Park 'n' Shop Denied Access At Sunset Road Intersection

Amendment Proposed to Extend Voting Hours to 9 P.M. Withdrawal Of Petition For Parking In Dual Request Causes Legal Block For Sunset Road Access; Charter

A petition of Park 'n' Shop, Inc., for driveway access at the Apple-Sunset Road intersection, was denied by a 5-0 vote of Newark City Council last Monday night, with Mayor Joseph A. Shields and Councilman David H. Doehlt absent, and John F. Link occupying the first district council seat. Denial of the petition for access to the shopping center at Sunset Road followed David Gallo's withdrawal of a Park 'n' Shop petition for additional parking on his residential-zoned land at the proposed Sunset Road entrance.

"I am withdrawing my request for parking," Gallo said, and Attorney Edward Sobolewski—representing Sunset Road area residents protesting proposed access to the shopping center at Sunset Road—informed council that with the withdrawal of this parking petition, "the only alternative is to deny access."

City Solicitor Clyde M. England, Jr., concurred with Sobolewski's opinion that council could grant access to the shopping center at Sunset Road and parking, having been based on the dual petitions. Without the parking area, England said, council would be acting in violation of its municipal zoning ordinance in permitting "vehicular traffic over residential land," and the single petition would have to be denied.

"Hot-Rodding"
Earlier, Attorney Frank O'Donnell, representing Park 'n' Shop, Inc., had urged council to permit access to the shopping center at Sunset Road and parking, having been based on the dual petitions. Without the parking area, England said, council would be acting in violation of its municipal zoning ordinance in permitting "vehicular traffic over residential land," and the single petition would have to be denied.

Councilman Fred Wakefield objected to Gallo's alleged failure to abide by a recorded agreement to plant screening shrubbery in the buffer zone between the shopping center and adjacent residential property, and presented a plat of the area including the planted screen.

"I never said I would put in screening," Gallo replied. "Furthermore, if it had been planted, it would have been torn out with Apple Road," he added concerning construction of the newly-opened street between Elkton Road and West Park Place.

Recent Drawing
Inspecting a drawing presented by Wakefield, Gallo said it had been prepared recently by Planning Director John Griesbaum who had wanted him to agree on the screening. "But I could not because it would have blocked out Apple Road," Gallo added.

"I don't want to be blocked from providing a street for the benefit of the city as a whole," City Manager J. Francis Neide interposed after concurrence between England and Sobolewski concerning legal necessity for denial of Sunset Road access to the shopping center. Neide said that the new portion of Apple Road had been constructed for the benefit of the entire city. And Councilman Olan R. Thomas added "I feel that two exits should be provided on Apple Road" for the Park 'n' Shop "with Elkton Road to become a dual road."

With access to the shopping center at the intersection of Winlow and Apple roads, and on Elkton Road, additional access at Sunset Road was denied unanimously.

A proposed ordinance to amend Section 23 (2) of Chapter 1 by including group life insurance among exceptions provided, was approved at the first of two required readings.

An extension of the voting period for municipal elections and referendum from 7 to 9 p.m. was proposed with amendment of the city charter.

Voter Pile-Up
Acting Mayor Henry R. Folsom, Jr., citing "pile-up at the polls" with a 7 p.m. termination, and "people still waiting to vote."

Wakefield urged that the 10 p.m. closing time proposed by Doehlt be reduced to 9 o'clock, and council unanimously approved the two-hour extension. England is to submit the proposed charter amendment.

James A. Moore in the audience, a former candidate for mayor, congratulated council on this action with "I heartily endorse extension of voting hours." Moore said that "one of the worst things that can happen for a democracy is to have voting made more difficult."

Charles R. Bauerlein, consulting engineer for development of the nine-acre tract in College Park as a playground, advised council that excavation work had begun Monday under the $30,275 contract covering "minimum recommendations for the site."

The work includes the "bare minimum to make it usable for next year," Bauerlein said, with $70,000 estimated for complete development.

Samuel E. Homsey's Art To Be Shown At YWCA

Samuel E. Homsey, Delaware architect and artist, will have a one-man show of his work at the Alice P. Smyth Center Newark YWCA beginning with a tea this Sunday from 3 to 5 p.m. The gallery will be open to the public from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. until Dec. 22.

Homsey is a member of the Wilmington Society of the Fine Arts, Philadelphia Watercolor Society, and was elected to the National Academy of Design. He started painting in 1929.

His work is owned by the Wilmington Society of the Arts, the Boston Art Museum, the University of Delaware, and is represented in private collections.

Thanksgiving Day Shotgun Argument Hospitalizes Boy

Older Brother Fires Shot At Younger In Near Fatal Disagreement Over Turkey

In an argument over the Thanksgiving Day turkey, 17-year-old James Stiner of 131 Madison Drive, College Park, was seriously wounded by a shotgun, and is a patient in Wilmington General Hospital.

His brother Donald, 19, arrested on a charge of assault with intent to commit murder, is in the New Castle Correctional Institute in lieu of $15,000 bail set at an arraignment before Magistrate Dolores L. Hamilton, Cooper Farm.

Newark Det. Sgt. William Brierley gave this account of the shooting: Donald was carving the turkey in the dining room of the house for the family dinner about 11 a.m. when an argument arose between him and James. The younger brother insisted he was going to eat by himself.

Donald went upstairs, came down with a single-barrel shotgun, stood in the dining room and fired the blast at his 17-year-old brother.

James received the full blast on the left side of the abdomen and the left forearm.

Mrs. Jean Stiner, the boys' mother, pleaded with Donald to put down the weapon when he came downstairs. Donald, however, told James to stop the argument or he would fire, and when the younger brother continued, the lone shot was fired.

Linda J. Stiner, 18-year-old sister of the brothers, called an ambulance. Donald ran from the house with the gun after the shooting, but returned later with the weapon. He was there when police arrived.

Four UD Students Top Congressmen In National Tests

Four University of Delaware student leaders ranked above average in the televised National Citizenship Tests last week.

The four averaged 90 per cent—considered excellent by testers. The national average was 63 per cent among persons taking the test in a CBS sampling.

U. S. congressmen who took the test two weeks ago averaged 85. Taking the test were Daniel K. Stat and Douglas L. Francisco, 23, both senior majors in political science; Peter C. Flynn, 19, a junior major in chemical engineering; and Catherine J. Duncin, a sophomore international relations major.

Similar to the driving test in which 30 million Americans participated last year, this test was to rate education and interest in government, good citizenship, laws and rights.

It was a fair test, the students agreed, although they expected it to be more difficult.

Students were chosen to take the test on the basis of their activities in student government.

Miss Duncin, secretary for the student newspaper "Review," and Flynn have had few courses in political science. Stat and Francisco, however, have studied it extensively and both are active in the Student Government Association.

"There should be more of this type of thing," Miss Duncin said. "It's all a part of the anti-apathy movement to get people interested in things."

The test was originally scheduled for Nov. 9 and canceled because of the Northeast power failure.

Angel To Direct Students In Christmas Program

Mrs. Donald Hardy, program chairman of the University Women's Club, has announced that the December meeting will be held at the Student Center Ewing Room next Monday at 8 p.m., with university students under the direction of Dr. Duane Angel presenting a series of Christmas readings and dramatic interpretations.

Following the program, refreshments will be served.

Mrs. Val Arnsdorf is chairman of the hostess committee for the evening.

Delaware Trust Co. Opens Local Office On S. College Avenue Opposite Stadium

Delaware Trust Company's seventh suburban office since 1952 opened yesterday at 622 South College Avenue in Newark, directly opposite the west end of the University of Delaware Stadium.

Ground for the new building was broken last August under the direction of Wark and Co., and architect W. Ellis Preston.

A preview luncheon was held Tuesday for state and municipal officials and business and educational leaders of the community.

Bank officials point out that the brick, colonial design selected for the new office blends with the Georgian architecture of the University of Delaware and with many other offices and residences of the community.

The bank's approximate 5,000-sq. ft. includes a lobby with counter and writing desks, staff offices, vault, night depository, 500 safe deposit boxes, employees' lounge, work areas and drive-in windows.

