CO-OPERATIVE PLAN PRESENTED TO SCHOOL BOARD

Funds and Equipment for Newark School in Return for Teacher Training Privilege

At a meeting of the Board of Education held at the High School last Thursday night, Dean Robinson of the Women's College, presented for the consideration of the Board, a proposal for the establishment of a training school at Newark. According to the plan as outlined the college proposes to grant the following in return for training school opportunities:

For Instruction and Supervision:
Superintendent $500.00
Training teachers in high, grammar, and primary grades	800.00 $1,300.00
For use of Building:
Annex No. 1—
Rent	$800.00
Alterations & Improvements	245.00 845.00
Use of Equipment:
Books, maps, views, etc.	2,500.00
Total	$4,645.00

As is apparent the proposal is one of mutual benefit, the committee on Instruction and Discipline of the Delaware College Board of Trustees having approved of the plan, it is stated in order to round out the course in education for students at the state college, preferring, for them, an opportunity to teach in a school controlled by a local board, and conditions such as they will find in their teaching experience after graduation, rather than work in a school, under the direct control of the college. "To be concrete," Miss Rich of the department of Education declared in an interview with a Post reporter today, "eight girls from the junior and senior classes should the plan be adopted, would be teaching in the various departments of the school next year. Not more than four or five students would be teaching at one time during the year, and each of these would teach only one subject, a plan which assures more intensive preparation than a grade teacher, with her various subjects, can possibly give. Each student would teach for a definite period of approximately eight weeks, all of her work being under direct supervision and subject to the approval of the supervising principal and the members of the local Board of Education."

In a discussion following Dean Robinson's proposal on Thursday, a number of points were made plain. In response to the query "What will the College expect in return for the $500 paid toward the superintendent's salary?" it was stated, "The college wishes to afford an opportunity for the students to come in contact with a well trained, practical man; to provide the privilege of discussing courses of study, equipment for schools, and questions of discipline with him; and the opportunity to attend his teachers' meetings. In return for the $800 offered for training teacher salaries, in the various grades, the College will be compensated by the privilege afforded the pupils of witnessing the theories they have studied in practice. The plan as proposed here has been tried this year in the eighth grade, where Miss Snyder is in charge. Both parents and pupils are loud in their endorsement of the result."

The plan proposed, it was explained, will bring to the school $2500 worth of the most approved supplies and equipment, such as supplementary reading books, charts, maps, globes, reference books, etc. The object of the College in placing these, it was stated by Miss Rich, is to bring the students in training in contact with the best type of school material and to give them a working standard.

In contrast to the advantages afforded by the proposed plan the question of distance from the center of town to the Annex, the expenditure for equipment, the installation of drinking fountains, toilets and janitor service were discussed. The matter was taken up at an adjourned meeting held last evening and reported elsewhere last evening and reported elsewhere in these columns.

ANNIVERSARY ON MAY 23rd

Ebenezer Society Thirty-three Years Old

The twenty-third Anniversary of the Mite Society of Ebenezer M. E. church will be marked by a pleasing entertainment in the church on Thursday evening, May 23rd. Mr. William Cloud, electionist of Avondale, will render a number of readings; there will be vocal music by Mrs. William Lamorne, and instrumental numbers by the Misses Rebecca, Alice, and Edith Wollaston. Cake and coffee will be served to all, and ice cream will be sold during the evening.

Men in Uncle Sam's Service

It has been announced at Washington that more than 1,300,000 men have been called in the draft, and either are in France, in camp or in call to go into service before June 1.

The total of 1,300,000 includes all men summoned in the May contingent. There is every indication that even a larger increment will be summoned in June than was summoned in May, and a progressive monthly mobilization continue throughout the summer and fall months as the cantonments are expanded.

It is expected that at such a rate, the army will reach a full strength of well over 3,000,000, within the next 12 or 13 months. It is possible, some officers say, that it may even reach 5,000,000 men.

Lodge to Attend Services

On next Sunday morning Wawa Tribe of Red Men will attend services at the Ebenezer M. E. church, the Reverend W. H. Cummings, pastor.

Additional Names on Pencader Honor Roll

Henry C. Ellison, Isaiah Shaw, George Perkins, Mrs. George Perkins, Wm. Rhoades, Bessie Bigger, Charles Bigger, Harry Thompson, Marion Thompson, Wm. Dickinson, Mrs. Anna Dickinson, Walter Bolton, Albert Sarten, Harry Candler, Rev. Ivanhoe Willis, J. Alfred Davis, Mrs. Minnie Davis, George Shaw, Sussie M. Ellison, Mrs. Ellen Lomax, Willard Wood.

Some Liberty Loan Purchasers

It is estimated that the Americans of foreign birth or extraction purchased $350,000,000 of the Third Liberty Loan; the number of such bond buyers is estimated at over 5,000,000.

A consular telegram from Shanghai, China, states that subscriptions to the Third Liberty Loan in Shanghai amounted to over $600,000.

The American Embassy in Mexico City states that the subscriptions in that city are more than $384,000, more than double the quota set for the Americans living there.

The Shah of Persia purchased a $100,000 liberty bond.

Great Chiefs to Pay Visit

The Great Chiefs of Delaware will pay an official visit to Minnehaha Tribe No. 23 Imp'd O. R. M. of Newark on next Tuesday Sleep, May 21st, 1918, and it is desired that as many members of Minnehaha Tribe be present on this Sleep to help entertain the Great Chiefs on this visit. Plenty to smoke will be on hand.

W. C. T. U. Meeting

The local W. C. T. U. will meet this Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Mary C. Cloud.

RED CROSS MEETING FRIDAY

Patriotic Rally Next Tuesday

An important meeting of the Newark Branch American Red Cross has been called for Friday afternoon, May 17, at four o'clock. The object of the meeting is to discuss the advisability of holding a carnival for the benefit of the organization this summer. Plans for the great Red Cross drive to begin next Monday will also be discussed.

Arrangements are being made for a patriotic rally to be held at Wolf Hall on Tuesday evening, May 21st. Two speakers will be present, one of whom will be a man from the trenches. A special musical program is being arranged and every patriot is urged to be present.

SURGICAL DRESSING CLASS COMPLETES WORK

Fourteen Pass Successful Examinations

Fourteen members of the Surgical Dressing Class at the New Century Club successfully passed their examination last Wednesday afternoon, at the conclusion of the course. The ladies are making their samples of dressings to be forwarded to National headquarters at Washington, which if accepted, will give them the rank of first grade instructors. Those completing the course are Mrs. H. L. Bonham, Mrs. Ernest Wright, Miss Alice Kerr, Mrs. Walter Plumley, Mrs. William Holton, Miss Mary Johnston, Mrs. J. P. Cann, Mrs. F. M. K. Foster, Miss Kate Robinson, Mrs. Wilmer Hill, Mrs. C. A. McCue, Mrs. G. W. Rhodes, Miss Nell Wilson, Miss Elinor Harter.

Beginning with this week the work room will be open on Monday and Thursday evenings, and Wednesday afternoon. An urgent call has come for several varieties of dressings, and all who can make the time possible are requested to come and help fill the order promptly.

SISTINE CHAPEL PICTURES SHOWN

Steriotopic Lecture Next Thursday

Miss Winslow's stereotopic lecture on the Sistine Chapel, scheduled for Monday evening, and postponed on account of the electrical storm which left the town in darkness, will be given on Thursday, May 16, at the hour previously announced, eight o'clock.

Parent Teacher Date Changed

Owing to the fact that the last Thursday in the month falls on a holiday, the regular meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association of the Newark School will be held on May 23rd, at 3.30 in the Grammar School building. Officers will be elected for the coming year and a large attendance is requested.

