Girl And Boy Win Awards For Poultry

Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company Prizes Go To Franklin Greenwalt And Agnes Seydell, Both Students In School Here.

Franklin Greenwalt and Agnes Seydell, of Newark, and Richard Poulter, of Stanton, have been awarded prize pens of high class Barred Rock chickens for their meritorious work in poultry clubs this year. This announcement was made yesterday by County Club Agent Ed Williams, Jr., of the Extension Service of the University of Delaware.

These awards were made possible through the co-operation of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Company with the Agricultural Extension Department of the University at Newark.

It is the policy of the Railroad to help promote the agricultural interests of the counties through which their lines run. In pursuing this goal the railroad established a poultry club around Stanton and Newark in the spring of 1924. They gave to 15 club members on an equal exchange basis, 50 high grade eggs for setting. These eggs were secured from well known poultry plants in two different sections of the county. The club members hatched the eggs and raised the baby chicks to maturity the first year.

Yearly Records Kept

In November, 1924, they started to keep records of the eggs produced from their flock and the cost of producing them during the year. It was on this flock management demonstration that the awards given by the railroad have been made.

Franklin Greenwalt, who has been in club work for a number of years, lives on a farm on Polly Drummond Hill near Newark. He has been a consistent prize winner with his birds at all the poultry shows at which he has exhibited in the past two years. But he has not been contented to let the beauty of his birds bring in all of his winnings for the year. He has made a profit of $276.74 on his flock of 15 hens and the 91 young stock raised this year. His hens averaged 165.9 eggs for the year, which the Agent thinks is a very good average for a commercial flock. His returns, per hen, above feed cost was $2.05 this year. This does not take into account, however, several overhead expenses that the average club member does not have to carry on his birds. The pen that has been awarded to Franklin consists of six high-class pullets and one cockerel, and should be a very valuable addition to the flock he now owns. The new birds are of the same blood lines that young Greenwalt has been so successful with the past two years.

35 CHICKENS STOLEN FROM HOUSES HERE

Robbery Occurs Saturday Morning at Lee Lewis Home.

Despite the fact that the lights were on in several rooms of the dwelling nearby, thieves entered the poultry yard of Lee Lewis, on Elkton road, early Saturday morning and carried off between 35 and 40 fine chickens, according to Mrs. Lewis.

In speaking of the theft, Mrs. Lewis said, "We were up at the probable time of their entrance to the yard. It was about 2.45 a. m. Two children here were ill with colds and I was tending them. I noticed the lights from an auto parked down Elkton road, but gave no thought to the action of the occupants. I did not discover the loss until next morning."

The next day, it is alleged, footprints were found leading from the Lewis yard to the negro cemetery a few hundred yards away. It is then believed the thieves entered their parked car and drove off with the chickens.

Christmas Rush Begins In Stores Soon; Savings Checks Make It Merry For Many Merchants Displaying Pretty Things and Stocks are Bigger Than Ever; Early Shoppers Increase This Year.

Newark is getting the Christmas spirit. From street, on all the big and little supporting end to end of Main streets, indisputable signs presage the great event. It's on everybody's mind, this business about Santa Claus, turkey winners. Soon will be seen grown men and women down on their knees trying to see how the toy train works, spinning tops, and doing all manner of undignified things.

After a rather slow start, caused principally by atrocious weather, merchants this week report a steady increase in Christmas buying. The rush is on.

Practically every Newark store carrying holiday merchandise, has taken pains to make their displays as attractive as possible. Many of the windows have caught the spirit and cause everyone to stop in passing, if only for a glance. They ride the chest of a sales wave that needs little explanation. In THE POST today will be found their advertisements—quite as complete an array of gift suggestions as we've ever printed.

D. A. R. DELEGATES TO CONFERENCE NAMED

Cooch's Bridge Chapter Entertained by Mrs. W. Frank Wilson Recently.

The regular meeting of the Cooch's Bridge Chapter, D. A. R., was held at the home of Mrs. W. F. Wilson.

A letter from Mrs. Alfred Brossseau, Social Service Department of Ellis Island, was read. Such articles as needles and thread, scissors, stamped articles for embroidering were among those desired. Contributions for the box to be sent to Ellis Island emigrants may be left at the home of Mrs. Mary Donnell.

The chapter has four new members in prospect. Delegates to the State D. A. R. Conference to be held in Wilmington in February, were elected as follows: Miss Eleanor Todd, Mrs. Arthur Beals, Mrs. Mary L. Forman, Mrs. Annie Moore; Mrs. Frazer being a delegates by virtue of her office as Chapter Regent. Alternates were elected as follows: Miss Miriam Alrichs, Mrs. Walter Blackwell, Mrs. Mary Donnell, Miss Grete McKensie, Mrs. W. F. Wilson.

The sale of bonds for the new auditorium in Washington, and other matters of interest to the Chapter were discussed. The meeting adjourned and a pleasant social hour was enjoyed.

Card Party Tonight

Members of the Degree of Pocohontas of this town are holding a card party this evening in their meeting rooms in Odd Fellows Hall. The playing begins at eight o'clock.

