DEATH OF RAYMOND L. BURNETT SHOCK TO COMMUNITY

Prominent Citizen and Church Worker Died In Baltimore Hospital Monday

The sudden death of Raymond L. Burnett in the Johns Hopkins Hospital, Baltimore, Monday, was a shock to the community and friends over the State. A prominent citizen and church worker, his passing on will not soon be forgotten by this community. He was 47 years of age and assistant director of Sales, Dyestuffs Division of Mangle Chemicals Department of the E. I. du Pont de Nemours and Co., and for several years active in the civil life of Newark. He had been ill but two weeks.

Mr. Burnett returned from work about two weeks ago feeling poorly and Dr. A. J. Mayromatis was called. He had Mr. Burnett removed to the hospital in Baltimore where an operation was performed. His condition became so serious that several blood transfusions were made. Later the patient seemed much improved but last Friday there was another change in his condition and he gradually grew worse until death.

He was born in Connecticut in 1886 and received his early education at the Dayville, Conn., Grammar School and the Killingly, Conn., High School. Later he attended business school at Worcester, Mass., and was a graduate in textile chemistry at the School of Design in Providence, R. I.

Mr. Burnett had a wide experience in the dyestuffs industry in this country. He had been engaged with companies which represented German dyestuffs manufacturing concerns even before the dyestuffs industry in this country started on such a large scale.

His business career began in Dayville. After a short time there he went with the Continental Color & Chemical Company in Providence, which was United States selling agents for the I. G. in this country. He was also employed by the Badische Company in Providence for some years and later was a chemist with the Wanskuck Company in Providence before coming with the du Pont Company.

He met Mrs. Burnett while associated with the Badische Company in Providence, R. I.

He was a pioneer in the du Pont Company when they began activities to create a sales division for the new venture in dyestuffs manufacture. He was highly informed in New England's textile industry, building the sales force of the du Pont Company's office at Providence during 1917 to 1926. He was so versed with the du Pont Company's methods that he established several branches in a number of cities, including Chicago. While connected with the Providence office, which was the center of New England's textile industry, through his influence and untiring efforts, he had the business men in the industry accept scientific methods of dyeing textiles, which took years of his personal effort besides those of his salesmen, to bring this about. He later came to Wilmington as Assistant Director of Sales of Dyestuffs.

Mr. Burnett was an ardent church worker and was directly responsible for building up both the Presbyterian and Methodist Men's Bible Classes, also his influence and personality helped the State Federation of Men's Bible Classes, of which he was an officer.

He had taken an active part in the civic affairs of Newark since moving here and made a host of friends. He was a member of the church and superintendent of the Sunday School of the Newark Presbyterian Church, a member of the Newark Country Club and of the Newark Lions Club.

He was a member of the du Pont Country Club and the American Association of Textile Chemists and Colorists. He is survived by his wife, three children, Mary Bowen, aged 17, Raymond L., Jr., aged 14, and William Howard, aged 8; two brothers, Henry B., of Plainfield, N. J., and Wm. N., of Rochester, N. Y., and two sisters, Mrs. Earl Kent, of Putnam, Conn., and Mrs. Roy Shippee, of East Killingly, Conn.

THANKSGIVING

Thanksgiving, the American Day! Conceived and observed first in the hardships of the colonists of bleak New England, nationally recognized by the Proclamation of that simple and master pen of Lincoln in days of strife, it is today the one American Day. It celebrates no event, pays tribute to no honor, worships at no particular altar, recognizes no victory—it is America's Day. Without regard to party or creed, sect or station, birth or heritage, it is the one day we all recognize, love, and observe according to our sentiments and the light that is given us to appreciate, to recognize and to know.

Strange as it may seem, Thanksgiving was born of poverty, and proclaimed in blood. Thanksgiving is most sincerely observed in times of strife and stress and strain, rather than in times of peace, prosperity, and plenty. But it is American tradition in history, in present fact and in tomorrow's hope.

So may we say Thanksgiving for friends who love, and for enemies who inspire—whether kneeling at the altar of their creed, in the family reunion, around the candle glow of the hearth, on the links, afield with dog and gun, or tramping quietly in the chancels of God's first temple—the great open, or down in the forecandle or up in the blue—Thanksgiving to and for you all.

For the rights enjoyed, given us by the blood of our Fathers, for the joys experienced in today's realities, for the dreams of tomorrow's opportunities, we offer humbly our Thanks.

For the privilege to live, to work, to serve, we are thankful indeed. To conceive in our dreams, to create in our work, and to just be kind is our Thanksgiving Prayer.—Everett C. Johnson, in Issue of November 26, 1924.

MAKING PLANS FOR U. OF D. CENTENARY CELEBRATION

The one-hundredth anniversary of the opening of the University of Delaware will be celebrated with fitting exercises on May 11, 12 and 13 (Friday, Saturday and Sunday), 1934. To this great event in the history of the University, all friends of this State institution will be invited and the cooperation of students, faculty, alumni, trustees, and all other citizens of the State will be asked for.

An organization Dinner Meeting was held in Old College, Monday evening, November 6, immediately following a preliminary meeting of the Executive Committee. Tentative plans for the celebration have already been approved; committees have been appointed; a Centenary Office was opened in Old College on Monday, November 14.

The Committees as they have so far been organized or suggested are as follows:

Trustees—H. Fletcher Brown, chairman; H. F. du Pont, W. H. Heald, H. M. Morris, H. Rodney Sharp, H. B. Thompson.

Heald, Trustee; President Hullihen, ex officio; H. G. Lawson, Alumnus; G. H. Ryden, Delaware College; Marion Steele, Alumna; A. G. Wilkinson, Business Manager.

Finances—W. H. Heald, J. P. Cann, W. O. Sypherd, A. G. Wilkinson.

Women's Reception and Hospitality Committee—Mrs. Walter Hullihen, chairman; Mrs. J. P. Cann, Mrs. Harry Cannon, Mrs. G. E. Dutton, Mrs. C. A. McCue, Mrs. R. H. Richards, Mrs. Henry Ridgely, Dean W. J. Robinson, Mrs. R. L. Spencer, Mrs. H. B. Thompson, Mrs. A. D. Warner.

