MOTHER OF FIVE ADMITS SLAYING HUSBAND WITH SHOTGUN HERE

Mrs. Samuel Reed Pleads Self-Defense When Arraigned On Charge of Manslaughter

Mrs. Nora V. Reed, mother of five children, yesterday confessed to slaying her husband by shooting him in the stomach with a shotgun during a fight at their home here Tuesday night. When arraigned before Magistrate Thompson on a charge of manslaughter, she pleaded self-defense, saying the gun was discharged while she was struggling to wrest it from her husband's grasp.

The victim, Samuel Reed, 36 years old, died yesterday morning in the Homeopathic Hospital, Wilmington. A strictly private funeral will be held from the parlors of Ira C. Shellender, 254 Main street, tomorrow at 2:30 p. m. Friends may call at the parlors after 7 o'clock tonight (Thursday).

Albert J. McCreery, deputy coroner, said in Wilmington this afternoon that arrangements have not yet been made for the coroner's inquest, which will be held shortly. Whatever action the coroner's jury may take, however, will not alter the fact that Mrs. Reed will be obliged to face grand jury action.

Meanwhile the five children are remaining in the house where the killing occurred and are under the care of their mother. Immediately after her release under $2000 bail, Mrs. Reed returned to the home. The decision to hold the woman on a charge of manslaughter was made in a conference of Attorney General Satterthwaite and State Police investigating the killing.

The victim's body was found by State Police in an upstairs room. It was partially disrobed and lying in a pool of blood on the floor. When the shooting occurred, Privates Hession and Barnes were called by neighbors. They found the whole house in disorder. Two shots were fired, the first tearing off two of Mr. Reed's fingers and the second going through his stomach. The weapon was a 12-gauge shotgun.

Pending action of the grand jury, State Police are investigating the woman's story that her husband had been drinking and had threatened her.

An autopsy revealed that Reed died from an internal hemorrhage due to a gunshot wound which lacerated the liver, left kidney and vessels.

In addition to his wife and children, the dead man is survived by seven brothers and three sisters, all of Newark.

Constable Bolton Sends SOS for Town Officers

Town police were called to the rescue of Constable William Bolton at 6:30 yesterday morning, during an altercation with Polly Malin, former distinguished citizen of Newark.

The exact nature of the trouble was not accurately determined, but it seems that Mr. Bolton was starting to leave his home for work, when he encountered Mr. Malin on his doorstep. Mr. Malin desired an appointment. Mr. Bolton was adverse to this and called Officers Cunningham and Harrison to emphasize his aversion.

Malin was not found on the premises when the officers arrived.

The disappearance of an 8-year-old school girl here Monday threw Newark into a short-lived kidnapping scare.

The girl, Helen Wideman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Wideman, was found at 10 p. m. at the home of her grandparents, where she had gone. She left school at 3 p. m. and was missing until found that night.

TOWN LIBRARY TO HOLD DANCE

A dance will be held at the Newark New Century Club on October 27th, for the benefit of the Newark Town Library. This library is now a free library and circulates between 1500 and 1800 books a month. The committee would like a good attendance at this dance to help along this good work.

YOUNGSTER HAS NARROW ESCAPE

Gordon S. Cleaves, younger son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry H. Cleaves, of Newark, had a narrow escape from death, on Tuesday. While driving with his father, on the way to Elkton, he opened the door of the car and fell out, landing on his right hip. He struck the back of his head on the cinders, cutting a deep gash in it, and also lacerating his forehead and hip. The wounds were first dressed by Dr. Bates, of Elkton, and later by Dr. Johnson, of Newark, who inoculated him. His condition is good.

New Star Promised by Coaches for Saturday U. of D. Game

Springfield College football team, which will be Delaware's opponent on Frazer Field this Saturday, defeated Alleghany College last Saturday, 25 to 0. The previous Saturday the Springfield was defeated by the strong Brown eleven by the small score of 13 to 7. Last Saturday Brown defeated Yale. This gives some idea of the strength of the Massachusetts team.

The last time Delaware played Springfield was in 1926 when the Blue and Gold defeated them on their own field, 3 to 0.

Coach Rogers feels that Delaware will be in much better shape for a hard battle against Springfield than they were against Rutgers last Saturday, when several players were ineligible under the one year rule agreement.

Owing to the muddy field there was no scrimmage Tuesday afternoon, but Coaches Rogers and Ziegler put the squad through a long drill in perfecting new plays and in working out a defense to stop some of the Springfield plays, yesterday.

The coaches promise to uncover a "dark horse" for the Springfield game, who, although out for practice all season, has not been used in any game to date. He will probably be used in the backfield. Rogers refused to announce who this "dark horse" is today.

While some of the Delaware players were battered in the Rutgers game it is thought every man on the squad with the exception of Allan Kemske, out with a broken ankle bone, will be able to get into the battle. Joe Green, out most of the season, it is said, will be able to play at quarterback.

The game will start at 2:15 o'clock, a large crowd is expected to attend this game.

University of Delaware Football Team To Play Next Two Games Home

University of Delaware football team will play the next two games on Frazer Field and both will be exceptionally hard games. On Saturday of this week Springfield, Mass., Y. M. C. A. College team, which recently held Brown University to a 13 to 6 score, will be Delaware's opponents. On the following Saturday, October 29, Delaware plays Wake Forest College of North Carolina, one of the strongest teams in the South. The games will start at 2:15 o'clock.

Klair for State Senator from the Fourth District, and George Arthur Ginn for State Senator from the Sixth District.

Woodward, eighth; William J. Lovett, ninth; Robert A. Barnes, tenth; George P. Stand; thirteenth; and John E. Latta, fourteenth.

CAST HAS BEEN SELECTED FOR MUSICAL COMEDY "CYNTHIA"

Gene Monahan and Mildred Decamp, Dancers Extraordinary; Ann Ritz, Soloist; Wooden Shoe Chorus; and Marathon Dance to be Features

After very careful consideration, the cast has been selected for the Musical Comedy, "Cynthia," to be staged by the American Legion on Monday and Tuesday, October 24 and 25. Numerous changes have been made in order to bring out the capabilities of the talent.

The story of "Cynthia," as written by Mr. Morgan, is built around "Richard Hamilton," a young author, who is the leading character, portrayed by Bob Strahorn. Bob is Newark's popular radio soloist.

He is besieged by the wiles of a vamping moving picture actress "Gloria Beaumont," played by Mrs. Reese Griffin.

The leading lady "Cynthia," to whom Hamilton is engaged to be married, will be another Newark broadcasting favorite, Alma Cooch.

The first act opens in the lobby of a Palm Beach Hotel where "Upson Downs," the hotel clerk, played by Leslie Pack, opens the foundation of the plot by attempting to call down "Ethelinda Quinn," the telephone operator. Miss Rose Leary, as "Ethelinda," shows you the powers of a hard-boiled hotel telephone operator. Cynthia's mother, "Zenobia Sanderson," who aspires to a title for her daughter, is played ably by Bessie Lockerman. Guy Hancock, as her heckled husband, will be an outstanding character and will keep you roaring.

Jim Hastings, playing "Count Bozema," will be a French villain of questionable traditions and a dominating character, and is assisted by the following bevy of girls—Misses Mary Harmon, Verna Vallance, Myra Hitchens, Evelyn Strode, Hazel Cannon and Alice Sullivan.

"Gloria Beaumont" is attended by a group of movie actors as follows: John Barrymore, Wayne Brewer; Oliver Hardy, Allyn Cooch; H. Robert Woolsey, T. A. Baker; John Gilbert, Lester Scotten; Victor McLaughlan, John Fader; Charles Butterworth, Lee Lewis.

Group of hotel guests will include Mrs. Lee Lewis, Mrs. J. R. Ernest, Mrs. Harry Gabriel, Mrs. Orville Little, Mrs. John Fader, Mrs. Allyn Cooch, Mrs. Fred Strickland, Mrs. J. Harvey Dickey, Miss Mahon, Alex Cobb and Wesley Dempsey.

In the first act, the dancing chorus of bellboys and maids will be made up of Louise Dameron, Doris Smith, Pauline Duhaddaway, Margaret Grier, Roslyn Ernest, Marilee Kennard, Ethel Hauber, Myra Smith, Harry Williamson, Jim Smith, Bayard Perry, James Collins, Hill Billie, Henrie Woolen, Tom Cooch and Jack Collins.

