

Raymond's Delaware Champs To Play In Atlantic City Bowl

Capt. Bob Novotny To Lead Blue Hens Against Indiana (Pa.) University In Dec. 14, Boardwalk Bowl, First Post-Season Test For Delaware Since 1954 Victory

Big, burly, bruising but benign Bob Novotny, captain of Coach Harold "Tubby" Raymond's Middle Atlantic Conference championship football team and 1988 Lambert Cup winner, will lead the Fighting Blue Hens against undefeated Indiana University of Pennsylvania in the Boardwalk Bowl in Atlantic City's Convention Hall at 2 p.m., Saturday, Dec. 14 — Delaware's third post-season bowl game, and the first since Coach David M. Nelson's Hens defeated Kent State 19-7 in the 1964 Refrigerator Bowl at Evansville, Ind.

"The same meet, all the requirements of the council's policy on post-season competition," said Athletic Director Dave Nelson. "We felt it was in the best interest of the university to accept, I personally feel it is fine for the players, considering their desire to go, it is a reward for the job they have done."

Players' Choice

Raymond said of his 7-3 champs: "They were so enthusiastic at the team meeting last Monday night it was catching. I'm all for going and that's what I told them, but I wanted it to be their decision."

Indiana, which does not play in a conference, rolled to nine victories and is ranked fifth in the Associated Press small-college ratings.

The Big Indians coached by Chuck Klausung defeated Delaware State 16-0, Northwest Institute 75-13, Shippensburg 24-0, Brockport State 48-20, Clarion State 10-13, Slippery Rock 44-15, California State 41-0 and C.W. Post 35-13.

"We feel Indiana is a worthy opponent," Nelson said. "They are fifth in the nation and where are we? We're not ranked."

The Atlantic City game will decide the champion of all small-college teams from Maine to Florida.

"This falls into our overall scheme of things," said Nelson. "It is a championship administered by athletic directors, our peers so to speak, and not promoters with commercial interest."

This is the first year of the Boardwalk Bowl.

Tickets for the 11,000-seat Convention Hall Boardwalk Bowl will be available at the university.

Delaware, which dominated all college division opponents last season, lost Villanova 16-0, Buffalo 29-17 and Rutgers 22-14.

Victories were over Hofstra 35-0, Massachusetts 28-23, West Chester 26-6, Temple 50-27, Lehigh 37-13, Boston University 41-13 and Bucknell 38-12.

Christmas Music Recording Offered With Local Groups

"Carols and Noels," a stereo LP featuring modern and traditional songs of the Christmas season, has been recorded by the combined choral organizations at the University of Delaware.

The record, scheduled to be released after Thanksgiving, was recorded at Mitchell Hall.

The choral group includes some 250 voices under the direction of Joseph R. Houtz, assistant professor of choral music.

George Broske at the organ accompanied the Concert Choir in its rendition of "Shepherd's Farewell."

Arthur Roberts provides piano for "Joseph Dearest, O Holy Child," a modern rendition of an old carol by the Women's Chamber Ensemble.

The University Chamber Singers perform "Good King Wenceslas" and "O Holy Night" with David Lutz accompanying on piano.

Virginia Hughes is soprano soloist for "O Holy Night."

Carols and Noels on the Kent label will be available from any member of the choral, at all choral concerts and at the Student Center beginning Dec. 1.

VFW Calls On UD To Expel Students Of SDS, Ban 'Voice'

Veterans Of Foreign Wars Urge Dismissal Of Profs Involved In ROTC Cutback

Delaware Veterans of Foreign Wars have called upon the University of Delaware to ban the Heterodox Voice, expelled students belonging to Students for a Democratic Society, and dismiss two professors.

Demands came in a resolution passed last week by the Delaware VFW and endorsed over the weekend at the VFW Eastern State Conference in the Hotel DuPont.

The resolution asked immediate dismissal "for the two professors whose contracts are not to be renewed as of this coming June."

It apparently referred to Dr. Robert J. Bresler and Dr. Albert E. Myers, both active in the successful drive to end compulsory military training at the university last year. A 1,600-signature petition asking their reinstatement was submitted by students last week.

