Compensation Disbursed From January To May

Unemployment compensation benefit payments disbursed in Newark and vicinity for the period in January and ending on May 31 of this year totaled $5,001.73. These figures were announced in an analysis of benefit payments by Dr. Charles M. Wharton, executive director of the Unemployment Compensation Commission, this week.

A sum of $176,171.39 was paid out for Wilmington and vicinity, $8,027.84 for New Castle, and $2,307.58 in and about Middletown. Other payments in New Castle County reached the amount of $37,459.30, bringing the total payment for the county to $229,028.14.

If proposed federal amendments to the Social Security Act become law, it will be possible to draft a new scale of state benefits, Dr. Wharton said, that will increase by 50 to 56 per cent the amount of benefits paid out each year.

Decrease Employers' Payments

In addition, it would be possible under these amendments, which have already been passed by the House of Representatives, Dr. Wharton pointed out, to decrease by one-third to one-half for the years 1940 and 1941 the 27 per cent of annual payroll contributions now required by all employers.

Bills to accomplish this end are now being drafted by the agency, he explained, and they will be presented in time for action by the Legislature when it meets again in August, providing the federal amendments have been enacted by that time.

It is proposed that the contribution rate in 1940 be reduced from the present 27 per cent on total payrolls to two per cent on payrolls, with no contributions to be required on the earnings of any individual in excess of $3,000.

Net Saving $800,000
This would reduce the amount to be collected from $2,000,000 to $1,200,000, a net saving of $800,000. Dr. Wharton explained. Similar or greater savings are contemplated for 1941.

Higher benefit amounts and additional weeks of benefits would be assured all eligible unemployed workers, he added. The weekly benefit amount would be raised from 1-25th of high quarter earnings to 1-20th.

Duration would be raised from 13 weeks the weekly benefit amount, or one-sixth of base period earnings to 16 weeks, or one-third of base period earnings.

SIX HURT AS CARS COLLIDE

Eight Negroes Fined On Charge Of Gambling

Six persons were injured Sunday when automobiles operated by Mrs. Russell Kemery, 37, of New Castle, and J. W. Mitchell, 23, of Glasgow, collided one mile south of Christiana on the Cooch's Bridge road.

According to state police, Mrs. Kemery and four passengers were on their way to a children's day service at the Head of Christiana Presbyterian Church when the accident occurred. The cars struck head-on.

Mrs. Mary Barnes, 69, mother of Corporal Herbert Barnes of the Delaware State Police and Magistrate Robert A. Barnes, received a possible fracture of the skull, two broken legs, and a deep laceration of the scalp. She was treated at the Flower Hospital and then removed to the Wilmington General Hospital.

Injuries Serious
Mrs. Kemery was removed to the Delaware Hospital, Wilmington, with a concussion of the brain, lacerations of the face and knee, and internal injuries.

Mrs. Robert A. Barnes, 34, was taken to the Wilmington General where she was found to be suffering with a fractured right foot, lacerations, and a broken finger of the left hand. Mary Ellen Kemery, 7, and Roberta Barnes, 6, the latter the daughter of Magistrate and Mrs. Barnes, were slightly bruised.

Mitchell, who suffered lacerations of the chin, was arrested by Private Melvin Leasure, of the state police, on a charge of assault and battery. He was held under $2,000 bail by Magistrate William B. Davis, of New Castle.

Eight Negroes were taken into custody on Sunday by Chief of Police William Cunningham and State Police Officer Leasure on charges of shooting dice. Arraigned before Magistrate Benjamin Eubanks, the gamblers were fined $5 and costs. They were: Wilbur Lane, Kinsey Boyles, William Burke, Allen Wilson, Charles Roy, Elwood Reed, Alfred Walker, and Floyd Lewis.

Benjamin Thompson, arrested on a charge of interfering with officers in pursuit of duty, was fined $10 and costs by Magistrate Eubanks.

INSPECTION OF AUTOS JULY 15TH

Campaign To Run Through August, Wells Announces

The annual automobile inspection campaign for the State of Delaware will open on Saturday, July 15, this year and continue until Thursday, August 31, according to a recent announcement by Zack W. Wells, motor vehicle commissioner.

Preparations are now being made by the Motor Vehicle Department for the inspection campaign during which every motor vehicle operating under a Delaware registration will be required to pass the inspection tests.

Five Lanes Planned
According to plans outlined by Mr. Wells, five inspection lanes will again be in operation throughout the state. Two of these lanes will remain in Wilmington throughout the entire inspection period, while the other three will be shifted from one center to another in the rural sections of the state.

It is reported that one lane will again be operated in Newark for a period of ten days, but no dates have been set as yet.

A schedule for the inspection lanes operating in the rural sections will be released in the near future, Mr. Wells announced. Plans call for locating the lanes in as many centers as possible.

Records of the inspection will again be checked against the records of the automobile registrations in the office of the Motor Vehicle Commissioner, Dover, and it is expected that those cars that do not pass the inspection will have their registrations revoked.

MAY MART PROCEEDS

Newark P.T.A. Profits $356 From Affair

According to the announcement made by Louis T. Staats, president of the Newark Parent-Teacher Association, the annual May Mart, staged last month under the sponsorship of the organization, was a decided success.

Mrs. Leon H. Ryan, general chairman of the affair, reported a total receipt of $652.39 with $293.97 paid out in expenses. The profit for the affair is about $356.42.

"We are more than pleased with the success of the mart," Mr. Staats stated, "and on behalf of the P.T.A., I wish to thank the teachers, citizens of Newark, and business establishments who cooperated in making the affair successful."

For Worthy Cause

Proceeds will be used for school health work and the purchase of band uniforms. This is the only way in which the organization raises funds for these purposes.

Net receipts were as follows: Hot dogs—$10.59; ice cream—$20.35; soft drinks—$22.25; novelties—$7.88; balloons—$6.35; hit-the-cat—$9.19; binoculars—$5.40; flowers—$1; supper—$2.85; dance—$31.57; miscellaneous candy sales—$4.77; and miscellaneous Cracker Jack, $4.75.

Cakes and candy sold at the mart were donated by mothers of the children and women connected with the P.T.A., while the proceeds were loaned by local owners.

Thoroughly experienced in this line of work, Mr. Lytle, formerly connected with a leading paint manufacturer for 14 years, is prepared to offer information and advice on all paint problems.

Although most of his business is done with the automotive trades, Mr. Lytle has announced that a complete line of domestic finishes has been installed to fit every household need, along with a full stock of marine and industrial paints.

As an introductory special, a pint can of Enameloid, a glossy and quick-drying enamel, will be offered at a greatly reduced price. "The Home Decorator," an authoritative book on home decoration, beautifully illustrated in color, is also being given free for a limited time.

LEVY COURT FORCED TO JUMP RATE FOR TAXES

Relief Is Cause Of Increase; Council Changes Date Of Meeting

Tuesday, while the Levy Court was increasing the county tax rate from 38 cents to 45 cents on the $100 of assessed value for the fiscal year beginning on July 1, the Council of Newark was awarding a contract for street improvements exceeding $15,000 without any jump in the local rate.

E. E. Downing, Inc., Wilmington contractor, with a bid of $5,023 and a time limit of 52 working days, was awarded the street-improvement job. Other bidders were George and Lynch, Wilmington, $5,726, 30 days, and Julian T. Jones, Wilmington, $6,448, 60 days.

All bids by the county were for doing the work only. Materials for the job will cost an estimated $10,000.

Pave Haines Street
A contract has already been awarded to the Interstate Amlease Company, Wilmington, for the delivery of 1,000 tons of downward rock asphalt and other surfacing materials at an estimated cost of $8,000.

Streets to be improved include: Haines Street, paved from Delaware Avenue to Lovett Avenue; resurfacing Delaware Avenue from Academy Street to Elkton Road; Academy Street from Main to Lovett Avenue; New London Avenue from Cleveland Avenue to the town limit; Elkton Road from Amstel Avenue to the town limit; and South College Avenue from Main to Delaware Avenue.

Mayor Frank Collins presided at the special session Tuesday night when the bids were opened. Work will not start until after July 4, the Mayor announced.