In the second act, Mickey Mouse Comedy will include Conrad Lewis, Fred Strickland, Frank Baling, Donald Kee, Charles Schofield and Larry Brown.

Ethel Hauber and Doris Smith will appear in solo dances.

Ann Ritz with her pleasing voice will appear in novel interpretations.

There is also in this act Harry Williamson dancing with a chorus of cabaret girls, composed of Louise Dameron, Doris Smith, Myra Smith, Margaret Grier, Roslyn Ernest, Pauline Duhaddaway, Ethel Hauber and Jean Barnes.

The Marathon Dance will be under supervision of Master of Ceremonies, J. R. Fader, assisted by Dick Sheaffer, trainer, Mrs. Edna Dickey, nurse, and Arthur Hauber as judge of the contest. The contestants will be: Texaas Dina, Dixie Twilight, Gertie Gumshoe, Winnie Lightning, Shorty Stubs, Val Halla, Fatty Turnbuckle, Rip Van Sprinkle.

This will be a riot of fun and will include grind to the finish, cup being awarded to the winning couple.

The Wooden Shoe Chorus will include: Doris Sheaffer, Evelyn Smith, Dorothy Fell, Lois May Tomhave, Jane Hastings, Molly Dill, Alice Lindell, Marie Dailey, Margaret Moore, Elizabeth Aiken, Dorothy Powell, Margaret Myers.

Newark Young Lady Sails for England

Miss Lucy Danby, of this place, left here yesterday morning for New York City, from which place she will sail at 5 o'clock tomorrow afternoon on the "Britania" of the White Star Line, for Liverpool, England. While in England Miss Danby will visit her grandmother, Mrs. G. S. Pattison, at Yarm-on-Tees, Yorkshire, and also her grandfather Danby at the same place. Miss Danby will be gone for an indefinite time, but will probably return early next spring. Her father, Mr. George Danby, went to New York to see her off.

Miss Danby, who is a graduate of the Newark High School, was given a farewell dinner at the home of her uncle, John Danby, at Richardson Park Saturday evening. On Monday evening some of her Newark friends gave her a farewell shower at the home of her father at Bear.

LARGE CROWD SEES MILLION DOLLAR LEGS AT STATE THEATRE

One of the largest crowds ever to attend the State Theatre saw "Million Dollar Legs" played Monday and Tuesday evening. Long before the second show started people were standing five or six deep in the theatre.

The State Theatre has always shown the best in moving pictures and in the coming attractions will be "Blessed Event," "Back Street," "Lady and Gent," all of which are drawing big crowds in Philadelphia and New York.

INSTALLATION OF STATE OFFICERS OF AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY TODAY

Due to economic conditions the usual open installation of officers of the American Legion Auxiliaries was abandoned this year. Mrs. Erlich, State president, is having a luncheon today at the Briar Tea Room, Dover, following which the State officers will be installed at her home. Mrs. Orville Little and Mrs. Conrad Lewis will be among those installed. Mrs. Lewis as first vice-president and Mrs. Little as chairman of War Orphan Education.

STATE EDUCATION ASSOCIATION TRANSACTS BUSINESS IN NEWARK

"JIM" BARNES' CAR DAMAGED IN COLLISION

While "Jim" M. Barnes' car was parked on S. College avenue on Monday evening it was struck by another car, damaging the rear fender, blowing out a rear tire and bending a back wheel.

It is understood that Mr. Barnes knows the party who crashed into his car, and he is giving them an opportunity to appear voluntarily to pay the damages. The law in Delaware is very strict on leaving the scene of an accident without reporting same.

HEAD OF CHRISTIANA

Address Delivered Oct. 9, 1932, by Rev. Henry G. Welton

Text: "Remember the Days of Old, Consider the Years of Many Generations."—Deut. 32:7

Special to The Newark Post.

We are met here today to "Remember the days of old" and "to consider the years of many generations." As we seek to call to remembrance all the way the Lord has lead us, we are mindful of His mercies and blessings, and in spite of the trials which He has seen fit to give us, we are indeed thankful that we can set up a memorial to the God of our Salvation and ascribe on it, "Hitherto the Lord hath us." In thus recording His loving kindness to us may our faith be strengthened, our hope revived, and our zeal inspired; so that we may fearlessly defend those doctrines of His word which He has so wonderfully blessed in the past, and in mercy has handed down to us. In the words of the Psalmist, "That which we have heard and known, and our fathers have told us, We will not hide them from their children, . . . That they might set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God, but keep his commandments."

The Meaning of the Name "Head of Christiana"

To a stranger the name of this church is peculiar and unusual. When I came to this community, one of the first things I asked about was the meaning of this name—Head of Christiana. As many of you know this church was named Head of Christiana because it was built near the head of Christiana Creek. The explanation of the name Christiana takes us across the waters to the Old World and to the land of Sweden. We are told, "When the Swedes came up the Delaware River in 1638 they came to the Minquias Creek which they name Christiana Creek" (W. A. Powell, A History of Delaware, p. 47.) after their little queen Christina who was about twelve years old. Later generations have corrupted this name to Christiana. Just how this came about I do not know, but it is an interesting fact that Christiana is the feminine form in the Greek for Christian. Our church then takes its name not only because it is near the source of a creek which was named for a little Swedish queen, but from the beginnings of Christianity itself. Evidently that Swedish infant was named for the followers of Christ—Christina, the word Christ or Christian being the root. We might therefore trace the name of this church back to the time when the disciples of Christ "were first called Christians in Antioch." From Antioch to Sweden, from Sweden to the Christiana Creek comes the name of this church. Thus as we "remember the days" and see the heritage which we have received from "the years of many generations" of the past, we should lift up our voices in praise to Him for the gospel that has been carried down to us, and for the name we bear—Head of Christiana.

A History of Head of Christiana

The history of the founding of this church is very meagre indeed. The program which was printed at the two hundredth anniversary of the organization of the church, held on June 20th, 1907, states, "As early as 1703 reference is found of services in this community, and the society was of sufficient strength to formally request Presbytery to secure for them regular services." It is from the date 1707 that we date our anniversary services. The first reference in the minutes of Philadelphia Presbytery (the first and only Presbytery at that time) is at a meeting held in Philadelphia, May 18, 1708. It reads, "This day was read before Presbytery a letter sent by the people of and about White Clay Creek in New Castle County importing their desire and petition to the Presbytery to have the ordinances of the gospel administered with more convenience and nearness to the place of their abode, for the greater advantage and ease to their several families, promising, withal, due encouragement to the minister that shall be appointed them." Dr. Vallandigham tells us in his historical discourse delivered here July 2nd, 1876, "by the people of and about White Clay Creek" we understand the people of White Clay Creek Hundred, and the people living in parts of Cecil County, Md., and Chester County, Pa." This application to Presbytery was opposed by the people of New Castle (the place where the founders of this church had been worshipping) on the ground that it would weaken their church. Presbytery refused to allow these people a separate organization but directed Rev. John Wilson, the pastor of New Castle Church, to give one half of his time to them. It is probable that Mr. Wilson did preach here on every alternate Sabbath until death in 1712.

The first pastor of this church was the Rev. George Gillespie. Let me say here it is not my purpose to speak at great length concerning the lives of the honored ministers of this church. One of the ministers of this locality who has spent much time in the study of the histories of old churches in this section, has told me too many of these histories deal almost entirely with their ministers and hardly anything is mentioned about the members. I shall try to profit by this comment. Mr. Gillespie was born in Glasgow, Scotland, in 1683, and was educated in the University of that city. He was licensed to preach by the Presbytery of Glasgow in 1711 and in the spring of 1712 came to this country. For awhile he labored in Woodbridge, N. J. In the winter or spring of 1713 he received a call from this church and was installed and ordained here on May 27, 1713. "Mr. Gillespie was a man of firm and decided character and an advocate of sound doctrine, strict government and rigid discipline. . . . Yet he was not a contentious man, but on the contrary, at a time of great strife and confusion in the church, he was one of those who earnestly sought the peace as well as the purity of Zion." (Vallandigham.)

