COMMUNITY SHOCKED BY DEATH OF DR. STEEL; HUNDREDS PAY RESPECTS AT HOUSE LAST NIGHT

Widely Known Physician and Prominent Citizen Passed Away Sunday, Following Operation—
Private Funeral Held This Afternoon

Dr. Walter Hossinger Steel, for over twenty years a practicing physician here and one of Newark's most active and prominent citizens, died Sunday morning last, shortly before noon, in the Homeopathic Hospital, Wilmington.

When word of his passing reached his fellow citizens here, a pall of gloom was cast over the entire community. The town and vicinity is still dazed at the unexpected tragedy.

Dr. Steel was 53 years of age. Death was caused by ulcers of the stomach. He had been a patient in the hospital for three weeks. He was first taken there on September 14th. A few days later he was removed to his home here, and believed to be recovering rapidly. On September 22nd, he was again taken to the hospital, and his condition was considered serious. It was believed at the time that he was suffering from a type of malaria fever.

Dr. Steel's condition during the past two weeks gave evidence of an illness more serious than was generally believed. Together with resident physicians, he took an active part in handling his own case, and refused, until the last few days, to have consulting physicians called in.

On Saturday last, his ailment was diagnosed as an ulcerated stomach, and an immediate operation decided upon. It was performed that evening by Dr. Spackman. His condition, however, failed to improve and he passed away at 11 a. m. Sunday. Mrs. Steel was at the bedside when the end came.

Seldom has any town lost such a valuable citizen as Dr. Steel. Born near Appleton, Maryland, on August 27, 1871, the son of Robert and Louisa Hossinger Steel, his entire life had been centered about Newark. He was graduated from Newark Academy and finished a two-year pre-medical course at Delaware College in 1896. He then attended Hahnemann Medical College, Philadelphia, and immediately after receiving his degree, started his practice in Newark.

From that day until his fatal illness, Dr. Steel was always in the fore of movements for the betterment of his community. A faithful and distinguished physician, a leader in school and civic affairs and a beloved friend of hundreds of Newark people, as well as people from all parts of the State, his passing leaves a great blank in the hearts of everyone.

A few years after settling in Newark, Dr. Steel was wedded to Miss Kathryn Pic, a member of one of Newark's oldest families. The union was blessed with six splendid children, all but one being now in school.

Active In Town Affairs

He was a director in the Newark Trust and Safe Deposit Co., president of the Newark Board of Education, a trustee of the State Hospital at Farnhurst and a member of the United Workmen, Modern Woodmen of America, Improved Order of Red Men, The Chamber of Commerce of Newark and of the Kapp Alpha Fraternity.

In addition, he took an active part in the affairs of the Delaware College Alumni Association, the Newark Country Club and the Homeopathic Hospital in Wilmington. For years he had been physician to the University of Delaware.

Private Funeral Held

The funeral services were private and held this afternoon at the Steel home, on Amstel Avenue. The Rev. Thomas Baxter, an old college chum and companion of the deceased, had charge of the services. Interment was made in the Head of Christiana Cemetery.

In lieu of a large funeral, the body rested amid a veritable wall of wreaths and flowers in the house last evening, and was viewed by hundreds of old friends and new friends of Dr. Steel. The flowers filled end of a large room in the house.

From 1 until 9, a steady stream of men, women and children passed by the bier to pay the last respects to their beloved friend and doctor. Unashamed grief was everywhere. Mothers, leading their children, whose lives were both started and protected by Dr. Steel; hale and hearty youngsters, old men, spared the debility of age by the doctor's touch, rich people, poor people—all walks and types of life were represented at the house last night. It was Newark's pathetic and never-to-be-forgotten farewell to their departed soldier of the Cause of Humanity.

First P.-T. Meeting of Year on Oct. 14th

The secretary of the Newark Parent-Teacher Association has called the first regular meeting of the new school year for next Tuesday evening, October 14th, in the High School building. The meeting will start at 7.30 p. m.

Members of the association and all others interested in the work are cordially invited to attend this meeting.

Dr. Raymond Downs To Locate Here Shortly

Preston, Md., Physician Arranging to be in Newark in 10 Days—Dr. Nolan Also Reported Coming

The serious medical situation in Newark caused by the passing of both Dr. Blake and Dr. Steel, is about to be remedied, according to advices received this week.

Dr. Raymond Downs, of Preston, Md., following several conferences in Newark early this week, has sent word that he will open his practice here in about ten days. Dr. Downs is a warm friend of Dr. H. C. Davis, of Baltimore, and the latter recommended him for a post here, as reported in The Post on August 20th. Dr. Downs is settling his personal affairs in Preston this week, preparatory to locating in Newark. He is a practitioner of nearly twenty years experience. Dr. Downs is now arranging for his formal transfer from the medical fraternity of Maryland to that of Delaware.

Word was also received this morning that Dr. John P. Nolan, of Chester, Pa., will arrive in Newark to start practicing medicine within a week. Dr. Nolan was in conference with local friends on Monday last relative to the situation here. He has been an interne in St. Agnes Hospital, Philadelphia. It is reported that he will practice in the offices of the late Dr. Charles H. Blake.

SPENCE-McCOMMONS

A quiet wedding took place on Tuesday, September 16, 1924, at the Presbyterian Manse, at 2.30 p. m., when Miss Rhyra A. McCommons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren McCommons, of Fair Hill, Md., became the bride of Mr. H. Curtis Spence, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Spence, of Providence, Md.

Hursh, Alice Fisher, Gladys Campbell, Virginia Phillips, Dorothy Mitchell, Billy Ford, Catherine Rose, Dorothy Sterile, Elizabeth Tiffany, Louise Hutchinson, Elva Buckingham, Elizabeth Phillips, Dorothy Freeman, Eleanor Townsend, Virginia Wilson, Olive Heiser, Betty Ford, Catherine Shellender, Betty Heiser, Helen Reynolds, Irene Gaunt, Colbert Wood, Thomas Foster, Daniel Medill, Kent Preston, Roscoe Campbell, Lawrence Brown, Curtis Potts, Florence Krapf, Marion Wood.

PLAN BIG PROGRAM

Officials of the Newark Music Society are planning quite an ambitious program for the coming season, according to reports.

Sometime late in November a professional concert will be given in Wolf Hall for the benefit of the Bandstand Fund. There will also be the second annual "home talent" concert in the spring. In addition, arrangements are being made to hold musicales in various private homes during the winter. Three such concerts are already lined up, it is said. The Music Society will be actively behind the coming concert of the Orpheus Club of Wilmington, who are to come here for a concert in January.

Spirited Speeches Mark Noon Meeting Held Here By Vote Caravan

Each National Party Represented by Speaker Today—Small Crowd Greets League Workers

The "Get-Out-the-Vote" caravan of the Delaware League of Women Voters stopped in Newark at noon today.

About twenty-five cars, gaily decorated with bunting and signs and filled with members of the League and guests stopped along Main street shortly before 12, noon, and a little later, a mass meeting was held on the bandstand at the Academy.

Representatives from the Republican, Democratic, Independent and Law Enforcement groups spoke to a small crowd gathered on the school lawn.

Prior to that time, a welcoming committee of local people were disappointed when the caravan hove into sight many minutes prior to the scheduled arrival. The welcoming plans were thus abandoned. The cars of the following people were to have met the visitors at the edge of town: Mrs. George L. Townsend, R. W. Heim, W. A. Wilkinson, Miss Eleanor Duffy, Dean W. J. Robinson, Mrs. Armand Durant, and Mrs. C. A. McCue.

President Hullahen Presides

The meeting was called to order by Mrs. A. D. Warner, who presented Dr. Walter Hullahen as chairman of the day.

Dr. Hullahen greeted the assembly on behalf of the town in the absence of Mayor Frazer, whom, the speaker said, "was out of town and unable to be here."

The invocation was then asked by Rev. Frank Herson.

The first speaker was James C. Hastings, candidate for the Legislature on the Republican ticket.

"Take the message of 'Vote' back to your homes and to your friends and neighbors," said Mr. Hastings in the course of his speech. He made a plea for the individual to assume his responsibility at the polls.

Mr. Hastings, in discussing the principles of his party, stated that "the American dollar will buy more—why?—because of the high protective Republican tariff." He called attention to this as one of the strong features of Republicanism in the nation. Mr. Hastings spoke ten minutes, and was followed immediately by Mrs. Pittman, wife of Senator Key Pittman, of Nevada.

In introducing Mrs. Pittman, Dr. Hullahen said: "Mr. Robert Crow, Democratic nominee for the Legislature, is unfortunately unable to be here today. I am happy to introduce, as his substitute, Mrs. Pittman."

Makes Spirited Attack

Mrs. Pittman, after taking exceptions to some of the remarks of Mr. Hastings, launched into a spirited defense of the Democratic principles, and an attack upon the Republican doctrine.

She disclaimed heatedly the Republican practice of "putting the large powers in the hands of a few," and called attention to the creation of individual rights and liberties under the Democratic Bill of Rights, which she said was inculcated in the Constitution.

Several members of the party on the platform greeted some of Mrs. Pittman's remarks with ill-feigned displeasure. There were others who applauded vigorously.

When the speaker stated that "the farmer now gets a pittance for his corn," a wave of laughter and some protests were heard in the audience. Mrs. Pittman was warned her time was up several times but went serenely on. She finally concluded in a mixture of applause, laughter and heckling.

Mrs. Bishop, a native of Wisconsin, spoke in behalf of the LaFollette cause. She called attention to her state as being the "foremost commonwealth in the country in government." "It has been called a laboratory from which will grow a genuine democracy," the speaker continued. She said again, "Don't cry wolf, and run away, but sift these new movements to the fundamentals." In the matter of tariff she said "we stand for a tariff high enough to keep up our standard of living."

