GOVERNMENT CALLS FOR MEN

Workers Needed In Civic Positions

Washington, D. C. April 24, 1918.—How many of us realize what would become of our forces in France if the organization at home for producing the material of war should fail? Charging armies and thundering battlefields are easy to visualize, but not so easy to accomplish. There can be no going "over the top," no paralyzing broadsides, unless, to sustain the blow, there is material in abundance to back up the human effort.

Right now the civilian branches of the Army and Navy are in urgent need of thousands of highly trained workers, and before this year passes these branches must be increased by at least 20,000. The Ordnance Department of the Army needs great numbers of men who are trained as mechanical engineers, mechanical and other kinds of draftsmen, chemists, metallurgists, and the like. Literally thousands of inspectors are also wanted for the work of ordnance, ammunition, and other munitions. For office work the Ordnance Department wants a great many statisticians, accountants, experts and assistants in business administration, and clerks trained in special lines, such as clerks qualified in business administration, index and catalogue clerks, and clerks qualified in statistics or accounting. The Quartermaster Corps of the Army is in need of several thousand examiners and inspectors of everything that enters into the personal and camp equipment of the soldier. Passenger and freight rate clerks are also wanted in this branch. The Signal Corps of the Army is short of aeronautical mechanical draftsmen. The Navy has an unlimited number of places for draftsmen of various kinds and for a long list of technical workers. Practically all branches of the service are in need of stenographers, typists, bookkeepers, statistical clerks, multigraph operators, and calculating machine operators.

The United States Civil Service Commission, whose duty it is to fill these civilian positions, urges, as a patriotic duty, that qualified persons offer their services for this work, work vital to pushing the war. Good salaries are offered, and the work is all in the United States. With the exception of a few of the clerical positions, applicants will not be assembled for written examinations, but will be rated upon their education, training, and experience, as shown in their applications, supplemented by corroborative evidence. Representatives of the Civil Service Commission at the post offices in all cities are prepared to furnish definite information and application blanks.

Ritter factory today acknowledged the passing of troop trains by blowing the whistle of the plant, the trainmen returning the salute. Other manufacturing plants in town made an effort to join in the demonstration, but owing to the distance from the station, experienced some difficulty in carrying out the idea.

SCHOOL ELECTION NEXT SATURDAY

Considerable Interest In Coming Contest

Notices are posted for the Annual Meeting of taxpayers, districts Nos. 39, 39½, 41, 41½, to be held at the High School building Saturday afternoon, April 27th, for the election of one member of the Board of Education. O. K. Strahorn the retiring member and G. L. Townsend, Jr., are the candidates. Only within the last day or two has it become known that there is a contest on hand. Although no formal statement has been issued by either candidate, it is understood the question at issue is whether or not the school shall be operated according to the policy of the last three or four years, or shall be conducted according to more progressive standards. Principal Koehler's statement of two months ago revealed the fact, that owing to the feeling on the part of the Board that the expenses of the school must be kept within the present income, many essentials have been neglected.

Following the disclosures of Principal Koehler's report at a public meeting, a bill was drawn presented and passed by the Special Legislature, which enables the Board to increase the tax rate of the district. It was announced several weeks ago that no action would be taken upon the matter until following the spring election.

It is understood several members of the Board are canvassing for their favorite candidate.

Annual Red Cross Meeting

The annual meeting of the Newark Chapter Red Cross will be held at the headquarters in the Elliot building on Main Street, on Thursday at four o'clock. Reports of work for the year will be read, and business transacted. A full attendance is requested.

LIBERTY DAY APRIL TWENTY-SIXTH

PROCLAMATION FROM PRESIDENT WILSON

An enemy who has grossly abused the power of organized government and who seeks to dominate the world by might of the sword challenges the rights of America and the liberty and life of all the free nations of the earth. Our brave sons are facing the fire of battle in defence of the honor and rights of America and the liberty of nations. To sustain them and to assist our gallant associates in the war a generous and patriotic people have been called upon to subscribe to the third Liberty Loan.