In 1717 Philadelphia Presbytery became too large and was divided into three Presbyteries, of which New Castle Presbytery was one. Mr. Gillespie was one of the original members of this reorganization and the elder that represented this church was John Steel. In the minutes of New Castle Presbytery for 1718 we see the names of two other elders, Alexander White and John Gardner. The name of the latter is to be found on the roll of Philadelphia Presbytery as early as 1707 and was an elder in New Castle. (Vallandigham, Historical Discourse, p. 21.)

Dr. Vallandigham says from certain documents he learned that on March 5th, 1732, two acres and four perches were leased by James Steel to the elders of this church, who were Samuel Johnson and John Cross of New Castle County, Alexander White and William Semple of Chester County, and David Alexander and Andrew Wallace of Cecil County. The consideration was the annual payment of six pence if demanded.

It is of interest at this point to link up the present membership with these early founders of the church. Mary Alexander was the daughter of one of the Alexanders of New Minster who helped found Head of Christiana. Very evidently he was David Alexander mentioned above. Mary Alexander married John Evans. One of their daughters was Sarah Evans who married Robert Gallaher. Two of their children were John and Margaret Gallaher. Margaret married Joseph Steele, they were the parents of Mrs. Howard Scott who is a member of this church, and her daughters, Mrs. Bouchelle, Mrs. Murray and Misses Emily and Isabel Scott are also members. One of the sons of Mrs. Samuel Murray who is a member is the youngest of this line whose membership is traced from the founding of the church. John Gallaher married Annie Chandler. They were the parents of Mrs. Sarah T. Kimble whose daughters, the Misses Ida and Evelyn Kimble, are also members. The following ancestors of these two families are buried in Head of Christiana Cemetery. Mary Alexander Evans, and John Evans; Sarah Evans Gallaher, and Robert Gallaher; Margaret Gallaher Steele, Sarah Teresa Kimble and John H. Kimble. Mrs. Fred B. Martenis is another member whose ancestors go back to the founding of the church, as she is a direct descendant of Andrew Wallace.

Before the time of this lease of 1732 there was a house of worship here. Dr. Vallandigham says, "probably as early as 1708," and, "Reference is made to it in this lease, and mention is also made of the intention of the congregation to erect a new house of worship." This first meeting house was a log building and stood in that part of the graveyard where the remains of the first minister of the church rest. Dr. Vallandigham says further, "The second building which was of brick, and which most of you no doubt well recollect was erected in 1750." In the Synod meeting at Philadelphia on May 24, 1751, it was, "ordered to allow Mr. Gillespie five pounds out of the fund for building his meeting house." Mr. Gillespie frequently brought collections from this church to the Synod, which was used for the building up of the Church at large.

Mr. Gillespie labored here diligently, faithfully, and successfully until his death on January 2nd, 1760. This was the only church of which he was pastor and he was here for forty-seven years. For some nine years after his death the church was vacant and depended on Presbytery for supplies.

The second pastor was the Rev. John McCrery. The time and place of his birth was not ascertained by Dr. Vallandigham. Mr. McCrery graduated from Princeton College and for several years preached in this locality, then in 1769 he accepted the calls of Head of Christiana and White Clay Creek, and was installed and ordained. There is not much known about this minister. He was nominated for Moderator of the General Assembly in 1791. He married a descendant of Andrew Wallace and was the pastor here during the Revolutionary War. His people and he were warm friends of Independence. "Some of them served in the army during the whole of the war, others fell in the field of battle." Mr. McCrery was pastor here for thirty-one years and died June 18, 1800. After his death the church was again vacant for some eleven or twelve years. The Rev. John Vaughn who was Principal of Newark Academy, supplied here for a time.

Dr. Vallandigham tells us that, "On the 20th of September, 1806, another lease was made of one acre, two roods, and nine perches, by Allen Steel and Ruth his wife, and James Steel and Ann, his wife to William Price of Chester County, Pa.; George Gillespie, Obediah Sergeant, John Macheth and William Anderson, of New Castle County, Delaware; and John R. Evans, of Cecil County, Md., Trustees of this church. The lease was for nine hundred and ninety-nine years; the consideration, six cents annually, if demanded. This comprises all the ground belonging to this church, with the exception of two small parcels recently purchased from Thomas Steel, the one designed for the erection of sheds, and the other for the enlargement of the Cemetery."

The third pastor was Rev. Andrew Kerr Russell. His mother was a daughter of Andrew Kerr, of Newark. This pastor graduated from Dickinson College with first honors. For awhile he taught languages at Washington College. In 1811 he came to Newark to take charge of the Academy. Having accepted the call of Head of Christiana and White Clay Creek he was installed and ordained in 1812. The call was made out with the salary of $550 a year. For twenty-seven years, until his death he preached in these two churches and was principal of the Academy. It was through his instrumentality that the First Presbyterian Church of Newark was organized and its first edifice erected.

A revival occurred in this church in 1831 which resulted in a large increase in membership. At the time of the death of Mr. Russell the membership of the churches was nearly quadrupled.

The sessional records of this church for nearly a hundred and twenty years are lost which is indeed a great loss to us. We are fortunate, however, in having the second volume of the sessional records which begins in 1839. The first record is, "The Rev. Andrew Kerr Russell, Pastor of the United Churches of Head of Christiana and White Clay Creek; departed this life on the 6th day of February, 1839, in the 59th year of his age and the 27th of his ministry."

The first recorded meeting follows next, "May 25th, 1839, Head of Christiana Church. Session met according to appointment and was opened with prayer by the Moderator."

Rev. Joseph Barr (supply from Presbytery being moderator, James Craford, Joseph Alexander, James Phillips and John Whann present, John Jordan being absent. Miss Martha Ann Mote appeared before session as a Candidate for the ordinance of the Lord's Supper, upon examination as to her knowledge of the design and nature of the ordinance and her Christian experience she was cordially received into Christian fellowship with this Church.—concluded with prayer."

For about four years after the decease of Mr. Russell, the church was without a pastor, but supplies were sent here from Presbytery.

The Rev. Elijah Wilson was the fourth pastor of this Church. While studying in Rutgers College, N. J., he became totally blind. In 1842 he was ordained and installed pastor of Head of Christiana and Newark. In that year he married a daughter of Mr. Andrew Gray. In 1845 he assumed the supervision of a Female Seminary in Newark, but this with the church work was too great. He resigned from the pastorate of the churches in 1846. During his pastorate in 1844 the following men were elected elders: James Mote, Thomas Garrett, John McLaughlin, George Johnston, Samuel Johnston, Joseph Whann, and Jones Matthias.

The next pastor was the Rev. Joseph Barr, who was installed here in 1848. Mr. Barr was born near New Castle and graduated from the University of Pennsylvania. To this church and to White Clay Creek he ministered for about five years. In 1853,

SCHOLASTIC STANDING OF STUDENTS IN DELAWARE COLLEGE, 2ND TERM

Dean G. J. Patton has announced the scholastic standing of students of Delaware College for the second term of the college year of 1931-1932. The index numbers of 1931-1932 have the following significance: the number 3 denotes an average of A (the highest possible average); the number 2 denotes an average of B; the number 1 denotes an average of C.

The average scholastic standing of the entire student body of Delaware College for the second term was 1.16. The average for students from Delaware was 1.15; the average for out-of-state students was 1.15. Sixty-nine students earned an average grade of B or better, and were consequently placed on the Honor Roll for the term. These students came from the following high schools and preparatory schools: Wilmington, 33; Salesianum, 5; Wesley Collegiate Institute, 3; Friends, 2; Milford, 2; Newark, 2; New Castle, 2; Caesar Rodney, 1; Delmar, 1; Dover, 1; Georgetown, 1; Middletown, 1; out-of-State, 15. Of these students thirty-five were in the School of Arts and Science; thirty-one were in the School of Engineering; and three were in the School of Agriculture. Twenty-three were Seniors; twenty-two were Juniors; sixteen were Sophomores; eight were Freshmen. Sixteen per cent of the entire student body were on the Honor Roll. Of the students who entered college from Delaware high school and preparatory schools, sixteen per cent were on this roll.

In this Honor Roll were graduates of twelve high schools and preparatory schools of the State. In the following table the figures not in parentheses indicate the number of students from each school who were in college here, and the figures in parentheses indicate the percentage of the total number of students from each school who were on the Honor Roll.