Drive-in windows will be open during regular banking hours with the teller at the outside window receiving and dispatching change and records with the help of a pneumatic conveyor system.

The staff of the new office includes Manager Edward J. Logue, Jr., William Law, Mrs. John L. Allen, Mrs. John A. Boehm, Mrs. Donald S. Glick, Mrs. Thomas Sheets and Mrs. Arthur Wellington. Four members of the staff are Newark area residents.

Gifts have been set aside for early visitors, according to Manager Logue. In addition, a portable color television set and three transistor radios will be given away.

Bank visitors may deposit free coupons beginning Wednesday with winners to be announced Friday, Dec. 17.

"Adding Machine" By E-52 Players Slated Dec. 9-11

A satire on commercial civilization, "The Adding Machine" will be presented by E-52 University Theatre players at the University of Delaware, Dec. 9-11.

The play by Elmer Rice is considered one of the best examples of American expressionistic, and one of the most original contributions to the American theatre.

Certain time for all three performances at Mitchell Hall on the Newark campus will be 8:15 p.m.

Dr. Brooks McNamara, who moved to the Delaware faculty this September from Tulane University, is directing the play.

Appearing as Mr. Zero, the hero will be Timothy Maloney, graduate student in dramatic arts who appeared in productions at King's College in Pennsylvania, community groups in Pennsylvania and New Jersey, and in summer stock. Last summer, Maloney acted and directed with The Group Downstairs in Newark.

Mrs. Zero, a nagging and domineering wife, will be played by Janet Herron, freshman from New Castle.

Caroline Jones, freshman drama major from Wilmington, will play the part of Day, Mr. Zero's co-worker in mechanized society.

James Brunner, sophomore from Newark, will play Lt. Charles. He has experience with several E-52 and Group Downstairs productions. Jack Atwood, another veteran E-52 performer, will play the Boss.

Sarah Whedbee, a member of the European tour "Kiss Me, Kate" cast last summer, will portray Judy O'Grady, and George Lytle, Wilmington freshman, will be Shrdlu.

Community Fund Honors P. A. Toman For Radio Effort

Producer of "Newark Schools Notebook," a radio program heard Monday through Friday at 9:30 p.m. on WNRK, Philip A. Toman received a Public Information Award on behalf of the program from the United Community Fund of Northern Delaware, Inc. at a banquet last week in the Hotel duPont.

The award cited the work done by "Newark Schools Notebook" in bringing to the public "in a very special way" the need of agencies benefiting from United Community Fund donations.

Student director of the program is Charles Gibb of Newark High School.

"Notebook" reporters, each taking a one-week shift at the news desk, are John Ufford of Christiana High School; Steve Roberts, Newark High School; Robert Gierler, Central Junior High School; Ed Maclary, Christiana Junior High; and Chris Barker, Oglethorpe Junior High School.

An indoor tree will be trimmed; decorations and greenery created; and there will be singing and refreshments.

Christmas Bazaar With Food, Fun, Prizes Scheduled This Weekend At Holy Angels

Webster defines "bazaar" as "a sale lasting usually for a few days, at which all manner of articles are sold for the benefit of some church or cause." and "Mr. Webster's definition well describes the Christmas Bazaar to be held in Holy Angels Hall this weekend." Mrs. Mary Tulley said in announcing the annual Christmas benefit program for St. John's-Holy Angels Catholic parish.

The Christmas Bazaar will be held in the auditorium off Possum Park Road near Newark this Saturday from 11 a.m. until 9 p.m., and on Sunday from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m.

Total Doctor Bill Covered In Policy At Chrysler Plant

Group Insurance Program Offered Assembly Plant Employees On Trial Basis

An experimental program covering a subscriber's total doctor bill is being tried out in Delaware by Group Hospital, Inc., with 5,700 employees at the Chrysler assembly plant in Newark.

If successful, it may be offered to other employers, and eventually, to individuals, according to Harold V. Maybee, managing director of the state Blue Shield organization.

Heretofore, medical insurance programs have involved paying only a part of the total bills.

The arrangement is the result of medical insurance provisions of the labor contract negotiated in Detroit by Chrysler and the United Auto Workers. It is the second such plan in the nation, according to Maybee. The other covers employees at the Ford Motor Co., Louisville (Ky.) plant.

The Delaware plan has been in effect since Aug. 1. Since then, another has been started at Chrysler's Rockford (Ill.) plant.

The unusual feature of the new plans is that they are geared to doctors' fees rather than settling fees which doctors then follow, according to Leonard Davis, director of professional relations for Group Hospital Service.

In essence, Blue Shield agrees to pay "prevailing doctors' rates in effect in the community." In instances where doctors do not elect to participate or where their fees are higher than the "prevailing" rate, Blue Shield reimburses its subscribers to the extent of maximum benefits provided by its standard "Plan B" policies.

In the case of the Delaware plan, the "prevailing" rate is established by determining the maximum fee charged by 90 per cent of the doctors in the community for the same service.

Premium rates for the coverage are higher than rates for standard Blue Shield policies, but Maybee said that considering additional benefits, rates are proportionate.

About 80 per cent of the doctors in Delaware have agreed to participate in the plan, Davis said.

One thing being watched with the plan was the tendency there would be for doctors to increase fees—boosting the "prevailing" rate, he said.

Narcotics Addict Suspect In Local Pharmacy Theft

A narcotics addict is suspected of breaking into the Newark Pharmacy early Thanksgiving Day morning.

Gaining entrance to the drug store at 183 East Main Street by breaking a glass pane in the front door, the intruder neglected some $50 in the cash drawers to loot the drug counter.

Det. Sgt. William Brierley of the Newark Police Department reports.

$120 Stolen In Burglary At Ed Fine Auto Agency

Some $120 in cash was stolen from the Ed Fine auto agency on New London Avenue last Friday night or early Saturday morning, Newark police report.

Entry was gained by smashing a pane of glass in the auto agency, according to Pfc Marvin Fitzgerald of the Newark police.

Patricia Williams Named To National Panel For Reading

Mrs. Patricia Williams, first grade teacher at the Joseph M. McVey Elementary School, has been invited to participate in a national panel this Saturday on "Advantages of a Programmed Approach to the Teaching of Reading."

Last year, Mrs. Williams began an experiment in programmed reading instruction at the McVey School, an experiment so successful that it has been expanded this year and her work has received national attention.

Heading Saturday's panel will be Dr. M. V. Sullivan, nationally known author and pioneer in the teaching of reading by programmed materials.

Programmed reading, called "the most significant advance in the teaching of reading in the past 50 years," permits individualized teaching approach and gives children opportunity to learn to read at their own pace.

Working with her first grade students at the Joseph M. McVey Elementary School, Mrs. Patricia Williams assists them in beginning programmed reading instruction.

Newark High School Football Squad, Coaches Honored At Annual Booster Club Banquet Last Night; Hoffman's Parents Present New Scholastic Award To Bill Murphy

Members of the Newark High School football team—Blue Hen Conference champions with an 8-1 season record—were honored last night with their coaches at the annual banquet of the Yellowjacket Booster Club in the Aetna Fire Hall on Ogletown Road, with Harold "Tubby" Raymond, backfield and veteran baseball coach at the University of Delaware, as guest speaker. Nineteen members of the Yellowjacket champion gridgers were awarded varsity letters or gold bars as previous letter-winners.

The 1965 lettermen include 12 seniors—Co-Captains Bob Ewing and Dick Fulton, center and halfback; Bob Vance, Don Walp, fullbacks; Bob Hines, Lou Sten, fullbacks; Bill Murphy, and Pat Walker, tackles; John Ingold, Bob Jones, Rowan Perkins, and Mike Turner, guards; and Tom Runnels, team manager.

Six juniors won letters for their performance with the 1965 Newark champions—Quarterback Lou Sten, fullback; Halfbacks Dick Kelley, Jim McDonough, and David Word; and Ends Conway Hayman and Larry Tucker.

The Hayman Award
Bill Murphy received the award as the football player with the highest scholastic average—a new award presented by Mr. and Mrs. Raymond L. Hayman of Prospect Park, Pa., parents of Coach Hoffman; and Bob Jones, the award for the most progressive player.