TAKEN TO HOSPITAL

William E. Hayes Reported To Be Improving After Sudden Attack

William E. Hayes, of Delaware Avenue, a member of the staff of the Evening Journal in Wilmington and widely known in this community, was suddenly stricken at his home late Sunday evening last, and at 4 o'clock Monday morning was rushed to a Wilmington hospital.

Mr. Hayes is suffering with gall stones, it is believed.

"Mrs. John Pierson, G. B. Pearson and Burke were in attendance most of Sunday night and ordered his removal to the hospital.

Later reports indicate that an operation will be avoided as the patient is responding to other treatment to bring him around. Great concern was felt by his family and friends when news of his illness became known.

24th ANNUAL SUNDAY SCHOOL MEETING HERE

St. Thomas P. E. Church To Be Scene of Convention Friday; Many Speakers

The 24th annual Convention of the White Clay Creek Hundred Sunday School Association will be held in the St. Thomas Episcopal Church here on Friday of this week, with session both afternoon and evening.

The address of welcome will be given by Rev. R. B. Mathews, rector of St. Thomas, at the afternoon session. Rev. D. J. Blakland, of Red Lion, and Rev. John McMurray will deliver addresses. A business session will also be held at this time.

A supper will be served at the Parish House to members of the clergy and out of town members of the Association.

In the evening, the meeting will begin with an organ recital by Miss Dorothy Mathews, daughter of the rector of St. Thomas Church. The devotional exercises will be led by Rev. Frank Herson, of Newark. The principal address of the evening will be given by Dr. Murray Dewart, rector of Christ Church, Baltimore, and well known to Newark church folks. A solo by Dr. George H. Ryden will also be given in the evening.

The officers of the Association for 1923-24 are William D. Dean, president; and E. F. Dawson, secretary-treasurer.

Famous Marionettes Perform Here Oct. 31

Tony Sarg to Give Two Performances at Wolf Hall That Day

The nationally famous Tony Sarg Marionettes, constituting a most unusual and satisfying show, will appear in Wolf Hall, Newark, on Friday, October 31st, both afternoon and evening, it was announced Monday of this week.

Mr. Sarg will no doubt direct the performance in person. He is a well known illustrator, and in recent years his advent in the realm of marionettes has been accorded enthusiastic approval everywhere.

The afternoon performance will present "The Pied Piper of Hamelin," and in the evening "Treasure Island" will be given. The performances will start at four o'clock and eight o'clock respectively.

The affair is under the auspices of the University of Delaware, it was announced.

DEMOCRATIC RALLY HERE

Meeting Scheduled For Saturday Night At Bandstand

Local Democrats are planning for a big mass meeting to be held Saturday evening, on the Academy lawn, it became known this week.

The Minnehaha Band of Newark has been secured to furnish music for the occasion. Several local as well as State candidates will be present, it is understood, and deliver addresses.

MARRIED ON WEST COAST

Relatives and friends of Walter P. Medill, brother of George L. Medill, Miss Frances Medill and Mrs. Joseph McVey, of this town, recently received word of his marriage on October 4th last to Miss Mildred Leitch, in San Francisco, Calif.

Mr. Medill was a visitor in the East about two years ago, and although he has been a resident of the West Coast for close to twenty years, he is well known to many Newark people.

Hundreds Attend First Newark Dahlia Show Monday And Tuesday

Unprecedented Interest Shown—Already Plan Larger Affair for Next Year—Winners Are Announced

That Newark's first Dahlia Show struck a responsive chord throughout the entire town and surrounding community, is an accredited fact.

It was the same old lure of beautiful flowers which drew almost 1000 people to Wolf Hall on Monday and Tuesday to see the gorgeous blooms, grown in Mr. and Mrs. John Citizen's back yards. The Dahlia Show conquered Newark; and all Newark came and paid homage to the invading hosts.

From the mills, the shops, the farms, the college halls they came, a steady stream of people. It seemed that everybody knew a little about the beautiful blooms; they discussed types, names, seedlings by the hour. Those unlighted few who didn't know a dahlia from a carnation came, too. They were pretty, and all the world loves pretty things.

Swamp Show Official

From the moment a little girl from over Cleveland Avenue way bashfully offered a basket of big beauties to show manager A. D. Cobb, bright and early Monday morning until late Tuesday night the crowds came, saw and were conquered. Mr. Cobb had to call for reinforcements in the shape of containers, display space and helpers to arrange the blooms. He was fairly swamped with entries, although the show was an undreamed of thing a week ago.

Over twenty separate exhibitors had entries in the show; it is reported. Merit certificates were attached to the prize winners by the judges. There was no time for silver cups and gold medals, but the winners were just as happy with the blue and red cards.

Dahlia experts who visited the show said that some of the best blooms they had ever seen were on exhibition this week.

Mrs. William P. Peach, of near Hockessin, a dahlia grower of years experience, was the largest exhibitor. She was closely followed in this respect by A. D. Cobb, who had some of his own special types on display.

Among the list of winners Mrs. Wilmer Hill stood highest. Other big winners were Daniel Krapf, Mrs. George Ferguson, Mary Colmery, and Mrs. Peach.

Plan For Next Year

As a result of the wonderful success of the first attempt, plans are already being talked of for an elaborate show next fall, probably in the Armory, with valuable prizes offered.

A. D. Cobb, who deserves great credit for getting up this week's show, is enthused over the work of the home growers and is of the opinion that many of the exhibited blooms could not be beaten anywhere in the State by amateurs.

The prize winners:

Single Bloom Class

Single Type—1st, Mary Colmery.
Peony Type—1st, Elmer J. Ellison; 2nd, Martha Wilson.

Hybrid Cactus Type—1st, Mrs. Wilmer Hill; 2nd, Mrs. W. P. Peach.

NEW PRINTING PLANT TO START HERE SOON

L. K. Bowen Returns to Old Printing Love; Established in Deer Park Hotel

Once the smell of printer's ink gets embedded in the nostrils, it never lets you go.

Again has come back to the craft a veteran printer, Levi K. Bowen, former postmaster, and co-owner of the Delaware Ledger from 1883 until 1920, has arranged all details preliminary to the opening of a new printing shop in Newark.

Mr. Bowen has leased a part of the bow-stairs space at the Deer Park Hotel on West Main street, and within a week, expects to have his small plant in operation. "The equipment will arrive some time this week," said Mr. Bowen yesterday. "Of course, the start will be made on a small scale. The machinery will be new, and one modern job press will be installed at once."

Mr. Bowen, as a member of the firm of Bowen Brothers, conducted the Delaware Ledger for 41 years, and at the time of his retirement from the business to become postmaster, was one of Delaware's veteran newspapermen. He first leased, and later sold the building and plant of Edward M. Davis, of Wilmington, about four years ago.

For the present, Mr. Bowen will conduct his new business himself.

COL. SMITH IN THE WEST

Colonel Samuel J. Smith, retired army chaplain, who has been making his home here, left Saturday last for visit with friends and relatives in the West.

Night—Tea and Dance
on Saturday

OTHER NEWS ITEMS

President and Mrs. Walter Hallihen entertained the members of the Faculty Club and their wives and friends at "The Knoll" last Friday evening, at which time the guests of honor were the new members of the faculties of both the Men's and Women's Colleges.

Mr. and Mrs. Hallihen and officers of the Club received the guests, and a very enjoyable evening was quickly passed in getting acquainted once more. Refreshments were served the guests during the affair.

Tea At Fraternity

Immediately following the Delaware-St. Joseph's game, Saturday afternoon, an informal tea was held in the Sigma Phi Epsilon House on the upper campus.

Dean Winifred Robinson and Mrs. Harold E. Tiffany poured tea. Others who assisted at the function were: Mrs. George L. Townsend and Mrs. Robert C. Lewis. A large number of Sigma Phi members, alumni and friends attended the affair, as well as members of the faculties of both colleges and townspeople.

First Dance of Season

The first Student Council dance of the college year was held in Armory on Delaware Avenue, Saturday evening, from 8 to 12.

George Madden and his orchestra were on hand to furnish their well-known brand of music, and the big drill hall was comfortably filled with dancers. A number of visiting alumni, who had attended the game went to the dance in the evening.

The patronesses at the dance were Mrs. F. M. K. Foster, Mrs. George E. Dutton, Mrs. William J. McAvoy and Dean W. J. Robinson.

Social Events Curtailed

As a result of a recent meeting between Prof. Carl Rankin, chairman of the Social Committee at the Men's College, and members of the several fraternities on the campus, a decision was reached whereby the fraternity social season this fall and winter will be curtailed to a marked degree.

Up until this year each fraternity has been accustomed to having three dances each collegiate year. Two of these were informal dances, and the third the fraternity formal, the biggest dance of the year in the life of each fraternity man. However, the number of dances that were being given during the year was creating a false impression on those not acquainted with the true state of affairs. The frequency of dances seemed to indicate that the entire student body was indulging each week or so in an elaborate social affair and paying too slight attention to the serious work of college life. At these fraternity dances, only the members of the fraternity go, thus each group enjoys only three dances a year, although there are numerically more given. As there are now five fraternities who regularly hold dances, there would, under the old custom, be fifteen fraternity dances eduring the year. Then in addition there are the regular college dances, such as Junior Prom, Farewell Hop, and about four Student Council dances to which any student may go.

Following the decision of the recent conference, accordingly, there will be one informal of each fraternity discarded this year. Each fraternity henceforth will be entitled to one informal dance and one formal. This reduces the fraternal dances to a total of ten. In the place of the five discarded, there will be substituted a Pan-Hellenic dance, given by all the fraternities together. The Pan-Hellenic will be an informal affair to which only members and pledges of active chapters may go. This dance will be given on the night of November 1, in the Newark Armory. This is the day that Stevens Technical Institute of Hoboken plays the Delaware eleven in Newark.

Prof. Reese Returns

Professor Carl Reese, who for the past two years has been engaged in working for a degree in a Chicago university, has returned to Delaware and will be a member of the faculty this year.

