

CLUB TOLD VOLUNTEERS NEEDED FOR SOCIAL WORK

Century Club Women Asked To Serve Del. Welfare Unit

Dr. Henry Welch, executive secretary of the Welfare Council of Delaware, discussed the organization and purpose of the Council before the New Century Club of Newark at its regular meeting on January 24. The Welfare Council, said Dr. Welch, is a co-ordinating and fact-finding body set up to perform common services for member agencies. The Council operates in the fields of family and children's services, physical and mental health, and recreation and character building. It has set up a Volunteer Bureau as a clearing house for agencies needing help and for individuals wishing to volunteer their services. The 35 participating agencies have listed 100 types of jobs in New Castle County alone for which they are seeking volunteer help. Volunteers are needed especially in work with young people, libraries, transportation of children and the sick and disabled, recreation for shut-ins, and in groups to arrange recreational programs for patients and convalescents at Farnhurst and Governor Bacon Health Center.

Club members and others wishing to participate in any form of volunteer work are invited to call Mrs. Richard Snyder, Newark 2-0515, for further information.

Mrs. J. Pearce Cann conducted the business meeting, during which a cordial welcome was extended to the following new members: Mrs. Chester Fitz, Mrs. Barnard Phillips, Mrs. Grover Surratt, Mrs. F. R. Mercer, and Mrs. Robert Sieman.

A feature of the meeting was an exhibit of antiques and works of art loaned by the members and arranged by Mrs. William Ruth and Mrs. Kenneth Steers. Among the items of interest were a jewel case belonging to Mrs. Hans Lebach, antique silver shown by Mrs. Herbert Dorn, Staffordshire ware from the collection of Mrs. Cann and an out-size lock from a German castle door, belonging to Mr. and Mrs. John West.

Mrs. William Wilkinson was tea hostess. She was assisted by Mrs. Perrie Arnold, Mrs. Victor Patterson, Mrs. Paul Pie, Sr., Mrs. Arthur Tomhave, and Mrs. Paul Hodgson.

MONDAY IS DEADLINE ON DIME MARCH

No Figures Available On Canvass

The Newark March of Dimes, which Monday, was highlighted this year by a $163.79 contribution from Newark Public Schools. The money was placed in the school's United Fund account last fall.

A formal acknowledgement for the $163.79 gift was made by Samuel Hoff, general chairman for the drive, who also called on the school for last minute support to the drive before Monday's deadline. Figures are available as yet on results of the door-to-door canvass Saturday by members of Scout Troop 1, according to officials. Anyone in the town collection is urged to contribute to Silas Peterson, Newark Trust Company, treasurer of the drive.

Fire Here at Week

Fire last Friday, both causing damage, were the only calls to the Aetna men this week. The fire for a chimney fire in a tenement on the Blue Hen Farm, Newark, and a grass fire broke out in a field on West Park Place.

O'Daniel Post Is Given National Citation For Work In Americanism

A certificate of distinguished service for carrying out the best, all-round Americanism, community and service program in the Department of Delaware was presented to the J. A. O'Daniel Post, No. 10, American Legion, on Tuesday night. An initiation ceremony for over 25 new members was held at the same time.

I. Newell Duncan, district commander, made the award, which was signed by the national commander.

The Wilmington 40 and 8 Degree Team, under E. A. Mulrooney, officiated at the initiation, which climaxed a month's membership drive by the post. Commander Richard L. Cooch presented the candidates to the visiting team.

The certificate of distinguished service was given in recognition of the wide range of community and service activities carried on by the post. A few of the projects the post supports both with cash contributions and volunteer aid are: the two local boy scout troops, the Junior Legion baseball team, and entertainment programs for hospitalized veterans. The past year, it organized the school safety patrol, sponsored and supported the U. S. Treasury War Bond Drive here, staged a town forum on Universal Military Training, organized a color guard which served at over a dozen military funerals, supported all local fund drives, such as the Red Cross and the Red Feather, with cash donations and volunteer workers.

These are but a few of the activities which earned the post the highest standing in the Department of Delaware.