Head Coach Bob Hoffman and his assistants—Norman Bunting, Joe Mattola, and Bill Santo—were guests of honor.

Introducing his award-winning champions, Hoffman cited Dick Fulton as "the best back" in his nine years at Newark.

"Regard yourself as what you could be," Harold Raymond said in his address. He cited the experience of Paul Mueller, a halfback at Delaware until his senior year when he was called on to end Mueller's career. He responded to such extent that he was elected team captain—"all because he was willing to be of service to the team," Coach Raymond stressed.

"Give it the great effort," Raymond urged. "Be of service to someone," he advised.

Robert C. Meyer was toastmaster; Robert Ewing and Harvey Fulton—fathers of the championship co-captains—were banquet chairmen; and John Ingold, president of the Yellowjacket Booster Club, presented monogrammed pins to the wife of each coach.

Rotary Fellowship Program Praised By Peter Woolsey

More than a half-million Rotarians, in over 125 lands contribute to the Rotary Foundation, which annually sponsors 143 Rotary Foundation Fellowships. These students sponsored by the clubs, must hold a bachelor's degree and measure up to a high level of scholastic ability.

For study toward advanced degrees in a country other than their own.

A Rotary Fellow visited the Newark Rotary Club at their weekly meeting last week at Howard Johnson's, with Tom Stephens presiding.

Peter Woolsey of England, completed his Fellowship last year at the University of Pennsylvania and was able to come back this year to finish his advanced education.

Woolsey related his experiences while studying in Europe and at Penn., and told of his many visits to European Rotary clubs.

He concluded that "Rotary International has helped in increasing worldwide understanding through its Rotary Foundation Fellowship program."

Mrs. Williams, Ed Foster Win Crop Show Honors

Mrs. Marshall Williams and Edward Foster of Newark won honors at the annual Delaware State Crop Show on Tuesday last week in Dover.

Mrs. Williams was honored for exhibiting the outstanding field corn display, and Foster won first place in New Castle County for his 10-car corn entry.

W. H. Mitchell and J. Oliver Koeig of Newark were elected secretary and treasurer of the Delaware Crop Improvement Association headed by Charles Blendt of Smyrna.

$10,934 Awarded Preiss For Continued Research

The U. S. Dept. of Health, Education and Welfare has notified the University of Delaware that it is continuing support of research by Dr. John W. Preiss, with a one-year continuation award of $10,934 to finance his research into "Localized Effects of Ionizing Radiation."

Associate professor of physics, Preiss has had support of the project since it began in 1962. The latest award covers the period from Dec. 1, 1965, to next Nov. 30.

The research is designed primarily to determine intracellular and intermolecular effects of ionizing radiation.

White Oak 4-H Club observed parents night with a covered dish supper and special program last Thursday at the Hockessin Friends Meeting House. There were 55 present.

Dean Belt, county 4-H leader, spoke to club members on "What Makes a Club Tick."

Year pins were awarded as follows: Kenneth Lomax, eight years; Sally Pierson, seven years; Laura deHoff, five years; Anne Lomax, five years; Marie Proud and Eileen Ryan, three years; Patrick Ryan, two; and Charmayne Pierson and Andrea White, first year.

Members made 60 favors for Exeter Hall Nursing Home for Thanksgiving.

For the program, a summary of the club's activities for 1965 was given by Anne Lomax, retiring secretary. A piano and flute duet was played by Laura de Hoff and Ilene White.

The club will have change of decorations for the Junior Council Christmas dance on Dec. 29.

Plans were made for the Christmas meeting to be held Dec. 21, at the home of Marie Proud, preceded by carol singing.

Sally Pierson, Eileen Ryan, and Marie Proud received first year junior leadership pins, and Kenneth Lomax, a second year pin.

For the traditional candlelighting ceremony, Charmayne Pierson was chosen as the spirit. She is the initial second generation member, daughter of Philip Pierson.

Sally Pierson, Marie Proud, Eileen Ryan, and Anne Lomax also participated.

Members plan to attend the achievement banquet on Dec. 7, and to take part in the talent contest on Dec. 17.

Harmony Junior Grange will meet tomorrow at 7 p.m. when members will prepare for attendance at the Delaware State Grange youth program next Tuesday night.

Sunny Hills School will hold a Christmas program and bazaar this Sunday at 2 p.m. in the school gym. Mrs. David Ryder is general chairman.

Brownies Provide Crippled Children With Gift Items

Brownie Troop 704 under the leadership of Mrs. R. E. Martz and Mrs. W. G. Caulfield have joined with their sponsoring Newark Alumni of Delta Kappa Sorority in sending small gifts to the Crippled Children's Hospital in Richmond, Va.

The Brownies made nut cups with a Thanksgiving motif which the sponsor will fill and mail to the Hospital.

At the Nov. 23 meeting, girls held their meeting outdoors at the John R. Downes School.

They filled a first aid kit in preparation for camping sessions.

Highlights of future meetings will be to learn how to make kindling with its own rain coat of paraffin for wet seasons; how to make a stove out of tin cans; to learn knot tying, cooking skills, and proper clothing for outdoors.

Lambda Chi Alpha To Create Chapter For Local Campus

Lambda Chi Alpha fraternity will formally establish a chapter at the University of Delaware in ceremonies this Saturday.

George Spasyk, national service secretary of the 150-chapter fraternity, will supervise installation proceedings.

The Delaware chapter—to be known as the Lambda Beta chapter—has 44 members and six pledges. Its president is Kenneth Kerr, senior from Millford.

The ceremony will create the 10th fraternity chapter on the Delaware campus.

Recent purchase of a house at 163 West Main Street, Newark, completed requirements for fraternity status. Earlier, chapter members had obtained enough members, achieved satisfactory academic standing, and financial standing.

A banquet and dance at the Newark Country Club will cap the day's ceremonies. Norman C. Crawford, assistant to the provost and a Lambda alumnus, will be toastmaster.

Dean of Students John E. Hocutt will deliver remarks, and principal speaker will be Harold M. Myers, a director of the national fraternity.

We go to all the trouble of redesigning our interiors, improving our handling, and refining our Wide-Track ride, and some people buy us just for our looks.

Our new Executive Hardtop Coupe. Like all 1966 Pontiacs it includes outside mirror, padded dash and visors, backup lights, front and rear seat belts, dual-speed windshield wipers, and washers to clean your windshield for better visibility.

Just once we'd like to have people fall in love with the inside of our cars before they flip for the outside. We spend so much time and effort in there.

Why, this year alone we've made available brand-new wraparound buckets and profile bench seats. Not to mention extending ing our use of rich, genuine walnut paneling. And nicer instrument clusters you've never seen.

We've even had our engineers take our test cars apart to see if they can make them smoother, quieter, and more luxurious. And they came up with improvements that, incredibly enough, make our Pontiacs even more enjoyable to drive.

Really, though—we don't care which one of our features gets you inside one of our new Pontiacs, just as long as it gets you there. And it will. At least judging by the number of Pontiacs you see on the road.

Everything's new in tiger country. Wide-Track Pontiac/'66

MOORE-BUTLER WED AT RED LION

Miss Mary Louise Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Moore and John H. Butler were married on Friday evening, Nov. 26, in Red Lion Methodist Church. Mr. Butler is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Butler, Newark.

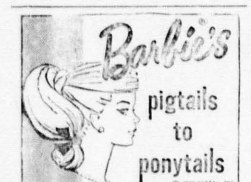

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Irwin Pusey. A reception followed in Red Lion Community Hall.

Mr. Moore gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a gown of pearl de soie and chivalry lace and carried a white orchid on her prayer book. Mrs. Charles P. Woerner of Bear served as matron of honor for her sister.

Maid of honor was Miss Carol Ann Butler of Newark, sister of the bridegroom. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Angelo Minotti of Wilmington and Miss Judy McFarlin of Newark.

The attendants wore pale blue brocade dresses with matching headpieces and carried cascades of pink roses and carnations.

Karen Ogden of Kirkwood, cousin of the bridegroom, was flower girl.

'Tis The Season To Be Giving

The holiday season is here again. And with it comes the spirit of giving. It is the time of year when you can add extra joy to those around you and know that by giving of yourself you can help make people happier than ever before.