Prof. Reese has created an obviably record during his activities at Delaware and his return to the faculty as instructor in Mathematics will be welcomed by everyone connected with the college.

According to reports, the mathematics courses at the Men's College are severely hampered by lack of instructional facilities and crowded classes. Prof. Reese will work as an associate with Dr. George Harter in this work.

Doctor Steel

Hard lines—and he loved life so. Ever see him at the Game on the Field—he was a sportsman. He lived thus, cheering someone alone and taking punishment smilingly in the game. He did this at his play, in his profession, as a citizen. And as he lived, he died.

Why? That's the question on the lips of the community and the echo from the Ages resounds, "Why?" "The rest is Silence," is the best explanation given by Finite voice and we humans cannot understand the Infinite—yet.

Doctor Steel was a friend, force, influence in Newark. Modest, unassuming, he was outspoken and unafraid when occasion called. Aside from his profession in which he was a recognized and loved leader, he was a citizen active in community affairs. Civic improvements appealed to his enthusiasm and received his support, based on sanity. Education was his civic hobby and to this he gave more than his share of time and energy. In the new school building now in process there is represented his interest.

As a friend, he was such a good fellow—a sportsman always, a leader always, the center of the group at play. In old days Fox Hunting and Football—that was his life. We saw him first years ago, a medical student at Hahnemann playing Delaware. And how many times since as observer on the line, at a smoker cheering the team, bending over an accident as a physician—we shall miss him at the touchdown on Frazer Field.

We speak informally because our friend was genial informality itself. He was a Newark boy who lived and gave unstintingly his life to Newark. And he was a prophet in his own country, which is rare. Last night troops of friends marched past his rose-bedecked bier with saddened tread—because a Friend was passing, and they loved him.

Side Line Citizenship

It was at a Curb Stone Caucus that the subject was presented for discussion. While there was no vote taken binding those present, the thing haunts me. It had been a hard day at the shop—lots of fun, but poor copy, proofs, rush deliveries and all had made it a long day. Then, too, outside it was delightful, a day for fishing, a tramp as we know it. In Club circles, it was a Golf Day. And curiously, it was a Master of the Links who brought up the question.

After dinner, we had strolled up town for the mail. The Usuals were in their usual places, discussing Radio, New York Convention, New Library, Mills, Band Stand, Klan, Autos and notes due on them—it was a typical Summer evening in a College Town when the Classics and Culture are away.

But the Caucus! Friend, a just-retired Professor (and full worthy he is of the Title), a retired businessman, a student, keen observer and experienced, tow or three notoriety, and a local celebrity—there they were as we approached. Just then, some one mentioned the approaching Registration Day and the serious need for every one to vote.

"Disgusting, thoroughly disgusting," said our Champion and Scholar. "I shall play my Politics on the Side Lines this year. What we are coming to, I fail to see—utterly fail. No vision, no Ideals, no atmosphere. Nothing but mediocrity. Mediocrity—terrible! I shall have naught, absolutely nothing to do with it. Mediocrity is King and I refuse to bow to him nor will I mingle with the crowd for his overthrow. The Gulf Course, my Books and the Side Lines for me. I fail to see how any gentleman could participate."

Needless to say there was an argument. The facts he had stated were admitted by every one present. Not even put to vote, it went over by acclamation. BUT—ah, there's the word. BUT. History and Romance, Success and Remorse of Men and Tribes play around its gloom and glare. BUT. The way those everyday citizens went after him, this Side Line Citizen. They honored his position, admitted his influence even more than he recognized his knowledge of affairs, past and present—it promised to be a relief to the strain of the day. Campus vs. Man of the Street is always interesting—sort of bout of Finished Books with the Raw Material from which Books are made. Such a contest for a man who loves the Parade of Men and Ideals and has held on to the smile learned as clerk in a Country Store, well, we can't explain. Only those who know, know.

When, just as the speaker pro tem was about to recognize the business man for his rebuttal to this Civic Classic, some one said—"I left school in the 7th Grade and went to work. Before I was 21 I was helping get 'em out to register. Never missed a vote since I could vote. I don't know much but there ain't no Side Line Citizen in America. The words don't hitch up. There are men sittin' on the Side Lines all right, enjoying all that the Rules and Laws of the Game provide. But they are not American Citizens—don't care where they live or were born. Side Line Citizenship—just ain't, that's all. If you don't believe me, ask Judge Morris at some of those Americanization Commencements. And maybe you won't have to ask, you'll see it and feel it. If you don't, ask."

The Meeting was adjourned, sine die, Latin for preventing a fight. But we have thought about it a great deal of late. The story is true and the moral, just now, is Get Registered and Vote. Citizenship in America doesn't sit on the Side Lines. One has to be only fairly familiar with History to recall the Scholars of Revolution Days and Constitution Days and all the Great Days of America. And To-Day is a great day.

Information Wanted

Politics and Campaign discussion have struck Newark and surrounding community at last—and we are glad. Up to the present, the comments have been made in secret session or street banter. There have been no public meetings of the Committees and very few official meetings, resulting in discontent, apathy and in some quarters, disgust.

But during the past week, the interest in our public business has revived and pertinent questions are being asked. Interesting too is the fact, that voters are talking not only national and state issues but county and local questions and candidates. County candidates will look after our county business and voters want to see and hear them. Locally, Newark and White Clay Creek Hundred want to hear from our candidates for Representative to the General Assembly. So Mr. Crow of the Democrats and Mr. Hastings of the Republicans, what have you to say? Where do you stand? For what are you going to stand? What are, in your judgment, the issues from your point of view as applied to this community? What are you going to attempt to do for us, if elected? What may we expect?

The Representative from White Clay at Dover is no idle personality—he represents a very vital and important constituency and will be called upon to think and act on very important questions that concern, very personally concern, every voter here. Our People's Column is open for discussion. What have you or your friends to say in your behalf?

Billy Hayes On Vacation

Glad we are to report that our good friend, Newark's good friend, "Billy" Hayes, now in the Homeopathic Hospital, is better and able to enjoy the World Series in peace and quiet and to enjoy himself away from the jangle of a world-troubled phone.

The Issue

The Issues of this Campaign as we view it are "Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness" and the cost thereof. We want as much of them as we can afford—and no more. This applies to Education, Roads, Health, Welfare, Advance in Science and Regulations of all Iles and Isms. We want all the world has for us—but on cash basis, budget plan, business principle, and know what it costs before instead of after.

Life, Liberty and Pursuit of Happiness—yes. To secure these in the past America has found Economy a guiding principle. President Coolidge says "Extravagance must cease." He included Delaware.

Where Is America Found

The great voice of America does not come from the seats of learning. It comes in a murmur from the hills and woods and farms and factories and the mills, rolling and gaining volume until it comes to us from the homes of common men. Do these murmurs echo in the corridors of the universities. I have not heard them. The universities would make men forget their common origins, forget their universal sympathies, and join a class—and no class can ever serve America. I have dedicated every power there is in me to bring the colleges that I have anything to do with to an absolutely democratic regeneration in spirit, and I shall not be satisfied until America shall know that the men in the colleges are saturated with the same thought, the same sympathy, that pulses through the whole great body politic.—Woodrow Wilson at Princeton.

Another Peace Plan

By Will Rogers

I have a plan which I will never receive five cents for, but still it would stop all future wars, and everybody could understand it, for it's only two words, Draft Wealth. Any time Big Business knows that their money is going to be taken away from them and used for war, the same as their clerks and stenographers, you will stop all wars.

Is America Declining?

Former Governor Edwin P. Morrow, of Kentucky, has discovered that America is going the way of decadent Rome because the people go to moving-picture shows just as the Romans went to the hippodrome.

Macaulay, the English historian, predicted a sad end for the United States because too many people were allowed to vote. Since there were more have-nots than haves, the poor would out-vote and plunder the rich.

Doubtless Christopher Columbus feared for the future of the country when he saw that the original inhabitants wore no clothes. No people that ran about naked ever amounted to anything.

There are dark, rainy days when bills come due and the roof leaks and the potatoes burn and it seems as if the country were going to the dogs very fast. Yet somehow or other it continues to exist no matter who sits in the White House.

As long as most people do an honest day's work for an honest day's pay and try to bring up their children to do the same they will not ruin the country by indulging in pleasure occasionally.—Detroit News.

THE COUNTY WEEKLY AND SCHOOL TEACHERS

A fine tribute was paid to the county press recently by the State Superintendent of Education in Mississippi when he sent out a letter to the teachers under the head of "The County Newspaper."

1. The county newspaper is in reality a county educational institution that does more to form public sentiment than perhaps any other agency in the county.

2. The children of every school should read the paper regularly and discuss with the teacher issues of vital importance to the people of the county. Once a week, therefore, the paper should be used as a kind of textbook on good citizenship.

3. There should be in every school a regular correspondent for the paper so that worth while things accomplished by the people of the county generally.

4. The editor of the paper is generally a man who has been fighting for years for better schools and a proper appreciation by the people of teachers generally.

5. The county paper is the one factor that can have the strong-

Columbus Day, October 12th

Behind him lay the gray Azores,
Behind the Gates of Hercules;
Before him not the ghost of shores;
Before him only shoreless seas.
The good mate said: "Now must we pray,
For lo! the very stars are gone.
Brave Adm'r'l, speak: what shall I say?"
"Why, say: 'Sail on! and on!'"

"My men grow mutinous day by day;
My men grow ghastly wan and weak."
The stout mate thought of home; a spray
Of salt wave washed his swarthy cheek.
"What shall I say, brave Adm'r'l, say,
If we sight naught but seas at dawn?"
"Why, you shall say at break of day:
'Sail on! sail on! sail on! and on!'"

They sailed and sailed, as winds might blow,
Until at last the blanched mate said:
"Why, now not even God would know
Should I and all my men fall dead.
These very winds forget their way,
For God from these dread seas is gone,
Now speak, brave Adm'r'l; speak and say—"
He said: "Sail on! sail on! and on!"