Delmar	1	(100%)
Milford	2	(100%)
New Castle	5	(40%)
Wesley Col. Inst.	8	(38%)
Middletown	4	(25%)
Salesianum	20	(25%)
Caesar Rodney	5	(20%)
Friends	10	(20%)
Georgetown	5	(20%)
Wilmington	183	(18%)
Dover	9	(11%)
Newark	20	(10%)

Fourteen other high schools and preparatory schools of the state were represented by students in the college but not on the Honor Roll.

Note: Students who were graduated from a four-year high school and attended another preparatory school for one year before entering the University of Delaware are classified as representing the school from which they were first graduated.

The following named students were on the Honor Roll:

Sound Farm Relief

"With the collapse in world prices and depreciated currencies the farmer was never so dependent upon his tariff protection for recovery as he is at the present time. We shall hold to that. We have enacted many measures of emergency relief to agriculture. They are having effect. I shall keep them functioning until the strain is passed. The original purpose of the Farm Board was to strengthen the efforts of the farmer to establish his own farmer-owned, farmer-controlled marketing agencies. It has greatly succeeded in this purpose, even in these times of adversity. The departure of the Farm Board from its original purpose by making loans to farmers' co-operatives to preserve prices from panic served the emergency, but such action in normal times is absolutely destructive to the farmers' interests.

"We still have vast problems to solve in agriculture. No power on earth can restore prices except by restoration of general recovery and markets. Every measure we have taken looking to general recovery is of benefit to the farmer. There is no relief to the farmer by extending government bureaucracy to control his production and thus curtail his liberties, nor by subsidies that bring only more bureaucracy and ultimate collapse. I shall oppose them.

"The most practicable relief to the farmer today aside from the general economic recovery is a definite program of readjustment and coordination of National, State and local taxation which will relieve real property, especially the farms, from unfair burdens of taxation which the current readjustment in values has brought about. To that purpose I propose to devote myself."

From the President's Speech of Acceptance.

Talking about leadership, Speaker Garner indubitably displayed it when he forced through a Democratic House of Representatives a pork barrel bill so rank that he himself now admits it was drawn hastily and carelessly and would not be made a Democratic issue in this campaign. It was leadership, all right. But does the country want to put that sort of leadership in complete control of the Government?

3,000,000 FAMILIES HELPED BY RED CROSS

Distress in All Areas Met by Giving Food, Clothing and Other Aid.

More than 3,000,000 families throughout the nation were given relief of various types by the American Red Cross in the past winter, to aid them in their distresses caused by unemployment, disaster or other misfortunes.

A major relief task, due to unemployment and other unusual conditions in the bituminous mining counties in twenty states, was met by the Red Cross chapters alone, or participating with other agencies. In these 143 counties, the Red Cross aided 90,000 families through giving groceries, school lunches, clothing, flour and other necessities to combat privation.

Flour, milled from government wheat turned over to the Red Cross by Congress, was given to 15,000,000 persons in the period from March 8 to June 30, the close of the fiscal year. Flour will continue to be given through the winter of 1932-33, and Red Cross chapters also will give cotton clothing, made from government cotton turned over to the Red Cross for distribution.

"The Red Cross faces the busiest winter since the days of the World War," Chairman John Barton Payne said. "It is organized in virtually every one of the 3,072 counties in the United States, and will co-operate with all agencies to meet distress wherever found. The flour has proved of great benefit, and the cotton clothing will be given wide distribution."

While carrying on nation-wide these unemployment and other relief measures, the Red Cross also was engaged in its regular peace-time activities in public health nursing, service to ex-service men and their families, teaching home hygiene, life saving and first aid. The Junior Red Cross, composed of almost 7,000,000 school children, also rallied to the support of the society's relief efforts, and the children aided others of their age in practical ways, formed sewing and food canning classes, and were of great assistance in chapter relief work.

While the wheat and cotton were given by the U. S. Government, no money was provided to pay for the necessary work entailed. The Red Cross will meet this expense of almost $500,000 from its treasury. Citizens can aid by joining as members of the local Red Cross chapter during the roll call from Armistice Day to Thanksgiving Day.

Wider Insect Control

Timber Conservation Board Report Points to Great Need of Pest Work in Forests

Control of injurious insect and disease infestations falls far short of the needs of forest protection, says the report of the U. S. Timber Conservation Board. This is in part due to a general lack of public appreciation of the importance of the problem, in part to the unwillingness of many private owners to spend money on prevention of damage, and in part to deficient public appropriations.

The most urgent need is to place the work of control on a much larger basis. Heretofore there has not been sufficient prevention work. Infestations are apt to reach dangerous proportions before the Government is prepared to cope with them. Delays or failure in securing appropriations from Congress have accentuated the difficulties and cost of suppression of infestations.

This phase of the forest problem is one of the most important, says Charles Lathrop Pack, president of the American Tree Association which has published the Board's report.

"In Nature a constant battle goes on for existence, and nothing in her scheme of things has a harder battle than the trees," Pack says. "Nature provides some trees with greater powers of resistance than others, but there are 200,000 known kinds of tree-attacking insects, and there attacks upon the trees are going on all the time. It is estimated that these little things cause a loss of one hundred millions of dollars every year."

"Some experts are of the opinion that the loss due to the ravages of insects is far greater than losses due to forest fires. An offensive must be aimed at the pine beetle, borers, timber worms, and various kinds of moths and flies that leaves eggs on the leaves. These hatch and in their battle for existence the insects destroy the trees. Bark beetles have made great inroads on the spruce in the Adirondacks. The larch has become a victim of the saw-fly worm. The pine beetle, for its inroads in Rocky Mountain and western forests, stands well at the top of this forest black-list."

MILES OF TREE PLANTING

A mile of trees to commemorate the Washington bicentennial year is one of the forms tree planting in Connecticut has taken. Robert M. Ross of the Connecticut Forest and Park Association has just registered the tree planters on the national honor roll of the American Tree Association in Washington. Among those on the list are Mr. and Mrs. Herbert L. Satterlee, Mrs. A. E. Roosevelt, Mrs. Irving Fisher, Horace D. Taft, the Norwich College Club, Norwalk Garden Club, the Litchfield School,

A Call to Action In the Spirit of 1776

Use the Ballot instead of the musket to return self-government to the States.

The country and this State need the vote of every woman who can see straight and think straight about the present evils under Prohibition. These evils reach into every part of our life. They reach especially into the conduct of government.

How can we trust candidates to legislate wisely and honestly upon other issues if they will not speak plainly and deal straightforwardly upon the demand of the people to be allowed to vote "Yes" or "No" as to whether Federal Prohibition shall continue.

Women can be independent politically. They are not tied by the party habit and the business associations which often control men.

Women can strike with the vote for their homes and children and better conditions, irrespective of party.

But you cannot use your ballot in the spirit of 1776 and in the grave need of the present year if you do not register.

There is one day left—SATURDAY, OCTOBER 22nd—to be registered and ready to vote for a candidate for Congress who will act to give the people in the states a voice in whether Prohibition shall continue.

And to vote for legislators who believe in this same definite action.

The Delaware Women's Organization for National Prohibition Reform is leaving its members to their own choice for President of the United States if they cannot join THE MAJORITY SENTIMENT OF OUR EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE FOR VOTING THE NATIONAL DEMOCRATIC TICKET—

But we are a unit in urging that women support within the State the candidate for Congress and the legislators who stand definitely and without evasion upon the right of the people to vote upon a resolution of Congress for straight repeal—

And who do not attempt to fool the people by talking about "Resubmission" without saying whether they mean straight repeal or some modification which will keep up the present Federal interference with what is our business as a State—

To control the liquor traffic as it should be controlled in the interests of temperance and decency.

BEFORE ELECTION DAY YOU WILL KNOW THE STRADDLERS FROM THE PLAIN SPEAKERS. IF YOU DO NOT WE CAN TELL YOU.

If not already registered, please register Saturday, October 22nd, 8 to 12 and 1 to 7.

Newark Remembered In Miss Hurd's Will

Special to The Newark Post.