Alumni Committee of 100—Delaware College, 84; Women's College, 16.

General Committee—W. O. Sypherd, chairman; H. Rodney Sharp, representing the Trustees; Dean G. E. Dutton, representing School of Arts and Science; Dean C. A. McCue,

FEDERAL AID MAKES KINDERGARTEN POSSIBLE FROM JANUARY FIRST

Mayor Collins Secures Approval for Newark School Playing Field Completion from Federal Civil Works Administration

Honored By Lodge

Mrs. T. Ray Jacobs, of Camp No. 4, Patriotic Order of Americans, has been appointed district president of the order for the first district of Delaware, comprising New Castle county, in which Camps Nos. 1, 2 and 4 are located. Mrs. Jacobs takes an active part in Friendship Temple, No. 6, Pythian Sisters, of Newark, Delaware.

Mayor Collins secures approval for Newark School Playing Field completion from Federal Civil Works Administration.

Mayor Collins informed the Newark School authorities Thursday, November 16, that the Federal Civil Works Administration will complete the Newark School Playing Field at no expense to the Newark School District. In addition to furnishing employment to citizens of Newark, and completing the field, this special Federal appropriation will relieve the Newark School Budget of the responsibility for completing the field. The release of this responsibility makes possible the release of other income of the Board of Education which in this case is out of State tuition of students which is estimated at $800 for the year. Accordingly $700 has been set aside for Kindergarten from January first to the close of the school year in June under the same rules and regulations as heretofore provided.

The following statement shows the source of funds and those from which will come the funds for Kindergarten.

1. Balance on hand July 1, 1933, funds held in reserve by the Board of Education for emergency other than current expenditures. Current funds $1,211.33; capital outlay, $2,959.50.
2. State appropriation based on enrollment in grades 1 to 12 inclusive for their use, $88,336.04.
3. Vocational Education, Federal funds, $1,000.00.
4. Teacher training in Vocational Education, and the Newark Board of Education, $750.00, through the director of Vocational Education, and the Newark Board of Education.
5. Other income, out of State tuition, $750.00.

The assumption that the playing field will be completed by the Federal Government through Mayor Collins and his committee relieves the budget of this cost which is estimated by the engineers at a maximum cost of $600, and therefore makes it possible for a Kindergarten appropriation.

Since the matter of Kindergarten support was crystallized into a bill in the Legislature, the Board of Education and the superintendent have given every consideration to the problem in each of its meetings since April.

At a meeting Friday evening of the Board of Education the following resolution was adopted by the Newark Board of Education following a discussion as to the educational values of a Kindergarten and the appropriation from the Federal Government: "In consideration of the report that there will be $300 available from Federal funds for the field, it was regularly moved, seconded, and approved that the Kindergarten be authorized from January 1 to June at the close of school at a total cost of no more than $700. In authorizing this expenditure it is understood that the Board of Education does not obligate itself for the coming year."

In order to make the necessary arrangements and adjustments, Superintendent Brinser announces the following:

1. The Kindergarten will be open to all children of the Newark Special School District, who will be five years of age on or before January 1, 1934.
2. The registration of Kindergarten pupils be completed by December 8, 1933.
3. There will be two sessions, the morning classes from 8.45 to 10.45; the afternoon class from 12.50 to 2.50.

Lions Club Weekly Meeting Postponed

The program for the meeting of the Newark Lions Club Tuesday night was postponed because of the death of a member, Raymond Burnett, who died in the Johns Hopkins Hospital, in Baltimore, Monday.

It was originally intended to have committee headed by Frank Fader, but President A. D. Cobb and Professor T. A. Baker, chairman of the program committee, decided Tuesday to present the special program at a later meeting. Mr. Cobb and Professor George Shuster, who attended educational conventions in Chicago, last week, spoke of Lions meetings they attended on the trip back from Illinois.

Luke Goodyear Held Under Bail

Luke Goodyear, of near Newark, was placed under $500 bail for possession of 150 gallons of alleged liquor by Magistrate Thompson, of Newark, last Friday night. Goodyear was arrested by Captain Ray and Private Barnes of the State Police on Thursday afternoon in a raid on his house. Goodyear, when questioned, told State Police, following the raid, that the liquor was "good old rye—it's a year old."

Goodyear, about 50 years old, has been in legal difficulty before for alleged activities in the liquor business, both in Newark and Cecil County. This time he was held under the State liquor law and the liquor was turned over to the State Liquor Commission.

Rob Butcher Shop

During the noon hour, Monday, an unknown person cut his way through the screen door in the rear of the butcher shop of Charles Steele, forced his way through an office and entered the store, where he broke into the safe and rifled the cash register, taking about $18.

At the time the proprietor was out to lunch and no one has reported seeing the robber.

FRED STOOPS KILLED BY FALL DOWN STAIRS

Fred Stoops died Sunday night of injuries sustained in a fall down stairs at his home in Deandale. The body was turned over to Deputy Coroner Hearn, who, after a post mortem examination by Dr. William N. Fenimore, announced that death was caused by a fracture of the neck.

Mr. Stoops, who was forty-seven years of age, recently moved to Newark from Elk Mills. He is survived by his wife.

Funeral services were held this afternoon from the R. T. Jones funeral parlors. Interment was made in Elkton Cemetery.

MEN'S LEAGUE ENJOY THANKSGIVING BANQUET

The annual Thanksgiving Banquet of the Newark Methodist Men's League Bible Class was held in the dining hall of the church on Tuesday evening. The Rev. H. L. McDade, of Newport, one of the speakers, kept the audience in an uproar of laughter. Paul Lovett, also spoke. The music was furnished by Mr. Sylvester Barnett, and George M. Phipps acted as toastmaster.

REGISTRATION FOR KINDERGARTEN DEC. 6

Registration of children for Kindergarten will be held in the Newark School Office Wednesday afternoon, December 6, at 1:30. Medical examination will be given at the same time by Dr. Downes.

Children who are residents of the Newark Special School District and who will be five years of age on or before January 1, 1934, should register. Parents are asked to present a birth certificate at the time of registration.

Children already registered and who meet these requirements need not register again to be enrolled.

