Dear Lou

Thinking you would like to know whether we have any thing more concerning "Bud Tom" I thought I would take Franks place in informing you. We have never heard anything more than what Mr. Tull told [inserted text] us [end inserted text] in a letter he wrote to Frank, he said that he was wounded on the 18th and he helped dress his wound before he left the field. that he did all he could do for him

Dear Lou

and sent a man with him to Annapolis to take care of him Frank has received several very pretty letters from his friends concerning him and we would like for you to see them but we can't send them well.

We want you to come immediately if you can and stay some time with us, Frank says she thinks she could feel better if you were here. I don't want you to feel any delicacy in coming for we are <sup>all</sup> anxious for you to come as you feel very near to us please write and let us know when you can come. Since I began to write I have a chance to send it and that is why ~~it is written so~~ I have hurried and written so badly

Frank says you must excuse her for not writing as she does not feel able to write

Please come and do not disappoint us,
Your sincere friend
Mollie E. Reynolds

N. B. I forgot to say that Mr. Tull said that Bud Tom requested him to write to his friends and inform them of his being wounded, but did not say he thought he was dangerously wounded.

yours sincerely
