PURNELL HALL OPENED THURSDAY--

REFINISHED BY MR. RODNEY SHARP, '00

SPEECHES BY VARIOUS MEMBERS OF FACULTY, ALUMNI, TRUSTEES, AND STUDENTS

Purnell Hall, as the old library will henceforth be called, was formally opened on Thursday afternoon at 3.30 o'clock. This social center for the students of Delaware College has been entirely refitted and refurbished by Mr. Rodney Sharp, '00, to fill a long felt need. Speeches of acceptance were made by President Mitchell and Dean Smith for the faculty, Chancellor Curtis for the alumni, J. W. Jones, A. Crothers, and J. C. Hastings for the students. Mr. Sharp then explained his purpose in giving this building to the students for their use.

Everyone who looked at the various rooms of the building said that the actual realization of this building exceeded all anticipations in its beauty and in the homelike aspect which it gave to them. The old magazine room of the library has been fitted up as a lounging room for the students, where they can discuss in a friendly way different topics of interest,—and smoke if they choose. The other two rooms will also be used for lounging, but smoking will not be permitted there. In the back room a long table will be installed so that it may be used by commuters in which to eat their lunch.

On the second floor the room directly in front of the stairs will be used as a trophy room. In it all the trophies which the college now has and all that it may acquire will be placed. The front room on the right will be called the "meeting room." Here the meetings of various committees and organizations can be held. The other rooms on this floor will be used entirely for study rooms. The two rooms on the third floor will be occupied by the students who are designated to have charge of the building.

Work Of Extension Committee

The Delaware College Extension Committee will begin this week the annual visitation of the high schools throughout the State. The object of this work is to keep in touch with the high school teachers and principals. Prof. C. A. Short will visit the schools of New Castle county, Dr. R. C. Reed will visit the schools of Kent county and Dr. E. V. Vaughn will visit the schools of Sussex county.

New Courses At Summer School To Aid Prospective Students

New and broader courses of study will be introduced in this year's Summer School at Delaware College. It was found necessary to install the new courses when the requirements for entrance to both Colleges were raised to 14 units. These new courses will be of especial interest to many students for by completing satisfactorily in some of the advanced courses in the Summer School, students who wish to enter either college may make up the units which they lack for entrance.

Anyone who wishes further information should write to the entrance committees of Delaware College or The Women's College of Delaware.

On account of the building operations at Delaware College, it is probable that the recitations of the Summer School will be held at the Women's College. Residence Hall will be used as a dormitory and much of the social life will center about it. Science Hall, which will be used by the students, is modern in every respect and has large classrooms and well equipped laboratories and gymnasium.

Dr. S. C. Mitchell addressed the Young Men's Christian Association at the United States Naval Academy, Annapolis, last Sunday evening.

DELAWARE TENNIS

WIELDERS! WARM UP

MATCHES WITH HAVERFORD PLAYERS IN OPENING GAME AT NEWARK ON MAY 6

As soon as the weather permits, Coach G. E. Dutton of the Delaware College tennis team, will call out candidates. Since everything is booming at the Gold and Blue institution, the students will not refrain from making the racquet game a success. Manager Walls has arranged an attractive schedule.

The season opens with match with Haverford on May 6. If the best quartet is picked to represent the college, it is expected that the fray will be hotly contested. Haverford played the "Big Six" Universities last year and gave them all a good run. Swarthmore will play at Newark on May 10. The Garnet athletes have been recognized as first-class players and will give Delaware just as hard a fight as Haverford will. Western Maryland, Drexel and St. John's are the other teams that will face Delaware on the courts this season.

Delaware should have about the best team in the history of tennis at the college because all of the players from last season will be in the game this year. Pepper, Walls, Sumwalt and Lauritsen are about the best men in the squad, but a number of freshmen who will try for positions, are likely to change the present representation.

George Wilson, Hall Downes, Jay Truss, Willard Humphrey, and Gordon MacMillan are some of the tennis phenoms at the college. Most of these men have appeared on the courts in different parts of the state. Chester Smith, Newton, Bob Wheeler, M. Mitchell, T. Mitchell, and Paul Lovett, are the runners-up of last year.