CAST SELECTED FOR E-52 PLAY, "AUTUMN CROCUS," DEC. 14

Mitchell Hall at the University of Delaware has been the scene of teaming activity during the past week on the part of the staff and cast of Autumn Crocus, the production of the E-52 Players for December 14.

The nature of the play, which is held in the most picturesque section of Europe, the Tyrol, makes possible a colorful production, although the problems confronting the production staff are probably more stupendous than those which have confronted previous staffs. The E-52 Players will authentically reproduce the costumes and scenery of the Tyrol. Already much of the scenery has been assembled and is being painted. Already the costume committee under the supervision of Miss Kelly, of the Women's College, has secured an authentic and complete Tyrolean costume for Steiner, the leading character, and is working of the construction of others.

The cast offers final assurance of an excellent production. All the members, in the course of the first week's rehearsal, have mastered the lines of the entire play, and can devote the rest of the rehearsal time to interpretation and movement. Harvey Maguire, who will be remembered for his brilliant performance as Torvald in A Doll's House last spring, has the role of Steiner, the inn keeper of the Rote Hirsch. Opposite him in the part of Fanny, the American school teacher, will play Vera McCall, who has had acting training in almost every major production since she enrolled at the University. Wilson Walker, winner two years ago of the Edward Lawrence Smith Memorial Prize for the best original play, has the role of Edith, Fanny's travelling companion. The parts of the sophisticated young unmarried couple will be taken by Betty McKelvey and Irvin Malcolm, one of the campus' outstanding comedians. Another comic role is played by David Salzberg, brother of Stanley Salzberg, one of the best comic actors who ever played in Mitchell Hall. The rest of the cast follows: Miss Mayne, Lois Hall; Mr. Mayne, Charles Davidson; Fran Feldman, Edith Brown; Lenchen, Kathleen Spenser; Minna, Caroline Cobb; Liese, Jane Yost. Following the policy of providing against all possible contingencies, all the roles of the play are being understudied, some of them by members of the cast having minor roles, the others by T. Willey Kithley and Margaret McNulty. Assisting Mr. Kase in the direction of the cast is Mr. Thomas Hannaway.

At the head of the production staff is Mary Matlack, one of the most experienced students in dramatics at the University. The staff is as follows: Assistant Stage Manager, T. Willey Kithley; Costumes, Dorothy Ramsey; Properties, Louise Hutchinson; Scenery, Ruth Euster; Make-up, Betty Manchester; Lighting, Thomas Roe; Business Manager, John Russo; Assistant Business Manager, Mary Louise Wolfenden; Publicity Manager, Charles Sigler.

Univ. of Delaware Plays Juniata College at Home Saturday

DELAWARE AND ST. JOSEPH'S PLAY SCORELESS TIE

Although held to a scoreless stalemate by the St. Joseph's eleven Saturday, there was more than a ray of brightness in the game for the Delaware rooters, some 2,500 who braved impending showers to witness the contest.

From the showing of three freshmen, none of whom have been given a real chance before, it is apparent that Rogers, if he is at Delaware next season, will have three new and good players. They are D. M. "Reds" Smith and J. J. "Skazzy" Scannell at ends, and Jack Hodgson, at center.

Hodgson, former Wilmington captain, played the entire game, and with the exception of a few bad passes at the beginning, turned in an almost finished performance. Smith, former F. & M. Prep student, cannot be lauded too highly for his efforts. He played the last three periods, and in the second half made almost half the tackles.

Scannell was in only for the fourth quarter, but in that brief time he showed that he will be a fit mate for Smith. Both of these freshman ends are fast, neither is very heavy, but each is aggressive.

At the end of the third quarter Rogers heeded the incessant cry of the stands for Crowe. Joe responded with a first down on the first play, and for the rest of the half it looked as though he would break loose for the score which would have won the game. On every play in which he figured there was a gain of never less than five yards; the average was between eight and nine yards profit.

Last year, when in the waning minutes, it looked as though the Saints had held Delaware to a scoreless deadlock, Crowe cut loose for a 65-yard sally and the winning points. Saturday he was held to shorter gains, but he picked his own holes, never having interference. After he was tackled he drove on for three or four yards at a stretch with St. Joe's men hanging from his legs and arms.

Except for the last quarter the game was slow, lacking long runs or spectacular plays of any sort, with the exception of a short fast pass from Green to Mayer which the Flying Dutchman took for a 30-yard ride to the St. Joseph's 20-yard line, the only time Delaware was within scoring distance and the only time they got beyond the 30-yard stripe. McGonigle, Kane and Becker, three of Emid Thomas' starting backs, played good ball.

All in all the game was a close one, much closer than it should have been. Each team made 8 first downs, 4 in each half. From the line of scrimmage Delaware made more yardage than her opposition, but the gains were wasted. Of 14 passes attempted Delaware completed 3 and intercepted two. The visitors tried 15, made 5 good and intercepted 3. Delaware gained more than her opponents in the first and last two periods.

Homecoming Day

The day was Homecoming Day at the college and many alumni were on hand. In addition there were Boy Scouts from Wilmington, guests of the Athletic Council. During the intermission the freshmen held their annual shoe fight without the spirit usually attendant to the scrap. They piled their shoes on the 50-yard line and raced to the heap and extracted their own boots at a given signal. They were dressed in pajamas, and the last ten to put their shoes on were supposed to wear the red dress all this week.

During the entire first half the game was a regular recurrence of pass, punt and pray, for from the line neither side could gain with consistency. Branner, for Delaware, and Kane, for St. Joe's, were the only men to advance the ball with regularity through the line.

Only once did Delaware threaten. From mid-field Frankie Mayer sped down to the 20-yard line after taking Green's short pass. It looked as though he would score but the safety man nailed him. For the rest of the half play centered between the 35-yard lines.

Rogers had his varsity backs on parade beginning the last half and they failed to do as well as the subs. St. Joe's made a steady drive from their own 35-yard line but Ed Thompson intercepted Becker's pass intended for Kane on Delaware's 25-yard line in the third quarter and the play repeated itself until Crowe got in the game.

At the psychological moment Slippery Joe carried the ball on the first play of the last period for a first down, the ball resting at midfield. Green fumbled and ran out of bounds after losing 4 yards. McGonigle took Green's kick on his own 35 and ran it back to Delaware's 33-yard line on the longest run of the game.