"No decent individual can possibly stomach" articles in the Heterodox Voice, the resolution declared. Joseph M. Kaminski, commander of the Delaware department, explained that this was a reference to "smut" appearing in the New Left newspaper. He said several VFW members have been investigating and reading that publication for two years.

The VFW charged that "one professor purchases approximately 100 copies of each issue with taxpayer money."

The resolution asked "that any student that is a member of so-called SDS group in New Left organizations have fees returned and be expelled immediately," and that "any student who cannot conform to the rules and regulations of the university governing conduct of its students be dismissed immediately."

Kaminski said the VFW was asking dismissal not only of disruptive students, but of those who break any regulation. "In other words," he said, "we want the university to tell students, shape up in all respects or we don't need you."

James J. Tomarelli, editor of the Delaware Free Press, said the VFW claim that it's been investigating the paper for two years is "absurd."

"The first issue of the newspaper was published only last March," Tomarelli said.

Also, he added as far as he is aware no professor purchases 100 copies of the paper, as the VFW claims.

The only large order for the paper from a university faculty member came last Spring, Tomarelli said, when the political science department purchased about 250 copies of each of the first three issues.

The department also accepted an equal number of a newspaper representing the conservative voice on campus. The College Paper, and used both in political science classes, Tomarelli said.

Tomarelli said he wanted to point out that the Heterodox Voice is not associated with either the University of Delaware or any campus organization. "It is an independent New Left newspaper published by Newark Free Community, Inc.," he said.

Representing Newark High School were Allison Smith, Kathy Rottler, Gary Hobday, Howard Robinson, James Cain, Douglas Reber, Robyn Robertson, Edward Tupin, John Gerster, Giselle Conifer, Virginia Powell, and Paul Sherman.

Five school staff members participated in the conference—Paul Harding and Ralph Graham from Christiana; Sharon Jones, Ogletown Jr. High; and Mrs. Catharine Y. Bonney and Philip A. Toman from the Administration Building.

The nursery building and care for preschool children (2-12 to six years) of working and full-time student parents.

It operates each weekday from 7:45 a.m. to 4 p.m. and is a demonstration school for students of child development in the home economics department of the university.

At present, 40 children attend the program which provides pre-school education, hot lunch, guided play and rest periods.

Student Rights Charter Wins Approval Of University Faculty With 200-14 Vote

The University of Delaware faculty approved a student rights charter drafted by a joint student-faculty committee. The document endorsed by E. A. Trabant, president of the university, was adopted by a vote of 200-14 at a meeting Monday afternoon.

Trabant called the document a "part of the new University of Delaware design" and said it affirms that students will play a role in formulating "certain" university policies without committing the university to a commitment to "complete autonomy or complete and absolute freedom for students."

It spells out students' rights in the classroom, the area of student records, student affairs, off-campus freedom, procedural standards and discipline.

The "Statement on Students' Rights and Responsibilities" gives students new rights in determination of their social affairs and rules of conduct not involving federal, state or local laws, a university spokesman said.

Trabant said "this action of the faculty, an endorsement of the principles contained in the rights and responsibilities document, is part of the new University of Delaware design."

Dec Lafferty, president of the Student Government Association, said, "We couldn't be more pleased. The approval of the rights statement by the faculty represents the work of many months by students as well as faculty members. Dr. John H. Bell Retired Minister Dies At Age Of 96

African Union Methodist Leader Retired At Age 72; Services Held On Saturday

The Rev. Dr. John Henry Bell, 96-year-old retired minister of the African Union Methodist Protestant Church, died Nov. 12, at his 67 New London home in Newark.

Dr. Bell fractured his hip about four months ago and never fully recovered. Until then he had been fairly active.

Former president of the AUMP Conference and treasurer of the conference for 41 years, Dr. Bell was born in Star Hill, moving with his family to Chester, Pa., when he was about 17.

He was married in Chester to the late Edna Handy and they had nine children. He married again in 1922 to Mrs. Margaret Hendley, also of Chester.

Educated in schools of Camden and Dover, he attended the Dr. T. M. Thomas School of Theology in Chester.

Millers University, Philadelphia, granted him an honorary doctor of divinity degree.

He was twice pastor of the Mother AUMP Church in Wilmington, served an A.U. Church in New Jersey, the Star of Bethlehem Church in Newport, and for 10 years was pastor of Ebenezer Church in Norristown, Pa. He retired at 72.