Now, therefore, I, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States of America, do appoint Friday, the 26th day of April, 1918, as Liberty Day. On the afternoon of that day I request the people of the United States to assemble in their respective communities and liberally pledge anew their financial support to sustain the nation's cause. Patriotic demonstrations should be held in every city, town, and hamlet throughout the land under the general direction of the Secretary of the Treasury and the immediate direction of the Liberty Loan committees organized by the Federal Reserve banks. Let the nation's response to the third Liberty Loan express in unmistakable terms the determination of America to fight for peace, the permanent peace of justice.

For the purpose of participating in the Liberty Day celebration all employees of the Federal government throughout the country whose services can be spared may be excused at 12 o'clock noon, Friday, the 26th of April.

In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

By the President,

WOODROW WILSON.

ROBERT LANSING, Secretary of State.

That the Southern crop will add to the surplus?
That farmers were asked last summer to plant and they did?
That the surplus is waiting customers?
That potatoes will take the place of wheat?
That unless our wheat goes to the armies abroad the boys in the fighting line must try to win the war on empty stomachs?

Europe does not need to share our potatoes. They are too bulky to ship at this time when ships must be saved for troops and for the most essential and concentrated foods. Therefore the best form of patriotism is to eat our bumper crop and make it help save wheat.

EAT POTATOES AND SAVE WHEAT

Urged As A Patriotic Duty

30,000,000 bushels of potatoes, by estimate of the Department of Agriculture, will be wasted unless the potato crop now held by farmers is moved immediately. A waste of any portion of this crop will not only mean a decreased acreage in the coming season but will also have a bad physiological effect upon the country as a whole. This waste will begin with the warm weather, when potatoes start to sprout. If this 30,000,000 bushels of potatoes can be consumed before the first of June, it will mean a direct saving of wheat and other foods which we desire to save for export.

Last year the farmers were patriotically urged to plant potatoes. Accordingly there was an abundance of potatoes produced, which have not been sold.

At a time when the world is so in need of food, it would be criminal to waste anything so important as the potato. It became the duty of Americans to eat up their potatoes.

Will You HELP Bring Back The Boys of This Community?

Our boys, the boys from this town and this county and this state, are fighting the Huns. They are in the trenches in France, they are sailing the U-boat-infested seas, they are going "over the top" in the face of German cannon and machine gun fire.

Many, many more of our boys are now training and will soon be in France, and more are yet to be called.

And, remember, these are our boys; those who are near and dear to us. They are doing their ALL. They are giving their ALL. They are prepared to make the extreme sacrifice that our homes, our town, our nation, may escape the ravages of the Hun.

We want them—one and all—to come back to us—

Will You Help to Bring Them Back?

Will you help to provide them with the things they need, with clothes and food and munitions, that they may complete as quickly as possible the terrible task assigned to them?

Will you support our boys while they are fighting for us, fighting the German autocracy that seeks to destroy our ideals of liberty and justice?

Compared to their heroic sacrifice our part is but small—that of providing the funds to keep them equipped; to build and man the ships that will transport their food, their clothes, their guns and their ammunition, and to pay for these things.

Yes, we, the people of this community, will support our boys.

We will do it by buying bonds of the Third Liberty Loan; by buying all these bonds we can; by making such sacrifices as are necessary to do this. That will be our support for Our Boys.

Mr. Raine, of the Maryland Press Association discussed the problems of the rural press in war time.

"When I address a meeting of this kind," he said, "I almost feel as though I were about to preside at a funeral, for conditions are such as to threaten the very existence of the weekly paper. Twelve hundred papers have surrendered to these conditions in the last year, and failed, four of this number in my own State of Maryland."

"What would our government think if it learned that twelve hundred of its policemen had been murdered? Yet that is what has literally happened, for the country editors stand, at every cross road hamlet in the land to safeguard the interests of law and order, the rights of the people, throughout our democracy. It would be impossible to keep a representative government going without our local papers—the papers that discuss homely topics as neighbor to neighbor, and friend to friend."

Mr. Raine referred to the advancing postage rates, which apply to the weekly paper, and the curtailment of publicity work during a period of the war as harmful policies. He urged constructive criticism as the only means of correction.

A tour of the new College buildings, the Women's College and also the printshop at Kells followed. At the Farm Dean Hayward exhibited 35 head of pure bred cattle and other choice livestock, and explained the plan of cultivation for the year. The fruit trees, in full bloom, were greatly admired by the visitors.