A LOCAL CHAMPION

Field Champion Bohemian Dix, owned by Good Time Kennels, Newark, Thomas C. Young, proprietor, and shown above, is one of the finest dogs ever benched from this section. The dog was purchased from John Scott, Elkton, by Mr. Young for $500. He has been defeated but once in competition, and has won championships at the Eastern trials here, the Sportsmen's Trials, West Chester, Pa., and at the Nationals in Virginia. Dix is about seven years old, and is the star of Mr. Young's kennels.

holidays in the year, but it is a fact here in Newark that none approach Christmas in its universal appeal. Family dinners are being planned, gift lists prepared, little hands are painfully inscribing personal notes to Mr. Santa Claus; in every home, large or small, some one is planning THEIR Christmas. It is ever the same. Year after year.

Christmas checks amounting to nearly $40,000 will be spent in this territory and Wilmington during the next two or three weeks. And $40,000 will arrange for a whale of a lot of happiness for Newark people.

Yes, it's in the air—this spirit which makes children out of us all.

GALA OPENING PLAN FOR CO. "E" SEASON

Mayor To Be Asked To Throw Out First Ball In Game With Elkton.

A big league opening night is being planned for the opening of the Battery "E" basketball season here next Wednesday night, when the local guardmen line up against Company "E" of Elkton. The game will take place in the Armory.

Newark plans a busy season, and will place a good team on the floor. Extra seats will be placed along both sides of the court. Over $75 has been spent, according to Captain Hastings, for the equipment of the team.

It developed today that Mayor Frazer will be asked to toss out the first ball in the opening game next week. Thus will the campaign be given official sanction as well as a touch of color.

CURTIS MILL DOWN AS ENGINE BREAKS

Part Time Production Enforced by Accident Last Week Here.

The plant of Curtis and Brother, Inc., here, was seriously set back in production last Thursday when a serious break on the main engine necessitated a partial shut-down in many departments.

It is understood that parts are being rushed to the mill and every effort made to get the machines running within a few days. Most of the men are working, but on reduced time basis.

WORLD COURT MEETING

Everett Colby To Address Mass Meeting On December 13th

Announcement has been made of a mass meeting to be held in the Playhouse, Wilmington, on Sunday, December 13th next, to arouse sentiment in favor of the World Court. Many prominent citizens of the State are on the committee sponsoring the meeting.

Hon. Everett Colby, and a United States Senator, not yet named, will address the meeting. A large number of people are expected to be present.

WINS GOLD MEDAL

Huey Morris Leads Equitable Salesmen In Two Weeks' Drive

Huey Morris, local representative for the Equitable Life Insurance Company, has a medal—and he is not a little proud of it.

Huey turned in 144 applications to his office during a two weeks' drive held recently, and won the gold emblem as the most popular agent in the Wilmington district. His many friends are congratulating Mr. Morris on his achievement.

Off To Bermuda

Edward H. Vogt of this town left Saturday from New York for a 15-day cruise to Bermuda and return.

Mr. Vogt is making the trip with a high official of the firm with which he is associated. In speaking of it Friday last, he said that it had been planned for recreation and rest for both men.

Another Store On Main Street Is Announced

Medill and Hopkins Join Forces In Opening Clothing, Shoe And Haberdashery Establishment; Early Rumors Now Confirmed.

The advent of a new men's clothing and shoe store into the mercantile field of Newark was announced yesterday by David L. Medill, who with Clarence O. Hopkins, also of Newark, will conduct the business.

The firm will be known as Medill and Hopkins Company, incorporated.

A lease has been secured in the Lum property adjacent to the newstand and grocery store of Thomas J. Green, on Main street, and from Mr. Medill's statement yesterday, it is expected that the opening will be held within two months.

Both Men Experienced

Since serving his connections with the firm of Green and Medill a few months ago, Mr. Medill has been contemplating the establishment of a shoe store here. Association with Mr. Hopkins, now owner of the Hopkins Men's Shop on East Main street, has no doubt altered original plans and the business will be conducted on a wider scale.

Mr. Hopkins has been successful with his shop and has a host of friends in this territory. He will, it is understood, remain in charge of the clothing and haberdashery. Mr. Medill, with fifteen years experience in the shoe business, brings to the firm a thorough knowledge of his work. Most of his activity centered in the West. Three years ago, his successful store in Colorado was swept away in a disastrous flood.

Plan Alterations

Extensive alterations are planned for the new store. An attractive display front will be built in, the interior arranged to best advantage and complete new equipment installed, it is understood.

Farm Survey Of Nearby Communities To Be Made Next Week By Extension Dept.

A farm business survey will be conducted by the Extension Service of the University of Delaware in the Hockessin, Mermaid, and Fairview communities during the week of December 14 to 19. Announcement of the survey was made today by Director C. A. McCue.

The purpose of the survey, according to Director McCue, is to determine the better paying systems of farm organization and management in these communities. The Extension Service will then be in a much better position to aid the farmers in improving their systems of farming.

During the survey records of 100 to 125 farms will be taken covering the farm business for the year 1925. The records include estimates of the farm business. It will, therefore, not be difficult for the farmers to give the information desired. Members of the Extension Service will make personal

Newark Windows Rattled By Blast

The intensity of the explosion which destroyed a passenger engine on the B. and O. R. R. near Childs station Monday evening is evidenced when many Newark people felt the shock. Windows and doors rattled, and in some homes, dishes careened on wall racks and table tops.

A group of men at Lovett's furniture store on East Main street distinctly felt the concussion about 6.40 p. m., according to one of their number. The store windows rattled perceptibly. Little alarm was occasioned by the incident, however, and few knew of its cause until late in the evening.