Surviving in addition to his widow, are four daughters, Mrs. Mary Rhetta Bishop, Mrs. F. Irene Taylor, Miss P. Louise Bell and Mrs. Lydia Bell. He had two sons, Dr. J. H. Bell, Jr., and Dr. J. H. Bell, Sr., both of whom are retired ministers.

A revised plat for 68 apartment units, retention of the Vannoy farm pond, construction of tennis courts, and the planting of screening shrubbery as presented by Joseph W. Remedio for his Colony project west of New London Road and adjacent to the Fairfield development was approved at the regular meeting of Newark City Council last Monday night with Deputy Mayor Arthur P. Mayer presiding in the absence of Mayor Norma B. Haddoff.

A contract for sidewalk construction in the Casco Mill Road area was awarded to Harold D. Crouse at a bid of 70 cents per sq. ft. for a total of $10,584.

Proposed ordinances establishing a fiscal year of Jan. 1, through Dec. 31; prohibiting motor vehicle speed contests; and providing additional traffic and parking regulations were approved at initial readings, with final hearings scheduled for Dec. 16.

No Official Fiscal Year. Councilman William M. Coverdale pointed out that the City of Newark has not met charter requirements by establishing a fiscal year by ordinance since the new city charter was adopted three years ago.

Coverdale questioned the latest figure for a year-end surplus of $24,297 — a figure reported Monday night — citing a variance of $166,670 between the first and last reported surplus totals as an example of staff "shadowboxing."

In further consideration of the 147-page budget of $4,359,790 for 1969, council tentatively approved seven more sections last Monday night — the maintenance, engineering, building, police, finance, planning and administrative divisions — with the parks and recreation department and capital improvement program to be considered.

Council approved city membership in the Town Affiliation Association of the U.S. Inc., at a cost of $100 for the international goodwill program, and an invitation to a mayor from France to be selected for a visit in Newark.

At the request of Chairman Peter M. Ross, the citizens advisory committee was placed on an inactive basis pending assignment of a specific project.

And at the instigation of Deputy Mayor Mayer, council proclaimed Newark as "the football capital of Delaware . . . a symbol of football excellence in scholastic and collegiate circles in the East."

Check More Than Anti-Freeze For Safety In Winterizing Car, Williams Cautions

Winterizing your car means more than just an anti-freeze check, says Thomas H. Williams, extension agricultural engineer at the University of Delaware. To make this winter safe and sure, you should be ready for the extra hazards and severe weather conditions of the season.

Make sure brakes are in good condition and properly adjusted, advises Williams. And see that all interior and exterior lights are in working condition. Aim headlights for maximum efficiency.

Check the battery and the ignition system. If your motor is rough, dies when you stop or is difficult to start, get a tune-up.

Efficient windshield wipers and defroster are vital to winter safety, he adds.

Snow tires may be useful in increasing traction during the winter.

er months, says Williams. But they are ineffective for braking on ice. Studded snow tires can lessen this problem, but chains are still the most effective means of increasing winter traction.

Finally, inspect muffler and exhaust systems for leakage. Deadly carbon monoxide, a colorless, odorless gas, is given off in the exhaust. To insure your safety, always carry a snowbrush, scraper or broom in the car. And put a package of emergency flares in your trunk.

In heavy snow, carry sand and a shovel or traction mats.

Stop

progress

The underdeveloped nation are in a race with time while they struggle to catch up with modern progress mankind's oldest enemies do their damage now.

Hunger and malnutrition kill 10,000 persons a day, maim children for life—stunt their bodies, deaden their minds. Needless diseases cripple and weaken many more. Lack of education and training doom young people and adults to a hopeless cycle of poverty.

America would not be America if we closed our hearts to human agony at home or abroad. CARE is a way to reach the needy in countries whose resources are far less than our own. Your contribution does more than keep people alive. CARE's Food, Self-Help and Mexico programs help the hungry grow self-sufficient. Health, education, food production, job training, construction of community facilities from schools to roads and water systems—these are the supplies and services CARE provides in the name of the American people.

Your dollars are multiplied by those you help: local governments share operating costs, and community groups give what they can in materials and volunteer labor. Our Government gives farm abundance for many of the feeding plans.

