E 52 GROUP TO PRESENT FIRST PLAY NOVEMBER 1

Drama Group Guest Actors Included In Comedy Cast

The adventures of the Crochets, one of the first families of American literature, are the basis for "The Great Big Doorstep", the folk comedy which is being prepared by the E 52 Players for presentation at the University of Delaware on November 1 and 2. These little-known but colorful people are Cajuns, who inhabit the Deep Delta regions of the Mississippi below New Orleans. Their trials and tribulations in trying to find a house to go with their "stupendable doorstep" provide an evening of mirth-provoking experiences.

In an effort to promote closer cooperation between community and university theatres and to improve standards of production, the E 52 Players will use for this production two guest actors from the University Dramatic Group, G. Taggart Evans and L. Parker Thomas, of Newark. Both these actors have previously appeared on the Mitchell Hall stage in the production of Twelfth Night, by the E 52 Players.

According to Dr. Kase, Director of Dramatics, it has been possible to select an exceptionally strong cast from the 35 students who tried out for parts. The following students have been assigned roles: Dorothy Catts, Jean Booker, Sybil Levenson, Temma Bell, Betty Hutchinson, Joseph Woods, Bill Merrion, Charles Rogers, Neysa Gold, and Jean Tullar. Of those, five have appeared in Mitchell Hall last year in productions of the college Dramatic Club.

Assistant Director for "The Great Big Doorstep", will be Nancy McQuaid of Wilmington, and the Production Manager will be Astrid Delitzsch, also of Wilmington.

"If Wendell Wilkie and Franklin Roosevelt could not bring us to see that we are citizens of One World the Atomic bomb brought us together in the same sheer physical danger," she stated. One of three women who served as consultants to Dean Virginia Gildersleeve at the San Francisco Conference, she gave an interesting account of the small group meetings behind the scenes and the personalities that made up the conference and stressed especially that part that women had in proposing amendments which would further the concern for human rights.

"An imperfect charter is preferable to perfect chaos," she said and asked that all women study the charter offering to secure copies for any who desired them.

URGE OPA CEILING REMOVAL

Committee To Seek Supports Of Legislators

The Delaware Retailers' Council has adopted a resolution urging immediate repeal of all OPA price control.

Thirty members of its board of directors, meeting at the Hotel Richardson in Dover Monday night, passed the resolution asking for lifting of all ceiling prices and also rent ceilings.

A committee consisting of president, Thomas B. Derriekson of Milford, Stanley B. Hearn of Wilmington, H. Warner Gough of Dover, U. L. Harmon of Maryland, George F. Jackson of Newark, and Roland F. Scott of Selbyville will present the resolution in person to Delaware's congressional delegation this week.

They will go to Washington to give copies to U. S. Senators C. Douglass Buck and James M. Tunnell and U. S. Rep. Phillip A. Traynor. Copies will also be forwarded to President Truman, the American Retail Federation, and the Acts of Executive Agencies Which Exceed Their Authority Committee of the House of Representatives, popularly known as the "Smith Committee."

Committee members will be accompanied to Washington by E. A. Scotton of the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce, who is executive vice-president of the Delaware Retailers' Council. The resolution was adopted, according to members, because they believe the OPA is retarding speedy reconversion and is not giving industry and trade the opportunity to provide full employment.

It states that reconversion is slowed because price control policies take away "incentives of manufacturers." Continued control of rents delays improvements to properties that owners would make if they could derive "reasonable profits" from their investments in the properties, it is said.

FIREMEN POINT OUT HAZARDS

Flames Take Annual Toll Of Millions

With many homes starting fires as cooler weather arrives officials of the Aetna Fire, Hook and Ladder Co., in a Fire Prevention Week point out that defective heating plants and chimneys are breeders of fire.

They can be wiped out, they said along with other hazards that are responsible for terrific fire losses in the nation annually. In the last decade six million fires destroyed three billions of dollars in property, the message said, pointing out that in those fires 100,000 lives were lost and almost 200,000 persons critically injured.

Other sources of fires he said are negligence in handling matches, careless smoking habits, sparks falling on inflammable wood roofs and accumulation of rubbish in closets, attics, and basements.

"If even one life can be saved or one home spared the torch of careless fire, it will be ample return for the time spent during the campaign eliminating the usual hazards which set fire to our dwellings."

