TRAINING PLAN OPENS FOR NEWARK FACULTY

Teachers' Workshop Begins Here Tonight

A new type teacher training workshop for members of the Newark school faculty, designed to permit teachers to continue training while actually on the job, has been organized here, with the first class scheduled for tonight in the school library at 7 p. m.

The plan, which will assist teachers in dealing with specific classroom problems as well as aid them in securing renewals of their teacher certificates required every three years in Delaware, was organized by Wilmer E. Shue in cooperation with Dean W. E. Armstrong, head of the school of Education at the University of Delaware.

The workshop, with Dean Armstrong instructing, will deal with such topics as auditory and visual aids, reports to parents, guidance, and curriculum studies, plus numerous other problems faced daily by the teacher.

The program, something new in teacher training, was originally proposed by Supt. Shue to his faculty members, numbers of whom proved interested. Dean Armstrong was also enthusiastic, and it is planned to incorporate the program in the university's extension course.

Teachers from nearby schools are also planning to join the workshop here.

CENTURY CLUB HEARS TALK ON PALESTINE

Woman Authority On Near East Gives Arab Viewpoint

The present tense situation in Palestine must be handled with care, intelligence, and good will, said Dr. Nejlia Izzeddin, authority on near eastern affairs, in an address before the New Century Club Monday.

It is purely a political problem, she stressed, with no element of racial feeling, the Arabs having never persecuted the Jews.

However, unlimited immigration, she pointed out, would form islands of alien people within a country that is too small to support such an influx. In 1918, nine percent of the population was Jewish, at present it is 35 percent.

Touching on the Balfour Declaration, Dr. Izzeddin said that England had not acted with justice in giving away property that was not rightfully hers; that while it may have been proper to allow the Jews to enter an empty country, Palestine was then the home of an already established and progressive nation.

Tracing the history of Palestine, Dr. Izzeddin pointed out that the country was in the hands of the Hebrew nation for only a comparatively short time and was never entirely occupied by them. She explained that the Arabs had pinned their faith on Woodrow Wilson's doctrine of self determination and further emphasized that the King-Crane report, a clear example of objective thinking, had urged that unity be preserved at all costs.

Palestine, she concluded, is an Arab country, surrounded by Arab countries, and should develop a Democratic government, entering the world scene as a force for good. Following her talk, she answered the audience's questions freely.

The speaker was introduced by Mrs. Alex Cobb, chairman of Post War Planning.

At the business meeting, Mrs. Snyder, president, called attention to the children's theatre conference scheduled for Saturday at the University. She further urged club members to cooperate when asked to act as chaperons at Saturday night dances held in the building.

Mrs. Barton Mackey was tea hostess, assisted by Miss Nell Wilson, Mrs. Alma Reiff, Mrs. Waldo Fox, Mrs. Charles Evans and Mrs. Joseph McVey.

At the next meeting, a Zionist speaker will present the other side of the Palestine question.

TEACHER'S SALARY RISE PROPOSED AT P.T.A. MEET

Referendum On Question Is Suggested At Meeting

Question of increasing teacher's salaries and plans for the proposed new elementary school building were considered at the January meeting of the Newark Parent Teacher's Association held in the school auditorium last Thursday evening. President Henry Wolf presided.

Means by which Newark residents could help improve teacher's salaries thereby aiding the school in obtaining and holding competent teachers were discussed, and it was suggested the question be submitted to the public in a referendum simultaneously with the referendum to be held regarding the new elementary school building. Both matters, it was pointed out, could be dealt with before the opening of school next September.

Detailed discussion of the salary rise is scheduled for the next P.T.A. session.

Plans for the proposed new elementary school building were also outlined at the meeting, details of which may be found elsewhere in this issue.

A report on the newly organized intramural athletic program at the school was read by Stanley Gibbs, athletic director, in which he sketched details of the boys intramural basketball league now underway and touched on additional plans of the athletic department which will be pushed into action as soon as necessary facilities become available.

The picture, awarded by the P.T.A. to the classes at the school securing the largest parent enrollment in association, was displayed. The awards were made to Miss Jennie Smith's class in the primary department, Mrs. Marguerite Wilson's in the intermediate, and Miss S. Rebecca Kurt's in the Junior-Senior High School.