The schedule for the Varsity team follows:

Saturday, May 6—Haverford College, home.

Wednesday, May 10—Swarthmore College, home.

Friday, May 17—Western Maryland College, home.

Thursday, May 30—Drexel Institute, home.

Saturday, June 3—St. John's College, home.

The sophomore class has started a tennis team for this season. "Bob" Wheeler has been elected manager. He has scheduled the following teams:

Swarthmore Freshmen, Walbrook Country Club, Wilmington Country Club, Forest Park Country Club, Howard Country Club, and Flushing High School. Games will be played on Saturday.

New Review Board Elected

The officers of 1916-1917 Review Board were chosen at an election held last Thursday evening at 7:15 in the committee room of Purnell Hall. The result of the election was as follows:

Editor-in-chief, Harold W. Horsey '17; Business Manager, Leroy B. Steele '17; First Ass't Business Manager, W. Homer Savin '18; Second Ass't Business Manager, Irving Reynolds '18.

The new officers have received the hearty approval of the student body, and with such an excellent staff as a nucleus they are confident that the college paper will be handled in a masterful manner next year.

According to the custom of past years the remainder of the staff will be appointed by the officers. The new staff will take charge of the next issue.

Rehearsals For Shakspearean Pageant Under Way

Rehearsals for the Pageant which will be held on Friday afternoon, April 28, have already begun. This part of the Shakspeare festival will be a community affair in which will participate students of the two colleges, members of the faculty, the children of the public schools of Newark, and ladies and gentlemen of this community and other parts of the State.

If it should rain on Friday afternoon April 28, the Pageant will be held on Saturday morning April 29. The lecture in that case will be transferred from Saturday morning to Friday afternoon.

Captain Johnston To Address Students April 14

Captain Gordon Johnston, U. S. A. will address the students of the College on Friday, April 14, in the College Oratory at 11:45. He will speak of the benefits of summer military training camps with particular reference to the Plattsburg Summer Camp for military training. Lieutenant Herman will preside at the occasion and will present the speaker.

Mr. Hillegas Resigns

Mr. Hillegas expects to resume teaching in the future. His present action is for the purpose of gaining practical knowledge, and thus becoming more proficient in his profession.

Dean Winifred J. Robinson of the Women's College was one of the hostess at a tea given by the College Club of Philadelphia at the Clubhouse on Spruce Street, Monday afternoon. Among the hostesses were Mrs. Joseph Swain of Swarthmore, Mrs. Alba Johnson, and Miss Ella Piezel.

FAREWELL

With this issue of the Review the present board goes out of office. Next week's paper will be largely the production of the new editor and his staff with the help, of course, of some of the members of the retiring board. We, of the editorial staff, wish to say goodbye. We are sorry to go because we realize how much better we might do if we had another year to devote to the paper. The Review of the past two terms has been an experiment,—nothing more; it has been the first attempt and we fear, a very weak first attempt. None of us had ever had any experience in running a weekly paper, and our mistakes were many. But now with the mud washed from our spectacles by the rains of harsh experience and failure, we feel as tho we could come nearer, now, to making the Review something like it should be.

This task we bequeath to the new board. We wish them success. We hope that they will profit by our mis-steps, and plant their feet on firmer ground. Their opportunity is as big as they need wish for. With the renaissance of Delaware College, with the renewed enthusiasm of the state for its own institution; they have a chance to make the Delaware College Review the biggest factor in undergraduate life,—the official organ of the student mind, the register of student heart-beats, and the one great moulder of student opinion.

Thanks To Mr. Johnson

The business staff of the Review, and the business manager personally wishes to thank Mr. E. C. Johnson of the Newark Post and his corps of efficient workers for their co-operation, patience, and interest which they have shown in the Review during this year. Mr. Johnson is to be highly commended for his efforts which he has put forth in our behalf, and in the interest of our publication. He is always ready to help in every way, and the success of the paper is in a large part due to his loyalty and integrity. The Review is always delivered on time, and the paper has an air about it that denotes the highest type of workmanship and real printing.

WANTED!