Newark is fortunate indeed in having so low a fire loss. During the month of September only one call in town was answered by the local department with no ensuing damage reported.

The Aetna Fire, Hook and Ladder Company does a splendid job for a volunteer fire company and residents should cooperate to the fullest extent possible. A few simple precautions may result in saving a life, or considerable property damage and would also tend to keep insurance rates at a low level.

SCHOOL CLOSED

Newark Public Schools will be closed today and tomorrow while the faculty members attend the annual convention of the Delaware State Education Association, being held in Wilmington.

DELAWARE FARM FRONT THIS WEEK

Fall Outlook For Livestock Prices Given

The Department of Agriculture's Livestock and Wool Situation for August-September, says in part: Demand for meat this fall and winter, although reduced by decreases in non-civilian procurement and by a decline in civilian purchasing power, is expected to be sufficiently strong to support prices of most meats and meat animals near present levels. Marketing of both hogs and lambs are expected to be smaller than a year earlier, reflecting a 7 per cent decrease in the 1945 spring pig crop and a 3 per cent decrease in the lamb crop this year. Hog prices probably will continue at ceilings, except for a possible temporary decline when marketings reach a seasonal peak in December or January.

Prices of slaughter lambs, which have declined in recent weeks, probably will advance about seasonally in the winter and early spring. Government payments on slaughter lambs will be increased seasonally, hence feeder lamb price may rise more than seasonally this winter. The supply of grain-fed cattle will be seasonally small in the fall and winter, and prices of such cattle probably will remain near present high levels. But with prospective large marketings of grass cattle and a material reduction in canned beef procurement compared last year, prices of lower-grade cattle are likely to be considerably below a year earlier during this period. The outlook for cattle-feeding operations in the 1945-46 season is clouded by two major uncertainties. Subsidy payments on slaughter cattle, including the 50-cent payment to producers and the payments to slaughterers which range up to $3.00 per 100 lbs., may be withdrawn.

Another uncertain aspect of cattle feeding this season arises from the late plantings and slow early season development of corn, which may result in large proportion of "soft" corn in this year's harvest. This would result in heavy feeding of such corn during the winter to cattle suitable for a short feed, and in early marketings of fed cattle next spring. Soft corn deteriorates rapidly in warm weather, and because of the large proportions of fiber to nutrients it is better adapted to cattle feeding than to hog feeding. Civilian supplies of wool fabrics will increase in the latter part of 1945 and early 1946, because of recent cancellations of Army orders. It will take several months, however, before the increased production of fabrics will be reflected in larger supplies of finished clothing at retail.

C. E. Ocheltree, chairman of the State AAA Committee, announced today that farms and procedures for the payment of the sheep and lamb subsidy payments have been sent to all the county offices. They are now in position to accept applications for payments to those producers who present proper evidence of previous ownership and sale. The rates for the winter season are as follows: All lambs under 60 lbs. and all sheep — $1.00 per cwt. Lambs 65 to 90 lbs. $1.50 per cwt. Nov. 30, $2.00 per cwt. December and January. Over 90 lbs. $2.45 per cwt. until Nov. 30 and $2.85 per cwt. December and January. All rates will advance 50 cents per cwt. on each size.

A new Poultry Record Calendar for Delaware poultrymen has just been published by the Extension Service of the University of Delaware. Copies for old cooperators and new record keepers will soon be available from County Agricultural Agents in New Castle, Kent and Sussex Counties. This is the eighth year that the Record Calendar has been published, as an aid in simplifying keeping of poultry records.

Sweetpotatoes deserve to be featured often on the menu this month because markets have an abundant supply at generally reasonable prices, according to the U. S. Department of Agriculture. Later in the winter, however, these vegetables are expected to be less plentiful and more expensive because of storage costs.

Dix Reception Center Moved To Fort Hancock

The 1262nd Reception Center at Fort Dix, N. J., through which so many Delaware soldiers were inducted into the Army, on Saturday processed its last inductee, the 712,740th man to enter the Army through Fort Dix since the original reception center was first set up on November 1940. The reception center is moving its entire organization to Fort Hancock N. J., and will resume its regular processing of inductees on Monday under the new designation of 1225th Service Command Unit. The area at Fort Dix vacated by the Reception Center will be taken over by the rapidly-expanding Separation Center, which is already ushering out of the Army almost twice as many men daily as the reception center used to take in at its busiest.

