Mildred Ludwig, Correspondent
Phone: Newark 8-8496

Several members of the Town and Country Home Demonstration Club recently entertained a group of children at the Governor Bacon Health Center featuring Connie Lillard's tap dance, followed by games and refreshments. Six club members plan to attend State Day, which will be held at the Methodist Church (not at the Grange Hall as in former years) on May 3. Plans were made for a card party in Glasgow, on April 23.

Seven children were baptized last Sunday at the Glasgow M.E. Church, including Sue, James, and John Scott, and the children of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Duling and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Scott.

Miss Loretta McKinney of Chesapeake City was welcomed into the church and a program included recitations by Sandra Leasure, Sally Jordan, T. C. Foltz, Patsy Gray, Donny and Patsy Laws, and readings by Mary Lou Conner, Helen Laws and Beverly Ann Foltz.

A trip to Longwood on May 10 is planned by the Pleasant Valley Home Demonstration Club.

Egg Hunters
Over 50 children and 25 parents and teachers participated in the egg hunt last Saturday on the Pen-cader Church green. The Sunday school goal of 100 pupils was reached Easter Day.

Miss Alberta Johnson is on a five-week tour of the country to the West Coast, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lynch and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stafford.

Many local families enjoyed the fine weekend weather to view floral displays at Longwood Gardens and tree blossoms in Washington and nearby Virginia.

The vegetable soup sale planned for this Saturday by the Salem Church social has been postponed. The group meets this evening at the home of Mrs. David McMullen on Iron Hill.

A talk on home beautification by extension horticulturist Bob Stevens is scheduled for the Green Meadows 4-H club meeting on April 15. Ray Johnson of Old Post Road will be host.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Houle of Cooch's Bridge entertained visitors Sunday with an outdoor supper. Guests included Mr. Jewell and sons, Kip, Ricky, Skippy, and daughter Gail; Mr. and Mrs. Tony Leveque, of Fairfax, and Alfred Esperance of Montreal, Canada.

Sire Evaluation Studies Planned For Dairy Herds

A sire study and evaluation program will soon be started at the University of Delaware, according to Delmar Young, extension dairyman. This program will include analyzing and evaluating the pedigrees of young sires used in dairy herds. It will also provide information as to where young sires may be secured which will increase chances for improving the production in the herds.

Group Of Newark Women Aid Drive For College Fund

Mrs. C. M. Cooper Urges Support Of United Negro College Assistance Fund

A group of Newark women interested in promoting the annual drive for the United Negro College Fund met recently to plan the local campaign at the home of Mrs. Charles M. Cooper.

Meeting with Mrs. Cooper were Mrs. E. Vernon Lewis, Mrs. S. W. Smith, Mrs. Earl Parker Hanson, Mrs. Francis Owen, Mrs. John Munroe, and Mrs. Wm. B. Delong.

Since 1944, 31 accredited and privately supported negro colleges have graduated 40,000 students, and are presently training some 23,000 more, Mrs. Cooper reports.

The United Negro College Fund Drive is conducted to raise 10 percent of the necessary operational expense for the institutions concerned—the schools provide the major share.

In answer to the question that may arise in the minds of former contributors to this fund, now that state universities are to be available for all, Mrs. Cooper states:

1. Scholarship aid is needed for many Negro students who come from low income families and cannot afford the expense involved with attending a state university.

2. The average Negro high school graduate cannot meet the state university scholastic requirement because of his inferior fundamental education.

3. Enrollment in all colleges is expected to at least double within the next 10 years, and there will be particular need for the privately supported Negro college.

"With the help from other Americans," Mrs. Cooper concludes, "the 31 colleges participating in the United Negro College Fund Drive

Community School Course To Be Offered At Rehoboth

A special feature of the University of Delaware's extension course offerings at Rehoboth Beach this summer will be the course, "Community School," to be taught by Dr. T. M. Stinnett, executive secretary of the National Commission on Teacher Education and Professional Standards.

Registration for this course, a part of the August 1-19 extension program in Rehoboth High School, will be held on the first day of the class in the high school cafeteria.

