NEWARK DELAWARE, APRIL 29, 1919

NUMBER 15

Blue & Gold Defeats
Two Old RivalsC Wins from St. John's 9:13
and from Haverford 6:5

On Friday, April 25th, Delaware opened its home season by trouncing the strong St. John's team of Annapolis. St. John's, fresh from well-earned victories over Catholic University, and other teams, came to Frazer Field confident of victory. However, when the heavy artillery of Delaware's batting order got into action the visitors were soon put to rout. Jack Work went the whole game for Delaware, pitched a strong game and was exceptionally tight in the pinches. Although the weather was cold and snow fell during the game, yet the play was fast and exciting.

Delaware opened up the scoring in the second inning when two runs were put across. In the sixth St. John's scored three runs but were unable to hold the lead. A single by B. Carter, a steal, an infield hit by G. Carter, and a cleverly executed squeeze play with McCardell at the bat was responsible for Delaware's tying the score.

In the seventh inning with two men on bases, Horsey tripled and later scored on Donohoe's hit. The whole team showed marked improvement in hitting and fielding.

For St. John's, Everett played a fine batting game. For Delaware Donohoe and B. Carter led at the bat with three hits apiece. The score:

Delaware Loses
To Swarthmore

Under unfavorable weather conditions Delaware lost to Swarthmore in tennis last Saturday. The Quaker team showed evidence of early practice and were in mid-season form. Several long sets were played but the home team won out 6-0.

Delaware College is competing with the other R. O. T. C. colleges in this Loan campaign. Do your bit to help your college win.

Committee Meets to Discuss Y. M. C. A.Students Meet With
Mr. Charles B. Schwartz

A meeting of several members of the student body was held on Wednesday evening of last week to discuss the question of introducing a Y. M. C. A. into the forum of college activities here. The group met to talk over the matter with Mr. Charles B. Schwartz, the secretary of collegiate activities for the National War Work Council. While nothing definite was decided upon at this meeting, much valuable discussion was brought out and this very important subject was weighed from every angle. During the course of the discussion, it was brought out that there were already an abundance of societies and organizations in college and that it would be unwise to introduce a new one when there are already so many around and most of these only nominally active. On the other hand, as someone remarked, the presence of a Y. M. C. A. at Delaware would meet a need which no other organization is filling at the present time. This need is in the shape of some definite moral influence about college, and this need has been very sadly

Victory Loan Campaign
Begun Under R.O.T.C.Honorable Mention Will Be Given
To College With Best Record

The recent launching of the Victory Liberty Loan presents a fine opportunity for Delaware men to aid in the advancement of our college. This drive is being made under the auspices of the R. O. T. C. units at the different colleges, and the plan is to give honorable mention to those colleges making the best showing during the drive. The total amount which is put to the credit of a unit does not include the subscriptions of the college students alone, but any subscription for which they are responsible; for example, those of a friend or of a parent if secured by the student. Thus, it can be seen that the amount for which Delaware College can be credited is practically without limit, provided the necessary interest and pep is shown.

As soon as the telegram was received from Washington stating the facts, Major Duvall began his campaign by appointing the following committee: J. G. McMillan, chairman; W. Scott Levey, H. W. Loose, C. Carswell, T. W. Holland and Gray Carter. These men were instructed to stir up interest in the movement in the student body and to sell as many bonds as possible, especially to the members of their respective classes. It will be interesting to note which of the four classes will have the maximum amount to their credit at the end of the drive. At first glance, it looks as though the Freshmen and Sophomores have an advantage, due to superior numbers, but that remains to be seen.

It is hardly necessary to repeat the many arguments for buying these bonds which are being shown on Saturday.

Real Battle on Saturday

We will have a street fight at Newark on Saturday morning. Yes, gentle reader, a real battle of war. The opposing sides will be members of the college battalion. An entire block will be taken up. Blank cartridges will be issued for the battle. The attacking party will deploy in the centre of the street and will advance by rushes, assisted by "flying wedges" consisting of about three men, each carrying a sandbag for protection against enemy fire. The battle is staged at the initiative of Major DuVall who wants to show us and the townspeople what a real battle looks like and why we are asked to buy Victory Bonds.