No trains ran on the B. and O. morning. They were cut off the main tracks below Childs and run over the Pennsylvania tracks.

HIGH BASKETEERS START DECEMBER 18

Chalmers Only Regular Back For Quintet This Year; Prospects Fair.

With "Shorty" Chalmers the lone veteran available, Coach Horace Nunn of Newark High School's basketball team faces another problem in whipping together a contending factor for the D. I. A. A. championship.

Practices have been held regularly for the past two weeks, and the squad is gradually developing speed and polish. This week, scrimmages are in order and many new men are showing up well. Chalmers, star of last year's team, is captain and forward.

The probable team which will face Dover High School here on December 18th appears to be the following: Chalmers, forwards; Riley, center; Morris and Jaquette, guards.

In the intervening time, however, anything might happen, and a goodly number of strong contenders for the positions are found in these candidates:

Manns, M. Armstrong, Mayer, Dayett, Doordan, Smith, Eubanks, Harkness and Williamson.

LOCOMOTIVE BLOWS UP ON TRACK; 2 DEAD

Roar Of Bursting Boiler Heard For Miles As Tragedy Occurs Near Childs, Md., Monday Evening; Passengers Escape Injury

ENGINE CAB LANDS ON CAR

With a roar that shook the entire countryside, a big passenger engine pulling train No. 49 of the Baltimore and Ohio R. R. was blown to bits Monday evening when its boiler burst near Childs, Maryland, 10 miles south of Newark.

Joseph Ryan of Wilmington, engineer, and Harvey Churchman, of Havre de Grace, fireman, were instantly killed by the explosion. Ryan's body was found 100 feet distant from the torn and twisted engine. Churchman was pinned in the wreckage and his body terribly scalded by the escaping steam.

None of the passengers were injured.

Came Without Warning

When word of the explosion reached despatchers' towers at Childs and Newark, a call was sent out for physicians from Elkton and this town. Drs. N. H. McKnight, J. J. Greenwalt and Wallace M. Johnson, the latter of Newark, responded but found none in need of medical aid.

It was the first accident of its kind to occur in this section for many years, according to old railroad men. In fact, it is an exceedingly rare happening in traffic annals. While no investigation can be held by reason of the death of Ryan and Churchman, it is generally believed that water in the boiler had reached a low level, and possibly, cold water had been run in too late. Sudden expansion from the hot tubes created a pressure which blew the entire top off the engine.

The blast came without warning. The train was moving at about 30 miles per hour, after leaving Childs station. The combination express and passenger car, a freight car and standard passenger car, which made up the train, all remained on the rails, as did the tender.

The Coroner's jury, called in Elkton last night by Coroner Green, held that the deaths of Ryan and Churchman were caused by a "faulty injector" in the engine. Railroad officials in the B. and O. offices, Baltimore, however, stated through the Associated Press today, that in their opinion the accident was caused by "low water in the boiler."

Passenger Describes It

At least one passenger on the train attributes his existence today to the fact that he was riding in a steel coach. He is Robert Bryson, of North East, Md., a student at Goldie College. "If it had been one of the old-style wooden coaches," he said, "I do not doubt but that we would have been killed or seriously injured."

Bryson was riding with his mother, Mrs. George Bryson, about half way back in the first coach. The train, he said, was traveling at a moderate rate, having just left the station, and was moving over a "fill," with banks dropping away a number of feet on either side.

"I was looking out of a window on the right hand side of the car," he said, "when suddenly I heard a terrific roar. The car lurched drunkenly, and the landscape was blotted out with steam from the wrecked boiler. The first roar was followed almost immediately by a second, which, I learned afterward, was caused by the cab of the locomotive landing on the roof of our car. Pieces of steel could be heard thudding to the ground all about us, or clashing together in mid-air."

Valuable Farm Sold

The farm two miles south of Newark, tenanted by George Jarmon and owned by the estate of the late William R. Wilson, was sold yesterday to James Jarmon, of Claiborne, Maryland. Mr. Jarmon will move to the place on March first, and George Jarmon will move to a farm near Wilmington.

Postmaster Gives Suggestions For Mailing Parcels

Christmas Rush Greatly Eased By Care Of Patrons In Preparing Gift Packages And Christmas Cards, He Says; Tie Letters In Bundles

Early mutterings of the annual Christmas stampede are already being heard at the Post Office here, according to Postmaster William H. Evans. In order to handle the great volume of both incoming and outgoing mail to the satisfaction of everyone is a terrific task in the office's cramped quarters. Mr. Evans, then, is making a determined effort to acquaint the patrons with a few important time saving helps to facilitate the handling of the mail.

Christmas cards, addressed and stamped, may be wrapped in bundles and deposited in a special depository in the lobby of the office, said Mr. Evans yesterday. This aids greatly in the cancelling and sorting of the missives. Patrons are requested to take advantage of this special arrangement. Other suggestions and rules for the Christmas season as outlined by the Department, are as follows:

Shop now and mail early for early delivery. The Post Offices will make every effort to handle the Christmas mails without congestion and delay, but owing to the enormous volume this can be done only with the cooperation of the public. Compliance with the following suggestions will greatly aid the Post Office and insure the prompt handling of your mail.

Fragile Objects

Articles easily broken or crushed must be crated or securely wrapped. Use liberal quantities of excelsior, or like material, in, around, and between the articles and the outside container. Glassware, fragile toys, crockery must be packed so as to prevent the escape of particles or pieces if broken in transit.