Every dollar can serve lunch to 90 children... $10 treats 14 patients at a clinic... $300 per classroom can buy materials for parents to build a school.

Mickle Advises On Holiday Party Rental Assistance

Do you just throw up your hands at the thought of having a large holiday party? In these days of small homes and apartments, many women do, feeling that the logistics of serving so many people are almost impossible.

First, there's the usually a seating problem. Then, because of lack of storage space, you probably don't have enough china, silverware, chairs and all the other things you need.

An easy solution is to have a buffet dinner, according to Walter L. Mickle, owner of the A to Z Rental Center at 243 Elkon Road, Newark, and rent everything you need, including tables, china, silver service and table linens.

By "borrowing" equipment from a rental center you can set a really elegant table instead of the hodgepodge of unmatched china and silverware you'd have if you borrowed from friends and neighbors.

It's a big workover, too. You just plan the party, call the rental center and tell them what you need. The rest of your time can be spent preparing the food and making yourself beautiful. Mickle concludes.

How do you suppose the seedman from whom you buy knows that the seeds he sells you will produce the fine vegetables you want? By testing, of course.

The top picture shows what happens on a seed ranch when carrots have grown to maturity. Row after row of the roots is carefully dug and the results spread out as you see them. These carrots are the "proof of the pudding." If the seedman can, using seed from the identical batch sold you, produce this kind of a crop, you should be able to do so, too. Right?

Careful notes are kept of the results of such tests — especially if a new variety is being tried — either to evaluate it for future offering to gardeners or to decide whether it produces enough more per foot of row than similar varieties to introduce it to gardeners as something new and better.

Carrots are evaluated for size, of course, but also for straightness and for uniformity of both size and shape, according to their variety. For eating quality, too — this goes without saying.

The lower picture shows you the results every seedman hopes for — every gardener, too. Three roots of Royal Chantenay show the same size, straightness and shape — just as you, the gardener, ordered.

And, if you've ever wondered where the seedman gets those perfect vegetables pictured in those enticing books, the seed catalogs, you now know. He gets them from rows of crops grown — just as you grow them, but, of course, selects the very best to show you what he — and you — can do from seed.

Coffee Cake—Made Simple!

Nothing's easier than coffee cake and Kolache—when refrigerated rolls and biscuits are teamed with delicious, convenient preserves. Both are quick-to-fix, requiring just minutes in the oven. Try them out, way first—then be creative and substitute your favorite preserves—you've a rainbow from which to choose.

Apricot Coffee Cake
1 can (8-ounce) refrigerated biscuits 1/2 cup apricot preserves
sesame twist dinner rolls 1 tablespoon soft butter

Unwind dough carefully keeping dough in one piece (do not separate strips). Spread with preserves. Rewind. Place roll of dough on greased baking sheet. Separate top strip of dough slightly. Bake in 375 degree oven 12 to 15 minutes.

Jelly-Made Kolache
1 can (8-ounce) refrigerated biscuits 1/2 cup sifted confectioners' sugar
sesame twist dinner rolls 1 tablespoon soft butter
1/2 cup plum preserves 1 to 2 teaspoons milk

Place biscuits on ungreased baking sheet one inch apart. Make deep indentations in center of each and fill with preserves. Bake in 425 degree oven 10 to 12 minutes. Top with remaining preserves. Combine confectioners' sugar and butter. Add milk to make spreading consistency. Spread over warm kolaches.

TESTING

In order to know how good a crop can be grown from the seeds he sells, the seedman from whom you buy tests the results. Here carrots are dug and laid out for evaluation.

Three perfect specimens of Royal Chantenay carrot show what can be grown from seeds of this variety. If the seedman can do it, using proper methods, you can do it, too.

How do you suppose the seedman from whom you buy knows that the seeds he sells you will produce the fine vegetables you want? By testing, of course.

Silver Pine Club To Offer Program Of "Candle Magic"

Learn to make candles and candle-holders at the Silver Pine Garden Club demonstration on "Candle Magic" to be held in Forest Oak School, next Wednesday, at 8 p.m. There will be prizes and refreshments.