The party, upon their return to the campus witnessed the baseball game between the U. S. Naval Reserves, and Delaware, which was won by the former by a score of 8 to 5.

The courtesies of the Playhouse were extended to members of the Association by Manager Alleman on Saturday evening.

COUNCIL OF DEFENSE ORGANIZES

ready done much work in that line in the way of correspondence, etc.

Mr. Johnson was called in and the matter presented to him, but he declined to accept the position. Thinking that perhaps Secretary Johnson might entertain the thought that he could not hold the two positions, it was pointed out that the office of secretary of the Council need not in any way interfere with his work for the State, and again Mr. Johnson was tendered the position, but again declined.

It was then decided to appoint Mr. Johnson as director-general in practically the same capacity as Secretary McAdoo is serving. This position Mr. Johnson accepted.

Governor Townsend was authorized to arrange for permanent headquarters in the State House and employ necessary general clerical help.

A communication was received from Charles Warner, chairman of the committee of seven, including the Public Service Reserve, State Board of Agriculture, State Board of Education, county agents, representing plans of the worker of that committee and a budget to defray their expenses.

M. O. Pence, in general charge of the agricultural extension in the State, in the absence of Mr. Warner, gave an outline of labor conditions in agricultural districts and what the committee proposed to do to remedy this. The matter was left with the Governor and Director-General to discuss at a later meeting.

Mrs. Charles R. Miller presented a report of the work done in the Women's Council of Defense during the past year and also presented a budget for this year's work.

The first active work of the Defense Council will be to take a census of the man power and other resources of the State.

At the next meeting of the Council the work will be outlined and committees appointed to assume charge of it. A Department of Education will have charge of the organizing of community councils in every town and village of the State. It will likely be composed of three men and two women.

It is probable that at an early date, at the request of the Government, a round-table discussion will be held by the Council with the several Federal administrators, including Food, Fuel, College, Agricultural Extension, Public Service Reserve, Boys' Working Reserve, Explosives, Liberty Loan and Red Cross.

The meetings of the Council will be called on two days' notice as it was thought this to be sufficient time to notify each member.

Entertainment Nets

Ninety-one Dollars

Ninety-one dollars was realized for the benefit of the School-Garden Class, from the entertainment given in Wolf Hall last Saturday evening, under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher Association. The program, which was one of the most pleasing of the season, included instrumental solo, by Miss Elizabeth McNeal; a duet, Home to Our Mountain, by Mrs. Armstrong and Mrs. Cann; solo, The Call of the Deep, Dean H. Hayward; readings, by Miss Raby; solo, Sweet Genevieve, with quartette accompaniment, by Mr. Koehler, Mrs. Armstrong, Mrs. Cann, Mr. Ruhl, and Mr. Steele; and the farce, "No Cure, No Pay," given under the direction of Mrs. Penny.

A group of school children, who sang a gardening song, won generous applause. As an encore they rendered the stirring war song, "Over There." Indeed to the children themselves is due, in large measure, the success of the evening, they having sold, unassisted, $71 worth of tickets.

Following the performance the cast and entertainers were invited to Coverdales' where luncheon was served.

Buy One of these Butter Makers and Save Help

Stop in and see the demonstration in charge of Mrs. M. Delacroix. As you know, the American people eat 150 percent more fat than they need.

This fact is announced by the United States Food Administration.

Commercial butter must contain 82½ percent fat. Milk charged butter reduces this amount to less than 50 percent—and still we get all the fat we require. The use of milk-charged butter is right in line with the urgent request of the United States Food Administration—The conservation of fats.

Milk-charged butter is a wholesome table product composed only of butter and sweet milk. It costs a little more than half as much as commercial butter, goes just as far and tastes better.

With the Lightning Butter Machine you can make it at home in a few minutes' time. It will cut your butter bill in half and "help win the war."

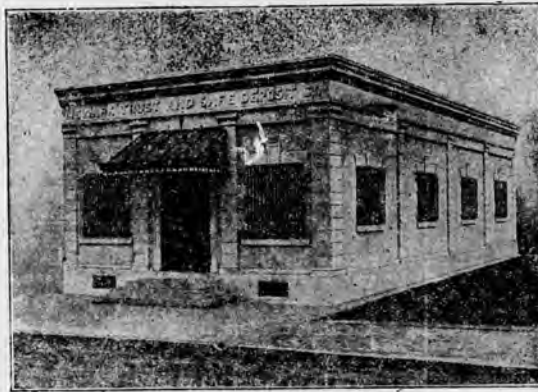

A demonstrator from the factory will make milk-charged butter right before your eyes and give you a sample to test. Come and see her do it.