Becker, on the next play, carried it down to the Delaware 6-yard line only to have the play recalled and a penalty imposed upon his allies for the backfield in motion. Cheeseman made 9 yards through Delaware's left tackle before he was downed by the rip-snorting Smith. Kane threw a pass to McCusker which was good for an equivalent gain, but Crowe batted the next pass down on the 10-yard line and Becker kicked over the goal line.

Green failed at the guards, Crowe added another 9 yards, Green made three yards and Crowe 5. Crowe made 5 more after several substitutions and Ed Thompson made 5 yards. With his running attack functioning smoothly, Green decided to take to the air and thereby threw his chance to score away, for the passes failed and a penalty of 15 yards was imposed upon the Chicks for holding.

Delaware Near a Score

Once more it looked as though Delaware might come through, as though Crowe might repeat, for he took a triple pass from Thompson to Green from the 20 to the 40-yard line, but the game ended with the ball in the possession of St. Joseph's.

Two of the men who played for Delaware were released from the infirmary Saturday morning. They were Ed Thompson, reputedly suffering from a concussion of the brain earlier in the week, and Frankie Herkness who had blood poisoning. Herkness did nothing, but Thompson made several long punts and backed the line up with consistency.

TIFFANY STARS AS TEAMS BATTLE A SCORELESS TIE

Friday, November 17, the Newark Yellow-Jackets and the West Nottingham eleven fought their way to a 0-0 tie. Due to the hard condition of the ground there were very few spectacular plays and less long runs. Wharton received the kick-off and ran it back for five yards. On the fourth down Wharton dropped back and kicked. A run around right end gained three yards for the West Nottingham Gridders. A line thrust netted two more yards. On the next play, Nottingham fumbled, and Tiffany recovered the ball. The quarter ended with the ball on Nottingham's 46 yard line.

In the second quarter a pass from Wharton to Tiffany gained 20 yards. Another pass was intercepted by Nottingham. The third quarter started off with a bang. West Nottingham, after a series of well executed plays, carried the ball to Newark's 15-yard line. But Newark held and received the ball on downs. Shortly afterward Nottingham intercepted a pass on the 35-yard line and ran it back to the 30, as the quarter ended.

The last quarter started with Wharton running a punt to the forty yard line, where Newark lost the ball on downs. An end run brought the ball to Newark's 40-yard line. A pass from kick formation reeled off 30 more yards and carried the ball to the 10-yard line. Four line plunges gained nine yards, and the ball exchanged hands. Newark kicked to their 30-yard line and Nottingham began an incessant march toward the goal, which was stopped by the whistle. The line-ups:

Newark	Nottingham
Daly	L. E. Ewing
Egner	L. T. Stittler
Beers	L. G. Baber
Perry	C. B. Disro

Poultry Supply Looks Plentiful

There will be no scarcity of turkeys, ducks, chickens, geese and other good things for the Thanksgiving table, but indications point to an increase in prices over that paid a year ago, as the turkey raisers compelled to pay more for everything they buy not raised on the farm, will ask more for their products.

Fresh killed turkeys sold at Thanksgiving time last year at 35 to 40 cents a pound, but at the beginning of the market these prices will be higher. The chain stores will as usual cut these prices slightly, and while an increase is expected, it will not be much higher, as the chain stores have contracted for their stock, and this will have a tendency to hold the prices down.

A typical achievement in the continuous purpose of NRA to bring all correlated crafts within a single code is that of the toys and plaything industry, which brings together what were originally 21 separate codes.

FAILURE TO OBSERVE SIGNALS CAUSES MANY AUTO ACCIDENTS

Sooner or later the driver who is careless about observing signals will have an accident, according to the Delaware Safety Council. When two such drivers meet, tragedy is certain to result.

Don't try to "beat the light." Come to a full stop back of the pedestrian cross-walk on the red and wait for the green before you start.

Remember that "STOP" means stop and "SLOW" means slow at intersections so marked.

Observe without fail the warning signs on rural highways.

Be especially careful to observe every precaution at railroad crossings. Warning signs are not always uniform, but a railway crossing should always mean: "Stop-Look-Listen—and Live!"

One of the greatest mistakes a driver can make is to get the idea that he can safely speed on city streets in the wee small hours when streets are apparently deserted.

The same principle holds true during the day in sparsely traveled residential districts. You approach an intersection and if you know there is little travel on the cross street you are tempted to go through without diminishing your speed. The fact that you can do this repeatedly without mishap increases your confidence.

But some day another car will be coming along that cross street and you will be unable to stop in time to avoid a smashup.

Gasoline Tax Refund Law Now in Force

Under the Gasoline Tax Refund Laws of the State, all persons who keep gasoline in bulk on which they will ask a refund of tax either in part or in full, shall keep an itemized account of the dates, the quantities and the machines in which the gasoline is used. As a period of ninety days is allowed in which to make the application, the State, as any other business would be conducted, asks that the claimant keep an itemized account of the bill for tax refund which he expects to collect. Under the new law this itemized account of how the gasoline is used must show how much is used in the tractor, truck, car, stove, or any other machine on the premises using gasoline and this account must be kept on the place for at least a year for inspection at any time. Many farmers who at first opposed this new rule are now heartily in favor of it as it gives them a more accurate account of the measure received, the use of the gasoline and some idea of the cost of operating their machines.

3,000 Nash Employees Return to Work

About 3,000 employees of the Nash Motors Company returned to their jobs at the Kenosha, Wis., plant Wednesday morning as the result of the settlement of a wage dispute.

The workmen have been idle since November 9, when C. W. Nash, chairman of the board, ordered all production units shut down pending settlement of the wage controversy which originated among less than 100 workers on the assembly line.

Company officials and the United Automobile Workers Union, representing the employees, reached an agreement Monday night through the efforts of Dr. John A. Lapp, regional chairman of the national labor advisory board, and James Mullenbeck, Federal mediators.

The piece work wage plan of from four to four and a half cents an operation, to which the assembly line workmen objected, will remain in effect temporarily, but the agreement provides that the group shall name three committeemen who will deal with the company for the purpose of settling their differences.