Meeting Is Postponed
Due to the intervention of the July 4 week end, the Council's session next month has been changed from Monday, July 3, to Monday, July 10.

Although the Levy Court adopted a budget of $1,373,298.800, which is $56,039.65 less than the budget of the current year, the increase in the tax rate was necessitated by declining receipts and the burden of relief, a spokesman for the court stated.

The estimated expenditures for relief purposes the coming year are given in the budget at $34,468.67, while the relief set-up for the present year was $90,000, but this amount had to be increased to about $280,000 during the year because of the mounting relief needs and the legal requirement of the court to provide funds for relief with the state reimbursing it for one-half.

Capitation Tax Same
From a 25 cent capitation tax, the same as the present year, the county anticipates collecting $6,500. The special lighting rate for districts in which the county has installed lights was retained at 12 cents on the $100.

Estimated revenues were: Tax collections, based on the 45 cent rate on $245,955,289.11 assessed value, $1,106,798.80; revenue from the 25 cent capitation tax, $6,500; fees from county offices, $125,000; miscellaneous receipts, $20,000; delinquent tax collections, $75,000; balance from the contingent fund, (Please Turn To Page 3)

College Avenue Buildings Recall Memories Of Past

The two old frame buildings in the first block of South College Avenue, occupied by the Rittenhouse Motor Company, have been purchased by the University of Delaware and are scheduled to be razed when the tenant's lease expires. Despite their present looks, they are landmarks in Newark.

Back in the "horse and buggy days" they were important in the life of the community. The building fartherest south was a blacksmith shop. The other was a shop where new carriages were sold and old ones reconditioned.

Eugene Ochletree, the proprietor, was a nice, quiet man. He must have been a descendant of an old settler since a man of that name is mentioned in "Newark Past and Present" as being one of the prominent Democrats at the time Thomas Jefferson was running for President.

Blacksmith Always Happy
The blacksmith shop was a busy place. There were two racehorses owned by a rich man who had a string of trotting horses. This shop had the most of the trade.

People remarked that the blacksmith led a slave's life, but he always seemed to be happy. He was a nice man. You could not only get your horse well shod there, but you could hear all the news from him, as well.

PAUL REVIEWS HIS LIFE

LESSON TEXT—Philippians 1:12-14, 23-24, 3:12-14; II Timothy 4:7, 8.
GOLDEN TEXT—I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.—II Timothy 4:7.

Self-examination may be a most profitable experience if carried out in the right spirit and for a good purpose. It may be very humbling to look at one's experiences and accomplishments in honest appraisal, but the very humbling which is thus brought about may be the first step toward better things and may prove to be a real means of blessing.

Paul, whose life we have been studying together for the last three months, made a review of his own life and experience in various places in his epistles. We cannot study them all, but in the brief portions before us we find that the apostle had laid hold of those certainties without which life is largely meaningless and useless. He had found victory over both himself and his circumstances. He was perfectly clear about his eternal destiny. He had a goal toward which his life was directed in earnest endeavor, and he had in view the reward which was to be his when he met his God. What an excellent opportunity we have to bring out the truth as related to ourselves on this coming Lord's Day.

I. Living Above Circumstances (Phil. 1:12-14).

Paul had been imprisoned for the gospel's sake. Did that stop him? No, for he made the very guards who were assigned to watch him at his house the objects of his ministry and they, in turn, became missionaries of the cross. He sought to win each one as he took his designated period of guard service and then sent him out as a testimony to "the whole Praetorian guard and to all the rest" (v. 13, R. V.). What a consistent and glowing Christian life Paul must have lived day by day.

Not only were some of his Christian brethren encouraged by his example to preach the gospel, but we note in verse 15 that Paul, taking advantage of the fact that he was in prison, went out to preach just to show that they were as good as he, making their very preaching an expression of their envy of his popularity. Paul showed victory over circumstances by thanking God that the gospel was preached, even though it was done in a wrong spirit.

II. Facing Eternity With Joy (Phil. 1:21, 23).

To Paul, departure from this life would mean his entering into perfect fellowship with Christ and unlimited service for Him. He therefore had a strong desire to depart and to be with the Lord. He would not, however, turn away from his present privilege and duty. If it was God's will that he should abide in the flesh, he purposed that it should be literally true of him that to live is Christ. If that be true in a man's life, then it must necessarily follow that to die is gain. The reason men fear death is that in place of saying "to live is Christ," they say "to live is money," "position," "pleasure," or even "sin."

III. Pressing Toward the Goal (Phil. 3:12-14).

These are the words of the man who possibly was the greatest Christian and Christian worker of all time. Was he purposed with himself? No, the Spirit of Christ in him and the vision of the goal which he had not yet attained made him press on.

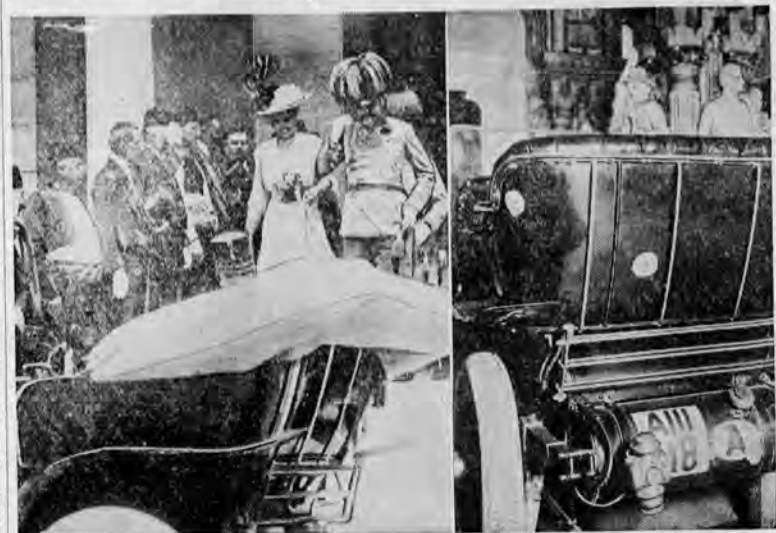

The spiritually minded Christian has no word of commendation for past success, he gives Christ the glory. He does not permit past failures to hold him back, for they have been put under the blood. He is not content merely to hold his own, for he knows that to stand still is to go back. Christian friends, let us by God's blessing and grace take a forward step today, and tomorrow, and the day after, that we may, like Paul, press on toward the goal to the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

Scripture speaks frequently of the reward which shall come to the faithful Christian at the close of a life of holiness and service for Christ. It is no doubt commendable that Christians do not often speak of their reward, for it should be true of every servant of Christ that the love of Christ should constrain him. On the other hand, it is important that we keep before us the fact that at the end of the road there is recognition by "the Lord, the righteous Judge," and that we may properly look forward to the receiving of the crown of righteousness from His hand. The life of the Christian has glorious meaning from beginning to end, yes, and on through all eternity!

Labor is discovered to be the great, grand conqueror, enriching and building up nations more surely than the proudest battles.—Channing.

A MOTHER SOLVES A PROBLEM

LILLIE M. SAUNDERS

"Betty, may I wear your white scarf this evening?" asked thirteen-year-old Jean Mason of her sister, who was two years her senior. The girls were dressing to go to a school play.

"I want to wear it myself," replied Betty.
"You are wearing your black dress. Why don't you use your black scarf and let me have the white one? It will look so much better with my blue dress than my old striped one does. Please, Betty."

Your Scarf Is Pretty

"No, I can't. I tell you, I want to wear it myself. Besides, your scarf is pretty."
"It isn't! I never did like the ugly old thing. If you think it's so pretty why don't you trade with me?"
"I don't want to. It's nice of you to talk that way about a present!"
"Present or no present, it's ugly and I'll not wear it, so there! You get all the pretty things anyway!"
"I do not. How about your new purse? I still have to use my old one. You have nothing to complain about. You get as many new things as I do."

who had been twice widowed. As the lady was very popular and belonged to a prominent family, this unconventional marriage occasioned a great deal of interest and amusement. No formal invitations were issued to the wedding, but the prospective bride, (who was quite a wit and could always see the funny side of things), invited all her friends in an unique way. She asked them to come to the church to see the "launch."