You can do this in a dozen different ways: Give together with a group of your friends and go Christmas shopping in your neighborhood. Fill a basket with old clothes, toys, and cans of food and donate it to charity.

Make some Christmas cookies from a mix and sprinkle them with brightly colored cookie toppings. Don't forget to leave some on a plate with a glass of milk for Santa when he visits you on Christmas eve.

Make an ornament for the tree. Paint a styrofoam ball and dip it in glitter before it dries. Pine cones can be decorated with gold paint and glitter too, to be used as a centerpiece.

Make your own Christmas card and send it to someone you haven't seen in a long time. Delight your family by writing a holiday poem just for them.

String some popcorn with a needle and extra long thread and hang it outside for the birds to enjoy.

Surprise Mother by cleaning the silver for her.

Help your brother or sister to select their gifts for Dad and Mom and join them in wrapping their presents.

Make holiday pins for the ladies of the house. Just tie evergreen with a pretty ribbon and attach it with a safety pin. For extra touch add some tiny jingle bells.

Collect all the old Christmas cards that have been received and make a scrapbook of them for a children's hospital.

Wool Knits For Winter Sports

Indoor-outdoor winter sports cut crisp new figures in young fashions of pure wool knit. The ski-master's sweater (above) is awarded the Wool Bureau's quality mark. Its ribbed turtle neck and link cable stitch accent the shoulder line and sleeves.

Leisure-hours ensemble (right) is ideal for après ski as well as active sports or "at home" wear. Top and trousers are quietly belled. Trim drawstring neckline adds a touch of femininity to the shaped, sleeveless top. Style and comfortable warmth are two reasons for the current popularity of pure wool knits.

Troop 779 Invests New Girl Scouts, Aids Manor Home

Girl Scout Troop 779 of Unit 16 meets each Tuesday at the John R. Downes School between 3:20 and 4:45 p.m., and on Nov. 16, an investiture ceremony was conducted.

Invested in the troop were Sandra Baldini, Lisa Beatty, Sally Lou Cann, Charlene Case, Sandra Dutton, Diane and Mary Ann Hamilton, Cathie Harvey, Suzanne Lucas, Carol Meier, Maureen Murphy, Carol Patchin, and Amy Sheaffer, with Mrs. Robert Harvey, leader.

Welcoming new scouts into the troop were second year Brownies—Debbie Harvey, Janna Lee, Melinda Lee, Gail Palmichek, and Patty St. Clair.

Mrs. Ferron a service team member, assisted with the investiture, and mothers, brothers and sisters were present.

On Saturday, Nov. 20, this troop raked leaves for the Newark Manor Nursing Home to fulfill its "Promise Project." The girls also presented a winter bouquet which they made from greens and dried plants, to be used on guests' trays on Thanksgiving Day.

The Rev. Kibby To Speak On "Spiritual Dimension"

The third and final speaker in the series on Unitarianism at the Fellowship on Willa Road, will be the Rev. David R. Kibby, minister of the Unitarian Church of Delaware County, Pa. His topic will be "The Spiritual Dimension."

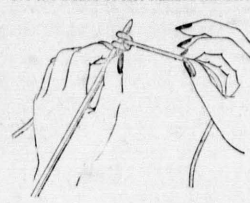

With bachelor degrees in art and sacred theology, the Rev. Kibby has served Unitarian churches in Dedham and Pittsfield, Mass., and was a chaplain in the U. S. Army.

He is author of two books; of articles in "Recreation" magazine, and has written Sunday school books for religious liberals.

Needlecraft News

by Nancy Baxter

HERE'S SOME GOOD NEWS FOR THOSE OF YOU WHO ARE LEFT-HANDED! The world can become quite complicated when you're just the slightest bit out of step — and that includes learning how to knit when you're left-handed, when most everyone else is a right-handed person. Fortunately, there's a brand new leaflet that is now available that has been devised exclusively for the would-be left-handed knitter.

SIMPLE STEPS

In this leaflet, consecutive diagrams show step by step procedures for learning how to cast on stitches, as shown in the picture. Also, how to knit and purl, which are the two basic knitting stitches — and, finally how to decrease and cast off. Once these essentials have been mastered, you can then follow the directions and make a simple but useful headband with just a little yarn and some elastic. Suddenly, you'll find that you have a fitting accessory for your favorite outfit. Following this, you can then go on to a head scarf which will give you practice in decreasing. By this time, you'll have a feeling of confidence and the wonderful world of knitting will be yours—with many hours of satisfaction to come.

TWO SKEIN CARDIGAN

As a final lesson, you can learn how to knit a lovely cardigan sweater. Using large needles and only two skeins of yarn, this is the simplest of sweaters, and yet it's a very attractive one. All of these directions are in one leaflet, which may be obtained by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to the Needlework Editor of this newspaper along with your request for Leaflet PE 1208A.

BANQUET OF CHAMPIONS

Robert Hoffman, head football coach at Newark High School since the 1959 season, was honored with his fourth Blue Hen Conference championship team of Yellowjackets last night at a veritable banquet of champions. The champions included parents, cheerleaders, teachers and other fans attending the Yellowjacket Booster Club-sponsored banquet—champions of champions. And members of the Aetna Ladies Auxiliary and the volunteer firemen who cooked and served the family-style roast beef dinner, are champions, too.

Coach Hoffman, a football star at Gettysburg College, piloted Newark High School to the conference crown in his very first year as head coach after Don Miller's stellar performance, with Quarterback Carl Rice and Tackle Monty Jackson as his co-captains.

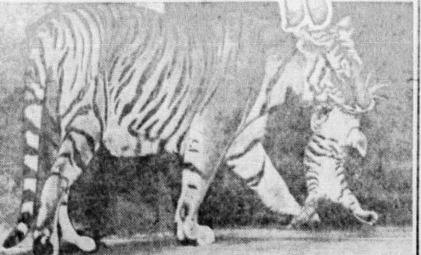

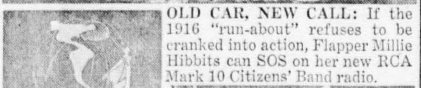

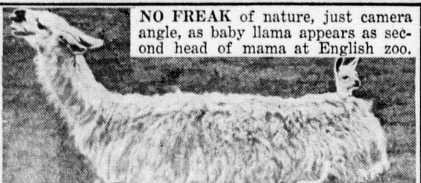

And the following year, with Quarterback Guy Cage and Guard Art Carney, Hoffman produced another conference championship squad.

In 1963 with Quarterback Harvey Folk, Guard Dan Suppe, and Tackle Mike Walker as captains, the Newark Yellowjackets won the Blue Hen Conference crown for a third time.

And now, with the 1965 squad led by Co-Captains Bob Ewing and Dick Fulton at center and halfback, Bob Hoffman may well be on his way to the college coaching climate with his fourth championship squad in seven years of very tough high school conference competition.

Congratulations, Bob Hoffman! And congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Raymond L. Hayman of Prospect Park, Pa.—parents of Coach Robert Hoffman—for their care and love in the upbringing of a fine young gentleman who is a living tribute to them.

Mrs. Theo. S. Jones Dies In Hospital

Mrs. Dorothea Werner Jones, 53, of 18 Minquil Drive, Newark, died Monday in Maryland General Hospital, Baltimore, after a long illness.

Mrs. Jones, a native of Baltimore, had lived in Newark for about eight years. She was employed in the DuPont traffic division.

An active member of the Newark Methodist Church, Mrs. Jones was a member of the Order of Eastern Star and a past worthy matron of Adah Chapter No. 5 in Delmar.

Survivors include her husband Theodore S. Jones; her mother, Mrs. Susie Werner of Gaithersburg, Md.; two brothers, William Werner and the Rev. Leslie E. Werner, both of Baltimore; a stepson, Theodore S. Jones Jr., and a stepdaughter, Mrs. Roger Stork—both of Newark.

Services will be conducted Friday at 2 p.m. in the Newark Methodist Church, with interment in Gracehaven Memorial Park.

Friends may call at the Robert T. Jones & Son Funeral Home from 7 to 9 tonight.

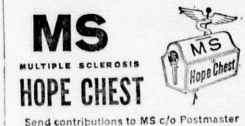

In lieu of flowers, contributions may be made to the Board of Child Care at the Methodist Church.

