BATTERY 'C' ACTIVATION CEREMONIES ON MONDAY

Recognition Of New Local Unit Will Be Held In Wilm.

Newark's new National Guard unit, Battery "C" of the 736 Gun Battalion, 198th AAA Group, will be formally activated in joint ceremonies with New Castle's Battery "D" on Monday evening in the State Armory, Wilmington, battery Commander Lt. Joseph Balbach announced yesterday.

High ranking regular Army chiefs from the New York Headquarters will officiate along with Col. Charles Gettys, senior National Guard instructor for Delaware; Col. James Whaley, commander of the 198th AAA Group; and Col. James Ashton, commander 736th Gun Battalion.

It was further announced that the formal deactivation of local Company "G", Delaware State Guard will take place in the Newark Armory tonight. Certificates of discharge will be presented to the thirty members of the disbanded unit.

No formal training program has been drawn up as yet for Battery "C". Balbach said, although continued emphasis will be placed on the recruiting program. The quota of ten men needed to form the unit have been enrolled, but an additional ten must be enrolled every three months until the battery's full complement of ninety is secured. If the unit is to retain Federal recognition.

New uniforms will be drawn by the battery next week, but no additional equipment will be issued at present. The full battery equipment will include three 90 mm anti-aircraft guns, plus radar direction finders.

Battery members who will take part in Monday's ceremonies are: William M. Donnell, George F. Stanley, Floyd S. Dear, David S. Dear, Wesley A. Greenwell, Fredrick L. Baldwin, Thomas B. Casio, John D. Sullivan, Frank Greene, and Benjamin Braune.

NHS PLANS TO EXPAND CURRICULUM

May Offer New Electives Next Term

The possibility that several new elective courses, including mechanical drawing, distributive education and ninth grade general mathematics, will be offered at the local high school next year was revealed this week by school authorities.

Introduction of the new studies to the Newark curriculum will depend on the approval of proper authorities, the number of students interested, and the availability of teachers. Journalism and Dramatics were offered for the first time this year and will be continued.

The Distributive Education course will offer instruction the proper mean of selling and allied work. Part of the course will include practice work in a store.

The course in Journalism and Public Relations covers the elements of Journalism and gives the students an opportunity to interpret their school to the community in the articles they write for publication.

NHS JUNIORS HOLD PARTY

The Junior Class at the local high school held its annual party Friday in the play-court of the school. Music was furnished by recordings, and Bill Anderson headed the entertainment program. Student vocalists on the program were: Betty Long, who sang "Night and Day"; Gloria Kozlowski, "What Is This Thing Called Love"; and Bill Hutton, "Doing What Comes Naturally." They were accompanied by the Mathews and Dorothy Draper.

Barbara Soule performed a humorous skit, "Mary Had a Little Lamb," and Rita Aulen and Betty Lindell read a roman column. Following the entertainment, refreshments were served. Supper was Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Szwed, Miss Anna Gallaher, and Raymond Justin.

New Curtis Official

William O. White

Mr. White, well-known local business man and an active civic club member, was recently elected treasurer of the Curtis Paper Company here. A veteran of four years service with Curtis, Mr. White came here from J. E. Sirrine & Company in Greenville, South Carolina.

A native of Georgia and a Phi Beta Kappa from the University of Georgia, he served in World War I as an infantry captain and is now chaplain of the J. Allison Post, No. 10, American Legion. He is also a member of the Newark Lions Club.

EDUCATION AS FORCE IN WORLD UNITY IS DISCUSSED

Century Club Speaker Urges U. S. Educators To Aid Europe

Vivid picture of the deep devastation of education in war-torn Europe, where the simplest school supplies, such as pencils, tablets and books, are badly needed, was given by Dr. Harold Snyder, executive secretary of the Commission for International Educational Reconstruction at a meeting of the Newark New Century Club on Monday afternoon.

Emphasizing that education will play a major part in improving international understanding and unity, Dr. Snyder urged the adoption of more exchange fellowships between the U. S. and foreign countries. Quoting Sumner Welles' famous statement "Civilization is a race between education and catastrophe," the speaker advised educational experts in this country to conduct missions abroad as an initial step towards practical assistance and closer cooperation.

As an example of the type work need, Dr. Snyder described the educational work camps being established in European countries by the Friends and other denominations in which

New Cubmaster Named By Local Cub Pack 55

George A. Neville, recently appointed cubmaster of Cub Pack 55, was introduced to the members of the pack committee at the regular monthly session of the group Tuesday evening at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Charles A. Zittle, Academy Street. Chairman Zittle presided and introduced the new cubmaster.

Reports were heard from the Den mothers, assistant cubmaster, and members of the committee. The cub pack meeting will be held Friday, January 31. Assistant Cubmaster Holger Shawmann is arranging a program of entertainment.

The committee also discussed plans for the local observance of the 37th anniversary of scouting to be held next month.

Cub pack plans for National Scout Week will be published in the near future.

Ed. Dill Joins Famed 88th Division In Italy

Pvt. Edward W. Dill, 21 East Cleveland Avenue, is now serving with the 88th Blue Devil Division in Venezia Giulia. He is a member of B Company, 349 Infantry Regiment.

Inducted last June, Pvt. Dill took his basic training at Fort McClellan, Ala., after which he returned home on a short furlough, then, following a transfer from Camp Stoneman, Calif., to Camp Kilmer, N. J., he was sent overseas on the "Stevens Victory," landing at Leghorn, Italy.

He immediately joined the famous 88th Blue Devil Division, now on occupation duty at the Morgan Line in the disputed Venezia-Giulia area.

DOWNES TO DIRECT RED CROSS DRIVE HERE AGAIN

Campaign To Open March 1; Quota Will Be Set Next Week

Dr. John R. Downes, county health officer, will again serve as general chairman for the annual Red Cross drive in local branch area No. 1.

The announcement yesterday by Dr. Allan Colburn, area chairman. This year's campaign will get underway March 1 and will continue throughout the month.

A veteran chairman of numerous past drives here, Dr. Downes has proved a highly successful campaign director, his committees never yet having failed to achieve or surpass their quota.

Last year's drive exceeded its goal of $7,500 by $658, netting a total of $8,158.