Blacksmith Learned First

When the marriage took place, the church was crowded. A number of people, prominent in Philadelphia society, attended. Everyone was smiling and happy with the prospect of a late summer in the lives of this aged pair.

A few months after, the bride came home and sometime later drove into the blacksmith's to have her horse shod. He greeted her cordially and inquired for her husband.

Her reply was: "If you ever mention the name of that old reprobate to me again, our friendship will be cut forever!"

It was from the blacksmith that her friends first learned that the "launch" had gone on the rocks.—A. H.

Cut out rounds with a biscuit cutter and carefully remove the centers to form little cases. (The centers can be dried for bread crumbs). Spread each case inside and out with melted butter and toast them. Dessert cases can be cut from angle food or sponge cake circles, then buttered and toasted. They are intriguing when filled with jellied or frozen sweets.

FOOD for THOUGHT

By CHARLOTTE SPENCER
Nutritionist, State Board of Health

Nutrition research and public education concerning the value of fruits and vegetables in a good diet have contributed to the tremendous increase that has taken place within the last 20 years in the production of fruits and vegetables.

The soil and climate of Delaware is ideally suited to the raising of a wide variety of fruits and vegetables.

In 1937, Delaware produced 2,750,000 bushels of apples. The strawberry crop in Delaware amounts annually to about three fourths of a million dollars. In an average year Delaware produces 360,000 bushels of peaches. The asparagus crop in the state amounts to about $325,000 dollars.

Quantities Of Tomatoes

From 2,000 to 3,000 acres of cantaloupes are grown annually with the yield of about 250,000 crates. Quantities of tomatoes, watermelon, white and sweet potatoes, cucumbers, peas, squash, blackberries, wild huckleberries, lima beans, spinach, kale, turnip greens, and other fruits and vegetables are also produced in the state.

From the quantities of fresh fruits and vegetables produced one would think that every home would use an abundant supply. Much too frequently we find Delaware families using literally no fruits or vegetables, or using those which are shipped in from other states.

An increased use of fruits and vegetables in Delaware would result not only in an increased market for our farmers, but also in an increased good health. Delaware raises good fruits and vegetables. Use them.

Watches Feel 'Flu'

Wrist watches in London have been suffering from influenza. Watch repairers have been busy putting them in condition, only to have them brought back promptly because they went wrong again. One famous London watchmaker made inquiries of his customers and found that nearly all had influenza. "I found that gold watches are less affected than silver ones," he said. "Those on leather straps have been the worst of all."

Plan To Exhibit Salvaged Spanish Art

Masterpieces of Spanish art which escaped the ravages of the civil war are to be exhibited. Slowly, but surely, arrangements are being made for the long-expected enterprise. The financing has been done by an international committee of art lovers in America, France, Britain, Netherlands, Belgium and Switzerland, and at present another committee with executive powers is being organized.

It will first make a list of the art treasures now in the palace of the League of Nations, and then, after consultation with the League and the Spanish authorities, will make arrangements for exhibitions in Geneva, Paris, London and possibly elsewhere.

It was considered as a chivalrous courtesy to do for a knight and a lady the same dish.

Services Especially Sweet Through Lent we had Wednesday evening services also a Good Friday service. Mr. Brownell was with us Easter morning. Service seemed especially sweet; the sun was shining and the altar so beautiful with its candles, spring flowers and white hangings.

On Monday we had an egg hunt. Some of our good friends in Vermont sent us fifteen pounds of candy for our Easter party. We divided six dozen eggs and tied up sixty-five packages of candy. The candy was tied in paper napkins in such a way that each package looked like a big rose. They met at their school house and came down at ten-thirty bringing their teacher with them. They hunted eggs and played games. When it was time to go I told them I had a new game but all must play. They got in a big circle and as they passed Miss Jarrell gave each one a bright colored egg. The second time around each got a package of candy. Mrs. Roosevelt was not happier with her crowd than I was as I watched that little group wondering its way down the hill to the bridge.

Silver Candle Extinguisher Last summer Miss Harrington, a former worker, presented to the church a silver candle extinguisher.

She said it had long been in her family and she wanted it used here. It was much needed and we appreciate the gift.

Our Auxiliary has increased in membership this year. A new interest has been shown. Through Lent we met weekly. A study class was held chiefly on "Life in the Big Cities." A quilt was given to one of our young men who had to go to Blue Ridge Sanatorium. Another quilt top and some aprons were made and sold for their special Mite Box. We are now making things for the sale room at Cecil Mission.

there is real joy only in service to others, times when we can ease pain with soothing bandages, render first aid, relieve the minds of anxious ones by calling the hospital, lingering near the phone lest we miss a call. To one family we have three times had to carry the news of a visit of death's Angel. It is not easy but we give the comfort we can. Twice lately we have climbed the steep mountain paths to a burying ground to hold services for little babies. These services would move a heart of stone. I wish you could see what seems to be a rough mountain man tenderly carry the little casket and gently place it in the grave as though it was being laid in a crib for a night's rest. Toil worn hands place the little bunches of flowers over the little mound and fasten them down with forked sticks so that they cannot blow away.

Home Radiated Goodness Recently we attended the funeral of one of our best loved members; an old lady so sweet that her home radiated her goodness. It seems so empty without her. Two churches closed that afternoon because everyone wanted to attend that funeral. There was a large crowd but a spirit of reverence and awe was over the entire assembly. The old hymns she loved sounded so sweet. They buried her in the family burying ground at the top of a high mountain. The road was so rugged that the hearse could not get up; the body had to be taken in a truck. Her sons and daughters were employed in Washington. The road was hard for the long, low city cars. The entire trip was a succession of starts and stops, but we finally got there; a spot so lonely yet so beautiful. The air was purer, the sky seemed bluer, the sun shone in all its glory. Nature at its very best. We could indeed feel that it was Asleep in Jesus, Blessed Sleep.

Thank you for helping us in every part of our work. Are not all in the service of the Master. And did He not say, "In as much as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren ye have done it unto me."

British Chalk Caves Air-Raid Shelters Under the town of Chislehurst, Kent, England, stretch twenty-two miles of caves hewn out of chalk by the ancient Britons some 2,000 years ago.

Some of them are now to be converted into modern air raid shelters. They will be fitted with gas traps and all modern devices and will, it is estimated, give shelter to 5,000 persons should the need arise. If all the caves were used, another 15,000 persons could be accommodated and would be able to stop safely for an indefinite period ninety feet below the surface.

Since the time of the ancient Britons, the caves have been used from time to time as a refuge from invaders. Queen Elizabeth once housed half her army there. Thousands of sightseers visit the caves each year.

Indiana Tests Drunken Drivers

Indiana became the first state to provide that courts may recognize scientific tests for intoxication as evidence in cases involving drunken and reckless driving, when a new law became effective this month. The new statute provides for analysis of breath and body fluids similar to that shown above in which a model's breath, blown into a balloon, is being tested for alcoholic content.

Henpecked Husbands Have New Problems

Members of the Ancient Honorable Order of Henpecked Husbands had new problems to solve at their monthly meetings in Heptastall, England. Many members were anxious for a ruling whether a henpecked husband could enroll for the Government air-raid-precautions campaign, as he is already in a "reserved occupation."

It was agreed that each member should have full permission to settle his own problems, and if necessary, to apply to his "boss" at home for the requisite time off from domestic duty to attend drills and lectures.

Speeding Slow Seedlings By Proper Treatment

Many of our seedlings growing in the best of prepared plots seem stunted, but this condition can be remedied by sprinkling with a level tablespoon of nitrate of soda dissolved in five gallons of water. This quantity is sufficient to pep up plants in a space four feet square. Follow the application of this material by a thorough watering, and repeat every two weeks for about two months.

FATHER AND SON BANQUET

To Be Served At Stanton Church Tonight

By Miss Emma S. Maclary

Stanton, June 21.—Special "Father's Day" Services were held in the Stanton M. E. Church on Sunday, with the Rev. David W. Baker, pastor, delivering an address to the fathers. W. Rose, 63, was presented with a Bible, being the oldest father attending the service. Merritt Newcomb received a Bible, being the youngest father present, and Calvin Eastburn was presented with a Bible, having the most of his children present with him at the service.