STATE CUTS $35,000 FROM NHS BUDGET

Request For 1949-50 Funds Is Trimmed

The $256,000 budget request to the state for funds covering 1949-50 term of the Newark Special School District was sliced by $35,000 before it gained approval of authorities at Dover.

This was disclosed last Friday by Supt. Wilmer E. Shue at a meeting of the Newark Board of Education.

Such important items as $12,000 for salaries for additional teachers, funds for completing long delayed repairs to the sidewalk on Haines Street and Lovett Avenue, and painting of the athletic field fence were stricken from the request, he said.

However, local authorities still hope to win approval for some of the funds when they appear for a hearing before the Joint Legislative Finance Committee of the state in the near future.

Mr. Shue also announced that all school accounts are in correct order, according to a report from a state auditor who spent three weeks here last summer going over the school books, including cafeteria, athletic, class accounts, local monies, tuition reports. All balances were verified, and the methods of bookkeeping were carefully scrutinized.

Lions Hear Army Man Dismiss Stay In Korea

Capt. Wallace Baker, assistant director of military science at the University of Delaware, discussed the current military situation in Korea, in a talk at the Newark Lions Club on Tuesday night.

Capt. Wallace, who was stationed in Korea for some time, returning to this country only last September, said the Communist pressure on the non-Soviet controlled area of the country is great.

President Ford McBerty presided at the session, and Jay Steinhauer was program chairman. The club voted a $25 contribution to the March of Dimes.

Children Looking Forward To Drama Group Play

The Mitchell Hall stage at the University of Delaware will become the Fairyland Kingdom of Princess Gloria this week-end when the University Drama Group present "Sleeping Beauty" on Friday evening at 7:30 p. m., and Saturday afternoon at 2:30 p. m.

Hundreds of children from Wilmington, Newark, and neighboring communities are looking forward to actually seeing Princess Gloria, King Henry and his court put to sleep for 100 years under the spell of the Very Wicked Fairy, Fearinda, to come to life again 100 years later when the Fairy Prince Todwin kisses his Fairy Princess, and the Very Good Fairy Dearinda waves her magic wand.

SPEECH OF NHS PUPILS TESTED BY SPECIALISTS

Those With Flaws Given Individual Examinations By 2 State Experts

Every Newark school pupil suspected of having a speech defect was interviewed and tested last week by two state specialists.

The two were Ruth R. Tyndall, state coordinator of special education, and Mary A. Ramedia, speech correctionist. The intensive tests were administered individually to the students in an effort to root out a major stumbling block to success in school. Parents were invited to be on hand, and many took advantage of the opportunity to consult with the speech experts on the specific difficulties of their children.

A formal diagnosis of each child's problem will be made by the analysts and returned to the school, together with recommendations for remedial exercises. These, for the most part, will have to be carried out at home, and officials stressed the importance of parent cooperation in seeing that they are carried out.

Most common speech flaws found were to be stuttering and incorrect sound formation. The latter was caused by a number of things, including lack of knowledge, incorrect breathing, neglected teeth, tonsils or hearing deficiency.

In the tests, each child was given a picture and asked to identify what he saw. In this manner, specific difficulties were isolated and brought to the fore. The pupils were also given mouth exercises and asked to recite key sentences. Later, their mouths were examined for malformation or other physical trouble spots.

Newark Methodist Choir Announces Annual Concert

The Adult Choir of the Newark Methodist Church has begun rehearsals for its annual concert to be held in the social hall of the church on Friday evening, February 25, at 8 o'clock. This is a change from the two previous years when the concert was held in May.

James Crone, director of music, is directing the choir and will be in charge of the program. Mrs. Evelyn Bird Martin, church organist, will accompany the numbers. There will be two guest soloists from the Westminster Choir in Princeton, New Jersey, to sing with the choir and to present several special numbers.

Candidate At White Clay Church, Feb. 6

Dr. George Sidell will be in charge of the services at White Clay Creek Presbyterian Church on Sunday, Dr. Sidell is the supply minister.

