Newark to boys in France means "Home." Can we tell them she has NOT subscribed her quota in the THIRD LIBERTY LOAN?

SURGICAL DRESSING WORK PROGRESSES

Surgeon In France Writes To Speed Up

Dressings and still more dressings is the spirit of workers at the New Century Club work room, which is open every Monday evening from seven to ten. Fifty-four women were present last Monday, completing seven hundred dressings, the gauge for many of which was cut during the evening. A monitor has been appointed for every work table, which represents a group of ten, and the work promises to go splendidly.

One monitor related to her group last Monday, the contents of a letter from a friend, a surgeon with the American Army, to whom she had been sending tobacco. The last letter just received, written since the great drive had begun, says, "The cigars and tobacco are a luxury indeed, but I can do without them. I want nothing but surgical dressings. Send them, as fast as you can get your hand on them."

All women willing to conform to the rules of the work room are urged to help with the work.

Accept Positions With DuPont Company

Lee Lewis, rural mail carrier, and Ralph Riley, formerly of the Farmers' Trust Company of Newark, left today to accept positions with the DuPont Company. The young men expect to be stationed in Virginia or Tennessee. Mr. Lewis is succeeded on the route by George Caswell, and Mr. Riley, at the Trust Company by Miss Margaret Geesaman, of Newark.

Wreck On Pomeroy

Passenger service was delayed on the Newark-Pomeroy line on Monday by the derailment, near Buck Run, of nine freight cars. No one was injured.

COUNTY CHAIRMAN VISITS NEWARK

Asks Town to Raise $225,000

"What would you give tonight to prevent a German invasion of your town?" Such was the question put to the audience in Wolf Hall last Friday evening by John S. Russell, chairman of the Liberty Loan Committee of New Castle County. Delaware has already raised her quota, but this is not enough for Delaware. We cannot rest until every hundred has oversubscribed its assessment.

If we can raise $17,500,000 the DuPont Company of Wilmington will duplicate that sum and Delaware will go on record as purchasing $35,000,000 of bonds—a feat which would bring to our state every honor there is as far as that goes.

Newark's quota is $161,000; that of White Clay Creek including Newark, $192,000. I ask you to raise $225,000 that your fathers, mothers, sisters, brothers may send to the boy in the trench or on the battle line, the cheering message—we are back of you; we'll stand behind you to the finish. Subscribe in order that America may be able to do what no other nation can do, make the world a safe place in which to live.

"How can Newark raise $225,000?" Mr. Russell asked. "Only in one way; only by each and every one becoming an active worker and keeping at it until midnight May 4th."

Music was furnished during the evening by Minnehaha Band, the combined glee clubs of Delaware College and the Women's College. There was also singing by a quartette—Mrs. J. P. Cann, Mrs. Anna Armstrong, Mr. Koehler, Professor Hayward; an instrumental solo by Miss Elizabeth McNeal, and war songs by Miss Katharine Shunder.

FINDS FRIENDS THROUGH Y. M. C. A.

Newark Boy Tells Of Life In France

Relatives in Newark received last Thursday a letter from J. A. O'Daniel, first lieutenant National Guard, telling of his experiences in crossing. He arrived in France April fourth. On the way across he was assigned to lookout duty in the Crow's Nest. No submarines were sighted, and the voyage was uneventful.

A second letter, dated April 13, which arrived today, carries the reassurance that our boys can find friends and acquaintances even "over there."

"They have a book here at the Y. M. C. A.," he writes, "which all who arrive are asked to sign. You enter your name, record, state and town, and date of arrival. I had just registered a few minutes ago, when a man stepped up to sign. He saw the name, O'Daniel, and the address, Newark, Delaware, so he asked, 'Do you know a Lieutenant O'Daniel in the Eleventh Infantry at Chicaumauga?' It happened that he was in the same regiment with Mike and had done guard duty with him, as well as help him catch the train for home Christmas. He told me that the Eleventh is here now, but he has not yet rejoined it. There is also a fellow here who knows Harvey Ferguson and Biddy Bonds. I have met Lieutenant Sawdon, an observer who went to school at Fort Sill from Annapolis. He was with me in the 110th and also in the Delaware National Guard. About one hundred enlisted men out of Company C, Delaware National Guard, arrived yesterday."

Mr. O'Daniel describes the town in which he is stationed as a very interesting one with three large and old cathedrals, several castles nearby, and many interesting villas, along the river front. The men get good meals—the best he has found in his army experience—but there is no such thing as buying food between meals. Food is on sale at certain hours only in the cafes.