7 MINOR FIRES ARE REPORTED

2 Chimney And Four Grass Fires

A flurry of seven fire alarms, most of which were bunched over Saturday and Sunday, kept the Aetna Hose Hook and Ladder Company busy this week. Of the total, five were grass fires and two chimney fires, with practically no damage reported in any case.

Last Wednesday, a chimney fire at the dwelling owned by Curley Smith in Glasgow was extinguished promptly. A grass fire followed on Thursday at the B. & O. Station at Harmony.

On Saturday the pace increased with three alarms being sounded, the first for a grass fire in the morning at George Read Village. The second came shortly after noon for another grass fire on S. Chapel Street on property owned by the Continental-Diamond Company, while the third, also a grass fire, was reported late in the afternoon at the residence of Harriet Ferguson on E. Main Street.

On Sunday the Aetna Company was called out twice again. Shortly before noon another grass fire occurred along the Lincoln Highway near Cochran's store. The call was routine, except for the fact the fire engine became mired in the mud for two and a half hours in the field where the fire took place. Eventually, after futile efforts by the men to dig it out, the Town Truck had to be called, while the crew of 14 were served coffee by a nearby resident, Mrs. Lawrence Hayward.

Also of valuable assistance in extricating the engine was William Foote who aided the crew with his truck. The last alarm also came on Sunday, a chimney fire at Iron Hill at the residence, owned by William Davis in which Norman Hutchinson is tenant. Damage was $25.

NEW SCHOOL PROJECT IS APPROVED BY BOARD

Plans For Elementary Building Are Progressing

Definite action seems likely soon on the long proposed new elementary school building here, following approval by the Newark School Board, announced this week, of a detailed plan for a school plan with a tentatively estimated cost of between $400,000 and $450,000. The program was submitted by Superintendent Wilmer E. Shue at a meeting last Friday night of the school board with president Joseph McVey presiding.

The plan, result of surveys conducted by Supt. Shue over the past five months, is based on a study of school population trends for the past 10 years and projected trends for the next 12 years.

Details provide for a plant consisting of 26 classrooms, 1 gymnasium, 1 art room, 1 music room, 1 cafeteria, 1 library office and records, 1 teacher's room, lavatories, play courts, and storage rooms. It is proposed that upon the completion of the new building, the present school building be used exclusively for a junior-senior high school.

Progress of the program now depends on the procedure established by state law. After selection of a site, the plan will be submitted to the State Board. (Please turn to page 8)

MEMORIAL TO HONOR VETS OF ST. JOHN'S

Memorial Window To Be Erected In Church

A memorial window will be installed in St. John's R. C. Church honoring members of the parish who served in the armed forces during World War II. It was announced this week.

Rev. E. J. Kraemer has secured the services of an outstanding artist to design the window, which will be installed shortly in connection with the church's rebuilding program.

Record of the parish during the war shows that sixty-one members, fifty-eight men and three young women, served in the Armed Forces. Two were called to pay the supreme sacrifice.

In announcing the project, parish spokesman said, "We think it is particularly fitting that those of us who could not enter active service should erect some suitable memorial to those who did in appreciation of their service to the nation in its time of stress."

In order to raise the necessary funds quickly the men of St. John's have assumed the work of collecting and ask that subscriptions be given to any of the following committee: Chairman, Edward Sobolewski; co-chairman, Dr. George W. Rhodes, William Doyle, Joseph Walker and Norman Battersby; committeemen, John Doyle, John Dorrance, Wilfred Blanchet, Richard Stout, J. D. Counahan, Leo Moore, John Daly, John Cannon, James Duffy, W. CLOTHING DRIVE IS FAR SHORT OF QUOTA

About 1000 Articles Towards Goal Of 7000 In

Approximately 1000 garments towards Newark's goal of 7000 garments in the current Victory Clothing drive, have been received to date, according to latest reports from the collection depots.

With only one week of the campaign remaining, residents must step-up their donations considerably if the quota, which represents about one garment for every man, woman and child in the Newark area, is to be reached. This fact was emphasized this week by the committee headed by Jim Garner, Jr., president of the Newark Chamber of Commerce, which is sponsoring the collection.