The following week, February 6, a candidate for the pastorate, the Rev. Clyde Foote, of Juniata, Penna., will conduct the service. The Rev. Foote was formerly pastor at the Lycoming Presbyterian Church at Williamsport, Pa. The services will be at 11 a. m.

Special Charter Meeting Set; New Plan Studied

An alternate plan to secure needed reforms for Newark's municipal government in case the proposed new charter should fail to be passed at the current session of the General Assembly will be considered at a special meeting of the Town Council on Monday night at 7:30 p. m.

Final revisions to the current charter draft will also be made at that time, and the measure will be whipped into shape for submission to the state legislature.

The secondary plan, designed as a safeguard in the event the new charter should meet with an unforeseen stumbling block during its progress through the legislature, will consist of five amendments to the existing town charter, providing for government reforms here that town officials regard as "musts" if the local government is to continue on an efficient basis.

The five amendments, according to present plans, will be submitted as separate bills on the chance that some will be passed even though the new charter, through some technicality, should fail to get approval.

The five bills will ask for the following:

- 1—Power to bond the town up to $250,000 without a referendum and from

Ground Breaking Ceremony On Monday For New School

State And Local Officials To Speak; Set For 11 A. M.

Simple ground breaking ceremonies with brief talks by local and state school officials will mark the start of construction of Newark's modern 26-room elementary school next Monday at 11 a. m.

The formalities, which will take place on the playground behind the Delaware Avenue building, will open with an invocation by Dr. Arthur J. Jackson, pastor of the Methodist Church. The principal talk will be by Joseph McVey, president of the local school board, who will outline the history of building project. Next, Dr. George R. Miller, Jr., state superintendent of public instruction, will make a few remarks.

The actual ground breaking will be done by Mr. McVey, assisted by Bobby George, president of the elementary school student council, and Jim Ford, representing the high school student council. The singing of "America" will follow, after which the program will conclude with benediction by the Rev. H. E. Hallman, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church.

Full scale construction is expected to get underway soon, according to Supt. Wilmer E. Shue, who added that the first shipments of materials have already arrived here. The work will be carried out by the Rupert Construction Company of Wilmington.

Meanwhile, the problem of financing the building program is still not completely solved. Although most of the funds have been secured through the bond issue, local reserves and state appropriations, over $100,000 is still needed to cover several large items. Officials are preparing a formal request to the state for this amount. Included will be such items as $14,000 to round out the deficient funds for the new school, $20,900 for new boilers in the main high school building, $5,500 for grading and sodding, and $70,000 for extension of gymnasium facilities in the high school.

Detailed plans for the new elementary school were disclosed some time ago by E. William Martin, architect. The building, which will be a low, two-story structure in modern style, will include such new features here as self-contained classrooms, provisions for kindergartens, and an octagonal, indoor playground.

Wood will be used as little as possible in the construction to simplify maintenance. Metal window sashes will be installed and glass blocks used throughout. The rooms will be so designed as to permit an even distribution of sunlight. Glazed tile and brick will be used in the interior corridors.

Plans For Fluorine Treatment Mark Time; Jaycees Hear Facts On Project

The proposal for treating the local water supply with Sodium Fluoride in an effort to prevent tooth decay in young children marked time this week while arrangements were being made to have an outside expert come here to outline facts on the project at a coming meeting of the Newark Parent-Teacher Association.

Letter From German Housewife Seeks Data On Relatives Here

A letter from a German housewife, seeking information on relatives supposedly living in Newark, arrived here last week. The missive is addressed to Mrs. Karoline Mueller and Miss Minna Schuetze, care of the "Owner of the Horse-Race Course."

Post office officials were unable to find anyone by either of these names on their rolls and turned the letter over to town authorities. The only locally owned race track is that of Sam Dameron who claims he knows neither of the women in question.

The letter is from Ingeburg Klein, nee Kretschmann, wife of a watchmaker, Friedrich Klein. Her mother is Dora Kretschmann nee Schuetze. She is seeking information on Mrs. Mueller and Miss Schuetze, who, she says, are her great aunt and aunt respectively. She also wants to know what the possibilities are here for a good watchmaker with a complete workshop.

