NOTABLE SPEAKERS AT INTERSTATE CONF.

New Officers Elected During Business Meeting—Bishop
McDowell Preached

The Interstate Student Conference held at the University last week included several features worthy of note. The banquet in Old College on Saturday which was attended by over a hundred delegates and invited guests, was the best attended function. Thomas R. Marsh, of Johns Hopkins University, was the toastmaster. Five minute talks by several delegates added a great deal of interest to the banquet.

The conference was held under the auspices of the Student Volunteer movement. Delegates representing twenty-two colleges and institutions attended the meetings in Wolf Hall.

At these meetings messages from foreign countries were delivered by various speakers. The principal address was made by Dr. Walter H. Judd of the University of Nebraska. Other talks were given by Dr. C. S. Kin of Korea and of Johns Hopkins, Dr. Y. Y. Ying of China and of Johns Hopkins, and Miss Mabel Easton of Holyoke College and missionary to Congo.

Group conferences and forums were held at which the discussions were concerning the various types of Christian service.

At the business meeting, the following officers were elected for the coming year:

President, Julian P. Price, of Johns Hopkins Medical School; Vice-President, LeRoy Dudrow, of Blue Ridge College; Secretary, Miss Dorothy Butler, of Goucher College; Treasurer, I. M. Dinkle, of Western Maryland College; Missionary Educational Secretary, Miss Dorothy

Delegates To Druid Convention Arrived At Delaware Today

The visiting Druid delegates arrived in Newark this morning on the 11.29. After registering at the Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity House they were conducted about the campus and through the different buildings and each taken to the fraternity house to which he had been assigned for lodgings.

The delegates were guests at the Sigma Phi Epsilon tea this afternoon and they will attend the annual formal dance of that fraternity this evening in Old College Hall.

There will be a business meeting of the Druids tomorrow at Kells. Tomorrow night the Delaware Druids are giving an informal dance, open to the entire Student Body, in honor of their guests. An automobile trip to Longwood is part of Sunday's schedule for the visiting delegates.

CHEATING IS RATED FIRST AND TWO PLACES AHEAD OF SEX IRREGULARITY IN VICE LIST

Cheating is listed as the greatest vice and two ahead of "sex irregularity," by the girls of Goucher College in their replies to a questionnaire sent out by Dr. A. P. Brogen, professor of philosophy, University of Texas, in what he terms a scientific test for determining present-day moral standards.

The Goucher students who took the test in 1924 placed sex irregularity first. The present class gave the following rating: Cheating, stealing, sex irregularity, lying, gambling, drinking, idleness, gossip, selfishness, vulgar talk, extravagance, snobbishness, swearing, smoking, Sabbath-breaking and dancing.

Day Dreams Hinder

Statistics which have been compiled at McGill University, in Montreal, show that day dreams are the chief cause of distraction in the library. The sources of abstraction were: day dreams, 225; women entering or moving about, 96; talking neighbors, 87; the library clock, 24; and howling canines, 3.

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS TO STUDY FOLK SONGS

Arrangements Being Made to Have a Talk on the Poet
Sully Prudhomme

The program of the next meeting of Le Cercle Français will have to do almost entirely with music. Old French patriotic and romantic songs will be sung by the group, and it is planned also to study lightly the adjustment of a French pronunciation to musical rhythm.

In view of the fact that the recent talk by Monsieur Chinard was so thoroughly enjoyed by the members of the two Cercles Français, arrangements are being made to have a former

Conditions In Russia Feature of Last Forum

The Forum met for the first time this semester on Thursday, February 12. Dr. Ryden let the meeting and brought several large posters that he had been able to secure while he was in Russia. The posters were printed in bright colors and were pictures telling simple stories so that the uneducated peasants of the country might understand them. Dr. Ryden made his explanation of them extremely interesting and also described conditions as he had found them in Russia shortly after the war.

Eloise Rodney was hostess for the meeting and Marian Sharpless poured the tea.

The next meeting of the Forum will be at four o'clock on Wednesday, February 25. Miss Wilcox will be in charge and will talk on the Opera.

Senior Ags To Visit The Farm Loan Bank

The Senior "Ags" have been promised a trip to Baltimore soon to visit the Federal Farm Loan Bank. Professor Schuster is making the trip with the club. The bank is a tremendously large one, having loaned out fifty-four million dollars to farmers since its establishment. It boasts of doing $400,000 worth of business daily. It is expected that the bank officials will entertain the Ag Club at luncheon on that day in Baltimore.

