Christmas Dance
For Teen-Age Set
Planned Saturday

The annual Saturday Night Christmas Dance, sponsored by the Newark Recreation Association, will be held this weekend at the Newark New Century Club from 8-12 p.m.

This dance will be the 22nd anniversary of this traditional teen-age social affair. Starting in 1937 by the Newark New Century Club for local teen-agers, its successful history has evolved into the Saturday Night Dance youth committee now conducted by the teen-agers themselves.

This Saturday Night Dance group will completely decorate the New Century Club in a Christmas winter wonderland motif.

Keeping the brightly lighted tree, the group will lower the ceiling with red and white crepe streamers. Draperies will be decorated with Christmas balls, and evergreens and mistletoe will be used in decoration.

The Indigos, a four-piece combo, will provide live music.

The dance will be the holiday "dressed up" affair. Correct dress for the occasion will be party dresses for the girls and tie and jacket for the boys.

"Inflation, as we get it, is when everybody is so rich that no one can afford anything."

Delaware Food Market Report

By Anne Holberton
U. of D. Agricultural Extension Service

Food supplies in 1960 will continue large, and with prospects for a continued high level of consumer income in the new year, demand for food is expected to remain strong.

Retail food prices are expected to decline some in 1960, chiefly because of lower prices paid farmers for food. The farmer's share of the consumer's food dollar has declined from 53 cents in 1945 to 38 cents in 1959—and will go still lower in 1960.

The cost of processing and marketing food will be a little higher in 1960. These higher costs will partially, but not completely, offset lower farm prices.

Price decline will not be sharp but it is thought will be enough to provide some aid for the shopper's budget.

Consumers will find more meat in 1960 at lower prices. The increase will be mainly in beef.

Pork, broiler and turkey marketings will be about the same in 1960 as this year. Lamb and veal will increase a bit in supply, however.

Barring unfavorable weather, fresh fruit and vegetable supplies will be plentiful through mid-1960. Total canned and frozen fruit and vegetable supplies are ample, but individual items vary in supply.

Look for specials on items in heavy supply, such as canned snap beans, sweet corn and tomatoes; frozen asparagus, spinach and green peas; canned peaches, fruit cocktail, apricots and red sour cherries; and frozen strawberries and red sour cherries.

Use of many new products will expand in the new year. One product which seems certain to increase in production and consumption is dehydrated mashed potatoes, either in granules or flakes. Currently production is about 150 million lbs.

New frozen foods are constantly appearing on the market and the demand for these labor saving foods is increasing.

26 Win Newark Varsity Football Letters With Bob Hoffman's 1959 Yellowjackets

Twenty-six members of the Newark High School varsity football team have been awarded varsity letters for their performance with Coach Bob Hoffman's once-beaten Yellowjackets of 1959.

Newark's defending champions of the Blue Hen Conference were stopped 7-0 by Coach Wayne Pollari's new champions of the conference—the undefeated Green Knights of Mt. Pleasant High School.

Fourteen seniors, led by Co-Captains, Monty Jackson at guard, and Carl Rice at quarterback, were awarded varsity letters.

Senior letter-winners include Bob Burton, Marshall Saunders, All-State Halfback Maynard Conkey, Fred Williams, Peter Williamson, William Neide, Allen Beldyk, Thomas Briggs, Ted Houle, Rodney Wilson, Merle Taylor, and Bert Loftman.

Junior letter-winners include Lloyd Wells, William Mowil, Art Carney, Norman Neide, Robert Raun, Robert Bell, Pearl Hubbard, Charlie Word, Ron Pyle, Guy Cagle, and Don Frank.

Newark walloped Elkton, 39-0 in the opener; picked out a 21-6 victory over P. S. du Pont's Dynamiters; and then the Yellowjackets ran into their one setback of the season in a squeaker with the visiting Mt. Pleasant.

Back on the victory trail, Newark sank the Senators at Dover, 27-6; edged Billy Cole's Colonials at New Castle, 6-0; beat Brandywine, 26-7; walloped Wilmington High School, 37-7; dumped De La Warr, 46-13; and closed a near-championship campaign with Conrad on Thanksgiving Day morning, romping over the Redskins, 39-14, for an 8-1 season in Bob Hoffman's head coaching debut at Newark.

Hens Win 3 Posts As MAC All-Star Gridders For '59

Delaware's Fighting Blue Hens landed three berths on the 1959 Middle Atlantic Conference University Division all-star football team selected by coaches who were polled by Glenn Dill of Wilmington, conference publicist.

Selected from Delaware's conference champions were Leon Dombrowski, guard; Capt. Mark Hurm, center, and Jack Turner, halfback. Dombrowski was an almost unanimous choice.

Other Delaware players receiving recognition were Tony Surville, fullback, picked on the second team, and Halfback Johnny Bowman, honorable mention.

on the temperature of the beans, we helped the two boys polish off the second course for lunch, and with the downpour abating to a misty drizzle, went back to the blind with the second generation.

"Mark!" And we hadn't been in the blind more than five minutes, when Little Bill said excitedly: "Mark, Dad!" And a pair of black ducks materialized out of the mist from up Plum Creek, gliding in with wings a-curve, orange webs bracing for a landing over the decoys.