He speaks of Miss Elsie Janis entertaining the men at the Y. M. C. A., declaring, "She surely was a treat and made you feel that you were back in the good old U. S."

British Soldier Speaks Here

Private Lankford, of the British army, recently from the battle front, visited the men's and women's colleges today. Mr. Lankford, accompanied by Mrs. Henry Ridgley, is campaigning in behalf of the Liberty Loan. This afternoon he addressed students in the High School. The party went from Newark to Hockessin.

LOCAL FARMERS MAKE RECORDS

Pure Bred Stock Awarded As Prizes

At the beginning of the Cow Testing Association year in 1917 the Winterthur Farm, owned by H. F. duPont, and the Lynthwaite Farm, managed by Mr. A. C. Smedley, agreed to present a high-class pure bred bull calf to the man who owned the highest producing grade or pure bred Holstein cow in each of the Associations. At the same time Delaware College agreed to give a Guernsey bull calf of equal merit to the man who owned the highest producing grade or pure bred Guernsey cow in the three Associations in the State. The records from all three Associations have very recently been completed and it was found that there were several very exceptional cows entered in each Association.

For the Diamond State Association, John Mitchell of Hockessin, owns the record cow. This cow during the year produced 13,313 pounds of milk and 446½ pounds of butter fat. Mr. Mitchell has already received his prize calf from the Lynthwaite Farm and is very much pleased with him.

For the Middletown Cow Testing Association, Mr. H. A. Batten of McDonough, owns the record cow. This cow during the year produced 10,029 pounds of milk and 376 pounds of butter fat. Mr. Batten was presented with a bull calf from the Winterthur Farm.

Mr. Frank Dennison has the honor of owning the highest producing Guernsey cow entered in the Cow Testing Associations of the State. This cow produced 7,423 pounds of milk and 346 pounds of butter fat. Mr. Dennison has very recently received the bull calf from the College Farm which is a calf of very exceptional breeding. This calf is out of a record cow and sired by Golden Rose May King, a half brother to the high priced bull recently sold by the Farm. Although the cows mentioned are the highest producers in each herd yet in each of the herds there were other cows which had records little below the records mentioned.

To encourage dairy interests of the State, the State Board of Agriculture has offered prizes for the record cows in each of the Associations during the coming year. Prizes of $15.00 for each of the cows producing the greatest quantity of milk and the greatest quantity of butter fat in each Association during the year has been offered. When the number and quality of the cows entered in each Association is considered it is no small honor to secure one of these awards.

WORKING IDEALS IN THE SCHOOLROOM

Defined by Miss Snyder Before Parent-Teacher Association

Miss Agnes Snyder, demonstration teacher in the Eighth grade, Newark, addressed the meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association held last Thursday in the High School, giving a general outline of the work in the grade which she will teach for the remainder of the term. Miss Snyder came to Newark three weeks ago, and has already accomplished wonders with the class which she found thoroughly disorganized, owing to changing teachers. The speaker outlined her aims and methods in the various common school branches as developed and adapted to meet the needs of this particular group. She said in part:

"In Arithmetic I work for facility in the use of numbers—both oral and written; the power to analyze problems, and a realization on the part of the children of the practical value of arithmetic. My plan is to divide the lesson in two parts, first, a five minute oral or Studebaker drill, and second, the main topic."

Miss Snyder groups the pupils in Arithmetic and English, rather than allow them to work as a whole, as in History and Geography, and studies where content means relatively more than reasoning. For class work she chooses such topics as relate to the correction and strengthening of weak points in the mechanics of fractions and decimals; percentages as applied to ordinary business life; problems based on the war situation—food, thrift stamps, liberty bonds, military equipment; practical measurements based on neighborhood problems—scale drawing, graphs. "The teacher's problem first of all," Miss Snyder declared, "is subject to just three things. If she can develop for the child, a good healthy body, give him well rounded interests, and good hard definite work her fight is won. Give him new interests and keep him busy, and discipline will take care of itself."

"Grammar," the speaker declared, "I do not attempt to teach as a distinct subject, but as something closely connected with life. I believe in letting the children learn grammar seeing the need of it." One of the first things Miss Snyder did upon taking up the work of the grade was to examine a set of themes, and make an inventory of the children's errors. These, taken from forty themes, she reported as follows: Change of time, (shifts from the present to the past tense) 150; sentence structure, 75; misuse of direct quotation, 45; "ed" omitted, 10; use of apostrophe, 5; failure of agreement of pronoun with antecedent, 25; double negative, 2; irregular verbs, 3; Spelling, 37. The teacher works for the ability to develop a composition logically through collection of material, the use of notes, and outline making; the ability to develop a paragraph from a topic sentence, and improved sentence form. All written work is preceded by oral work, and the methods for accomplishing these aims are shown in class, followed by independent work on the part of the children. The grammar lesson grows out of the need of the child as illustrated in his composition work.