They sailed. They sailed. Then spake the mate:
"This mad sea shows his teeth tonight,
He curls his lip, he lies in wait,
With lifted teeth, as if to bite!
Brave Adm'r'l, say but one good word:
What shall we do when hope is gone?"
The words leapt like a leaping sword:
"Sail on! sail on! sail on! and on!"

Then, pale and worn, he kept his deck,
And peered through darkness, Ah, that night
Of all dark nights! And then a speck—
A light! a light! a light! a light!
It grew, a starlit flag unfurled!
It grew to be Time's burst of dawn.
He gained a world; he gave that world
Its grandest lesson: "On! Sail on!"

"Columbus," by Joaquin Miller.

est influence in the upbuilding of the county generally. The teacher should be, it may be that the as a forward-looking, progressive citizen should co-operate with the paper by subscribing for it and reading it.

NEW CENTURY CLUB

The first meeting of the season of the Newark New Century Club was a very successful one, both as to numbers of members present and to program. This promises well for the work of the club during the coming year.

After a short business session, Dean Robinson imparted to her audience some of the inspiration she brought back from the State Federation meeting held at Rehoboth in July. Her account of the proceedings showed that the women of the State are alive to all the current important measures bearing on the social and civic welfare of the people.

Next came Mrs. William Evans who fired the imagination of her hearers by her realistic account of that larger gathering of women at the National Federation meeting held in San Francisco. She impressed her audience with the tremendous potential power of the organized women of the whole country.

In a very thoughtful paper Mrs. Paine told of the great emphasis that is being put upon education, not only in our own country, but in all lands. It is especially noticeable in the newer democratic countries that have resulted from the World War, showing that nations are coming to realize that if the people are to rule the masses must be educated.

Mrs. Lasher added the charm of beautiful music to the afternoon's entertainment. The needed "little nonsense now and then" was furnished by a real comedy company in which Mrs. Ernest Frazer and Mrs. Joseph McVey were the stars. The production was put on under the direction of Mrs. J. O. G. Duffy.

Our club hostess and her corps of helpers provided the last delicious number on the program and sent us away with that nice satisfied feeling.

The program committee wishes to

CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENT

"An Act proposing an amendment to Article V of the Constitution of the State of Delaware, relating to Registration of Voters."

BE IT ENACTED by the Senate and House of Representatives of the State of Delaware in General Assembly Met: (two-thirds of all the members elected to each House agreeing thereto):

SECTION 1. That Article V of the Constitution of the State of Delaware be amended by striking out all of Section 4 of said Article, and by inserting in lieu thereof a new Section 4 in the following language, to-wit:

"SECTION 4. The General Assembly shall enact uniform laws for the registration of voters in this State entitled to vote under this Article, which registration shall be conclusive evidence to the election officers of the right of every person so registered to vote at any General Election while his or her name shall remain on the list of registered voters, and who is not at the time disqualified under the provisions of Section 3 of this Article; and no person shall vote at such General Election whose name does not at that time appear in said list of registered voters."

"There shall be at least two registration days in a year commencing not more than one hundred and twenty days, nor less than sixty days before, and ending not more than twenty days, nor less than ten days before, each General Election, on which registration days persons whose names are not on the list of registered voters established by law for such election, may apply for registration, and on which registration days application may be made to strike from the said registration list names of persons on said list who are not eligible to vote at such election; provided,
however, that such registration may be corrected as hereinafter provided, at any time prior to the day of holding the election."

"From the decision of the registration officers granting or refusing registration, or striking or refusing to strike a name or name from the registration list, any person interested, or any registration officer, may appeal to the resident Associate Judge of the County, or in case of his disability or absence, to the County, to any Judge entitled to sit in the County Court, whose determination shall be final, and he shall have power to order any name improperly omitted from the said registry to be placed thereon, and any name improperly appearing on the said registry to be stricken therefrom, and any name appearing on the said registry, in any manner incorrect, to be corrected, and to make and enforce all necessary orders in the premises for the correction of the said registry. Registration shall be a prerequisite for voting only at general elections,
at which Representatives to the General Assembly shall be chosen, unless the General Assembly shall otherwise provide by law."

JOSHUA DANFORTH BUSH,
President of the Senate.
SAMUEL N. CULVER,
Speaker of the House.
Approved February 15, 1924.
WM. D. DENNEY,
Governor.
J. A. R. BENSON, Secretary of State of the State of Delaware, do hereby certify that the above and foregoing is a true and correct copy of Senate Bill No. 5 entitled "An Act proposing an amendment to Article V of the Constitution of the State of Delaware, relating to registration of voters," as the same appears on the enrolled bill filed in the office of the Secretary of State and approved by the Governor, February 15, 1924, which said Bill proposes such Amendment to the Constitution of this State in accordance with the requirements of the Constitution of the State."

WHEREFORE, I have GREAT SEAL and official seal at
D. O. T. T. this twenty-
STATE OF eighth day of July, in DELAWARE the year of our Lord

GREAT RECEPTION FOR
"KITCHEN KABINET"

Pythian Sisters of Newark
Entertain at Fairview School Benefit

Residents of Fairview and vicinity were treated to a most unusual concert last Thursday evening, when the famous "Kitchen Cabinet" musicians of the Pythian Sisters organization of Newark, entertained for the benefit of the Ebenezer Sunday School.
The "concert" was held in Fairview School, before an audience which packed the small building to the doors.

About twenty-five ladies of the orchestra were present, each armed with some well known kitchen utensil.
The harmony and solos were many and various. Some of the very latest selections were played, with the dish-pan, coffee pot, and egg beater given special parts therein.

Mrs. Harriet Roberts, the leader, wore a stunning uniform of bright green, trimmed with spoons, a white skirt and a very becoming paper-bag
hat. The supporting musicians wore red coats, white skirts and the same style hats.

The large audience applauded every selection impartially and with called for more.

During the intermission, Mrs. Leah Hill, of Newark, rendered several selections on the violin. Her playing was well received by the crowd and she was applauded loudly.

Following the entertainment, members of the Sunday School sold refreshments and candies to the audience.

It is reported that quite a tidy sum was cleared from the evening's fun to be turned over to the Sunday School.

past week-end, they being ushered in
by Chief Lewis.

They are Manner Jackson, Negro,
an employee of George T. Johnson, of near Head of Christiana Church, and George Edward James, also a Negro, and employed by George Murray, of near town. The two men apparently were buddies, and had imbibed too freely of the forbidden liquids when they met the Chad.

Both were arraigned Monday before Magistrate Thompson and fined nominal sums on intoxication charges.

OBITUARY

MRS. LYDIA M. RAUB
BURIED HERE MONDAY

Widow of Former President of Delaware College, Died
In Brooklyn Friday

The funeral of Mrs. Lydia M. Raub, widow of Dr. Albert N. Raub, former president of Delaware College, was held from the home of a daughter, Mrs. Charles B. Evans, on North College avenue here, last Monday morning at 10:30.

Interment was later made in Head of Christiana Church cemetery, north of Newark.

Mrs. Raub, who was 82 years of age, had been ill for several years, but in the last few weeks took a decided turn for the worse. For some time prior to her death she made her home with another daughter, Mrs. George C. Henry, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Mrs. Raub was a resident of Newark for many years. Her husband served as president of Delaware College from 1888 to 1895. He passed away about 20 years ago. Up until ten years ago his widow lived here, and then moved to Brooklyn to make her home with her daughter. Surviving are four daughters, Mrs. Henry of Brooklyn, Mrs. Mary R. Evans, Mrs. Jennie R. Frazer and Mrs. Laura R. Hossinger, of Newark, and one son, Edgar L. Raub, of Boston.

Mrs. Elizabeth N. Frist

Following a two weeks' illness with grip, which weakened the heart, Mrs. Elizabeth Nebeker Frist, aged 78 years, of Newport, widow of Robert H. Frist, died last Thursday, October 2, 1924. Deceased was a native of Newport and the oldest resident there, as well as the oldest member of St. James' Church, of which her late husband was lay reader and senior warden. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from her late residence at St. James' Church. Rev. E. A. Rich and Rev. Ivanhoe Willis, pastor of Marshallton M. E. Church, officiated. Burial was in the cemetery adjoining the church. Surviving are two children, Mrs. Anna Foard, Marshallton, and John N. Frist, Newport. There is also one brother, Hance W. Nebeker.

PLANT SPECIALIST HERE

Prof. and Mrs. L. R. Detjen, of West Main Street, had as their guest on Monday and Tuesday of this week Professor F. J. Crider, director of the Boyce Thompson Southwestern Arboretum at Superior, Ariz. Prof. Crider and Prof. Detjen are old friends of long standing.

The Arboretum, which Prof. Crider is interested in, plans to collect and classify any plant in the world today which by reason of its constitution can grow in the arid wastes of the Southwest. Such plants will be set out both under and without irrigation, and an effort thereby made to rehabilitate the soil in parts of Texas, Arizona and New Mexico. Prof. Crider was formerly professor of Horticulture in the University of Arizona at Tucson.

Four-wheel Hydraulic Brakes optional—totally unlike any other system on American cars.

THE new Studebaker Duplex models give the comfort and protection of a closed car—with all the advantages of an open car, plus the good looks, riding comfort, interior finish and fittings that no open car could ever give!

Yet the price is no higher than that of an open car.

The appeal of its simplicity, convenience and durability is instant and decisive—with a touch of the hand
you draw down the four roller enclosures and in thirty seconds your airy open car is a snug, comfortable enclosed car. With equal ease the enclosing sides can be rolled up into the roof and you have an open car again.

The Duplex body is especially built for the roller side enclosures, the roof is framed and shaped in steel—permanently beautiful and steel-strong to support the rollers, and the upper part of the Duplex is integral with the lower part. It is a unit body which harmonizes perfectly in beauty and function.