Spring will Smile Brightest Upon Homes that are Prepared

Very soon will come the warm days of spring and summer and you should prepare your home now for these out of door days.

More and more are we realizing that our homes as well as ourselves need new Summery Rugs - one of those cool looking grey enameled living room or porch sets--a new set of dainty net curtains for that window--all help to make enjoyable spring and summer weather.

There are many many suggestions here for summer furnishings and a stroll through the big store may solve that problem of that perplexing room.

PORCH FURNITURE

will make yours an enjoyable porch this summer

Here are some of the newest and prettiest Porch Sets. They come with settees, chairs, rockers and tables to match, in grey and blue enamel. Not only are they suitable for porch but for the indoor living room as well. And they are priced very moderately, $43.00, $53.00 and $60.00 per set.

Rustic cedar furniture can be had in complete sets or odd pieces. Made of sturdy bark covered cedar with finished curved seats, rodded and bolted, they defy the ravages of storm and weather. And you can get swings, fernery and plant stands to match. Priced as follows: Chairs and Rockers, from $6.00 to $10.00. Tables, $7.50 up.

We have complete lines of the sturdy reed seat Porch Furniture. This is scarce now and hard to get, but we anticipated and have a complete line of patterns to choose from. Frames are of clean maple in light or green finish, with double woven reed seats--some with reed and some with slat backs--good, reliable chairs, moderately priced with the maximum of comfort. Chairs and Rockers, $3.50 to $5.00. Settees, $8 and $8.75.

Don't delay that Awning order any longer

It will be difficult to obtain awnings later, not only because of the shortage of material but of experienced awning makers. Your order placed now means you'll have yours to enjoy when the sun gets warm and a delay now will mean weeks of waiting later. We use only John Boyle's stripes, and the best of heavily galvanized hardware. All awnings are made to order and of the best workmanship. Shall we send our man to measure and estimate without obligation?

Vidor Screens are here in widths from five to 12 feet, in green or brown, and are complete ready to hang. Priced from $3.75 to $10.00.

Give your baby plenty of spring air

Here are numerous patterns of Bloch Pullmans in natural, grey, brown and white. They are all fitted with cushions and lined hoods, heavy tires and footwell. They can be had in either reversible or regular gears, and are priced from $23.00 to $45.00.

There are plenty of the little strollers, light weight and easily wheeled, and some fitted with reclining backs. Priced from $6.00 to $35.00.

Kiddie Koops enable you to leave the baby safely on your porch to enjoy the air and sunshine, protected from flies and insects. Complete with mattress, $18.00.

EDDY REFRIGERATORS

are not only a necessity but an economy

We do not believe that any other refrigerator can equal it in food keeping and ice saving qualities.

They are made of white pine, guaranteed not to warp, shrink or crack, and come in either metal or porcelain linings. They sit high from the floor, making the emptying of the drip pan easy. Have heavy brass hardware and slate stone shelves. Your neighbor probably has an Eddy—they have been made for over 70 years—ask her what she thinks of it.

There are 24 styles of refrigerators and 15 sizes of ice chests to select from. Refrigerators, metal lined, from $27.00 to $170.00. Porcelain lined, from $53.00 to $123.00. Ice Chests, metal lined, from $9.50 to $42.00.

We are also exclusive agents for McKee Refrigerators, used exclusively by the government. These are made of oak and lined with seamless, one-piece porcelain. They come in 15 styles and are priced from $31.00 to $96.00.

Cool looking Rugs make cool looking rooms

We have ready all the wanted sizes.

Crex Rugs come in all sizes from 18x36 inches to 12x15 feet and are priced from $5c to $18.75. 8x10 feet marked $7.75 to $12.00. 9x12 feet, $9.75 to $14.50. Porch size, 4.6x7.6, $4.50 to $6.75. 6x9 feet, $5.50 to $9.00.