JOINT SLATE IS INSTALLED

Lenine George was installed as Chancellor Commander of Osceola Lodge No. 5 and Nora Schaan as Past Chief of Friendship Temple No. 6 in a joint installation by the Knights of Pythias here on Monday night.

Grand Chancellor David O. Hanes, resident of Elkton and member of the Osceola Lodge, officiated. Lodge officials from throughout the state were present.

Others were formally inducted into office as follows: Osceola Lodge—Grant Ritchie, vice-chancellor; Herman Gray, prelate; Allen Smith, secretary; F. M. Durnall, assistant secretary; Roy Reed, treasurer; James Mulen, master of work; Herbert Wood, master of arms; Arthur Martin, inner guard; Oliver Leverage, outer guard.

Friendship Temple—Mildred Sharp, most excellent chief; Elizabeth Wood, excellent senior; Olive Walther, excellent junior; Sarah Kelley, manager; Mabel Hill, secretary; Marian Durnall, treasurer; Sadie Moore, protector; Fay Crouse, guard.

15 Bikes Equipped With Safety Tape

About 15 bike owners turned up Saturday to have their wheels equipped with reflecting safety tape by members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The free offer was made to all who applied at the Jaycee room in the old Academy Building.

P-T. A. president, Lt. Col. Layton Zimmer said that he hopes to bring a representative here from Newburg, N. Y., where the process has been used with much success. Local dentists, Dr. P. K. Musselman and Dr. Clyde Cox, are cooperating. If the public here reacts favorably to the plan, the Town Council may vote funds to put it in operation.

Some more facts on the success of Fluorine were given Monday night by Dr. Louis des Smith, of the Bi-chemical Research Foundation here, in an highly informative talk at a meeting of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Dr. Smith said that one part per million of sodium fluoride in drinking water has been shown to cause a marked decrease in the prevalence of tooth decay in children. This amount can be used safely without causing tooth mottling or other adverse effects. He also said the chemical seems to exert a greater effect on certain parts of the teeth than on others. Front teeth, for example, are better protected than rear molars, he said.

42 On NHS Faculty Vote To Serve As Census Takers

Forty-two members of the faculty at the Newark schools have agreed to act as census takers in this district for the 1950 U. S. decennial census.

Their decision was made at a recent faculty meeting, when the government's plan for securing teachers throughout the nation to conduct the official population count was outlined. Announcement of the appointment of Miss Dorothy West to the New London Avenue School staff was also made. Miss West was introduced to the teachers by Supt. Wilmer E. Shue.

H. L. Miller, science instructor, was named to represent the teachers on the executive board of the Newark Parent-Teacher Association.

P-T. A. HEARS REPORTS ON EDUCATIONAL LEGISLATION

Local Unit Called Second Largest In Del.; Workshop Talks Held Thurs.

The Newark Parent-Teacher Association, with its membership of 1018, is now the second largest and one of the most active in the state. This was pointed out last Thursday at the January meeting of the group, which was highlighted by workshop talks between parents and faculty members on mutual problems.

Henry Wolf made the statement regarding the size and potential influence of the local P-T. A. in a talk summarizing some of the legislation relating to education being prepared for submission to the General Assembly. These proposed bills were considered at a recent meeting of the Delaware State Congress of Parents and Teachers, which Mr. Wolf attended along with Lt. Col. Zimmer, president of the Newark P-T. A. and C. M. Olsen.

Anyone interested in joining a Newark committee to study bills relating to education in Delaware is asked to notify Col. Zimmer. Such a committee would be useful in formulating recommendations for the local P-T. A.

Plans were also announced for holding another Career Conference at the school. The date will be April 21. This will be the second such event. The first which offered pupils first-hand advice from specialists in a number of job fields, was held here last spring and proved highly successful.

The P-T. A. is also considering plans for a fund raising entertainment in the auditorium, with tickets to be sold by school pupils. Details will be announced later.