Other factors stressed by the committee concern the haphazard manner in which clothing is being submitted at the depots. As emphasized previously, shoes should be tied in pairs to facilitate sorting by the packers. In many cases, this is not being done with the result that pairs become separated and often lost.

Men's suits, also, should be submitted in a single bundle instead of loosely to prevent individual articles from becoming separated.

Another neglected phase of the drive, contributors are reminded is the importance of attaching good-will notes to the clothing written to the eventual recipients in Europe. This, committee heads point out, will not only be a friendly gesture between individuals but, in the long run, could become a potent force in international amity.

Great assistance to the drive, it is expected, will result from the intensive campaign being conducted on Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday of this week at the Newark school, results of which are not yet available.

CHILDREN'S THEATRE CONFERENCE SATURDAY

University Confab Is Sponsored By Drama Center

More than one hundred school, community and civic organizations throughout Delaware and in nearby parts of Pennsylvania and Maryland have been invited to send delegates to the Children's Theatre Conference to be held at the University of Delaware Saturday.

"If the objectives of the conference are achieved," Dr. C. R. Kase, Director of the University Dramatic Center said, "it is almost impossible to conceive its potential effect on the future education and recreation of the children of this area."

Mrs. Hazel Robertson, one of the guest speakers, is director of the Children's Theatre at the Palo Alto (Calif.) Community Center. Her Children's Theatre production, "Titan", will be shown for the conference delegates.

The program will begin in Mitchell Hall at 10:30 A. M. Beginning at 2:30 P. M. there will be an open discussion of special problems, with the guest speakers serving as consultants. It is at this session that one of the programs from the prize-winning radio series will be reproduced. At 4:00 p. m. there will be an informal tea for the delegates with members of the University Drama Group of Newark.

The University Dramatic Center, Dr. Kase said, stresses the fact that any interested person is invited to attend as well as the representatives of school and community organizations who have already been invited. It is hoped that the schools will be represented by students as well as teachers.

There is no registration fee or other charge for those attending the conference.

The elements of service that win friends and make everyone feel at home are stressed day and night at Amoroso Cafe, 7th and Tenth Streets, Wilmington.

Of course, such factors as sandwiches, beer, wines, liquors and mixed drinks help, too.

At the time of Repeal, Giacomo Amoroso decided he could win a long list of customers and spread the degree of satisfaction the newly revived business promised. The policies which he established with the business and his interest in meeting the demands of the customers with each passing day soon proved he was equal to the task.

Albert Amoroso assists his father in the business and serves as the genial manager of the popular enterprise.

Good fellows meet here to talk over topics of the day, but the atmosphere is always friendly and cordial and the Amorosos take pride in the fact that their cafe is the type anyone can enter and feel at home.

It is open daily until midnight and closed Sundays.

UNIVERSITY FUND IS SET UP; $50,000 GOAL

To Give Aid Not Covered By State And Federal Govt.

Establishment of a University of Delaware Development Fund and of an annual 1946 goal of $50,000 was announced today by Dr. W. Owen Sypherd, Acting President of the University.

This action creates an agency to solicit and receive contributions to the University for certain of its more urgent needs. All donations to the Development Fund will be direct contributions to the University of Delaware, Dr. Sypherd said.

The purpose of the Development Fund is to provide funds for some needs of the University which might not be adequately taken care of by federal and state appropriations. Thus it is to supplement and not replace existing sources of income.

Responsibility for operation of the Development Fund and conducting its annual solicitation of funds has been placed in the Office of Alumni and Public Relations. This University-financed office was established on January 1 by the University's Board of Trustees.

Establishment of the Development Fund creates for the first time a single agency through which friends of the University as well as its former students may at any time make contributions which will lend financial support to the University.

A campaign of four to six weeks duration to raise the initial $50,000 is to begin next month. Although direct solicitation will be made only of Alumni and Alumnae, Dr. Sypherd pointed out that the broad scope of this new program will be of interest to all citizens of the State and that the Development Fund is designed as an instrumentality to receive contributions from all sources.