Plant Imports To Change Farm Scene, Experts Say

Imported plants now being tested by USDA scientists may eventually change the farm scene in many parts of the country. Brought in by trained plant explorers, plants with such strange-sounding names as rami and kenaf, for example, give promise of providing strong fibers for rope and other special uses. Timber bamboo offers possibilities for paper pulp and structural timber, and a tropical yam called dioscorea may become a good source of cortisone-like drugs.

A quarter of a million foreign plants have been introduced into the United States since the year 1898 when the U.S. Department of Agriculture started to keep a record of the newcomers, according to Dr. Byron T. Shaw, administrator of the department's agricultural research service.

Introduction of new plants actually began very early in our history. In 1627, President John Quincy Adams made the search official by asking all American consuls to send rare plants and seed to Washington for distribution to interested growers.

will continue their important contribution to the progress of 16,000,000 Negro citizens, and to the progress of the nation."

Bond Issue

The cost of the Capitol Trail sewer system serving the Lumbrook area was greatly underestimated at $18,900 by the consulting engineering firm of Whitman-Requardt, employed by the City of Newark. Heavy rock excavation was encountered and construction costs amounted to $106,300, less $43,000 in assessments, for a net cost of $63,300.

The estimated cost of $32,000 in the original bond issue for construction of the Wilson Tract sewer line to serve the new senior high school, is yet to be charged, and but $1,300 for design work has been paid.

A balance of $56,979.03 is reported as of March 1, 1955, in the sinking fund and county sewer fund.

A balance of $35,416.10 on March 1, 1954 was augmented by $47,670.27 in 1954 sewer charges, and $27,864.56 by one-third of the water charges for the same period, for a total of $110,950.93 as of March 1 of the current year.

Total expenditures of $56,979.03 over the same period include $10,625 in interest on the bond issue; $18,000 as the city share of the sewer main up White Clay Creek; $7,814.37 in sewer service payments to the county for 1953 (paid in 1954) and $17,532.53 for county sewer service in 1954.

Council has set aside the revenue from sewer service charges and one third of the water charges to pay

Barwick Advises On Care Of Seedlings, Humidity

Damping-off, most destructive disease of seedlings, can spread rapidly through the plant bed under warm moist conditions. Overwatering under cloudy or humid conditions encourages the disease.

Asst. County Agent Ralph Barwick states that to prevent losses from damping-off, seed should be treated with fungicides such as thiram or captan before planting, and that the soil should be steam sterilized.

If heat sterilization of soil is not possible, Mr. Barwick suggests seed treatment plus drenches with ferbam at 2½ tablespoons per gallon. Apply drenches when the seed is planted and after the plants are up, and again if damping off appears.

The interest due on the original bond issue; principal payments of $20,000 annually beginning this year; and payments due the county for sewage discharged into their interceptor sewer.

What a glorious Easter weekend, with perfect weather for family outings, inspiring sunrise services, and just right for joining the services attending regular church services later in the day!

Spring-time is so breath-takingly beautiful! Seems this year that all the spring bulbs timed their blossoming with Easter in mind. The world was suddenly transformed with golden forsythia, nodding daffodils, graceful Japanese cherry trees and rows of fragrant hyacinths.

Were you one of those brave enough to arise before daybreak last Sunday? If so, you will agree that it was a memorable experience to stand on top of the hill with a group of fellow worshippers, singing "Christ the Lord Is Risen Today," while the sun slowly appeared on the horizon.

A little later, on the drive home, there was an added treat, when a large flock of Canada Geese flew low enough for us to note the distinctive coloration and hear the peculiar honking. There were at least 60 birds in the long, perfectly-formed V.

With all the beauty in nature around us it is disheartening to note the large number of grass and brush fires in this area. The Aetna Hose Hook and Ladder Company of Newark responded to a call to extinguish a brush fire off Possum Park Road, shortly after noon last Sunday.

The service rendered so promptly and efficiently by the firemen cannot be praised too highly. The big question is, what can be done to prevent such fires from starting, and thus avoid such unnecessary property damage and waste of time and energy on the part of volunteer workers.

Both choirs sang for the 11 a.m. service.

Bishop.

Following dessert at the Manse, Richard Clifford will lead the devotions. Grace Miller, class president, is in charge of the arrangements.