The goal for the 1947 campaign will be fixed at a meeting of branch area chiefs some time next week, it was said, when a general drive committee will also be selected.

This year's drive will be conducted along the same lines as last, with the area being divided into zones, each to be canvassed by a committee of volunteer solicitors under a zone captain. The list of the latter will be released in the near future.

In addition to Newark, Branch Area No. 1 includes: Christiansburg, Bear, Ogletown, Sunnyside and Salem.

DISTRICT GOV. NITE AT LIONS

Joseph Errigo Guest Of Local Club On Tuesday

District Governor's Night was observed by the Newark Lions Club on Tuesday evening, when Joseph Errigo, district governor and member of the Christiana Hundred Lions Club, was the guest of the local unit at its weekly dinner meeting. Dan Stoll, second vice-president, presided for the first time since his election.

Details of the extend of Lion activities in this district were given by Mr. Errigo in a brief talk in which he pointed out that 100 clubs were now established in the area, including nine new units this year.

Mentioning some of the local and state activities which he felt Lions should support, the Governor laid particular stress on the current move to improve Delaware's school system, which he urged the members to back.

Other prominent guests at the session were Charles R. Stubb, Jr., secretary-treasurer of the Lions district, and F. D. Wilson, Green Hill Lion member and district zone chairman.

It was announced that Lion member Wayne Brewer is recovering from a successful operation in the Delaware Hospital.

ASSEMBLY AT SCHOOL

2 Programs Are Offered

The faculty and students presented separate programs at the weekly morning assembly of the Newark High School yesterday. The new set-up aims at promoting the interest of students in presenting programs with teachers.

The assembly was conducted by Ann VanSant, who also led the opening exercises.

Miss Margaret Fitzsimmons presented the following piano selections: Nalagnena, by Lecuona and the Moonlight Sonata, Beethoven. Violin selections by Frederick B. Kutz included: Adoration, Dorowski; At Dawning, Cadman; In a Prussian, Kotelbey; Gavotte in E. Bach. Ernest Wilder gave two piano selections: Hungarian Rhapsody No. 6, Liszt; and Legend, Aldeniz.

The second half consisted of a one-act play entitled "Getting Pinned," presented by the Dramatic Club in charge of Betty Brown, student director. The cast: Judy Kase, Nancy Dieble, Nancy Smith, Ruth Gray, Joyce Fanning, Joseph Garvey, Melvin Reeside, and Jimmy Ford.

PROGRAM FOR U. OF D. FARM WEEK ON MONDAY

Family Day Will Feature Annual Event At University

The program for the annual Farmers' Week at the University of Delaware, January 27-31, will give attending farmers and homemakers a wide choice of programs on pertinent topics.

Sectional discussions and exhibits presented by the different departments of the School of Agriculture will cover all phases of agriculture and home-making in the state.

The program for Monday, January 27, will be devoted to general poultry production. On Tuesday, January 28, farmers will have a choice of attending discussions on broiler production, vegetable production and feed and forage production.

Farm Family Day will be the feature on Wednesday, January 29. A general session is scheduled at 1:30 p. m. in the Wolf Hall auditorium with George L. Schuster, dean and director of the School of Agriculture, as chairman. Speakers will include Dr. William S. Carlson, president of the University of Delaware, and Wheeler McMillen, editor-in-chief of the Farm Journal.

Sectional discussions on Wednesday will be devoted to homemaking, dairy and vegetables and small fruits.

On Thursday, January 30, sectional discussions will include turkey and fruit production and on Friday, January 31, the program will be devoted to poultry feeding.

All meetings will be held in Wolf Hall, the agricultural building, on the university campus and each day's session will begin at 10 a. m.

LOCAL FFA BOYS EARN OVER $3000

Income On 1946 Student Farm Projects

Work carried out by Newark FFA agriculture students on various projects the past year resulted in a labor income totaling $3,483.40, Frank Mercer, instructor, announced yesterday.

Although a wide variety of projects were financed, managed and operated by the Future Farmers, the emphasis was on broiler and egg production. Flocks, raised by the students, produced 1,190 dozen eggs, and 1,435 broilers were raised and sold.

Income from 34 production projects, which covered such things as corn, egg or milk production, totaled $1,943.50 for the year, while returns from six direct practice projects, carried out by students through summer farm work, amounted to $1,544.90.

Recently, the Newark Future Farmers of America secured four pure-bred, registered Hampshire pigs, with which to start a "pig circle" project. Under this plan members, who are given a gilt pig, pass one along from their first litter to other members. The four students who received the Hampshire gilts are Edgar VanSant, Rodney Reed, Donald Hummel and Edward Weatherlow.

Newark Leads County Schools In Attendance

The Newark Schools have been awarded the county banner for the highest attendance record of any school in New Castle County during December, officials announced yesterday.

The report, submitted by Martha L. Barnes, showed Newark's percentage of attendance for December was 94.9% while A. I. DuPont was runner up with 94.8%. Also in the top bracket was Mt. Pleasant, third, with 94.1%, Claymont, fourth, with 91.85%, and New Castle fifth with 89.15%.

For the entire year of 1946 Alexis I. DuPont led with 96.3%. Newark was second with 96%, Claymont, New Castle and Mt. Pleasant, received 94.1%, 93.3% and 95.1%, respectively.

SENIOR CLASS NOTES

Tryouts for the Senior Class Play "The Hoosier School Master," will be held on Monday.

The Seniors have been measured for their eggs and gowns. Committees have also been formed to arrange for Class Night and Senior Play.

Two Town Groups Appoint Representatives to CDEI

Two local civic groups elected delegates this week to the Council for Delaware Education, Incorporated. Grover Surratt was named by the J. A. O'Daniel Post, with Bernard F. Doordan as alternate, while Mrs. Charles Cooper was appointed as a representative of the Century Club.

A proposal for a 30 per cent increase in that portion of every teacher's salary which is paid by the state was put forth by the Council at its first membership meeting Tuesday evening in Wilmington.

Interest in the work of the newly formed group, which aids at making recommendations for improvement to the Delaware school system to the state legislature and other groups, was stirred here recently when Dr. R. M. Robb, vice-president, gave details of the organization's set-up at the January P-T. A. meeting.