Miss Snyder strives in Reading to develop the ability to get the thought out of the printed page, and for a love of books. "I believe we should devote time to silent and oral reading," she said, "in the same proportion as we read silently or orally in life." She uses in this work three sets of books, of six each, the first the "Story of King Arthur," bringing to the children the chivalry of the past; the second, the "Romance of Labor," a human sort of book that deals with men and their work, representing present day work-a-day problems; and third, the "Story of a Short Life," selected because it is a pretty story and the children like it. Miss Snyder explains to the children that there are many kinds of reading—for information, for improvement, for pleasure. "When we have a story for work, to be rewritten or retold by the pupil, I always make that point clear," she declared, "for first of all we must develop a love for books." The last period on Friday afternoon she uses a story for the pure pleasure of it.

"But in History and Geography the teacher finds her greatest opportunity," Miss Snyder said. "No subjects really wake the child up as these. Too often we find the children with an old out of date geography, which they are half way through for the second time, without any interest in it whatever. Here I found the children had been through one or two histories, so I decided to correlate Geography and History work, teaching them by the colonization program of the great powers. My aim is to teach them what it is to be an American; to show them the gradual growth of democracy, the difference between autocracy and democracy, the American Ideal, and the position of America in the World War. For my topics I select the great events that have brought about our present standards: the Great Charter and the rise of Parliament; the appearance in the Stuart reign of the idea of the divine right of kings; the English Revolution and its relation to American Colonization; the principles of the American Revolution and its importance in world history; the Constitution of the United States; the development of representative government in the United States, Great Britain, and France as contrasted with the development of Prussianism; our mission in carrying to Europe what our forefathers taught here.

Lend Him a Hand!

Here Is YOUR Boy—going over the top, his gun in hand, his jaw set, his heart on fire. It is the most dramatic moment in the life of this soldier—and in the life of this nation.

His heart and mind are set on one thing—VICTORY—victory over an enemy who stands for acts and ideas which this soldier despises—which he is ready to give his life to destroy.

We here at home hate these things, too. We are pledged to their destruction—to our last dollar and our last man. But this soldier can actually—get-his-hands-on-them—and root them out of the world forever—if we will lend him a hand.

This Boy Is the Symbol of Fighting America

He stands for the aspiration, the conviction of a hundred million people translated into action. He is doing what the rest of us are dreaming. Only through him can we win the Victory.

But He Can't Do It With His Bare Hands! He asks you to back him up with guns, shells, tanks, airplanes. Let's lend him a hand by lending our dollars. Then no power in the world can prevent him from winning the Victory.

The long fighting ages of the world have never seen a better soldier than this boy of yours—your son—your husband—your brother—your friend. He stands for the sons of America, hundreds of thousands strong, soon to be millions. He is doing his part—we must do ours!

Women's College Notes

Work of W. C. D. "Flying Squadrons"

Three days this past week have been given to work for the Third Liberty Loan in the High Schools of the State. At the last minute some of the girls had to be changed so that the groups were not as previously published. All day Monday and Tuesday two squadrons were out. Dean Robinson's consisted of Misses Catherine Schunder, Anna Scott, Alice Roop, and Mary Dennison. The places at which they gave their twenty-minute program were Selbyville, Millsboro, Frankfort, Georgetown, Rehoboth, Lewes, Milton, Ellendale, and Milford. The program consisted of patriotic songs and speeches on "Why we must buy Liberty Bonds"; College songs and speeches on "Why you should go to College." A second squadron under the leadership of Miss Caudell had for its members Elizabeth Houston, Elizabeth M. Jones, Helen Millikin, Mary Wright, and Helen Fisher. Their program was similar and was carried to Smyrna, Clayton, Dover, Caesar Rodney, Harrington, Bridgeville, Seaford, and Laurel. This group added to their itinerary a Liberty Loan Meeting Monday evening at Greenwood where they did their bit to help along. On Tuesday morning a third squadron consisting of Misses Frazer, Bachrach, Katherine Stevens, and Seifert with Miss Winslow as leader took their messages to Townsend, Middletown, and New Castle. The first two squadrons went by train and automobiles, and were entertained at private homes. Dean Robinson's group spent a night at the home of Governor Townsend in Selbyville; Miss Caudell's were entertained by Mrs. Harrington and Mrs. Jones of Harrington. Miss Winslow's squadron were gone but half a day, and Dean Hayward took them over the sixty miles covered, in his automobile. Everywhere the groups found warm welcome, responsive listeners, and the members of the High Schools joined enthusiastically in the singing. It was a delightful episode in the college year.