Tour Of State Hospital Planned By Rotary Club

The Newark Rotary Club will be conducted on a tour of the Delaware State Hospital, with their weekly meeting next Monday at 6:15 p.m. at the hospital.

Dr. J. B. Smith, superintendent at Farnhurst, will conduct the Rotarians on the tour.

Last Monday, Fred S. Arimoto, a DuPont Company scientist, addressed the Newark Rotary Club dinner meeting, explaining the Capital Trail Junior Football League program.

Letters To Santa

The friendly folks at the Newark Post Office handle many, many letters for Santa Claus at the North Pole, and Postmaster F. Allyn Cooch and his friends at the Post Office send a few of these letters to this newspaper for publication.

To assure Santa's young friends that their letters are not neglected, Postmaster Cooch and his associates at the U. S. Post Office in Newark, join Santa in wishing each of these young letter-writers a Christmas full of happiness—a very, very Merry Christmas!

Dear Santa Claus: For Christmas I would like to have an Irish Mail, some chemistry things; a bone for Tiger, please; a GI Joe set with Air Force helmets, mountain climbing and ski patrol suits. I would also like to have a few big surprise gifts—and please fill up my stocking. Sincerely yours, Eric Staats Kennard

Dear Santa: I have been pretty good and I would like a GI Joe and a Johnny Eagle for Christmas, a set of trains for myself and that's all. My brother is two years old and his name is Doug. Would you please send him a bike? Thank you and a Merry Christmas, Donny Osborne

Dear Santa Claus: I love you so much and I like your toys. Glen

Dear Santa Claus, for Christmas I would like to have a Thingmaker that makes Creepy Crawlers, the Field Pack Combat Set, the Friction Powered Jet Fighter Plane for GI Joe and the GI Joe Jeep. Also the Deep Sea Diver outfit for GI Joe, some Navy outfits for him and the Classic Set Guitar. My address is 30 Hillcroft Road, Windy Hills, Newark, Delaware 19711, U.S.A. Richard Pellicciaro

Dear Santa: Santa Claus, I like you a lot. Will you please give me the things I want: Voyage to the Bottom of the Sea; GI Joe with 27-piece machine gun; Gung Ho, Commando Outfit, Military pillbox. Thank you, Gary Winter

Dear Santa: Please bring me these things: GI Joe with 27-piece machine gun set; Frogman outfit for GI Joe; camera, and if you can, try and get me a hot rod for my race set. Thank you, Paul Winter

P. S. If you have any extras, I'll take them.

Dear Santa: I want a electric 1.98 guitar size just 24-in. long. And I want a sled, a football, a watch, and some books. And a thing call fat cat, and a radio. And I want you. Love, Terry Hayman

City Council

"Bare Minimum"

The current contract includes two basketball courts, a regulation baseball diamond, shuffleboard courts, shallow spray pool, provisions for a natural ice-skating rink; a shelter building with toilet facilities, office and storage; and a latticed roof pavilion to provide shade in the treeless tract.

Tennis courts at a cost of $8-9,000 were eliminated under the present contract because of their "uncertain" popularity.

Neide recommended the additional expenditure of $2,555 with immediate flatwork paving of the area beneath the latticed pavilion, and council approved this proposal.

The city manager also urged council to consider providing seedlings for assistance for the municipal shade tree committee.

Councilman Albert P. Chittenden cited the need of funds by the city hall site selection committee, and Neide was authorized to spend $500 in appraisals of proposed sites for a city hall.

The meeting was adjourned at 9:35 p.m.

Dear Santa Claus: Bring me a Suzie Smart doll with a desk and a blackboard and a chair. Thank you for bringing me one. Tara wants a doctor set. Thanks for bringing me one for Tara. When you come to my house, put a lot of toys here. Bring my Mommy a bathrobe and slippers and a nightgown. Thank you for bringing that. Please bring Daddy some shorts and long pants and some shoes. I want a doctor set, too. Your friend, Kerry

Dear Santa: Howdy! I have been a good girl all year and have given my Ma a home permanent. I gave it so good that she looks like a French poodle. I am writing early to avoid the December rush. All I want is a raccoon, but in Delaware you need a license to have one. Could I have one please? Lynda

P.S. I'll name him Bandit.

Dear Santa: Florence drew a picture of you. She likes you very much and hopes you will be very good to her on Christmas. Love, Florence

Col. T. H. Chambers Funeral Services Conducted Friday

Funeral services for Col. T. H. Chambers (U. S. Army-ret.) were held last Friday at Christ Church, Port Republic, Md. Interment was in Arlington National Cemetery, with military ceremony.

Son of the late John W. and Mark K. Chambers of Newark, Colonel Chambers died Nov. 23, at his home in Mutual, Md.

He joined the U. S. Navy in 1909, and later worked under Civil Service with construction of the Panama Canal.

In 1917 he was called from the canal for military service with the rank of captain in the U. S. Army. While serving with the army of occupation in Germany, he was promoted to major.

Promoted to lieutenant-colonel after World War I, he was transferred to the Army finance department, and at the beginning of World War II was promoted to full colonel.

A recipient of the Legion of Merit, he was a member of the American Legion, the Veterans of Foreign Wars; a 32nd degree Mason; and was a 53-year member of Hiram Lodge 25, AF&AM.

Colonel Chambers is survived by his wife Margaret Duke Chambers; a daughter, Mrs. T. L. George of Richmond, Va., and by two grandchildren.

He was the brother of Mrs. Herbert Renshaw of Wilmington; Mrs. Effie Boulden of Chester, Pa.; William Wellington Palmer of Marshallton; Mrs. Alma C. Tolomeo of Newark; and G. N. Chambers of Llangollen Estates, Del.

Dear Santa: Happy Christmas! Please bring me all the toys of the world. Please give me the dolly that is in the store, the one I like. Please bring me the Hostess Buffet, play food, some Barbie clothes, Skipper clothes, Ken clothes, and Midge clothes. I say my prayers every night except when I don't feel like it. Please bring me a new play telephone, my other one is broken. Now what else do I want? Dollies for my doll house. Bring me what else you think I would like.

I will say my prayers every night so you can get here safely. My name is Tracey Adams. I live at 200 Woodlawn Avenue, Newark, Del. I am five years old. Next year I will start to school. I am too little to write this letter so my Mommy wrote it for me. Love, Tracey

Dear Santa: Please bring me these things: GI Joe with 27-piece machine gun set; Frogman outfit for GI Joe; camera, and if you can, try and get me a hot rod for my race set. Thank you, Paul Winter

Musical Prodigy from Milwaukee Is National March of Dimes Child

Music hath charm for five-year-old Milwaukee miss, Lori Ann Wagner, National March of Dimes girl for 1966.

In fact, music charmed little Lori onto her feet when nothing else could. Her first steps were taken not toward her doting parents or a favorite cuddly toy. This youngster headed straight for the family piano. She was 2½ then and she's been tickling the ivories ever since.

Granted, Lori's first steps were taken later than most children's—and at greater cost, because she was born with a crippling spinal defect that paralyzed her legs.

There's nothing, though, that handicaps Lori in the music department. This little lady has a great ear and can often pick out a tune after hearing it just once. She also knows all the words to numerous songs including "Hello, Dolly" and "Supercalifragilistic-expialidocious." Despite her leg braces, she can take to the dance floor for an uninhibited frug, monkey or swim.

Music and show business are in Lori's blood. Her father, Henry (Skip) Wagner, is a bandleader. He plays the trumpet and 10 other instruments. The basement of the Wagner home resembles a musical instrument shop. Anytime she wants to, Lori can tootle a trumpet, trombone, tuba or tenor saxophone; she can strum a guitar, mandolin, bass fiddle or banjo; she can beat out a rhythm on the drums, squeeze notes out of an accordion or warm up that grand piano which was her first love.

To complete Lori's theatrical genealogy, Skip's father was a vaudeville performer with a roller skating act. And two of Lori's aunts had a sister act as dancers. They still work together—operating a theatrical costume house, and both are active in March of Dimes special events.