THREE NEW EXTENSION COURSES TO BE GIVEN

University Offers Post Graduate Work In Chemistry

As the result of a program of cooperation between the American Chemical Society and the University of Delaware, three new extension courses of a post-graduate level are being offered by the University in chemistry and chemical engineering, it was announced yesterday. All three courses have been scheduled so as to be available for men employed in industry.

Outstanding among these courses is "Patent Law for Chemists and Engineers" which is to be given by C. E. Biesterfeld, head of the duPont Company's Patent Division, and a special lecturer in chemical engineering at the University.

Another of these graduate courses which will be available to those of the Wilmington area is "Physical Organic Chemistry." This course will be given by Dr. William A. Mosher, the new head of the University's chemistry department.

Classes in both of the aforementioned courses met for the first time at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday at the Wilmington High School. Qualified persons may enroll in these courses for credit during the next two weeks.

An advanced course in "Distillation" will be given by Dr. A. P. Colburn, head of the Chemical Engineering Division, on Saturday mornings at 9:30 beginning next Saturday (Jan. 26).

This class will meet in the Chemical Laboratory building on the University campus.

All three of these courses have been planned by the University to comply with the requests and suggestions of chemists and engineers. Their opinions as to the nature and special features of such courses were determined by a questionnaire sent to all members of the Delaware Section, American Chemical Society by the section's education committee. Dr. L. M. McBurney of the Hercules Experiment Station is the committee chairman.

STUDENTS TO LIVE IN 'THE KNOLL'

Home To House U. Of D. Students

The Knoll, which until 20 months ago had served as the residence of University of Delaware presidents for 25 years, is being converted into living quarters for single men students next term, a university spokesman disclosed last night.

The measure is a temporary one to relieve the present student housing shortage, and because of this all necessary alterations are being kept at a minimum, it was pointed out. It is expected about 20 students will be accommodated by the move.

The frame structure, now vacant, will be ready for occupancy with the opening of the new semester early next month. It is being used as student quarters only until other housing is available, it was said.

The late Dr. Samuel C. Mitchell was the first University of Delaware president to occupy The Knoll. The present acting president has his own residence.

U. OF D. FARM PEARSON SERVICE APPOINTS

Two Are Named

Two staff appointments have been announced by George L. Schuster, Director of the University of Delaware's Agricultural Extension Service. John W. Webster has been named agricultural agent for New Castle County, to succeed Ralph Watson, who resigned last November. Mr. Webster comes from Street, Maryland, graduated with a B. S. degree from the University of Maryland in 1935, and was a graduate student at North Carolina State Agricultural College prior to entering the armed forces. He was a D. H. I. A. Supervisor in Maryland and North Carolina for three years; then worked as assistant county agent and 4-H club agent in North Carolina. In 1942, he entered the Army Air Force as a second lieutenant and served in U. S. and England. Upon his discharge in November 1945, with rank of captain, he was appointed assistant county agent for Kent and New Castle counties. His appointment as county agent becomes effective February 1.

The new assistant county agent-at-large for Kent and New Castle counties, will be Edward H. Schabinger, Mr. Schabinger, a native of Felton, Del., graduated from the University of Delaware in 1939, with a major in animal industry. He served as assistant county agent with Virginia Extension Service for two years, then was called into service. In the army, he was an instructor in the Veterinary Technical School in Washington, D. C. Upon his release, after four and one-half years of army service, Mr. Schabinger accepted his present position as assistant county agent.

Youngest State Judge Confirmed

George Burton Pearson, Jr., a former resident of Newark and the son of Dr. and Mrs. G. Burton Pearson, 94 E. Main Street, was named to the State Judiciary last Thursday afternoon when the State Senate, meeting in special session confirmed his appointment, submitted by Governor Bacon. Judge Pearson succeeds Judge Richard S. Rodney whose second term of 12 years expired on January 15. The Senate confirmed the appointment by a reported vote of 10 to 6 although no official vote was given by that body. Vice Chancellor of Delaware for the past six years, Judge Pearson was sworn in Friday by Chancellor W. W. Harrington, under whom he served as the first vice chancellor ever adopted in Delaware. He is now member at large to the State Judiciary and is the second member of the state bench to be appointed in the past five months, the other being Judge James B. Carey, associate justice from Sussex County.