Musical at Women's College
On Saturday evening the Glee Club and Mandolin Club of Women's College gave their annual recital. It was given in the Hilarium which was crowded with guests, whose applause showed their estimate of the numbers given. Much of the success was due to Mr. Carpenter who had trained the Glee Club, and to Miss Helen Millikin the leader of the Mandolin Club—while Miss Alice Jeffers' interpretations of the music for the cantata added greatly to the charm of that performance. Miss Bachrach who has been the Glee Club leader ever since it was organized, led the choruses and the cantata. The program follows:

- (1) The Star Spangled Banner;
- (2) Mandolin Club—Traumeri and Wanda; (3) When Life is Brightest—Glee Club; (4) Solo, A Birthday—Hilda Stevens; (5) La Scherzosa—Hirballi—Mandolin Club; (6) Keep the Home Fires Burning—Glee Club; (7) Solo, The Rosebud—Elizabeth Houston; (8) Anitra's Dance, Cavalleri Rusticana—Mandolin Club; (9) Somewhere a Voice is Calling—Helen Fisher; (10) Solo, Love in all Seasons—Victoria Zukowsky; (11) Polish Dance—Mandolin Club; (12) Reading, The Lady of Shalott—Miss Pauline Smith; (13) Cantata, The Lady of Shalott—Glee Club.

Members of the Glee Club follow: High Soprano—Selma Bachrach, Catherine Schunder, Mary Dennison, Elizabeth Houston, Victoria Zukowsky, Anna Knowles, Cardelle Williams, Helen Fisher, Marian Campbell. Second Soprano—Mary Jane Mason, Margaret Gray, Mary Wright, Emily Frazer, Calista Feehley, Mary Evans. First Alto—Elizabeth M. Jones, Kathryn Robbins, Alice Roop, Gladys Walton, Olga Seifert, Agnes Fowler. Second Alto—Hilda Stevens, Anna Scott, Anna B. Beckett, Margaret Layton, Esther Dodson. Pianist—Alice Jeffers.

Mandolin Club: Leader—Helen Millikin. Members—Miss Edwina Long, Charlotte Easley, Martha Doherty, Elizabeth I. Kelley, Mary Wright, Mary Jane Mason, Alice Anna Rouse, Margarite Reynolds, Kathryn Robbins, Evelyn Kelley, Agnes Fowler. Accompanist—Hilda Stevens.

Muhlenberg College Glee Club
On Friday the members of the Muhlenberg College Glee Club, who were to give a concert on the evening at Wilmington, came down to the Women's College. They sang for the girls, the girl's Glee Club sang for them; and a bowl of fruit punch for refreshment. It was a most informal and delightful little reception.

Chapel Exercises
On Monday Dr. Greenfield, with the aid of a blackboard, gave a very interesting and illuminating talk on the positions held by the Allies and their enemies, showing how the line fluctuated, at what the Germans are aiming and what the Allies are doing to frustrate them. The students beg for more of this same kind of helpful talk, and it is being planned for.

Tuesday, Miss Anna Ritz gave a carefully prepared talk on the training and testing of the aviators, explaining a new invention for finding out if a "Flyer" can stand the atmosphere at a stated height above the earth. This will obviate months of training of men who eventually will not be able to fulfill conditions. Miss Ritz was followed by Miss Margaret Christian who recited some of Eugene Field's poems.

Wednesday, Miss Powell of the Home Economics Department, gave a charming rendering of half a dozen or more of Burgess Johnson's "Little Boy Poems."

Professor Conover of Delaware College was the speaker in Chapel on Friday morning. He gave one of the "Red Letter" speeches of the year. His subject was "The Beacon Lights of Delaware"—meaning the schools and colleges. He traced the growth of education in the state, told of the struggle to obtain a college for women, and dwelt on the advantage of affiliation over co-education. There were touches of humor all through which met healthy response. In closing Professor Conover addressed the senior class in a few words of appreciation of their four years work, and congratulated them on being the pioneer class of a pioneer College.