MUSIC WORK DEMONSTRATED

Interesting Afternoon at the Clubhouse

That splendid results in music instruction have been accomplished in the school during the year just closing was illustrated last Monday at the New Century Club. Groups of school children under the direction of Miss Shepardson were present, and gave exhibitions of actual class room work. In the first grade work the director demonstrated the teaching of the scale, and the idea of rhythm. A number of simple folk songs and dances were given, in a manner that delighted everyone, with the second grade Miss Shepardson demonstrated exercises in rhythm and the children sang a number of folk songs. A feature of the part of the program provided by this grade was the duet by Dorothea Rose and Tom Young, the latter singing a second part with ease and accuracy. The third grade pupils sang songs more difficult.

Pupils from the sixth grade illustrated the work in sight reading, including two part songs. Eighth grade pupils read music at sight, the teacher conducting the work as a class in the school room.

High School pupils illustrated the more difficult work. The first number, beautifully rendered, was a three part song, set to the music of Greg's "Morning Mood," and the second a trio of girls' voices, rendering one of Brahms' Hungarian dances.

Mrs. C. O. Houghton, in a short talk referred to the work accomplished in the two years that music has been in the local schools. The children throughout the grades have learned to sing in sweet, musical tones; they have learned to love a better grade of music; and their interest has been stirred in musical things. Mrs. Houghton related an instance of seeing children on the street conducting music classes, the staff having been drawn with chalk on the sidewalk.

Owing to financial conditions, whether or not music shall be continued as a part of the school curriculum is an open question at the Board meetings, and an expression from taxpayers is at all times welcomed by the members.

Commissioner Spaid to Visit Welsh Tract

Staff Commissioner A. R. Spaid will speak at the Welsh Tract Schoolhouse on Wednesday, May 22, at 3 o'clock. His subject will be "Some Present Day School Problems." This will be the final meeting for this year of the Parent-Teachers' Association, and the members of the association hope to see residents of the neighboring school districts at the meeting. Mr. Spaid will undoubtedly be able to help all present to understand and solve the problems that result from peculiar conditions existing just at this time.

HELP NEEDED

Red Cross Calls on American Citizenship

The new Red Cross campaign for $100,000,000—"one hundred merciful millions"—will open in Delaware, along with the rest of the country, next Monday and continue for one week. The American Red Cross "War Chest" need replenishing. The work accomplished during the last year has been so wonderful and so helpful in upholding civilization and relieving the distress caused by the barbarous "Hun" that the managers of the campaign have every confidence that the new fund will be raised with little difficulty. Every effort will be made to allow every person in the State an opportunity to join in this great work.

Dr. G. Layton Grier, of Milford, is organizing teams in every hundred and every district of the two lower counties. Kent and Sussex made large contributions last year and there is every expectation that they will exceed the amounts this time. In rural New Castle, L. Scott Townsend has charge of the organization work. He will have sixteen teams making a canvass of this county. Mr. Townsend threatens to give Wilmington a very hard race for first place in this canvass for contributions.

Wilmington itself will be organized under ten team captains and a most thorough canvass is to be made there. Next Sunday every congregation in the State will have the message of the Red Cross presented by its pastor. The preachers have entered most enthusiastically into the work of the campaign and will devote a part of the day's services to an explanation of the great humanitarian work already accomplished and the great need for continuing the effort.

The campaign will continue for one week, and the nation is looking to Delaware to keep the first place in the movement which she has taken in all patriotic and charitable efforts.

Charles K. Weston,

FETE OF ALLIED NATIONS

Sophomores to Entertain in Grove

Invitations have been issued by the Class of 1921 of Women's College to a Fete of the Allied Nations, to be held Saturday, May 18, in grove of Red Men's Home, at 2.30.

In case of rain the Fete will be held in the Hilarium of the Women's College.

STICK TO YOUR JOBS

Women Teachers of America Urged to Meet the National Emergency

"There is no national asset today so much desired as a completely full school room. Stick to your jobs," is the statement of Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, Chairman of the Women's Committee of the Council of National Defense, who has returned to Washington, D. C., from a trip to Indianapolis, where in a few days she spoke to the press women of the state, the state council, the Indiana Division of the Women's Committee and to the 1400 teachers of Indianapolis. "City teachers should do war work during the summer. Let them join the army of women who are going on the land or get into some outdoor occupation where they will get the things God lets exist there which cannot be found indoors. They will return to the school with greater health and treasures of memory to bestow upon the children in their charge."

"Country teachers write to the headquarters of the Women's Committee in Washington in great number, asking what they can do in the city, yearning for some expression of their patriotism which will take them away from the drudgery and hardship of most of the country schools. There never was a time when the nation needed its teachers in the country so much as now. They should stay by their schools, stand by their posts with the military spirit of the soldier on duty. The country boy and girl need education more than ever. Parents need persuasion to keep their children in school when there is fear that labor will run short. The country and city teachers' influence is greatly needed in every locality."

"Appeals come from hosts of young women who want to leave the school to do patriotic work. To the stranger or to the woman of my acquaintance, I say the same thing. One little girl I knew when she was two years old—her father was a Greek professor and she named her big doll Kappa-Gamma-Theta—wrote me to advise her what new line to take up. A little great city, begged similar advice. I told them both, 'Drill young soldiers in the school room.'"

Dr. Shaw has left for Columbia, South Carolina, where she will speak about the work of the Women's Committee. She will speak in Gree: N. C., before she returns.

PHOTOGRAPHS FROM THE BELGIAN FRONT

Miss Vander Flier Describes Conditions

Miss Hendrika Vander Flier, daughter of the chaplain to Queen Wilhelmina of The Netherlands, who visited America two years ago to raise funds for relief work, spoke at the Newark Opera House last Wednesday. Miss Vander Flier on her first visit, collected, unaided by any committee $80,000 for relief work. During her brief visit here she spoke ninety times, spent thirty nights in a sleeper. She left Holland again last February and on this visit working with the Holland-American Relief Committee to assist her, she anticipates greater results.

Miss Vander Flier shows slides following her talks on conditions in Holland. The slides are actual photographs taken by an Englishman during the first days of the war when the distressed Belgian population were fleeing into Holland. The photographer was killed and the film taken from his dead body. Miss Vander Flier purchased the film from the German government.

"My whole country," Miss Vander Flier said, "is no larger than the state of New Jersey, and the population of New York. In my home city we have 200,000 Belgian children, 600 French children, 7000 English soldiers, besides German prisoners, German ladies married to English men, all the people that Germany doesn't want, and England doesn't want. We have, to take care of 55,000 Belgian widows, widows with four, five, six, seven, sometimes nine children. The population of one town increased overnight from 20,000 to 150,000."

Miss Vander Flier exhibited the model of a College which represents the plan for which she is working. Holland has set aside a tract of land upon which the colleges can be erected, the colony to become the home of the Belgian widows. The little homes are designed for the "mother" and seven orphan children. It is estimated that $50.00 per year will maintain one child. Miss Vander Flier asks churches, schools, societies and individuals to adopt one Belgian orphan, pledging the $50.00 the child's maintenance.

The Women's College responded to the plea by pledging the necessary funds. Other local societies taking up the work may learn further particulars through the American headquarters. Address: Holland-American Home for Belgian Widows & Orphans, 15 East 40th Street, New York City.

OBITUARY

Helen Grant Love, wife of John Love, aged 32 years, died at her home at Nonantum on Monday evening, May 13, after an illness of several weeks. A husband and five children survive.

Funeral services will be held from the late residence on Thursday at 2.30 o'clock. Interment in Newark Cemetery.