The April meeting of the Evening Circle will be held at church next Tuesday at 8 p.m. and Mrs. David Anderson, Jr., is arranging to show a film on Pakistan. Members of the Afternoon Circle will be guests.

All women of the church are urged to attend the spring Presbyterial meeting at the Lower Brandywine Presbyterian Church on Tuesday, April 26, starting at 10 a.m. Luncheon reservations should be turned in to Mrs. Bishop not later than next Sunday.

The regular quarterly meeting of the young adult class taught by Mrs. Bishop will be held on Tuesday, April 26, at 8 p.m. The executive committee of the class will meet at the church on Monday, April 18, at 6:30 p.m. and Grover Hale, president, will welcome suggestions from class members.

Barwick Advises On Care In Suspected Rabid Cases

If bitten by an animal suspected of having rabies, Ass't County Agent Ralph Barwick advises to first wash the bite wound thoroughly with soap and water, and then consult your physician or the health department immediately for treatment and advice.

Do not kill the animal unless necessary. Instead, pen the animal for at least a week under the observation of a veterinarian. If the animal is killed, do not damage the head, but make arrangements to send it for laboratory analysis.

The disease can be virtually wiped out, as it has been in England, Denmark, Ireland, Norway, and other countries. To do so, at least 70 per cent of the dog population must be vaccinated, stray pets must be eliminated, and wildlife controlled.

MORE ON SOVIET LIVING STANDARDS

A number of analyses have been made of living standards in Soviet Russia. One of the most thorough and authoritative was conducted at Columbia University, and its conclusions have just been released.

The researchers studied the prices Soviet citizens pay for goods in the state stores and related them to income, and thus arrived at these citizens' "real wages." The conditions obtained in various periods, beginning with 1926, were compared. Here is a summation of what was learned: "According to our calculations, the Soviet worker after the five-year plans has never been as well off in terms of real wages as he was in 1928. One of our calculations, perhaps theoretically the more defensible, shows he is still far worse off than in 1928."

Many reasons can be advanced why this should be so. One of the most important, certainly, lies in the very nature of the communist economic philosophy. The state owns or controls all the agencies of production and distribution. It sets by fiat the price the shopper must pay, and it normally includes a huge profit in order to siphon off purchasing power. There is no competition in any reasonable sense of the word.

That is a sure way to hold down living standards. By contrast, the highest living standards exist here in America where all enterprise, starting with producers and winding up with retailers, is in everlasting competition for consumer favor.

Dog Quarantine

The State Board of Agriculture, in cooperation with the State Board of Health and the Fish and Game Commission, has issued a quarantine regulation for all dogs in New Castle County, as the result of an outbreak of rabies in the town of Newark.

All dogs are to be confined on the owners' premises, and any dogs running at large are to be killed on sight by the warden.

County Teachers' Meeting

The New Castle County Teachers' Association will meet in Newark on Friday, April 25, with the morning session to be held in the new Newark high school building. Luncheon and the afternoon conferences will be held in the Newark New Century Club.

John Shilling and Dr. Hughes Mearns will address the morning meeting on "The Revised Secondary School in Delaware" and "Creative Education." Dr. Francis Green, head of the Pennington School for Boys, will be the afternoon speaker.

Sports

Newark Junior high won its second game of the season by defeating Oak Grove 10 to 5. Jordan and Truitt handled the Newark pitching chores, while Sheridan and Reese hurried for Elsmere.

Coming from behind in the late innings, Delaware opened its southern trip with a ten-inning, 7-6 victory over Hampden-Sidney at Farmville, Va.

Each team scored a run in the first inning, and the Hens moved out in front with two more in the second. The Virginians scored four runs in the seventh—Delaware resumed the lead in the eighth with a three-run spree, and Hampden-Sidney prolonged the affair with the tying run in the ninth.

It was Delaware in the extra inning.

Snowberger and Hall carried off batting honors for the Hens with three hits apiece.

The Newark Cardinals defeated the Cleveland Avenue nine by a score of 9-1 as Daly limited the Avenuers to four scattered hits.

Mayer and Cage led the hit parade for the Cards, while Daly struck out a total of 13 opponents.