Kappa Alpha Holds

Fourteenth Annual Dance

On last Friday evening, April 26, the Kappa Alpha Fraternity held its fourteenth annual dance in the Newark Armory. The affair was one of the largest and the most successful dance that the fraternity has ever given. Many guests from all parts of the state and from the neighboring towns and cities were present. The Armory was tastefully decorated with crepe paper in the fraternity colors of crimson and old gold. This was arranged in three large cones having their vertices at the top and stretching down to the girders and the side walls. The fraternity vice flag containing 34 stars was ornamentally draped on the rear wall and surmounted by a large electric K. A. emblem and above that was the United States flag. A feature of the decorations was the fountain for the punch. It consisted of a bank of moss and ferns with a background of cedar and laurel. The punch bowl was held by a small pipe seeming to flow from an invisible spring. Underneath the punch bowl, a large electric light served to produce a sparkling effect below the amber punch. The patronesses' corner at the several rest rooms were comfortably fixed up.

The best of music was furnished by Draine's Orchestra of Wilmington. It consisted of eight pieces.

Most delightful refreshments were served in the basement during intermission. They consisted of chicken patties, finger rolls, ice cream, small cakes, coffee, and nut breads. They were furnished by Miss Stewart, director of the College Commons.

The program was of heavy character. On the front was the K. A. coat of arms in gold, and above it an individual service flag with number "34" in the center of the star. Each dance was dedicated to some branch of the service in which the boys were enlisted and the college and the fraternity.

The dance was ended by the playing of the Star Spangled Banner, in all the guests stood at attention. The central idea of the evening was of a military nature and characteristic was emphasized by the music, programs, and decorations. Among the alumni, now service who returned for the

RECEPTION IN HONOR OF PRESIDENT

Guild of St. Thomas' Plays Host

Last Wednesday, April 24th, the Guild of St. Thomas' Church gave a reception in honor of their president, D. C. Rose and wife, who have returned after an extended stay in Florida. The occasion was a great surprise to Mr. and Mrs. Rose who had been invited to go for a walk by their son, D. Lee Rose, with a casual suggestion to stop at the Parish House. Two vocal selections were rendered by Mr. Koehler, and a Welcome Song by Miss Dorothea Rose. A beautiful bouquet was presented to Mr. Rose, who in his response gave an interesting description of his trip. Refreshments were served and informal dancing followed.

Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Rose wish to express their hearty appreciation of the welcome home accorded them by the Guild of St. Thomas'.

Euchre And Dance At Clubhouse

A progressive euchre and dance will be given in the New Century Club drawing rooms on Friday evening, May 10th, under the direction of Mrs. H. R. Tyson, for the benefit of the building fund. The committee has arranged tables for all who wish to play, one section being reserved for Bridge players. It is hoped a large crowd will be present. With cards and dancing the occasion promises to be an enjoyable affair.

Card playing will start promptly at 8.30. The door prize, a five dollar War Savings Stamp, has been donated by a friend. The committee would be very glad to receive similar gifts from friends who wish to contribute to the Building Fund and at the same time help the government.

WAR SONGS AT CLUBHOUSE

Old And New Enjoyed By Everyone

Although weather conditions affected the crowd somewhat the Community Sing held at the New Century Club last evening was a splendid success. R. P. Koehler, who led the singing, before the performance was over, had everyone "limbered up" and in the mood of the music. War songs were the order of the evening, and many new lifting tunes were heard locally for the first time at the "Sing."

Among special features on the program were choruses by school children, "It's a Long, Long Trail," and "Pack up Your Troubles"; songs by Little Miss Mildred Steel, aged five, "Over There," "Where do we go from Here," and "Keep Your Head Down"; solo, by Mr. Steel, "What are We Going to do to Help the Boys"; solos, by Mrs. Armstrong, "Just a Baby's Prayer at Twilight" and "On the Road to Home Sweet Home"; solo, Mr. Earl Ewing, "Liberty Bell, Why Don't You Ring Again"; solo, Mrs. Cann, "We're Going Over." The old song, "When You and I Were Young, Maggie," was sung by Prof. Hayward, the audience joining on the chorus.

Song after song, called for by members of the audience, was entered into by everyone.

Granting for the moment that Senator Saulsbury is a wonderful man, a statesman, a politician de luxe and all that, it must be admitted that he is no Marvel. This, with a tinge of Gray on the horizon, makes promising an interesting day.

If we could close our eyes and for one brief moment catch a glimpse of the boys in the trenches "over there," an honor flag would dot every school house in the land.

Let me be serious a moment. In this day of strife and strain, when men and nations war, when boys go out from home, when mothers pray, can't we forget social position founded on wealth—forget petty jealousies based on small town growth—forget in the name of boys at the front our small frays of tongue and wit? I say, can't we forget, when nations bleed white and our boys go out to give their all for us and ours? Can't we forget and enter into the spirit of Liberty Loan, Red Cross, and all War Charities and activities becoming American citizens with boys and neighbors boys at the front?