O'DANIEL POST NEARS MEMBERSHIP GOAL OF 160

Local Group May Become First In Del. To Top Quota

With only two more members needed towards its 1947 goal of 160 paid memberships, the local J. Allison O'Daniel Post, No. 10, American Legion, may become the first in the state to obtain its full quota for the year, according to figures released this week by the State Adjutant. A total of 153 members have been secured to date.

Moreover, a current drive to secure payment of all back dues is expected to push the membership over the 200 mark, making the local post one of the largest in the state outside Wilmington, officials said.

The expansion of the O'Daniel Post is the result of an intensive membership campaign conducted in November and December under the general chairmanship of William Richardson, vice-commander, and William Beswick, the two-month drive netted a total of 21 new members and secured 1947 dues from 143 old members.

The membership campaign was conducted on a team basis under the following captains: Valentino Nardo, Elroy Steele, Harry Wilson, Grover Surratt, Jack Barrett, Raymond Beers, Jack Sieclair, William Beswick, Eric Newton and Alvin Handloff. The teams led by Beswick and Newton were tied for first in the number of new members secured with seven apiece. Alvin Handloff's team was second with six new members.

A survey indicates the new Legionnaires represent a cross-section of the town, with business and professional men, and workers in trades and industry included in the list.

The State Department of the American Legion is planning an intensive membership drive using billboards, posters and movies from February 15 to 30th, and the local post is expected to participate.

Next Tuesday evening, an initiation for new members will be held by the O'Daniel Post at the Country Club. Older members, never formally initiated, will also take part in the ceremonies. More than 35 new members will be inducted at the session, officials said.

The program is being planned by Bernard Doordan, chairman of the entertainment committee and refreshments will be served.

ALUMNAE MEETING

The Newark Chapter of the Alumnae Association of the University of Delaware will hold a meeting at 8 p. m. on Tuesday, in the Faculty Club Rooms in Warner Hall.

Mrs. Stanley Gibbs, president, will conduct a brief business meeting preceding the program, which has been arranged by Mrs. Frank Squire, chairman of the program committee. Colonel Layton Zimmer, Executive Officer of the Military Department of the University of Delaware, will show a film entitled "Battle of Britain."

All alumnae living in Newark are cordially invited to attend this meeting. Any alumnae who have not been receiving notices of meetings will please communicate with Miss Ella Mae Maclary, Corresponding Secretary, 299 East Main Street, for inclusion on the current mailing list.

Miss Edith McDougle and Miss Peggy Morrison will serve as co-hostesses for this meeting.

STATE CUTS $55,000 FROM SCHOOL FUND FOR 1947-49

Unexpected Reduction To Local Budget Request Made

An unexpected cut of $55,000 by state authorities in the Newark Schools' budget for the 1947-49 biennium has led local school board officials to seek a new hearing with the state's Permanent Budget Commission in the hope of securing the additional funds requested for vital school needs.

The decision to confer with the budget commission was made at the January session of the Newark School Board, last Friday evening.

Newark's original budget request for the two year period, submitted to the budget commission some time ago, called for $400,366 in state funds, but was cut to $345,560 by the state, despite the fact that local school authorities indicated that the estimate was based on a careful survey of school needs and included only minimum requirements. The state slashed $26,000 from the first year's estimate and $29,000 from the second.

School Board President, Joseph McVey, said, "We feel our request was in order and, moreover, had been informed beforehand by state authorities that our needs were reasonable and would be met." The cut in the budget request, as returned by the state was wholly unexpected, he said.

The local board "will seek a new hearing on the budget at the earliest convenience of the commission in an effort to obtain an explanation of the reduction."

It was further announced that the first coupons of the 1942 bonds have been paid off. The $60,000 bond issue, bearing two and one-half percent interest, will be retired in fifteen years as of 1948.

Tax receipts from the Newark school district for December amounted to $388.63, it was also disclosed. Total returns for the year were $25,756, far below the figures expected. Substantial amounts in back taxes are still due, it was said.

A request by the local AVC chapter to use a room in the high school was denied by the board, the reason being the policy of the school district, which permits the use of school facilities by civic groups for community activities, but not by private individuals or groups.

ARREST 2 ON MURDER COUNT HERE

Rapid Follow-Up By Police After Slaying Saturday

A few hours after the body of Grace Norwood, a Negro domestic, was found shot through the chest and lying on Amstel Avenue near the Newark Dairies here early Saturday morning, the Newark Police arrested Bishop Christopher, 22, of 74 New London Avenue and William Hardin, 20, of 129 New London Avenue, both charged with slaying the young victim.

Also held as accessories to the fact were Milton and Ella Mae Quinn, brother and sister-in-law of Christopher, who were charged with aiding in disposing the body. The two alleged slayers were held without bail, while the Quinns were placed under bail of $5,000.

The arrests marked one of the most rapid solutions of a major crime in the history of the local force. Christopher and Hardin were taken into custody about four hours after the body of the girl had been discovered by Corp. J. William Smith and Officer James E. Morrison, who were patrolling at the time.

The investigation was carried out by Sgt. Leroy Hill, who made the arrests assisted by Smith and Morrison.

After lengthy questioning both men signed confessions, police said, adding they believed the gun was discharged accidentally during a dispute in the Christopher home, the victim later being dumped on the roadside. A search of the Christopher home by police uncovered a revolver with an empty cartridge said to have been used in the killing, also the victim's coat, hidden in the rear yard.

With its output dedicated to health and the full facilities of the modern trends of its line of endeavor providing the wherewithal to greater satisfaction for customers, Hy-Point Dairy, Beaver Valley Road, near Wilmington, has completed an impressive six-year span of activity.

For 27 years John A. Meany has been associated with the dairy business and is recognized as an authority in this all-important work.

From a humble start, Hy-Point Dairy has grown in size and consequence to become a 10-route enterprise with six trucks kept in operation and a total of 10 workers employed.

Wholesale and retail departments are maintained and through the entire process of getting the daily line of needs to the public runs a thread of co-operation and service that leaves nothing to be desired.

Wilmington and its environs are covered completely by Hy-Point Dairy in a service that is planned and always suited to the immediate demand of families.