Contests in Interscholastics

On Friday evening, May 9th, the first Annual State High School Conference will hold session at "Delaware" at the invitation of the college to all the high school teachers of this state and adjacent territory. There will be two sessions of the Conference this year, the one on Friday evening, with Superintendent C. L. Scott, Wilmington, presiding; and another on Saturday morning with Commissioner A. R. Spaid presiding. (Continued on Page 2)

Delaware Finishes Fourth
At Penn Relays

This does not tell the whole story. To those who saw the race on Saturday it was evident from the start that Delaware was fighting against odds. At the last minute, Colgate was put in the same class with Delaware. In previous years this team has been in a much higher class than that in which our team has been accustomed to run. Consequently Colgate romped away with the race in the fast time of 3.34 2-5 with Stevens, Temple, and Delaware following, all within the space of fifteen yards.

Bunten was lead-off man, and ran a very fast quarter, touching off Kite ten yards behind Colgate. The second runner for Colgate increased his lead to about twenty-five yards. Smith, who ran third, gained steadily and touched off Craig twenty yards in the rear. "Specks" ran a pretty quarter, cutting down the distance to fifteen yards and finishing only one yard behind Temple. The time of the mile for Delaware was exceptionally fast, 3.36 2-5, giving an average of 54 1-10 seconds per man. Two years ago when Delaware won at the Relays the time of the mile was 3.40. Comparison of the above figures will show the relative strength of the two teams, and also will give one a fair idea of the fast company Delaware was pitted against on Saturday.

Loose was entered in the discus throw and managed to finish in sixth place with a throw of 100 feet. In this event the men were at a disadvantage, having to throw against the wind. This event was won by Bartels of Penn with a heave of 119 feet 11 1/2 inches. Much credit is due the wearers of the "Blue and Gold" for their showing on Saturday.

All Ready for
"Electra," May 22Cast Chosen, Intense Interest Develops in First Presentation of Classic at "Delaware"

Much interest is developing on both campuses in "Electra," the English version of the Greek play by Euripides which will be presented on Wolf Hall terrace on the evening of Thursday, May 22nd. The two clubs, the Dramatic Club of the Women's College and the "Footlights Club" of Delaware College are working together for the successful presentation of the play. This is the first effort that has ever been made in Delaware to present a Greek classic.

After keen competition the cast for the play consisting of more than 30 members has been selected. Rehearsals are being held frequently, and nothing is being left undone to make the presentation of the play one of the grandest events at the college. Costumes for the cast are being designed and made by members of the Women's College, while members of the Mens' College are planning and putting into effect the novel lighting schemes, not the least part of the performance.

At this writing Dr. Moore is in receipt of full permission from Sir Gilbert Murray of Oxford, England, to present his version of the play which for clearness and simplicity is the best. Numerous inquiries have come from out of town about the play, the presentation of which is bound to attract wide attention.

Some members of the cast are: Orestes, Fisher; Peasant, Singley; Messenger, Allen; Old Man, Colbitts; Electra, Emilie Mundy; Clytemnestra, Margaret Layton; Chorus Leader, Helen Groves.

Among those to participate in the chorus are: The Misses Gladys Walton, Elizabeth Jones, Kathryn Robbins, Ruth Messick, Elizabeth Howell, Elizabeth Houston, Marie LeCates, Calysta Feehly, Catherine Woodman, Louise Fancis, Grace Marvil, Eleanor Cannon, Mildred Jefferis and Dorothy Foard.

Several other characters are to be announced.

One of the chief features of the play will be the music and singing, both of which is as fair an approximation of the Greek music is possible. Tickets will be on sale sometime this week at prices not higher than 75 cents.

Footlights Club To Repeat Performance

The Footlights Club will repeat its performance of "We Hope You'll Like It" at the Women's College, on Saturday evening next, May 3. The demands for a repetition of this travesty have been so many that the Club at last acceded to the invitation of the Women's College to repeat the performance there. The "skit" has been revised and many additions have been made so that those who have seen it before will not complain of too much "sameness."

League of Nations
But One More Step
To InternationalismPeace "But Incident" of World
Organization, says Dr. Mitchell
to League of Nations Club

Speaking before the League of Nations Club on Thursday evening last, in the first address delivered before a student organization since his coming to Delaware, Dr. Samuel C. Mitchell declared that the League of Nations is not a device, or the particular invention of one man, but an historical development which will not only abolish war but create an international organization for the furtherance of the common good of humanity. "The abolition of war," said he, "is but one incident growing out of this world organization," which he predicted, will do for nations what the state did for individuals thousands of years back.

The subject of his address was "The Growth of the Idea of the League of Nations"; and in considering the historical aspects of the proposed world organization the speaker illustrated the growth of the American Union out of the 13 sovereign states and the submission of their sovereignty to the jurisdiction of the Supreme Court. He then considered the growth of the British Empire as another example of the growth of internationalism; and pointed to the Comity between the English speaking peoples as a strong nucleus for a world organization such as will bring to the world a better day.