About 750 persons turned out for the workshop, which proved an effective means for direct cooperation between parents and teachers. The talks were divided into four groups with the following discussion leaders: Samuel Handloff, primary group; Leighton Jackson, intermediate; G. C. Dildine, junior high; H. H. Wolf, senior high. Attendance prize was won by Mrs. Elizabeth Koellig's fifth grade, which reported 80 per cent of its parents present.

Refreshments were served in the cafeteria by a committee of fifth grade parents under Mrs. George Arthur.

PROMINENT GUESTS FOR FARM WEEK

Gov. Carvel To Speak; Two-Day Program Listed

Farmers' Week visitors at the University of Delaware will have the opportunity to hear outstanding speakers in the agricultural field, reveals J. E. H. Lafferty, chairman of the Farmers' Week program committee.

The annual event for farm people is scheduled for February 8-11, at Wolf Hall on the University of Delaware Campus. In addition to morning meetings for commodity groups and home-makers, each afternoon will be devoted to a general session in Wolf Hall auditorium, with a line-up of special speakers and musical entertainment.

Plans music and group singing will open the afternoon program on Tuesday, Feb. 8. Guest speaker will be R. P. Korobko, extension landscape specialist at Rutgers University, New Brunswick, N. J. Using a device called a "dandelionograph" Mr. Korobko will demonstrate ways to frame a home with trees and shrubs. With the dandelionograph he can construct a landscaped plan in a matter of seconds. On the same program, winners of Delaware's 1948 Ten-Ton-Tomato Contest will receive awards and speak of the practices they used to obtain high yields.

Wednesday's afternoon program will begin with songs by the University of Delaware Choral Group. The speaker, C. B. Denman, will discuss "Factors in Expanding Markets for Agricultural Products." Mr. Denman is agricultural counsel for the National Association of Food Chains. Another feature this afternoon will be presentation of awards in the 1948 Delaware Food Preservation Contest.

Thespians Society Meets

Last week the Thespians Society elected officers and discussed future plans. The officers of this new organization are: Nancy Smith, president; Nancy Conte, vice-president; Virginia Wells, secretary, and Jane Pickett, treasurer. Mr. Shue, Mr. Kutz, and Mr. Kelechava were made honorary members, while Miss Stauter was made sponsor of the group. Each member received his membership card. They also discussed ideas for National Dramatic Week and initiation exercises.

"Wonder Hat" will be the first Thespian play to be given in Newark. "Wonder Hat," which is a one act farce, will be given in Newark. The cast includes Arthur Mayer as Pierrot, Dee Clark as Punchinello, Jane Pickett as Columbine, and Nancy Conte as Margot. Miss Stauter said that she plans to enter this play in the Delaware Play Festival in which Newark placed second last year.

Sixth Grade Visits Elk Mills

Mrs. Estelle Miller's six grade, room 6-102, has been making a study of early inventions which make man's life easier. Machines which have taken over the work of men both in and out of the homes have led to the factory system in our country.

Since the study centered around textile mills, the students expressed a desire to see the power looms in action. At Elks Mills, the group went through the Baldwin Manufacturing Company plant. This company manufactures upholstery materials. Before the trip, the students had gathered much information about its history, raw materials, power, etc., in order to gain more from the visit itself.

4 BEAUTIFUL NEW CARS

COMMON SENSE PLUS IMAGINATION AT

CHRYSLER CORPORATION AGAIN SET THE TREND IN NEW CAR DESIGN!

You will be hearing more and more about our great new cars! Our beautiful new Plymouth, Dodge, De Soto, and Chrysler cars!

We're mighty proud of them . . .

In them you'll see exciting engineering imagination in design . . . and lots of good common sense!

They're all automobile—built to our philosophy of working beauty. Every lean, clean line reflects something fundamental to good, advanced engineering and research.

They're designed to be fleet, and quick, and sturdy. And they look it. For true beauty, as we see it at Chrysler Corporation, comes from a car's character and ability . . . not from its ornament.

They're designed so you can stop better, see better, steer better—and they look it.

They're smoother riding cars. Easier to handle. Easier to get in and out of. More convenient. More luxurious. More comfortable throughout. And they look it!