At the evening service, Mrs. Calver Talley's Sunday school class of young men were in charge of the service, and the feature of the program was a pageant.

A father and son banquet will be served in the Stanton church on Thursday evening at 6:30 o'clock and an invitation is extended by the Rev. Baker to all men in the community to attend. Women of the church will serve the banquet.

Newark, Delaware, June 22, 1939

TIME FOR ACTION

At the August meeting of the Council of Newark last year an ordinance dealing with the care of vacant lots within the town limits was adopted without a dissenting voice.

That ordinance states: "That the owner, agent or tenant of any vacant lot within the Town limits who shall allow weeds or rubbish to collect thereon or shall refuse or neglect to remove the same within ten days after receiving written notice from the said Council of Newark, such owner, agent or tenant shall be subject to a penalty of TEN DOLLARS for such refusal or neglect, with an additional penalty of ONE DOLLAR for each day the nuisance is permitted to remain after the expiration of the notice."

Is that ordinance still in effect, or was it merely a passing step to deal with a troublesome condition last year? Have any owners, agents or tenants of vacant lots within the town been given notices of ten days that their properties are unsightly, unhealthy, and present traffic hazards in many instances?

If any owner, agent or tenant has been given such notification, why haven't all of them been notified without exception? If proper notification has been given in every instance then it is time for Council to enforce the instrument of fining those owners, agents or tenants who have refused or failed to clean up their properties.

The condition of many lots in Newark at the present time is not only disgraceful and hazardous in a general sense, but it is directly unfair to those owners of property who maintain their lots in accordance with the law and neighborly decency.

Playground

Morning games for boys of softball, basketball, dodgeball, and "schlag ball" drew 55 participants, while 35 girls participated in relay races, kick ball, baseball, and social games.

Sixty boys played ping-pong, croquet, quoits, horseshoes, and softball in the afternoon, while 35 girls occupied at croquet, ping-pong, story telling, dodgeball, and social games.

While only nine children reported to Director Ralph O'Connell at the swimming pool Monday, with better weather on Tuesday the figure jumped to 80. The extreme high temperature on Wednesday attracted 120 children to the water.

Playground Information
Registration does not mean compulsory daily attendance.

Boys and girls are asked to comply with the hours regulating the playground play periods—9 to 12 a. m., and 2 to 5 p. m.

Adults are invited to attend and participate in the play of the older boys during the period from 7 to 9 p. m.

The following games are available for the older folks: Ping-pong, tennis, badminton, softball, quoits, horseshoes. Come out and play with your Sons and Dads.

Boys 14 years and older are urged to register for the leaders corps. A certain amount of work will be required from each leader, but the members will be recompensed for their efforts with special activities later in the season.

Don't forget the concert by the Newark High School band Friday night at the athletic field at 7:30 o'clock, D. S. T.

Monday night is "Bring-Your-Pet Night" for the boys and girls of the playground center.

A costume party for the girls, 3:30 to 5 p. m., Friday, June 23.

Dramatics for the girls has been started and short plays will be given at a later date. Open to the public. Dramatics for the entire group will also be attempted.

Senior girls, age 15 and over, are urged to report and register so that activities for the group can be planned on a larger scale.

Children may register anytime, but registration is essential before starting activities. Directors need to know every child.

Younger children, primary and intermediate groups, although not excluded from afternoon activities, will find facilities better in the morning.

Evening hours, 7 to 9, limited to senior high school students and adults.

Center will be open and available during all regular hours for a period of eight weeks. Every child welcome.

Simply as a means of checking attendance, every child must sign a slip daily.

Handicraft work will require small charges for materials only. Products will be kept by the child-maker. The work is not required, it's a voluntary project.

That "pet show" for boys and girls Monday night will be held from 7 to 9.

The Center will shut down between 12 and 2 p. m. After all, the directors need their lunches, too!

Business and Finance

Waning anxiety over the complex and persistent tension in international relations has been widely evident in recent weeks, states the current issue of The Guaranty Survey, published by The Guaranty Trust Company of New York.

The conversion of the German-Italian axis partnership into a formal political and military alliance and the inclusion of Turkey in the group of countries constituting an anti-aggression front, with the accession of Russia reportedly assured, have carried further the apparent tightening of lines of cleavage in Europe. The Survey continues. But renewed proclamations of peaceful intentions—encouraged by the reported activities of Papal Nuncios, embracing, it is said, a suggestion similar to the one made by President Roosevelt that solutions of existing problems be sought now through conference—lend support to increasingly hopeful appraisals of the European outlook.

British Business Rising

Rising trends in British business have prevailed recently, continuing the expansion of activity registered during the earlier months of the year. The greatly expanded British armament program has raised the estimated cost of defense this year to 630,000,000 pounds, in a total projected expenditure of 1,322,000,000 pounds; heavy increases in taxation and in borrowings are proposed. Related to the extraordinary financial requirements now foreseen, it is said, are steps recently taken to restrain the export of British capital through private purchases of American securities.

The will to accelerate the strengthening of the national economy of France and the preparation for defense is manifest in revisions of policy embodied in a group of decree laws recently announced. These measures represent a further step in the three-year national recovery program adopted about six months ago under the guidance of Finance Minister Paul Reynaud. Gratifying progress toward the objectives of the program had been made when this fresh intensification of the national effort was undertaken.

WEEK TO WEEK in WASHINGTON

By J. E. JONES

Week In Washington

A spirit of give-and-take is hastening proceedings in Washington, and the Administration entertains a good deal of hope that it will get Congress "out of the trenches" in July. With all the fuss about taxation revision the chances are that the Congress will have to share guilt with the President for extravagance and spending. A few face-saving "reforms" will be affected by Congress in tax schedules "without lowering the total tax base." That was the President's position from the beginning—and he wins.

Congress has taken a lot of reefs out of the President's sails, but the latter has "taken it standing" and with considerable more diplomacy and cooperation than heretofore. The White House splits about 50-50 with political enemies in Congress. Up-to-date the so-called "Presidential authority" has not been trimmed to any extent—the Administration having carried its appropriation bills through with usual success.

Plans are made for what may be a bitter fight on the Neutrality bill that was reported to the House exactly as the President wanted it. The bill proposes to repeal arms embargo provisions of the present law and give open markets to trade with belligerents who acquire title to goods before shipment. The bill repeals present law provisions for an automatic embargo on arms and ammunition shipments to belligerents in wartime. Congress and the Administration agree that the universal desire of the people of the United States is to keep our country out of war.

The grounds for the fight that is likely to reach its peak in the Senate is over continuing the authority of the President to hold his present mastery over the problems that threaten war, or returns to old-fashioned constitutional methods in which Congress shall decide in a crisis.

Sensible Conclusions

American automobile management will take pride in the approval of the industry by the Federal Trade Commission's report to Congress.

The relations between the public and the industry appear to have been thoroughly investigated with the result that many of the questions which started out as idle gossip involved in the official study of the manufacturers. It took 3,500 pages to cover price fixing, allowances for used cars, the relations between the automobile companies and dealers, and other subjects included in the report.

The public has heard a great deal about unscrupulous financing companies that have preyed upon automobile purchasers, but the accusing finger is pointed by the Commission against independent and fraudulent financing companies which had no direct connections with the automobile industry itself. Quite naturally a lot of shapers entered the financing game and they continued until they were exposed. Many of them were driven out of business.

The Temporary National Economic Commission likewise gave the industry a clean bill of health recently, after a thorough inquiry into automobile patents.

The public estimates will likely agree with the sensible conclusions reached by the Federal Trade, and practically assented to by the Monopoly Committee.

The Federal Trade report says: "Consumer benefits from competition in the automobile manufacturing industry probably have been more substantial than in any other large industry studied by this Commission."

International Tragedy

How especially true today is the philosopher's statement that "in the midst of life we are in death," for about us everywhere the instruments of man's genius hurl him through space at a speed which paces the stars! How close to the infinite do finite creatures skirt and swirl, live and die gloriously and sometimes tragically!