Lombardo To Play at Black Cat

Guy Lombardo and his Royal Canadians, the orchestra that thrilled Wilmington music lovers, will again be presented at the Black Cat next Saturday night from 9 o'clock until 3. The management of the Black Cat is particularly gratified in its success in booking the Lombardo orchestra again, since there have been so many new requests to hear the orchestra.

The orchestra will present not only Guy, himself, but his three brothers, Carmen, Victor and Leibert.

The music is distinctive, pulsating and beautiful with an original rhythm by virtuosos. An evening of real pleasure is promised those who attend.

THANKSGIVING

The fields are bare, the corn is shocked — next week we celebrate harvest home! Telephones are speeding family reunions. A million homecomings are being planned. + Let the telephone help you gather your scattered loved ones... settle the details... arrange the feast. For the telephone adds to your happiness as well as to your convenience. It is a joy to the family as well as a farm necessity.

If you have no telephone, tell us to install one. All winter long it will keep you in touch with the outside world.

Mr. Advertiser—

Do you buy advertising space because you think you are getting a bargain in space, or because of the results obtained?

Dependable papers have one price to all. They don't charge one price this week and cut it in half the next. If a paper does this you are not getting what you pay for.

Whichever way you look at it you either have been paying too much or too little for the space bought. A newspaper that has been charging one rate and then cuts that rate in half, admits that advertising space is worth practically nothing in that medium.

THE NEWARK POST has a bona fide paid circulation and offers the advertisers the opportunity of getting before the buying public these messages in this vicinity. We have a fair rate and the results our advertisers get shows that it pays to advertise in

Raymond L. Burnett

Raymond L. Burnett dead. We can't quite realize it. We knew him as a citizen, christian and friend. Generous, full of sympathy, willing to sacrifice, offering his all. Religion seemed to be his hobby and to that he gave more than his share of time and energy. He was a gentleman in very truth. His death leaves a significant place vacant. His disposition was a reflection of yesterday's old school gentleman and today's man. His life leaves in our memory the picture of a man passing by. He probably never dreamed it, but we loved him. A good husband, father and citizen has passed on.

LOCAL RETAIL TRADE COUNCIL ORGANIZED

Will Enforce In This Area Provisions of the Code of Fair Competition

Representatives of merchants from all over the Wilmington metropolitan area gathered Tuesday afternoon at the Wilmington Chamber of Commerce offices and put together the machinery designed to give the buying public in this area a sweeping new deal under the recently approved NRA Retail Code.

The following is the Committee for Newark:
General, D. A. McClintock. Vice-General, Mrs. J. Q. Smith. Colonel Publicity—Harry Cleaves, Newark Post. Colonel, Education—Ira S. Brinsner, Newark Public Schools. Colonel, Consumer—Mrs. Harry S. Gabriel.

Compliance Board—J. Pierre Cann, Attorney; Geo. W. Rhodes, Retail; A. F. Fader, Garage; E. L. Richards, C. C. Hubert, Labor.

The above Compliance Board is to be organized and elect a secretary and treasurer.

In accordance with the Code, the merchants under the sponsorship of the Managing Committee of the Mercantile Section, Chamber of Commerce, the Board of Directors of the Retail Recovery Council, Wilmington Area, set up a Local Retail Trade Council which will enforce in this area the provisions of the Code of Fair Competition which has been approved by President Roosevelt and the National Recovery Administration for the retail trade and will undertake to guarantee through this enforcement that any one who makes a purchase in any retail store of this metropolitan area need no longer fear that he will be "gypped" in any way.

The Local Council, which also will receive complaints relative to violations of the wage and hours provisions of the Retail Code for reference to the District Compliance Director, whose offices are located in Philadelphia, is composed of nineteen men representing practically all of the major classifications of retailing represented in the Wilmington metropolitan area.

Rodgers Is Chairman

James M. Rodgers, president of the Kennard-Pyle Company, is the Council's chairman. The other executive officers are: vice-chairman, John J. Powell, Sr., vice-president and treasurer of the Hurley-Powell Company; treasurer, J. Wales Davis, treasurer of Baynard's, Inc.; secretary, Edwin A. Scott, secretary of the mercantile section of the Chamber of Commerce and secretary of the Retail Recovery Council, Wilmington Area, the two organizations which sponsored formation of the Local Retail Trade Council.

The names of the officers and members are being reported to the National Retail Trade Council at Washington for its approval, and if given, a certificate of authority will be issued to the local group by the National Recovery Administration authorizing the local council to begin its enforcement program.

The organization effected Tuesday followed in almost record time President Roosevelt's approval, October 22, of the Retail Trade Code. If it is not the first, it is one of the first two or three to be formed in the whole United States.

All the Council's business will be cleared through Mr. Scott and his office in the Chamber of Commerce at the Mullin Building will be the focus of all complaints, whether filed by consumers, competitors, or employees.

Can Demand Adjustment

Henceforth, if any purchaser finds that what he purchased has been misrepresented or that he has been made the victim of any other unfair trade practice outlawed in the code, he can write to Mr. Scott's office giving details of the transaction and demand that the matter be adjusted and that the offending merchant desist in the practice which prompted the complaint.

Newark New Century Club News

Mrs. Roberta C. Williams, executive secretary Travelers' Aid Society of Wilmington, will address the Newark New Century Club at its next regular meeting on November 27 at the Club House. Mrs. Williams is a woman of broad experience, her address should interest many. It is hoped that there will be a good attendance since this is next to the last meeting before Christmas.

Mrs. C. Robert Kase has resumed the chairmanship of the Dramatic Committee which Mrs. H. S. Gabriel took over during Mrs. Kase's absence last spring.

Mrs. A. B. Eastman has accepted membership on the Publicity Committee.

Tickets for the Benefit Movie, featuring Slim Summerville and Zazu Pitts in "Her First Mate," to be given at the downtown theatre on December 4 and 5, are being distributed to the various sections of town for sale by Club members. Everyone is urged to support this benefit for the money is badly needed to defray Club expenses.