Butter Rationing End By Dec. 1 Is Predicted

An increase in butter production and release of 80,000,000 pounds by the Army will combine to take butter off the ration list by Dec. 1, the American Dairy Association predicted today.

Owen M. Richards, association manager, said the Army's release was equal to a month's production and that first carloads of the butter set aside for the Army would move to civilian markets "in a few days."

"This action by the Army was the needed windfall for butter-hungry Americans," he said. "It speeds the end of butter rationing by many weeks and means that all restrictions probably will be lifted by Dec. 1."

Placement Bureau Does Fine Work

The Business Guidance and Placement Bureau of the University of Delaware reports that the women graduates of 1945 were placed in more diversified occupations than is usual. It is interesting that the same number are employed in chemistry laboratories and in the teaching profession. Of the 10 teachers, 7 of them are in Delaware schools, 2 in New Jersey, and 1 in Maryland. The 10 who are in laboratory positions are with the Dupont Company in Wilmington and Buffalo, with the Permutit Company in New Jersey, with the Sun Oil Company of Marcus Hook, Pa., and in research laboratories at the University of Delaware. Another 12 women have secured positions in the field of business as secretaries, economic research workers, personnel assistants, etc.

In various training programs are: 1 with Time, Inc. of New York; 1 Occupational Therapy at the Boston School of Occupational Therapy; 3 in merchandising; 1 library work; 2 in hospital dietetics; 2 in social service. At least three of the graduates of the July 1 class are pursuing graduate studies, 1 in mathematics at Columbia University, another in History at the University of Michigan, while a third has been admitted to the Johns Hopkins School of Nursing in Baltimore.

Of 14 young men who completed their work at the University this past year, three of the chemical engineers are pursuing graduate work, one under the direction of Dr. Colburn at the University of Delaware and two at the University of Wisconsin. All hold fellowships. Five of the graduates are now attending medical, law, and theology schools, and others are working in various industries such as petroleum, paper, airplane, and chemical.

ELECTED HISTORIAN

The Delaware Society, Daughters of Founders and Patriots of America was entertained at luncheon by Mrs. Edward W. Cooch and Mrs. Glenn S. Skinner of Newark, Delaware, at the Glasgow Arms, Glasgow, Del. on Monday, Oct. 8, 1945.

At the business meeting which followed, annual reports of the various members holding official positions were presented. Mrs. J. Pilling Wright of Newark was elected to fill the post of Historian.

The inclusion of heredity members will mean that the daughters and granddaughters of present members may become affiliated with the Society, even though the male line of descent is broken.

Mrs. Harry Clark Boden reported on articles received for the Hidden History Committee, spoke of the original purpose of this Committee being to unearth old customs and faraway things in Delaware, put them in interesting form and eventually, when funds permitted, to have pamphlets printed for school use. Mrs. Boden also complimented the Delaware Chapter on making progress toward heredity membership.

A communication was read from one of the National officers of the Society, complimenting the Delaware group on their gift of a Berman locator for use in the surgical end of the Medical Division of the armed forces, the technical name of such instrument being proboscope.

If there's one thing we dislike more than many others, it's anonymity. By that we mean persons who write or phone in complaining or criticizing one thing or another and refusing to identify themselves.

Invariably it's a case of they want someone or something panned or given the devil through the newspapers without themselves being involved. . . . just another case of us pulling their chestnuts out of the fire. Not often do we give any credulity to their clamorings but, in this instance there is some foundation in fact.

The particular incident, or group of incidents, in reference is a telephone call received Sunday afternoon from some nice-looking lady who said her name didn't matter. In one way it doesn't matter and we don't know or care who she was BUT if she's interested enough to want accusations brought through this newspaper she should be willing to give her name in order to give us some responsibility for an investigation.

This lady was quite incensed over various developments at the Newark-Wilmington High School football game, here Saturday afternoon. First, she charged that the Wilmington team played dirty and was unnecessarily vicious.

We can discount this on the grounds that there is always intense rivalry between Wilmington and Newark teams — largely because Newark is usually THE team to be beaten for state honors and in this fracas both teams were undefeated and a victory meant a potential state championship. Thus, both teams were keyed-up and eager to win. That the Newark boys showed good sportsmanship in losing reflects better home training, better school spirit and better American principles. Not, particularly, a reflection on Wilmington players but rather a distant credit to our own Newark boys. . . . they always play the game — hard but clean.