Little is known of the whereabouts of several of our graduates and in order to complete the college records and bring them up to date it is necessary that the college should get in touch with these men at once.

The college will bring out shortly a revised list of all the graduates since 1870. This list will give the name of the graduate, his class and degrees, the profession he is following, his official position with the firms with which he may be connected, and his address. The list will be made as accurate as it is possible to make it in the short time that remains to obtain this information and verify that which the college already has.

Will you help? You will be conferring a favor on the college if you will forward to Dean E. L. Smith information that you may have at hand in regard to the graduates mentioned below, even if it is only a suggestion—so that the college may get in touch with these men. Kindly send in this information immediately as it has been already determined that this list is to be published as a college bulletin and must be ready for distribution before Commencement.

To Publish Interesting Bulletin

A pamphlet setting forth the advantages of the various Departments of instruction at Delaware College has been prepared after labor on the part of Prof. Z. H. Srager and is now at press. In this pamphlet a young man who expects to enter college will find much definite information regarding every branch of instruction, and will probably help him to decide upon his vocation. The booklet, although of interest to all, will be especially helpful to men who are thinking of entering Delaware.

Dr. Mitchell was recently entertained at the home of Mr. John Martin '76, who has been a paymaster in the Navy for nearly 40 years. Through his travels the world over, Mr. Martin has carried a loyal spirit for and a lively interest in all that pertains to the welfare of Delaware College.

CAMPUS NOTES

Dr. E. V. Vaughn has accepted an invitation to give the commencement address before the public schools at Nottingham, Pennsylvania, on the evening of May the third.

Among those present at the reception given by Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Whittingham last Saturday on the occasion of their silver wedding anniversary were Professor and Mrs. Fredric H. Robinson, who were also present at the wedding celebration twenty-five years ago. Others of the guests were Prof. and Mrs. Elisha Conover, Prof. and Mrs. George E. Dutton, Prof. and Mrs. C. O. Houghten, Dr. George A. Harter, Dr. W. O. Sypherd, Miss Robinson, Prof. and Mrs. C. L. Penny, Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Watson, Prof. and Mrs. Harry Hayward, Dean and Mrs. E. Mrs. Harold Tiffany entertained a thimble party last Friday in honor of her guest, Miss Beardsley, of New York.

Mr. E. N. Vallandigham, '73, wrote a letter to the Newark Post which appeared in that paper on April 5, the gist of which was an appeal to all citizens of Newark to keep up the appearance of the town.

Charles W. Bush, '03 was elected to succeed David J. Reinhardt, resigned, as President of Wilmington S. P. C. A.

A bulletin on "Soil Stain, or Scurf of the Sweet Potato" by J. J. Taubenhause, has been issued by the United States Department of Agriculture. This pamphlet is a reprint from the Journal of Agricultural Research which is also published by the U. S. Government.

Governor Charles R. Miller, chairman of the committee on Finance, has called a meeting of Prof. Srager, at the request of the committee on the Infirmary with Mr. E. B. Frazer as chairman, is drawing up blue prints of the interior of the Stoll property with a view to converting it into an infirmary. The house seems splendidly situated for this purpose.

The following alumni have recently been visitors of the college, Joseph Truxton, '04, A. S. Houghlin '13, A. K. Mearns '15 and C. R. Lind '11.

Big Booster Meeting Held Thursday Night

The biggest student meeting of the year gathered in the chapel at 7:30 p. m. last Thursday night. This meeting which was the first one held under the supervision of the new student government association, was a rousing success. "Alec" Crothers took charge of the meeting, as President of the Association. He directed the meeting with great skill. In an informal manner he called upon many speakers who rose with ready response to the occasion. The floor was then thrown open for general discussion. Mr. H. C. Bounds, '16, spoke on the growth of the college on the duty of the men to their Alma Mater. E. William Martin '16, made a splendid address on the Honor System. He expressed the desire that his class should go down as being the leaders in the organization of the Honor System at Delaware College. His class would not be here to enjoy all the prosperity that is coming to Delaware, he said, and they would return often to see the old campus. He hoped that the installation of the Honor System might be looked upon as at least one of their contributions to the college.