The demonstration by Mrs. Milo Stinson and Mrs. Leonard T. Lehman will benefit the Forest Oak Nature Trail, a Silver Pine Garden Club project.

Mrs. Stinson's interest in making beautiful candles started when she was a 12-year-old youngster in 4-H and Mrs. Lehman has extended her interest in making candle-holders. Both women are home economists.

There will be a display of candles and holders with complete directions for making them. A question and answer period will follow the demonstration.

SNOW FOR CHRISTMAS

Snowflakes go to a little girl's head at Christmas time, in the form of a wonderfully snug knitted cap knitted of Cream acrylic fiber. There are snowflakes patterned, plaid, to match, making for the warmest, most colorful ensemble to brighten a Yuletide landscape.

A program under this title is being sponsored in this area and nationwide by the National Association of Real Estate Boards. Its broad purpose—to help all of us solve the major problems of our cities and towns.

Is College Best For Your Child?

Ever hear the term "school dropout"? If you thought it applied only to low-income families, you're wrong. If you push your child into college when he may not be cut out for a college career, you may be making the mistake of his life.

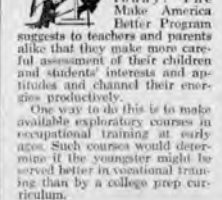

According to L. Allen Morris, Miami, Fla., chairman of the "Realtors' Ambitions" Make America Better Program, "too often there is overemphasis on influencing all youngsters to go to college."

"Some children are not equipped to pursue a college career, and the end result is that we have many thousands of drop-outs at the grade school as well as the high school level. The subsequent rejection feeling experienced by many of these students often turns their energies into vandalism and criminal activities," Morris says.

What's the solution? In many cases, these students may have a strong mechanical instinct to work with their hands or to work with their minds in some other, saleable skill that is in great demand.

The Make America Better Program suggests to teachers and parents alike that they make more careful assessment of their children and students' interests and aptitudes and channel their energies productively.

One way to do this is to make available exploratory courses in occupational training at early ages. Such courses would determine if the youngster might be served better in vocational training than by a college prep curriculum.

Mrs. Mary Keller Cites Wisdom In Toy Choice

"Tis the season to choose toys. Toy ads are everywhere—on television, in newspapers, even on cereal boxes."

Your children have probably already picked the one—or the dozen—they want. But if you want to make a wise toy choice, you probably should pick entirely different ones, according to Mrs. Mary Keller, New Castle county home economics agent.

The toy that looks so glamorous on TV may be a complete, and expensive, disappointment.

Toys should be safe, durable and versatile, and they should fit your particular youngster's interest and abilities—this year.

THE CHAMPIONS

Congratulations to Coach Harold "Tubby" Raymond, his coaching staff, and to Capt. Bob Novotny and his 1968 Delaware teammates, for winning the Middle Atlantic Conference championship in a big undefeated seven times out, and losing but three along the 10-game-long season way — to big time Villanova, Buffalo and Rutgers. And all three of these major maulers were glad, indeed, to squeeze out wins over the Big Blue.

Raymond, a real Rover boy in the nice guy department, is a champion gentleman anywhere, but such admirable rarities are not noted for producing championship football teams, or anything else that requires discipline and unrelenting effort.

Harold Raymond is the rare exception. With goodness, warmth, charm, a tremendous amount of football knowledge and the ability to impart this know-how to his associates, he has his 1968 Delaware football team as the undefeated conference champion; winner of the Lambert Cup as the best of its class in the East — and the Fightin' Blue Hens are to meet Pennsylvania's Indiana in the Boardwalk Bowl on Dec. 14, in Atlantic City. Well done!

Cluster Flies Harmless Boys Advise Of Invaders

Many Delawareans may notice large numbers of cluster flies in the home or office as cooler weather begins, reports Frank E. Boys, extension entomologist at the University of Delaware.

Cluster flies resemble house flies, says Boys. But they're larger and darker.

These flies live outside during the summer, but during the fall and winter, adults seek shelter and hibernation in heated buildings.

Unlike house flies, they do not feed on food materials or breed in filth.

We are still Pilgrims

We no longer give thanks around a rough wooden table in a forest clearing. Our problems and rewards have taken different shapes too, but they are basically the same.