Cigars: Ordinary boxes of cigars wrapped in paper only will not be accepted. Pack in a manner to prevent damage by shock or jar. Wrap in corrugated pasteboard or similar material.

Addresses

Addresses should be complete, with house number and name of street, post office box or rural route number, and typed or plainly written in ink. A return card should be placed in the upper left corner of every piece of mail. If a tag is used, the address and return card should also be written on the wrapper for use if tag is lost, and a copy of the address should be inclosed inside the parcel.

Christmas gifts and cards addressed to points within one day's travel should be mailed not later than December 20; within two days' travel, not later than December 18; within three days' travel, not later than December 16; for more distant points, not later than December 14. Parcels and cards for local delivery should be mailed not later than December 22.

Parcels and envelopes may be inclosed "Please do not open until Christmas."

The early mailing of Christmas cards is just as important as parcels. Millions of these cards, separate and in envelopes, are mailed each Christmas. Consequently, great congestion and delay occurs in large post offices, where they are all mailed a day or two before Christmas. Therefore, if you want your Christmas greetings to reach your relatives and friends on or before Christmas Day, follow the instructions in the preceding paragraph relative to mailing early and be certain of delivery before Christmas.

Matter Not Mailable At Parcel-Post Rates

Written matter in the nature of personal correspondence can not be inclosed in parcels.

Communications attached to parcels: A letter placed in an envelope, addressed to correspond with the address on the parcel, and fully prepaid at the first-class rate, may be tied or otherwise securely attached to the outside of the parcel in such manner as to prevent separation therefrom and on the outside the address on the parcel.

class stock as those awarded Franklin was won by Agnes Seydell, of McClellandville, near Newark. Agnes is the only remaining girl in this poultry club, but she has been very much interested in the club work not only individually but for her community.

Her flock this year was rather small. She has had only eight hens laying during the year but their number was apparently compensated for in the number of eggs they produced for their young owner. They laid 1321 eggs during the year, or 165.1 per hen. The returns above feed cost per hen was $2.04. In these two respects her birds were a close second to those owned by Greenwalt. Agnes was quite agreeably surprised that she had won such a fine pen of birds when she was informed of her winnings by the Club Agent. From her statements, she is going to keep her newly won pen separate from the birds she now has.

Last spring Agnes was appointed as local leader of a small poultry club organized in her community. This year she intends to add several new members to the club roster. She won her award not only from having had a good flock of chickens this year, but also through her interest in helping others as well as herself.

Over in Stanton they have several members in the B. and O. Club, and Richard (Dick) Poultny is one of the most interested ones. He won the third prize pen of chickens given by the Railroad for high endeavor in the club work this year. Poultny has a flock of ten hens, and 26 pullets to continue his club work this fall. He also raised 45 cockerels this year, some of which he hopes to dispose of as breeders this fall and spring. The Club Agent visited his flock last week and believes that Richard has as good a bunch of cockerels for breeders as can be found in the county.

At the show of the Diamond State Poultry and Pigeon Association held in Newark, Poultny won second prize on his cockerel and pen, and first on the pullet he exhibited.

Makes Own Brooder

Last spring when the Agent visited "Dick" to see how his birds were laying, he found the young poultryman making brooders with which to mother the young chickens that were to hatch in a few days. This improvised brooder consisted of a box under which, in a hole, Poultny had placed a lamp. The heat from the lamp went into the box through a can with holes in it, placed over the top of the chimney. In this way he raised all of his young stock this year. At one time Poultny was using one of his mother's discarded wood wash tubs as a hover for his baby chicks. At the present time he is remodeling an old pigeon house to house his steadily increasing poultry flock.

All of these prize pens were on exhibition at the Baltimore Poultry Show held last week at Baltimore. The Club Agent visited this show last Friday and was very favorably impressed by the assistance the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad Co. is giving to club members over the Middle West as well as the Eastern part of the United States.

Mexican Held For Murder Of Track Man

Peter Muldoon Found Dead In B. & O. Shack Last Week; Prisoner Says Affair Was Accident

Cecil County authorities are still firm in their belief, it is reported, that murder was responsible for the death last Thursday morning of Peter Muldoon, 50 year old B. and O. section hand, in the commissary shack near Singlerly, Md., about four miles south of Newark.

Muldoon was found early in the morning by Foreman Ganzmann, of the section gang, upon the former's failure to report for duty. The dead man was lying on the floor of the shack. A long gash in his arm just above the elbow is believed to have severed an artery. A physician summoned by authorities a few minutes later pronounced the man dead from loss of blood.

Fellow Workman Held

Joseph Garrico, a Mexican, also a track walker, is being held in Elkton jail, awaiting the verdict of the coroner's jury in the case. Police are of the opinion that the deep wound suffered by Muldoon could hardly have come about by a fall, as was stated by Garrico.

The latter said he found Muldoon in his adjoining shack late in the afternoon. Muldoon, he said, had been drinking. During the night, Garrico said he walked to the Singlerly tower and informed the operator there that his associate had met with an accident. It is evident that the seriousness of the incident did not dawn on those who were informed. According to Garrico, Muldoon fell across a table in one of the shacks and ran the point of a paper file into his arm.