Now in his fortieth year, Judge Pearson is thought to be the youngest member ever appointed to the state bench. He was born in Middletown in 1905, moved to Newark in 1920. He attended and graduated from Friends School, Princeton University and the University of Pennsylvania prior to entering law practice with the office of Judge Hugh M. Morris where he practiced for 8 years before being appointed Vice Chancellor.

WHAT CAN YOU SPARE THAT SHE CAN WEAR?

• Clothing that you may consider old can bring new life to some suffering person to whom war brought despair and destitution.

Goal of the Victory Clothing Collection is 100,000,000 garments, plus shoes and bedding. If your contribution seems negligible, bear this in mind: Every garment you give means one more human being saved from cold or sickness or possibly death.

About 25,000,000 people overseas received clothing collected from Americans last spring.

But for every person clothed so far, a dozen more remain virtually threadbare. Your spare clothing will be distributed free, without discrimination, to the victims of Nazi and Jap oppression in Europe, the Philippines, and the Far East.

In 'most any town or city overseas there is someone who can translate English. You can help build international friendship by writing a simple, friendly letter to pin to the clothing you contribute.

Dig into your attics, trunks, and closets today... dig out all the clothing you can spare... take it to your local collection depot now.

What YOU Can Do!

- 1 Get together all the clothing you can spare.
- 2 Take it to your local collection depot immediately.
- 3 Volunteer some spare time to your local committee.

The five thousandth permanent automobile driver's license was sold this week by the State Motor Vehicle Division according to Frank L. Reed, manager, Wilmington office.

Approximately 90 per cent of the permanent driver's licenses issued at $5 each to those with good driving records, were sold in Wilmington and New Castle County.

A total of 15,175 motor vehicles in New Castle, and 33,564 in the state have registrations which expire on March 31. Owners of these cars are asked to apply for renewal of their registrations promptly.

Credit is given owners of cars from out-of-state as well as to Delaware owners of cars with Delaware registrations for the unexpired portion of the tags.

Maj. Steel was on the first airplane to land at Osaka Air Strip, Shimonsaki, Honshu and was among the first air corps troops on Kyushu.

Major Steel entered the army in January 1942 and embarked on overseas duty in December 1944. FARMERS TO SIGN '46 FARM PLAN

Deadline Set For March 31

A reminder to farmers to sign up for the 1946 Farm Plan was issued this week by C. E. Ocheltree, state director of field branch service of the Department of Agriculture, in Newark. Deadline for signing is March 31 for the 1946 program.

It is of the utmost importance, he adds, that farmers are fully informed as to the 1946 APC program, what conservation materials are available, and methods of obtaining them this year, plus several other provisions and benefits of the Triple A. program.

The scarcity of transportation and labor that made prompt delivery of fertilizer and lime orders an impossibility in wartime still holds today. Farmers are urged to order lime and fertilizer now, to give the manufacturers and dealers full time for getting out their orders well in advance of the spring season, when the plant foods will be needed.

Per Capita Debt Share Coming Down To $1,935

This might cheer you up a bit. Your per capita share of the prospective national debt is coming down.

A year ago President Roosevelt figured the debt would be $292,000,000,000 this year. That would have been $2,118 for every American — man, woman, and child.

But with the war over and government finances looking up, the debt now figures to be $271,000,000,000 by next year. That works out at $1,935 per capita, thanks to an increase as well as a lowered debt figure.

An old maid's idea of married life — she writes: "Some people do have the funniest ideas about women. I can never fathom whether they mean what they say or are just gabbing. If the latter is the case there still must be some truth in it, which is terrible. I have always thought of a man's home as being the place where he is supposed to be spoiled, and have his way, to recreate himself for the battle of making a living the next day. When he is through, it's his turn to relax, he is waited on, spoiled and petted so he can build up again. A woman can have her way all day while he is gone, and the house is hers. After five it's his turn, isn't it? Or am I wrong?"

In theory, sister, you're right . . . but to many women change their ideas, and ways, after marriage.

Not that anybody cares but a Hollywood, Florida, night club, is so eager to get Betty Hutton as its starring attraction that it is willing to give her $25,000 weekly, plus a house to live in, for doing one show nightly.