Rag Rugs of imported and domestic makes, very suitable for bedroom use; cool and light weight, are marked in the 9x12 feet size from $12.00 to $18.50. 8x10 feet, $10.75 to $14.00.

Small sizes, very suitable for bathroom use, are marked $1.00 up.

For instance you can buy a genuine inlaid linoleum that will give years of service, for $1.20 per square yard, laid on your floor.

FARMS WANTED

IN SOUTHEASTERN PENNSYLVANIA
DELAWARE AND EASTERN MARYLAND

I want farms, big and little, corn and grain farms, fruit farms, truck farms, waterfronts and country places to sell to industrial workers and Western farmers.

I have one of the largest real estate agencies in Chester, Pennsylvania, where over 50,000 highly paid shipyard and steel workers, are employed. I am also building up a very large farm agency business covering Southeastern Pennsylvania, Eastern Maryland and Delaware, with offices in Newark, Delaware.

I CHARGE NO COMMISSIONS

Unlike most real estate agencies, I make no charge to owners of farm property for my services in making sales. I pay the owner of the property his full price, free and clear of all expenses and charges.

My method of handling property makes it necessary for me to have the exclusive agency of the property for a specified time so that I may be justified in advertising liberally, printing and mailing descriptions of the property to prospective buyers, and showing same by automobile service.

If you have land for sale, write me full description, stating price, when possession can be had, etc., and if it appears desirable I will promptly make final arrangements for selling.

The Individual's Share In Government Expenses

Editor, Newark Post,
Newark, Delaware.
My dear sir:

A pamphlet recently issued by the Bankers Trust Company of New York endeavors to help in determining for individuals what their contributions to the government should be. The information may prove of value to your readers.

The writer estimates that the cost of the war will be approximately $15,000,000,000 a year for the United States. He then endeavors to allot this burden in a graduated scale based upon the estimated income of the families of the United States. The percentage of income which should be contributed to the government thru taxes and loans runs from a little under 10 percent for families with incomes of $750 to nearly 80 percent of the income of families with incomes of $5,000,000 or more. This percentage should be increased for those without families.

The following figures taken from this pamphlet should be of assistance to those who are endeavoring to solve this difficult problem.

Annual Contribution from Family Income
$850	$82
1,000	100
1,500	175
2,000	270
2,500	393
3,000	507
4,500	1,008
5,500	1,419
6,500	1,911
7,500	2,460
8,500	3,094

By deducting the amount of federal taxes paid one can then estimate how much of his income should be used in the purchase of bonds.

Very truly yours,
Fred E. Clark.

EIGHTH GERMAN LOAN CLOSED

As the nation at the close of business last Saturday, completed half of its four weeks' Third Liberty Loan Campaign, with subscriptions of $1,371,055,300, or a little less than half the three billion dollar minimum total reported to the Treasury, cable dispatches brought word that Germany's eighth popular war loan was just closing with $3,461,000,000 subscriptions.

Saturday's treasury figures brought the total of the American people's contributions to war loans, including the First and Second Liberty Loans, in one year of war, up to $7,179,000,000. With the addition of the eighth loan, Germany has raised from her people in a little more than three and one-half years of war about $20,800,000,000.

The German figures are the most accurate available in this country, having been compiled from the German Government's reports from time to time. The total of the eighth loan, however, includes parts of former loans offered for conversion, the amount of which is not known here.

Germany's record, as compared with the United States was made the subject Saturday of a treasury appeal "to beat Germany with both dollars and guns."

Avoiding the Rush Hours

The railroad engineer lowers grades, straightens curves, cuts through hills and fills valleys to get easier hauls.

If the telephone traffic curve, as shown in the right-hand corner of the illustration, could be flattened by distributing a percentage of calls over less busy periods, it would effect a material saving and assist us in meeting the extraordinary demands for telephone service.

By restricting the use of your telephone around ten o'clock in the morning and three o'clock in the afternoon, you will help us to render better service to all and expedite the service for the Government which in the minds of all of us comes first.

Full Value, Represented by Correct Style, Serviceable Fabrics and Fine Tailoring in Snellenburg Clothes

Full clothing value means the greatest possible measure of fabric quality, tailoring effort and style distinction at whatever price you care to pay for a spring suit. You get full value here—you get more for your money than any other store in the city can offer.