Apart from the family tradition, Lori is something of a pro in her own right. As the Milwaukee County Foster Child for the March of Dimes last year, she was the star of the local campaign and made 12 television appearances. As the National March of Dimes Child for 1966, she might well call on the President at the White House, meet United States Senators and Congressmen, stage and screen personalities, and make public appearances all over the U.S. None of it is likely to faze her least.

MUSICAL MISS fingers the keyboard with great ease, but walking is a more difficult matter for five-year-old Lori Wagner of Milwaukee, the 1966 National March of Dimes Child. She is a victim of the crippling birth defect of open spine (spina bifida).

Her parents, who will accompany her on a March of Dimes tour during January, are bracing themselves for all eventualities. Last year, when their strawberry-blond bombshell was introduced to the mayor of a large city, she was asked if she knew who he was. "Sure. He's the big shot," responded Lori as her parents smiled weakly at the mayor.

Another time after meeting a British woman, Lori noted that "She had an English accent." When she was nine days old, Lori had corrective surgery for her birth defect. This could not prevent paralysis but it did protect her against infection. She was fitted with leg braces when she was 18 months old, but it was another year before she could walk. It was then she hoped for the piano. Doctors are hopeful that, in time, Lori may walk without the crutches and braces she now uses.

She has physical therapy exercises every day. Her mother, Mary Ellen, is trained by professionals to help out at home in every step of the important part of Lori's rehabilitation.

For the past two years, the Milwaukee County Chapter of the March of Dimes has helped finance Lori's medical care. One of their most zealous volunteers is Lori's mother, who heads the Mothers' March in her section of the city. The Wagners have two younger children, both boys, who are healthy and very active.

Newark District Preschool Child Features Consus

A population census in the Newark special school district was launched yesterday, and is expected to be completed within three months.

The joint undertaking of the school district and the University of Delaware urban affairs division will give special attention to number and location of preschool children.

It will also provide information about the composition and growth potential of district residents, and a background of persons new to the district.

Eight enumerators are working with the census.

Data will be used by the district in long-range planning for classroom space, new and expanded school plants, site selection and educational programs.

Lawrence Schein of the division of urban affairs, and Robert Mayer of the Newark school staff, are coordinating the census.

"Driver Error" Features Maryland's Road Deaths

Fifteen persons were killed on Maryland highways last week. Nine of those killed were drivers; three were passengers; and three were pedestrians.

Alcohol was a contributing factor in eight of the deaths; speed in six; and "driver error" was present in 12 fatalities.

In commenting on last week's accident picture Col. Carey Jarman, superintendent of Maryland State Police said: "Week after week our surveys show that 'driver error' is present in upwards of 85 per cent of all fatal highway accidents."

"By 'driver error' we mean violation of the ordinary rules of the road such as failure to stop before entering a boulevard; too much speed; failure to keep to the right; we mean, also, driving under the influence of alcohol; and, above all, we mean a failure to adjust one's driving to meet changing accident-potential situations that are constantly facing the motor vehicle operator."

Pete Dudkewitz's Mother Succumbs With Heart Attack

Mrs. Julia Dudkewitz, 65, mother of Pete Dudkewitz, owner of the Chapel Street Servicenter in Newark, died Nov. 22 in Memorial Division from a heart attack.

Mrs. Dudkewitz was a member of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Philadelphia chapter, Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers.

Mrs. Dudkewitz resided with her husband at 106 Yearsley Drive, Parkwood.

She is survived by her husband William B. Dudkewitz; two daughters, Mrs. Samuel McDowell of Gaithersburg, Md., and Mrs. Robert Wilhelm of Wilmington; four sons, Peter of Oxford; Jacob of Landenberg, Pa.; and Walter and David of Elkton, Md.; 12 grandchildren, and one sister, Mrs. T. Parchin of Long Island, N. Y.

Services were conducted Friday from the Dahling Funeral Home, Elsmere.

SPECIAL WASHINGTON REPORT

The Congress of Fulfillment

By JOHN W. McCORMACK
Speaker, U.S. House of Representatives

The first session of the 89th Congress is completed. We have come now to the summing up. If we had to give this Congress a name, a name to distinguish it from other Congresses of the past, a designation in history, we would have to say it is the Congress of fulfillment.

HIGH MORAL ELEVATION

The extraordinary achievements of this Congress are, apart from for example, the early days of Franklin Delano Roosevelt, because its superbly historic record generally was created without the acute pressures of tragic national crises.

It was done out of a sense of the nation's greatness.

This Congress — perhaps more than any other Congress that has been before — reached a higher moral elevation.

THIS WAS THE CONGRESS

This was the Congress that gave the Nation its first real "nuts and bolts Housing Act," that took aim at the heart of America's housing problem — and extended to the less fortunate American an opportunity to raise his family in new and better housing.

This was the Congress that thrust itself into the very pit of our neglected national education problem. It enacted Federal funds for elementary and secondary schools. It took the best system of higher education and made it even better with continued Federal grants to our colleges and universities.

This was the Congress that launched Appalachia, providing aid that totaled $1.1 billion for an 11-state program, changing desperation into hope. It passed the Area Redevelopment Program. It provided $454 million for manpower training. It expanded President Johnson's poverty program.

This was the Congress that blazed a new edifying trail in the field of medical care for the aged, that authorized grants for community mental health centers for professional and technical staffing and that worked to stamp out heart disease, cancer and stroke.

This was the Congress that destroyed the long-held myth that once a tax is imposed it is never removed. Excise taxes were repealed on a massive and historic scale.

This was the Congress that removed the stigma of 100 years of Negro disfranchisement from the soul of America by passing the Voting Rights Bill.

This was the Congress that gave encouragement to the Nation's struggling artists through the establishment of a National Arts and Humanities Foundation.

These are just a few of the accomplishments of the 89th Congress. They indeed show that this is a Congress of fulfillment.

Retired Head Chef Andrew Korber, 76 Dies At Residence

Andrew Korber, 76, veteran head at the University of Delaware, died last Friday at 352 South College Avenue, his home in Newark.

Mr. Korber was a chef at various clubs and at Girard College in Philadelphia before going to the university in 1938. He was head chef for Kent Dining Room (the women's section) until he retired in 1955.

During the summers, he and his wife Mrs. Theresa Korber, ran Camp Saginaw near New London, Pa., continuing this for several years after his retirement. He also worked for a time for Memorial Hospital, Wilmington.

In addition to his widow, he is survived by a son, Dr. Ernest A. Korber, a Newark dentist; a sister, Mrs. Theresa Wimmer, Philadelphia, a grandson, and by nieces and nephews.

Solemn requiem mass was offered Monday morning in Holy Angels Catholic Church, Newark, with interment in All Saints Cemetery.

Friends called Saturday evening at the Robert T. Jones & Son Funeral Home, Newark.

In lieu of flowers, the family suggests contributions to charity.

Halfback Dick Kelley Paces Champions With Three TD's As NHS Tops Christiana

Junior Halfback Dick Kelley ran for three touchdowns to pace the Yellowjackets scoring in the Thanksgiving Day football finale at the Newark High School field last Thursday morning, as Coach Bob Hoffman's gridders defeated Coach Bill Horney's Christiana Vikings 32-0 in the Wilmington High School for the Blue Hen Conference championship with 8-1 season records.

Fullback Don Wain ran seven yards for the first period score, and Newark rolled to three touchdowns in the second quarter—on a two-yard dash by Kelley; a 39-yard bit of broken field running; and Co-Capt. Dick Fulton's one-yard plunge.

In the third quarter, Kelley scored again—on a four-yard slant. Fulton kicked a pair of extra points to set a Blue Hen Conference record of 36, along with records of 19 touchdowns and a 144-point total. The latter also won the state scoring championship.

Newark controlled the game from the kickoff and Hoffman withdrew his first team midway through the third period with a 32-0 lead. The Yellowjackets had the ball on the Christiana 25-yard line with 2:13 remaining in the game when Hoffman sent in his regulars with new assignments.

All-Conference End Hubbard was at quarterback. All-Conference Guard Bob Jones and Center Bob Pacing were the halfbacks and All-Conference Tackle Pat Walker at fullback.

Most of the members of the regular backfield were in the line as Walker crashed for five yards in two carries.