Within a month three United States aviators pointed the noses of their planes outward across the Atlantic to be seen no more by man. Brave, intrepid or foolhardy souls, as you will, but gallant withal, they were in the headlines for a day but the tragedy of their passing did not grip the nation.

Just as the human tragedy touched all hearts so does the resulting international tragedy disturb all minds. This latter tragedy rests upon a wholly absurd but nevertheless substantial belief in Mexico that sabotage by jealous Americans wrecked Sarabia's plane. No grown-up in his right mind would even think much less make such a serious charge. But many Mexicans believe it and in retaliation American tourists cars, schools, homes and even the United States Embassy are being attacked or threatened.

In this case the wrongfully accused overlook the manifestations of a deeply-hurt, prideful people who knew beyond all doubt that their eagle was equal to the world's best. He was. What they, in their hurt, cannot see or understand is that the best flier in the world cannot make an overloaded plane ignore the laws of gravity.

Mexico's hurt should help us as a nation better to see, understand and make allowances for her noble as well as her ignoble qualities. And when the hurt is gone her fantastic charges of sabotage should make all right-thinking Mexicans bow their heads in shame.

No Credit Shortage

Bankers of the country are always being asked to cooperate with the Government. Some of them have been telling committees of Congress this week that the greater need is for cooperation of the Government with the banks. They insist that there is plenty of safe bank credit.

Bankers from the middle West have been testifying before a Senate Committee and they have opposed the Government plan of insuring bank loans for business men. The president of the St. Louis bank characterized the insurance plan as one that would injure business "by unfair competition of insufficient and poorly managed concerns, operating for a time with taxpayers' money."

He got at the very heart of the question, and stated that surveys have been made by bankers and that none of them indicate that there is a credit shortage for large or small business.

Greater Security

Last November one large industrial corporation announced income security and lay-off benefit plans for 1939 by which, through use of the corporation's resources, eligible employees might stabilize their incomes despite the fluctuations in producing schedules that are occasioned seasonally by fluctuations in consumer demand. Now this same corporation has just announced an extension of its present group life health-insurance plan to include hospitalization and surgical benefits for participating employees.

Employees participating in the extended plan will be assured of hospitalization benefits of $4 a day to run as long as 70 days for a single disability. Included, also, are benefits toward defraying costs of surgical operations up to $150 for a single operation, as well as payment of certain specified hospital services. The corporation will assume a share of the costs as it does in connection with the basic insurance plan. Contributions of participating employees for the additional protection will be at the rate of 75 cents per month.

"In introducing these additional features to its Group Insurance Plan, General Motors gives practical recognition to the desirability and workability of cooperative efforts of this type," Alfred P. Sloan, Jr., chairman, said in making the announcement. "The basic plan, now participated in by 98 per cent of all eligible employees, indicates that General Motors men and women will welcome this opportunity to strengthen their protection against unforeseen contingencies."

Slum Clearance

The Housing Program of the Government has been given approval by the Senate, passing the Wagner bill, doubling the loan authorizations by the Housing Authority to $1,600,000,000. The country apparently approves the Housing Plan, and with the election a long way off, the legislation will likely be approved.

WASHINGTON NEWS LETTER

FROM CONGRESSMAN
GEORGE S. WILLIAMS

A CONGRESSMAN'S DAY—Congressional life is fascinating, but there are so many demands upon one's time that it is difficult to discharge all duties properly. The various executive departments operate on a seven-hour day, but not so with the congressional offices "on the hill." A Congressman arrives anywhere from 8 to 9 a. m., opens his mail and dictates replies. There are committee meetings at 10 or 10:30 lasting until noon, when the House convenes. If business order consideration is important, the lawmakers grab a bite to eat in the cloakroom instead of eating in the House dining room. Adjournment takes place at any time between 4 and 8 p. m. Then back to the office building to check correspondence. In the evening there are various meetings and conferences, in addition to social affairs, in which many are not interested. Several Congressmen take home copies of bills and reports to study, while a large number return to their offices at night and even on Sunday. Constituents are interested in pending legislation, as a result numerous requests are received for copies of bills. While committees assume the important function of considering legislation, it is frequently necessary to become conversant with proposed measures and determine the potential effects upon one's district or constituents, thereby being in a stronger position to cast an intelligent vote. A few Congressmen take their duties lightly, but most of them are conscientious and work diligently.

BUSINESS RECOVERY—Congressman Wigginworth of Massachusetts speaking on the floor of the House a few days ago said, "In an eulogy of the W.P.A. recently the Deputy Administrator emphasized the fact that at one time or another about 20 percent of the population of this country have been dependent for their support on the W.P.A. To my mind, that is a most terrible indictment of the policies we have been pursuing in recent years under the present Administration,—policies which in my judgment, have served to deprive millions of men and women now unemployed in this country of real employment at decent wages under decent working conditions. Fifty-five billion dollars have been expended in the past six years, $8,500,000,000 going to W.P.A. in the last four years. With the addition of the $1,500,000,000 carried in the present relief bill, the total for W.P.A. will rise to $8,000,000,000 yet we find today 11,000,000 people in this country out of employment, with 1,800,000 people on general relief rolls, and a continuing situation which has placed 20 percent of our population on those rolls at one time or another. As long as we adhere to the policies to which I refer, I frankly do not believe we will ever bring about fundamental recovery and put American citizens back to work. The apparent insistence by the Administration on adhering to these policies explains why so often we hear the question today, 'Do those close to the Administration really desire business recovery?'"

FINLAND PAYS AGAIN—The tiny Republic of Finland continued to keep its record clear last week by paying the United States Treasury $100,000 in principle and interest on its foreign debt to this country. Of the various debtor nations which owe the U. S. more than $10,000,000, Finland is the only one that has made regular installments to this Government. Recently, Hungary also started small payments on its debt. The other countries simply inform the Treasury on the date on which installments are due that they are unable to pay. A small ceremony in Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau's office marked the Finnish payment. While newsreel cameras ground away, Hjalmar Procopé, the Finnish Minister, went through the routine of paying the Treasury his country's semi-annual debt installment.

CIVIL AIR PILOT—The Senate last week approved a large civil aircraft pilot training program to be conducted by the Civil Aeronautics Authority for defense purposes. Slightly amended by the Senate the bill authorizing the program now goes back to the House for further consideration. The bill authorizes the expenditure of $5,775,000 for the 1939-1940 program and $7,000,000 during each subsequent year until expiration of the program on July 1, 1944.

TAX REVISION—The House Ways and Means Subcommittee is expected to be ready to submit the tax revision program being drafted, within a few days. Chairman Harrison of the Senate Committee on Finance is in favor of repeal of the undistributed profits tax, authority to corporations to carry over net losses for two or three years, and other concessions to business.

ROYALTY—It is estimated that 600,000 people turned out to see the King and Queen of England upon their arrival in the Nation's Capital. An informal tea and a dinner at the British Embassy in Washington, divine services, and an American Picnic at Hyde Park were included in the week's ceremonies. Those who had the pleasure of meeting their Majesties were deeply impressed by their charm and ability, despite their positions as rulers of one-third of the Earth's people, to make everyone feel at ease.

flowers and letters from our many friends extending from Georgia to Canada, on the occasion of our fifty years of married life.

In retrospect, we realize this space of years recalls to memory many trials and sorrows; all is not joy in such a life two are permitted to be together, and it is only by the appointment and predestination of a gracious God, we were born in this hour. We have nothing to do in coming into this world, or of leaving it.

As Ryland, the poet, expresses it, "Sovereign Ruler of the skies ever gracious, ever wise; all our times are in Thy hand,—all events at Thy command. He who formed us in the womb, He shall guide us in the tomb; all our times shall ever be, ordered by His wise decree. Plagues and death around us fly, till He bids, we cannot die; not a single shaft can hit till the God of love sees fit."

Again we thank our many friends for the words of encouragement and love toward us in our advancing years, and our hope is, we may be privileged to enjoy a home together, far, far from this transitory scene of corruption and temptation; in eternity, and if this hope is made secure in us, through regeneration, we shall see Him, be like Him, and forever dwell with Him, where sin and corruption will never reign.