If you can't go across—come across.

FARMS WANTED

IN SOUTHEASTERN PENNSYLVANIA
DELAWARE AND EASTERN MARYLAND

I want farms, big and little, corn and grain farms, fruit farms, truck farms, waterfronts and country places to sell to industrial workers and Western farmers.

I have one of the largest real estate agencies in Chester, Pennsylvania, where over 50,000 highly paid shipyard and steel workers, are employed. I am also building up a very large farm agency business covering Southeastern Pennsylvania, Eastern Maryland and Delaware, with offices in Newark, Delaware.

I CHARGE NO COMMISSIONS

Unlike most real estate agencies, I make no charge to owners of farm property for my services in making sales. I pay the owner of the property his full price, free and clear of all expenses and charges.

My method of handling property makes it necessary for me to have the exclusive agency of the property for a specified time so that I may be justified in advertising liberally, printing and mailing descriptions of the property to prospective buyers, and showing same by automobile service.

If you have land for sale, write me full description, stating price, when possession can be had, etc., and if it appears desirable I will promptly make final arrangements for selling.

Your Bond May Bring Him Home in Safety

The supreme tragedies of war are not enacted on the battlefield, but in the home.

Above the shouts of command and encouragement, the roar and shock of the great guns, and all the swelling tumult of battle which bear the husband and father to a hero's grave and a martyr's glory, there rise the weeping of the bereaved wife and the cries of little children deprived of a father's love and care.

American fathers are now on the battlefronts of France. Many must fall; how many depends upon us who remain safely at home.

BARNUM & BAILEY CIRCUS IN WILMINGTON

To Give Performances May 15th

There is to be a real circus day this year—a Barnum & Bailey circus day. Advance guards of the Greatest Show on Earth announce that this season's route carries it close enough to be visited by everybody in this vicinity. Thirty acres of tents will be set, and the big show will be exhibited in Wilmington, on May 13.

A wonderful new program is promised, and it is claimed that this season the monster entertainment has more and better things to show than ever before. Starting with a magnificent pageant entitled, "Aladdin and His Wonderful Lamp," the circus will occupy three hours or more with events in air, on platform, and rings, and in the huge hippodrome surrounding. Not one moment will be lost in all of the spaces of the vast enclosure.

The opening feature is the first attempt at Chinese pageantry in the history of American circuses, and it has been described as the most gorgeous presentation ever attempted. The story of the genie slave of the magic lamp is too well known to need description here. However, it may be well to call attention to the possibilities for display in coloring and magnificent settings in the Chinese locale, and to the fact that Barnum & Bailey have spent $1,000,000 to reproduce all of its glorious possibilities.

The circus program, which follows the pageant, is made up almost entirely of names and acts new to the American public, the cream of all continental circuses having rushed to the big show's European agents for booking on account of the closing of most of the big foreign circuses. This is a complete Chinese circus, replete with thrilling aerial and acrobatic feats; the famous Hanneford family, champion riders of Europe, will display their wonderful skill; Signor Bagonghi, the dwarf bare-back rider, described as the equestrian comic of the century, will thrill and convulse with laughter; Pallenberg's wonderful bears will ride on high bicycles, skate and perform on the trapeze; there will be more clowns than ever before, and in the menagerie will be seen many new specimens of wild and untamed animals. There are a dozen of new baby animals in the great zoo.

There will be more than one hundred acts, and to name and describe them would occupy too much space.

The parade, which is entirely new, will start from the show grounds as nearly 10 o'clock in the morning as possible. It will be three miles in length and there will be six bands, three calliopes and a steam piano to create music for the marching throng.—Adv.

Leaves For Camp Meade

Robert Harrington, an employee of the Continental Fibre Company, left Monday with the draft contingent from Cecil County, for Camp Meade near Baltimore. Mr. Harrington previous to his departure received a number of useful gifts from the faculty of the Women's College, where he was formerly employed; also from Mrs. John Frick. The family wish to extend their appreciation to all these kind friends.

Avoiding the Rush Hours

The railroad engineer lowers grades, straightens curves, cuts through hills and fills valleys to get easier hauls.

If the telephone traffic curve, as shown in the right-hand corner of the illustration, could be flattened by distributing a percentage of calls over less busy periods, it would effect a material saving and assist us in meeting the extraordinary demands for telephone service.

By restricting the use of your telephone around ten o'clock in the morning and three o'clock in the afternoon, you will help us to render better service to all and expedite the service for the Government which in the minds of all of us comes first.