Our first shot was over the fast-dropping duck, but the second knocked the big black down onto the water, and a third flattened it out in a shower of spray as it splattered off across the surface for the far shore.

Chesapeake Buck was halfway out to the water when the decoy came to life in a hurry, heading for the mud flats and reedy shoreline down the creek.

Old Buck was closing fast until the duck gained the mud flat and then, instead of swimming, the dog had to labor through the clinging mire well up over his legs. And then the duck had all the best of it.

Just as we were preparing to drag the pram out and salvage the nearly exhausted dog from the mud, a flight of three black ducks dropped down from over the woods out front, dove low over the decoys, and in some ragged shooting, we hit one, the duck sailing over the open water and crashing heavily into the reeds not far from where Buck was straining at the mud to reach the first cripple.

Stuck in The Mud Dragging the boat to the water, we fought our way through the mud to where Buck was mixed fast—lost sight of the first duck that had changed direction and headed out again into the open water—and after some heated going, reached the dog and dragged him aboard.

It began to rain heavily again as we set out toward the river after the first duck—and with rain in the face and a hundred duck-like snags and tussocks dotting the surface of the creek, singling out our bird was a bit of a problem. Rowing back from the river after a fruitless search, we marked down the second duck, identifying it as the only dry bit of brown driftwood on the muddy shore.

While fighting the boat over the mud toward the duck, but a few yards to go, the duck gave a loud quack and flew straight up.

It began to rain harder, and with no ducks flying, we chased the boys back to the cabin to keep dry, maintaining a wet vigil with the waterproof Chesapeake in the blind.

During the next hour, one lone duck flew over—high and failed to give the decoys a second look. In fact, the duck didn't give them a first look.

42 Boys Participate In Soccer Program Initiated By Ciesinski At Newark High

For the first time in many years, soccer was introduced to boys of Newark High School on an intramural basis—and 42 boys signed up to participate.

Two teams were formed by Coach Ray Ciesinski, and Jim Perialis and Jerry Moore were selected as captains.

The contest was held Tuesday, Dec. 15 at 3 p.m. on the football field.

The field was very slippery, but the intramural boys winning, 4-0. It was only the first game that the boys had played and they did a remarkable job under the direction of Coach Kent.

Since this sport created so much interest, it is hoped that next year a regulation field can be laid out and a larger intramural program put into effect.

Scots Outlaw Golf Play In Favor Of Archery

The Scots had a simple solution when they thought they might be caught with their defenses down—they outlawed golf.

Back in 1457, archery was still the chief means of defense in Scotland. But the Scots were spending so much time on the greens that the country seemed in danger of losing the bow-and-arrow race.

The World Book Encyclopedia reports that the Parliament of King James I ordered the people to put their clubs away and get back to target practice.

Later, when gunpowder came into general use, the law was revoked and the Scots went back to their putting.

in the air to drop again far out in the creek.

Again, the duck had all the best of it in the open water as Buck bucked the miring mud, and we lost sight of the chase in some heated effort to bring the boat off the mud flat.

When we wiped the rain and perspiration out of a pair of streaming eyes, of Buck was fighting his way through the mud with the black duck in his mouth—one for the day, anyway.

Relieving Buck of his mouthful, we hoisted 25-lbs. of Chesapeake Bay dog, mud and water aboard, and heeding the excited shouts from our two 11-year-old companions in the distant blind, headed for the far shore where they indicated the first duck had sought shelter.

An exhaustive, exhausting search failed to reveal the downed bird, and we whistled impatiently for the Chesapeake to join us in the pram for the return trip to the blind.

Out of Gas But Buck had had it. Rounding a point of the shoreline in search of our retriever, we discovered him panting in the mud, with the old hindquarters out of action from this latest exposure to the murderous mire.

Carrying our canine companion back to the boat, we rowed up Plum Creek to the blind, carrying Buck ashore, and feared the worst.

"What's the matter with Buck, Dad?" Billy queried, worriedly, and we wisely responded with "He's just tired from all that mud."

Few retrievers would or could have gotten that last duck after the previous chase, but old Buck had done it—and we were sure afraid that he had broken his heart in the attempt.

At home that night, we carried him from the car to the house, wrapped him in a blanket, poured a dollop of rum down his throat—and Buck jumped half-way to the ceiling.

With a smile of pure content, he relaxed and went to sleep under the blanket, and thank Goodness, was as good as new the following morning.

And the gallant old rascal joins us in wishing you a very, very Merry Christmas!

Yellowjackets Open 17-Game Campaign In Loss To Brown

Coach Bill Conrad's NHS Cagers Stopped By Bears After Win Over Alumni

With Friday's 52-45 tune-up victory over the Newark High School Alumni, Coach Bill Conrad's Yellowjackets opened a 17-game interscholastic campaign Tuesday night against Coach Jim Buchanan's Brown Vocational Bears in Wilmington, losing to the Bruins, 60-44.

Carl Rice, who led the Yellowjackets with nine field goals and a pair of successful shots for 20 points against the NHS Alumni, was top scorer in the Brown game, with eight field goals and a trio of good ones from the foul line for the total 19.