MEMORIAL DAY PROCLAMATION

National Memorial Day, Thursday, May 30, is designated by President Wilson in a proclamation issued last Saturday as a day of public humiliation, prayer and fasting. The people of the nation are asked to gather that day in their places of worship and pray for the victory of the American armies which will bring a peace founded upon mercy, justice and good will.

The proclamation, issued in response to a resolution by Congress, follows:—

By the President of the United States:

A proclamation.

Whereas, the Congress of the United States, on the second day of April last, passed the following resolution:—

Resolved, By the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), that, it being a duty peculiarly incumbent in a time of war humbly and devoutly to acknowledge our dependence on Almighty God and to implore His aid and protection, the President of the United States, he and he is hereby, respectfully requested to recommend a day of public humiliation, prayer and fasting, to be observed by the people of the United States with religious solemnity and the offering of fervent supplications to Almighty God for the safety and welfare of our cause, His blessings on our arms, and speedy restoration of an honorable and lasting peace to the nations of the earth.

And, Whereas, it has always been the reverent habit of the people of the United States to turn in humble appeal to Almighty God for His guidance in the affairs of their common life;

Now, therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States of America, do hereby proclaim Thursday, the thirtieth day of May, a day already freighted with sacred and stimulating memories, a day of public humiliation, prayer and fasting, and do exhort my fellow-citizens of all faiths and creeds to assemble on that day in their several places of worship and there, as well as in their homes, to pray Almighty God that He may forgive our sins and shortcomings as a people and purify our hearts to see and love the truth, to accept and defend all things that are just and right, and to purpose only those righteous acts and judgments which are in conformity with His will; beseeching Him that He will give victory to our armies as they fight for freedom, wisdom to those who take counsel on our behalf in these days of dark struggle and perplexity and steadfastness to our people to make sacrifice to the utmost in support of what is just and true, bringing us at last the peace in which men's hearts can be at rest because it is founded upon mercy, justice and good will.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

Done in the District of Columbia, this eleventh day of May, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and eighteen, and of the independence of the United States the one hundred and forty-second.

By the President,

WOODROW WILSON.

ROBERT LANSING,
Secretary of State.

DELAWARE MAKES RECORD IN LIBERTY LOAN DRIVE

Successful Conclusion of Campaign Celebrated at Dover

Delaware's own Liberty Bell was rung at the State House in Dover on Friday by Mrs. Henry Ridgley, State chairman of the Women's Liberty Loan Committee, while Governor Townsend affixed his signature to the resolutions offered by Chairman John S. Russell, as an appreciation of the people of the State for Delaware's being the first State in the Liberty Loan drive. Delaware is the first State to have a star in its Liberty Loan flag; it has two, one for reaching its quota, and one for tripling its quota. Governor Townsend was most happy in his remarks yesterday, when the leaders in the Liberty Loan drive met at the State House, in response to his call. "I am honored, indeed," said the executive, "to be governor of a State that always goes first in the procession, and always has gone first, ever since Caesar Rodney made his famous ride. And Delaware is as loyal now as in the times when Rodney rode, and always will be in the front line."

Those who signed the resolution included, beside the governor, John S. Russell and Mrs. Howard Pool, chairmen for New Castle; James H. Hughes and Mrs. Walter Morris, chairmen for Kent; George H. Hall and Miss Lyla Townsend, chairmen for Sussex, and Mrs. Otho Nowland, chairmen for Wilmington. Others who attended the meeting, called by the governor, included A. Rae du Bell, secretary for New Castle county; Miss Augusta La Motte and Miss Edna N. Taylor of the Wilmington Women's Committee; Dean Winifred J. Robinson of the Women's College; Mrs. A. B. Richardson, chairman for Dover; Miss Lodge, State chairman of education; Mrs. A. B. Richardson, chairman for Dover; Miss Anastasia Cody, executive secretary of the Women's Committee; Mrs. Robert Lewis, secretary of Kent county; Mrs. John B. Hutton, State secretary, and Mrs. William Horsey, State treasurer.

The special guests included Mrs. James Starr, Jr., of Germantown, Pa., chairman of the Women's Committee, Third Federal Reserve District; Lewis S. Mann and Howard S. Kinney, of the advisory board for Delaware of the Third Federal Reserve District.

Delaware in the Lead

It was a get-together meeting, a time of rejoicing for the leaders in the great financial drive that put Delaware again in the lead of all the States in the Union, and everyone was pleased to say the very best that could be said of so fine an accomplishment. Luncheon served in the garden of Mrs. Henry Ridgley's home was the introduction to the ceremonies in the governor's room in the State House, and no more charming or appropriate place could have been selected than the Ridgley garden and house, where Caesar Rodney was accustomed to go as he would to his own home. Nicholas Ridgley having been his guardian and friend. An official photograph of the party was taken by William Shewell Ellis, at the State House for the War Department, and photographs of the luncheon party were taken in the Ridgley garden.

After gathering in the State House, Governor Townsend introduced Chairman Russell, who read his report of the grand total of $26,832,050 and 50,857 subscribers, issued to the papers yesterday. He also read the resolution, which was adopted by a rising vote. Various other chairmen then made brief speeches, all reflecting the keynote sounded by the governor, when he stated that Delaware's example is worthy of emulation, as a record of patriotism and devotion.

Mrs. Ridgley stated that the figures are indicative of the feeling in the State, of the marked awakening in spirit. Those districts that didn't go over their quota this time want another drive to show that they can go over. She read Delaware women's final accounting which is as follows:

Wilmington, including Brandywine and Christiana hundreds—(6,769), $3,645,800.

Rural New Castle—(3,846), $549,950.

Kent—(2,476), $743,500.

Sussex—(3,027), $575,000.

Total—(16,602), $5,515,150, with the du Pont double, $11,073,000.

People Aroused and United

James H. Hughes, Kent chairman, said that in other loans the people were not aroused, but for this one they were. "They have taken their places behind the war," he said. "They are in the trenches behind the lines. Every district in Kent went over its allotment; the subscribers included more than one-third the adult population; they responded to the country's call, not only in dollars, but in numbers and patriotism."

Mrs. Morris, women's chairman for Kent, spoke of her pride in her county, and said she wanted to mention, especially, that Fredericka doubled her quota; Clayton's quota was $40,000 and she got $60,000 and in Viola every man and woman, black and white, in town, owns a bond.

J. Hall Anderson, Kent's secretary, stated that he believes no loan can be a success without personal solicitation, and he suggested that the women combine for the next loan, and make their co-operation closer, and thus prevent overlapping.

Mr. Hall stated that what Mr. Hughes said about Kent could be doubled in speaking of Sussex. "I take a personal pride in the work; it was done not easily, but willingly, and every district exceeded its quota. I believe we will do better next time. Sussex is never found wanting when called on."

Mr. Mann stated that he is proud of Delaware's record. "It shows," he said, "detailed work done, this having the largest subscription per capita of any State." Mrs. Starr stated that she wanted to thank the men for "putting up" with the women. "We have faults," she said, "and we know it, but we are willing to try again and render effective service if the Treasury Department wants us."

Mrs. Pool spoke for rural New Castle, that in one hundred there is a bond on every farm, and Mr. Russell stated that much of the success in Wilmington was due to the efforts of Rae du Bell.

Mrs. Otho Nowland, Wilmington's chairman, spoke of the splendid spirit with which the loan had been accomplished, and said she could speak for her women, that they are willing to do it over again.