Retarded Readers Offered Training At Summer School

U. of D. To Conduct 6-Week Reading Clinic For Pupils On Campus

University of Delaware officials are aware that the percentage of elementary and secondary school children retarded in reading ranges from 25 to 40 per cent. And steps are being taken which should reduce that number in Delaware.

Some 60 children will become better readers this summer because of a carefully planned six-week training program scheduled for the fifth consecutive year at the University of Delaware.

The Reading Clinic, under the direction of Dr. Russell G. Stauffer, will be held on the Newark campus from June 20 to July 29.

Housed in eight rooms of Allison Hall, the clinic employs modern devices and techniques to correct deficiencies in the reading habits of both children and adults.

Children enrolled in the university's reading program will attend special sessions for five days each week throughout the six-week clinic.

In the 1954 clinic, eight teachers worked with 64 children during the training period, with the largest number of pupils enrolled in the development class. Children from other areas, including Pennsylvania, Maryland and Canada, have participated in the program during its brief existence at the university.

"The rewards of reading training are readily recognized by children as well as parents," Dr. Stauffer disclosed. "Many of the youngsters now engaged in the laboratory reading school were 'sold' on the idea by their elementary school

Serving his first term in the upper house after having been a Congressman, from New Hampshire, Senator Norris Cotton recently wrote his constituents about, among other things, the difference in the price of haircuts on "the Hill."

"The House maintains a barber-shop where Congressmen pay 50 cents for a haircut, but custom dictates that they tip an additional 50 cents, so it costs them a dollar."

"The Senate is different. You get the haircut free, but your traditional tip is $1. So you see," the astute N. H. solon concluded, "the haircut is as free as most things furnished by the Government!"

No Congress could be less war-minded than the 84th, but it is solidly behind President Eisenhower in calling for a show-down (long overdue, it is felt) with the Communists.

Generally speaking, the favorable impression made by Mr. Eisenhower's message was enhanced by both his budgetary and economic reports.

While there was widespread disappointment over a continued unbalanced budget, there was recognition that the President proposed an economic program designed to encourage free enterprise rather than government control.

Further information about the clinic is available upon request from the Reading Clinic, Allison Hall.

Larsen Advises on Tractor Grooming for Farmers

You don't need a currycomb, but the modern farm "work horse" tractor needs a daily grooming just like old Dobbin.

A stalled tractor is a bad way to begin the day, warns William E. Larsen, agricultural engineer at the University of Delaware. Wipe off ignition cables, coil, distributor, and spark plug insulators every day or two. Grease attracts dust, he points out. And damp dust is a moist wick causing voltage to leak or short circuit. For a good cleaning job, use a cloth moistened with solvent.

Record the number of hours you operate the tractor, Larsen suggests. Spark plugs should be cleaned, adjusted, and checked every 100 to 300 hours—that's equal to 5000 to 15,000 miles on a car. Dirty or fouled plugs waste fuel and power and cause frequent overheating.

Delaware Wins One of Three In South, Tops Yale at Home

Blue Hens Defeat Fairleigh-Dickinson, 9-2; Drop 4-0, 8-2 Tests To Richmond, Georgetown; Patterson Limits Yale To 5 Hits As Green's 9th Inning Triple Scores

Sandwiching a 9-2 victory over Fairleigh-Dickinson between 4-0 and 8-2 losses to Richmond and Georgetown in last week's tour of the southern circuit, Delaware's baseball team returned to cop their third win of the season by defeating Yale, 2-1, at home on Monday. The victory over the Bulldogs was the third for the Fighting Blue Hens against two defeats and an opening, scoreless tie with Michigan.

Dave Woodward and Buddy Kimmer shared Delaware's pitching assignment in losing to Richmond; Dallas Green struck out 15 and held Fairleigh-Dickinson to four hits for the Hens' second win; while Ed Morrow gave way to sophomore Jerry Bachor in dropping the Georgetown game.

No Errors

Playing errorless baseball and making the most of four hits, Delaware's nine stopped Yale on Monday for their third victory against two losses and a tie when lefthander Bill Patterson doled out only five hits to the Eli batters and became the fourth Blue Hen to go the distance.