John C. and Paul L. Meany are in business with their father while James L. will take his place in the firm when he returns from service with the Army of Occupation in Germany.

Paul was in the Navy 35 months, including Pacific duty.

J And S Quality Market Augmented By New Frost-Mart Under Direction Of Samuel Levin, Who Knows How To Please Trade

Housewives who appreciate quality—just try to find one who doesn't—enjoy shopping at J and S Quality Market, just as many of their mothers did before them.

The store was established 24 years ago and its location, 1900 Scott Street, is as well known as any in Wilmington, according to the consensus of food shoppers.

Samuel Levin has kept up with the new aspect of things, it is true, but he has gone far beyond the average in fulfilling the demands of the scores of patrons who make his food mart their one-stop shopping center.

October 25 was an important day and a commanding milestone in the food merchandising career of Mr. Levin for on that day he opened Frost-Mart, 1824

Scott Street, providing housewives with an unprecedented selection of delicious frozen foods, prepared and ready to save them many hours work each week.

Fresh meats, groceries and frosted foods are available in excellent location at J and S Quality Market where semi-self-service is stressed.

Navy Vet Is Co-Owner Of United Bottling Works Father Established 25 Years Ago; His Brother Is President

A keen understanding of today's needs and a personal willingness to meet them in every respect are elements that spread satisfaction among customers of United Bottling Works, Inc.

Frank J. Jablonski is president while his brother, Adam L., serves as secretary. Adam is a veteran of the recent war having served three years in the Navy. The brothers succeeded their father, Adam F. Jablonski, as owner of the company after his death in August and have continued the policies, methods and ideals folks have a right to expect.

During the difficult period of shortages of beer and ale, United did a commendable job bringing the best in quality here and providing a maximum of quantity, too, conditions considered. Pils beer and ale are prime favorites with customers of the United firm as is Ebling beer.

Two trucks are used for distribution throughout Wilmington and vicinity. To keep service at top pace requires six workers and the co-operation of this staff has helped advance the firm considerably.

Specialization In Most Exacting Form In Hosey's Daily Plan For Refrigeration Service Takes Up All His Time

The fact that he gives his full time and attention to every department of refrigeration work has caused Arthur G. Hosey to be regarded as an expert, an authority who is willing to study and gain a better knowledge of the business and its ramifications as time goes on.

The Hosey refrigeration service devotes most of its time and attention to maintenance of household units and commercial equipment now, but the future may find Mr. Hosey handling commercial units for sale.

Primarily, he is interested in providing a maximum of endeavor for home makers and business, people who need the best. Through his personal interest in fulfilling requirements, Mr. Hosey has won the continued approval of folks who rely on him exclusively.

The general advisory service and other helpful endeavor of Mr. Hosey are as important to his customers as actually getting the work done.

Mr. Hosey established his own business a year and a half ago at 2812 Lancaster Avenue.

Holland Furnace Co. Branch Managed By Arthur N. Holmes Who Directs Installation, Repair Of Home Heat Systems

Coming directly from the home city of Holland Furnace Company, Holland, Mich., Arthur N. Holmes has done a commendable job since taking over the reins of management for the firm's branch in Wilmington.

Mr. Holmes, with the Holland company for five years, has been manager in Wilmington since January 1, operating from 2411 Monroe Street.

Home heating has always been the highly specialized and thoroughly capable service of the Holland organization, one of the largest and most progressive firms of its kind in the world.

Probably best known for its "pipe-less" furnace, the concern has many other claims to fame to its credit. Although it still specializes in hot air heating installation and repair, the name of Holland is identified with oil, gas and general stoker-fired systems.

When anything goes wrong with a furnace or just a yearly routine check is needed countless thousands of home makers all over the nation have learned to call a Holland heating expert.

Mr. Holmes has 40 workers employed covering the state.

Holloway's Community Cleaners Extends Service As Far South As Dover; Clothing, Household Aids Are Cleansed

An unusual service in that it provides so well for so many people with modern demands, Holloway Community Cleaners, 1101 B Street, Wilmington, has set its sights high on 1947.

Herman M. Holloway established the business three years ago and, in a short time, won the extensive approval of a foremost member of his important work. And rightly so, for the methods used and the many excellent elements associated with the way the firm cleans clothing and home aids attracted even the most casual customer.

Rugs up to nine by 12 feet are cleaned, while curtains, drapes, slip covers and similar items that improve the home never looked better than when Holloway's Community Cleaners gets through with them.

Clothing for the entire family is processed with a care and exactness that customers like.

Delivery service is available to East and South Wilmington, Delaware City, New Castle, Buttonwood and parts of Dover.

J and S Garage Has Its Program Well Mapped Out For Pleasure Driving Era

Open day and night and combining many of the little helpful elements of service that motorists appreciate, J and S Garage, 707 Walnut Street, Wilmington, has brought itself a degree of recognition that shows the desire of the management to keep standards far above average.

Ulysses G. Seward who took charge six months ago, has brought together a round-up of services aimed at pleasing the most astute patrons.

Motor repairing, body and fender work, painting, welding and towing are combined successfully in the plan of service aimed at meeting the requirements of the new era of pleasure driving to the proverbial letter.

The motorist in need of a specialist in any department of automotive maintenance will find J and S Garage not only willing to help but prepared through facilities and experience.

Hudson's Photographic Scope Devoted To Finest Portraits, Commercial Work

A Hollywood photographer with 17 years experience to his credit, A. Stayton Hudson can always get the best out of a subject, as evidenced by his ability to win so many customers in the relatively short span of four months since he purchased the studio at 1217 Market Street, Wilmington.

Specializing in children's portraits, Mr. Hudson has the approval of scores of parents.

Mrs. Louise Hudson, colorist with the deft touch of an accomplished artist, assists her husband in the work. The wedding pictures produced by Mr. Hudson are in a class by themselves as that memorable day is seen through the eyes of his camera.

General portraiture, commercial work and special departments of the field are engaged in by Mr. Hudson. The studio combines the art of the camera with skill in finishing portraits.

J-D Jewelers Made Variety Commanding Feature Of Work Right From The Start

Approaching a new era of appreciation for the finer things of life, the people of America are going to ascertain that they get them after years of shortages.