Coroner Green of Cecil county has summoned a jury of inquest and will investigate the case as soon as the desired witnesses can be summoned. So far as is known Muldoon had no family. He had been living in the shack at Singlerly since he had been employed by the railroad and was well-known to most people in the neighborhood. He had been employed on the railroad for some time, but it is not known exactly how long.

NEW BRIDGE SPAN IS NEARLY COMPLETED

Delaware City Scene of Great Engineering Feat Along Canal.

The Dravo Constructing Company of Pittsburgh, Pa., has about completed its work of constructing the foundations for the new bridge to span the Chesapeake and Delaware Canal, below Delaware City. When the work was started early in the fall, it was estimated that the job would be completed around December 15, with the men and all equipment away before Christmas.

All the concrete has now been poured and the caissons and abutments on both sides of the canal completed. The only work remaining to be done is to pull out the steel piling used in constructing the caisson on the south side, and to construct a breaker in front of the caissons on the south side.

During the past few weeks, a huge pile of sand has been thrown up on each side of the canal and will be used in building the approach to the bridge.

MORE IMPETUS GIVEN BUILDING FUND

First Mark-up Night Thurs- day of This Week.

The Newark M. E. Church building fund received a substantial boost in the second week of the campaign when contributions and pledges were received to the amount of $3,201.00. This is taken up to Friday the 4th, inclusive.

It was decided to hold a regular monthly mark-up night on the second Thursday night of each month. The treasurer and secretary of the finance committee will be at their desks in the Church to receive and tabulate the returns of the week. Plans are being made for a social evening to which all members and friends of the church are invited. This will be a sort of monthly come out and get acquainted meeting. A substantial amount has already been paid in and is now drawing interest in the savings fund. Interest drawn in this way means less interest to be paid out when building operations are finally started.

Subscriptions will be received at any time. The books for this fund are never closed. The Church, with only a half dozen or so exceptions, have responded or have given their assurances of hearty sympathetic co-operation. While this holds good for the Church itself, it also holds good for the community and many not directly connected with the church believe that a new and more suitable building would be a real asset to the town.

The Juniors too have their part. They feel that they all want some part in the erecting of this House of Worship and though not wage earners, are striving to swell the funds with monthly subscriptions of small amounts. One of the first of these subscriptions was for 25 cents per month from one of the boys in the Junior Department. This will be the kind of self-denial and sacrifice which will in the end overcome our difficulties.

The following contributors' names who were among those first making their contributions toward the new Church were omitted from last week's report by mistake:

Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Cage, Edna A. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. C. Mote, Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Wiley, Darwin Cage, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Fox, Mr. and Mrs. Walton Smith, Mrs. Katherine Davis, Mrs. Robert Campbell, Elsie M. Mote, Mrs. Alfred Walraven.

At the meeting held this week the following new subscribers' names were listed:

Mrs. L. R. Evans, Mrs. Mary Willis, Miss Emily Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Ottey, Wilmer Sheppard, Mrs. Abbie Wiggins, John Holloway, Jr., Margaret Dawson, Elizabeth Worrall, Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Deer, Miss Hannah Lindell, Mr. John Dean, Mrs. Charles P. Wollaston, Harvey Hoffer, Mrs. Frank Crompton, Dr. and Mrs. T. F. Manns, W. Owen Sypherd.

Miss Jennie Williams, Mr. J. W. Buckingham, George W. Jones, Jr., Ladies Aid Society, Harvey Sheppard, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Steel, William Holloway, Adelta B. Dawson, Evelyn Worrall, Alex. R. Colegroves, Jr., Mr. R. E. Ramsey, Dr. and Mrs. R. W. Cooper, Herman Wollaston, A. Friend, Mrs. Angie B. Perkins, Miss Lydia A. Kenning, Mrs. H. B. Wright.

Mrs. Lillian Maxwell, Mrs. Edna Reed, Mrs. Mary A. Major, Mr. and Mrs. David Sheppard, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Williams, George W. Russell, Mike Pilnick, Mrs. Norris Worrall, Mrs. Elizabeth Jaquette, Mrs. Wm. H. Smith, Wm. E. Bland, Dr. J. R. Downes, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace George, J. E. Dougherty, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Jones, Mrs. D. C. Kenning.

Amount of previous pledges, $8,288.00. Additional last week, $3,201.00. Total to Friday's meeting, $11,489.00.

AIRCRAFT PLAYERS OPEN WITH "YOU AND I"

Three-Act Comedy by Philip Barry To Be Offered Satur- day Next.

The curtain of the third season of the Aircraft Players will be officially raised next Saturday night at 8.30 o'clock when "You and I," the lively three-act comedy by Philip Barry, will be presented at the New Century Club, Wilmington.

With each performance in the past seasons, the audience has grown steadily and indications point to a capacity house next Saturday night. Rehearsals are being held nearly every evening this week, Laurence Ludwig, the director, whipping the cast into a smooth-running performance.

Settings for the play, designed by Albert Haddock, are being completed under the supervision of Philip Hertz, stage manager, and Norman G. Roe, stage carpenter. The properties committee, under Mrs. Samuel Bird, Jr., is finishing its work in the collection of furniture. Harvey Smith, electrician, has completed his lighting arrangements and in fact, all units in the organization are working towards a smooth production.

The cast is led by J. B. Jessup, with the following members: Miss Jane Richards, Miss Katherine Colton-Wells, Mrs. J. Robert Durham, Tom Stirling, Peyton Wertenbaker and William B. Megear, Jr.