Although he issued seven walks, the defensive skill of his mates bottled up any Yale scoring threats except in the sixth inning when the visitors failed on three walks and an infield out. Delaware gave Patterson a 1-0 working margin in the first inning when Carmen Cella drew the first of eight walks off Yale's starter, and loser Stewart Miller, was advanced to third on Lou Romagnoli's single and scored on Tom Redfield's grounder.

The Clincher

The deciding run was scored in the third inning as Redfield walked and raced home when Dallas Green blasted a triple off the right field wall.

Outfielders Gary Buckwalter and Thorp collected Delaware's only hits against Richmond, while Cella at third base and Buckwalter, turned in a two-for-five and two-for-four performances in winning over Fairleigh-Dickinson.

At Georgetown, Buckwalter had a perfect day at the plate with a pair of hits, while Kimmel, in left

from The Sporting News
by J. G. Taylor Spink

Who's going to meet in the 1955 World's Series? If you believe there will be a repeat performance between the Cleveland Indians and the New York Giants, you're in good company. That's the feeling of J. G. Taylor Spink, publisher of The Sporting News.

Nothing has developed in the spring training camps, says Spink, or in the trading marts to change his belief that it will be the Indians and Giants again. But he says, both clubs will face tougher competition than they had last year. The Giants' pitching is not formidable enough to guarantee that they will win by five lengths, as they did last year over Brooklyn. And the Indians, while a powerful aggregate, can't be expected to win 111 games again, their 1954 total.

Same First Trios

The way Spink looks at it, there's not likely to be any change among the first three clubs in each major league, as they finished in 1954. With the Giants in the top spot, he figures the Yankees for second place and Milwaukee for third. He believes the Cardinals will move up from sixth place to take fourth. He has Cincinnati fifth, followed by Philadelphia, Chicago and Pittsburgh.

In the American, Cleveland, the Yankees and White Sox third. Boston, he says, should come back in fourth place unless Ted Williams remains out all year. In the second division, he places Washington, Detroit, Baltimore and Kansas City, in that order.

Standing Pat

The Giants not only have a virtually set team, says Spink, but they have the powerful factor of confidence as a result of last year's success and the spectacular pitching of the Indians in the Series. The Giants' pitching, he goes on, should be as good as last year, with Johnny Antonelli, Ruben Gomez, Sal Maglie and Don Liddle, and with Hoyt Wilhelm and Marv Ganske in relief. There's the possibility of a comeback by Larry Jansen and Jim Hearn.

The Dodgers, with Roy Campanella's hand sound again, should be stronger, Milwaukee, says Spink, is a dark horse, with fine pitching speed and punch and perhaps a better bench than the year.

The Cardinals

The Cardinals, who have strengthened their infield, will be hard pressed again in first-line pitching. In the second division, Cincinnati slugging ought to put the Redlegs ahead of the Phillies in fifth place. The Cubs are on the rise, but they have not improved enough to escape the cellar.

In the American, Cleveland's superiority can be said in one word—pitching. The Yankees are a fast and more impressive affair, but can't be too sure of their pitching. The White Sox perhaps need pitching to make them contenders. The Red Sox need Ted Williams to be sure of fourth place.

Washington lacks a capable shortstop and help in the outfield. Detroit may have better pitching, but still figures in sixth place. Baltimore should do better, but not good enough to get out of seventh, and Kansas City fell heir to a Philadelphia team which lost 103 games in 1954.

Near Unanimity

Members of the Baseball Writers' Association, figure the American race as Spink does, expect for putting Washington in fifth place ahead of Detroit. In the National, the writers give the victory nod to Milwaukee, with the Giants in third place.

Other Openers

Now as baseball season opens, The Sporting News recalls great performances on opening days. Walter Johnson had an impressive record. He started in 14 openers for the Washington Senators, and won nine of them. Seven were shutouts.

Babe Ruth in the 15 openers in which he appeared after joining the Yankees hit seven home runs. Gerald Walker, in his first opening game in the majors, with Detroit, hit a homer, triple, double and single.

Penitentiary Hit

When the Detroit Tigers and Atlanta Crackers played an exhibition game at the Atlanta Federal Penitentiary, Third Baseman Ray Boone of Detroit got the biggest cheer. The reason was that he accidentally bowled over a prison guard.