For 25 years we've earned the reputation for bringing you the good things first—the advances that call for imagination in research and engineering and common sense. Hydraulic four-wheel brakes . . . all-steel car bodies . . . the high compression engine . . . floating power . . . Superfinish . . . safety rim wheels . . . Fluid Drive . . . and Super-Cushion tires! It's a record that gives you a good idea of what to expect when we say our four beautiful new cars are the finest we ever built.

By next week, our assembly lines will begin to fill up preparatory to quantity production.

In safety, comfort, convenience, and performance they carry forward the trend we've been pioneering for 25 years. They're wonderful well-bred cars to live with . . . and they look it.

Geologist To Lecture

"The Former Glaciers of North America" will be the subject of William H. Hobbs, one of the world's outstanding geologists, in a public lecture at the University of Delaware on the night of Monday, Feb. 14.

Basing his description of past glacial formations on those now existing, Mr. Hobbs will illustrate his talk with 41 slides. His lecture will be held at 8:15 p. m. in the auditorium of the Chemistry Building on the Newark campus, as one of the series of research lectures inaugurated two years ago by the Committee on Research.

McBerty Attends Meet Of Delaware Mayors

Mayor Ford H. McBerty was among some 12 municipal chief executives who attended a meeting of the legislative committee of the Delaware Mayors' Association last week at Dover.

Most of the towns represented at the session have proposed legislation either prepared to be introduced in the current session of the state legislature or in preliminary stages of preparation. Many of these bills will be charter changes, as some towns are operating under charters which have not been revised in 25 years.

While progress in the past 9 years has taken on a jet propelled momentum, the towns have had to operate under the same conditions which existed prior to this progressive movement.

The Mayors and Councils are today striving to revise their charters in such manner as to make the non-paying departments of their towns self supporting or more nearly so.

Ott's Chapel Plans Food Contributions

A plan to help less fortunate families was discussed at a youth meeting at Ott's Chapel last week. President Arne Thuresson presided.

will play at the beginning of the Thursday afternoon session. Dr. William S. Carlson, president of the university of Delaware, will speak on "Your University and the State's Agriculture." Governor Elbert N. Carvel will then outline "Delaware's Agricultural Program," followed by an address by W. H. Martin, dean and director of the College of Agriculture, Rutgers University. Dean Martin will speak on "National Agricultural Policy and Programs." Also appearing on this program will be Boyd Cook, Delaware 4-H Club member, who will tell of the contributions this youth group makes to agriculture.

On Friday, Feb. 11, Paul D. Sanders, editor of The Southern Planter, master of the Virginia State Grange and president of the American Agricultural Editors Association will be the main speaker, with the topic, "Agriculture Faces the Future." On the same program, the University of Delaware Band will again furnish music.

Dr. Pilldown says—

I've diagnosed this case carefully. In my files are records of people who have worn themselves to a frazzle over stop and go driving. I have case histories of motorists who have jangled nerves from waiting for lights to change. There are sad stories of citizens who have gone quietly mad while going round and round trying to find parking places. For all these harassed souls, I have a standard prescription: RX—which in this case means RELAX!

AAUW HEARS BOOKBINDER DISCUSS ART

There can never again be a period of art production like the Renaissance, according to Jack Bookbinder, Philadelphia painter, lecturer, and writer, on subjects in the field of art.

Mr. Bookbinder, speaking before the Newark Branch of the American Association of University Women on Monday, January 24, emphasized that any work of art is the result of an accidental juxtaposition of three factors: the period, the place, and the individuality of the artist. No one of the masters, said Mr. Bookbinder, could have produced the works with which the world is familiar had he happened to be born into some other era or some other culture than his own.

In countries where there is almost universal literacy we no longer depend exclusively on pictures to tell a story; while the new art of photography fills all our needs for recording purposes. Formal art has become a luxury and a recreation rather than the everyday necessity that it was during the Renaissance.

Mr. Bookbinder illustrated his talk with colored slides illustrating various stages in the development of what we think of as modern painting. The business meeting was conducted by Mrs. Francis Squire, president of the Newark Branch. Mrs. Marcus Olson reported on the New York Herald Tribune Conference which was attended by several members of the Newark Branch. Mrs. R. O. Bauman was appointed chairman of the nominating committee, to be assisted by Miss Amy Rextrew and Mrs. Jerome C. Weinberg.