Then newly-appointed Guard Dick Fulton led Hubbard around end in an 18-yard dash to the Christiana two-yard line as time ran out.

The Yellowjackets wound up with 290 points in nine games.

Local Boys Boost Coach Paul Billy's Hens For Tourney

Delaware's wrestling team opens its 12-meet schedule this weekend with competition in the Towson (Md.) State Invitational Tournament. The Blue Hens join West Chester, Old Dominion, Washington & Lee, Baltimore University, Loyola, Western Maryland and Towson in the two-day tournament that starts tomorrow afternoon. Finals are scheduled for Saturday evening.

Coach Paul Billy expects his team to make a strong showing in the tournament and throughout the season despite the presence of only four lettermen.

"We are counting on sophomores and some boys who didn't wrestle last year to fill the gaps for us," Billy said. "I think we have more depth than last year."

The four lettermen from last year's 7-2-1 team are Russ Meredith of Hackensack, N. J.; Mike McGlinchey of Newark; Dave Nicoll of Bozman, Md.; and Capt. Chuck Walz of Wilmington.

Meredith will probably be the Hens' 160-pound representative, with Nicoll wrestling in the 177-pound class and Walz in the unlimited division.

McGlinchey and Soph Dave Bartholomew of New Castle, are expected to battle it out for the 167-pound spot.

Billy is counting on Perry Boone, sophomore from Newark, as his 123-pound wrestler.

Another Newark wrestler—Soph Pete Heuberger—probably will be the Hens' regular 145-pounder.

"Walz could be a Middle Atlantic Conference champion for us this year," Billy said, "and I expect strong performances from the other lettermen, and from sophomores Boone and Heuberger."

Billy has compiled a record of 14-7-1 in two years as head wrestling coach at Delaware.

The Hens face Bucknell next Wednesday at 2 p.m. in Carpenter Fieldhouse.

Newark Notes by GIBBY YOUNG

ONE-TWO: Congratulations to Co-Capt. Dick Fulton and to his halfback running mate Dickie Kelley, for finishing one-two in the Blue Hen Conference football scoring race.

Dick Fulton, a senior, set three conference scoring records with his 144-point total, including 19 touchdowns and 30 conversions—and Dickie Kelley scored 13 touchdowns as the runner-up for total point honors with 78.

And congratulations to Bob Hoffman for winning his fourth Blue Hen Conference football championship in seven years as Newark High School's head coach.

THE NEWARK POST

The Newark Post, Newark, Delaware, Thursday, December 2, 1965

Eight

Coach Mike Lude, "Whitey" Burnham TD Club Speakers

Seniors of the Newark High School Blue Hen Conference championship football team will be honored next Wednesday night at the Newark Touchdown Club's annual Banquet at 6 p.m. in the Aetna Fire Hall on Ogletown Road, with Mike Lude as guest speaker, and Alden H. "Whitey" Burnham, toastmaster.

Both Mike Lude and Whitey Burnham served together as University of Delaware coaches—Lude as line mentor for the Blue Hen gridders, and Burnham as soccer and wrestling coach.

Mike is head football coach at Colorado State University, and Whitey is a coach at Dartmouth.

The Newark Touchdown Club Trophy will be presented by Hugh F. Gallagher, Jr., to the member of the football squad contributing most to team morale, and the Mayor of Newark will be presented by Eric Mayer to the outstanding player of the Yellowjacket championship team of 1965.

Trophies to the two top senior gridders at Christiana High School will be awarded by F. Allyn Cooch, Jr., and Arthur S. Hausler.

Albert S. Priestley is president of the Newark Touchdown Club; J. Earl Lynch is vice-president; M. E. "Dick" Prettyman is secretary; and Robert Pilnick is treasurer.

Banquet tickets are available from Jack Handoff at the Newark Department Store.

MARYLAND PUBLIC PARKS
The public, in ever-increasing numbers, continues to turn to Maryland's state parks in pursuit of outdoor recreation. During the past nine months, according to Spencer P. Ellis, director of the department of forests and parks, 3,420,140 persons utilized the state's 33 parks and recreation areas—an increase of 487,537 over 1964.

think that deer were once extinct in Delaware, back in the early 1900s. The herd now numbers about 2,000, which the game and fish people feel is a good size to maintain.

The Petersburg wildlife area is a good place for deer, and for small upland game, with quail, woodcock, rabbits, squirrels, raccoons, and red foxes in residence. The area has been planted with evergreens to improve natural shelter, and patches of annual grains provide quick food supply to supplement more permanent plantings.

Small game may be hunted at Petersburg during the season except on the bird and rabbit dog field trials grounds, and the entire 2,687 acres is open for the deer season.

The Petersburg area can be reached from either Felton or Viola on U. S. 13 south of Dover, or from Petersburg about eight miles southwest of Dover on Delaware 10.

Towns near all these areas have good overnight accommodations for hunters.

In addition to the state areas, Delaware has thousands of acres of privately owned good hunting land which is not posted, and most landowners, when asked, are pleased to open their gates to the hunter. It is, of course, always best to ask.

The Bombay Hook National Wildlife Refuge, not far from Smyrna, permits hunting in certain areas, and is well worth an inquiry.

In a duck blind, watching for the first golden light over the dark waters; following a good dog through late brush—it's a wonder that this Delaware wildland is so close to the great metropolitan areas.

Three hours drive from New York, two from Washington, Philadelphia or Baltimore—just a quick hour from Wilmington.

Hunting is well worth discovering in wonderful Delaware, the Delaware State Development Department declares.

Brandy Davis Joins New Atlanta Braves After Five Years For Houston Nationals

Newark's Brandon "Brandy" Davis, a member of the National League Houston organization for the past five years, has joined the new Atlanta Braves of the National League as a scouting executive for the Delaware, Maryland, South Jersey, and Eastern Pennsylvania region.

Eastern scouting supervisor for Houston, Davis was released with a change in Astro management, when former Sox GM Pinky Higgins was named head of the Houston scouting corps.

Brandy Davis, former major league outfielder for the Pittsburgh Pirates, left Newark last Friday with his wife, the former Miss Sue Ware, to attend the professional baseball winter meetings in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. He was employed Tuesday by the Braves who will be playing out of Atlanta instead of Milwaukee.

Former Newark High School baseball, basketball, track, and football star, Brandy Davis graduated from Duke University where he excelled in baseball and track; served in the U. S. Marine Corps, and was signed as a professional baseball player by the Pittsburgh Pirates.

From Class D baseball in his first season with Bartlesville, Okla., he jumped to the majors the following spring, playing center field between Ralph Kiner and Gus Bell for the Pittsburgh Pirates against the St. Louis Cardinals in Sportsman's Park on opening day.

A 9.6 sprinter on the base paths, Brandy's big bat in the minors left something to be desired in the majors, and he was up and down with the Pirates' top club.

After an ankle injury, he became a player-manager for farm teams in the Pittsburgh, Detroit, and Dodger organizations before signing with Houston as a scouting executive.

A public school teacher and professional basketball official in the Newark area during the winter, he resides with his wife at 222 Cheltenham Road, Oakland.

Ewell Succeeded By Joe Mottola As Baseball Coach

Joe Mottola, veteran line coach for Yellowjacket football teams, has been named baseball coach at Newark High School, succeeding Grant Ewell.

Baseball coach for Newark for the past four years, Ewell resigned because of a major operation facing his son.

Before joining the local football coaching staff in 1961, Mottola coached baseball four years at Interboro (Pa.) High School, winning the sectional championship in his last year at Interboro.

Mottola, 38, resides in Claymont with his wife and son.

International Badminton Slated Friday At U. of D.

An exhibition by international badminton stars will be offered this Friday at 7:30 p.m. in Carpenter Fieldhouse at the University of Delaware. The public is invited free of charge.

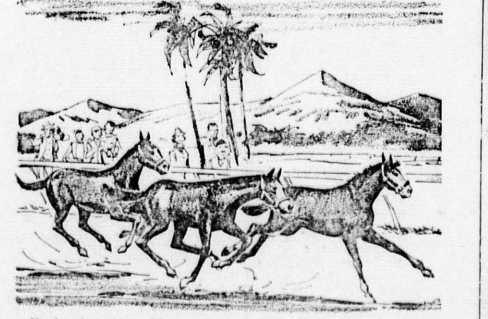

This international exhibition is in preparation for team competition for the Uber Cup, and the program is directed by Margaret Varner of the university physical education staff, captain of the U. S. 1957 team that defeated England, India, and Denmark for the Uber Cup in 1957.