Congratulations to George Burton Pearson, Jr., on his appointment to the State Judiciary as successor to Judge Richard S. Rodney. A former local resident and well known here, 'Bert' has made rapid progress in his chosen profession.

Joe Martin, our dignified contemporary on the Sunday Star, says: "A curious thing about the appointment of Vice Chancellor George Burton Pearson, Jr., to succeed Judge Rodney . . . and his subsequent confirmation by the State Senate, is the unanimity which citizens inquire: 'why all the secrecy about the appointment? And, why did the Democratic Senators vote against a judge appointed as a Democrat?'"

Funny how people always like to read in the newspaper what other people are doing, have done, or are about to do . . . funnier still how reluctant too many people are to give the local blather such pertinent facts about themselves.

A newspaper's fundamental purpose and only saleable item is its recording of news . . . while it is news. If subscribers desire their local paper to thrive and render its clientele the fullest service possible, THEY must help.

A weekly newspaper's most popular feature is the society page. The doings of our neighbors are the first, and often the only, items read by most subscribers. To the end of making this page newsworthy and a more complete chronicle of local happenings, we ask your cooperation by giving us full publishable information relative to social and personal activities concerning yourself, your relatives, friends and neighbors . . . We're pretty smart but we don't know everything that goes on. A 'phone call, a note dropped in the mail about parties, visitations, dinners, club functions and other events of social interest will be greatly appreciated.

Unless there are some drastic changes made between now and June, President Truman will not be a candidate for reelection to the nation's highest office in 1948.

More men regret that they married too young than are sorry that they married late. A youthful marriage is likely to be either very happy or very unhappy. A late marriage is more likely to be moderately happy, at least . . . they're based on wiser judgment than youthful infatuation and inclined to be less tempestuous.

CENTRAL OFFICE EQUIPMENT

is a Major Problem of our

$5,500,000 EXPANSION PROGRAM

There are 32 central offices in Delaware. Only 14 of these are able to meet new service demands without additional equipment.

Let's put that another way:

18 central offices in Delaware must have more switchboards and dial equipment before they can begin to satisfy demand ... even after all the telephone instruments we can possibly use are available.

In other words, we can connect just so many new telephones to a central office. Then we're overboard until new central office facilities are in place.

It's a pure and simple matter of bursting at the seams ... and the only thing to do in a case like that is to expand.

So we're expanding ... and into the mighty job of expansion, we're pouring $5,500,000.

Telephone instruments are coming through fine ... at the rate of about 3,000,000 a year for the Bell System.

Next comes the central office problem, and we're not marking time on that. And finally comes the job of building what we call the "outside plant." This is the network of cables and wires that connects every telephone everywhere with its central office—and with all other telephones. It's the ditches and the poles and the digging and laying and splicing and testing.

But it's all a fact and not a theory, for our $5,500,000 expansion program is under way.

Here are THE THREE OBJECTIVES of our
EXPANSION PROGRAM

1. To end all waiting lists for telephone service.

2. To provide the people of this State—city people and farmers—with finer and finer telephone service.

3. To make available the many new developments in communication, pioneered by the Bell Telephone Laboratories.

* Part of the Bell System's two billion dollar Expansion Program.

ROTARIANS HEAR TALK BY FORMER FBI AGENT

Anti-Sabotage Measures Used During War Are Described

Exploits of the F. B. I. in combating sabotage during the war and the current increase in youthful delinquency were discussed in a colorful talk by Col. Paul Haviland, former FBI agent for Delaware area and at present Superintendent of the State Police, before members of the Newark Rotary Club Monday evening. The weekly session was presided over by Sam Handloff.

Prompt manner in which, at the beginning of the war, the FBI dealt with suspected enemy agents and suspicious aliens was described by Col. Haviland, who pointed out that, 24 hours after Pearl Harbor, U. S. agents had rounded up or spotted for future checking all suspects. This more than any other factor, he said, was responsible for the successful scuttling of enemy sabotage plans during the war.

Statistics show, he claimed, that the majority of wartime sabotage cases were caused not by enemy agents but by ordinarily patriotic Americans, who were temporarily misguided or bearing a grudge. As a local example, the speaker cited the incident here when cables on the B & O signal towers were cut tying up railroad communication for more than a day. Sabotage was suspected, but police later discovered the act had been committed by an enraged drunk.