Why the Conference

The object of yesterday's conference was to put on the official records the achievements of Delaware in the Third Liberty Loan. Chairman Russell of New Castle county, to whom was tacitly assigned the spokesmanship because of his county's having the one big city of the State within its confines, arranged the conference in conjunction with Governor Townsend, that there might be a group of leaders in the loan campaign, who, as it were, stand for the State. In the other two loans Delaware did great things, but there remains no official record, neither in word or picture, and so it was agreed that for the third loan, there should be a conference of officials, and there should be a picture of that conference taken, and a resolution drawn up, with the great seal of the State affixed, and that all these should be sent to Washington for the record of the War Department, and that copies of the resolution and the newspaper accounts of the events shall be sent to President Wilson and the Secretary of the Treasury and the Secretary of War.

People of Delaware Congratulated

The conference issued the following address to the people of Delaware, congratulating them on the success of the campaign and upon the co-operation and patriotism shown:

State of Delaware, New Castle, Kent and Sussex counties:

In conference assembled at the State House, in Dover, his excellency, Hon. John G. Townsend, Jr., governor of Delaware, presiding, we, the chairmen of the Liberty Loan committees for the State of Delaware, and the counties thereof, having in charge the campaign for the promotion of the third Liberty Loan, which opened April 6, and closed May 4, 1918, being moved by the patriotic and self-sacrificing support, most cheerfully given by the people of the State, hereby declare them to be deserving of the heartiest commendation of their fellow citizens throughout the nation.

United in a common cause, inspired by lofty ideals and impelled by a determined purpose to do their utmost for God and for Country, the people of Delaware challenge the admiration of the world at large.

We tender them our profoundest thanks and we congratulate them upon having won for Delaware the highest honors offered by the United States government in connection with the loan, by exceeding proportionately, in amount subscribed and in number of subscribers, any other State in the Union.

The official reports of the campaign having been submitted to us and having been carefully examined, we declare the results to be as follows:

Quota
In New Castle county $6,399,250.00
In Kent county . . . 960,520.00
In Sussex county . . 1,202,080.00

Total for State . . $8,561,850.00

Subscriptions
In New Castle county $21,692,250.00
In Kent county . . . 2,430,500.00
In Sussex county . . 2,709,300.00

Total for State . . $26,832,050.00

Subscribers
In New Castle county . . . 38,390
In Kent county . . . 5,974
In Sussex county . . . 6,493

Total for State . . . 50,857

Delaware having subscribed three times its quota, is entitled, under the rules governing the campaign, to a State honor flag, bearing two stars. New Castle county, having subscribed three times its quota, is entitled to an honor flag bearing two stars, Kent county having subscribed twice its quota, is entitled to an honor flag bearing one star, and Sussex county, having subscribed twice its quota, is entitled to an honor flag bearing one star.

NATIONAL ANTHEM

Since the United States entered the world war there has naturally been much comment, some of it critical in character, on the words and music of our national anthem. It has seemed to some critics, notably Miss Kitty Cheatham, the well-known singer and community music worker, that the sentiments of "The Star Spangled Banner," especially as expressed in the second verse—"Where the foe's haughty host in dread silence reposes"—are inappropriate to the present time, and it has even been suggested that reference to our bygone differences with Great Britain may tend to disrupt the cordiality now existing between the two nations.

Mr. Edwin Litchfield Turnbull, writing in the New York Sun, agrees fully with these writers that nothing should be permitted to disturb the brotherhood and unity of purpose now binding America to England more strongly than any signed treaty or alliance. But he points out that usually only the first stanza of the anthem is sung and this certainly contains no word that could be objectionable to our English cousins. He calls our attention to the fact that it is not customary in Great Britain to sing more than the first verse of "God Save the King."

He also suggests that it is an additional bond of sympathy between our country and Great Britain that the melody of "The Star Spangled Banner" is an old English air, composed probably about the time of the Revolutionary War, for the frivolous words of a drinking song, "To Anacreon in Heaven." There has been controversy as to the composer of this music. Mr. Oscar Sonneck, in his exhaustive report on the subject for the Library of Congress, gives it as his opinion that the weight of evidence is in favor of John Stafford Smith, the date being between 1779 and 1775. It is a dignified melody well suited, as Mr. Turnbull says, to the patriotic verses of Francis Scott Key, who himself indicated on the original manuscript (now in the collection of Mr. Henry Walters, of Baltimore) that he wished his verses to be sung to the tune of "To Anacreon in Heaven."

Mr. Turnbull thinks it probable that the music was first sung in this country about 1798, to the words of Robert Treat Paine's patriotic song, "Adams and Liberty," so that it was already familiar to the author of "The Star Spangled Banner" when in 1814 he composed his poem while watching the bombardment of Fort Mifflin by the British fleet.

To the objection sometimes made that the music of our national anthem is difficult to sing because of the great range from low B flat to high F, Mr. Turnbull replies that the German national air, "Die Wacht am Rhein," has exactly the same compass.

Furthermore, Mr. Turnbull explains that in every large audience when the national anthem is sung the extreme notes are well covered by the low and high voices and the singing is usually supported by an orchestra or military band so that the general effect is good. As an instrumental number, particularly when played by a fine millband, the music is exceedingly impressive.

What we Americans need, according to Mr. Turnbull, is not a new national anthem, but more reverence for both words and music of the one that we already have, which is indissolubly bound up with the traditions of this and of our mother land for more than a century.

As to the quality of "The Star Spangled Banner" as music, Mr. Henry T. Finck, for many years musical critic of the New York Evening Post, says in the Independent that while he regards it as inferior to the Russian and Austrian national hymns, he thinks it is far better than the "Watch on the Rhine." Its best setting, in part, is in Puccini's "Madame Butterfly," where some delightful effects are achieved with it.

While it is probably impossible to establish by law strict regulations covering the use of the national anthem, the Bellman, of Minneapolis, thinks that it would be a great help if the Government or some affiliated patriotic organization would issue official instructions regarding these matters. These should state clearly that there is only one official recognized national anthem, "The Star Spangled Banner."

The Bellman is certainly quite right in saying that it is nonsensical to have two or more songs sharing the full national honors. People may be left to act according to their own judgment with regard to "America," "Columbia," or the "Battle Hymn of the Republic," but the instructions concerning the national anthem should be definite. "That civilians should rise and uncover whether it is played or sung goes without saying, but it should not be played or sung publicly except as part of a ceremony or meeting of a definitely patriotic character."

consented to sell the 600 acres for $33,000, although he made it clear he would be well satisfied to retain the property.

Before the Townsend farm had been taken into consideration, Dean Harry Hayward, of the Delaware College Agricultural School and State Experimental Station, had spoken favorably concerning the Hart farm to the committee, favoring the purchase of the entire 1,080 acres at $30 an acre. It is understood that Dr. Hayward also thinks the Townsend farm would make a satisfactory and suitable site.

The members of the commission are: Mrs. Selden S. Deemer, of New Castle; Mrs. S. H. Messick, of Bridgeville; former Governor Charles R. Miller, of Wilmington; State Senator Thomas P. Gormley, of Wilmington; John B. Hutton, of Dover; and Robert G. Houston, of Georgetown.

A member of the Commission on Saturday made it clear that the primary purpose in acquiring the Selbyville farm is to have the institution as far away from the city as possible, the tract also being particularly adapted to fruit growing, and the culture of berries and vegetables, occupations which suit the feeble-minded best. The member spoken to, said Mrs. Deemer, first discovered the site and it was not until she and a committee looked it over that it was learned Governor Townsend owned it. All the negotiations were started by the Commission, the members declared, and not by the Governor, who was and is still reluctant to sell.

TELEPHONE GIRLS AT THE FRONT

One Hundred Over There and More Ready for Embarkation

Besides conforming to the qualifications set by the United States Signal Corps for membership in the Telephone Unit, which is a part of the United States army, the operators are now required to pass a psychological examination to determine their motives for wanting to go abroad.