Under the will of Miss Frances B. Hurd, long a resident of Newark and who died on June 27 last; several legacies of general interest were made: To New Century Club of Newark she gave $500, of which $200 is to be expended for the Town Library and $300 applied to the debt, if there be any, on the club house. Other gifts were given expressly in memory of her cousin, Walter C. Curtis, and to carry out his wishes, viz: To University of Delaware $3000, to be added to the Students' Loan Fund for students of both colleges, and also $1500 for the purchase of books for the library of the University in memory of Solomon Minot Curtis "who for many years served as one of the Trustees of Delaware College"; to Homeopathic Hospital and Delaware Hospital each $1500, and the same sum for the benefit of Hope Farm, and $2000 to St. Michael's Home for Babies. A gift of $2000 was made to the Trustees of the P. E. Church of the Diocese of Delaware, in trust for St. Thomas' Church, Newark, part of the income to be used for the altar service.

Miss Hurd, a native of Massachusetts, has lived in Newark for a long time and has been an active worker in the Church, the Century Club and other activities of the town.

PEOPLE'S COLUMN

WHO'S TO PAY THE DAMAGES

Editor of The Post:

As a resident of the southern section of Newark, may I ask a question concerning what can be done about certain conditions affecting children going to school from this section. As all know, the children must naturally use the section of Academy street along the University property, where there is neither sidewalk nor paved roadway. Many of the children have had the unpleasant experience this week of being splashed with sticky, gummy, black mud by passing automobiles, while on their way to and from school. This has caused considerable real damage to their clothing and will cost their parents quite a sum of money. To collect for the damage done, whom should the parents see, the State authorities, who fail to pay any attention to requests for a decent sidewalk, or the Town of Newark, or should the "kids" get the number of the autoists, and try to collect from them. Who knows?

I. M. ASKIN.

To Organize Protective Association at Dover

Special to The Newark Post.

A group of sportsmen has decided to call a meeting of all interested to form a Game and Fish Protective Association. This meeting will be held in the State House at Dover, on Tuesday, October 25th, at 8:00 p. m. The object of the organization is to protect and preserve the game and fish in Delaware, to assist in other States when practicable, and to promote the enactment of and vigorous enforcement of such laws as may be necessary and desirable.

Anyone over 18 years of age would be eligible to membership, and membership would carry the obligation to obey the letter and spirit of all game and fish laws and to encourage by personal conduct and influence a public regard for practical and desirable game and fish protection. The membership fee would be one dollar each year.

The Association would be directed by a President, two Vice-Presidents, Secretary, Treasurer, and an Executive Committee consisting of nine members, three from each county, one of whom would be the President of the Association.

An annual meeting would be held in October of each year, said meetings to be in Dover. Special meetings could be called on due notice.

All sincerely interested sportsmen are urgently requested to attend the meeting on October 25th.

TWO CHAIN STORES ROBBED IN CHESAPEAKE

Search is being conducted for two men who early yesterday morning broke into an A. and P. Store and an American Store at Chesapeake City, Md., a block apart, and took from them cigarettes and food.

From the A. and P. Store they took cigarettes valued at $15 and from the American Store, sugar, eggs and several hams. Ninety dozen eggs were in the haul. They broke a glass window in the former place and took the cigarettes by reaching through the broken glass.

The robberies occurred shortly after 2 a. m. A passerby said he saw two men in an automobile in the neighborhood about that time. The robberies are being investigated by the sheriff.

R. W. Heim Addressed Y Women's Club Mon.

An address was given by Professor R. W. Heim, director of vocational guidance at the University of Delaware, before the Y Women's Club at the Wilmington Y. W. C. A. Monday night. Questions and discussion of vocational adjustment as applied to business girls followed the talk.

Mrs. David I. Brown, chairman for the program, introduced Professor Heim. The business session was conducted by Miss Helen M. Scott, president. Hostesses for the supper were Miss Myrtle Hoover, Miss Mildred Geiger and Miss Lydia Streed.

PREVENT FOREST FIRES!

The forest fire season is at hand again, and a little bulletin from the American Tree Association points out that the danger this year is especially acute on account of the unemployment situation.

Strange as it may seem, there are innumerable cases being recorded in which jobless men purposely started forest fires—because, when such fires occur, the unemployed usually get a few days' work fighting them. The smallest state in the union, Rhode Island, has already had 321 forest fires this year, and authorities state that many of them were undoubtedly of incendiary origin. What the situation must be in the heavily timbered western states is obvious.

The American Tree Association remarks that large grants of federal funds to the states for the purpose of hiring men to fight forest fires may only make a bad situation worse. It suggests that the money be spent instead on preventive measures, to keep the fires from getting started in the first place—and the suggestion looks like a good one.

Says Coolidge Speech To Re-Elect Hoover

Senator Felix Hebert, of Rhode Island, eastern Republican campaign manager, predicted in a statement last week, that former President Calvin Coolidge's speech in Madison Square Garden "will re-elect President Hoover."

"There has been so much quackery in this campaign," he said in support of his prediction, "that it needed a former president to bring us to our senses."

"Mr. Coolidge completely demolished the vague proposals of the Democratic party for a tariff which would be destructive to American labor."

POULTRY AND OYSTER SUPPER

The public is invited to attend the Poultry and Oyster Supper at Red Lion M. E. Church, Red Lion, Del., on Wednesday evening, October 26. Supper is served from 5 o'clock to 9.

PLANT YOUR TREE NOW

The program of the American Tree Association for living monuments to the memory of George Washington is the bicentennial of his birth in 1732 is a movement which should have the heartiest cooperation of everybody. John L. Southwick in the Burlington Free Press and Times has pointed out that many Americans do not appreciate the many values of forests as it is understood in the Old World. Over there they are not only adjuncts of beauty but the great municipal forests offer great natural resources in wood fuel. You can't have a forest, perhaps but how about starting one tree or perhaps two trees in your own yard right now? — Poughkeepsie Courier.

Why Doesn't He Speak Out?

A contributor to a daily newspaper, signing himself "Democrat," commenting upon "the frenzied attacks" that have been made upon President Hoover in connection with the bonus riots in Washington, writes:

I do not believe this reckless picturing of our President as cold-blooded and bloody-minded has the approval of Candidate Roosevelt, and I should not be surprised if he would publicly disown it.

But Candidate Roosevelt has NOT disowned it, although he knows the shameful story is being blazoned about over the country for his direct benefit, to win votes for him. Mr. Roosevelt takes occasion in nearly every speech he makes to vaunt his virtue as a man of candor, sincerity and courage. He is going to be frank with the people, he says again and again. He is going to tell the truth though the heavens fall. He is going to make his position clear on every issue. And yet when newspaper reporters ask him flatly whether he is for immediate payment of the bonus or against it, he shakes his head. He will not answer. And when men friendly but loving fair play, hint that he should "publicly disown" his sympathy with a shameful attack that is being made upon the President of the United States in his interest, he has nothing to say.

In his home state where his record is known, Gov. Roosevelt has the reputation of being in politics a shifty opportunist, lacking not only in sincerity but in sportsmanship. This reputation is rapidly becoming nation-wide.

J. Harvey Dickey Elected President of Atlas Globe Club in Wilmington

J. Harvey Dickey, of this town, was elected president of the Atlas Globe Club at a meeting in the du Pont Biltmore, Wilmington, Tuesday. The meeting was attended by Coach Charley Rogers of the University of Delaware, and Gerald P. Doherty, graduate manager of athletics.

J. HARVEY DICKEY

The principal address was given by Bill Cromwell, member of the National Football Rules Committee, who pulled the "unforgivable" blunder before 50,000 witnesses last Saturday at the Penn-Dartmouth game in Philadelphia, when he blew the referee's whistle at the wrong time, costing the Penn eleven a touchdown.

In discussing this, Cromwell said he offered no excuse for his mistake, which he admitted freely. "The whistle was blown," he said, "and by me. Why, I can't explain. It cost Penn a touchdown and me a great deal of embarrassment, but inadvertently as it was, it just happened, and I'll have to live it down."

Mr. Cromwell also discussed the changes in the rules and the situation in the football world occasioned by the threat of more than 100 colleges to drop football, if the danger from injuries is not lessened by official action.

Millions of Trees Now Mark Washington's Bicentennial

With the flashing of thousands of spades the Tree Planting Army is on the march during the tree planting season of the George Washington Bicentennial Year. Directing the attention of the American people to the importance of forest protection and reforestation, the planting of living trees as memorials to the Father of His Country has doubled the goal of ten million trees that was set.