J-D Jewelers, 403 Market Street, Wilmington, has maintained a thorough-going endeavor since it was established three years ago, winning the approval and commendation of the public in every instance.

The stock is complete and the variety impressive as the shop features the best in rings, pins, watches, clocks, diamonds and other precious and semi-precious stones.

Silverware that will be any home maker's pride and joy has been included in the complement of the business to the full satisfaction of the patrons.

An even more impressive service plan for 1947 is in force under the guidance of William Rappoport.

Customers Over 150-Mile Radius Count On Wesley Jagger Firm For Motor Work

The built-in reliability of Wesley Jagger, Inc., has accounted for much of the success and standing of the firm at 1013 West Street, Wilmington, as evidenced by the fact that its electric motor repair service is relied on by customers as far away as 150 miles.

Motor repairing is the dominant characteristic of the business, although some electrical contracting is provided for old customers.

Serving as agent for Louis Allis, Century and Leland motors, the concern on West Street has ascertained that a highly standardized quality aspect is associated with its endeavor.

From a small beginning eight years ago the firm has won its place of acceptance under the presidency of Wesley Jagger with John Phelps, vice-president, and Mrs. Lena Jagger, secretary and treasurer, giving their best to it.

Wholesome Dishes Of Inez's Restaurant Attract Patrons; Drinks Served Always

Working men enjoy the home cooking and wholesome, plain food for which Inez's Restaurant is so well known.

Established 14 months ago, the business at 1401 Vandever Avenue, Wilmington, was a success right from the start as its selection of hearty meals and snacks met with popular approval.

Platters and sandwiches are always available at the popular location opened by Mrs. Inez Klerlein.

Beer, wines, whiskeys and liquors are featured, too, rounding out a complete picture that suits the demands of the scores of customers.

A spirit of friendliness prevails in the restaurant at all times. Here old friends meet to eat and drink and enjoy the pleasant atmosphere.

Mrs. Klerlein likes to see folks enjoy themselves and does so largely by satisfying the "inner man."

Hayden's Is Famous For Its Hamburger Sandwiches With Better Brands Stocked

Building a reputation that has elevated it to a place of popular appeal far above average, Hayden's, 2805 Market Street, Wilmington, is known and patronized by hundreds of residents and transients.

At the time of Repeal the tavern opened at 25th and Market Streets but the present location was taken a decade ago so that better facilities would be available for the customers.

During the 10 years Mrs. Ella Hayden has been at the helm she has introduced some impressive ideas and methods, but her greatest claim to fame is the fact that hamburger sandwiches served piping hot, are always delicious.

Many other types of sandwiches are on the daily menu at Hayden's.

Schmidt's beer is on tap, with bottled beer available. Wines and liquors are bottled behind the best brand names.

Jack's Card Shop Line Favored By Patronage

Stocked with a selection of greeting cards, gifts and unusual items, Jack's Card Shop, 702 West 4th Street, Wilmington, has fulfilled its obligations to the letter by continuing to bring to its customers a selection of better items that leaves nothing to be desired by even the most astute patrons.

John T. Purnell has made certain that the best is always available for folks who drop into his shop. Glassware, pottery and woodenware to brighten any home and serve as welcome gifts are available in excellent selection.

Jack's Card Shop is a friendly spot where folks are invited to come in and browse around. Friendliness prevails at all times.

Interest In Serving Hayden's Success Aid

With a background of 15 years to his credit, William A. Hayden is well qualified to help the new era of motoring with a comprehensive program that leaves nothing to be desired.

Hayden's Mobile Service Station, 12th and Market Streets, Wilmington, was opened more than a year ago aided by the initiative, knowledge and interest of its directing head.

Mobilgas, Mobiloil and Mobilubrication are stressed in the comprehensive roster of the enterprise while tires, batteries and accessories are always available.

Every morning the service-minded service station opens at 7:30 and keeps alert to patrons' needs until 11.

Wrecks Are Rebuilt By Joe's Shop Method

No matter how badly smashed or dented an automobile may be, Joe's Body Shop, Hazeldel Avenue, Minkunda, is equipped to turn it back to the owner looking like new.

The 12-year-old business has never been one to rest on the laurels of past accomplishments for Joseph Karmanski feels that each new task is a challenge of his ability and the facilities of the shop to produce the best.

Body and fender repairing, acetylene welding, Duco refinishing and similar services are contained in the full complement of the business.

A 24-hour towing service offered by Joe's is particularly appreciated.

Howett's Plastering Work All-Inclusive

The experience and ability to get any job done to the satisfaction of the customer is a commanding factor in the continued success of Jacob B. Howett, plaster and stucco expert of 812 Van Buren Street.

Mr. Howett has kept to a high standard of efficiency in all his work and has met the demands of customers from the entire metropolitan area over a span of eight years.

He is interested in new work and the many jobs that have been completed to his credit are the best testimonial to how well he gets his contracts filled.

Altering, jobbing, patching and improving any surface that requires plaster or stucco are all included in the scope of the firm.

"A man may, if he knows not how to save as he gets, keep his nose to the grindstone," wrote Lord Chesterfield, and he was right. If you have not yet developed the habit of regular saving, start now so that you may some day have more security, more leisure time. For example, some day you'll be able to build a new home which will mean more security for you and your family. And the bigger the down payment you can make on that home, the better. Make this down payment an objective of your savings plan, and begin now. One dollar opens an account here.

DSEA GIVES BACK GROUND ON PROGRAM

Pamphlet Lists Need For Boost In Teacher Pay

A pamphlet published recently by the Delaware State Education Association lists under a question and answer plan some facts behind the group's program for increased teacher salaries.

The teacher shortage in Delaware, it claims, is due chiefly to the salary scale here as compared with neighboring states, also the inadequate retirement system and the complete lack of a system of tenure.

Approximately 280 teachers left their positions in Delaware last year, the pamphlet continued, emphasizing that such a larger turnover usually results in lowered standards of instruction and impairment of school efficiency. Grave aspect of the situation is the fact that 175 teaching positions were either vacant or filled by emergency teachers as of December 1, 1946. Moreover, school boards are unable to fill new positions in growing schools.