There is no other body like it on any other car at any price—because it is exclusively a Studebaker creation, made only by Studebaker. You can buy the Duplex from no other maker.

The new Duplex is available for each of the three new Studebaker
chassis—the new STANDARD SIX, the SPECIAL SIX and the BIG SIX.

And these three new chassis are the evolution of the famous chassis of the five preceding years. Each year they have been improved and refined.

But this year the new models are climaxed with every tested and proved betterment that experience and science have thus far developed.

They are paramount exemplars of modern automobile design.

Simply stated, this means that money cannot buy more modern perfect automobiles than the new Studebakers—we have the Duplex models ready for your inspection.

A Sale of Lamps

They're a special purchase and they're marked for quick selling.

Bases are mostly in the polychrome or metal finishes—
the shades, in the newest shapes and in almost every color combination.

They're priced much lower than usual and are offered at savings of from one-quarter to one-third.

There is a bridge lamp, two-way adjustable fixture, polychrome base, with a double-lined and fringed-georgette shade. It is an $18.00 lamp.

PRICE, NOW, COMPLETE, $12.00.

There's a junior lamp with polychrome base, a two-light fixture, a 24-inch, fringed, double-lined, georgette shade, in the new oval shape and several color combinations. Usually $32.00.

Priced, now, $22.00.

And there're dozens and dozens of other bases and shades to choose from, all new and all lower than usual in price.

The bases range from $8.50 to $23.00.

The shades range from $3.50 to $25.00.

A lamp instantly, almost magically, changes the whole appearance of your home. And these lamps, with fixtures that are the proper height for reading, are very, very practical with all their prettiness.

These lamps are special.

We may not be able to get more of them and so your selection now is advisable.

There is a boudoir vase lamp
in rose, blue and black, decorated parchment shade or in a silk shade.

They're marked, special,
$3.25, complete.

There're a number of other boudoir lamps up to $13.50.

An exceptional value in a table lamp has a pottery base in blue, rose or black, one-light fixture with double-lined silk shade to match and is $6.50, complete.

Two-light pottery table lamps, silk and georgette shades,
are special at $13.50 each.

New and exceptionally attractive are some pottery
lamps with the new hand-painted beaded shades.

They're marked $20.00, complete.

Church Notes

The Ushers appointed for the month of October are as follows:

Morning service—John W. Moore, Clarence Fox, Francis Lindell, Stanley Wilson, Raymond Buckingham.
Evening service—Oliver W. Leverage, William Marra, George Knapf, L. A. Rhodes.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woman's Home Missionary Society will be held in the lecture room of the church on Thursday afternoon at 2:30.

The Junior Epworth League will meet on Friday evening at 7 o'clock.

Ebenezer Church

Gilbert T. Gehman, Minister
Church School at 10:00 a. m., Mr. Allan Buckingham, superintendent. Sermon by the pastor at 11:00 a. m. Special music will be rendered by the choir. The Rev. W. R. McElroy, pastor of the White Clay, Presbyterian Church, will preach at 8:00 p. m., Sunday.

The Rally Day, services were held last Sunday. There was a large attendance in all the classes. The pastor had finished taking a community survey and had lists of names of all the people of the parish written on slips of paper according to their ages in order to classify them in the various grades of the Church school. The lists contained the names of those who are members at present and those who will probably be added to the school this year. The lists were handed to the teachers in order that they may build up their classes accordingly. The pastor has all information concerning the ages and church relationships of the people of the entire parish listed and placed on the shelves of his filing cabinet ready for use. The parish is becoming more closely organized notwithstanding the fact that the people live apart on farms totalling thousands of acres of some of the best soil of our State.

The Evangelistic campaign started last Sunday. There were seven conversions last Sunday. The meetings are to continue for a couple of weeks.

RESOLUTIONS

OF RESPECT

Dr. Walter H. Steel

WHEREAS it was the will of Divine Providence to call from our midst our brother and friend, Dr. Walter H. Steel, whose geniality, sterling worth and manhood had endeared him to the membership of Minnehaha Tribe, No. 23, I. O. R. M. Therefore, be it

RESOLVED, that we thus express our sorrow for the great loss our fraternity, and our entire community, has suffered in the death of our brother. Be it further

RESOLVED, that these resolutions be entered upon our minutes and a copy of them printed in the Newark Post, and Delaware Ledger, and a copy sent to his family.

Orville Little,
Geo. W. Griffin,
W. S. Armstrong, Committee.

LODGE NEWS

Minnehaha Tribe, No. 23, I. O. R. M., held an interesting meeting last night, when Deputy Great Sachem McDowell and his raising up Chiefs trailed from Little Bear and raised up the Chiefs elected last week for the next six moons.

An enjoyable time was spent after the regular business was attended to. Refreshments, consisting of coffee and sandwiches, was served.

COMMUNITY SHOCKED BY DR. STEEL'S DEATH

Family Survive Him

Dr. Steel is survived by his widow, Kathryn Pitt Steel, and by six children, Paul P., now stationed with the United States Army in Honolulu, T. H.; Justin, a student in High School here, and by four daughters, Rosalie, Phoebe, Dean and Louise, all scholars at Ursuline Academy, Wilmington.

Dr. Steel is also survived by three sisters: Mrs. Mary McKean, of Denver, Colorado; Lucille Wickersham, of Wilmington; and Mrs. Emma Jones, of Newark. The parents of the deceased died several years ago.

Local Man's Car Gone; Owner Didn't Know It

Jersey Police Pick Up C. B. Dean's Auto, Supposed to Be in His Garage

The be-whiskered phrase, much used in polite society and the "best sellers," entitled "gone but not forgotten," might well be changed to "gone and never missed," in this particular instance.

Clarence B. Dean, well known Main street merchant, and his trusty auto, figure as the prominent members of the present cast. Clarence put his car away last Wednesday night, while he mentally made a note that it must go to the repairman pretty soon, to get some bearings tightened. Clarence then became immersed in business.

In the meantime, Friday to be exact, Magistrate Thompson received a wire from police at Union Hill, N. J., telling of a car picked up there bearing a Delaware license No. 15,781.

Out came the trusty registration book, and lo and behold! it was Clarence's car.

Thereupon Chief Lewis rushed down the street to see Mr. Dean, and asked him, thusly:

"Where is your car?"

"In the garage, silly one," replied Mr. Dean.

"I don't believe it," said the Chief. So just to vindicate his opinion, Mr. Dean and the Chief sauntered to the garage in the rear of Powell's restaurant, and Mr. Dean opened the door.

"It's gone," said Mr. Dean.

"Exactly," said the Chief.

The balance of this story runs in the conventional vein. Just a matter of gathering up all the tangled ends of a bewildering plot, tying them together and proudly holding them up to the light as the curtain falls.

And so it is with Mr. Dean and His Car.

LEAVE FOR HUNTING TRIP

Dr. Walter H. Steel, president of the University, H. Rodney Sharp, member of the Board of Trustees and active worker for the College here, and A. L. Lauritsen, of Wilmington, will leave on the 12th of this month for a three-weeks' hunting trip in the woods.

The party will hunt particularly for moose in the northern part of the Dominion.

SPIRITED MEETING HELD AT NOON

Peace and War, she said, "the will of the people shall be the law of the land." Mrs. Bishop proved a rapid and interesting talker.

The last speaker was Mrs. Karnell, of Philadelphia, who spoke on Law Enforcement.

One of Mrs. Karnell's key statements was "You will serve in proportion higher than you left your homes."

The speaker made a plea for the enforcement of all laws, every law and charged that people were "penny winking at law and order."

Frank Stephens of Ames was expected to speak for Mr. La Follette, but Mrs. Bishop spoke in his place in Newark.

After visiting the Woman's Club a few minutes, the party left for Middletown and Smyrna where meetings will be held today. The tour will take in every town in the State.

NUMBER 37

STATE HEALTH LAB. IS NOW OPEN IN DOVER

Dr. Middlebrook in Charge At New Headquarters In Hinkle Building

Monday of this week saw the official opening of the State Board of Health laboratory in Dover, following its removal from the campus of the University here.

For the past several weeks, the equipment and stock of the laboratory has been moved a little at a time to the new headquarters. The removal followed the decision made at a meeting of the State Board last summer, at which time it was declared that Dover was better fitted to be the center of the Board's activities than Newark.

The Laboratory will occupy the second floor of the Hinkle Building at State and North streets, Dover, and will be under the direction of Dr. Robert Middlebrook, who served in the same capacity during the last few weeks of activities here.

Several reasons have been advanced for the removal, by the State Board officials. One is that it will serve more people in less time at Dover than at Newark; another that the University is in great need of the building on the campus here.

Hereafter the laboratory will be at the service of the entire state—physicians and citizens—and will endeavor, according to Dr. A. T. Davis, secretary of the State Health and Welfare Commission, to serve the public better, or quickly and more efficiently than ever before.

Modern ways for quickly and more accurately diagnosing contagious diseases, will be one of the very important and life-saving ways in which the state laboratory will now be able to function.

WHAT'S A HONEY-MOON WITHOUT A CAR

Philadelphian Claims Auto
Left Here by Joy Riders
Who Couldn't Pay Fine

When David E. Camac, of Philadelphia, arrived in Newark last Friday he was in the frame of mind typical of honeymooners when their wedding trip is all spoiled.

Mr. Camac, according to his story to local police, was about to start on a honeymoon, when two Negro employees decided they wanted his car for a joyride. They were headed for the races at Havre de Grace on September 24th, when they were arrested for speeding near Newark, and fined $25.00 and costs by Magistrate Thompson. They failed to produce the money, and left the car for security while they went back to the city for funds.

It was later learned that the car had been stolen and Mr. Camac was notified of its presence here.

According to Magistrate Thompson's office, the owner came down Friday and claimed the car, also paying the fine which his blithe colored friends had run up for him.