Secondly, this lady charged that fights broke out among the spectators. This, again, is to be expected at football games although it is never condoned. Very few football games fail to produce conflicts between spectators of opposing sides. These altercations, generally brought on by misinterpretation of officials' decisions, ignorance of rules, loyalty to home-town players, insulting remarks of biased onlookers, inebriation or just plain cussedness are regrettable performances that breed dislike between towns and bring discredit to the home school regardless of where the actual guilt belongs.

Football relations between Newark and New Castle were discontinued several years ago just because the two teams could not meet in any athletic contest without a fight ensuing, among spectators, mostly. It's really a pity that grown-ups can't witness a contest involving physical contact without letting themselves be carried away by their emotions.

Another complaint registered was that the Wilmington cheering section showed poor sportsmanship in laughing at Newark's band. . . . numbering only twenty-four instruments.

This should be credited to ignorance rather than poor sportsmanship. We don't imagine the Wilmington rooters knew that Newark's band has been organized only about three weeks and has held only three rehearsals.

We don't imagine they're cognizant of the fact that Newark has not had a school band for two years. . . . that Band Director Fred B. Kutz has just returned from the U. S. Army and that the local band was disorganized during his absence.

It takes time, and plenty of rehearsing, to produce a band. And, we think that Mr. Kutz and the 24 loyal members of the Newark School Band acquitted themselves nobly in going out on the field and performing so creditably with only three short rehearsals. Giving the other fellow the benefit of doubt, we believe that had the Wilmington rooters known all these facts they would have given the Newark band a tumultuous ovation instead of a slight hand-clapping and scattered laughs.

We're extremely sorry that we did not personally see this game, but we went duck hunting instead (got two). But, from conversations we have had with local players, coaches, school officials and other interested persons, we're inclined to believe that Wilmington had the superior team. As one spectator put it, it was only Newark's fighting spirit and determination that prevented the score from being 35-0 instead of 13-0.

Outweighed and outnumbered by a team from a school with many times the enrollment of Newark, The Yellowjackets waged a hard, clean, stubborn but losing battle. The score, 13-0, is more indicative of a moral victory for Coach Gibbs' eleven than in inglorious defeat.

Of course the referee being named Ware had nothing to do with the outcome of the game. . . . had another Ware we have in mind been officiating, we can assure you that Newark would have won — regardless of who had the best team.

Thanks, madam, for your anonymous phone call. . . . it has provided us with material for an interesting — and we hope educational — column that fills this yawning space nicely.

Incidentally, how about a hand for the writer. . . . isn't this about as fancy a piece of side-stepping as you ever saw on a football field? Moral: If you want anything put in the paper, write it yourself. Then, we can leave it out, discolored it to suit our fancy or just plain print it verbatim and let the chips fall where they may.

YELLOWJACKETS BOW TO WILMINGTON RED DEVILS 13-0, IN FIRST DEFEAT

Newark Eleven Gains Moral Victory By Holding City Rivals Scoreless In Last Two Quarters. Jackets Meet Salesianum Under Lights Friday Night

Stinging from their first defeat of the season at the hands of strong Wilmington High School eleven, Coach Stanley Gibbs' Newark High School Yellowjackets are putting in long and arduous practice sessions this week hoping to avenge their initial 13-0 setback when they meet Salesianum in another night contest, at Wilmington Ball Park at 8:15 tomorrow evening.

That the Sallies will present a tough combination is evidenced by the fact that they are undefeated so far in three games this season. Scoring once in each of the first three quarters, the Sallies trampled over A. I. duPont last week, 18-0, under the Wilmington Ball Park lights.

The Jackets and their mentor are not minimizing the strength of their next opponents. The local lads are working hard this week polishing up their offense, going through blocking and tackling sessions and strengthening their defense.

The Yellowjackets acquitted themselves creditably last Saturday, by holding a vastly superior Wilmington High School eleven to a 13-0 score, that probably failed to indicate the true relative strength of the teams. Outweighed and outnumbered, the Jackets again gave a demonstration of determined defense fighting hard to come from behind in the last two periods without ever being able to reach paydirt.