STUDENT PLAY GIVEN HERE LAST NIGHT

Many Attend English Depart- ment Offering In Wolf Hall.

The play, "Dolly Reforming Herself," by Henry Arthur Jones, was given under the auspices of the English Department of the University of Delaware in Wolf Hall, on Tuesday evening. This play is considered as a project work in English 51 and each student will receive a grade on his or her acting. Those taking part in the play were Bernard Nobis, as Harry Telfer; Floyd Wright, as Mathew Baron; Merrel Pyle, as Mrs. Telfer; William Miller, as Professor Sturgess; J. E. Turner, as Criddle; Philip Cohen, as Captain Wenworth; Louise Turner, as Mrs. Sturgess; E. H. Spicer, as Rev. James Pilcher; Hazel Chapman as Peters; and Alvin Wakeland, stage manager.

The production was a great success. The acting of Merrel Pyle, Louise Turner and Floyd Wright was exceptionally fine. In fact, the whole cast played their parts in good form.

Men's League

The tournament planned for this month's meeting of the Men's League is occupying quite a little attention. Have no definite reports yet as to how many of the men have been burning the "Midnight Oil" trying to get their hands in on the several games but no doubt there will be a number of "upsets." No time for eats this night?

Don't forget the day and date. Tuesday evening, December 15th, any time after 7.00 o'clock.

The cast for the Mock Trial to be held in January has been selected and practice will soon start. This will be a big night, too, and a silver offering will be received.

NEW CENTURY CLUB

The New Century Club will hold its regular meeting on Monday afternoon, December 14. On Tuesday evening, December 15, at 8 o'clock, the Club Christmas party will be held. On this occasion each member is entitled to bring friend husband. Should that gentleman not be available, some other good friend may be substituted.

The Club will also hold a rummage sale in the Club House on Friday, December 11, from 3 to 6 p. m., and Saturday, December 12, both afternoon and evening.

The Club supper was well patronized, despite the inclement weather. Miss Frances Hurd was the fortunate winner of the Christmas quilt.

William J. Smith

William J. Smith, aged 72 years, a retired farmer, died at his home in Elkton Friday evening after a long illness. Mr. Smith had lived practically all his life in Elkton and vicinity and had a host of friends throughout the county. He was an active member of Head of Christiana Church nearly all the time that the late James Valandigham was pastor of the church. Since that time he had been a faithful member of the Elkton Presbyterian Church. He is survived by the following brothers and sisters, James M. Smith, Bridgeville, Del.; Mrs. R. J. Colbert, Newark, and Mrs. Frank Moody and Miss Mary Smith, of Elkton.

The funeral was held at 1.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon in Elkton Presbyterian Church and interment made in Head of Christiana cemetery.

LOCOMOTIVE BLOWS UP; 2 DEAD

"The whole thing occupied but a few seconds. After making sure that my mother was safe, I ran to the front of the coach and out on to the front platform. Descending the steps, I was just about to jump to the ground when I heard the conductor and a number of workmen in a rear coach shout, 'Here he is!' Looking back, I saw the engineer lying at the edge of the embankment, near the rear of the first coach. The conductor turned him over. Part of his jumper was torn to shreds and the skin on his arm was peeling off.

"Turning away, I looked at the locomotive. Its boiler had blown up towards the smoke-stack, with the firebox towards the front of the engine. Underbrush on each side of the tracks was blazing, but this was soon extinguished. Returning to the coach, I went back to where my mother was sitting. We started immediately back toward the station.

"As I looked at the cab of the locomotive resting on top of our coach, I could not help but think what might have happened if we had been riding in a wooden coach. The weight of that cab would surely have crushed in the roof and some of us would probably have met instant death."

Mr. Ryan, the engineer, was 63 years old. He was born in Ithaca, N. Y. and was reared in Philadelphia by Joseph Hunter, his foster father. His parents died at Ithaca while he was very young. He entered the employ of the railroad when a boy and remained with them all his life.

Muhlenberg In Turmoil; Players Face "Pro" Charge

Old Delaware Opponents Face Serious Situation, According To Reports From Campus This Week

Every Evening, Wilmington, carried in a current issue, a despatch from Allentown, Pa., regarding a hubbub of excitement on the Muhlenberg College campus. The big red team has been a frequent opponent of Delaware on the gridiron.

"With the finger of professionalism pointing to eight varsity football players, a deep gloom has been cast upon the campus of Muhlenberg College. Charged with playing with the Reading Wiensers and later with the Reading Professionals at Carsonia Park, Captain Russell Clarke, tackle; Rice, center; Hord, sub-end; Hunsicker, tackle; Moll, tackle; Donaldson, halfback; Black, end; and Snyder, sub-quarterback; today see their collegiate grid careers ended if the findings of the Athletic Council find charges true.

"The announcement of Graduate Manager Afterbach that the Council was investigating the activities of the eight men, only one of whom, Captain Clarke, graduates, came as a bombshell in football circles, particularly after President Haas' stirring denunciation of the sportsmanship of Franklin and Marshall in canceling Muhlenberg from its schedule because the status of Nick Borelli was questioned.

"A special meeting of the board will be held tomorrow evening when a statement will be issued concerning the players. All of the youths accused of playing professional football are still at college, awaiting the decision of the board.