We are still making a pilgrimage, the same search for a fuller and more fruitful life under freedom of religion. And we are still thankful for the faith that sees us through adversity and guides us on that pilgrimage.

Thanksgiving Day was named for its meaning—the day that we come together to give thanks for our faith and our full life... and to remember that we are still pilgrims.

This Thanksgiving Day, give your thanks, strengthen your faith, enlighten your pilgrimage, at your place of worship.

"If there's one God, why are there so many religions?"

That's a question that has plagued thoughtful people for centuries. Religions often have seemed to divide men rather than join them—which could hardly be God's will. In our time, so full of wonders, we're witnessing what may be the greatest wonder of all: the growing force of inter-faith understanding. It seems to promise a fuller flowering of God's hopes for man. You and me. Great new things are happening in churches and synagogues these days. But find out for yourself. This week. Then take your strengthened faith out into the world—and put it to work.

Coach Dan Peterson's Blue Hens Cagers To Open Season Saturday Against Rams

Delaware's basketball team which broke nearly all the school's offensive records last year, will be relying on defense this season.

"Our starters have recognized that we still have to play good defense this year to win," says Blue Hens Coach Dan Peterson with a 31-6 record in two years at Delaware. "We don't have the big bodies to cover up our mistakes like we had the past two years, and will have to win with hustle and desire."

Peterson will get an opportunity to see how his team is progressing when the Hens open their season by hosting the West Chester Rams at Delaware Fieldhouse this Saturday at 8 p.m. There will be a freshman game between the two schools at 6 o'clock.

The West Chester game will be one of only eight home appearances for the Hens all season.

Delaware will play 14 games on the road, including three games at the Eastern Carolina Classic in Greenville, N.C., Dec. 26-28.

"We have a preponderance of road games and there is an old axiom that championships are won on the road," Peterson notes. "To win on the road, you have to play good defense to overcome the home-court advantage."

Peterson, who prefers a tight man-to-man defense, says all of his starters have a good understanding of their defensive responsibilities.

There will be a great deal of pressure on five junior starters—Jim Couch, Loren Pratt, Steve Jackson, John McMillen and Ed Roth. There are only five sophomores to back them up and lack of bench strength is the team's most obvious weakness.

The Hens lost 64 Kenan Barnett and 67 Mark Wazman via the graduation route and replacing their rebounding strength is a major concern.

Peterson is relying on Roth, 6-7 forward, and McMillen, 6-5 center, to handle the bulk of the rebounding load. Roth will play forward on offense, but will probably guard the opponents' center on defense, leaving positions with McMillen.

The other man up front is the 6-4 Pratt, a scramble who was named the team's most valuable player last year as a sophomore when he averaged 13.5 points and 6.7 rebounds.

"I had a good buy and two no account setters," Bassmaster Ott Widdoes said of his companions on a recent trip afield with son Pete and a pair of canine helpers that have enjoyed the Widdoes family largesse throughout the year. In preparation for the Delaware upland game season when they are expected to make some restitution.

And Ott may be a bit severe in his judgement of the two setters, having been used to stellar field performance by their sporting predecessors.

No account or not, the setters were in on some better than fair Delaware bird shooting at Dad and Pete came in with a beautiful cock pheasant, several "birds" or plain bobwhite quail, and a woodcock.

"But that may be the last of my bird hunting for the season," Mr. Widdoes said unapologetically after scaling a sturdy leg with a skiff full of hot grease. And that should teach him to leave the fish or other fry, like to the Lady of the House, who is a better cook anyway.

Vic Ewing, Newark's local Bob Runk as an outdoor sportsman and raconteur, shot one of the biggest woodcock on record in a recent Delaware outing with his setter Duke.

The long-billed feathered rocket with the soft brown plumage and velvet tapestried back, roared up from a damp covert north of Newark off New London Road — and Mr. Ewing folded him with some fancy snap shooting with a small, patterned 28-gauge gun. A 28-gauge shoots hard, but it doesn't throw much shot. But when you hold the little gun on target, it's enough.

Last Tuesday afternoon with Duke again, Vic folded a superbly spaniel-eyed ringneck in some unusual pass shooting with pheasant.