A little-known German invention for aiding espionage work was described by Col. Haviland as an extremely small microfilm which could be compressed into an area as small as a pencil dot. Used to transmit codes and messages to agents in this country, the film could be included in letters, and concealed, for example, in the dot of an "i", thereby proving very difficult to detect.

The grave increase in youthful delinquency was also emphasized by Col. Haviland as a problem of nationwide importance. He underscored the gravity of the situation by giving statistics which show that one out of every fifth major crime on police records is committed by a youth under 18. Cause, he said, was due chiefly to irresponsible parents.

Residents of Newark, he pointed out, were fortunate in having a Police Chief whose method of handling children was highly successful. In his talks, to members of the state force at large, Col. Haviland claims, he often uses Bill Cunningham as an example of one who uses the proper approach to children.

Danger, he continued, that the problem of delinquency may be considered too lightly, and he stressed the necessity for a definite program on a community basis which will adequately absorb the leisure of youth.

Junior Rotarians present were Tom Silk, son of Russell Silk, and Dan Hamilton, son of William S. Hamilton. Clarence Ocheltree had as his guest Chief Petty Officer Harry Messner, Coast Guard. Guest of Doc Tiffany was son, Harold.

Next week, the guest speaker will be Dr. Carl J. Rees, who will discuss "Effect of War On China's Unification". Program chairman will be Newman Rose.

Girl Scouts

talk by Miss Oleda Schrottky, dramatics adviser of the National Girl Scout organization. The keynote of Miss Schrottky's talk was the Girl Scout laws, the reason for such laws, and their significance in everyday living. From the beginning to end, Miss Schrottky completely captivated her audience. With a minimum of words and gestures, she presented a living picture of the young girl of today oh-ing and ah-ing over the telephone for hours, turning on the radio full volume for her favorite swoon artist without consent of fond parent vainly attempting to read, bickering with brothers, and storming to her room in indignation at one and all. Miss Schrottky stressed the law "A Girl Scout is courteous." "Many of us," she said "put on 'courtesy' as we would a new pair of shoes for a special occasion, enduring the discomfort of them but discarding them immediately upon returning home in favor of the comfortable, worn, bed-room slipper." She pointed out that by taking courtesy into our homes and making it a part of our daily living, we would bring peace both to our homes and ourselves.

Miss Schrottky also told of the Liberty ship financed by the Girl Scouts and named for the founder of the Girl Scouts, Juliette Lowe. National Headquarters personnel provided a home-like Christmas with presents and all the trimmings for the boys aboard the "Juliette Lowe."

In conclusion, Miss Schrottky cited an old Chinese prayer: "O, Lord, revive Thy church, beginning with me" as a thought which all would do well to consider.

The evening was ended with the singing of the Scout hymn and taps.

DELAWARE FARM FRONT THIS WEEK

Latest Data For Farmers

Meat may be frozen at temperatures as low as 40 to 114 degrees F. in the future, if maximum tenderness should prove worth the extra cost of such very low temperature freezing. Recent research at the Department of Agriculture shows that the faster meat freezes, the more tenderness it acquires in the process. Beef frozen at 18 degrees F. and then thawed proved to be about 9 per cent more tender than unfrozen beef, but beef frozen at 114 degrees F. was about 23 per cent more tender. Usual freezing temperatures for meat today are 0 and 10 degrees F. The microscopic studies of frozen meat showed that the tenderizing effect of freezing depends partly on how and where ice crystals form in the meat. In slow freezing at 18 degrees F., large crystals form between the muscle fibers, pushing the fibers out of shape but not breaking them, and drawing water from the fibers as they form. In fast freezing at 10 degrees F. or below, smaller crystals form within the fibers, because there is not time for water to be drawn out. In forming, the crystals break the fibers, thus making the meat more tender. The lower the temperature and the faster the freezing, the more small crystals form within the fibers and the more the fibers break. At 114 degrees F. the freezing is so rapid that nearly every fiber in the meat splits.