MANNIX CHAIRMAN LIBRARY COMMITTEE

Drive To Collect Overdue
Pledges Will Start
February 26

Active work on the campaign which is to be launched in the near future to secure unpaid pledges from the upperclassmen and to obtain new pledges from the underclassmen for the New Memorial Library has been started.

The first meeting of the committee which has been selected to conduct the work of the drive was held on Tuesday night last in the Lounge Room. James Mannix was appointed chairman of the committee. The committee, which is made up of several representatives from each of the classes, was first given an outline of its work and duties by John Leach. Dr. Sypherd then went somewhat more in detail and offered some suggestions from his personal ideas. Various members of the upperclasses gave their opinions as to the cause of the delinquency on behalf of the Seniors and Juniors to meet their obligations. Several suggestions were offered from which a tentative plan of procedure might be formulated. Similar action was taken relative to the problem in regard to the underclassmen.

Chairman Mannix will appoint the various committees which will operate within the general committee, and the announcement of such committees will be made in the next few days. The drive, according to the present plans, will be actually begun on Thursday, February 26. At 12:30 noon on this day in the Commons the student body will be addressed by the Chairman of the Committee, by Mr. A. G. Wilkinson, and by Mr. Everett C. Johnson.

Chi Rho Round Table

A very interesting subject was the topic of discussion at a meeting of the Chi Rho Round Table, Tuesday evening, February 17. Doctor F. M. K. Foster, always sought because of his optimistic philosophy of life, gave an informal talk on the Book of Genesis.

After his sketch of this matter of the Creation, there ensued a lively discussion on general religion. What right have we to believe that there is a Heaven, a Hell, or a God? It is merely a case of belief.

The meeting was attended by about fifty students.

Heim To Broadcast

Professor R. W. Heim, State Director of Vocational Education, will deliver a short address in which he will present a general outline of the Vocational Plan in Delaware, over the radio from Station WIP, Gimble Brothers in Philadelphia, on Tuesday evening, March 3, at 6:35 p. m.

Courtship of Miles Standish
To Be Under the Auspices of Year Book Editors

The Editors of the Women's College Year Book have launched their first active campaign for raising money for the year book. This campaign is taking the form of a motion picture benefit performance which will be given in the Opera House on Friday evening, February 20. The title picture is one of the leading pictures of the year, "The Courtship of Miles Standish," with Charles Ray. Also

Pres. Hulihan Taken To Hospital For Treatment

Dr. Walter Hulihan, president of the University of Delaware, suffered a severe gall stone attack last Thursday a week. He has been in one of the Wilmington hospitals, but was removed Wednesday to Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore.

About two years ago, Dr. Hulihan suffered a similar attack and underwent an operation in Johns Hopkins Hospital. Efforts are being made to avoid an operation this time, if possible.

As the University head's condition failed to improve following his attack, he was taken to a Wilmington hospital by Dr. Raymond Downes, Saturday morning. When he reached the hospital his condition was somewhat improved.

X-Ray photographs were taken at the hospital, and he was kept there for treatment and observation.

Blue Hen To Be Issued By May 1, Says Rinard

It is hoped that this year's edition of the Blue Hen will be out by May 1. Paul Rinard, editor-in-chief, has promised it to the University at that date. Patterson and White, a Philadelphia concern, has been awarded the contract. The book will have a stiff bound back, a border of buff or gold, and content matter of black. The lettering will be in stamped embossed gold.

THREE STUDENT TOURS OF EUROPE PLANNED BY UNITED STATES LINES

Three student tours of Europe have been announced by the United States Lines. In making the announcement the line said:

FOOTLIGHTS CLUB TO TOUR THE STATE

Will Give Revue In Playhouse
Followed by Second Dance of City Slicker Club

The members of the Footlights Club will present the play "The Dover Road," by A. A. Milne, in Wolf Hall on April 2, 1925. Rehearsals will start Tuesday, March 3, and two casts will compete for the honors. James Grant, '26, has been named Business Manager, and Roger Taylor, '26, has been selected Stage Manager for the production. The staging of the comedy will be under the direction of Professor E. C. Van Keuren. After the performance in Newark, the production may go on a tour.

Immediately after this production, the Footlights Club will begin to formulate plans for their latest revue which, from all present indications, will see a week on the road. One engagement will be a showing at the Playhouse in Wilmington. Following the performance that night the "City Slickers" will give their second dance of the year. The tour of Kent and Sussex Counties will be held during the Easter vacation, while the Wilmington engagement will come the following week.