Many have spoken of the most excellent musical program presented by Miss M. Popenot Challenger and Mrs. H. W. Davis at the last Club meeting. Miss Challenger is well known in musical circles of New Castle and Wilmington. She played "Prelude in B Flat Major," by Chopin, and "The First Movement of the Hayden Sonata in D Major." Both were very heavy numbers and were greatly enjoyed by all present.

CANDIDATES FOR SWIMMING TEAM START PRACTICE

Blue Hen Team Drilled for Game With Juniata Saturday

Practice sessions for both the University of Delaware basketball and swimming teams started this week under the direction of Gerald P. Doherty and Ed Bardo, respectively. Although the basketball team will not play until after the first of the year the swimmers will launch their season next month, getting under way with Albright in the local pool on December 9.

Five lettermen are available for swimming this season. Headed by Captain Barker, a breast stroke performer, the lettermen are Harry Wilson, a fancy diver, Hugh Lattomus, veteran dash star; Bill Lawrence, free style mainstay, and Bill Croes, who as a freshman last year, earned his monogram by breaking the local backstroke record. In addition to this group the team will be bolstered by John Carey. Carey was ineligible for most of the meets last year, due to the freshman ruling, but is looked upon as one of the stars of this year's aggregation. In addition to this group Buck Palmer and Kadel, members of the squad for the past two years, will also be on hand. Captain Murray and Lindstrand are the only lettermen who were graduated last June. DuRoss, a freshman from last year, will be eligible for meets with teams not members of the Middle Atlantic Association, but Jack Kelly, sensational swim star from West Catholic High, will be forced to spend a year of complete idleness, due to transferring from Rutgers College, where he was a student last year.

Courtmen Work Out

Coach Doherty held his initial basketball practice Tuesday afternoon. Only John Greer and Earl Leahy of the lettermen answered the first call, as the others and several promising freshmen are on the football squad. Kemske and Ed Thompson are expected out on Monday but Irish O'Connell's injury to his shoulder will prohibit his practicing for several weeks. The season will not get under way until January 6, when West Chester State Teachers open the season at Newark. St. John's of Annapolis, was originally scheduled for the curtain raiser on December 16.

GROUPS OF UNEMPLOYED PUT TO WORK ON DELAWARE ROADS

On Monday morning, forty-eight hours after the State of Delaware was asked to cooperate with the newly created Civil Works Administration, gangs of unemployed started work with the possibility of that many more being employed in another week. Chief Engineer W. W. Mack, of the State Highway Department accounted for a large number of the newly employed force by starting projects in all of the counties which will include clearing, grubbing, grading and sodding to be done preliminary to the actual construction of roads.

Of the men used, fifty per cent are being supplied by the County Re-employment directors and fifty per cent by the County Administrators of the Relief Commission. Because of the rush of men who have been coming to the different offices of the State Highway Department, Mr. Mack stated today that it was only a waste of their time to do this as the Department takes its workers only from the list of men supplied by these two relief divisions and advises all who want work to apply directly either to the County Relief Administrator or to the County Re-employment Director. Offices of both departments are maintained at Wilmington, Dover, Georgetown, and Laurel.

$600 Newark's Share of Civil Works Fund

Newark will receive as its share of the Civil Works Administration funds about $600, which will be used for completing the new athletic field of the Newark High School. Town Engineer Merle Sigmund expects to commence the work of grading the field tomorrow morning.

Union Thanksgiving Service at Christiana

A union Thanksgiving service will be held at Christiana by the M. E. and Presbyterian Churches at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening preceding Thanksgiving Day, when a special offering will be taken.

The service will be held this year in the Presbyterian Church; the sermon will be preached by Rev. Richard Green, pastor of the M. E. Church.

REV. WM. R. MOON, ELKTON "MARRYING PARSON," DIES

The Rev. William R. Moon, Elkton's original "Marrying Parson," who held a record of marrying 25,000 couples since taking up his residence here about fifteen years ago, died at the Homeopathic Hospital in Wilmington early this (Thursday) morning. Mr. Moon had been in poor health for several months but did not enter the hospital until about four weeks ago. His death was due to complications.

Mr. Moon was born in Marion County, Ohio, in June, 1857, and after attending the local schools of the time, he enrolled in a Baptist training school for ministers and upon his graduation served that church in various pastorate for forty years in Iowa, Illinois and Ohio. During his pastorate in Marion County, Ohio, the late President Warren G. Harding often attended his church.

After being superannuated by the Baptist Conference, Mr. Moon came to Elkton in 1919 and opened an office in the Felton House near the Pennsylvania railroad. Later on, as the marrying business prospered, he purchased a home on North street extended where he attracted altar bound couples with huge advertising signs in the yard. It was this stroke that gave him his initial prominence and recognition as the first minister to advertise the marriage ceremony as a business.

Several years ago he joined hands with the so-called Taxi Trust and the marrying office was once more moved this time to a large home at the corner of Main street and Delaware avenue which the Taxi Company had purchased for the purpose and still maintains.

On August 28 last, the Rev. and Mrs. Moon celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary and received congratulations from hundreds of couples from all sections of the country whom he had married. Mrs. Moon and one brother, the Rev. O. D. Moon, also a retired Baptist minister, survive.

Funeral services will be held at the Delaware Avenue Baptist Church in Wilmington, Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock, with the Rev. J. R. Humphries, pastor of the church, officiating. Interment will be in the Cherry Hill M. E. Cemetery. The Rev. E. T. Western, of North East, a retired Methodist minister, will be in charge of the services at the grave.

HOLD MEDICAL PROFESSION RESPONSIBLE FOR DEATH RATE IN MATERNITY CASES

The New York Academy of Medicine in an exhaustive report made public Monday, according to an Associated Press Dispatch, held the medical profession itself responsible for 6.1 per cent of the avoidable deaths of mothers during childbirth in New York during the years 1930-31-32.

The report is based upon a study of "all puerperal deaths" in New York City during the three-year period—a total of 2,041. In arriving at its conclusions the committee of doctors, who made the study investigated the circumstances of 341,879 births.

Of the 2,041 total of maternal deaths, the committee estimated that 1,343, or 65.8 per cent, could have been prevented "if the care of the woman had been proper in all respects."

Blame for these preventable deaths was apportioned by the committee as follows:
Midwives—2.2 per cent.
Patients—36.7 per cent.
Medical group—61.1 per cent.