Young men may select suits, secure in the faith that each is so efficiently tailored that the style will endure. And there are styles to suit the most fastidious, styles designed particularly for sport, dress and business wear, each bearing distinctive features.

Men who want to reduce their clothing expenses need not deny themselves dignity, pattern individuality or a perfect fit when they turn to the ready-to-wear suit-buying system. Our spring suits embody these features, and our prices are from 25% to 33 1-3% less than equal qualities cost in made-to-order suits.

Mrs. John H. Frazer, Miss M. P. Alrich spent Saturday in Wilmington attending the Pencader Cemetery meeting.

Owing to the rain on Sunday there were no services in either church.

Mrs. Roland McMullen is suffering with tonsillitis.

Mrs. Samuel Reed has been spending several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Riley of Newark.

There was a good attendance at the play on Wednesday evening. About forty dollars was realized.

A good number attended the dance on Thursday evening. The next will be held April 25, 1918.

APPLETON

Several young men from this vicinity expect to enter training camp soon.

Miss Bertha Finley of Wilmington, spent the week-end with her sister, Mrs. James Beers.

On Friday evening, April nineteenth, Appleton Social Club held a very interesting meeting. In the absence of the presiding officers, Miss Evelyn Kimble was president pro tem. Through the courtesy of Mrs. Jackson Willis, of Newark, (formerly of near Appleton), a letter from her son Rex, was read before the Club. Mr. Willis began the letter in route to France, and completed it "Over There." He is well, happy, and loyal to "Uncle Sam"; bidding the folks at home not to worry. It is needless to say, that scores of friends in this community wish for Rex, continued good health, and a safe return home.

Superintendent Caldwell of the Cecil County School Board, visited our public school last week. He was greatly interested in the agricultural exhibit, which patrons of the school have allowed the pupils to contribute. An honor roll gives the name of each pupil who has brought farm products; the name of the exhibit being written after the pupil's name.

IRON HILL ITEMS

Private Charles Davis of the Pioneer Regiment, Camp Dix, N. J., spent Sunday with Iron Hill friends.

The box social which was given Saturday evening, April thirteenth, by the Iron Hill baseball team, proved a great success. In spite of the threatening weather the social was largely attended and boxes sold high, as usual. Over twenty-five dollars were cleared and we hope it will help the boys to do as good work as they did last season.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Gillilan of Wilmington, Del., were the guests of Mrs. Annie Slack, one day last week.

Mrs. Stephen Ash has returned home after spending several weeks with relatives in Topeka, Kansas. Mrs. Ash was accompanied on her return trip by her mother, Mrs. Grier.

A Quarter Social was held Saturday evening, April twentieth, at the home of Mrs. George Davis. The proceeds, which as yet are not known, will be added to the sum the members of West Amwell Chapel are raising in order to purchase a Liberty Bond for the Chapel.

KEMBLESVILLE

Miss Madeline Fell of Wilmington, spent the past week with her cousin, Misses Edith and Alice Fell.

Mr. Thomas Lybrand and lady friend, of Philadelphia, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Kennedy.

Dr. and Mrs. Aaronoff were Philadelphia shoppers on Friday.

Mrs. Wm. Willard is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Nathaniel Richards, of Harmony, Del.

Miss Alberta Swain, of Goldey College, has been home from school the past week, sick with measles.

The Liberty Loan and Temperance meeting held at the church on Thursday evening, was well attended and enjoyed by all.

Stand Back Of Them

"In advertisements and speeches designed to persuade Americans to purchase Liberty Bonds or War Savings Stamps, or to perform other duties the non-performance of which is a disgrace," says Julian Street in Colliers Weekly, "I have more than once noticed a form of appeal which, whenever I encounter it, strikes me anew as constituting one of those great tragicomic jokes of which I have been speaking.

"It is the kind of appeal which says, in effect:

"Our boys in the trenches are doing their bit to make the world safe for democracy and home safe for you and yours. It is therefore up to you, who stay behind, to do your bit: namely, to purchase Liberty Bonds—or War Savings Stamps."

"Their bit! What is this 'bit' that our boys are doing over there?"

"They have given up everything—mothers, wives, children, sweethearts, homes, jobs—torn themselves up by the roots, braved the submarines, gone into trenches swimming in mud, alive with rats and lice, and subject to a ceaseless shell-fire—bullets, gas, flame, shells, shrapnel, air bombs, hand grenades, every devilish force with which the Prussian brute is attempting to coerce the world.