The production of "The Dover Road" will, do doubt, surpass all other dramatic undertakings of the club; and if it is appreciated, there will be an influx of original one-act plays which will be presented in Wolf Hall.

Verdict In Jacobson's Case Due to Misinformation; May Be Changed

A joint meeting of the Scholarship and Discipline Committee and a committee representing the student body, the senior class, and the basketball team threw a new light upon the much discussed case of Louis Jacobson who last week was removed from the basketball squad by order of the committee representing the Faculty.

It seems that there was some misunderstanding concerning Jacobson's case. Jacobson did not fully explain his side of the case. He stated briefly his case, but did not amplify his argument with sufficient detail to make it entirely clear to the Faculty. Consequently, the outstanding impression that he gave the Committee was that his participation in athletics led to his being behind in his work. On the face of such a belief the thing to do was to give up his athletic pursuits in preference to his academic requisites. Although Jacobson was back in his work at this time, it was not because of his being currently behind in his studies, but rather because of an unfortunate culthe low rates offered."

The first tour, which will leave New York on the Leviathan on July 4, will be in charge of Dr. Frank Graham, professor of economics at Princeton.

The second will be conducted by Professor Robert Herling, of Princeton.

The third tour will be an independent one, details of which will be announced.

UNIVERSITY OF DELAWARE REVIEW
NEWARK DELAWARE

The University of Delaware Review is a newspaper, published on Fridays during the College year by the students of the University of Delaware, in which is presented the campus news.

Whereas, the University of Delaware Review is not a literary publication, nevertheless occasional attempts at literature will appear in its columns.

The editorial policy will change a trifle each year, as a new editor takes charge of the paper, but the basis of each editor's policy must always be to present the truth and to aid in the cultural expansion of the University.

Subscription $2.00 per year. Single Copies 10 cents.

Entered at the Newark, Delaware, Post Office as Second-Class Matter.

Holding an office and having an office hold one are two distinctly dissimilar affairs.

That a man disapprove of Delaware is not sufficient; for then he will merely grumble or remove to another college. Nor, surely, is it sufficient that a man approve of Delaware; for in that case it will only remain as it now is.

The only solution is for someone to love Delaware.

If there came one who loved Delaware, then Delaware would become a place of silver spires and golden domes.

NOTED LECTURERS
COMING TO NEWARK

Official announcement has been made of the following lectures to be given to University students at Wolf Hall, at 11 a. m. on the dates indicated.

FRATERNITY NOTES

Phi Kappa Tau Fraternity
Inspected by Domain
Chief Boyer

Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity is preparing for its annual formal dance which will be held tonight in Old College. A tea preceded the dance in the chapter house this afternoon in honor of the second anniversary of the opening of its new house.

Dean Dutton and Theodore R. Dantz attended the funeral of Frank Barton Evans. Evans was graduated from University of Delaware in the class of '05 with a Bachelor of Arts degree. After being graduated from Delaware, he attended the Baltimore Law School. Although he prepared to practice law, he never did. He was a member of Kappa Alpha Fraternity.

Phi Kappa Tau's past week-end was a busy one. M. J. Boyer, Domain Chief, gave the local chapter its initial inspection and left Sunday afternoon pleased with the result of his visit of inspection. Dr. Ryden helped entertain Mr. Boyer during his visit to Newark. "Billy" Baumgart, '22, Harold Cliff, '24, and Steve McClure, '24, were also week-end visitors.

The second of the discussions of the Sermon on the Mount took place on Wednesday night, February 18. These discussions are led by Professor Van Keuren, and have proved of great interest to the Women's College.

A new series of fire drills are being inaugurated in the Women's College. The idea is to have these drills at all hours in the day as well as at night, to accustom the girls to getting out of the buildings quickly and orderly. The first drill took place Wednesday evening in the dining room. The drill was very successful, the dining room was emptied without confusion in two or three minutes.

Mrs. James W. Hahn, of Jarrettsville, Maryland, formerly Miss Alice L. Roop of the class of 1920, spoke to the Press Club and members of the Freshman class on "Journalism as a Profession," yesterday morning. This talk was one of the weekly Orientation Series required by Freshmen. Mrs. Hahn for sometime was connected with the "Every Evening" in Wilmington.