The Cleveland Indians not only have the three top winning pitchers in the major leagues, but also the three top losers. Bob Feller leads the majors in both wins and losses, with 262 victories and 154 defeats.

Next in line are Hal Newhouser with 207 won and 150 lost, and Early Wynn, with a mark of 184 victories, 150 defeats.

This is the first time that one club has had the four top winners in its league. Bob Lemon of the Indians, with 165 victories, is number four in the American.

Philadelphia baseball writers report that more members of the Phillies own Cadillacs than do players of any other team. That, says the writers, could be what ails them.

THE NEWARK POST

The Newark Post, Newark, Delaware, Thursday, April 14, 1955

And They'll Be Off At Laurel On Monday!

Mrs. Samuel Pistorio's Brazen Brat, who looks like a live one, will be seeking her second straight Capital Handicap victory when Laurel opens its spring meet on Monday. Nick Shuk is aboard in the preliminary picture above.

POSTED

Thousands of trout fishermen will toss restlessly tonight in anticipation of the Maryland and Pennsylvania opening days for rainbows, brooks, and browns in the mountain and meadow brooks in our neighboring states tomorrow, with Delaware's opener deferred until Saturday. And despite some caustic critics—most of whom have never fished a rollicking brook in the springtime for those satin silvers of spotted dynamite—trout fishing is all that ecstatic outdoor writers and other fly rod enthusiasts would have you believe.

The newly awakened earth with its fresh, delicate greenery, wild flowers, the tocsin of warm, sweet air, and the blended, liquid melody of tumbling water and warbled bird calls set the stage for some stirring moments with the square-tailed, silver-spangled connoisseurs of wet and dry fly patterns, streamers, and nymphs.

Mighty Mites

A 10-inch brownie, flashing up through a dark pool to hit a bit of feather tied about a tiny hook at the end of a spider-web strand of gossamer leader, can give the sportsman on the business end of that light, willowy rod all the charge of a rampaging strider digging into the roaring surf after mistakenly clamping onto a leaden squid. And the trout come more often, too.

In Maryland, a non-resident, three-day permit may be obtained for $1.75; it costs $10 for the season.

Slumming

In a quick switch from high to low brow, carp—and the very mention of this grubbing, burly brute of the sluggish waterways may offend the esthetic sensibilities of trout purists—provided a recent stirring Sunday session for New Castle Rod and Gun Club president Jim Godsey, club secretary Cliff Rutter, and a not-so-pure trout fisherman who completed the trio dunking doughballs in a tidal pit off the Delaware River amid fish and smoldering trash of New Castle's marshy, city dump.

We've tried many and varied doughball recipes for carp in the past—with little or no success—but Jim Godsey has come up with a concoction that really does the business. And despite some before-the-fact skepticism, we had carp bouncing all over the muddy banks of the ditch before the expedition was an hour old.

Magie Formula

O' Jim obtained this magic formula at Noxentown last fall from a visiting Pennsylvania who came ashore with a rowboat load of channel bass-length golden carp—and it works.

Without divulging the exact prescription—Godsey may have a fortune in the making—we can say that this carp charm consists of yellow corn meal, flour, honey, and anise oil. The carp go for it in a big way, and by the time the fisherman tires of pulling in fish and

Babe Ruth League Tryouts To Begin Saturday Morning

Newark Optimist Club Schedules 1st Clinic On High School Field

The Newark Optimist Club Babe Ruth League will hold a baseball clinic at the Newark high school field on Saturday, as the first of the tryout sessions for positions on the four teams in the league.

All boys born between Aug. 1, 1939 and Aug. 1, 1942, who live in the Newark school district, are invited to attend. Sixty positions are open; 20 in each age group.

Candidates will register at the field between 9 and 10 a.m. and will be given a number to be worn at all try-out sessions. Birth certificates should be presented on registering.

The clinic will be held between 10 a.m. and noon, with an afternoon session again from 1 to 3.

Men who have had professional or semi-pro experience will be on hand to advise on the correct play at each position, and managers of the four teams will be scouting the talent to guide them when they bid for their players in the player auction to be held early in May.

wiping the surplus dough on his trousers, he smells pleasantly like a licorice stick—a big improvement over the aroma of bunker oil acquired when fishing with slabs of menhaden from the ocean beach.