When the idea was first suggested by the American Tree Association more than one year and one half ago, the response was immediate. The thought of creating a living memorial that would continue to carry its message after the din of parades and the echoes of speeches had died away appealed to individuals and groups alike. It offered opportunity for community effort; for roadside improvement; for beautification; for the creation of school, farm and civic forests—all dedicated to Washington.

Still the planting goes on. Registrations will be added to this number all during the 1932 bicentennial year, and certificates will be issued to tree planters who plant and dedicate memorials during any month of this year. Final tabulation of the grand total of plantings will not be completed until the year 1932 has passed into history. The National Honor Roll is still open for the inscribing of additional names.

One of the outstanding features of the bicentennial tree planting has been the response from schools. Thousands of school grounds have been beautified and thousands more school children have had the opportunity to realize the need and value of planting trees.

A study of the registrations is fascinating. From planting of individual trees, programs range upward to the planting of 640 acres as a memorial forest by the Wisconsin Federation of Women's Clubs. The program has, indeed, contributed greatly to making both the present and coming generations forestry-minded.

Governors of several states issued Arbor Day proclamations specially calling attention to the bicentennial tree planting campaign and its educational value. From the offices of the American Tree Association have gone forth millions of pieces of printed matter carrying suggestion and inspiration to women's clubs, schools, civic organizations, parent-teacher groups, Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs, Masonic organizations and many others. The message has been carried throughout the far-flung national organizations of both the General Federation of Women's Clubs and the Daughters of the American Revolution.

Quick to see the value of the plan, the editors of the country have supported it generously in news and editorial columns. Knowing that the American Tree Association is dedicated to constructive education only, and that membership is free to any one who plants a tree, the endorsement of the editors of the country has been unstinted.

It would require a large volume to list those on the National Honor Roll, but the records reveal many interesting and significant tree plantings. There are the registrations from the pupils of several Indian schools; from a school for the blind in Indianapolis. There is the name of the boy who was lifted from a wheel chair that he might throw a spadeful of earth upon the roots of his George Washington tree. There is the tree planting in Washington, D. C., on April 12 for a baby born Feb. 22, 1932, with the baby present at the planting. There is the tremendous community effort of Berks County, Pennsylvania, where nearly two million trees were planted, and the program in Dayton, Ohio, schools where 53,000 planters were registered. Behind all these there is a spirit and a vision. It is the same inspiration that made the forest ranger in the Philippines bring a little tree down from a mountain top and plant it at his ranger station, as a memorial to Washington.

An avenue of bicentennial trees leads to the Akron, Ohio, airport. Thousands, in the coming years, will see the fine grove of trees planted by the District of Columbia D. A. R. on Hains Point. More thousands will see the memorial beech planted at the approach to the Arlington Memorial Bridge by the National Society Daughters of Founders and Patriots of America. Also in the National Capital will stand the American Elm planted on the campus of American University by the National Society of New England Women.

In years to come trees planted in memory of George Washington will be found the length and breadth of our country. Appropriate markers are being placed in many cases. So, when the last tree is planted, the Tree Planting Army will have erected a memorial that is one of the greatest that the world has ever known. And they have dedicated it to a man who both loved and appreciated trees and have given this memorial to a nation that must have concern for its trees and its forests today and for many tomorrows.

HOW TO ROAST MEAT AT A CAMPFIRE

Roasting meat at a campfire is an art well worth the learning, according to Dan Beard, National Scout Commissioner. The cardinal rule to remember, he says, is: "Do not try to cook meat over the fire, for you will only smoke it up and scorch the outside."

The proper procedure is to build a high semi-circular fire, and hang the meat, chicken or game over a skillet or dripping pan so placed that the meat can cook by reflected heat in front of the fire. "Suspend the meat by a piece of wire if such a thing is to be had," says Dan Beard; "if it is not, soak a bit of string until it is thoroughly wet. With it attach the meat to the end of a long wand, which is stuck into the ground away from the fire. Twist the meat around and around so that when you let go, the string in untwisting will spin the meat, thus exposing all sides to the heat of the fire."

The Home and That Boy of Yours

By F. H. CHELEY

BOYS DO NOT INHERIT CHARACTER

WE ARE sometimes prone to think how splendid it would be if our boys might only inherit the character we have worked at and fussed over for many years. It just seems like a right down waste of time and energy for each new born boy now to have to begin at the very beginning and build anew for himself a character. Yet, as usual, nature is right, for if a character could be inherited, all that we as parents have acquired by the way, prejudices and mistaken notions, intolerance and bigotry—every bad habit—and the Lord knows we have them—as well as the good, would necessarily have to be passed on.

How much better then, that each boy have the chance to start over. Each new son is a "fresh page" for society—He can not inherit a character—he inherits the general framework of his possibilities (this offers large freedom for environmental influences). He inherits his type, whether he is to be an introvert, an extravert or an ambivert. He inherits his capacities, his limit of attainment—and we all have definite limitations—but a boy's character is what he becomes within his inherited limits.

His character is what he practices. He becomes what he does. It's does what he feels. If we can keep a boy happily doing useful, constructive things under desirable circumstances, a fine character emerges. When we set out to build character deliberately unless very skillful indeed, we produce but a snobbish I-am-better-than-thou prig.

Every thoughtful parent desires greatly that their son be a boy of character. It is well then, to know that character cannot be passed on by inheritance, but that an environment, both social, physical and emotional, can be deliberately created and maintained, in which character development will flourish. The supreme job of a high-grade home is to do just that; to so surround and properly motivate growing boyhood, that fine, vigorous, all-round developed personality may result. Character is the fragrance of vigorous, satisfying, purposeful vital living. It comes in no other way but it is worth all it costs on the part of thoughtful parents.

We speak rather glibly at times of character education—all education worthy of the name, should be character education, for the whole process of wisely and thoroughly training the boy should automatically result in a boy of staunch character. The fact that this thing does not happen, should lead us to revamp all education until it does.

Paint That Is Made of Rubber

Chlorinated rubber, a snow-white transparent, non-flammable material is on the market in Germany where it is finding use particularly for painting iron, concrete, and wood. Such a coating is no more expensive than that obtained with the usual good paints, and, it is claimed, has better adhesive qualities. It is insoluble in alcohols, benzine, and mineral oils. Highly concentrated solutions readily absorb colors and therefore have good covering power.

Plastic masses, artificial leather, and the like can be produced from chlorinated rubber. The products are cheap because the basic materials, rubber and chlorine, are at present low in price and available in practically unlimited quantity; production is comparatively simple and inexpensive.

ROSES REQUIRE WARMER GREENHOUSES THAN VIOLETS

Greenhouses raising violets and azaleas are kept at a temperature from 40 to 45 degrees; carnations, 50 to 55 degrees; roses and mushrooms, 55 to 60 degrees; orchids, 60 to 65 degrees, according to scientists of the research department of the Petroleum Heat and Power Company. For general purposes a temperature of 55 to 60 degrees is maintained, and for forcing, about five degrees higher. Many of the larger greenhouses now use automatic oil heaters, which can maintain a constant temperature irrespective of any change in outside temperature.

MAKES A BEAUTY SPOT

A graceful Washington Memorial tree planting registered on the honor roll of the American Tree Association at Washington, D. C., is that at South Sudbury, Mass. At this place an open field is now a beauty spot thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Sturtevant. A Washington cherry tree stands in the center of the plan, and bicentennial trees have been planted along two sides, while there is a background of blue morning glories in memory of the Lindbergh baby.

because of ill health, he resigned and moved to Wilmington where he died in 1854.

The sixth pastor of this church was the Rev. James Vallandigham, D.D., whom many of you remember and whose memory you still cherish and honor. In 1854 he was installed pastor of this church, also of White Clay Creek and Newark. The arrangement was that he should give half his time to White Clay Creek and the other half to Head of Christiana and Newark.

During his pastorate, in the year 1858, the old brick church which had been built over a hundred years before was burned to the ground. On Sunday, March 14th, this terrible fire took place, as the congregation was assembling, they saw their beloved Sanctuary in flames. They immediately met in the session house and after a short religious service, called a congregational meeting on the following Thursday. The meeting was held and plans were made to rebuild at once. As a result this large and commodious edifice was built. In the process of its construction the people met in neighboring churches and school houses.