"And for what have they done this?"

"For love of country—for their country's honor and the ideal of freedom.

"The war, for them, is no investment, since 'investment' implies security. They are gambling. They are playing the greatest game of chance a human being can play. Life is the stake.

"If, as individuals, they lose in their gamble with the Hun, they pay the great price. If, as individuals, they win, they earn—what? The right to come back and begin life over again in a land wherein your life and mine have gone on relatively without interruption; a land some of whose citizens have persistently voiced the noble cry: 'Business as usual.'

"Heads we win, tails they lose. Theirs the losses, ours the gain. So much for their 'bit'.

"And now for ours. What is our 'bit'?"

"At present we are being asked as a nation to absorb three billion dollars' worth of Liberty Bonds, bearing interest at the rate of 4 1/4 percent. And, as I have said, there is in some of the appeals a sort of implication that, by so doing, we may render a service approximating that being rendered by our fighting men.

"The great tragicomic joke again!

"While the man in the trenches stands ready to give his life, what are we asked to give? Nothing. While the man in the trenches gambles his life, what are we asked to gamble? Nothing—not even our sleek, comfortable dollars. We are not even asked to take such slight financial risks as are gladly taken by conservative investors who buy corporation stocks and bonds and lock them away in their strong boxes. We are asked to buy the best securities ever offered in this world, at a rate of interest abnormally high. We are asked, in short, to seize an unexampled opportunity for the exercise of intelligent self-interest.

"Is that enough for us to do? By saving money, investing it in Government bonds, and making ourselves prosperous can we, at home, approximate the service rendered by the seaman and the soldier? And, if not, are there any means by which we may do so, in the interest of the democratic ideal of equal rights, equal duties, equal risks for all? No, there are none. Already we owe the fighting men a debt which never can be paid.

"The fact that a debt cannot be paid dies not, however, cause honest men to cease trying to pay.

They will do their utmost to make payments on account, however small their utmost may be, if only for the sake of self-respect.

"To be decent citizens each one of us must have a real share in this war. Nor does the fact that we have bought Liberty Bonds, or War Savings Stamps, or both, necessarily give us that real share. Those things, purchased in such amounts as we have found entirely convenient, represent a share in the profits of the war. And to be a profiteer is not enough. We are not participants until we share the sacrifice.

"Have you bought your new Liberty Bonds? Have you bought only such Liberty Bonds (or War Savings Stamps) as it suited your immediate convenience to buy, or have you bought more than you can pay for without exercising self-denial? Have you made a sacrifice? Have you sacrificed enough? Have you gone over the financial top? Or are you that most contemptible of creatures, the slacker who lets the other fellow do it, not only in the trenches, but at home?"

News Items From The Women's College Chapel Talks

Monday in chapel Madam Schelfheut who was in Belgium when Germany invaded the country, told the girls some of her experiences. The first part of the program was devoted to patriotic songs sung by little Miss Steele, a dear little girl of about six. Then Madam Schelfheut began to tell of the hundreds of marching troops, the wanton destruction of homes, the murdering of innocent citizens because some one had laughed at the invaders. The girls listened, tense and fascinated to these true stories of suffering in Belgium. They gained a vision of heroic Belgium, oppressed and tortured but still uncrushed in spirit.

Tuesday, Mr. Wright, the evangelist who is at the Presbyterian Church, took charge of the chapel hour. He took as his subject Mary Magdalene and her offering to Christ of the pot of precious ointment; and then dwelt upon woman's place in all phases of work.

Wednesday morning the remaining time after the religious exercises was given to the Athletic Association. The meeting was presided over by the president, Miss Catherine McGraw, who was the Women's College delegate to the Intercollegiate Athletic Convention in Chicago, gave a report. Among other things, she said that all delegates had pledged themselves to do war work, and as W. C. D. is doing almost everything else, she suggested starting a war garden. The girls voted to have the garden, and began the work Thursday evening by cutting up potatoes for seed and which are to be planted in the college potato patch.

Dr. Foster of Delaware spoke on Friday morning on "Alfred Noyes." He gave an abstract of the life of that popular present-day poet, and then read some of his war poetry, of which "In Lilac Time" was the most popular.