The Red Devils from Wilmington scored early in the first period, failed to convert, then tallied again in the second stanza making good on the extra point. The Yellowjackets managed to hold their opponents scoreless throughout the remainder of play but were never in scoring position themselves.

Following an exchange of kicks in the first period, Wilmington took over on Newark's 35-yard line. On the next play Larry O'Toole picked up five yards then John Romano got loose around the Yellowjackets' right end and raced 40 yards for the first score. Wray Hushabek's kick for the extra point was blocked.

A bad kick by Tommy Silk paved the way for the Red Devil's second touchdown in the next period. With the ball on their 39-yard stripe the Yellowjackets were forced to kick and Silk's boot went out on their own 42. With Hushabek and Romano carrying the Red Devil's drive to Newark's two from where Hushabek plunged through center for the second tally of the game, then made good his kick for the extra point.

The teams fought hard for the remainder of the game and several penalties in the final period prevented the Red Devils from adding to their total. Don Griffin, Bob Casho and Silk were outstanding in their play for the Yellowjackets, while Romano, O'Toole and Hushabek sparked the Red Devil's attack.

HEN SOCCER TEAM LOSES

Booters Drop Opener, 6-0

Ivan Jones, stellar center forward, paced the Haverford College soccer team to a 6-0 win over the University of Delaware in a well played match at Haverford, Saturday afternoon.

Jones turned in a stellar performance scoring three of his teams goals, while Capt. Bob Clayton, Pete Staefel and Bob Matlock, accounted for the remaining tallies scoring once each to boost the total and hold Delaware scoreless throughout the game.

It was the opening game of the season for the Delaware booters and though they displayed a fine defense with Bill Huxford starting at the goal post they were no match for the Hornets who already have participated in a number of contests.

VETS GET PRIORITY

To Purchase Machinery

Farm machinery dealer must fill orders from veterans of World War II ahead of all other orders for new machinery if the county AAA office gives the veteran a preference certificate, the state AAA committee in Newark has announced.

The veteran must own, rent, or sharecrop a farm and urgently need the machinery to carry out his intended crop program. He must first make a "diligent effort" to locate the machinery himself.

If he is unsuccessful in obtaining, his county AAA will give him a preference which the dealer is obliged to accept even if the equipment is not immediately in stock. The only acceptable reason for a dealer's refusal to honor such a certificate would be the dealer's inability to meet the established price and terms of sale.

The plan has already been used in several cases, it was reported.

Delaware farmer bought 458 wheat crop insurance policies this fall, the AAA reported. The total is 20 percent more than those bought in 1943.

It was announced that the supply of fertilizer for the 1945-46 crop season is expected to be about the same as it was last year.

University Has Largest Educators' Chapter Roll

The following delegates have been selected to attend the meeting of the representative assembly at convention, on Thursday evening, in Wilmington High School: Dean W. Earl Armstrong, president; Prof. John Munroe, vice-president; Prof. R. W. Helm, secretary-treasurer; Prof. Emeritus W. A. Wilkinson; Dr. Quasita Drake; Dr. Edna Frederick; and Miss Emma C. Ehlers.

HENS TO OPEN INFORMAL GRID SCHEDULE AT WEST CHESTER FRIDAY NIGHT

Loss Of Donald Borse, Promising Freshman Fullback Is Partially Offset By Unexpected Return Of Doc Dougherty, Former Hen Back

Eight former service men will be in the starting lineup of the University of Delaware's football team when Bill Murray's "informal" eleven opens the season against West Chester Teachers College on Friday night, the Blue Hens' coach disclosed yesterday.

The contest with the Teachers will be played under the lights at West Chester and the kick-off is scheduled for 8 o'clock.

The former service men Murray plans to start on Friday are Ken Barnes, Bob Campbell, Al Northwood, Sam Julian, Joe Hearn, Phil Neff or Gerald Doherty, Tom Livizes and Angelo Cataldi.

Barnes, who played at Newark High School in 1941, served in the Navy and will pair at the wings with Sam Julian, an Army dischargee, who was on the Delaware squad in 1941. Cataldi, formerly a captain in the Army Air Corps and a member of Delaware's 1942 team, will be at left tackle while Al Northwood, a former Catonsville High and Delaware football star, will be at right tackle.