But aside from the organization of a world league, the speaker showed the growth of the international mind among the peoples of the earth, due to the many business, cultural and intellectual organizations, one of which even withstood the hatred and disruption of the great war. To this one, the International Agricultural Institute, founded by David Lubin, with offices in Rome, Italy, Dr. Mitchell pointed as an example of internationalism, growing out of sheer business expediency and common usefulness.

In closing he spoke of the recently organized International University Students' Union of which Henry B. Thompson of Wilmington, is treasurer, which, the speaker said, is but another step in the growth towards like-mindedness and internationalism.

This was the fourth meeting of the League of Nations Club, held at "Old College." The audience consisted not only of the students of both colleges and members of the faculty but a large number of townspeople, as well as people from out of town.

Footlights To Meet Tonight

The Footlights Club will meet tonight at seven, in the Chapel Room, Old College Hall. Every member is expected to be present. Important business. Don't forget; tonight at Seven.

Finish the Job

DO YOU remember that day last November when Germany capitulated? On that day when the armistice was signed, in the space between breath and breath, we were bound over to a new period of service; to a service of fruition instead of preparation. All the four years through which we have just passed were but the beginning, were only the making-ready.

For four years men hoped and prayed and suffered and bled and died—for a privilege. On that November morning of 1918 the privilege was granted. We were free, free to set about making an ideal into a reality, free to accomplish the Sublime Purpose which so long had been our dream.

Peace—lasting Peace—is ours, big with its opportunities—provided we are ready to pay for it at its full price. And that price is the price of a speed that won the War six months earlier than most of us believed possible.

If the war had gone on for six months more, our battle loss, as estimated by the General Staff, would have been one hundred thousand more American dead. That is the sort of Peace we are to pay for with this Victory Liberty Loan. Can we do less than our utmost? Can we afford to fail?

In this campaign at Delaware College, we are in competition with all the other R. O. T. C. colleges in this district. We must give Delaware a high rank in this competition. In the Third Liberty Loan a total subscription of fourteen thousand three hundred dollars was received through Delaware College. And that was in those dark days just after the deficiency of Russia! Can we do less now? Can we even be content with as much now?

The financial state of the college men is better now than ever before. Men who had money for all college expenses received pay in the S. A. T. C.; then they received a bonus of $60. Can we not loan some of this money to our government for five years?

Mr. Louis F. Post has said, "Between a worthy war patriotism and a virile peace patriotism, there is no essential difference." On either side comes the appeal for the Victory Loan. Is our patriotism any less real than it was last year?

HIGH SCHOOL HEADS CONVENE, MAY 9

day afternoon the college will witness one of the best interscholastic meets that has ever been held on Joe Frazer Field. Under the supervision of Coaches Le Cato and Shipley everything possible is being done to insure the success of the meet.

It will interest the students to know that some time ago the faculty appointed a committee to look into the possibilities of better linking the high schools together, in conjunction with the adoption of the new School Code, so that they might have unity in furthering the interests of better education in Delaware and the surrounding territory.

With this purpose in view the committee organized this first Conference at which the teachers and educators of the State will perfect a permanent organization. Friday and Saturday were selected as the dates for the Conference, in order that the teachers could see their athletes contest in the Interscholastic meet following the Conference. The principal topics of the meeting will be the New School Code, its possibilities, and the present or prospective provisions for education in the State, together with discussion of such general questions as may be raised by the teachers. Dean Frank P. Graves of the University of Pennsylvania will give an address on Present Day Tendencies in Education which is sure to be of great benefit at this particular time.

The field, selected with great care, includes 30 schools, with the contestants probably numbering 350. In addition to the regular events there will be special relay races which will greatly increase the competition. Distinctive "Joe" Frazer medals will be awarded for 1st, 2nd, and 3rd places. The contestants will be the guests of the college and will have lunch at the Commons. In the evening they will be entertained by the students at dances, smokers, etc.

The schools in Class I are: Baltimore Poly., Tome, Hill School, Perkiomen, Vineland High, Wilmington H. S., Northeast High, Philadelphia; Brown Prep., George School, Perisomen, Vineland High, Wesley Collegiate Inst., Wenona (pending).

Class II follows: DuPont High, Dover High, Georgetown, Elkton High, Lewes High, Newark High, Middletown.

VICTORY LOAN CAMPAIGN BEGUN UNDER R.O.T.C.