The way in which matters of discipline were exercised in those times is very interesting. Of course we are living in a different age, but it is certain that one of the reasons for the weakness of our church today is due to the fact that we do not exercise as much discipline as we might and should. An example of the strictness of our past generation is found in the session book and reads, "Session met on March 22nd, 1863, after public worship. Mr. Steel reported that Mrs. ——— confessed that she was guilty of the violation of the Sabbath charged upon her, and professed her penitence therefor. Mrs. ——— (another lady), appeared and made a similar acknowledgment and profession of repentance, all of which was deemed satisfactory."

In 1865 a certain man, "voluntarily came before the session, and made acknowledgment of his sins and backslidings, and was restored to the full communion of the church."

On another occasion in 1867, "the following members of the church were called before the session charged with having attended a prize fight which took place in the neighborhood on the 27th of November, namely (the names of six men). They admitted the truth of the charge, confessed their fault and professed penitence therefor, and their acknowledgments and explanations were received as satisfactory." All of this might seem amusing to us today, but it is a little food for thought to consider the conscientious and stern spirit of those people. Remember it is only a little over half a century since this took place. We might be glad we did not live in those good old days, but without doubt some of their spirit is needed today.

Dr. Vallandigham was a native of Lisbon, Ohio. He graduated from Jefferson College, and taught a number of years in New Lisbon, Ohio, also in Buckingham and Snow Hill Academies in Maryland. He studied Law and took up his practice in his native town. Later he united with the church and studied theology. In 1850 he was ordained and installed pastor of the Manokin Church, Princess Anne, Maryland. At the same time he became pastor of the Rehoboth Church. From these churches he came to Newark. During his pastorate here there were glorious revivals. In 1854 seventy-seven were received into this church on examination and twelve on certificate. Later the work so increased that an assistant was employed for several years. The field still enlarged so that the pastor asked to be released from serving the Newark church. This pastoral relation was dissolved in 1860. Fifteen years later he asked to be relieved of his duties at White Clay Creek.

Dr. Vallandigham served this church long and faithfully. He was a "sound and able theologian and an eloquent preacher of the gospel of Christ." I take these words from the resolutions adopted in 1893 when Dr. Vallandigham was about to complete his forty years of service here. He is further characterized as, "a sympathizing friend and pastor in our afflictions and bereavements, always manifesting an interest in the welfare both temporal and spiritual of those to whom he ministered, and in his intercourse with the community, dignified, straightforward and consistent." His farewell sermon was preached from the text, "For I determined not to know anything among you save Jesus Christ and Him crucified." I Cor. 2:2. In conclusion he gave some statistics of his pastoral work. There were 999 admissions to this church during his pastorate here. He baptized 300 adults, 442 infants, performed 222 marriages and conducted 627 funerals. This beloved pastor resided for some years in Newark and then passed on to his reward.

Since Dr. Vallandigham's pastorate the church has had the following ministers: Dr. James D. Shanks, Dr. Joel S. Gillfillan, Rev. A. Van Overen, Rev. Walter R. Clyde, Rev. John McMurry, Rev. John Moore, and your present pastor.

Some facts of interest are, that the earliest known, date of death of those buried in the cemetery is 1725, the earliest recorded member is Rebecca Scott, who was received in 1800. The earliest recorded death in the session book is Mrs. Ruth Steel, February 14, 1841. The oldest living member of our church is Mr. Hosea R. Smith, who was received on November 19, 1870. Thus making him a member for almost 62 years.

The Spirit of Head of Christiana

Now we must bring to a close these reflections on the days which are past, and the glories of this old church. What does Head of Christiana mean to us today? This has been a sacred and hallowed place to many thousands of those who love the Lord. Here the cares of the world have been shut out, and the spirits of those who worshipped here have been inspired, fed and uplifted. This mystic sweet communion 'twix man and his Maker has been experienced by those who came here in oxcarts, on horseback, in wagons and buggies. Now we come here in our cars and worship with many comforts the God of our fathers.

As this church was placed at the head of a creek that ever flows down to the sea, so may Head of Christiana, the vanguard of our faith in this locality, continue to cause to flow from her the springs of living water and refresh the lives of a world that needs life and that more abundantly through our Lord Jesus Christ.

State Poultry Show To Be Held In Milford Week of January 10 to 13

An announcement has been made by the Delaware State Poultry Association that the annual State Poultry Show will be held in Milford during the week of January 10 to 13, inclusive, in cooperation with the Delaware Rabbit Breeders' Association and the Delaware Crop Improvement Association, as was the arrangement last January when large crowds of farmers attended these combined exhibits.

Those who are to have charge of the show this coming winter have started to make their plans with regard to exhibit space and other detailed arrangements for taking care of the increasing numbers of exhibitors and visitors who are expected to be in attendance again at this show.

A meeting of the members of the executive committee of the Delaware State Poultry Association and other interested poultry raisers, in addition to representatives of the extension service of the University of Delaware and the State Board of Agriculture, was held in the Community Building in Milford on Thursday evening, October 13, for the purpose of appointing the different committees and formulating plans for this annual show.

The poultry exhibit will be placed in the Community Building, where it was held last January, and the rabbits will be exhibited in the Armory, while the grain and hay crops will occupy space in the Century Club Building.

The various committees which have been appointed in connection with the poultry show are as follows: Committee on Buildings, Frank B. Austin,

Novelty Pepper, Max Zeuner, Production Department, Charles E. Grove, H. R. Baker, F. J. Gulick, Joe Keilbasa, Exhibition Department, N. J. Lannan, V. R. Bennett, R. V. Membership and Financial Drive for Y. W. C. A.

The District Y. W. C. A. Membership and Finance Drive begins this week and will continue until October 29. Miss Helen Shallcross, of Middletown, is general chairman for the district. A number of regular supporters of the work have already made most generous contributions. This is very encouraging, for it is particularly necessary that all who value the Y. W. C. A. in the community give something toward its support this year as a donor for a number of years has given a large percentage of the budget funds it is necessary this year to reduce the amount of her gift. To meet this emergency one of the plans adopted by the Board of the District Y. W. C. A. is to ask 800 persons throughout the district to give 50 cents a month for a year. Smaller contributions will be welcome and also larger gifts. Also at this time members will renew their memberships. The fee is $1.00 a year, the year beginning January, 1933. To any one giving more than $1.00 membership is accorded, if desired.

A Dover Women's Council of the Y. W. C. A. was organized last week at a meeting called at the home of Mrs. John Shilling. Mrs. George Ehinger was elected chairman and Mrs. H. B. King secretary. A more complete organization will be effected at the next meeting, which will be called in November.

The Council will interest itself in the three Girl Reserve clubs in Dover, sponsoring their work and giving any assistance possible to the advisers, Mrs. Lawrence Foard, Mrs. Daniel Green, Mrs. R. L. Herbst and Mrs. H. B. Roop. Also an important phase of the work of the Council will be to study ways in which the activities of the Y. W. C. A. may be made more effective and useful and to seek out other girls and young women who might profit from the advantages of a

There will be a tea for the Middletown Y. W. C. A. members and friends on October 25. The Girl Reserves are helping to arrange for this event by calling to give personal invitations to the women of Middletown.

The Odessa Girl Reserves will hold their meeting on Wednesday evening, both clubs meeting together for the first session. Miss Dorothy Minner and Miss Edna Wallace will be the advisers.

Quite a number of the District Girl Reserve clubs are planning to attend the conference for advisers, secretaries and committee women to be held in Wilmington, October 21, 22 and 23.

The regular meeting of the District Y. W. C. A. Board of Directors will be held on Thursday, October 20, at 2 o'clock, in the office in Dover. Plans will be made for the annual meeting to be held in Dover early in November.

Christiana News

On Saturday evening, October 29, the Christiana Improvement Association will hold their annual Halloween party in the school-house. Prizes will be given in various groups, including both grown-ups and children. Games will be played and refreshments will be served after the unmasking. The proceeds will be used for replenishing the treasury.

University Officials Pleased With Success of the Commons

Officials of the University of Delaware are well pleased so far with the success of the Commons opened at Delaware College this fall after having been closed for a couple of years. The Commons was closed because students did not patronize it in sufficient numbers to warrant the University keeping it open. This year more than 100 students bought meal tickets at the start and additional students are eating there each week. If this continues there is no doubt but what the Commons will be kept open.