Jim has a special angling technique to accompany the use of this carp appetizer.

He fishes with a small hook, entirely concealed in a moulded chunk of the dough, no sinker, and with a wafer of cork far enough up the line so that the doughball rests on the bottom of the pond or stream.

The bait is sufficient weight to permit casting with the conventional bait-casting tackle, and with a spinning outfit it's a cinch.

Back at New Castle

Getting back to this carp fishing expedition in the ditch draining the New Castle city dump—and there are more scenic surroundings in which to fish, Godsey—a cold, raw wind was blowing off the river, with a collection of discarded, water-logged furniture, automobile tires, a screen door, and a section of bed spring, we caught more than 100 carp in the course of the day.

Jimmy Godsey's bait could afford fresh water fisherman. Carp swarm unlimited sport for the Delaware in all of the tidal waterways of New Castle County and in too many of the land-locked ponds. Few fish for them because they are generally considered too hard to catch.

And we held that same belief, B.G.—Before Godsey.

When a motorist who had crashed into a telephone pole and brought down the wires recovered consciousness, his hands were clutching the wires.

"Thank heavens," he exclaimed fervently, "it's a harp!"

Wet Field Postpones Newark Baseball Opener With Eli

Jim Delaney Cops Stock Car Feature In Sunday Racing

Jim Delaney of Rockaway, N.J., drove to victory in the 25-lap feature stock car race at Wilmington Speedway Sunday before a crowd of 1,409.

It was the first main event triumph of the new speedway season for Delaney, last year's winner of the national championship 100-mile race at Langhorne.

Delaney overhauled the pace-making Parker Bohn of Freehold, N.J., midway through the race and pulled away to an impressive score in a modified model stock owned by Joe DiMondi of Wilmington. Charlie Birdsall was third.

The co-feature Novice Special for amateur drivers was won by John Holmquist of Wilmington, who bested a field of eight starters in the 15-lap test.

The consolation race was won by Bill Walker of Milton with Bob Langshaw of Elsmere placing second.

put on a very satisfactory display of staying power and fighting ability before it was all over and the largest sealed alien was flopping on the bank.

Tackle Smashers

Cliff Rutter hooked into several carp that broke his monofilament spinning line—we landed some that would go five pounds—along with a collection of discarded, water-logged furniture, automobile tires, a screen door, and a section of bed spring, we caught more than 100 carp in the course of the day.

Twirp Week

Joe Marvel, president of the sophomore class, has announced that Twirp Week will be held April 18-22. This week is sponsored annually by the sophomores, and each day has a theme, with the week topped off by a dance on Friday.

Monday is "Odd Sox and Shoe Day" followed by "Clash Day" when students wear colors which do not blend.

Wednesday, the girls are not allowed to speak to the boys or they are fined a penny each time. This is "Juliet Day."

Thursday is "Wacky Hair-Do Day" when students try to have the wilkiest coiffure.

On Friday the girls tag the boys they want to take to the dance that night—"Tag Day."

The Twirp Dance will be held Friday, April 22, from 8 to 11 p.m. at the Newark high school gym. The girl treats, and is expected to give the boy a boutonniere.

Committees for Twirp Week were set up by the President Joe Marvel with the advice of Miss Rebecca Kirk, William Morrison, Charles Griffith, Ellsworth Hoffman, and Eugene Smith.

Alise Coverdale is in charge of the Twirp Dance with Joe Shields, in charge of publicity; Carolyn Chickley, entertainment; Tom Lackman, decorations; Marilyn Woodhouse, refreshments; John Toothman, tickets; and Debbie Lewis, chaperones.

Students of the Week

To attend Eastern Nazareth College in Massachusetts and become a missionary in Africa, is the daughter of Juanita Phyllis Justice, a junior at N.H.S.

Phyllis was born in Richmond, Va., on March 5, 1933. After attending schools at Pinebelle and Oceana, W.Va., she came to Newark last year.

"Phyllis" has brown eyes and blonde hair, weighs 137 pounds, and is 5'5" tall. She is taking the general course and is a member of Future Teachers of America club.