(Continued from Page 1) brought out every day in the newspapers. However, there is one more thing which should be considered, namely, the great value it would be to Delaware College to be mentioned as one of the foremost in securing Victory Loan subscriptions. This fact, alone, should cause us to dig a little farther down in our "jeans" and pull out those dollars we were saving up for some big celebration in the future. The satisfaction of being able to serve our college as well as our country, will more than repay the loss of this celebration, and every man, who has got the price should feel it his duty to serve his country in this way, and at the same time, help to put Delaware on the map.

Sigma Phi Epsilon Selects Site for Fraternity House

Attractive Building Site on Old Campus Chosen at Fraternity Reunion

At the annual meeting of the Alumnae Association of the Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity of Delaware College at Newark Saturday, the association selected the site for the new fraternity chapter house, which will be located on the college campus.

This selection and announcement marks the beginning of a new step in the development of Delaware College, namely, that of placing the fraternity house upon the college campus. In the original plans for the development of Delaware College the architects planned the houses upon the campus, thus serving to bring the life of the college to a more central part. This selection of the building site by the Sigma Phi Epsilon Fraternity thus serves as the beginning of the new and larger development.

The site selected by the fraternity is in the northeast corner of the plot to the rear of Recitation Hall. This site will have the advantage of overlooking Frazer Field, whereon the college athletic events take place.

The selection of the building site was merely one incident in a whole day of pleasure and festivity, and the whole affair really constituted a reunion of the fraternity brothers. At 11:30 o'clock in the morning the men visited all of the new buildings of the college. Men from some of the very old classes in college were present and the sights they witnessed were far different from what they saw when they were in college.

At 12:30 o'clock a short business meeting was held in the fraternity house on Wilkins Terrace. After the meeting an excellent lunch was served to both the members of the active chapter and the alumnae. In the afternoon the whole membership proceeded in a body to the college campus where the building site was dedicated and several pictures taken of the group. This was followed by an athletic meet on Frazer Field in which both old and young took part. Men from some classes as far back as 1896 took part in these events and every one enjoyed the affair hughley.

At 5:30 o'clock a business meeting was held at which plans for the new house were considered and discussed. The crowning event of the day was the dinner at 6:30 o'clock which appeared in the shape of the whole roasted pig, and needless to say it was voraciously attacked by the whole group. At the conclusion of the dinner the whole body was entertained until the closing hours of the day by Thompson's Dixieland Jazz Band which has been creating such a sensation in the vicinity of Wilmington recently. The strains of the jazz band were varied with occasional anecdotes by some of the older members of the fraternity, and the entire crowd was kept in a continual uproar by the witty sallies of "Bill" Francios, "Fat" Wingett and others.

The crowning event of this part of the program was the talk by Doctor Sypherd whose subject was: "Delaware College as Seen by the Class of '96."

Kappa Alpha's Hold Annual Dance

Beta Epsilon chapter of the Kappa Alpha fraternity held its 15th annual dance last Friday evening in the Armory. One hundred and fifty couples were present to share the evening's enjoyment.

The dance hall was decorated profusely and artistically with crimson and gold streamers and evergreens, and the crimson and gold was carried out in all electrical effects. A large flashing sign spelled out the fraternity's name at one end of the hall, while the fraternity shield, jeweled with ruby lights, was displayed at the other. A brilliant moon rose at frequent intervals outside the windows, softly illuminating the swaying couples. The center of the floor was occupied by a streamer bedecked stand, on which Jimmy White's orchestra dispensed jazz music until the early hours.

A rustic well and windlass were set up in one corner of the hall, and from it punch was drawn in an old oaken bucket for the refreshment of the dancers. Across the room was a cozy corner, the greatest attraction of the evening.

The Kappa Alpha march was played for the promenade. Shortly before midnight, the dancers repaired to the basement where refreshments, consisting of salad, rolls, mints, salted nuts, ice cream, cake and coffee were served.

The decorative scheme here was also carried out in crimson, gold, and evergreens.

The souvenir dance programs were bound in maroon leather and stamped in gold with the Kappa Alpha coat of arms. Each man received a card case, and each girl a toilet case.

The patronesses were: Mrs. E. L. Smith, Mrs. G. E. Dutton, Mrs. W. H. Steel, Mrs. S. J. Wright, Mrs. Dantz.

S. C. Mitchell, Dean Winifred J. Robinson, Mrs. C. B. Evans, Mrs. J. Pilling, Mrs. J. P. Wright, Mrs. Alexander Donoho, Mrs. Herman Tyson, Mrs. J. P. Cann and Mrs. E. B. Wright.