Final goals to guide the production efforts of farmers through 1946, the first full postwar year, have been announced by the Department of Agriculture. The goals call for more than 296 million acres in cultivated crops, approximately 1 million more than the total of goals submitted to State leaders in December for review. The final goals reflect recommendations by each State, as influenced by local condition. Acreage for such urgently needed crops as rice, dry beans, sugar beets, and flaxseed show increases over the originally suggested national goals. Small increases appear in final goals for feed grains. An increase of 1.3 million acres is indicated in land planted in hay. Sugar goals had previously been recommended at estimated maximum production on capacity. However, in recognition of the extreme shortage of sugar, farmers indicated they might increase this acreage slightly. Combined State recommendations would have totaled more than national suggested goals for peanuts (for edible purposes only), potatoes and burley tobacco. As the national suggestions for these crops were at maximum levels in view of prospective demand and the most efficient use of land, States are being asked to revise their recommendations, so that growers may plan their operations in accordance with the final national goals. Livestock goals are set as high as is consistent with feed resources, even with the increased feed crop goals for 1946. Final goals for chickens and eggs are maintained close to original national recommendations. State goals for spring pigs have been reconciled with sow-breeding intentions. States indicating breeding intentions below tentative goals are being asked to adopt the tentative figures as their goal. The spring pig goal is thus adjusted to 51,651,000 instead of 52 million head suggested earlier.

Employment on farms on Jan. 1 was the lowest in the 21 years of record, according to the Bureau of Agricultural Economics. The number of both family and workers was down from a year ago, family workers 2 per cent and hired workers 8 per cent.

The number of prisoners of war and foreign workers transported by the Department of Agriculture who were at work on January 1 was drastically reduced from the number kept busy during the harvest season. Foreign workers on January 1 totaled about 35,000 compared with about 88,000 in August and September, the peak months.

The scarcity of transportation and labor that made prompt delivery of fertilizer and lime orders an impossibility in wartime still holds today. Farmers are urged to order lime and fertilizer now, to give the manufacturers and dealers full time for getting out their orders well in advance of the spring season, when the plant foods will be needed.

January, February, and March production will be paid at the rate of 70c per hundredweight for milk and 17c per pound for butterfat. These payments are payable during April and May.

Reports on the acreage of wheat seeded last fall are now due from all farmers carrying wheat crop insurance in Delaware, says C. E. Ocheltree, State Director of the Production and Marketing Administration. Most farmers have received report forms by now from their County ACA Office, and are urged to complete the forms now and return them by mail.

A-Bomb Test By Navy May Cost $100,000,000

Workmen have begun stripping down a small "atom fleet" in Pearl Harbor in preparation for tests to determine what atomic bombs will do to ships at sea, it was learned this week.

(At Tulsa, Okla., Rear Admiral Russell S. Berkley predicted the test would cost $100,000,000 and be equivalent to the attack on the occupation of Okinawa.)

Naval public relations were silent, but a reliable source said that several weeks ago the Navy brought some battle-worn destroyers to Pearl Harbor to prepare them for tests probably to be held this spring.

Battleships, cruisers and other vessels also are expected to be assembled there, stripped to bare essentials, and then sent to some remote spot, out of all shipping lanes, for the test.

of Education, which may revise or suggest changes, following which, if approved, the program will be turned over to the local building commission. The latter group will carry out the actual building operation, select an architect, and draw up complete plans.

The local building commission is composed of two members from the State Board of Education, two from the Newark Board of Education, and two local lay members. Dr. Harry Holloway is secretary, with Supt. Shue executive secretary.

Fact that the school authorities already have some funds on hand will make it possible to proceed with the preliminary work before the planned referendum is conducted.

Changes and appointments in Newark school personnel also approved this week by the school board were: Appointment of Ernest R. Wilder as English and music instructor. Wilder will also take over the high school band relieving principal Frederick Kutz for full-time administrative duties.

Appointment of Miss Marian E. Jones, as instructor in social studies and languages succeeding Mrs. Grace Wolfenbarger, who has accompanied her husband to Florida where he is engaged in agricultural extension work.

Confirmation of janitorial appointments for Everett Raymond and George Perkins. Clifton T. Knotts was named to full-time maintenance work at the school.

The school board also heard a communication from George Ayers, state director of Health and Physical Education, pointing out the need for additional gym facilities at Newark and suggesting plans for such improvements be included in the school building program.