Unless salaries are substantially increased, the report said, it is not only unlikely the vacancies will be filled but more will probably develop. In past years Delaware depended on a teacher surplus from other states, which now no longer exists. Only eleven educational trainees are enrolled in the University of Delaware at present, it said.

Outlining the DSEA's proposed legislative program for salary schedule and increases, the pamphlet claimed that Delaware, which ranks fourth in per capita income, can afford to pay adequately for the education of its children.

The individual can aid the plan, the report said, by writing his legislators urging them to vote for the DSEA program, and second, by working through service clubs and other groups in adopting resolutions to be forwarded to the State House and Senate Education Committees.

Head Of Christiana To Mark Young People's Day

Services will be held in the afternoon at the Head of Christiana Presbyterian Church on this Sunday. Sunday School will begin at 1:30 p. m., and the church service will follow at 2:30 p. m.

The Sunday School classes will discuss "Jesus Crosses Racial Boundaries." Young People's Day will be observed at the church service at 2:30 p. m., when the entire service will be in charge of the youth of the church, who will present a special musical program, "Youth Shares."

The following young people will speak on the above theme: Lillie Scott, Eddie Martens, Ronald Chesdale and Ricky Diehl. The Young People's Choir will sing a special number. All are welcome to this service.

Vets May Reenlist With Former Rating

Many former members of the Army, Navy, Marines and Coast Guard may secure their old rating if they enlist in the Army for three years, Capt. Walter G. Runtz, local recruiting officer, announced yesterday.

Under the provisions of War Dept. Pamphlet 12-36, former members of the above services can get a rating commensurate with their prior training and experience. Regardless of the former branch, a job similar to the one previously held can be found in the Army. No man will be enlisted in a grade higher than the one he held at the time of discharge.

For further details see your local recruiting officer in the postoffice building, Wilmington, Del. or in the City Hall, Dover, Del.

State Presses New Auto Tags While Driver Waits

Frank L. Reed, motor vehicle commissioner, announced Saturday that branch offices of the State Motor Vehicle Department are equipped to "press" motor vehicle tags while the motorists wait and the new system will be placed in use as soon as the present supply of stamped tags is exhausted.

No Strike Expected In Steel Industry In 1947

Steel operators have less fear of a strike in the industry this year than heretofore and are planning production schedules on the basis of uninterrupted output, the magazine "Steel" declared in a recent issue.

"In fact," the magazine asserted, "it is believed that most of them selling on a quarterly basis will have sales quotas allotments set up by Feb. 1 whether or not wage negotiations are completed by that time."

BONDS BEST INVESTMENT ROTARY TOLD

C. E. Keyes, Guest Speaker.

Advantages of investing in U. S. Savings Bonds were discussed by Clarence E. Keyes, a representative of the bond division of the U. S. Treasury Department, at the regular weekly dinner session of the Newark Rotary Club on Monday evening. William S. Hamilton presided.

Many people are unaware of the fact that U. S. Savings Bonds are still on sale, Mr. Keyes said, emphasizing that they represent the best and safest investment an individual can make.

He accompanied his talk with a color movie entitled "America, the Beautiful," the theme of which was the government bond sale.

Visitors present at the session were William Reynolds and Frank Mercer. The latter is agriculture instructor at the Newark High School. Ellis Larone, of Middletown, was also a guest.

An invitation to attend the annual Ladies' Night of the Middletown Rotary Club on February 11, was extended the local Rotarians by Harry Smith and Harold Drensell, representatives of the Middletown unit.

P. LOVETT REPORTS ON SCOUT WORK

Group Honors Local Leaders

"Scouting is an investment in the future of America and democracy," was the message of Dr. Allen Stockdale, chief of the speaker's bureau of the National Association of Manufacturers, to 300 officers and members of the Del-Mar-Va Council, Boy Scouts of America, yesterday evening at the Hotel DuPont in Wilmington.

Paul D. Lovett, of Newark, reelected president of the council for a second term, reported that 10,150 different boys, men and women were enrolled in the Del-Mar-Va peninsula's Scout program during 1946. Representatives from nearly all of the Council's 14 counties were in attendance.

Local men honored at the session were: A. B. Eastman and G. Emmett C. Kauffman, Eastman was awarded a 25-year Veteran Scout Badge and Kaufman a 20-year Badge.

The report on the Council's accomplishments in 1946 showed that 7,400 boys and 2,700 adults were registered and that 40 new troops, Cub packs, and senior units were organized to bring the total to 272 in 125 different communities. Forty-six boys reached Eagle Scout rank during the year. A total of 1027 different boys attended the summer season of the Rodney Boy Scout Camps, or Camp Horseshoe, for colored Scouts, or went in the annual Sea Scout cruise on the Chesapeake. More than 1,700 participated in week-end Camporee programs. The Council operated on a budget of $68,000, contributed by community chests and by individuals throughout the Council territory. A campaign to complete the 1947 budget of $78,000 will be held during Boy Scout Week, February 7-14.

Being mere 37-year-old youngsters as ages of newspapers go, The Post is something in the category of an upstart when commenting on such venerable institutions as The Cecil Whig and Cecil Democrat, both of which are well past the century mark in years of service to their community.

However, with the passing of the reins of The Whig, from the hands of Murray J. Ewing, who has done a creditable job for many, many years to the hands of Judge James E. Hughes we feel that the Elkton papers are due a bit of comment.

Incidentally, James E. Hughes, a former senator from Cecil County, is NOT the James H. Hughes, former Delaware senator and newspaper publisher, of Dover, Delaware . . . although their careers seem to strike a pertinent parallel, along these lines.

It is understood that Mr. Ewing, who is retiring from the publishing game after twenty years at the helm of The Whig, expects to take things easy at Rehoboth in the future . . . And, we wish for him many happy days of joy, peace and contentment which is only a fair reward for anyone who has had the patience, stamina and sanity to publish a weekly newspaper for twenty years.

The Whig is now in its 106th year of publication, having been established in 1841 whereas The Democrat, now published by Newark's Harry H. Cleaves, is one year older, it having been established in 1840.