Talkative Professor

The drug store opposite Swarthmore College's beautiful campus was crowded when we entered at noon. "Have a seat," said a kindly-looking gentleman, "and how are you?" "I beg your pardon," he added a moment later, "I thought you were some one else."

"I'm Dr. Whootanny, professor of economic palaver," he rambled (the name and subject are fictitious, of course). "And you're a reporter? Well, well, how interesting!" was his not original exclamation.

"Basketball? Yes, we've had marked success in the sport at Swarthmore during the last few years, but we never give scholarships to basketball players—only to students."

Mere Coincidence

"Yes, our field house had added interest to campus life. Nice building, don't you think?" he queried.

"Not so hot for appearance," was our retort, "looks like the Mormon temple at Salt Lake City. But the size of the place must boost basketball receipts."

"Definitely yes," was the professor's prompt comeback. "When the team is winning you should see the people turn out for games."

"Undoubtedly a winning team creates more interest," the professor agreed, "but the fact that Swarthmore has had improved teams since the field house was erected is mere coincidence. Large gate receipts have nothing to do with the development of basketball teams here," he denied somewhat heatedly.

Where's Delaware?

"Why doesn't Swarthmore play Delaware in all sports? Delaware? Where's Delaware?" questioned the professor.

"At Newark," we replied, employing the native pronunciation. "New Ark," he giggled, "how quaint! Where's the old one? And what does Newark have to do with Delaware? It's in New Jersey!" he chortled.

Stiffing a desire to knock the old boy loose from his pince-nez, we suggested that when Swarthmore got around to improving its faculty, as it has its basketball team, he'd wind-up with a broom.

"What an odd person," he mumbled as we made our departure.

Straight Dope

So that no one will be criticized in error, Dr. John Fenton Daugherty, president of the University of Delaware's athletic council, volunteers the information that Paul Richard Skillman, 220-pound back who will enter Washington and Lee in the fall, wrote to him concerning entrance at the Blue Hen institution. Skillman has stated that he thought Delaware wasn't interested in him when his letter of application was unanswered in several weeks. Hence the decision to accept an offer from W. & L.

No doubt Dr. Daugherty recalls a similar situation several years back, when Lyle Clark, then coaching at Delaware, "held the bag" over a back who landed at Maryland after being headed towards the Blue Hen campus. Hell-raising alumni in Wilmington used the situation as a charge against Clark.

It's too bad that Skillman was permitted to get away, but it's more than decent of Dr. Daugherty to give Steve Grenda the protection that was never given Clark.

Lacrosse Stars

Any man who has ever been in jail, or has been guilty of some public offense, is usually willing to forget it, hopeful that the world at large will do the same.

But John (Snaps) Fisher, proving the exception to the accustomed rule, even tells people that he hails from Port Deposit. Chesty by nature, he's puffed up like a toad since the naming of the all-American lacrosse team for 1939.

It so happens that Jimmy Hendrix, Navy's outside home, and Bud Meade, Maryland's second defense, both of whom have parental connections in the village that straggles along the Susquehanna river, were selected for all-American honors. And Snaps is certainly strutting his stuff.

Both boys are products of Tome School. Hendrix, a native of Port Deposit, first played the game at Tome, but Meade, who was taken to Port Deposit after spending his early youth in Philadelphia, was a novice at the game when he entered Maryland.

Meade, incidentally, has been signed by the Washington Redskins of the National Professional Football League, after starring on the grid for the Free Staters. A magnificent kicker, good ball carrier, and rugged defensive man, Meade should make the grade.

If he does, Dick Harlow will probably shoot the scout who looked at Meade in the fall of '35, but refused to proposition him for Western Maryland because "his legs wouldn't stand the strain of grade A football."

Bill Fletcher

WE'VE BEEN TOLD, THOUGH WE WOULDN'T BET ON it, that the surest way to get anything at all out of Delaware Park is to accompany Bill Morgan, local post office employee, on one of his bettin' sprees.

ALTHOUGH THE MONEY kickback, should you be fortunate enough to take one of these trips, will be small, if anything, you can at least be assured, according to reports, of more than your share of laughs.

There is only one thing sad about this tale we have to tell—Mr. Morgan doped out a system to beat the ponies. And when a guy attempts to do that, we'll all agree the verb in the last sentence is an excellent replacement for the noun.

WITH THREE DAYS VACATION

and nothing to do, our William, his soul still as untainted as the day he was first placed in the crib and his bulging pocketbook yet to be fleeced, curiously followed a stream of cars headed in the general direction of an oval layout we all know too, too well.

Unfortunately, he followed them a little too far and found himself, for the first time, within the clutches of a nest of gamblers. The temptation proved too much for even our William's virtuous being.

William allowed three races to pass without making a wager, which was all well and good, fine in fact, but to get to the sad part of the story, the three show horses in first, three sprints netted their backers over $15 on each bet.

"I've got it! I've gotta system," he yelled and despite the fact that thrifty and saintly hands clutched at his conscience in a vain effort to protect his pocketbook, Mr. Morgan wagered show bets on the entire field of five horses in the fourth race, a total outlay of $10.

Which, according to precedent, was alright, but according to the track's payoff methods, proved all wrong.

FIGURING HIS MONEY WAS going to turn over in a profitable fashion and not at all worried, our friend invested another quarter in a holding and self-drink, found a spot on the rail and comfortably lounged to await the running of the race and the return of his interest-bearing ten spot.

He couldn't lose. Or, could he? As we expected and because Mr. Morgan was a wise investor, three of his horses finished in the money and you can bet he was pretty proud of himself. "It's a cinch," he muttered, "but I better keep this system to myself or too many people will start playing it."

Dollars flew at random through William Morgan's head—his careening fantasy wildly drew visions of a huge pleasure yacht, a stable of his own horses, a sports imported car, a Bermuda, a Monte Carlo, an old English castle.

Locals Fall In Wilmington Tourne

ANDERSON LOW MEDALIST; GOLDEY NEWARK AFFAIR DELAYED

B. F. (Sanky) Richards And Ben Davis, Jr., Also Defeated In Second Round; Local Championship Tilt To Start Again Saturday

By Tee Spoon

With twenty members of the local club participating in the annual Elmer E. Mitchell Memorial invitation golf tournament at the Wilmington Country Club, Newark's championship affair was postponed a week. The second round will be staged over the weekend.

Locals Defeated

Local club-swingers found the road tough and gained only a few minor victories although George F. Anderson, youthful links star, paced the qualifiers with the low medal count of 73 on Friday, and Ben Davis, Jr., tied for second with a score of 76. B. F. (Sanky) Richards winner of the event last year, was also eligible for the trophy with a 78.

After winning his first round match with E. G. Peterson, of Hercules, Anderson bowed out in the quarterfinals when Bill Schutt, of Wilmington, racked up a 4 and 3 victory.

Richards Falls

Davis, after getting by E. D. Taylor, of Tusculum, bowed to J. W. Gookler, Whitmarsh, 1 up, and Richards, victorious over Howard A. Turner, Jr., Concord, in the opening round, dropped by a 4 and 3 count before Robert Dunn, Paxton Hollow, the ultimate winner.

In the second sixteen, Paul DiSabatino, Robert Stewart, Jr., H. B. Williamson, and H. B. Fisher were all defeated in the initial round by Glenn Killinger, West Chester, Pa.; George Hipple, West Chester, J. A. Cann, Wilmington, and Harry Cooper, Penn's Grove, respectively. Roland Wollaston went to the final round of the third sixteen by downing Vincent Brodie, and F. J. Friel, both of DuPont, but was felled back after 21 holes by J. A. Draper, Wilmington. J. A. Julian was defeated in this sixteen by Hayes Wilson, Mapledale.

Dickey Meets Defeat

In the fourth sixteen, local first-round victims were: J. H. Dickey, defeated by H. Pickel, Spring Ford, and A. E. Benton, turned back by Dr. J. E. Nirmant, Concord.