Among her favorites Phyllis lists Fred Chaffart as singer, blue as the color, steaks as the food, basketball as the sport, and U. S. History class which she will never forget—as the class.

Her opinion on going steady is that you shouldn't, "not in high school," her pet peeve is people that smoke. Phyllis enjoys collecting poems and songs in her free time.

—Norma Gray

On a cold sunny day, Oct. 14, 1938, in the city of New Brunswick, N.J., there was born to Mr. and Mrs. Ranceford Hye, a seven pound, two ounce bundle of joy, named Roberta Hye.

During the past 16 years and three months she has attended New Brunswick High and Mount Pleasant schools.

"Bobbie," as she is called by her intimate friends, plans to have a good time in life. At present she is taking the scientific course, but plans to become a reporter after attending classes at N.J.C.

Her secret ambition is to be the first woman to go to the moon. She's really flying high!

Within the next ten years she expects to get married and have ten off-spring, that is, on her return trip from the moon.

Bobbie is 5'4", and weighs 112 pounds. She has brown eyes, and dark brown glossy tresses. She also sings in our Alma Mater's Glee Club.

Her opinion of going steady is, "Depends on who it is." Her hobby is making money—the legal way—and her pet peeve is "dirty shoes."

Her favorites are: actress Esther Williams; actor Howard Keel; movie "From Here to Eternity"; singer Nat King Cole; song "Sincerely"; food, stuffed cabbage; subject, typing.

In her spare time you'll find her all alone by the telephone calling all boys! Tall, blonde and blue-eyed ones are her preference. Others file in the line to the left. Incidentally, that is the one thing she'll never forget about good old Newark High. I quote, "The boys."

English Student Projects

In a recent interview with Miss Elizabeth Carrow, tenth grade English teacher, it was disclosed that her classes have recently completed some extra credit projects in connection with the novel "Silas Marner" which they have just finished reading.

The projects consisted of reports of the war that took place during the writing of the novel, of the gypsies mentioned in the story, of the religion of the characters in the story, and of the fashions popular in that day.

A most unusual project turned in was a sample of a newspaper supposedly printed in the time of Silas Marner. Contained in this newspaper are stories concerning various characters of the novel.

Students who worked on this newspaper are Joe Marvel, Judy Scott, Naudain Davis, Nancy Donnell, Jean Zvek, Janet Jamison, Ricky Kutz, and Skip Shields.

African, Icelandic Art On Exhibition At U.D. Gallery

Prof. Earl Parker Hanson Exhibits Items Collected During Liberian Mission

An exhibition of African Negro art and contrasting pieces of Icelandic art is now being shown in the University of Delaware Art Gallery under the sponsorship of the cultural activities committee. The exhibit is open to the public without charge and will continue through May 5.

The various items exhibited comprise the private collection of Professor Earl Parker Hanson, chairman of the department of geography and geology.

Professor Hanson collected the African items during his stay of one and a half years in Liberia, in the University of Delaware Art Gallery, where he was head of an economic mission from the United States.

Besides being a Knight Official of the Liberian Humane Order of African Redemption, decorated by the Liberian Government, Professor Hanson is an honorary member of the Vai tribe, with an African name, meaning "Happy Warrior."

Mrs. Hanson is an honorary Darzoh (teacher, scholar, scientist, leader) of the Sande Society, the women's branch of the Poro Society. The latter is the secret society of the natives, which, in many of its degrees and rituals, corresponds closely to the Masonic Order. The Sande Society is the West African equivalent of the Eastern Star.

Although Professor Hanson has traveled widely in Iceland, and was recently decorated by the Icelandic government, all of the Icelandic objects in the exhibition were inherited from his father, Albert Parker Hanson, an engineer from Milwaukee, Wis., who first traveled in Iceland in 1885, and later, in 1895 and 1898, made the surveys for the first overland telegraph line ever built in that sub-arctic land.

It is estimated that there were 1,200,000 new houses built in our land during 1954.

New Castle County farmers are invited to enroll in the 1955 Delaware Greener Pastures Program by County Agent Edward H. Schabinger.

The purpose of the program is to encourage and help farmers to (1) become acquainted with improved management practices; (2) examine and evaluate their present management program; and (3) apply improved management practices in their own pasture and forage program.