"Out of seven thousand five hundred applications for membership in the Unit of telephone girls which has been sent to France, two hundred and fifty have been selected, is the statement of Captain Wesson, Signal Corps officer in charge of the Unit. One hundred women, in the official olive drab uniform of the Signal Corps, have been sent abroad, and one hundred and fifty are awaiting orders in this country.

These girls are stationed in groups of ten in American bases of supplies, and points of embarkation, according to Captain Wesson. They will not be nearer than twenty three miles from the front. New York state sent the greatest number of telephone operators, and California and Massachusetts tied for second place. An officer of the Signal Corps who is experienced in the employment of telephone operators, is in charge of the housing and general welfare of the operators in France.

COMMISSION SELECTS FARM FOR STATE INSTITUTION

Home for Feeble Minded to be in Sussex

The commission to acquire a site and erect a State institution for the care of feeble-minded persons has selected a farm owned by Governor John G. Townsend, Jr., near Selbyville. The committee selected the site on its own initiative and later found that it was owned by Governor Townsend. The Governor was not anxious to sell it, but finally yielded to the request of the committee and consented to dispose of it.

Some time ago State Senator Edward Hart offered the committee his farm of three tracts, one of 397 acres, a second of 268 acres, and another of 115 acres, located near Blackbird Station, south of Middletown, for the sum of $30 per acre, for all or part of the ground, and its purchase was seriously considered.

Recently Mrs. Selden S. Deemer, chairman of the committee, who is at her summer home in Rehoboth, visited some farmland which she immediately thought would be a good situation for the institution for the feeble-minded. It was spacious, there were opportunities for fruit growing and other agricultural work. A railroad ran through one corner of it, and it was at a distance away from any centers of population. In many States, it has been made a point to place such institutions as far away as possible from the populated districts, members of the Delaware committee say. Mrs. Deemer had no idea who the owner of the farm was at the time she recommended it to the committee, but found out later that the property belonged to Governor Townsend. It comprises 600 acres in one unbroken area.

When the committee members approached the Governor, asking him whether he would be willing to sell the farm for a site for a building for the feeble-minded, a member of the commission today said they found him unwilling to sell the property. They urged upon him the benefit it would be to the State, because of the advantages of its location, size, and opportunities of keeping the inmates healthfully employed. The Governor said that he would think it over, and finally

THE REAL ISSUE

Just a word about the school question with the idea of clearing the atmosphere of all the conflicting thoughts and rumors. As we understand the situation the committee on instruction of the college has made a proposition to the Board of Education whereby they offer certain material consideration to the public school, in return for certain privileges whereby students can observe school work as it is found in Delaware schools for which they are in training. To us it appears to be an opportunity for Newark and an economy for the teachers' training school, which should be carefully considered. If the proposition gives any aid or advancement to Newark the opportunity should be seized; if not it should be turned down. The Board of Education can ill afford to help the college however worthy the proposition may be, but if on the other hand what is suggested is of advantage to the community, certainly the opportunity should be seized at once.

The proposition as we view it is only a proposition, presented for the consideration of the Board of Education before it is taken up with the trustees of the College. Newark schools demand attention; for a number of years they have not met the standard of today. They have met neither the opportunity nor the needs of this community. The Board, with whom we sympathize, is faced with a tremendous responsibility. Upon their decision rests far more than is usually credited. Cliques, clans, politics, denominational prejudices, petty jealousies have no part in this discussion. The question, larger than any of these, is the development of future American citizens. Shame on those who, ignorant of the facts and conditions that prevail in the school room, dare to interfere in the sober discussion of a question having as its object better educational facilities.

Certainly the Board of Education must improve conditions, either by this or some other method, if they sense at all the seriousness of the situation. In fact they themselves admit it. Just how far they will go is for them to decide. Our own suggestion would be to proceed as in a business property to call in an "efficiency engineer" for educational advice. Secure some outside man, the Commissioner of Education for instance, and ask for recommendations. We suggest the Commissioner because he is interested in the public school point of view, in its relation to the whole system, and not from the standpoint of any specific town or institutional policy.

Of all times when sanity is needed it is now. The nation needs trained men today, and it will need them even more tomorrow. We, every single tax payer in Newark, hold in our hands, in part, the fate of tomorrow. Results cannot be accomplished by a policy of retrenchment. Not money, but boys and girls are the issue at stake. Increased school taxes as a war measure are as vital to the nation as Liberty Bonds or Red Cross subscriptions. They are actual war service measures. One of our leading thinkers has recently referred to this as the "tragic generation." It is ours to pay, our greatest thought, if America is to endure, must be of the future.

The question in the final analysis is simply what is best for the boys and girls. Surely there is incentive enough to lay aside all personal and all small town feeling.

School Teachers Appointed

At a recent meeting of the Newark Board of Education Misses Katharine Heiser, Emily Pennington, Mary Heffeker, Frances Medall and Miss Grantham were re-appointed as teachers in the public school, at a salary of $75.00 per month. It was also ruled that the German language should no longer be taught in the schools.

SENDS GREETINGS TO OFFICIALS

Governor Dispatches Messages Telling of Liberty Loan Successes

Governor Townsend on Saturday sent by cable and telegraph messages to President Wilson, General Pershing, commanding the American forces in France, and Col. J. Warner Reed, commanding the Delaware regiment at Camp Dix, sending the State's greetings and giving the result of the third Liberty Loan. The messages follow:

To the President of the United States, Washington, D. C.: Representatives of the Federal Reserve organization for Delaware for the third Liberty Loan, in conference assembled, this day (yesterday), at the Capitol, made official report of the campaign just closed. As president of this conference I have the honor to report for the first State in the Union subscriptions totaling $26,832,050 for the service of the nation, with a roll of 50,857 subscribers. This subscription was more than treble the allotment, entitling the State, under the results as set forth, to an honor flag. In full keeping with our history, the spirit of America lives here in practical fact. As in our national flag, Delaware holds proudly the first star. We today, so privileged to serve our country, ask for two stars in the new emblem of liberty.

Most interesting of all, our officials of the campaign have so aroused our citizens that every district in the State exceeded its quota. Truly Delaware is aroused to the practical aid in the war.

John G. Townsend, Jr., Governor.

To General Pershing, Pershing, France: Fifty thousand Delawareans over here send greetings to you.

Two stars shine in State's honor flag of Third Liberty Loan.

Townsend, Governor.

To Colonel Reed, Col. J. Warner Reed, Camp Dix, N. J. Greetings to Delaware. Fifty thousand relatives and friends back home have subscribed over $26,000,000 to Third Liberty Loan. This is practical expression of our interest in you and the cause for which you have offered so much.

John G. Townsend, Jr., Governor.

BOARD CONFRONTS DIFFICULT SITUATION

Spend Hours in Consideration of the Problem

At a special meeting of the Board of Education held in the High School building on Tuesday evening, the budget for the next school year was discussed, as bearing upon the decision relative to the co-operative plan proposed by the Women's College. The Board adopted the conservative policy of finding the lowest possible figure for the maintenance of the school, with the expectation of adding as many desirable features as the finances of the districts would warrant.

A careful consideration of the figures revealed the fact that even to operate the school at the lowest possible figure, with no pretense to conform to modern standards, it will be necessary to raise $10,000 additional by taxation.

The Board met at eight p. m. and adjourned after one o'clock. No definite action was taken.

To Discuss High School Center

On Tuesday, May 28th, a community meeting will be held in Christiana village to discuss the feasibility of making Christiana the High School center for adjoining school districts. The meeting is open to everyone and a large and representative audience is requested.