Catherine Dougherty, '25, has resigned her office as President of the Press Club. The nominees for this office are Margaret Touhey and Helen Lucas.

Hairpins were used seven thousand years ago. They have been excavated at Kish by the Field Museum-Oxford University Mesopotamian expedition. Among other things found were jewels of exquisite ancient workmanship, finely engraved cylinder seals of inestimable historic value, glazed pottery and inlay work of lapis lazuli and silver.—Dearborn Independent.

The University of Chicago Press announces "The Story of the University of Chicago," by Dr. Thomas W. Goodspeed. Dr. Goodspeed was a student in the old University of Chicago and has been Secretary of the Board of Trustees of the new university for more than twenty years.

To the Princeton student writing the best essay on "Princeton's greatest need," will be given the opportunity to tour Europe free next summer. The tour is offered by the United States Lines Student Tours, and its value is $586. The route suggested includes Paris, Geneva, Rome, Florence, Venice and London. The winner of the competition may map out any tour he wishes however, provided it does not exceed $586.

Professor J. Arthur Thomson of the University of Aberdeen, author of the "Outline of Science," has written a book on "Science and Religion," which Charles Scribner's Sons will publish in March. Professor Thomson maintains that modern scientific discovery cannot be regarded as antithetic to religious interpretation, and on doubt he is able to prove it to the complete satisfaction of those who do not believe otherwise.

A cash prize of $50 has been offered for the best original poem written by an undergraduate of Amherst College. The prize, which is the gift of Collin Armstrong of the class of 1877, will be awarded in June. Charles Wharton Stork, Harold T. Pulsifer and Edwin Markham will be the judges.

In after life, the result of education will not be reckoned in the number of A's and B's obtained; but, rather, they will be reckoned in the breadth and culture and foresight of the individual mind.—Nonentity.

On Friday night, February 2, 1910, the students of Delaware College held a "night shirt" parade in celebration of the end of the Mid-year Examinations.

TASTE IN LITERATURE VARIES

"Modern Sophisticates" Are Popular

What does the undergraduate read? From Columbia, Ohio State University, Bryn Mawr and Harvard come statistical reports on the mental extra-curricular pubulum of the college man and woman.

Columbia University—"with in a few hundred feet of the great library which shelters a world famous collection of 800,000 volumes under a tower of masonry," Spectator discovered that a campus subway news-dealer disposes of more than 600 copies of each issue of True Story, while he finds it unprofitable to keep a single copy of the Bookman. While 150 people walk out of a certain book store near the campus, with Snappy Stores, Adventure, etc., but 75 purchase "intellectual" magazines. It is interesting to note that among the latter class the "American Mercury" ranks first, two times ahead of publications similar to the Dial, and the Atlantic Monthly comes second.

Ohio State University—Among the magazines: the lightest and shortest stories are most popular with students. Movie magazines, humorous publications, and fashion papers have good sale. Among the books: readers of Gene Stratton Porter, Rex Beach and Zane Grey dwindling. Students are now asking for Percy Marks, author of "The Plastic Age," and Homer Croy's "West of the Water Tower." Two booksellers report that two thirds of the mystery stories sold, are bought by professors.

Bryn Mawr—Editors of College News once set about gathering statistics on what the college girls read. The results show an extraordinary catholicity of taste. One library consisted simply of Plato, Jurgen

With Cap and Pipe

LEAN and tanned from work in the open, pipe in mouth, cap pulled well down—that's the erecting engineer, as pictured in the magazines, and generally as found on the job. In an organization like Westinghouse he occupies a pivotal place, being responsible for the erection of equipment in the field.

Take him in the electrification of the Chilean State Railway, for example—one of the outstanding electrical projects of recent years. It included not merely the electrification of 134 miles of steam lines, but also power and sub-station equipment to convert water power from the Andes Mountains into electric current.

In 1922 the first shipment of sub-station equipment departed—but ahead of it had already departed a force of Westinghouse erection engineers. They went to a country that was a stranger to railroad electrical operation, and to the installation of large electrical equipment. In the 134 miles of steam railway to be electrified they encountered every kind of topographical and engineering condition—curves, grades as steep as 2 1/4 per cent and as long as 12 miles, bridges extending to 440 feet, six tunnels, the longest 1,600 feet.

Today, two years later, these same erection engineers are returning—returning from a Chile, much of whose railway traffic is moved by its water falls; they are returning and promptly departing again on still other missions of electrical improvement, at home and abroad.