Morris R. Mitchell '18 spoke on the organization and workings of the Honor System at the University of South Carolina and University of Virginia, both of which colleges he attended for one year. He expressed confidence that the fellows could carry out the system successfully if they wished and stated his desire that it should soon be installed.

"Johnny" Jones '16 remarked upon the new spirit of boosting which had replaced the old one of knocking at Delaware College. He urged every man to enter into some activity and suggested the organization of a Dramatic Society and glee club. J. C. Hastings '17, spoke on the care that the students should take of the new building, Purnell Hall. The present and newly completed building is an experiment, he said, and the manner in which the permanent Y. M. C. A. will be fitted up, will depend much upon the care we take of this building.

The spirit of every body present reminded one of the "pep" shown

Then, the ice cream and cake and "smokes" kept everybody cheerful, and helped the students in trying out their lusty voices for the coming season of baseball and track. ### TRACK MEN MAKING FAST TIME IN TRIALS

Coach Keyes Working Hard With Athletes

With the exception of last Saturday, the Delaware College track and field candidates got away with the best out-of-door week of the year. Under the supervision of Coach Keyes, the squad was sent through severe practice. The men also got individual instructions as to their faults and cures for their defects.

Without a doubt this year has been the first season that the Blue and Gold cinder performers have received any kind of special attention. The college by some form of coincidence was given the opportunity of selecting Keyes as its initial coach on the stony roads. This leader is recorded as being the best living hurdler of today. His performance against Mike Kelly, the record holder for the sticks, was surprising last year at the Penn relays.

Through Keyes' experience of the hurdle game, he will have Delaware College among the leading colleges and universities in this sport. He has the best of nucleus to work with. "Dave" Crockett, the college's record holder, for the 120 and 220 low hurdles, is doing wonderful work this year. He is only a sophomore and by the time he is a senior, great results are expected of him. Dave's best performance is in the 120 yard low hurdles. His record time is 17 seconds. He is expected to lower this time at least by a second this season. "Dave" will be one of Delaware's representatives in the century dash. George Smith, who is manager and 10 second man at the college, will not run because of his physical condition. Crockett is expected to fill the gap in the 100 yard dash.

In the hurdles Keyes has found Smart, a clever football player, to give Crockett a hard run. Smart's performance last week was nothing short of remarkable. He has a good long stride and takes the timber in first-class style. "Heine" Marston, a freshman and former star at Wilmington High School, has developed into a first-class timber-topper. He has been receiving special attention and this year he will have the opportunity to demonstrate some of his form.

Gilbert Craig, a former Wilmington High School star, is showing up so well that he will undoubtedly be counted on as a winner in the contests this season. He has been clipping the 100 and 220 yard dashes off in fast time and in a short time he will likely lower the college's record in the furlong event. Steele and Marshall, the stars of last year's team, are in old time form. Marshall is about the best all-around man in the college. Steele is about the fastest man in the quarter and is a good hurdler.

Captain Crothers, who never met defeat in the mile run last year, will be back in his old time Aker are working hard for the short distances while Holland is out for the relays and George Wilson for the hurdles.

Mike Plam and Fitzpatrick, freshmen from New York, are showing up in gilt-edge form, and they will in all probability, establish records in the 440-yard dash. Jimmy Heinel is doing first-class work in the hundred and Beauchamp is the only candidate that is trying to get himself in shape for the two-mile run.

In the field events Delaware will be fairly represented. George Smith, Marshall, Bratton, and Hutton contributed points to the team last year, while Marshall and Smith broke records. Bratton will be given a hard fight by Weldin, a freshman and former Friends School star. He can put the twelve pounds about 42 feet and the sixteen pound shot a fairly good distance. Smart has been showing up well. Marconetti has been out. He is green at the game, but from his work he looks good. Catts will high jump and pole vault. He is a good man in each event. Hutton will confine his practice to the high jump.

First call for the candidates' field events will start after the field is in shape. On account of the poor condition of the field the initial outdoor practice will probably not start until Wednesday. He is expected to lower his record this year because he will be pushed by the new material that is reporting for practice in this event.