"The Athletic Council of Muhlenberg College had no knowledge of the playing of any athlete on a professional team until a few days ago," is how Afterbach made the announcement, adding, "A careful investigation is being made and in due time proper action will be announced."

"The Reading teams on which the men are said to have played had a number of former college stars in their ranks. Copley, former Muhlenberg man; Wilsbach, ex-Bucknell back; Carl Beck and Bully Erich were among the players. According to members of the Muhlenberg Athletic Board, the salaries paid to the players on the Reading teams were small. A percentage of the gate was divided among the players. Because of poor attendance the team was a financial failure.

"The Sunday before the Villanova game here the Muhlenberg men were in Reading to play but the game was called off. This was the last game scheduled for the Reading team and the men were forced to pay their own expenses back to the college, it is said."

FROSH BEAT SOPHS IN MERRY COURT BATTLE

First Year Men Surprise In First Interclass Victory; Jaquette Stars.

The Freshman basketball team threw a distinct shock into upper-classmen Monday afternoon when their fast basketball quintet jolted the haughty Sophomores in a bitter struggle, winning 21-19. As the Sophs were strong favorites, their unexpected defeat by the first year men, make the latter the "dark horse" in the race for titular honors this season.

Jaquette, Newark boy and former High School star, made a great impression on all who saw the game by his fine work. Working under the watchful eyes of three coaches, the youngster played a wonderful game and tied for high scoring honors with Holt, a classmate. In many ways, he is said to resemble Sank McCaughn, famous Delaware center and forward of a few years back.

The game opened with the Sophomores taking the lead. Creamer's field goal in the first few seconds of play seemed to indicate that the Freshmen were to be defeated as usual, but the Freshmen came across in the last few moments of the first half and scored points enough to put them in the lead. The first year men kept this lead throughout the game, although they were at times sorely pressed by the Sophomores.

Neither team had much chance to practice because of the varsity drills which are held every afternoon. But when the two teams started it looked as though both had had long training. The team work and fast thinking on both sides was exceptional.

Coach Glasser's defense was good. His men played the defense like regulars and seldom were the Sophomores able to break through the wall. Most of the scoring by the Sophomores was done from the middle of the floor.

Fouls played a big part in running up the Sophomore score, they making eight points on fouls alone. Lichenstein scoring five of these eight.

The score:

| Freshmen | | | |
|------------------|-------|-------|-----------|
| | Goals | Field | Foul Pts. |
| R. Holt, forward | 3 | 3 | 9 |
| H. Holt, forward | 1 | 1 | 3 |

| Glasser, guard | 0 | 0 | 0 |
| DiJosephs, guard | 0 | 0 | 0 |
| Totals | 8 | 5 | 21 |

for national defense and commercial development, and that we ought to proceed in its improvement by the necessary experiment and investigation. "Our country is not behind in this art. It has made records for speed and for the excellence of its planes. It ought to go on maintaining its manufacturing plants capable of rapid production, giving national assistance to the laying out of airways, equipping itself with a moderate number of planes and keeping an air force trained to the highest efficiency."

The President, in discussing the veterans, said, "If any one desires to estimate the esteem in which the veterans of America are held by their fellow citizens, it is but necessary to remember that the current budget calls for an expenditure of about six hundred and fifty million dollars in their behalf."

Agriculture

Touching upon the matter of agriculture, the President said, "No doubt the position of agriculture as a whole has very much improved since the depression of three and four years ago. But there are many localities and many groups of individuals, apparently through no fault of their own, sometimes due to climatic conditions and sometimes to the prevailing price of a certain crop, still in a distressing condition. This is probably temporary, but it is none the less acute. National Government agencies, the Departments of Agriculture and Commerce, the Farm Loan Board, the intermediate credit banks, and the Federal Reserve Board are all cooperating to be of assistance and relief.

"Agriculture is a very complex industry. It does not consist of one problem, but of several. They can not be solved at one stroke. They have to be met in different ways, and small gains are not to be despised.

"From all the investigations that I have been able to make the farmers as a whole are determined to maintain the independence of their business. They do not wish to have meddling on the part of the Government or to be placed under the inevitable restrictions involved in any system of direct or indirect price-fixing, which would result from permitting the Government to operate in the agricultural markets. They are showing a very commendable skill in organizing themselves to transact their own business through cooperative marketing, which will this year turn over about two billion five hundred million dollars, or nearly one-fifth of the total agricultural business. In this they are receiving help from the Government."

The President said that Muscle Shoals had assumed a place all out of proportion with its real importance; that Muscle Shoals should be developed for the production of nitrates primarily, and incidentally for power purposes; that he favored disposing of this property to meet these purposes; that the findings of the special commission appointed will be transmitted to Congress. He is convinced that the best possible disposition can be made by direct authorization of Congress.

The President stated that the Government is committed to a policy of reclamation and irrigation which it desires to establish on a sound basis and continue in the interest of the localities concerned.

Methodists Plan Christmas Party For December 23

Committees Appointed For Handling
Sunday School Entertainment;
White Christmas To Again Be Observed

The M. E. Sunday School is busily engaged now in plans for Christmas. This has been placed aside up to the present time on account of the building fund occupying the minds and hearts of the congregation. Now, however, we are ready to work out programs for this great festival of our Church.