The Bears were on top of a 16-13 score at the end of the first period, and pulled away to lead 28-21 at the half.

The Bruins outscored the Yellowjackets, 21-7 in the third period to pretty well wrap things up for the evening, although Newark topped their hosts, 16-11, in the final flurry.

Rice heads a trio of Newark lettermen, including Marshall Saunders and Alan Adams, while squad members Joe Studier and Werner Goeckle have had varsity experience.

Delaware Captain Mark Hurm Named For Copper Bowl

Mark Hurm, captain of the 1959 Delaware football team, has accepted an invitation to participate in the Copper Bowl post-season all-star football game on Saturday, Dec. 26 in Phoenix, Ariz.

The game will pit the small-college all-stars against the major-college all-stars.

Hurm flew to Phoenix on Dec. 21 to train with the small-college team a week before the test.

The 6-1, 220-pound senior from Newark—regular center and defensive linebacker for the Blue Hens for three years—received honorable mention in the Little All-American poll and was named to the All-East team.

Coach Irv Wisniewski's Blue Hen Squad To Play In Downeast Basketball Tourney

Delaware's basketball team will participate in the Downeast Classic, a Christmas invitational tournament in Maine next week. The Downeast cage competition will be conducted at Bangor, Dec. 28-30.

The Blue Hens, playing in their first tournament since 1955, will be one of eight competing schools. Sponsored by the Bangor Daily News Charities, Inc., the classic is in its second year.

One of the highlights of the three-day event will be the selection of "Miss Greater Bangor," who will reign over the activities. The tournament will be played in Bangor's new municipal auditorium.

Four games will be played daily as the field is narrowed down to decide tournament champion. In addition to Delaware, the University of Maine, Mount St. Michaels, Bowdoin, Bates, Colgate, Columbia and Colby will participate.

Delaware has drawn Bowdoin in its opening day game.

Defending champion of the tournament is Mount St. Michaels, favored as a repeater. The highly-rated Knights from Winslow Park, Vt., have a brand-new club with three sophomores in the line-up.

For Coach Irv Wisniewski's Blue Hens, it will mark their first participation in a Christmas classic since they were invited to play four years in the Hofstra Invitational.

All other sports activity at the university is halted for the Christmas break.

Delaware's basketball team finished on the short end for the 6th time in six games here last Friday night as Lafayette's Leopards ran off a 77-63 decision in a Middle Atlantic Conference university division fray.

Charles Ross, sharpshooting senior, led Lafayette's third win in seven outings with 31 points, tops for both teams.

Tom Adams and Chuck Hamilton hit for 19 and 17 for Delaware. Although Lafayette led at halftime, 43-31, the Hens rallied to trail by only one point midway through the second half, 53-52. But the Leopards pulled away in the final minutes.

Delaware's freshman quintet beat Bainbridge Navy Prep in a preliminary, 77-74.

Bill Hoffman and Nate Cloud, with 48 points between them, led the Hens.

The difference was at the foul line, where the Hens converted 13 free throws, Hoffman canning 11.

City Council

Council authorized a payment of $10,587.35 to the pension fund, and Secretary Charles D. Long announced that the pension fund included $40,000 invested, and $19,000 in a checking account.

Mrs. McClenon's motion to have the unexpended $7,000 budgeted for acquisition of parkland set aside as cash in a special fund, was defeated by a vote of 2-1, with Coverdale opposing the Wilson, McClenon ballot. Councilman Diehl was late in appearing at the council table.

Why not accord other budget items the same treatment? Coverdale asked, and Mrs. McClenon countered "Do you have such items to recommend?"

"Do I?" the eastern district councilman said. "Nine years worth."

The mayor said the matter should be taken up at pending budget hearings.

Pension Fund

Council approved payment of $25,064.70 to Franklin Builders for construction of a sewer line to serve the Cherry Hill, Nottingham Green, and Fairfield developments as a part of city-planned installation, with Coverdale opposing the 3-1 vote because the original agreement between the city and developers had not been signed.

Sinclair said that he would obtain the signatures.

The solicitor presented a proposed amendment to the city charter for introduction at the state legislature.

ture to provide for two additional members of the planning commission—one to be appointed by the president of the University of Delaware, the other by the superintendent of the Newark school district. Diehl's motion that "the whole thing be dropped and keep six men on the planning commission," failed to receive a second.

"The university has the power of eminent domain," Diehl declared, "and would assist in drafting laws."

"They condemned property near the university," he said when cooperative planning between the university and the city commission.

Absenteeism
Council approved Mrs. McClenon's request that Middle District Councilman George M. Neighbors be requested by letter from the secretary, to account for his absence since last August, and the mayor observed "there is nothing in the charter to compel him to attend."

Asked for his opinion, the solicitor said that council "had been handicapped by lack of attendance," and when a councilman asked about general municipal policy to pay only for meetings attended, Sinclair said that this could be considered, along with a "premium to be paid for all meetings that adjourn before 11 o'clock."

Coincidentally, the meeting adjourned at 10:15 p.m.—the earliest in many, many months.