Rumors current for the past several months that a new, local dairy would make its appearance here are not true. Instead, the Newark Dairies, now owned by Wallace Williams, will revert to the E. F. Richards interests, former owners, who will resume operations on February 1, under the name of Richards Dairy.

Texas-bred R. Doyle McSpadden vacationing in Florida after the sale of his Newark Cleaners last week. The business, which was purchased by Dr. C. M. Cox and E. Wilson Worrall, is being operated by Mr. Worrall.

Wonder whatever happened to the proposed new zoning ordinance for Newark which was published in this paper on August 22 and on which a public hearing was held, September 10 . . . now four months ago? Or did it meet the same fate as the parking meters?

The time is ripe for your contribution to the Newark Visiting Nurses Association.

Sammy Talucci says: "Proof positive that Newark is fast becoming stream-lined is the formation of a Baby Sitters Service consisting of college-age boys and girls students at the U. of D." Meritorious as it is, Sammy's idea is not novel or original.

Bill Osborne and his corps of ex G. I. students have been baby sitting for nearly a year . . . these being the only organized, unrelated groups operating. Although we could mention a number of individuals who can sometimes be induced into "baby sitting" when not otherwise occupied.

We envy George Ramsey and Del Nabb vacationing in Hot Springs, Arkansas. Also the Muscimens, Anderson and Williams currently golfing at beautiful Hollywood, Florida.

Wonder how long local merchants will find it profitable to support the proposed, monthly "shopping guide," tentatively scheduled to make its debut next month?

Elkton is the next small, nearby town to take a whirl at solving its traffic, difficulties with parking meters . . . said metallic bandits to be installed on a six-month trial basis, according to recent authorization by Elkton town fathers.

If any one man is directly and individually responsible for putting the Newark Country Club on a profitable and prosperous basis, it is Wayne C. Brewer . . . and, justly enough, he was chosen President of the Club at the annual stockholders meeting held last week, succeeding Leon H. Ryan whose term expired.

Kenneth Roberts historically interesting novel, "Lydia Bailey," seemed well worth the time it took to read it, to us. We also thought John P. Marquand's "B. F.'s Daughter" was fair—but don't think it worthy of second place on the Ten Best Seller chart of the Sunday Philadelphia Inquirer.

Pat Frank's "Mr. Adam" got darned monotonous before we finished it, and Pearl S. Buck's splendidly-written "Pavilion of Women" failed to intrigue our masculine interest too much—but that could be because we haven't spent enough time in China. A borrowed copy of "In A Dark Garden" (we've forgotten the author) was, to us, one of the best books we've read this year.

The prize-award book of poems, "Token of Remembrance," by Susan Sharp Adams, is on sale at Rhodes Drug Store. Mrs. Adams, of the Briar Lane Adames, will be at the drug store Saturday afternoon, between two and four o'clock, to autograph books, if desired.

Whether our grumbling, last week, about the sloppy condition of Thompson Lane had anything to do with it or not we don't know. But, we do know that we're grateful for the handful of cinders spread over the Thompson Lane Marsh . . . which almost makes it possible, in a tractor, on a sunny day . . . anybody got a good rowboat for sale—cheap?

Members of the Friday Night Bowling League were feted at a dinner held in Barney Renshaw's basement banquet room last week . . . reckon that could be an omen that the Friday Night League will flourish in the basement?

JACKETS MEET FAST BROWN FIVE TOMORROW IN WILM.: FACE SMYRNA HERE TUESDAY

Earn Season's Second Win Friday By Tumbling Conrad, 34-29, Then Bow To WHS, 43-29, Here Tuesday; Brown Will Prove Tough Opponent

After splitting their games the past week with a victory and a loss, the Newark Yellow Jackets run into a tough obstacle tomorrow when they meet Brown Vocational, one of the slickest clubs in the Wilmington area. The game will be played on the latter's court. Next Tuesday, the Jackets perform before the home fans, tangling with Smyrna here in what should be a close one.

The Jackets gave Wilmington High a courteous reception here Tuesday evening when they bowed by a polite 43-29 count. Although the score gives little hint, the Jackets put up a stiff struggle, outscoring the Red Devils, 8-7, in the first quarter and 9-6 in the third.

Newark Pigeon Club Approves Race Card

The Newark Racing Pigeon Club of Delaware held its regular monthly meeting on Friday, January 17, at the home of Mr. Harold Stanley, Delaplane Manor, near Newark. Those who attended the meeting included Frank Butterworth, Norbert Cashehl, Jr., George Jones, Paul Jones, Leonard Moore, George Mills, Jr., Clifford Shew, Otto Steinke, Fred Tompkins, Mark Way, Charlotte Fred and Fred Wakefield.

The following race schedule was approved for the "Old Bird" race series due to open on Saturday April 12:

April 12—100 mile regular from Manassas, Va.

April 19—200 mile regular from Charlottesville, Va.

April 26—300 mile regular from Danville, Va.

May 3—400 mile regular from Charlotte, N. C.

May 10—600 mile regular from Savannah, Ga.

May 17—500 mile regular from Columbia, S. C.

May 24—600 mile special sport race from Savannah, Ga.

May 31—300 mile special sport race from Danville, Va.

June 7—1000 special sport race from Pensacola, Florida.

The meeting was followed by a special get-together which was enjoyed by all present. The next meeting has been scheduled to take place on Friday, February 21, at the home of Mr. Leonard Moore, Paper Mill Road, at 7:30 p. m.

We envy George Ramsey and Del Nabb vacationing in Hot Springs, Arkansas. Also the Muscimens, Anderson and Williams currently golfing at beautiful Hollywood, Florida.

DUKES TIE PINBALLS IN COURT RACE

Both Unbeaten In Community League Action

The Dukes and Pinballs moved into a tie for the lead in the community basketball league last Thursday as both outfits earned victories in the twin-bill at the high school gym.

The Dukes decisively scalped the Red Men in the opener, 44-35, after which the Pinballs brushed off the Spiders by a 29-24 count. Both teams now have two wins against no defeats.

Paced by the rapid-fire scoring of Davis, who ripped the cords with seven goals from the field and five from the foul line for 19 points, the Dukes, who boasted a 22-15 half-time lead, were never in trouble. Runner-up in scoring honors was Phillips with three field goals and a foul shot.