Two Newarkers, Paul F. Pie, Jr., and J. A. Giamatteo, reached the finals of the fifth sixteen and the former emerged victorious, 1 up, after 20 holes. Pie defeated H. S. McQuaid and R. W. Palfrey, both of DuPont, and T. L. Rignin, of Wilmington, in his march to the finals, while the latter downed A. R. Tucker, of Wilmington. J. F. Sprague, of Concord, and H. B. McCauley, of Newark.

In the defeated eight, Bob Stewart, in the second bracket, defeated H. B. Fisher in the finals, and A. E. Benton conquered Ed McAbbe, Northampton.

Other locals who participated were: George E. Dutton, Jr., Dr. J. A. Paradisi, Wayne C. Brewer, W. B. McConnell, and F. J. Horty.

Washington May Transfer Veterans To First Sack

There is no doubt of Jimmy Wasdell being able to field better than Zebo Bonura but if Jimmy falls to hit American league pitchers, either Cecil Travis or Sammy West will be shifted to first base. If Travis is moved over from short, his place will be taken by Charley Gelbert, who is establishing a great come back. If West is brought in from the outfield, Estellella, the Cuban, will patrol right field. There is some question, however, if West will be able to stand the gaff of playing first throughout an entire season. Again, he stands only five feet ten inches, one inch less than Waddell and three less than Travis. Jimmy Fox, however, is only five feet eleven inches tall.

Woodrow Wilson Rich Not Aware Of Perfect Contest

When Woodrow Rich, Boston rookie pitcher, pitched his no-hit game against Atlanta, last year, he did not know he was pitching a no-hitter until the game was over. His team mates ganged up on him and when the sixth inning was over, fearing he might become nervous if he knew he was on his way to pitching a no-hit game, they told him: "Too bad, Woody, the Crackers have made three scratch hits off you." Rich, intent on winning his game, just went on, nonchalantly, to victory and then learned not a hit had been made off him.

Kirby Higbe Led The Southern Association In Strikeouts Last Season

NINE FINED BY COURT

Wild Duck Buyers Tried In Federal Clean-Up Drive

Nine buyers of wild ducks were fined by Judge John P. Nields in Federal court at Wilmington, last Friday, the U. S. Biological Survey reports. This brings the total number of recent convictions against Eastern Shore buyers, bootleggers, and trappers of migratory waterfowl to 51. Other violators have been sentenced in Federal courts in Norfolk, Va., and Baltimore.

Apprehended in an intensive nationwide series of drives against the illicit traffic in wild ducks and geese, the Delaware buyers were arraigned, pleaded guilty, and fined.

The prosecutions were conducted by U. S. District Attorney John J. Morris, Jr.

Agrees With Judge "We are going to continue to prosecute both buyers and sellers," says W. E. Crouch, chief of the U. S. Game Management Agents, "and whether the violators are important or unimportant citizens has no bearing on the case. We agree with Judge Coleman who in Federal court recently said: 'That some of you are substantial citizens of the community is no reason to expect special consideration—it is all the more reprehensible that you violate the law.'"

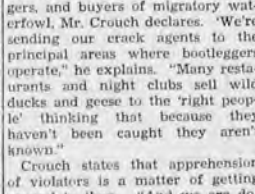

The Survey will continue its drive on the nation's trappers, bootleggers, and buyers of migratory waterfowl, Mr. Crouch declares. "We're sending our crack agents to the principal areas where bootleggers operate," he explains. "Many restaurants and night clubs sell wild ducks and geese to the 'right people' thinking that because they haven't been caught they aren't known."

Crouch states that apprehension of violators is a matter of getting around to them. "And we are doing it."

GOLDEY HAS GOOD SEASON

Newark Boy Paces Nine To 13 Wins

By Homer Run

Led by Eddie (Moose) Morgan, former Newark High School athlete, the Goldey College diamondmen climaxed one of their most successful seasons in recent years by compiling a total of thirteen victories against six defeats. Two other local boys, Eugene White and Drex Harrington, were at second and third base, respectively, for the Wilmington team.

Newark's Win Decisive

Newark High School, Archmere Academy, Haddon Heights, Atlantic City, Millville, and Vineland succeeded in taking the measure of Coach Alden J. Ramsdell's charges with the Jackets gaining the only decisive win, a 16-2 victory.

The Goldey team trounced Georgetown, Caesar Rodney and the school's faculty before bowing to the Jackets and then embarked on a four-game winning streak that included Vocational, Havre de Grace, Aberdeen, and the University of Delaware Junior among its victims.

Archmere eked out an eleven-inning 10-9 conquest which was followed by the 6-4 defeat at the hands of Haddon Heights after which a six-game stretch of victories assured the outfit of a successful season. Aberdeen fell again while Archmere was turned back in a return meeting. West Nottingham, Harrington, and Salisbury (two games) also felt the sting of the "G-Men's" bats.

Trip Disastrous

With a record of 13 wins and only three losses, the Goldey nine made the annual New Jersey trip, but failed to chalk up any more victories, dropping three games, two of them by a one-run margin.

Atlantic City High won, 7-6; Millville, 5-4, in eleven innings; and Vineland, 5-2.

Performing at the backstop position, Captain Morgan, an outstanding baseball and football star at Newark, played a creditable brand of ball all year, while White and Harrington also came through with sparkling plays in the field and timely base hits.

Three Pitchers Retained In Place Of Injured

It is a cinch that Joe McCarthy, already, has decided to have Ruffing, Gomez, Pearson, Hildebrand and Ferrel as his starting pitchers with Johnny Murphy and Breuer in relief roles. That will allow him to retain three other pitchers until Spurgeon Chandler is able to return to active service mid-season. Those three will be chosen from Joe Beggs, Atley Donald, Steve Sundra and John Haley.

MYERS IS DEFEATED

Owings Captures Initial Win At Leader's Expense

Showing the form that carried him to the Wilmington Y. M. C. A. championship five years ago, Charlie Owings won a nip-and-tuck, 100-to-93 decision over Jackie Myers, Havre de Grace, last week in the class A pocket billiard tournament at Jimmy Martin's State parlor.

The surprising outcome was Owings' first victory in six starts, and Myers' first defeat in as many engagements. Winner of five straight tilts prior to meeting Owings, Myers was dropped from a first-place deadlock with Jack Fossett, local star, by the setback.

George Downes Sanborn

Fossett, idle during the week, saw his second closest adversary, Tony Sanborn, fall before Ren George, 100-81. Smarting under two defeats, George proceeded to ease his wrath at the expense of Sanborn, who had won five matches as against a lone defeat.

Talkative Tom DeVage, Philadelphia, ended his losing streak at five when he managed to outlast Rube Heath, Newark, 100-78, then he proceeded to gain a nose verdict over Owings, 100-97, in a sloppy but exciting match.

Champions Getting Ready For Nation's Biggest Skeet Shoot

TWO 18-year-olds are again expected to be the sensation of the nation's biggest skeet event when the Huntington Gun Club, Lordship, Stratford, Conn., for the 11th Annual Great Eastern Skeet Championships, June 23, 24, and 25.

Skeet is an increasingly popular sport. More than 1,000 women are shooting regularly in various clubs all over the country. At Lordship they compete among themselves and also with men in many open events.

Miss Pat Laursen, Akron, Ohio, National Woman's Champion, will compete again this year. She is a student at Rollins College, Winter Park, Fla., and won at Lordship in 1938 with 95 out of a possible 100 birds. Dick Shaughnessy, of Dedham, Mass., won the Lordship high overall event last year with 287 birds out of 300, the 410 gauge, 96 Annual Great Eastern Skeet Championships, June 23, 24, and 25.

Sun Lover, a finely turned son of Sun Beau, belongs to the Millside stable of which Antony Pelletieri is manager and co-owner with his father-in-law, A. B. Letellier, of New Orleans. Sun Lover raced only three times last season, but he won in California last winter and scored again at Belmont Park in early June. His performance in the Dwyer was a revelation. Johnstown stepped the first mile in 1:35 3-5, which time was better than the Aqueduct track record by two-fifths of a second, and finished the mile and a furlong in 1:48 2-5 which was only one-fifth of a second off Discovery's course mark, yet Sun Lover made up a couple of lengths on him in the final sixteenth and was still gaining as the two finished.