Union Services at Christiana

Purchases Store at Perryville

Walter Plumley, for five years connected with the G. W. Rhodes drug store, Newark, has purchased the business of Norris E. Cameron, at Perryville, Md. Mr. Plumley took over the business last Monday week, and expects to move to Perryville in the near future. He is planning to build on a lot adjoining the present store at once.

Public Service Reserve Asks for Mechanics

The United States Public Service Reserve again appeals to machinists to enroll in the Reserve as the various shipyards are reporting to the office in the Old Federal Building at 6th and King Streets, Wilmington, Del., that the building of ships is being delayed account of the shortage of this class of mechanics. Every man who is a skillful machinist, and who is working in a non-essential industry at this time should enroll in the Reserve, either for work in the shipyards now, or to prepare for the great emergency which may arise at any time in the shipyards.

Investigation by the U. S. Employment service shows that more mechanics will have to be inducted into war industries from so-called non-essential industries if a maximum output of war materials is to be achieved. Lack of mechanics and tool-makers now employed in war manufacturing apparently makes the present output of munitions of war but 75 percent of what it should be, and within a short time many concerns with pressing war work will require from 50 to 1500 mechanics each.

Delaware is one of the states which is in greatest need of these skilled workers, and one difficulty in the supplying problem is the length of time required to learn the machinist's trade. It requires an average of three years, as against the trade of riveter, for instance, which can be learned in a comparatively short period.

So urgent is the need for increasing the ranks of mechanics in war industries that the Public Service Reserve is making special effort to recruit mechanics. Those in non-essential enterprises are urged to enroll and their employers are appealed to in the interest of patriotism to release as many men as they can possibly spare. In some instances possibly non-essential manufacturers are employing machinists under contracts which the latter fear to break.

Enroll now.

The Economy of Victory

No matter what this war costs the Government and the people of the United States in the way of money, it is going to be much cheaper to win this war than to lose it.

The commercial and financial losses that would follow a German victory are not to be calculated. All that we spent would be lost, indemnities beyond calculation would have to be paid, and along with these losses would come a continuing loss in foreign commerce that would spell disaster.

With these material losses we would lose our national liberty and independence, our power to secure our international rights, our right to live in a world ruled by the dictates of humanity and civilization.

BALTIMORE POLYTECHNIC CAPTURES HONORS

At Field and Track Meet Held Last Saturday

Large Crowd Witness Events

Baltimore Polytechnic Institute walked away with the honors in the Fifth Annual Intercollegiate Track and Field Meet, held on Saturday at Frazer Field, Delaware College on May 11. DuPont High School captured the banner for Class 2 teams. Many records were broken and the track events were the fastest yet on Frazer Field.

In Class 2 there was a pretty contest between DuPont High and Georgetown High for first honors, DuPont finally winning. It was not until the last event was over that the result was known. There were several close races in this class, and the crowd was kept on edge in several of the neck-and-neck finishes. Hoey, of Dover, took first place in the 880-yard dash in fine style and broke the old record of 2:16 2-5, breasting the tape in 2:15 3-5. In the mile relay, DuPont won by several yards, with Kennett Square second and Georgetown third. The race between the anchor men was exciting, the final outcome being in doubt until the last straight-away.

The results of the events are as follows: 100 yards dash, Class 1: won by Andrews, Baltimore Poly; second, McPhail, Baltimore Poly; third, Pridmore, Jacob Tome. Time 10 4-5 seconds. 100 yards dash, Class 2: first, Jones, DuPont; second, Johnson, Georgetown; third, Logan, North East. Time 11 seconds. 220 yards dash, Class 1: first, Weedon, Baltimore Poly; second, Thompson, Baltimore Poly; third, Milliken, Swarthmore. Time 27 seconds (record). 220 yards dash, Class 2: first, Rose, Georgetown; second, Green, Georgetown; third, Hoey, Dover. Time 29 3-5 seconds. 1 mile run, Class 2: first, Barlow, DuPont; second, Johnson, Georgetown; third, Hobson, DuPont. Time 5 minutes, 12 seconds. 220 yard dash, Class 1: first, Pridmore, Jacob Tome; second, Pliffe, Pennington. Time 24 4-5 seconds. 220 yard dash, Class 2: first, McGonigal, Dover; second, Chipman, Georgetown; third, Wood, Dover. Time 24 4-5 seconds. One mile run, Class 1: first, Brown, Baltimore Poly; second, Haughey, Vineland; third, Gerike, Camden. Time 4 minutes, 47 2-5 seconds (record). 440 yards dash, Class 1: first, Weedon, Baltimore Poly; second, Mietzsch, Wes. Col. Inst.; third, Borcherting, Baltimore Poly. Time 54 2-5 seconds. 440 yards dash, Class 2: first, Haney, Kennett Square; second, Hendrickson, DuPont; third, Yarnall, West Grove. Time 57 1-5 seconds. 880 yards dash, Class 1: first, Brown, Baltimore Poly; second, Esibill, Swarthmore; third, Edwards, Baltimore Poly. Time 2 minutes, 10 seconds. 880 yards dash, Class 2:

Orchestra Concerts

The annual meeting of the Delaware committee for the Philadelphia Orchestra was held Wednesday evening, at the home of the vice-president, Mrs. William Betts. The reports of committees and the transaction of routine business was followed by an enthusiastic discussion.

It had been a matter of great concern to the committee on learning that the Philadelphia Orchestra management could not bring the concerts to Wilmington the coming season under the same conditions as heretofore, owing to the fact, that prevailing expenses along all lines for the maintenance of the Orchestra at present far exceeded other years.

A special committee had been appointed to find ways and means to meet this requirement and their report to the annual meeting was the cause of much rejoicing, for generous citizens when appealed to, had subscribed the amount necessary and the concerts are now assured for next season. Those concerts have become so much a part of Wilmington musical life, as well as a matter of civic pride, that it would have been a real calamity to have them discontinued. The Delaware committee are most grateful to the good citizens who have come to their aid at this critical time and bespeak a large subscription list in the fall.

The dates for the concerts are November 4, December 23, January 27, February 24, March 24.

The officers elected for the ensuing year are:

President, Mrs. John B. Bird; first vice-president, Mrs. William Betts; second vice-president, Mrs. J. Flinn; secretary, Mrs. Norman Huxley; guarantor committee, Mrs. William N. Bannard; pres., Mrs. A. H. Berlin.

FARMS WANTED

I have buyers waiting for the following described properties. No doubt there are many such places for sale if I only knew where they are and who owns them.

I have a large demand for farms and give active and energetic attention to property placed in my hands for sale.

Owners are requested to write to me or call on me immediately and arrange for the sale of their farms.

I CHARGE NO COMMISSIONS

I charge no commissions or fees when I sell property placed in my hands at a satisfactory net price. To avoid misunderstanding and to protect me, I require a written authority to sell it at a stipulated price, for a specified period.

WANTED—High grade farm containing 60 to 100 acres with good farm buildings, and located within two miles of a good railroad town, in northern Delaware or eastern Maryland. Possession wanted January 1, 1919. Will pay from eighty to one hundred twenty-five dollars per acre.

WANTED—Farm of 50 to 100 acres in northern Delaware or eastern Maryland with reasonably good farm buildings and good fertile soil. Must be within two or three miles of a railroad town. Will pay from fifty to seventy-five dollars per acre. Immediate possession wanted if possible.

WANTED—Five acres of unimproved land for trucking, poultry raising, etc., between Newark, Delaware and Claymont, and the Pennsylvania line. Price not to exceed one hundred dollars per acre.