This advertisement is sixth in a vocational series, outlining the fields for engineering achievement in the Westinghouse organization. A copy of the entire series will be sent to anyone requesting it.

ACHIEVEMENT & OPPORTUNITY

THE CLASS OF 1858 TO BE REPRESENTED AT ALUMNI BANQUET

are expected to attend, representing Delaware's grads as far back as 1858 and up to 1924. The class of '58 will be represented by Mr. John H. Grohe. The dinner will mark the fiftieth anniversary of the class of '75, which will be represented by Thomas Davis and Mr. George H. Morgan. Mr. Morgan is the Sunday editor of the Philadelphia Record, and will be remembered as principal speaker at THE REVIEW banquet last May.

Mr. Alexander J. Taylor, '93, president of the Association, will preside at the dinner. Mr. Taylor was in charge of the construction of the University Library. Rev. Charles W. Clash, '06, of Emanuel P. E. Church, Wilmington, will act as toastmaster.

Five-minute talks will be delivered by ten members of the faculty about the aims, the adverse and encouraging conditions, and the needs of their respective departments. Mr. Robert B. Wolf, '96, prominent lecturer and business man of New York City, will give a fifteen-minute talk on "What Ought the Alumni to do to Help the Academic Side of College Life." While at Delaware "Bob" was especially prominent in athletics and scholarship. He is the son of Dr. Theodore R. Wolf, once Professor of Chemistry at Delaware, and in whose honor Wolf Hall received its name.

This will be a real alumni dinner for Delaware alumni. The only invited guests, in addition to the Professors, will be President Henry B. Thompson, of the Board of Trustees, President Hullahen, Dr. G. A. Harter, Deans G. E. Dutton, C. A. McCue, and Van G. Smith, Business Administrator A. G. Wilkinson, and the Seniors of Delaware College.

The dinner will serve to strengthen the interest of the alumni in their Alma Mater, to renew pleasant associations of college days, and acquaint them with the problems that are facing the University at present. It will be by far the most successful and really representative dinner ever given under the auspices of the Alumni Association. The committee in charge of arrangements is composed of: Dr. W. O. Sypherd, '96, chairman; Alexander J. Taylor, '93; C. W. Clash, '06; and T. R. Dantz, '22.

The Alumni Association has taken a new lease on life and now numbers eleven hundred members, scattered all over the world. Its quarterly publication, "The Delaware Bulletin" keeps them in touch with what is going on at the University; and the Alumni Directory, which is in course of preparation, keeps them in touch with each other.

Plans are being made for a monster reunion and rally to be held on June sixth, which will be featured by a costume parade, a ball game, and various amusements.

The officers of the Alumni Association are A. J. Taylor, president; J. H. Mitchell, vice-president; and G. E. Dutton, secretary and treasurer.

Dean Robinson and Prof. Allen To Attend National Meetings

Professor Rena Allen of the Department of Education of the Women's College will attend the meetings of the National Education Association, Division of Superintendence, to be held in Cincinnati, February 23 to 25. She will present the method of practice teaching now in effect at the Women's College and will also speak at the luncheon of the National Safety Council.

Dean Winifred J. Robinson will attend the conference of the Association of Deans of Women's Colleges and the meetings of the National Education Association to be held in Cincinnati, February 23 to 26.

At the Press Club meeting on Thursday candidates for members from the Freshman class were discussed.

A 1924 publication, "Contemporary Short Stories," selected by Kenneth Allan Robinson, is being used in E 10 this term.

In his preface, Professor Robinson pronounces against the "half-digested terminology" of the pedants. He seeks ultimate reality as the artist reveals it in "the portrayal of man's developing consciousness of himself among his contacts with life."

For persons with a delicate sense of the humorous, we recommend "Novelist or Bond Salesman" by W. Somerset Maugham.

It's in the February "Bookman."

I only wish to live my life, and find time in order to prepare for his tests. Jacobson has never currently been lax in work, whether taking part in athletics, or not. During the course of the college year he does both creditably.

However, now that the point of view of the students has been made clear in a discussion between the student representatives and the faculty, and all misleading and confusing ideas straightened out, it is hoped that Jacobson will be reinstated. The decision on the first occasion can, perhaps, be justified by looking at the faculty point of view, befogged by insufficient information and misleading data. It is believed, now that the affair has been discussed and new light cast on the matter, that the faculty representatives will reconsider their verdict.