From now on, Mr. Camac said he would keep his Buick hitched to the front porch at all times.

HILLSIDE SCHOOL IN FIRST P. T. A. MEETING

The Hillside Parent-Teacher Association held its first meeting of the new school term last Thursday evening. A large crowd was in attendance.

The program consisted of a short business meeting, refreshments were served, then games were played out side.

The Parent-Teacher Association plan to have a spooky Halloween party on the evening of October 30. Everyone is cordially invited to come masked. We ask that everyone help to keep order. Refreshments will be served.

The Hillside Honor Roll pupils for the month of September are: Mary Anna Morris, Clarence Ogden Crossan. They were neither late nor tardy.

Phones For Five Points

Workmen in the employ of the Diamond State Telephone Company have started work erecting poles on the west side of the Newport Pike from Richardson Park to Newport. The enlarging of the conduits and the erection of a new pole line along the road will enable residents of the Five Points to have additional phone service.

FIREMEN CALLED TO SUBURBAN BLAZE

Lack of Water Facilities Hamper Companies at Richardson Park Fire

Newark firemen were called out Thursday evening last to a fire in the Richardson Park section of suburban Wilmington. The fine home of Hen-derson Smith was ultimately destroyed, although five companies were on the scene and rendered what aid they could.

Lack of water and connections which would not fit the hose couplings were two things which handicapped the fire fighters. In addition, the blaze had gained great headway be-fore the firemen arrived.

Several men were slightly overcome by smoke and one fireman of the Cran-ston Heights company was injured about the head when a falling beam struck him. None of the Newark firemen were injured.

PUBLICITY OFFERED TO ENLIGHTEN FARMERS

The American Council of Agricul-ture has prepared a leaflet pointing out the inequality that has been im-posed on American agriculture through legislative enactments favor-ing other lines, and is calling upon farmers and their friends to help remedy it. The Council was created at a conference of national and state agricultural organizations in July at St. Paul, Minnesota.

Its first undertaking is that of con-tinuing the campaign which was waged before the last session of con-gress to secure for agriculture the same benefits of the American prin-ciple of protection that has been ex-tended to American industry and la-bor. Candidates for election to Con-gress are being asked to pledge them-selves to "vote for and actively sup-port legislation that will give Amer-ican agriculture equality with Amer-ican industry and labor." The cir-cular being distributed by the Council urges that "Men and women alike should actively support candidates, regardless of their party affiliation, who do so commit themselves, and should defeat those who do not."

The leaflet contains the principal points of two addresses on the agri-cultural situation. One, by F. W. Murphy, lawyer and farmer of Whea-ton, Minn., was the key-note address of the St. Paul farm conference. The other was given by George N. Peck, president of the Council, at the Iowa State Fair. These point out what the Council believes must be done before American agriculture can stand out what the Council believes must be done before American agriculture can stand upon a sound foundation.

Two maps are used in the leaflet with very graphic effect. One shows how members of the House of Rep-resentatives voted on the McNary-Haugen farm relief bill, while the other shows the vote on the tariff bill of 1922. On the latter, agricul-ture is shown to have stood by the in-dustrial east, but the east failed to stand by agriculture on the farm re-lief measure.

The Post is informed that copies of the leaflet can be secured from farm organization secretaries, or from the headquarters of the American Council of Agriculture, the address of which is 608 South Dearborn Street, Chi-cago, Ill.

Propose New Motor Trail Through State
For Traffic From New York To Florida

"Del-Mar-Via Trail" Idea Will Be Made Basis of Aggressive
Action on Part of Salisbury People — E. D. Prince Helped Evolve Scheme

The people of the Eastern Shore in and near Salisbury and of all the towns along the du Pont Boulevard in Delaware, will be interested to know that a movement is on foot to complete a last link in the proposed Delmarvia Trail, in order that this route can be offered to motorists as a shorter and more pleasant trip from the north to Florida and other south-ern states.

The Wicomico News, a Salisbury weekly, has this to say about the proposal:

New York to Florida via Salisbury. People living on the Del-Mar-Via Peninsula may see in the course of the next few years a steady stream of northern tourists passing down along the du Pont Highway of Delaware and through Salisbury on to Norfolk and the south if a project just launched by a group of publicity men succeeds. The plan calls for the com-pletion of a concrete road from Pocomoke to Cape Charles and the provid-ing of adequate ferry facilities by the Pennsylvania Railroad across the mouth of the Chesapeake.

Immediately upon the accomplish-ment of this important highway and water link connecting the north and south by a new route, an effort will be made to divert to what will be known as the "Del-Mar-Via Trail" the extensive tourist traffic that now journeys southward from Philadel-phia through Baltimore, Washington, Richmond and Petersburg. The pro-moters of this great publicity move-ment for the Del-Mar-Via Peninsula declares that motorists traveling from Wilmington into the lower part of Virginia on their way to Florida and other points will shorten their dis-tance from 50 to 100 miles and their time of travel approximately five hours by taking the more direct route which is proposed to run from Wil-mington, Del., to Courtland, Virginia, by way of Dover, Salisbury, Pocomoke, Cape Charles and Norfolk.

The opening of the new Wicomico Hotel in this city paves the way for the success of the project which was born overnight in the minds of editors E. D. Prince and John F. Harlan, of the State of Delaware's new Official Book, and Manager Charles P. Gay, of the Wicomico Hotel. Together with Mr. Harry K. Smith, Jr., editor of The Evening Times, these men will go to Norfolk the latter part of next week to attend the hearing of the pro-posed Portsmouth-Norfolk Freight Traffic Commission against the present ferry charges of the Pennsylvania railroad in transporting automobiles from Cape Charles to Norfolk. They will also hold conferences on the pro-posed Del-Mar-Via highway project with representatives of the Norfolk-Tidewater Automobile Association, the Norfolk-Tidewater Hotel Associa-tion and the Norfolk-Portsmouth Chamber of Commerce. All of these organizations are believed to be most favorably inclined toward the new project.

It is thought by those sponsoring the movement that the Pennsylvania railroad will consider the lowering of the ferry charges on automobiles be-tween Cape Charles and Norfolk if there looms up additional revenue from increased traffic as the result of the proposed new route to the south. Pressure, no doubt, will be brought to bear upon the project by the city of Norfolk, known as the Gateway of the South, as that city is now missing a large proportion of tourist travel to southern points by motor. The completion of the concrete roads on the Eastern Shore of Virginia would also open up a direct route for motor trade between Norfolk and Philadel-phia just as is now established for rail purposes.

TAX DELINQUENTS
GIVEN WEEK TO PAY

Alderman Thompson Will
Then Take Summary
Action, Is Report

Six names remain on the delin-quent list of 1924 Special School dis-trict taxpayers, according to Alder-man S. Daniel Thompson.

Mr. Thompson, when asked about the status of the list Saturday, said that he will allow one week from this date for the payment in full by the delinquents. After that time has ex-pired, he will take the necessary legal steps to compel payment.

Mr. Thompson also threatened to publish the list of names at the same time he takes court action.

When the delinquent list was hand-ed to him several weeks ago by Har-ison Gray, it contained nineteen names. To date it has been pared down to six. The amounts due are for 1924 school taxes alone, and in-clude no back taxes.

Newark Boy Wins Game For Delaware By Last Minute Touchdown

"Biff" Hopkins Goes Over With Only Score Against St. Joseph's College Saturday

A Newark boy again came to the fore in Delaware athletics Saturday, when Delaware nipped St. Joseph's in a bitter battle on Frazer Field. In opening the season with a well-deserved victory, Delaware students, alumni and friends in every locality, are breathing easier this week.

Young "Biff" Hopkins, home bred, and a product of Newark High School, was the youngster who turned the trick for the Blue and Gold cohorts. Playing his first game in college, Hopkins put up a brilliant article of football, and not only in the last minute when he scored his touchdown, but all through the game, he showed that the confidence Coach McAvoy had in him was not misplaced.

The story of the lone tally is easily told. In the last quarter after an hour of futile wrestling and tugging up and down the field, Delaware received the ball on St. Joe's 35-yard line, when Lou Kramer charged through for the second time that afternoon and smeared an attempted kick.

Sensing the last chance of the day, Delaware struck hard and often at the visiting line. The backs wormed, ripped and tore their way to the ten yard mark on straight football, with Weggenmann, Hubert and Jackson carrying the ball.

Hopkins then dropped back and carried the ball off left tackle, shook off two tacklers, reversed his field, and squirmed over the last chalk mark for six points.

The try for goal after touchdown went wild. The stands were already wild, hats thickened the air above the Delaware stands, and all the pent-up enthusiasm which had perforce been quieted by the even struggle spread out before them, suddenly let go from the spectators and the old field rocked with cheers.

In a few seconds the game was over. That final punch at last showed itself, almost too late, but nevertheless it was there. And Delaware won.

A Matter of Patience

Early in the game it became evident to anyone who had the faintest knowledge of football that unless a big break came, the game would end without scoring. Although outwitted several pounds to the man, the Delaware team made up for that by their hard driving play. McKelvie and Kramer were almost a two-man team on the defense. One or the other was always on top of each and every play, followed the ball like young hawks, and in general conducted themselves like the real footballers they are.

But Dougherty and Wright were not asleep on their side of the fence, either. Time after time they smeared out Delaware plays. And so it went, up and down the field.

Any advantage which might have been noted during the first three quarters went unanimously to Delaware. They rushed the ball further and had the play most of the time in St. Joe's territory.

Two fumbles by "Sook" Jackson in the first quarter had Delaware rooters' hearts in their mouths for a while. He fumbled once when carrying the ball on a long sustained offensive, and a minute later, dropped a kick in the shadow of his own goal. Both times, however, the Blue and Gold squeezed out of the jam and went on struggling for a touchdown.