Others Stand Out
Gilded Knight beat Challeon in the last Chesapeake at Havre de Grace and Sun Lover in the Survivor renewal at Pimlico, but Challeon turned the tables on him in the Preakness. Hash, a son of Questionnaire and Delicacy, of Mrs. Helen Hay Whitney's Greentree stable, finished second in the Withers in which Johnstown turned six furlongs in 1:10 flat and finished out the mile in 1:35 4-5.

Eight Thirty, winner of last year's Christiana stakes at Delaware Park, has in two races at Stanton since the first of June, revealed stuff of the sort that inspired the smart handicappers of the east to rate him last season's second-best two-year-old to El Chico and far ahead of Johnstown. He will bear the silks of George D. Widener, of Philadelphia, and his trainer, A. J. Joyner, predicts that he will be mighty hard to catch. Aerial Toy is an Arkansas Derby winner; Trailer, in lieu of the disabled Impound, is Alfred Gwynne Vanebrill's best three-year-old, and Hants is Hal Price Handicap's ace. Maybe the Kent will be a better race if Johnstown falls to make it.

As thousands of systems have been done in the past—as thousands more will do in the future, Mr. Morgan joined the ranks, the lengthy ranks, of the disappointed.

HIS DREAMS WERE PLEASANT enough while they lasted—too good to become realities, but perhaps they were worth the difference between the $7.50 he got back and the $10 he layed on the show horses.

At any rate, Mr. Morgan has learned an important lesson. He has joined the great army of horse players who will insist, whether they believe it or not, that "You Can't Beat the Races."

Like everyone else, though, he still likes to go out "once in a while," but you'll see him everyday, a paper under his arm, in a whispering huddle—or hear him yell, "What's hot out at the track today?"

Mr. William Morgan, may his purse feel only lightly the touch of non-paying nags, has been baptized.

Safety Hints

J. H. Dunbar, duPont official and a director of the Delaware Safety Council issues this warning to all Delawareans for the coming Fourth of July. "Notwithstanding the national significance of the Fourth of July holiday that we will all celebrate next month, and despite all the patriotism and idealism engendered by the occasion, it will be a day of sorrow and regret for altogether too many persons. It is a lamentable fact that the most glorious of our national holidays should be fraught with danger. In short, we are faced with the most dangerous day of the year."

He stated that our country has lost more lives celebrating its independence than we ever lost winning it. For every Revolutionary War soldier who returned from the wars permanently disabled, there were 16 persons maimed, crippled, or blinded by fireworks during the first 30 years of the present century.

Fought For Purpose
Also, our war heroes fought for a purpose and left a heritage for which many generations have been grateful—but the man who wastes his life for a momentary thrill leaves nothing but sorrow to his heirs. Mr. Dunbar also stated that aside from the deaths which we may expect as a result of fireworks, we will also have our accidental deaths due to drownings, automobiles, camping hazards which include drownings, fires, drinking unsafe water, poison, boating. If we are going to have a safe Fourth of July we must exercise extra care against all of these potential accident causes. In driving or walking, at home or out of doors, remember that caution will prevent accidents.

Let all Delawareans use that caution and let us all BE ALIVE ON THE FIFTH.

An orange rain fell near Naples, Italy, in 1833. A great waterspout had sucked the oranges into the air, and when conditions became normal again, the strange shower of fruit was released.

4-H CLUBS IN CAMP AT CAPITAL

State Delegates Participate In Annual Session

Delaware delegates to the National 4-H Club camp in Washington, D. C., ended their action packed program last night after a week of conferences and educational trips at the capital.

Members of the Delaware delegation were: A. D. Cobb and Laura B. Rutherford, leaders, and Gladys Walsley, New Castle County; Louise Meredith, Kent County; Emil Anthony Kiebaso, Kent County; and Paul B. Hastings, Sussex County.

Miss Walsley served during the conference as an assistant tourmaster, while Mr. Hastings participated in the flag lowering exercises last Friday.

Living in a tent city with delegates from 42 other states and Puerto Rico, the boys and girls from Delaware have taken part in daily conferences on "Leadership," visited national shrines, and had an opportunity to see Washington and their government at work.

Wallace Gives Creed

Secretary of Agriculture Henry A. Wallace, who was escorted by the fowls delegation, gave the club members an eight-point creed presenting a broad view of agricultural objectives.

We believe, he said, that as far as possible the family-sized farm should be the principal unit in agricultural production of most farm commodities. Second, that the farmer who operates a farm should own it or rent it on a secure basis of tenure. Third, that the soil must be steadily improved. Fourth, that production must continually be made more efficient.

Fifth, that agriculture must receive its share of the national income. Sixth, that to get this fair share of the national income, with justice to all groups, efforts must be made to stabilize farm prices and farm production. Seven, that from all these elements should be developed a distinctive and satisfying farm culture. Finally, that cooperation as a way of life should be developed as rapidly as it can be demonstrated to be genuinely efficient.

Obituary

HARRY A. LARSON

Funeral services for Harry A. Larson, of 222 South College Avenue, were held from his late home on Monday, June 19. He was 49 years of age.

Mr. Larson collapsed while playing golf on the Wilmington Country Club course on Friday and died before reaching the Delaware Hospital. Coroner James F. Hearn said death was caused by a heart attack.

Paired with W. C. Northrop, also of Newark, Mr. Larson was playing in the qualifying round of the Elmer Mitchell memorial invitation tournament when stricken on the seventeenth hole. Mrs. Larson was resting under a tree on the links watching the tourney when her husband collapsed.

A resident of Newark for the past five years, Mr. Larson was a member of the local country club. A Canadian by birth, he was formerly with the Mechanical Rubber Co. of Cleveland, Ohio, but joined the staff of the Electric Hose and Rubber Company in 1917. He was made assistant superintendent in 1925, and was appointed technical superintendent in 1929.

Spending much of his early life in Western Canada, he was an ex-serviceman, having been with the American Army during the World War.

Surviving are his wife; one daughter, Jane, who graduated from the Newark High School this month, and a son, Allen, a student at the local school.

Interment was in Head of Christiana Cemetery.

Will Japs Come?

Bristol Bay, designated on above map, is the center of Alaskan salmon fishing during the one-month season, opening Sunday. For the past ten years, Japanese floating canneries have invaded these American waters and their return this year may precipitate trouble. Certain Soviet Russian waters nearby have been closed to the Jap fishermen.

Library appropriation was increased by $2,000. Traveling expenses for the Levy Court were dropped from $2,500 to $1,000, while the elections appropriation for the new year is $5,000 instead of $65,000 as there will be no general election the coming fiscal year. Interest on bonds and redemption of bonds will be greater this year.

Decreased Receipts Cited

A spokesman for the court, citing decreased receipts, pointed out that unpaid taxes of past years will not forever be coming into the court.

that most of those who owed taxes at the higher tax rates have discharged their bills and are gradually paying off accumulated bills under the lower rates made possible several years ago, and with the prevailing low rate current taxes are being paid in greater amounts, the amount collected one recent year having been about 97 per cent of the total.

The court awarded contract for construction of a macadam road in Tanglewood Lane, Nottingham Manor, White Clay Creek Hundred, to E. E. Downing at his bid of $1,819. The work is to be completed by July 14. There were three other bidders.

Ambulance Bids To Be Asked

It authorized County Engineer John W. Alden to advertise for bids for purchase of an all-steel body county ambulance. A check was received from the state for $17,755.96 in reimbursement for county relief expenditures. Register in Chancery Anthony F. Emory was given permission to buy three new typewriters, and Chief Probation Officer J. Paul Green of the Juvenile Court was authorized to purchase one new typewriter.

Claude B. Voshell, county treasurer and receiver of taxes, reported a county bank balance of $192,692.33 and collection last week of $3,937.87 in current taxes, $1,333.75 in delinquent taxes, and $10,216.31 in miscellaneous receipts.

Refugees Would Fight

Prime Minister Daladier of France has received a copy of a resolution passed by German refugees in Moselle, in the east of France, informing him that in case of war they would enroll in the French Army. The total number of refugees in Moselle province, including women and children, is about 10,000. They came from the Rhineland zone, the Saar and Austria.