Duke had thrown guidance and caution to the winds in an enthusiastic, exuberant chase of a cotton-tail bounding down a wooded ravine, and as a bunny and setter disappeared in the brush, a cock pheasant came flying back — high and fast — over Vic Ewing's stand on a knoll — like a duck under a full head of steam.

"Never had any pass shooting at a pheasant before," Vic said — "but I swung ahead of him — touched off a shot — and bare off 45-yards to where I picked him up. But I wasn't where the 28 on that pheasant," Mr. Ewing concluded honestly.

Coach Loren Kline Pilots Blue Hens To Record Season

Delaware completed its most successful soccer season Saturday, but bowing to visiting Bucknell 1-0 in a Middle Atlantic Conference game.

The defeat wound up the Blue Hens' 1968 season overall, 10-2-1 in the MAC.

Delaware had never won more than seven soccer games in a season.

"We're very happy with our record," Delaware Coach Loren Kline said. "The Bucknell game was a tough one to lose, but Bucknell is a fine club. They've beaten teams like Penn State, Pittsburgh and Rutgers."

Bob Kline hosted the only goal of the game for the Hens in the third period.

Bucknell had 20 shots, and Delaware goalie John Duszewicz made 13 saves. Delaware managed to get off 23 shots.

Larry Pratt Hens 3rd In MAC Title Cross-Country Run

Delaware's cross country team finished third in the Middle Atlantic Conference Cross-Country championships at Fairmont Park in Philadelphia last Friday.

Blue Hen runner, had 92 points to winner Lehigh with 33 and second-place LaSalle with 60. After the Hens came Lafayette, 108; West Chester, 109; St. Joseph's 138; Gettysburg, 172, and Temple, 175.

Bob Woerner was Delaware's top runner, finishing seventh in 27:42. Other Hens to place were Joe Godlewski, 13th; Jim Smith, 19th; Jerry Smith, 37th; DeWitt Henry, 39th, and Bob Purvis 42d.

"We did well, real well," said Ken Coach Larry Pratt. "Most everyone had us figured for no better than fifth. After all, St. Joseph's and Lafayette both had beaten us during the regular season and here we turn around and finish in front of them in the MAC."

In the fresh meet, Delaware's Blue Hens checked in fourth with 73 points. Lehigh again was first with 28. West Chester was second with 33 and Lafayette third with 61.

The first chick was John Burke, seventh in 15:09.

Delaware also placed Dick Kile, eighth; Bill Webster, 19th; Pete Sukalo, 21st; John Choppo, 23d; Bob Stearns, 25th; and Bruce Barcklow, 34th.

All-Stater Kenny Helfand Starter For Harnum Frosh

Kenny Helfand, All-State guard and most valuable player on the P. S. du Pont High School state championship basketball team last winter, has apparently earned a starting berth with the Delaware freshmen.

Coach Don Rarnum has listed Helfand in the tentative starting lineup for the team's opening game with the West Chester freshmen at Delaware Fieldhouse this Saturday at 6 o'clock.

Hoffman's Yellowjackets Seek 33rd Win With Thanksgiving Finale Vs. Vikings

Coach Bob Hoffman's Yellowjacket champions wind up the season this Thanksgiving Day morning in their bid for a 33rd straight victory.

With Coach Sam Dixon's Christians Vikings providing final opposition at the Newark High School Stadium, Christians defeated B-Flight Conning Bedford 6-0 last Saturday while the Yellowjackets had an open date, and the Vikings are 4-5 for the season.

Led by Tri-Captains Gary Hayman, Pedro Sagan and Bob Tucker — All-Staters from last season at end, halfback and quarter — 19 seniors will make their final appearance for the Yellowjackets in the Christians win-out.

Fullback Harold Reisinger Runs For TD As Sam Dixon's Vikings Win 4th Contest

Fullback Harold Reisinger blasted his way for three yards and the game's lone touchdown as Coach Sam Dixon's A-Flight Christians Vikings defeated B-Flight Conning Bedford 6-0 at Delaware City last Saturday.

The victory was the fourth of the season for Dixon's Vikings, who have a 4-5 record with a Thanksgiving finale scheduled against the undefeated Yellowjackets this Thursday morning at 10:30 at the Newark High School Stadium.