The three players on the injured lineup who did not see service in the armed forces will be in the center of the Blue Hens' line where Catonsville, former Chester High School player and a brother of Tony Stallard, Delaware line ace, will be at one end while John Rothrock of Newark, who did not play high school football, will be on the other side of the line facing Bill Kingsberg, former P. S. 1, Pont High lineman, who will be the starting center.

Joe Hearn, a Newark High School graduate in 1941 and an Army Air Corps lieutenant since, will be at quarterback. Phil Neff, former Chester High griddle, who is a former Air Corps lieutenant, or Gerald Doherty, a former Marine, will get the call at left halfback, while Tom Livizes, a New York City boy and former sailor, will be at right halfback. Angelo Cataldi, a Newark High School backfielder in 1941, before joining the Army, will be fullback.

Other players likely to see action in the Blue Hens' inaugural are Art Cunningham, Wilmington High; George Irving, New York City; and A. F. S. Lockett, Newark High, and Martin, Wilmington, tackle; Catonsville, Mt. Vernon, N. Y., and Monaca, Wilmington High, guards; Cain, Wilmington; and Fred Hartman, Bellefonte, Del., centers; Scotty Deacon and Jack Tiedemann, Washington, quarterbacks; George and Richard Wolf, brothers from Williamsport, Penn. High, and John O'Toole, Wilmington High, fullbacks.

Although handicapped by the untimely practice sessions due to the untimely return of the injured players, Coach Murray is pleased with the hustle and spirit of his squad and is confident in which it is shaping up to spite these handicaps.

Murray plans to carry a squad of 15 players, three teams, although a number of players, including a couple of the starters, have little if any gridiron experience.

The Blue Hens will put on the fielding touches for the West Chester game today. The Teachers opened their season last Saturday with a 12-0 victory over Haverford College. Delaware meets Haverford later in the season.

Mrs. Charles Cooper is assisting with the project locally. The class will be held each Wednesday evening at the Methodist Church from 7 to 10 o'clock for the next seven weeks.

BUILDING, AIRPLANE TRAVEL BANS OFF

Priorities Are Removed; Construction Boom Seen

All controls came off construction and airplane travel Monday as the nation entered its third month of peace. Lifting of WPB's ban on civilian construction was expected to stimulate business expansion and provide a new source of jobs for the country's rising total of unemployed.

It came as reconversion officials voiced general satisfaction with the progress thus far made while cautioning at the same time that the upsurge of labor strife would delay the back-to-normal process.

The removal of passenger priorities on domestic and foreign air lines knocked out one of the few remaining controls over transportation.

Still on the books are tire rationing, which the rubber industry hopes to see ended by New Year's; curbs on home delivery service, which will be erased Nov. 1, and truck rationing, which ends Dec. 1.

While airplane passengers now may be sure of not getting "bumped" en route, they may have difficulty for a time getting space. Because of the shortage of planes and increased travel due to lower fares, the airlines suggest that reservations be made well in advance.

Revocation of WPB's familiar "Order L41," the construction ban, cleared the way for the building of an estimated 500,000 new houses next year, and for the building of 12,500,000 in the next 10 years — the government's goal. It also removed the barriers for millions of dollars worth of hotel, apartment, store, theatre and office building construction, pent up for three and one-half years.

Truck Hits Signal Box Causing $1,000 Damage

An automatic control signal at the Glasgow Road intersection was demolished by a truck following a collision with an automobile last Thursday. Damage to the signal box was estimated at more than $1,000.

State troopers said the truck was operated by David W. Baxter of Cherryville, N. C., who was attempting to pass an automobile driven by Agner W. Swan of Long Beach, Calif., and making a left turn. Swan was arrested for making an improper turn and Baxter for passing at the intersection.

JAYCEES IN MEETING

Address Given By W. E. Shue

The Newark Junior Chamber of Commerce held its regular dinner meeting at the College Inn on Thursday, October 11.

After the business meeting, presided over by J. M. Garner, Jr., president, William A. Young introduced Wilmer E. Shue, superintendent of the Newark Public Schools, as the speaker of the evening.

Mr. Shue gave a very informative talk in which he summarized the status of public school education in New Castle County. He made and developed the point that the welfare of the nation in the future depends in a large measure on the job that can be done in elementary education in the next ten to fifteen years.

The Jaycees will be host to a dinner dance, at the Country Club, Friday evening, October 19, for the members and their guests. The dinner which was scheduled to precede the dance has been cancelled due to an unavoidable conflict.