The Kicking Duel

In the third quarter, evidently under orders, Delaware engaged with St. Joe's in a punting duel, which, to be frank, lost more than it gained for the local collegians. Hubert was hurried on numerous occasions, while Murphy got off some long boots. The visitors clearly had the better of the exchange.

Kramer, however, was trying hard to block a kick and finally accomplished his desire, and thereby put his team in line for the one glorious score.

For Delaware the work of McKelvie and Kramer on the line was perhaps as brilliant as ever has been seen on Frazer Field. In the backfield, Hopkins and Hubert, both of whom played on Newark High a few years ago, played steady, hard games. Weggenmann and Jackson were in there every minute, but on their off-tackle and end runs could not seem to get going. Jackson staidied after the first few minutes and played good football. Lohman at end was another clever defensive player in a purely

High School Footballers Priming For Big Battle With Dover High Friday Next

Coach Nunn Putting His Charges Through Heavy Schedule This Week Preparing For First D. I. A. A. Game. Hold Delaware "Thirds" Scoreless

With a regular "cruical" contest scheduled for next Friday afternoon, on Continental Field, Coach Nunn and his High School warriors are not missing a bet in their practices this week.

The big opponent Friday is Dover High School, the first of the contenders for the D. I. A. crown this fall. Feeling that the advantage of being in the lead and looking back at the rest, instead of straining to get up with the pacemakers, Coach Nunn is priming his charges especially for this game.

Last Friday, to fill in an open date, the High School griders lined up against the Delaware College third team under the captaincy of Barkley, and for a regulation four-quarter game, neither team could score.

defensive game.

For the visitors, Murphey, Oakes, Wright, and Dougherty stood out as the best of the lot. The lineup:

Delaware St. Joseph's

McCaskey ... left guard ... Donohue
Kramer ... center ... McClernan
Pedrick ... right guard ... Wright
Torbert ... right tackle ... Cuniffe Lohman ... right end ... McCauley
Jackson ... quarterback ... Murphey
Hopkins ... left halfback ... Dineen Weggenmann right halfback ... Gowen
Hubert ... fullback ... Oakes

Substitutions—Delaney for Murphey; Reckner for McCauley; Murphey for Delaney; Reynolds for McCaskey; McCauley for Reckner.

Touchdown—Hopkins. Failed at goal after score—Hubert. Referee—Charles Price, of Swarthmore. Umpire—Sangree, of Haverford. Timer and head linesman—Newell, Chestnut Hill. Time of periods—ten minutes.

PENNOCK TOYS WITH FORT DuPONT TEAM

"Dutch" Robinson and Mannix Line Up With Soldiers In Big Game Sunday

With "Herb" Pennock, the pride of Kennett Square, leading his own town's cohorts, and with Wally Schang and Hoffman, both of the New York Yankees, also in the lineup, the Kennett Square all-star team defeated Fort du Pont last Sunday at Delaware City, 8-0.

With Pennock in the box, the soldiers, augmented by several nearby stars, were helpless. The tall lanky one simply curved and spun the balls past the batsmen. Natives said they had never seen such pitching in the swamps of Delaware City.

"Dutch" Robinson, of Elkton, a well-known local ball player, and Mannix, Delaware star, were in the soldiers' lineup. Bobby got a three-base hit off Schang, who went in to pitch to relieve Pennock.

Schang, a catcher by trade, amused the fans by pitching either right or lefthanded, in whichever mood he happened to be. A great crowd saw the contest.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PUPILS ON OUTING TO FARM

Mrs. Kenning Hostess to Youngsters Last Week at College Farm

Several members of a girls' class at the M. E. Sunday School, here were guests of Mrs. Kenning, at the University Farm on Depot Road, last Wednesday afternoon.

The party started at 2:30 p. m., and the afternoon was greatly enjoyed by all in looking over the spacious farm, playing games and partaking of delicious refreshments where were served later.

Another Much-Loved Dog Goes To His Reward

"Curly," a long-haired spaniel belonging to Roger Lovett, and a familiar figure in the neighborhood, took leave of the world and its struggling masses on Monday of this week, and entered his last haven of rest. He is being sadly mourned by his owner and, for that matter, everyone who has known him.

"Curly" follows into oblivion the well-known hound "Toby," belonging to William Chalmers, an account of whose passing graced the pages of The Post recently.

TRYING OUT JAPAN CLOVER

Prof. Schuster and Party Complete Tour of State

Prof. George L. Schuster conducted a tour over the State last week, studying the possibilities of Japan clover as a pasture crop. In the party were Dr. A. J. Pieters of the U. S. Department of Agriculture; M. O. Pence and M. A. Willis of the University of Delaware. Japan clover has been used in Sussex County for four years and has proven very valuable. It is not advocated where a good blue grass and white clover sod can be produced.

Newark "Red Birds" Overwhelmed By St. Mary's Team 48-0

Locals Cannot Stop Attack of Wilmington Boys in Saturday's Game

The Newark "Red Birds," in their second game of the season, were overwhelmed Saturday afternoon last by the strong St. Mary's team of Wilmington, 48-0.

According to reports of the game, Newark failed to register a single first down against their more experienced and huskier opponents. The local boys, however, put up a plucky fight over every inch of the way, and drew the applause of the crowd on numerous occasions when they held the Wilmingtonians.

McCullion went over for the first touchdown for St. Mary's after the Newark griders had put up a stubborn defense in the early part of the game. The battle then became a rout, with St. Mary's scoring seemingly at will. Lovell and McCullion carried the brunt of the attack for the winners.

Newark presented practically the same team which held the 18th Aero Squadron of Aberdeen to one touchdown the week previous. No substitutions were made during the game. While at times playing fine defensive football, the Newarkers could not fathom the St. Mary's aerial attack, and long forward passes accounted for most of the touchdowns.

Holton Resigns As Coach

It was announced last week that Walter D. Holton, former Delaware tackle, and for two years coach of the Newark team, had resigned, due to press of business. Coach Holton developed a hard fighting, aggressive team last fall and the prospects for another one made local football fans anxious for the season to open.

In tackling the strong St. Mary's team early in the season, the Newark boys showed a lack of condition and practice which must be rectified before the season goes much further.

The score of Saturday's game:

Newark St. Mary's
Sheaffer ... left end ... Hangentangle
Perry ... left tackle ... Salter
Robinson ... left guard ... Kelleher
Hill ... center ... Murphy
Keeley ... right guard ... Eckrick
H. Smith ... right tackle ... Fahey
A. Smith ... right end ... Nolan
Claringfield ... quarterback ... Connors
Hopkins ... left halfback ... Lovell
Sanborn ... right halfback ... Hayes
Snarks ... fullback ... McCullion

Touchdowns—McCullion, 2; Lovell, 2; Hayes, Connors, Fallers. Points after touchdowns—Kelleher, 5; Connors, 1. Substitutions—Ferris for McCullion, Fallers for Eckrick, Smith for Nolan, McBride for Hangentangle, Devore for Kelleher, Referee—Devine, St. Mary's. Umpire—Kisler, Delaware. Head linesman—Kelleher. Time of periods—10 and 12 minutes.

National Fire Prevention Week—October 5-12

FIRE PREVENTION WEEK

The Governor's Proclamation

The waste of property by burning in the United States during 1923 reached a total higher than any recorded since 1906 when the San Francisco conflagration occurred, the aggregate values destroyed being approximately $508,000,000, and in addition there was serious loss of life by fire.

Our own State bore its proportionate share of this huge toll, notwithstanding the preventability of most fires.

Since the major portion of the loss of human and material wealth could have been avoided by reasonable precautions and a proper mental attitude of carefulness, it is evident that we can by concerted action, prevent the continuance of this large and unnecessary burden.

Therefore, I designate the period from October 5 to 11, 1924, as Fire Prevention Week, and I would urge every resident of our State to take an earnest and active interest in the occasion. Civic bodies of all kinds, including chambers of commerce, Women's Clubs and business organizations, school officials, the American Red Cross, the Boy Scouts and the other organizations, are endeavoring to curtail the preventable fire and they should be accorded your unanimous cooperation. I hope that the churches, through sermons and addresses and the newspapers by editorial attention will join hands to impress upon the public the economic and human aspect of the situation created by our wilful burning. American efficiency should not tolerate such a readily eliminable drain upon our material resources.

WILLIAM D. DENNEY, Governor of Delaware.

BE CAREFUL WHEN STARTING FURNACE RIGID INSPECTION BEST

Lighting the furnace fires with the approach of winter costs the people of the United States approximately $18,000,000, it is estimated, in addition to the cost of the fuel burned. This sum represents the loss by fire due to defective flues and clogged chimneys. The greater part of this loss, it is asserted by the Insurance Department of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States could have been prevented had inspections and the necessary repairs been made before the winter fires were started.

The suggestion is made that all flues and chimneys be inspected and cleaned if necessary and that fire dangers from this source be eliminated before starting the fires for the season.

The warning is also issued that kerosene and gasoline. They are dangerous aids for this purpose.

Another $12,000,000 is attributed to defective lighting and heating apparatus. This should be inspected frequently and if trouble is encountered an expert should be consulted.

Open lights in the home should be protected and care taken that curtains and other inflammable material do not blow into the flame.

The annual observance of Fire Prevention Week throughout the entire country began Sunday, in accordance with the proclamation issued by President Coolidge.

Experts and fire underwriters are convinced that many of the lives lost by fire and much of the stupendous property loss, running into hundreds of millions annually, could be saved if the people, individually and collectively, observe a few simple precautions.

The United States has not yet followed the practice adopted in some of the European countries of holding property owners personally responsible for fires caused by their gross negligence, but value of this type of legislation is recognized by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States which, at one of its annual meetings, adopted the following resolution:

"The national loss through the waste of fire amounts upward at a rate which indicates the need of immediate attention in each State and in every city. Within a few years the amount in property values destroyed in the United States by fire has increased until it is annually in excess of the entire cost of the Panama Canal. In a large part this figure represents waste which can be prevented by effective action by States and cities. Personal liability for damages occurring to others through fire caused by gross negligence should be enforced in ways which will bring home to individuals their responsibility."