The White Christmas which has been so successful and which has added so much interest to the School activities of the past several years will be observed again this year. Gifts for the King will be again laid at the feet of our Savior with the thought of our local needs uppermost. We will not forget others both near and far and hope to make our gifts show some of the appreciation we feel of the great Gift to the World.

Every member of the school is being asked to do his bit. Committees for the various plans are listed below. Don't forget, however, that you are a committee of one to help lift the load.

The entertainment will be held in the Church on Wednesday evening, December 23rd, at 8.00 o'clock. The official Church program will be followed and programs from the Primary and Beginners Departments as usual.

The committees are as follows:
Program: Mrs. G. M. Phipps, Mrs. J. W. Moore, Mrs. E. V. Rhodes.
Candy and Gifts: Mrs. G. M. Phipps, Mrs. J. W. Moore, Mrs. Wallace George, Mrs. Robert Campbell.
Distribution of Gifts: H. P. Williams, G. M. Phipps, F. A. Cooch.
Decorations: W. F. Lindell, H. H. Gray, Chester Moore, O. W. Leveredge, I. T. Ellis, Mrs. E. V. Rhodes, Miss Ruth Butler, Miss Elenor Butler, Miss Jester, Miss Emma Willis.

What Will I Give?

A quaint desk of the Spinet type, in rich brown, two-toned mahogany, is a very appropriate gift, adapted for living-room, or hall and in many cases bedroom. They are not only practical pieces of furniture, but very attractive. Made with sliding tray, long drawer and cunning little cubby holes to hold our most intimate correspondence. They are priced, $32.00, $34.00, $36.00, $50.00, $56.00, $72.00, $75.00, $100.00 and up to $242.00. A very attractive little desk, particularly suitable for bedroom, in solid mahogany, twenty-eight inches wide, is marked $30.00.

Chairs to match can be obtained in the regular desk type at $20.00, $25.00 and $30.00. But the most popular chair is of the Windsor type, generally the ladder-back design and these range in price from $20.00 to $38.00 with rush seats. Other Windsor types that match very well are the Fryng-Pan and Fiddle-Back styles, ranging from $14.00 to $30.00.

A Tea Wagon will help serve Christmas dinner and every other dinner better. They are extremely practical and made with separate tray, easy rolling swivel wheels and most of them with silver drawer. Of course they all have drop leaves and this, with their disappearing handles, makes them quickly convertible into a handy little luncheon or card table. They save many, many steps between the kitchen and dining-room and they are prized for their utility perhaps more than their beauty. They are priced in mahogany or walnut, $26.00, $27.00, $32.00, $36.00, $38.00, $42.00 and up to $80.00.

An End Table is a very convenient little article, made to stand at the arm of our davenport or favorite chair. They are just the right height to hold books, magazines or ash tray and they have numerous other uses, for they can be used to hold sandwiches and salads and help serve many little impromptu lunches. They are marked in mahogany and mahogany finish, $5.00, $6.50, $7.00, $10.00, $12.00, $18.00 and $20.00. One very popular number has a convenient book trough, a top, eleven by twenty-four inches, and concealed ash tray, and is priced at $8.00.

A Smoking Set is one gift that a man will enjoy and use. There is no peeved, disgruntled hunting for pipe or cigarette, nor are ashes spilled promiscuously all over the floor. These smoking stands come generally in mahogany finish and in various sizes. Some are in the form of an end table, others in the small standing ash receiver. The most popular ones, however, are those that have ample room on top for a book or magazine and capacious ash tray and humidior. There are a hundred styles to choose from and you can select one ranging anywhere from $2.00 to $60.00.

No room ever has enough mirrors and there's many a nook and corner that can be enhanced by them. They come in the so-called Venetian mirrors, mitre-cut and figured and range in price from $8.50 to $15.00. There are the plain Colonial type mirrors in mahogany frames and in six different styles ranging from $12.00 to $58.00, depending of course on the size of the glass. There are mirrors forty-eight inches long, made to hang over a buffet or mantelpiece, and priced from $12.50 to $52.00 and there are some fifty styles of smaller mirrors, some of the panel type with portrait top, some with mahogany frames and mitre-cut plates, that range from $12.00 to $30.00.

A very attractive mirror is made in the Polychrome frame—portrait top—ten by twenty inches—mirror length over all about thirty inches and priced, $8.50.

When wintry winds are blowing and Jack Frost comes sneaking in, somebody will thank you many times for sending them a comfort this Christmas. A sateen-covered comfort in full size, all-wool filled, comes in gold, rose and blue, and is priced $11.50. Another wool-filled comfort with sateen cover, with borders in gold, rose and blue and floral center, is priced, $15.00. There are silk-covered comforts, filled with down and wool, ranging in price from $18.00 up to $40.00.

A Cedar Chest is a most desirable gift. They have, not only ample storage space for our extra clothing, but they give us almost positive protection against the pesky moth. They come in lengths ranging from forty-two to fifty-four inches, made of genuine Tennessee red cedar, with strong hinges and easy-rolling casters and a dependable lock. They can be had in the flat-lid styles, but among the most popular are those made with rounded trunk lid, fitted with dust strip. They are priced, $16.00, $20.00, $26.00, $30.00, $34.00, $36.00, $40.00, and up to $60.00 for the big 54-inch bedding chest. Walnut and mahogany chests, cedar lined, can be had to match your bedroom furniture, and range in price from $30.00 to $75.00. A Cedar Chest is generally a "Hope Chest" and is often the starting point of a brand new household.