WANTED—Dairy farm of 50 to 100 acres with good buildings, convenient to Marcus Hook territory. Will pay up to $10,000 for a satisfactory property.

WANTED—Five acres with small house, within ten or fifteen miles from Wilmington. Must be within a few miles of a railroad station and not cost over $300. Easy terms of payment desired.

WANTED—Fifteen or twenty acres of land with good improvements, lying between Wilmington and Media. Might go as far north as Kennett Square. Price not to exceed $3,000, and easy terms desirable.

WANTED—Modern country place with from 10 to 25 acres of land lying within six miles of Marcus Hook. Must have substantial residence with modern conveniences, and having only road affording convenient access to Claymont and Marcus Hook territory. Would pay from seven thousand to fifteen thousand dollars for suitable property.

WANTED—Ten to twenty-acre farm suitable for poultry raising and light farming within a reasonable distance of the Delaware River industries. Would pay from two thousand to three thousand dollars.

WANTED—Small cheap farm of 20 to 40 acres in southern Chester or Lancaster Counties, Pennsylvania, or Cecil County, Maryland, or northern New Castle County in Delaware. May be from three to five miles from a railroad station and it is not necessary to have buildings. Price must not exceed six or seven hundred dollars.

DELAWARE MAKES RECORD IN LIBERTY
LOAN DRIVE

quota, is entitled to an honor flag bearing one star.
We find that of the foregoing total amount of the State the E. I. duPont de Nemours & Company graciously subscribed $14,250,000, divided as follows:
For New Castle county $11,650,000
For Kent county 1,230,000
For Sussex county 1,370,000

$14,250,000

We acknowledge with grateful appreciation this magnificent contribution to the loan, without which Delaware could not have secured the exceptional honors it now enjoys, and we take special pleasure in saying that the State is most fortunate in having within its borders this great corporation—one of the greatest in America—managed and controlled by prominent citizens of unexcelled skill, unbounded generosity and unquestioned patriotism.

The National Women's Liberty Loan Committee, through the zealous and laudable efforts of its State officers and their assistants, obtained subscriptions amounting to $5,515,150, and is entitled to an equal amount from the subscription of the E. I. duPont de Nemours & Company under the conditions thereof, making the total to the credit of that committee $11,030,300. This record of duty well done is eloquently expressive of the magnificent devotion and beautiful spirit of the noble women of Delaware.

The Boy Scouts, to whom was assigned the exceedingly difficult task of gleaning the field after all others had harvested it abundantly, succeeded in securing subscriptions aggregating $260,000. This wonderful achievement merits our cordial admiration and warmest thanks. It furnishes the best evidence that these young patriots possess the courage and perseverance required in the present crisis, and gives promise that they will not falter, but will march bravely to the front, when the government calls them to more hazardous duties. The sum thus raised is entitled to duplication from the subscription of the E. I. duPont de Nemours & Co., and we accordingly credit the Boy Scouts with $520,000.

Out of the large aggregate of subscriptions there remains after deducting the amounts set aside as above the handsome sum of $15,281,750, representing the tireless and persistent endeavors of the various agencies directed by the loyal men of the State—a tribute to their sterling character, their resistless energy and their firm resolve to do everything in their power to win the war.

We cheerfully testify to the splendid results accomplished by all workers in the campaign—men, women and children—by the numerous committeemen in every section of the State, by the churches and schools, by various social, political and fraternal organizations, by industrial, commercial and financial firms and corporations, by the press and by individuals of different professions and occupations, in many cases at great personal inconvenience and by most strenuous effort, and to each and all we offer the fullest measure of praise. They labored in a most worthy cause—the great cause for which their kinsmen are giving battle in foreign lands—and for the greater honor and glory of their beloved country.

Done at Dover, Delaware, the tenth day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighteen, and of the independence of the United States of America the one hundred and forty-second.

IT COST ONE DOLLAR TO SAVE THIS LIFE

Perhaps It Was Your Red Cross Dollar That Gave This Broken Flier His Chance to Live.

By BRUCE BARTON
Of the Vigilantes.

From the ground they could see that there was something the matter with his machine. And even while they watched through their glasses he began to fall.

A minute later the little Ford ambulance was puffing its way across the five miles of shell-stricken road that lay between them and him.

They found him beside the machine. He was unconscious, but a tree had broken his fall.

"Just in the nick of time," said the doctor crisply. "He'll be a pretty sick boy for a few weeks, but we'll have him all right again and back with his French comrades."

So they put him into the little Ford ambulance, and—less than an hour after they saw him fall he was safe in a clean white bed.

"That's what it means to have plenty of equipment, plenty of ambulances and doctors and bandages and everything," said the Red Cross man who told me. "It means the difference in getting there on time or getting there just a minute too late."

"Wonderful!" I answered. "And how much did it cost you to make that trip—to save that one French boy's life?"

He flushed a little. "We don't measure it in terms of money."

"I know it. But what do you think it cost?" I persisted—for gasoline and the trip and the bandages and all?"

"Perhaps a dollar, maybe two. But why do you ask?"

"A dollar?" I answered. "A dollar to save a boy's life! To send him home again from the war to the mother and father who have scanned every headline and waited breathlessly for every visit of the letter carrier! Can a dollar do a miracle like that?"

"It can," said the Red Cross man. And then the thought occurred to me that perhaps it might have been one of my dollars.

It was somebody's dollar that did it. It might have been mine—or one of yours. Who knows?

RED CROSS SPECIAL TRAIN

Three Thousand Mile Dash Across Russia to Succor Roumania—Heroic Work Required.

Four little Roumanians, once so happy and so beautiful! Robbed of its rich lands by German hordes, its people driven back upon themselves, the once picturesque city of Jassy is now crowded beyond its limits with the country's destitute and starving.

Nothing but the most heroic efforts of the American Red Cross has kept Roumania from actually disappearing from among the nations of the earth. When all those who could leave the country had fled Henry W. Anderson, American Red Cross commissioner to that outraged country, struck to his post. Diseased, starving and ragged people were all about him. The cause seemed hopeless. Even Red Cross money could buy nothing in Roumania, for the country was stripped.

So Anderson appealed to our Red Cross in Russia. There were supplies there, but how could they be carried the 3,000 miles that separated Petrograd from Jassy. Russia was struggling against internal disorder, which in the Ukrainian territory was civil war. Even with the authority and protection of the Bolshevik government the case seemed hopeless.

Yet help came—a whole train load under the charge of Lieutenant Magnuson of the American Red Cross in Russia. And Anderson sent this cable:

"We are today distributing food and clothing to more than 10,000 people and increasing numbers every week. Expecting shipment of four more cars of food from Odessa this week. By extraordinary effort we believe we can continue purchase of sufficient supplies to carry on work."

And so our Red Cross is showing all the world that not only are our men ready to fight for the right, but are ready to help all those others who are in this battle for freedom.

A GRUELLING NIGHT
FOR THE CANTEN MAN

A Red Cross Canteen man wearily banked the fires under the kettles. Their blizzards in an old house near by. By the light of a candle the Red Cross convoy undresses and rolls into his blankets. Suddenly there comes a sharp, cracking sound, and a red flare lights up the room. The convoy rolls quickly out of his bunk, catches up his blankets and runs down the rickety stairs to the cellar. There he finds his French assistant and a lot of soldiers. They exchange nods and then seat themselves on boxes. Four more sharp, cracking noises follow in rapid succession, and a mournful roar. This is only the beginning of an artillery duel which lasts all night.