The Pinballs also stepped out to an early lead, registering a 17-12 margin over the Spiders at the half-way whistle. Cashehl, with 13 points, was the big-gun on the offense, ably backed up by Houston, who flipped in four action shots and two fouls for 10 points. Vansant was high man for the losers with eight points.

The scores:

BLUE HEN COURTMEN IDLE UNTIL FEBRUARY 1 CLASH WITH WASHINGTON CAGERS

Bow To Swarthmore, 51-43, For Second Defeat; Loss Snaps 4 Game Streak; in Two Past Week, Down Haverford, 60-53; Jays, 31-29

With a mid-season record of four wins and two defeats, the Blue Hen courtmen take a breathing spell this week-end, resuming action again Saturday, February 1, when they meet Washington College in a return match on the latter's floor.

The Swarthmore Quakers turned the tables once again on Delaware on Tuesday evening by a solid 51-43 count, thereby snapping the Hens four game streak and earning the distinction of handing them their only two defeats thus far this season. Earlier in the week, the Hens turned in two victories, the first over Haverford, 60-53, last Wednesday, followed by a close 31-29 win over Johns Hopkins before the home fans in the field house Saturday night.

Despite the score, the Hens showed better form against Swarthmore this week than in their opener with the same club when they went down, 56-20. After a slow start, Tuesday, Delaware shaved down the gamets lead and trailed by only two points at the half, but faltered in the third session when Swarthmore opened up with 21 points. Delaware rallied in the last period, outscoring their rivals, but, by then, the Quakers had too great a lead.

Nash with 11 points was the top point-maker for Delaware, while Jim Riley paced the victors with 16 counters.

Against Johns Hopkins, the Hens, while decidedly off form, found the Baltimore lads in similar straits and were fortunate to eek out the two point margin. Scoring was sporadic through most of the tilt, with Delaware pulling away to a 19-13 half-time lead. The medics revived in the third session and inched within three points of Delaware at 25-22, but the Hens spurred again to make it 31-24, then held off a final Johns Hopkins rally.

Billy Cole was the offensive standout for the Hens contributing two field goals and five fouls. Penalty goals were decisive in the score, since the teams broke even on tallies from the field with ten apiece.

The Hens collected their third straight last Wednesday when they

STORE HERE ADDS THREE DEPT. HEADS

Wallace Hall Joins Staff Of Newark Store

Addition of three new department heads to the staff of the expanding Newark Department Store, which recently underwent large-scale renovations and additions, were announced this week.

W. Wallace Hall, a native of Dyersburg, Tenn., and formerly with the W. T. Grant Variety Chain, has been appointed store manager, while Benjamin C. Ambrock, veteran of many years training in the electrical appliance field, assumes charge of the newly opened Appliance Department, and Mike Arenson, experienced shoe merchandizer, has taken over direction of the store's modern new Shoe Department.

An alumnus of Vanderbilt University where he was a Sigma Chi member, Mr. Wallace also has had several years experience as General Manager of Carter Coal Company Stores. His background further includes extensive merchandising training with R. H. Macy, N. Y. He plans several innovations here.

Mr. Ambrock, in charge of appliance sales and service, announces plans to set up a modern showroom, comparable to the finest in the country. The Newark Department Store has been authorized as the local dealer for General Electric products.

Mr. Arenson, a war veteran with four years service, two overseas, is backed by 10 years experience in shoe merchandising and plans a modern, fully equipped department.

Local Girl Student At Boston University

Marilyn Roberta Fox, 204 Capitol Trail, is now a student at the Boston University college of physical education for women, Sargent.

In an effort to provide an education for as many adequately equipped men and women as possible, Boston University opened a new undergraduate division, this fall, known as the General College. This provides opportunity for 500 more students to enter, with the possibility of transferring at the end of two years into another Boston University college.

4-H TRACTOR CLINIC HERE

Twenty-one Delaware 4-H Club members and leaders will attend a special tractor maintenance clinic, to be held at the University of Delaware, January 23, 29, and 30, announces George M. Worrlow, associate director of the Delaware Extension Service.

The three-day training school is held in cooperation with the American Oil Company and will be directed by Jack F. Bell, extension agricultural engineer and Charles R. Lund of the American Oil Company.

The group will live at the university while attending the clinic and classes will be held in the School of Agriculture farm machinery shop.

The purpose of this three-day clinic is to give club members and leaders a general understanding of farm tractor maintenance and operation and to establish a plan for developing leadership in extending such information to other operators of farm tractors.

The training program is also designed to meet a growing need for more exact knowledge in the care and maintenance of all farm machinery in the coming period of greater development of mechanical power.

Vansant Granted Exclusive Herd Name For Holsteins

Thomas H. Vansant, Newark, has been given the privilege of the exclusive use of the name "Pike Creek Hills" as a herd name in registering his purebred Holstein-Friesian cattle, announces The Holstein-Friesian Association of America.

Mr. Vansant, a war veteran with four years service, two overseas, is backed by 10 years experience in shoe merchandising and plans a modern, fully equipped department.

young people from the U. S. join with the native youth in rebuilding and refurbishing school buildings.

The meeting was in charge of the Education Committee, under Mrs. W. Earl Armstrong.

At a business session prior to the program, the club named Mrs. Charles Cooper as a representative to the Council For Delaware Education, Inc., newly formed organization seeking to improve the Delaware school system. Mrs. J. A. Pie, local Red Cross sewing chairman, issued an invitation to the members to visit the local volunteer sewing unit, which meets in the club building every Tuesday from 10 a. m. to 3:30 p. m. Mrs. R. O. Bausman, club president, presided.

The Fine Arts table, arranged by Mrs. William J. Barnard, offered suggestions for a children's birthday party and featured an exhibition of doll furniture brought here from England over 150 years ago by Mrs. Barnard's grandmother.

Guests of the club were: Miss Rena Allen and Miss Emma Ehlers, and a number of education students from the University of Delaware.

Tea was served by Mrs. David Eastburn and her committee: Mrs. Clifford Lynum, Mrs. James Mackenzie, Mrs. Thomas Manns, Mrs. Don Martin, Mrs. Harry McKenry and Mrs. Frank Moody.