BENEFIT PARTY OFF

Death of Dr. Steel Causes Postponement of Affair Until October 23rd

The benefit card party, which was to have been given at the New Century Club here tomorrow (Thursday) evening, has been postponed until Thursday evening, October 23rd.

The death of Dr. Walt H. Steel, and the general sadness in the homes of the entire town, caused by his passing, entered into the decision of the officials of the Club to change the date.

John S. Shaw Named By Local Commerce Body

Safety Engineer of du Pont Co. Aiding Fire Prevention Week

John S. Shaw of Newark, a Safety Engineer with the du Pont Company in Wilmington, has been appointed by the local Chamber to handle the necessary matters relative to Newark's part in National Fire Prevention Week.

The Chamber of Commerce of the United States is acting through all its branch units in an effort to bring the observance of this Week to the attention of every citizen.

The Newark Chamber of Commerce, a member of the National body, is co-operating in this drive, and Mr. Shaw is the authorized representative.

Among the precautions suggested by Mr. Shaw for Fire Prevention Week are the following:

Oil-soaked waste and rags should be destroyed as soon as used or kept in closed metal containers, which should be emptied every day. Floor mops and rags saturated with furniture polish should be kept in covered metal cans.

Care should be taken in storing soft coal. When it is put in a cellar a good rule is not to pile it higher than half the distance to the ceilings. Be sure it is free from such things as rags and is dry. Keep it dry except for such small portions as are taken out for immediate use. Have the pile as far as possible from any source of heat. When a rise in temperature is observed immediate steps should be taken to rehandle the warm portion of the coal or open the pile so that the heat may escape by radiation.

Straw and hay should not be packed in mows unless perfectly dry.

Quicklime, which generates heat in slacking, should be kept in a dry place well removed from woodwork and other combustible material.

CHICAGO DISASTER REASON FOR STARTING PREVENTION WEEK

Fifty-three years ago Thursday last, Chicago was devastated by the great fire. In the extent of destruction left in its wake it was surpassed only by the San Francisco catastrophe of 1906.

In the Chicago fire 200 persons lost their lives, 70,000 were made homeless, 2,000 acres were swept by flames and 17,000 buildings were destroyed with a property loss of $190,000,000.

The annual fire loss of the United States at the present time is approximately $500,000,000 and 15,000 persons are either burned to death or die from injuries received in fires.

A greater amount of capital goes up in flame and smoke each year than was expended in constructing the Panama Canal.

Experience has shown that organized community effort and individual precaution can reduce this enormous waste. In recognition of this fact organizations through the United States are taking a leading part in conducting special activities designed to develop a sense of personal responsibility in the prevention of fires.

Primary School Bake

The pupils of the Primary Department of the Public Schools will hold a bake on Saturday, October 18th, from 10 a. m. to 1 p. m., in the school building.

Proceeds from the affair will be turned over into the Primary School Fund. Miss Harriett Wilson is principal in charge of that department.

NOW! A Shingle that's different from all others!

FLEXSTONE

The Slate Surfacted Asbestos Shingle

Heretofore there has been only one Johns-Manville Asbestos Shingle, distinguishable by its rock-like hardness.

With the introduction of Flexstone you may now get, at a reduced price, many of the extraordinary merits of that famous Johns-Manville rigid asbestos shingle—for Flexstone shingles, although costing less, are all mineral, fire-resistant, rot-proof. They are made of asbestos felt densely impregnated with asphalt and surfaced with red, green or blue-black slate or feldspar (gray). They should not be confused with ordinary slate surfaced shingles.

Priced within a few cents of so-called Composition Shingles

To produce an asbestos shingle that can't curl, rot or dry out, and still reach the price levels of ordinary rag felt shingles is an achievement—for the cost of rag felt is obviously less than a felt of rock fibre—asbestos. So we are actually committed to giving you more per dollar, more years of service, greater fire-safety, lower upkeep cost.

Flexstone is a Johns-Manville Asbestos Roofing

Flexstone Shingles are made of Johns-Manville Asbestos and as such assure you the maximum of service, economy, fire-safety, durability. Write or telephone us immediately.

H. WARNER McNEAL

Make this convincing Flow Torch test on Flexstone Shingles. It proves how thoroughly fire-resistant these shingles are.

WHEN YOU START THE FIRE DON'T START A FIRE!

Rubbish and other inflammable material should be kept away from the furnace. Flues should be cleaned, and smoke pipe put in good repair.

These precautions are cheaper than the smallest fire damage.

They are your duty as a thoughtful citizen.

Farm Bureau Executive Committee Meets In First Autumn Session

All Members Present Last Saturday — County Agent Submits Report on Activities

The monthly meeting of the Executive Committee of the New Castle County Farm Bureau was held in the Director's Room of the Security Trust and Safe Deposit Co. building, Wilmington, Saturday afternoon, October 4.

The meeting was presided over by President Frank F. Yearsley, of Marshallton. The entire membership of the committee was present. This was the first meeting of the Committee following the summer recess. Mr. E. C. Handy of Dover, agent for the Delaware Branch of the Western States Farmers' Exchange, was present and stated that the feed and fertilizer pools were in a healthy condition and expressed optimism relative to the future of the pools. Mr. Handy's statements were supplemented by J. D. Reynolds, of Middletown, and C. P. Dickey, of Stanton. County Agent R. O. Bauman, of Newark, then submitted his monthly report. The report follows:

Potato Demonstrations

I should first like to refer to the results of the potato work which has been running during the summer months. I will refer you to the following compilation:

Grown on farm of J. Howard Mitchell and Sons of Hockessin—Green Mountains, grown from certified seed—yield, 290 bu. per acre. Green Mountains, seed grown from certified seed—236 bu. per acre. Rural Russets, grown from certified seed—230 bu. per acre.

Grown on farm of Edwin Pierson and Son of Hockessin—Green Mountains, grown from certified seed, yield, 281 bu. per acre. Green Mountains, seed grown from certified seed—206 bu. per acre. Rural Russets, grown from certified seed—191 bu. per acre.

Grown on farm of John F. Brackin and Son of Marshallton—Green Mountains, grown from certified seed, yield, 250 bu. per acre. Green Mountains, seed grown from certified seed—175 bu. per acre. Rural Russets, grown from certified seed, 196 bu. per acre.

Grown on farm of H. L. Dilworth of Centerville—Green Mountains, grown from certified seed, yield, 320 bu. per acre. Rural Russets, grown from certified seed, yield, 276 bu. per acre.

You will note that the certified Green Mountain seed consistently out-yielded the year old seed as well as the certified Rural Russet. The question which many farmers are asking is how long can we use our old seed, the source of which was certified. The results of these tests answer this question without a doubt. Mr. Edwin Pierson of Hockessin on whose farm one test was made was of the opinion that the old seed would probably do as well as the certified. You will note that on his farm the certified seed produced nearly 80 bushels to the acre more than did the others. Mr. Pierson is now convinced that he could not have invested money to better advantage than to have bought enough certified seed annually to plant his entire acreage. The tests show that although the Rural Russets did exceptionally well this year, yet they did not equal the yield of the Green Mountains in this section. In encephaloma, with a higher altitude and cooler climate, the Rural Russet is used more extensively. However, the Green Mountain over a period of several years has demonstrated its ability to consistently out-yield other varieties under Delaware conditions.

Factors Affecting Grades of Delaware Wheat

At the last meeting I reported to you in some detail relative to the work which I have been conducting covering the factors affecting the grades of Delaware grown wheat. At the present time I am endeavoring to complete this work covering a two-year period. It is obvious that the longer the period covered by this work the more reliable it will be. When the work is complete I will have compilations showing the grade of practically every car of wheat shipped out of the state during this two-year period.

This information will also show the factor on which each ear graded down. Based on this information, we will be in a position to advise with farmers relative to methods thru which they can improve the grades of their wheat. This entails problems both in production and marketing.

Sweet Clover Demonstrations

At the last meeting I discussed with you a rotation which seemed to be nearer in harmony with present economic conditions than does the old rotation. However, this rotation was based to a certain degree on sweet clover. In order to have a more reliable knowledge of the performance of sweet clover under all conditions, I have arranged several demonstrations. At the present time I am working on a demonstration on the farm of J. D. Reynolds of Middletown, which will be carried out as nearly under farm conditions as it is possible to make it. Thirty acres of sweet clover will be seeded in the wheat next spring. This is a large enough acreage to carry the entire herd. At the present time the lime is being applied.

This brings up a problem relative to lime requirements. The Delaware Experiment Station, as well as other stations, are finding that applications of lime used by many farmers in the G.A.L. 2-ART. 34 10.7.24 JAK must have been heavier than were necessary. They are finding that total acidity is composed of two types of acidity, namely, active and inactive acidity. The inactive acidity is that produced at least in part from decaying organic matter and has no injurious effect upon growing crops.

The plan on which the Station is working at the present time is to determine the active acidity, and on this basis the lime requirement of the average soil is much less. On the field on which the demonstration is being conducted Prof. C. R. Runk of the Experiment Station determined that from the standpoint of active acidity that the soil is neutral, but he suggested an application of 1500 pounds of hydrated lime per acre for the purpose of plant food for the sweet clover rather than to neutralize the acidity. However, Prof. Runk expressed the opinion that from 500 to 1000 pounds would probably produce a crop of sweet clover. In applying the lime, therefore, we have the following plots: first, check plot—no lime; second plot—500 pounds of lime per acre; third plot, 1000 pounds of lime per acre; fourth plot and remainder of the field, 1500 pounds of lime per acre. This demonstration should give us much information on the lime problem as well as that of growing sweet clover. Through this demonstration we also expect to determine the carrying capacity of sweet clover as a pasture for dairy cattle.