Former baseball and basketball star, McMinn was elected to his second term as DSGA president.

It's hard for a youngster to learn good manners without seeing any.

OFF AND RUNNING by John I. Day

Dinner Bell Derby

Early American Thoroughbreds, famed for being able to run two or three four-mile heats in an afternoon, usually did not get to the race track for serious competition until they were 5-year-olds. Thoughtful owners and Thoroughbred breeders would like a dim view of early and excessive 2-year-old racing, but with Quarter Horses it's a different story. A feature at some Quarter Horse tracks in the West is an event for suckling foals at 150 yards for a very important reward—their dinner.

Anyone who has watched mares and their foals in a field will have noticed that the young horse is too far from his mother. When on occasion he wanders off in pursuit of a grasshopper and suddenly realizes the separation he quickly makes a run for it.

It is on that basis that the Milk Run or Dinner Bell Derby is staged. The mares are held at a point just beyond the finish line and the foals are led 150 yards up the stretch. At a given signal they are released and the result is an exciting, if brief, race.

Quarter horse fans are known to keep their own "past performance" charts on the youngsters for reference when they go to the post under silks some two years later.

NHS Places Seven On All-Blue Hen Conference Teams

Seven of Coach Bob Hoffman's 8-1 Yellowjacket champions of 1965 have been named to All-Blue Hen Conference football teams selected by conference coaches.

Co-Capt. Dick Fulton, Newark halfback and state scoring champion; End Bobby Hubbard; Tackle Pat Walker; and Guard Bob Jones were selected for the first team.

Tackle Bill Murphy; Co-Capt. Bob Ewing, center; and Halfback Dick Kelley won second team berths.

Wilmington High—co-holder of the conference title—placed two on the first team—Tackle John Kaczmarek and Halfback Jim Lotharp, and William Penn won two positions on the first team with End Bruce Reynolds and Tackle Joe Shetzler.

The All-Blue Hen Conference first team also includes Tom Stetina, Conrad center; Bill Burns, quarterback from Brandywine; and P. S. du Pont Fullback Roger Gordon.

Bill Horney, head football coach at Christiana High School, announced the all-star team selections.

Basketball Play Planned For 5th, 6th Grade Boys

The Greater Newark Recreation Association will conduct a 12-week Elementary Boys Basketball League for fifth and sixth grade boys of the Newark area.

Sign-up will be held this Saturday at 9 a.m. at the Central Elementary School gym.

A six-team league will be organized, and play will continue each Saturday thru March 5.

Eight Blue Hens Wins MAC Honors For 1965 Season

Coach Dave Nelson's 1965 Delaware football players won four positions on the 22-man Middle Atlantic Conference all-university division team, and four more won honorable mention.

Delaware's Ed Anderson, offensive guard; and Bill Neiger, interior lineman; Herb Slattery, linebacker; and Bruce Carlyle, halfback, were selected on the defensive team.

Quarterback Tom Van Gorkst; Halfback Brian Wright; Defensive End Bill Drueiding; and Defensive Lineman Jim Freeberry, won honorable mention for MAC all-university team honors.

Bucknell, new MAC champion, placed men at six positions, while Temple and Gettysburg landed four each along with Delaware.

Maryland Home-Breds Face Pimlico Breeders' Stakes

Home-bred juveniles will hold center stage at Pimlico this Saturday with the 19th running of the Pimlico Breeders' Stakes at a mile and a sixteenth. The race has a value of $23,000 added and 39 two-year-olds have been made eligible for it.

The race will offer Flamingo Farm's Miss Spin an opportunity to sweep the two top events of the fall season in Maryland for home-breds for she was successful in the Maryland Futurity at Laurel and has been working steadily since then in preparation for the Breeders'.

Raymond E. Vogelmann, Jr.'s Mr. Judex who was third in the Maryland Futurity is rated as one of Miss Spin's most formidable rivals in the Pimlico test.

Coach Bob Hoffman Wins 4th BHC Title As Yellowjackets Complete 8-1 Campaign

With an 8-1 record for the past season, Coach Bob Hoffman piloted the 1965 Newark High School Yellowjackets to their fourth Blue Hen Conference championship in his seven years as head coach for Newark High School.

In defeating Christiana 32-0 last Thursday, the Yellowjackets tied Wilmington High School for the conference crown as Wilmington edged P. S. du Pont 13-7 in another Thanksgiving Day contest.

Newark walloped Wilmington High 39-7 for the Red Devils' lone loss of the season, and Yellowjacket Co-Capt. Dick Fulton, state scoring champion with 144 points, collected his season's high game yardage against Wilmington—227 yards rushing.

Coach Billy Cole's Colonials of William Penn High School at New Castle handed Hoffman's Yellowjacket champions their one loss of the 1965 season in a 20-13 upset.

Stanton stopped the Crusaders 26-6 to win the senior division championship last Sunday in the Capital Trail Junior Football League, and the younger Stantons edged the Junior Crusaders 6-0 to tie the idle VFW for the junior group title.

The Stantons and VFW juniors both 7-1 for the season—will meet this Sunday at 1 p.m. on the Stanton gridiron to decide the junior division championship.

In last Sunday's senior games, Stanton's Bill Eubank scored two TD's on a 24-yard scoring maneuver with an intercepted pass, and taking Jim Wilson's touchdown test for a 12-yard romp into the end zone.

Pat Lattis and Jim Wilson each scored a TD for Stanton—Lattis intercepting a pass for a 25-yard tally, and Wilson on a 12-yard run. Lattis and Joe Resende ran for extra Stanton points.

Crusader Orval Foraker scored a touchdown on a six-yard plunge.

The senior Central defeated the Green Raiders 25-19 with Gary Hayman on a 24-yard TD, and a 40 and 20-yard pass plays; Elwood Ray added another on a 30-yard pass maneuver; and Gary Connell recovering a Raider fumble to ramble 30-yards for the score.

Gilbert Jones ran for the Central extra point.

Dale Stanton recovered a blocked kick in the Central end zone for a Raider TD; Bill Stewart ran five-yards for a TD, adding the extra point with a run; and O'Dell Cooper raced 10-yards for a touchdown.

Green Danbach ran five yards for the Stanton juniors' touchdown in defeating the Crusaders.

The Raiders tied the 3-5 Crusaders for second place by defeating 0-3 Central 31-6.

Brian Fischer scored two Raider TD's—on 20 and 30-yard runs, and ran for an extra point; and Donald Swartz, Ricky Woodward, and Eddie Farren added touchdowns for the victorious Green Raiders with a pair of 10-yard dashes, and recovering a blocked kick in the Central end zone.

Randy Piekarski broke away for 40-yards and the Central score.

The junior and senior division champions will play all-star teams in a pair of games on Saturday, Dec. 11, at 1 p.m. on the Newark High School field.

Newark defeated Mt. Pleasant 41-7; Conrad 30-0; P. S. du Pont 20-6; Brandywine 35-6; DeLaWarr 48-0; Wilmington 39-7; and Christiana 32-0.

Fulton set three conference records—for touchdowns, extra, and total points. The Newark co-captain scored 19 TD's, kicked 30 extra points; and ran up a total of 144 to win the state scoring championship as well.

Capt. John Himes Paces Hen Cagers For Opening Win

Co-Captain John Himes led Coach Irv Wisniewski's Delaware basketball team to an 86-78 season-opening win over Glassboro (N.J.) State last night at Carpenter Fieldhouse, with the game-high total of 30 points.

The 6-2 Himes sunk 12 shots from the competitive floor, and scored on six of seven field goal attempts. Glassboro defeated Delaware 70-67 last year.

Bill Lee led the Blue Chicks to a 73-51 win over the Glassboro frosh in the preliminary game—first for new Coach Mickey Heckenroth.

Lee scored 22 points for the Delaware frosh—20 of them with field goals.