Raymond's Champs Rewrite The Book For Eight Records

Delaware's 1968 football team has rewritten the Blue Hen record book. Coach Tubby Raymond's surprising young team established eight Delaware records in rolling to a 7-3 record and its fifth Middle Atlantic Conference University Division championship, winding things up last Saturday by beating Bucknell 38-12 in the finale at home.

The Hens set three individual marks during the season. Quarterback Tom DiMuzio, a junior from Philadelphia, led the way with a season total offense record of 1,596 yards, breaking the mark of 1,521 yards set by Frank Linsbald last year.

The 200-pound DiMuzio, a former All-Catholic selection at Bishop Neumann High in Philadelphia, passed for 1,221 yards and added another 375 yards on the ground. He ran for 129 yards, and passed for 67 more on Saturday as the Hens clinched the MAC title with a 38-12 victory over Bucknell.

Don Withelder, DiMuzio's favorite receiver, boosted his season record for receiving to 626 yards. The former All-Stater from Ridley Township High was the team's top pass-catcher with 34 receptions during the season. A junior, Withelder has caught 70 passes for 1,140 yards during his career at Delaware.

Fullback Chuck Hall, a sophomore from Springfield, Pa., led the Hens' record-smashing ground attack. The 195-pound Hall set a season rushing record of 1,919 yards, breaking the mark of 944 yards set by Bill Hopkins in 1964. Hall also led the team in scoring with 10 touchdowns for 60 points.

Junior Sam Brickley was third with 440 yards and DiMuzio was fourth with 375 as the Hens broke the team rushing record for one season by almost 700 yards.

The season rushing total of 7,158 yards completely demolished the old record of 2,494 yards by the 1946 team.

Raymond's runners also broke four other team records. The Hens set 31 first downs against both Lehigh and Boston University and surpassed the old record of 27 first downs on four different occasions during the season.

The 82 rushing attempts against Temple and the 471 yards rushing against Bucknell also counted as record performances.

The defense got into the act with a record total of 25 interceptions. Sophomore cornerback Ron Klein was the top man with six interceptions. Junior safetyman Dick Keller picked off five enemy aerials.

The Hens also set a record at the gate, drawing 34,032 people to the five games at Delaware Stadium. Delaware played before 55,061 fans on the road, boosting the total attendance for the season to 109,113.

Delaware Wins Lambert Cup Fourth Time As East's Top Middle-Size College Team

Delaware has won the Lambert Cup awarded annually for outstanding performance among middle-sized (Division II) college football teams of the East.

When the Blue Hens defeated Bucknell 38-12 last Saturday, winning their fifth title in the university division of the Middle Atlantic Conference, they passed last week's leader, Lafayette. The Leopards were upset by Lehigh 21-6.

On the basis of 10 for first, nine for a second, the eight-man committee of athletic directors, sports-writers and sportsmanagers gave Delaware 75 points, including five first places.

Delaware became the first team to win the Lambert Cup four times since its inauguration in 1937. Lehigh and Bucknell each won twice. Amherst, which completed its season a week ago with a 7-1 record, rose to second with 65 points, getting one first-place ballot, while Lafayette, now also 7-3, and New Hampshire, the co-champion of the Yankee Conference, gained a tie for third, each with 61 points. The Wildcats out the other two No. 1 votes.

Delaware won the cup in 1939, 1962 and 1967.

This year the Blue Hens, coached by Tubby Raymond, defeated Hofstra 35-9, Massachusetts 28-23, West Chester 28-0, Temple 30-27, Lehigh 37-13, and Boston U., 41-13, in addition to Bucknell. They lost to Villanova, Buffalo and Rutgers, all Division I teams.

166,667 FOOTBALL FIELDS ...

that's the equivalent of one-billion square yards of soil-cement.

Wow!

Recently, the one-billionth square yard of soil-cement pavement was placed in the United States. This milestone use of the material (a blend of in-place or borrowed soils with portland cement) would cover nearly 167,000 football fields to a depth of six inches!

Soil-cement can either be mixed directly on the job, or produced in a central plant and trucked to the job site. Soil-cement pavements are usually built five to eight inches thick. Soil-cement was introduced as a low-cost paving material in 1935. Since that time, it has gained worldwide acceptance in the construction of roads, streets, dam facings, subbases and parking areas.