The Liberty Loan

The college has been busy with Liberty Loan work. Thursday evening there was a Liberty Loan meeting in the Hilarium. Mrs. Blake and Mrs. Rowan presented the matter of buying bonds. The girls sang patriotic airs and then distributed the slips. The War Council, consisting of the presidents of all college organizations has been canvassing to find how many bonds are being purchased by students and faculty. They hope to announce results soon. Quartettes of glee club girls have been organized to visit schools in each county of the state. They will sing community songs and speak for the Third Liberty Loan. The New Castle group, consisting of Misses Selma Bachrach, Hilda Stevens, Helen Fisher, Marion Campbell, and Helen Milkin, spoke in Newark schools last Friday. The other groups are: Kent—Misses M. V. Caudell, Helen Millikin, Elizabeth M. Jones, Mary Wright, Helen Fisher; Sussex—Dean Winifred J. Robinson, Misses Catherine Schunder, Alice Roop, Mary Dennison, and Anna Scott.

Dramatic Club Meeting

Friday evening the Dramatic Club held its regular monthly meeting. The members discussed sending a delegate to the convention of the Drama League to be held in Washington before long. Then the associate members nominated the new officers.

The Little Lad

By Agnes Lee, of the Vigilants
To me it's always the little lad
Afraid to speak his name.
But he was one of the first to go,
When his heart received the flame.
He used to seal from the shadowy room,
And over the light stair,
If dismal tales were being told;
But he won the Croix de Guerre.
He clutched my hand when the thunder broke.
He paled at the lightning's glance,
But he met the Teutons face to face,
And he fell with the souls of France.

WOMAN COMMITTEE MAKES ANNOUNCEMENT

A Call To The Patriotic Women

Our men "over there" are marching in close comradeship, high and low, rich and poor, shoulder to shoulder with one aim in view.

Will you march for Liberty? Not on weary miles of muddy road, but through the quiet streets of our peaceful capital to the historic Green, where in 1776 the State House bell rang out in joyous peals for independence; to register your approval of our part in this great war, to support the Liberty Loan, to co-operate with those on whom the work of the Loan has fallen heaviest.

No further invitation is needed, no uniform required, no badge even, just be at Dover railroad station, before three o'clock on Thursday, the twenty-fifth of April and fall in line.

Pass the word on.

TRACTOR DEMONSTRATION IN KENT

Farmers Observe Work For Three Days

The Kent County Farm Bureau has added another link to its chain of efficiency through the success of the Tractor Demonstration held last week—Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday near Dover. The hundreds of spectators each day were impressed with the excellent character of the work done by every make of machine demonstrating and were given the best possible opportunity to compare the merits of the various makes as adapted to their own needs.

Owing to the transportation difficulties some of the tractors were brought to Dover on trucks and others came by their own power. The six different makes demonstrating were sufficient to represent most of the various types on the market and to show the possibilities and adaption of each type of the kind of work performed.

The first day was devoted entirely to simple plowing demonstrations on plots laid out for each machine as all the machines were not ready for the fuel test the first day.

Wednesday afternoon the fuel test was conducted. Two acres of land was assigned to each tractor. Before starting all fuel tanks were filled and after the plowing of the two acre plot was completed the fuel tanks were refilled. The amount required in refilling was the amount of fuel used in plowing the two acres.

The Case plowed about one half acre with an obstruction on one of the plow points which may have added slightly to the amount of fuel that would have been consumed under normal conditions.

It can be readily seen from these figures that the fuel cost in no case was exceedingly high per acre. In fact in every case the fuel cost per acre was less than cost of horse or mule feed for plowing on an acre basis.

Thursday afternoon was principally devoted to orchard disking. For this purpose an Oliver 32, 18-inch double action disk harrow was used in the peach orchard belonging to Mr. Walker Mifflin. The work done was as satisfactory as plowing and accomplished in much less time. None of the tractors experienced any difficulty in pulling the disk. Many of the spectators were considerably amused when the Hercules people announced that they were ready to pull the big disk harrow with the Ford Knickerbocker as they did not de-lieve the Tin Lizzie would do the trick, and finally they were much surprised to find she pulled it as well as any of the others.
