

Christmas Time's 2:01.1, erasing Quick Lady's 2:01.2 set five years ago, was the best clocking among the trotters.

A mark for four-year-old pacing mares was set by Lady Heel with Cleo Young on board. The Lady trotted in 2:02, four-fifths better than Cathy J. Hanover's record of 1963.

Distaffers on the trotting gal who joined the Brandywine all-time record holders were Miss Becky Pick, fastest aged mare in 2:03.4; and Arabesque, fastest two-year-old filly in 2:07.3. The latter achieved her mark in the Nancy Hanks stake.

The syndicated Down Under invader, Cardigan Bay, who's taken this country by storm since Spring, was fastest sidwheeler of the meet

Too Many Resources Pose Farm Problem As Production Increase Exceeds Demand

The farm problem in some ways is like the weather. Everybody talks about it but no one seems to be able to do anything about it. In fact there is some doubt as to just what the problem is.

W. T. McAllister, farm management specialist at the University of Delaware, says that fundamentally the farm problem is the result of too many resources in agriculture. This means farm production has gone up faster than the demand for farm products.

McAllister credits new technology with increasing farm output 25 per cent during the 1950's. During this same period of time there was a 20 per cent increase in demand due to an increased population and higher consumer incomes.

The net result is a five per cent oversupply of farm products. In highlighting agriculture's technological revolution, McAllister cites this example.

"Y" Indian Guides Prepare Program For Fathers, Sons

Chiefs and little braves are gathering in pow-wows and tribal meetings to begin the new year for the YMCA Indian Guides, and preparations are being made for a year of bigger and better tribal activities. Clayton McElwaine of the Newark "Y" reports.

Chiefs Mitch Justice and Jack Kraus have been promoting "Y" Indian Guides in the surrounding schools, with new tribes for fathers and their first through third grade sons, who meet twice a month in members' homes.

In Indian Guides, fathers emulate the American brave who taught his son what he needed to become a good adult. The motto "pals forever" relates to the program purpose—developing lasting comradeship between boys and their fathers. When the boy thinks his father is the greatest man in the world, McElwaine concluded.

Greenhut Addresses NHS Drama Workshop Group

The fact that Newark High School is involved in the production of Mary Chase's three-act comedy "Harvey," doesn't interfere with other dramatic activities.

Andrew Greenhut, technical director of the University of Delaware department of speech and drama, last week addressed members of the Newark Senior High School drama workshop and the thespians with his topic "Problems of Stage Make-up."

The Dramatics Workshop, a newly formed organization for the study of dramatic production, is holding tryouts for two plays—"Sorry, Wrong Number," and "The Hitchhiker."

Mrs. Louise Goddin is sponsoring the Workshop.

Five Seniors Nominated For Danforth Fellowships

Five University of Delaware seniors have been nominated for Danforth Graduate Fellowships, each worth up to $8,000.

Fellowships are open to men and women who have serious interests in college teaching as a career and who plan to study for a PhD. About 120 Fellowships will be awarded next March.

Nominees from the University of Delaware include John J. Gahan III, Edwin Satterthwaite, Leonard J. Soltzberg, Gary F. Veltek, and Irwin S. Westenberg.

The Danforth Foundation, one of the nation's 10 largest educational foundations, was founded in 1927 by the late William H. Danforth, St. Louis businessman and philanthropist.

FOURTH YEAR FOR HAZEL

Television's favorite maid, played with warmth and understanding by Shirley Booth in "Hazel" (NBC, 9:30 p.m., EST Thursday) is back taking care of the Baxter family (Don DeFore, Whitney Blake, and Bobby Duntrock) for the fourth year and the star says it seems like just the other day.

As the uncrowned queen of the Baxter household, Hazel is always outspoken, sometimes noisy, and generally the kind of person viewers like to have in their living rooms come Thursday nights.

A top-notch cook, her meals have solved many a knotty problem for George and his irascible clients.

Hazel gets a new kitchen in a few weeks and there isn't a woman alive who won't identify with her pleasure.

The 1964-65 season will also find a pair of newlyweds moving next door when George's law partner, played by Lauren Gilbert, marries a blonde, shapely model from New York, portrayed by Karen Steele.

As Karen is completely unfamiliar with any detail of domesticity, Hazel takes her under her knowledgeable wing and gives her a crash course in the culinary arts.

Miss Booth herself is no amateur when it comes to cooking. DeFore still snacks his lips with gustatory pleasure when he recalls the meal she served them while and his family visited her at her Cape Cod home last summer.

Until a short time ago Miss Booth stayed in an apartment hotel during the months she was filming "Hazel" but a few months back she decided to make the west coast her permanent residence and bought a small house in a Beverly Hills hilltop, she subleased her New York apartment and shipped her favorite pieces of furniture, including some genuine antiques, to Hollywood.

Her new home also gives the star an opportunity to indulge her fondness for gardening, her favorite outdoor sport.

CLEAN-UP PROGRAM OF HOME GARDENS ADVISED FOR FALL

Late fall is the best time to clean up the garden and put it in order before the coming spring. This part of gardening is important, points out Dave Taitall, assistant county agent in ornamental horticulture, because it not only improves appearance of the grounds, but also helps lessen the pest problem during the next growing season.

Many insect enemies winter on garden plants in the egg stage. Some pests of perennial flowers, such as the iris borer, can be controlled by cutting off and burning old foliage of the host plants on which the eggs are laid.

Trees and shrubs also need to be examined.

Frequently encountered in the garden are the cocon-like egg cases of the bagworm, usually found hanging from the branches of evergreens, and the hard, shiny, dark colored egg masses of tent caterpillar, which

Low Income Bracket Vets To Receive Pension Boost

Older veterans in the lower income bracket will be able to receive at least $100 a month through the new law liberalizing veterans' pensions and providing basic cost-of-living increases to most pensioners, including widows and children, according to Leon Fields, manager of the Wilmington VA regional office.

The new law, signed by President Johnson last October 13, becomes effective Jan. 1, 1965.

The law provides basic cost of living increases of 64 per cent to most pensioners; higher increases for those with the greatest need, and the greatest increases, as well as medical benefits, to the most severely disabled veterans, Fields said.

may be found attached to twigs of deciduous plants. These egg deposits should be destroyed as soon as they are discovered.

And branches of euonymus and lilac which are heavily encrusted with scale should be cut out and burned.

Disease organisms, too, survive the winter to reinfect plants the following spring. Perennial tops, rotted bulbs and rootstocks, fruit mummies, and other plant parts likely to be diseased should be gathered and destroyed.

Weed populations can be reduced by removing and destroying the old