"Sixty per cent of all the deaths," the report of 290 pages said, "which could have been avoided have been brought about by some incapacity in the attendant; lack of judgment; lack of skill, or careless inattention to the demands in the case. Some of these situations have arisen out of the fact that internes have been given too wide a field of independent activity. Most are plainly the results of incompetence."

The report, criticizing over-use of anesthesia and instrumentation in childbirth, noted that not more than five per cent of all delivery cases require operative interference. The investigation showed, however, that operative interference was practiced in 24.3 per cent of the cases recorded in 67 New York hospitals.

The committee estimated that one out of every five deliveries in New York City is an operative delivery. The maternal death rate was five times as high among operative deliveries as among spontaneous ones.

"It is not contended that the rate can be equal," said the report, "but any such disparity as that shown in these figures is a certain indictment of those undertaking the interference."

The committee found the death rate of mothers in hospitals to be 4.5 per 1,000 live births. The death rate of mothers at home was 1.9.

"The maternal mortality rate for home deliveries is therefore substantially less than half of that in the hospital deliveries," the committee pointed out.

In summation the committee said: "The hazards of childbirth in New York City are greater than they need be. Responsibility for reducing them rests with the medical profession."

The committee, which made its survey under a grant from the commonwealth fund, made numerous concrete recommendations to the medical profession. It said there is need for change in certain of the methods now employed; that hospitals must have qualified obstetricians as directors of their staffs; and that "the medical profession is obligated to inform the lay public that operative delivery undertaken merely to alleviate pain or shorten labor involves increased risk for both mother and baby."

Detective ousted in 1928 because he couldn't then satisfactorily explain his bank account to Grand Jury has been reinstated, having now made everything clear to the Civil Service Commission. Example to school children, who should never let themselves be stumped by a tough problem in arithmetic.

DR. AND MRS. HULLIHEN

RETURN FROM CHICAGO

Dr. Walter Hullihen, president of the University of Delaware, and Mrs. Hullihen returned Sunday afternoon from a trip to Chicago. They left Newark late last week to motor to Chicago but at Mansfield, Ohio, ran into a blizzard and had to leave their automobile there making the remainder of the trip by train. They returned to Mansfield by train and from there motored to Newark, arriving Sunday.

Dr. Hullihen attended the annual meetings of the Association of Land Grant Colleges and Universities of the United States and also the annual convention of the National Association of State Universities of which he was president last year. Dean Charles A. McCue, A. D. Cobb, assistant director of extension work, Prof. George L. Schuster, agronomist, and Miss Amy Rextrew, of the Women's College, are others in a group from the University of Delaware who attended some of the meetings in Chicago and have returned home.

Co. "E" Club's Thanksgiving Dance

Special to The Newark Post.
On Wednesday evening, November 29th, the Co. "E" Club of Elkton, Md., will present their annual Thanksgiving dance in the Elkton State Armory.

This will be one of the most unique dances of the Thanksgiving holiday in this section of the country. The Club committee is again featuring Jack Schaller's Club Royal Orchestra. This is considered one of the best orchestras that has appeared in this territory. They are so well liked that they were secured for Club dances twice last year by popular request.

The dance is to be semi-formal. From 9 to 1 o'clock. Don't forget to come to the Elkton dance the evening before Thanksgiving for lots of enjoyment and pleasure.

To Reduce Seeded Acreage 15 Per Cent

Announcement that a requisite to federal loans for 1934 spring wheat production will be an agreement to reduce the seeded acreage 15 per cent was issued last Monday by the farm credit administration.

If the applicant planted spring wheat on his land in the 1930, 1931, 1932 and 1933 crop years, he may not plant more than 85 per cent of the average for those four years to obtain a loan. If he planted only three, two or one of these crop years, the average acreage for that period must be reduced 15 per cent.

Farmers who had an average of 80 acres or less are not affected; those with more than 80 but less than 95 must agree not to plant more than 80 acres; those with 95 or more must agree to the full 15 per cent reduction.

NEIGHBORHOOD ANNOYED BY NIGHT PROWLERS

Several residents of East Park Place have been annoyed by night prowlers. At one place the cellar was entered and some wood thrown out preparatory to taking it away, but the thief was evidently scared away. At another place some one tapped on a kitchen window while a lady was busy at some housework about 11 o'clock at night. The intruder then tried the door, but a dog barking caused him to disappear in the darkness. It is thought that the intruder knew that the man of the house had not returned from his place of business.

On Wednesday morning a lady of that neighborhood found her garage door open and on investigation found that the battery of her automobile was "dead," and the gas tank almost empty, showing that some one had used the car during the night.

The garage doors now have new locks and it is said that several shotguns have been cleaned up and are standing handy to be used if the prowlers continue to visit that neighborhood at night.

COOPERATING WITH STATE BOARD OF HEALTH

Sixty-nine pupils in grades one and four received either the Schick Test or Toxoid treatment against diphtheria at the Newark School last Monday. Dr. Sergeant and Dr. Downes were in charge of the work.

Forty pre-school children received treatments at the Health Center Monday afternoon. A survey of pre-school children was made by the Newark School Staff.

Mr. Brinser stated that much effective work was done by the Newark School Staff and Mrs. Howard Preston and her health committee of the Home and School Association in encouraging parents to take these important steps for their children's health.

BOWLING BECOMES POPULAR RECREATION IN NEWARK

American Legion Has Six Excellent Alleys Opened to Public

The new bowling alleys opened November 11, 1933, at 55 Cleveland Avenue, sponsored by the American Legion local Post, have already become the recreation centre that they were intended to be, and this clean healthy sport is fast coming into its own in Newark.

Many are learning the game. There are some good bowlers among the ladies and gentlemen who have already tried the alleys, and various teams and leagues are in process of formation. The first of the League matches started last night. Many others are practicing and learning to bowl as indicated in the attendance of the past week. Over 1000 games have been rolled in the first week.

Always mindful of beneficial improvements for Newark and the development of true sportsmanship for our younger generation the Legion has endeavored to again bring advantages that the Legionnaires did not have, for the use of our people. There is no better indication of the Legion's interest in this way than the excellent work that has been done with the Boy Scout Troop and Junior Baseball activities.