The Blue And Gold In Khaki
Here's to the boys in khaki.
Our lads of the Blue and Gold.
Their valor is ever undying.
Then let it be never untold.

They'll stick to the fight 'till its ended.
Ne'er flinch when it comes to the test;
But on they will march to victory.
On with new courage and zest.

They'll honor our flag, Old Glory,
And fight for liberty.
Side by side with the war worn Allies,
Our Allies across the sea.

Good luck to the boys in khaki.
We know they will always be true
To their sweethearts, their wives, and their mothers,
And the dear old Red, White and Blue.

Society Brand Clothes

Seasonal Clothing

NEVER before have we had a stock of better-tailored Spring suits. These suits bear the SOCIETY BRAND label, the pledge of the makers that guarantees you up-to-the-minute style and tailoring and workmanship of the very best.

The interest of well-dressed men will be centered in such suits because they are so richly expressive of the best in clothescraft.

The Lincoln, is especially desirable for men who prefer clothes cut on conservative lines. This suit has wider shoulders, broader back and is larger in the waist than regular models. The vest and trousers are cut in proportion, larger in waist, and easier throughout.

What is the Liberty Loan?

* It's forts and it's ships and it's shining guns. It's squadrons that sweep the sea. It's all of the circulating band of steel that shall keep all the home shores free. It's grub and it's warmth for the sailor lad, far out on the Wintry foam, for the brave jack tar, as he fights afar, it's the good old "Money from Home."

* It's rifle and helm and it's boyonet. It's shovel and shard and shell, for the soldier boy in the olive drab, out there on the edge of hell. It's the soaring wings of the whirling planes that battle on high alone. For the lad who is daring "Over There" it's the good old "Money from Home."

* It's succor and life for a bleeding world. It's the glimmer of Peace at dawn. It's the strength of a mighty arm to strike. It's the gleam of a great sword, drawn; but, more than all, it's the pledge of love to the lads whom we call "Our Own," to the boys on land, afloat, on high, it's the good old "Money from Home."

SERIOUS CHARGES AT LOCAL TRIAL

Jacob Thomas Fined For Assault And Battery

Considerable local interest centered on Tuesday evening in the trial at the office of Magistrate Lovett, when Jacob Thomas, treasurer of the Jacob Thomas Company, was charged by Morris Offenberger, an employee representing the Prager interest of New York, with assault and battery.

On Monday, Mr. Offenberger maintained, he was attacked by Mr. Thomas and put off the premises. Serious accusations were made on both sides.

Squire Lovett declared that the evidence indicated that Mr. Thomas was the aggressor, and fined him five dollars and costs. Relative to libelous charges, the Squire advised, redress for these can be obtained only through the State courts.

Spends Month In Newark

Dr. Edward N. Vallandigham is spending a month in Newark. On Monday he addressed Delaware College students in chapel, on the War after the War, between Privilege and the Common People.

Liberty Club Visits College

Eight members of the Girls' Liberty Club, of Stanton, accompanied by their leader, Mrs. Dickey, visited the Home Economics department of the Women's College on Tuesday. The girls have signed a pledge to can and preserve during the summer months, and are enthusiastic in their plans for this branch of war work.

Ebenezer To Observe Anniversary

The thirty-third anniversary of the Mite Society of Ebenezer Church will be marked by an entertainment on Thursday, May 23rd. The program for the evening will include readings by an elocutionist, and instrumental and vocal music. In order to co-operate with the U. S. Food Administration, the pies for which the anniversary is famous, will not be served this year. The refreshments will include cake, coffee and ice cream.

Sunday School Buys Bond

The Sunday School at Ott's Chapel, near Iron Hill, voted unanimously at the session last Sunday to purchase a $50 Liberty Bond. This little school is situated in the open country and very little in the public eye. The act on Sunday shows the spirit of the Nation.

GLEE AND MANDOLIN CLUB CONCERT

Large Attendance Desired

On Thursday evening, May 2, a final concert will be given by the college glee and mandolin clubs in Wolf Hall. As this will be the last time this year that we shall be able to hear our favorite musical organizations we should turn out for this concert to a man.

The glee club has been under the training of Mr. G. Leslie Carpenter for the last six months and is moist. Is there any way in which one can gauge the moisture of potatoes?

Ans. The only gauge one may have for the moisture content of the cooked potatoes is one of judgement. If potatoes are used as soon as they are cooked, they will contain more moisture than if they stand until the next day and are then substituted for part of the flour in cakes or muffins. Experience is the only teacher; by the second or third time the recipe is tried, the amount of moisture added may be gauged so the mixture will produce a satisfying product. By baking muffins in small tins they are dried more thoroughly and give a very much more satisfactory product.