The chapter roll follows:

Haverford

With a strong wind blowing across the Haverford field Delaware and Haverford battled ten innings before the long end of a 6 to 5 score was marked on the score book for Delaware. It was a bad day for pitchers and in fact any kind of baseball, but despite this fact both teams played clever ball.

Three times Delaware took the lead only to have the score tied by the Haverford team. The first Delaware run was the result of a clever squeeze play. With G. Carter on third and McCordell at the bat, "Guggie" sent a tricky bunt down the infield which scored G. Carter.

Haverford soon tied the score and in the beginning of the 7th lead 4 to 3. Delaware's other two runs up to this inning were due to a slashing single by Madden with two men on base. With the score 4 to 3 in Haverford's favor, Delaware succeeded in getting men on second and third. "Bess" Carter then landed on one of Buzby's fast ones and drove it into deep right field for an apparent home run. The two runs scored but "Bess" was sent back to second as the ground rules called for only 2 bases. Haverford tied up the score in the ninth due to the clever hitting of Walton the big first sacker who knocked a triple with a man on base. He was called out for failing to touch second, but the tying run was in.

The game was won for Delaware in the tenth inning. "Bess" Carter smacked a sharp single over second base. G. Carter singled and B. Carter continued to third. "Skeet" Wilson, batting for Pierson, put up a short sacrifice fly to left field and on the catch B. Carter broke for home sliding in with the winning run on a close play at the plate.

Rothrock pitched a good game of ball considering the weather. He pulled himself out of many holes and struck out 10 men. Madden pulled a sensational catch in deep center field after a long run. At short stop Don Horsey played his usual fast game. In fact the whole infield went well but one error being marked against them. G. Carter caught a nice game for Delaware.

For Haverford, Captain "Bob" Barrett was the batting star getting 4 hits and a walk out of 5 trips to the plate. For Delaware B. Carter connected for three solid hits one a double, and George Madden also got 2 clean hits. The score:

COMMITTEE MEETS TO DISCUSS Y. M. C. A.

neglected. It is not intended nor even desired that this religious atmosphere should be carried to the extreme, but, rather that through the Christian Association an opportunity would be given to those who do want to keep in touch with some such organization to do so. Without a doubt, some influence of this kind would mean much to the welfare and further development, and the question arises as to whether a Y. M. C. A. would justify its existence.

With so many clubs and groups of various kinds at present associated in the student life at Delaware, it is very important that the matter of organizing a "Y" be thoroughly considered before final judgment is passed on the matter. Almost all colleges of any standing or size have a Y. M. C. A., and it is generally recognized as being a vital influence in the welfare of the students. Just whether or not we want an Association at Delaware is a matter which every man must decide for himself. In the plans made at the meeting last week, it was definitely asserted that the project, if accepted by the students, would be pushed with every power which will insure its success. A competent secretary would be secured, and upon his shoulders would fall, to a large extent, the success or failure of the thing. Of course even his efforts would be in vain if he does not receive the whole-hearted support of the student body, and that is just the reason why each man should answer the question for himself as to whether or not he thinks Delaware would be benefited by having a "Y" organization. Surely we cannot afford to start a thing which is not going to be carried through—that is too often the case—and this present question deserves careful consideration from every point of view.

While a Y. M. C. A. at college would serve principally as a spiritual stimulation, it would also answer many other wants such as an employment bureau, director of social activities, etc. Many people become immediately alarmed upon the mention of a Y. M. C. A. because they feel that such an organization will inevitably deprive them of their "good times." Surely, the motive of the Association is far from that and in regard to its religious scope would probably include such things as health talks, Bible study for those who are interested, vesper services on Sunday afternoon, etc. Before deciding one way or the other on this question, however, let us be sure that we know just what the "Y" would stand for at Delaware and whether it would be a help or a hindrance to the general welfare of the college.

Live Clothes for Live Young Men

LET us give you an earful. There is a certain type of Snappy Young Men who'd rather be dead than look like "dead ones." They want suits and overcoats with lots of snap in 'em. Style stunts and patterns that look more like Broadway on New Year's Eve at 12, than at 5 o'clock church tea'in Sussex. You might laugh all over your face at them—but they want 'em. D'ye get us?

For that young man you must sell clothes that wouldn't be fit exactly for an undertaker. You got to give them value also, 'cause most of 'em hafta dress on less than a thousand a week.