SCHOOL NEWS

"Fire Prevention on the Farm"

Since there were two special assemblies last week, the celebration of fire prevention week was held over until Monday, October 17. At this time Vincent Harris, of Miss Fulkerson's home room, gave an interesting talk about "Fire Prevention on the Farm." Not only did he include many good preventive hints, but also told what to do in case a fire had started or made headway. His final advice was that insurance is a necessary feature for every farmer as well as for other property holders.

Mr. John Shilling, state supervisor of secondary schools, complimented the students upon their timely entrance to the auditorium and prompt beginning of the day's exercises. Mr. Lyle Mowlds, supervisor of agriculture, also brought greetings.

Tribute to Columbus

In School Assembly

The usual assembly exercises on Friday, October 14, were devoted to the honoring of Christopher Columbus, discoverer of America. A very interesting program was arranged by Mr. Hain and his home room. The pupils who presented selections were

Mary Roberts, Roberta Spencer, and Robert Hancock, of the tenth grade. The theme or keynote of the program was self-reliance. The character of Christopher Columbus teaches the people of today to have a purpose, and to follow it with zest and determination, even in the face of criticism. American people should hold as their national ideal the spirit of self-reliance and determination that characterized Columbus.

Historical Program In High School Assembly

On Wednesday, October 19, the assembly program was arranged by Miss Kirk and her ninth grade home room. The theme of the program was historical, being a celebration of the battles of Saratoga and Yorktown. Sylvia Phelps gave the facts and the significance of these two battles, emphasizing their importance, especially in the bicentennial of the birth of George Washington.

Pauline Ring gave the history and description of the picture, "The Spirit of Seventy-Six," holding a copy of the picture before the audience.

Everyone joined in the singing of "Yankee Doodle," which was a great favorite at the time of the Revolutionary War. This harmonized with the spirit of the assembly program.

Newark New Century Club News

The Newark New Century Club entertained the Public School Teachers and prospective new members October 17 at the club house. More than forty teachers were present. Miss Mildred Reid Lindeburg, well-known Wilmington entertainer, gave four readings, Mrs. R. L. Cooch sang two numbers, and a trio composed of Mrs. R. L. Spencer, Mrs. Paul Wiers and Mrs. R. L. Spencer sang. Mrs. Wm. J. Barnard, assisted by Mrs. R. T. Jones, was in charge of the entertainment. Mrs. C. O. Houghton and Mrs. Anna T. Neale poured. Mrs. J. M. Barnes and her committee were in charge of decorating the club.

The Program

Mrs. R. T. Jones, chairman of education, welcomed the teachers. She said that since Newark had acquired their beautiful new building and that the building and grounds were apparently well equipped, that there was very little which she and her committee could do except "be friends." She assured Mr. Brinzer that the club would do all that they could to "boost" and "be friends" of the public school.

Mrs. F. A. Wheelless introduced Miss Mildred Reid Lindeburg, Wilmington, who opened the program with two readings "The Man with a Cold," original, and "Billie Brad"; Mrs. R. L. Cooch sang "Shoes," by Kathleen Lockhart Manning, and "Bonjour Mabelle," by A. J. Behrend, accompanied by Miss Nell Wilson; Miss Lindeburg, "Jimmie in the School Room," an original pantomime; the trio, composed of Mrs. R. L. Cooch, Mrs. S. Paul Wiers and Mrs. R. L. Spencer sang, "Berceuse," by Godard, and "The Woodpecker," by E. Nevin, accompanied by Miss Elsie Wright; Miss Lindeburg, "The Tale of the Hat," original. The program closed by the club singing two songs, "Sweet and Low," by Joseph Barnby, and "Drink to me only with thine eyes," by Ben Johnson.

The program was followed by refreshments. Mrs. Wm. J. Barnard was in charge.

The Business Meeting

The business meeting preceded the hospitality party. It opened with a song, "Columbia the Gem of the Ocean." Mrs. F. A. Wheelless welcomed all visitors and explained the purpose and aims of the club. She said "being of service" was the principal purpose and interest in all civic projects. Attention was called to the welfare work sponsored by the club and support of the Town Library. Contributions to the student loan fund and the nursing fund have been made by the club. She explained that the club program varied and consisted of—current events, book reviews, discussions, contract bridge and lectures on topics of the day.

The president announced that Mrs. Gerald Gilligan, Mrs. Helen McKinley, Mrs. Emerson Johnson, Mrs. C. E. Ewing, Mrs. Arthur Hauber, Mrs. Jay Robinson, and Mrs. Louis R. Detjen had rejoined the club and that Mrs. A. J. Strickol and Mrs. W. Francis Lindell were coming into the club as new members.

Mrs. H. C. Harris announced that 34 subscriptions had been obtained at the subscription tea given at the home of Mrs. Francis A. Cooch.

Mrs. R. W. Heim announced that Mrs. Charles A. McCue and Mrs. E. B. Crooks would serve on her Prison Reform Committee.

Mrs. J. M. Barnes announced that her decorating committee would be composed of Mrs. Gerald Gilligan, Mrs. C. L. Hammill, Mrs. H. C. Harris, Mrs. Arthur Hauber, Mrs. Louis R. Detjen and Mrs. Leonard Fossett. The club calendar will be as follows:

November 2—Benefit Card Party sponsored by the Welfare Committee at the club. Everyone is invited.

November 7—Washington Heights entertains Newark New Century Club. Mrs. Wheelless has asked that all members who can drive a car fill their car and phone her so that she can give the Washington Heights Club some idea of the number of Newark members to expect. She is anxious that Newark be well represented.

November 10 and 11—Rummage Sale, sponsored by the Ways and Means Committee.

The following attended the State Federation Conference in Wilmington on October 14 at the Y. W. C. A.: Mrs. F. A. Wheelless, Mrs. Wm. J. Barnard, Mrs. R. L. Spencer, Mrs. H. C. Harris, Mrs. G. L. Schuster, Mrs.

HOUSING THE PULLETS

By Prof. H. D. Munroe

Pullets raised on range should be housed when the first egg is found in the brooder house. Too many poultry raisers fail to realize the importance of housing the birds before production starts.

If the birds are left in the brooder houses until most of them are laying and then changed to the winter quarters they will be thrown into a molt at the time eggs are high in price. When laying pullets are changed to new quarters, the handling of the birds and the fact that everything is new causes them to drop off in the consumption of feed which in turn causes a molt.

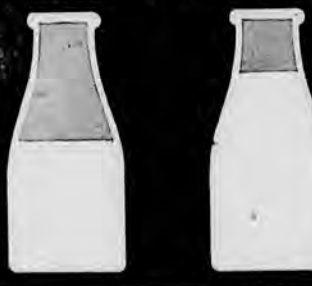

Another very important fact to keep in mind is that many brooder houses are crowded. The pullets have been growing all summer while the house has not. At night the birds are crowded into a small space, causing them to breathe impure air. This weakens the birds and the first cold night or rainy spell they catch a cold. Many times these fall colds are harmless, but they develop into roup. At other times birds weakened by crowded conditions suffer a great loss if exposed to chicken pox.

The pullets should be graded and housed according to maturity. If this system of housing is practiced, the smaller, slow maturing pullets, which would ordinarily be crowded away from the mash boxes by the more matured and larger birds, will have more favorable conditions for growth. It is a good plan to let the smaller birds stay on range for two weeks to a month after the early developing pullets have been housed. Never house old stock and pullets in the same pen.

How Much Does HEAT COST?

IN MILK IT'S THE BUTTERFAT THAT COUNTS

Make This Simple Test—In filling your bottle put Old Company's Lehigh on one side and any other solid fuel on the other. After several hours look in the fire-pot and see with your own eyes that Old Company's Lehigh burns longer.

YOU know what you pay for milk. Cost is not the only factor . . . it's the purity and butter-fat that give health. Coal, too, is a great aid in building and safeguarding health. Old Company's Lehigh burns evenly, lasts long with minimum attention, and gives even, healthful heat.

We can tell you that Old Company's Lehigh Hard Coal is more economical, too! But we want you to prove it by making the simple, money-saving O. C. L. Comparison Test described above.

Order a ton of Old Company's Lehigh now. Make the test tomorrow. Then let us fill your bin.