The Newark Branch will meet again on February 21.

The following study group meetings have been announced:

The music group will meet on Wednesday, Feb. 2, at 8 p. m., at the home of Mrs. Leighton Jackson, 221 East Park Place. Mrs. Jackson will discuss Borodin's Dances from "Prince Igor."

The international relations group announces an open meeting on Wednesday, Feb. 2, at 8 p. m., at the home of Mrs. H. C. Gullledge, 205 Haines Street. Mrs. Kenneth E. Clarke of Middletown, will speak on the purposes of United World Federalists. Mrs. Clarke, a graduate of Wellesley, has had 2 years' service in the Wilmington office of United World Federalists. Members are invited to bring guests.

William H. Harrington Is Buried At West Nottingham

William H. Harrington, for 38 years a night watchman at the University of Delaware, died suddenly on January 14, while feeding stock on his farm on Barkdale Road. Mr. Harrington, who was seventy-seven, is believed to have been stricken with a heart attack.

The funeral took place last Tuesday with the Rev. Arthur J. Jackson, pastor of the Newark Methodist Church, officiating. Interment was in West Nottingham Cemetery, Cecil County, Md.

Surviving Mr. Harrington are two sons, Robert C. Harrington of Newark, and Jesse Harrington at the home; a daughter, Miss Helen Harrington at the home; two sisters, Miss Viola Harrington, Rising Sun, Md., and Mrs. Samuel Janney, Bay View, Md.; a brother, Walter Harrington, of Claymont, and three grandchildren, Olita, Elda May, and William W. Harrington. Mr. Harrington was a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows.

MARCH OF DIMES

The yearly, gallant MARCH OF DIMES, that symbol of more healthy times, needs no press agent to explain why we should back this year's campaign. If dimes pour in from you and you, and do the job they're meant to do, it won't be long before we'll know enough to wipe out polio.

No press agent is needed to sell quality. That's why there is such a great demand for FRIGIDAIRE products. With the Frigidaire electric range it is simple and easy to cook better meals every time. It's a lot easier to keep your kitchen sparkling when you cook electrically for there is no soot, no smoke. There is a Frigidaire range to suit the needs of your family at the

CONCERT BY LOCAL CIVIC GROUP, FEB. 2

The Newark Civic Orchestra under the direction of J. R. King of the University Music Department will present its first concert of the current season on Wednesday at 8:15 p. m. in Mitchell Hall.

The program will feature the following works: Concerto Grosso Opus 6, Number 8 for string orchestra, by Arcangelo Corelli, Prelude to the opera "Irmelin," by Frederick Delius, Prelude to the opera "Hansel and Gretel," by Humperdinck, and Symphony in B Minor, "Unfinished," by Franz Schubert.

The purpose is to bring to Newark listeners some of the more popular classics as well as to initiate a few new works. This concert will introduce the composer Frederick Delius, who was born in Europe but received most of his musical training in this country while managing an orange plantation in Florida in the early years of this century.

There will be no admission charge to this concert. Everyone is cordially invited.

Why not make a date for some fun next washday, and leave that tiresome, time-consuming job to us! It's less expensive than you think and we're careful to save wear and tear on your linen and clothes. Phone now.

Frank Scott Greets General On Visit Here

Major General Charles L. Mullins, deputy commanding general, Second Army, visited the University of Delaware on Tuesday, to confer with Dr. William S. Carlson, president, and Col. L. Pendleton, professor of military science.

While here he inspected the ROTC facilities and met the assigned personnel.

Frank Scott, of Newark, who was Gen. Mullins' aide-de-camp in Japan during and after World War II, was on hand to greet the general. Sergeant Chase, sergeant major of the ROTC unit, who served under the General in the 25 Division in the Philippines, also was met warmly and greeted by his old commander.

Gen. Mullins came here after visiting ORC and National Guard installations in Wilmington. His headquarters are at Fort G. G. Meade.