This is a step further and beautiful to men and women of all ages.

Six of the finest alleys in the State have been installed and put in operation and are fast becoming popular.

Ladies' teams are being formed now for a Ladies' League. Get your friends together and form a team. It's lots of fun if you do not have the winning team. Additional men's teams are being formed daily so call 105 and give your names to the manager or try out the alleys and sign up. Be sure to get on a team.

The results of the first matches follow:

Mar-Del League Standing
	W. L.	Pct.	Pts.
Business Men's Club	5	0	1,000
Knights of Pythias	3	0	1,000
American Legion	3	0	1,000
Elkton M. E. Church	2	1	667
Reburn Radio	1	2	333
Mac Laundry	0	3	000
C-D Fibre Office	0	3	000
Elkton B. Team	0	3	000

Elkton Bowling Team did not appear and forfeited their games. Hopkins Bros. have donated a prize to be awarded the individual having the highest single score each week.

Mar-Del Bowling Started
The first Bowling League started on the new Legion alleys was formed and held their first matches Wednesday. The Mar-Del League includes the following teams:

Elkton Bowling Team.
Elkton M. E. Church.
Continental Fibre Office.
Reburn Radio Team.
Business Men's Club.
Knights of Pythias.
American Legion.

Having drawn a large attendance at the opening match this League will have keen competition ahead of them. Games will be played at 7 p. m. and 9 p. m. each Wednesday night.

The officers of this League are: C. H. Hopkins, president; Ellis Dickert, vice-president; Jacob Handloff, secretary and treasurer.

Schedule
Nov. 29, 7.00 p. m.—Mac's Laundry vs. Continental-Diamond Office; Business Men's Club vs. American Legion. 9.00 p. m.—Knights of Pythias vs. Reburn Radio; Elkton Bowling Team vs. Elkton M. E. Church.

Dec. 6, 7.00 p. m.—Elkton Bowling Team vs. Reburn Radio; Knights of Pythias vs. Elkton M. E. Church. 9.00 p. m.—Business Men's Club vs. Continental-Diamond Fibre Company Office; Mac's Laundry vs. American Legion.

Smart buyers ARE PUTTING ON NEW GOODYEARS Now!

FIRST
for non-skid safety and protection against trouble on winter's slippery, darker, colder roads.

SECOND
for greater mileage. New rubber wears longer on cool roads. Goodyears put on now will still be almost new next spring.

THIRD
for low-cost economy. Most Goodyears today are still lower-priced than a year ago.

Good reasons, these, for buying now. Why not trade us your troubles before they happen?

Most sizes as low-priced as a year ago—yet you get a 20% thicker tread with Full Center Traction and greater mileage.

HITCHENS ELECTED PRESIDENT N. C. CO. GUERNSEY ASSOCIATION

Sixty-five dairymen of the county attended the annual meeting of the New Castle County Guernsey Breeders' Association, held last night in Wolf Hall, University of Delaware, Newark.

The following officers were elected: President, F. Ed Hitchens, Newark; Vice-President, C. G. Collins, Hockessin; Secretary and Treasurer, G. M. Worrlow, Newark; Directors, I. H. Crossland, Middletown; R. S. Case, Wilmington; Frank Moody, Newark; Frank McVaugh, Hockessin; George Green, Newark, and Irvin G. Klair, Marshallton.

Following the business meeting, Mr. Louis McLane Merryman, prominent Guernsey breeder and Senior Dairy Production Expert under the Agricultural Adjustment Administration, Washington, D. C., gave an interesting talk on "The New Deal for the Dairyman." During his talk, Mr. Merryman explained the purpose of the Agricultural Adjustment Act, and outlined the various plans that have been suggested for the relief of the dairy industry.

"In the fluid milk market the over-production must be controlled either by the basis-surplus or a flat allotment plan. Secretary of Agriculture Wallace has approved a plan for a fund to be raised by a processing tax. Some of this fund would be expended to put surplus butter in relief channels. These plans will help, but something must be done to actually reduce the present nation-wide over-production of milk. Many plans have been suggested; among the most workable are the following: (1) A bonus paid on all cows butchered; (2) Increased emphasis on cow testing work; (3) an increased drive on T. B. testing, as there are yet three quarters of a million untested cattle in the country; (4) testing all dairy herds for Bangs disease (contagious abortion). This is a disease, according to Mr. Merryman, that is causing millions of dollars loss annually to the dairy industry through inefficient production. If the plan is accepted, herds will be tested by the Federal Government, and Federal and State Governments will co-operate in paying indemnities. After the first test all herds will be retested every 60 days until the herd is clean, and some plan of replacement will be agreed upon whereby the size, or the total production of the individual herds will be decreased. This plan of blood testing for Bangs disease will remove the present over-production, every dairyman will have clean healthy herds, and the consumer will have a superior quality product."

Following Mr. Merryman's talk, the Guernsey Breeders' Association passed a resolution approving the blood testing plan as a solution to the present over-production problem. A copy of this resolution is being forwarded to Secretary of Agriculture Wallace.

Lions Prepare for Charter Night

The fifth annual charter night celebration will be held by the Newark Lions Club next Tuesday at 8.30, at the Deer Park Hotel. About 75 are expected to attend this event. Vice-President Weldon Waples will be in charge. T. A. Baker, Chairman of Committee of Arrangements, has been very active in arranging for the banquet. Paul Lovett will act as toastmaster. The speakers of the evening are Dist. Gov. Arthur G. Smith, of the Washington Lions Club, and Wm. C. Grace, of Washington. Wayne Brewer will provide entertainment of local talent and Geo. Danby will have charge of the singing and orchestral music.

STRICKERSVILLE

Mr. H. I. Garrett has returned from a hunting trip in Clearfield county and reports his trip very much spoiled by 8 inches of snow.

Mr. George Bland has returned from a hunting trip in Northern Pennsylvania.

Mrs. George Bland is the guest of her brother, William Van Hecke and family, of Wayne, Pa.

Mrs. Clara Taylor, who broke her hip recently, is now sitting up, and is glad to report.

Master Andy Lee is visiting his aunt, Miss Addie Lee.