At break of day the Red Cross man bestirs himself, shakes his assistant and tumbles up the stairway out into the yard. It is strewn with debris. A shell struck the next house in the night and blew out the wall. The convoy and his man set to work gingerly, for the air is still. They poke the fires and throw on fresh wood and then set to work to prepare the food. Within an hour the canteen is ready for business.

THE STORE THAT SAVES YOU MONEY
SNELLENBURG'S
MARKET AND SEVENTH STS.

Store Opens 8 a. m. Closes 6 p. m. Saturdays 9.30 p. m.

WELL, by this time the excitement caused by the third Liberty Loan going "over the top" is about over and we can settle down, that is a little bit. Nevertheless we must still keep on the job in assisting Uncle Sam. We must save all the food we can and continue to buy War Savings Stamps. We must be economical in our dress, too; buy what we really need and let it be of the best.

Under a Straw on a Sun-Shiny Day

Oh, Boy! It's summer time and straw lids are in order. But have you bought yours? Well, you'd better get on the job and pick one out while the pickin's good. You are sure to be pleased if you buy one of the

Snellenburg Clothes

For Men

For Young Men

Many stores cater to young men only, others cater to men with conservative dress ideas. The Snellenburg store caters to all men, young or old, rich or poor. Regardless of their dress ideas or the size of their purses, we satisfy them. That's what we are in business for. For years we have studied men and their clothing needs and today, a result of our study, produce and sell more clothing than any store in the city. We know what men want and we give it to them and they have learned the meaning of the Snellenburg "satisfaction guaranteed."

Remember this, also: It takes good clothes to be successful in a game of business, and the unusually smart suits which we sell make people look twice because of the distinctive style features therein embodied.

NEWS OF THE NEIGHBORHOOD

As Reported by Correspondents for THE POST

GLASGOW

Mrs. John Frazer visited her sister, Mrs. Eugene Gouge, at Union Hospital, Elkton, Md., on Friday.

Wm. Huggins has returned home after spending the past week with his cousin, Everett Huggins, at Elkton.

Mr. and Mrs. James Frazer spent Sunday with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Stoops, of Plovertown.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Huggins have purchased the property of Miss Ella Morrison in Newark. They expect to move sometime in the future.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dayett, Sr., and H. L. Dayett, Jr., attended the funeral of Mrs. John Lannuetz on Sunday at Bethel, Md.

Mrs. W. C. Brooks, Miss Alice Brooks, and Miss Elizabeth Hall spent Saturday in Wilmington.

Mrs. H. L. Dayett, Sr., and Miss V. Dayett spent Thursday in Wilmington.

Mrs. John Ward is very sick at her home.

Mrs. Wm. Cunningham is spending sometime with her son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Steven Cunningham, of Cooch's Bridge.

Names of Pencader Hundred Liberty Loan subscribers omitted last week: Pencader Golden Eagles, Mrs. Chlotilda Dayett, Mr. K. K. Brooks, Mr. Solomon Poole.

APPLETON

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Blackson recently entertained their daughter and grand-daughter, Mrs. I. W. Strahorn and little Miss Mabel of Elkton.

Appleton Social Club met at usual on last Friday evening.

Frank Zehley of Wilmington, spent the week-end at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Lofland, Miss Pearl Barton, and Master Charles Barbon recently visited friends at Camp Meade.

On Monday of last week, Miss Ida Kimble attended a teacher's meeting at Cherry Hill. Miss Alice Miller, school supervisor, presided.

On May 12th, at Head of Christiana the subject was "Over There." The pastor preached a helpful sermon from the text "Come over and help us." His discourse combined patriotism with foreign missions, preceded by remarks suited to "Mothers' Day." Mrs. Clyde sang a very appropriate solo. Preaching on May 19 at 10.45. Everybody is invited.

Newark High Loses to Wesleyan

After getting a three run start in the first inning, Newark High School lost out to Wesleyan Collegiate Institute on Friday afternoon, 7 to 4. Bland's double was largely due to the three runs scored by the locals in the first inning, but after that they were unable to do much with Betts' delivery. Betts made a record by fanning 19 of the local team. Ramsey pitched fair ball, but was given poor support. The score:

"FOR GOD'S SAKE SEND US FLOUR"

Allies Hungry Appeal Made to America by British Officer.

TWO REASONS FOR US TO ACT

Humanity and Patriotism For Men Who Are Fighting Our Battles.

"The Allies are still hungry, and if you can spare a little more flour, for God's sake send it," was the plea made recently by a British officer to an American audience.

And who, having heard it, having realized the necessity for the cry from the brave nations of Europe, can help saying: "Why not?"

There are two definite appeals to us voiced there.

The one is to patriotism and to common-sense. The Allies' cause is our cause; our men are fighting shoulder to shoulder with their men. If food fails the fighters must fall; the war must be lost. None of us are too ignorant to know what a German victory would mean, especially to the women and children of the land. So, our love of country, our love of our homes, our every instinct of self-preservation must make us do each thing, whether great or small, towards victory.

The other appeal is that of humanity. Who can refuse to deny himself because of his greediness, his love of his own food habits, when the thought comes of the Allies suffering?

Can any one with either sense or sensibility keep on eating wheat products in the present need? Does it not seem a petty, disgusting weakness to insist upon having food requiring white flour?

Let that cry sound in your ears: "If you can spare a little more flour, for God's sake send it!"

APPEAL TO NEGROES

Colored Men and Women of America, Help Your Brothers Who Are "Going Across."

Our nation is engaged in a war for its very existence. To win this war we must save food, grow great crops of foodstuffs and substitute other foods for those most easily shipped to our associates in this war and our own soldiers in France, thousands of whom are men of your own race. The Food Administration realizes that the negro people of this nation can be of the utmost help in food conservation and food production. Every negro man, woman and child can render a definite service by responding to the appeal and instructions of the Food Administration and its representatives. The negroes have shown themselves loyal and responsive in every national crisis. Their greatest opportunity of the present day, to exercise this loyalty, is to help save and grow food. I am confident that they will respond to the suggestions of the Food Administration and thus prove again their patriotism for the winning of this war.

(Signed) HERBERT HOOVER

POTATOES FOR BREAD

Man or Woman Who Eats Tubers For Bread is a "Stomach Patriot."

Bread is the staff of life, but you can make a very good crutch of potatoes.

That is to say, the need of the human stomach for bread can be very largely satisfied by potatoes if the idea can be fixed in the mind, that you aren't getting cheated of any necessary food material.

It is as much a war measure to eat potatoes at this time as it is to manufacture shells or give your money for the use of the government.

It is of vital importance to send wheat across the sea to the Allies and the Allies. We are short of wheat; we have great quantities of potatoes. Potatoes are not such good travellers as wheat, consequently we must eat the former and send the latter on the long, dangerous journey to the war zone where it will be received as a necessary factor of success.

The war cannot be won without food over there.

Wheat is what they must have, is what we must send. Eat potatoes in its stead, in America.

Save food or go on short rations.

Food will win the war—produce it.

We must meet sacrifice at the front with sacrifice at home.

Mix twelve ounces of bread do where sixteen served before.

Conservation, concentration, and consecration—for the sake of those at the front.

Only a slacker could stand idly on the sidewalk and criticize the army of workers marches by.

If you run your household on three pounds of sugar a month per person, when fall comes the grocer won't have to hang to the door, "No Sugar."

The first place to look

Next time you need something in a hurry and don't know where to turn for it, think of your Bell Directory.

You'll find listed in the Index of Advertisers 'most everything you want, goods or services—a key fitted or a trunk repaired, a painter, a paperhanger, or a plumber, with a reference to the page of the directory on which his advertisement appears.

Mighty handy list to have at this time of the year! It will pay you to look it over and keep it in mind.