2. In eating a great many potatoes, isn't there danger of making the diet starchy?

Ans. The diet will not be too starchy with the increased consumption of potatoes if the amount of bread ordinarily eaten is reduced and if the other foods in the daily meals are right, including some milk, eggs or meat, some fresh vegetables or fruit. One reason for eating more potatoes now is to decrease the consumption of wheat. One medium-sized potato may replace two small slices of wheat bread.

3. Doesn't the large amount of water in potatoes make bread less nutritious than all-wheat bread?

Ans. In making potato bread, the fact that potato is three-quarters water must be considered, otherwise the dough would be entirely too soft. Recipes take account of this by reducing the amount of liquid accordingly, so that the percent of dry material in the dough for wheat flour bread and for potato bread is just about the same. In addition, potatoes afford certain body regulating substances which refined wheat flour does not contain. From an all-around nutritive standpoint the two may be said to be about balanced.

4. Why aren't some of the surplus potatoes shipped abroad?

Ans. The shipping facilities are so limited that it is impossible because of their bulk; also potatoes do not keep so well as the grains. Potatoes are not needed so much for the Allies as wheat, meat and fats. It is our privilege, therefore, to use the potatoes here and release more wheat for the army and the Allies.

THE POTATO A GOOD SOLDIER

Eat It Uniform And All

Some ways to make potatoes save wheat:

POTATO BISCUIT

2 c. sifted flour
1 tsp. salt

3 tsp. baking powder
3 tbsp. shortening
1 c. mashed potato
Liquid sufficient to mix

Sift together twice the flour, salt, and baking powder. Cut or rub into this the cold shortening. In the same way rub into this flour mixture the mashed potato. Finally, add just enough cold liquid to make the mass cling together. Do not knead. Place on floured board, roll until one-half inch thick, and cut into rounds. Place these in lightly floured biscuit tins and bake 15 to 20 minutes in a moderately hot oven. Bake all potato breads more slowly than those made with flour alone.

POTATO-CORNMEAL MUFFINS

1 c. mashed potato
1 c. corn meal
1/2 c. sifted flour
1 tsp. salt
3 tsp. baking powder
1 or 2 tbsp. sirup
2 tbsp. shortening
1 or 2 eggs
Liquid to mix to a medium batter (about 1/2 c.)

Add the corn meal, salt, sirup and 1/2 c. liquid to the hot mashed potato, place in double boiler and steam 10 to 30 minutes. Add the shortening and allow to cool thoroughly. When cold add the well-beaten eggs and the flour which has been sifted with the baking powder. Add just enough more liquid, if necessary, to make a somewhat stiff batter. Beat thoroughly, place in gem pans until half-filled, and bake 25 to 30 minutes in a moderately hot oven.

POTATO-PEANUT LOAF

1 pt. mashed potato
1 c. ground peanuts, or
1/2 c. peanut butter
2 tsp. salt
1/2 tsp. pepper
1/2 c. milk
2 tbsp. fat
2 eggs

Beat the entire mixture together and place in greased baking dish; set in a second pan containing hot water and bake in the oven until firm. Serve with tomato sauce.

POTATO COOKIES

2 c. sifted flour
1/2 tsp. salt
2 tsp. baking powder
3/4 c. brown sugar
3/4 tsp. shortening
1 egg well beaten
1 c. mashed potato

Cream together the butter and sugar. To this add the well-beaten egg and mashed potato (free from all lumps). Beat until smooth, then add the twice-sifted mixture of flour, salt, and baking powder. It will usually not be necessary to add any liquid. Mix until a dough is formed stiff enough to roll. Place on floured board, roll until about 1/8 inch thick, cut into rounds, and place on greased baking sheet. Bake 15 minutes in a moderately hot oven or until a delicate brown. Bake more slowly than ordinary wheat-flour cookies. mims- rO-7etas shr sh n.G shss

You Can't Make an Omelet With- out Breaking Eggs

TO win the war it is unavoidable that the rights of the individual be infringed. It is unavoidable that his personal comfort be temporarily ignored, his personal property temporarily conscripted, his personal fortunes temporarily impaired.

We Must Make Haste We Must Strike Hard

There is no time to weigh too carefully the questions of individual equity. The big job, the one job, is to win the war. There will be plenty of time to talk about it and adjust grievances afterward.

All arguments aside, we've got one big job on at the moment—to
