DOVER SCENE OF BIG FARM CREDIT MEET

Harrington Announces Third Annual Session for Jan. 30 at Capital

IS COOPERATIVE BODY
Organized in 1934, Loans To Farmers in State Exceed Quarter Million

S. M. Harrington, secretary-treasurer, on behalf of the directors of the Delaware Production Credit Association, announced last week that the third annual stockholders' meeting of the association will be held on January 30, in the auditorium of the Dover Public School. Many farmer members will attend the meeting in addition to invited guests.

The Delaware Production Credit Association is one of the 36 cooperative credit associations in the Baltimore district set up under authority of the Farm Credit Administration, through which farmers may obtain short-term credit for production purposes, including the purchase of livestock, seed, feed, fertilizers, equipment, for repairs and other legitimate production purposes, or to pay indebtedness incurred for production purposes.

Many Loans Made

Since its organization in 1934, loans aggregating $293,000.00 have been made to farmers in the State of Delaware, the territory served by the Delaware Production Credit Association.

L. D. Caulk, Woodside, was elected a director of the association three years ago and has served as president for two years. During his term he has seen the association grow until it is now a large factor in the economic life of the counties served.

Low-Cost Credit

"This association is designed to provide a permanent system of low-cost short-term cooperative credit to farmers and stockmen in this State," Mr. Caulk said, "and day by day more farmers are turning to this method of operating their farms."

"I especially urge all association members to attend the coming meeting. Invitations have been extended to officers and directors of National Farm Loan Associations, county agricultural, and officers of other cooperative farm organizations. In addition, the meeting is open to all persons interested in agriculture and in the development of a permanent cooperative system for agriculture."

All-Day Program

An interesting and instructive program has been arranged. During the forenoon session a report will be made on the growth which the association has made during the current year and the general progress in rendering credit service to the farmers of the territory. The financial report for the past year will also be reviewed.

During the noon recess, the association will entertain the stockholders and their guests with a turkey dinner.

Century Club to Hear Address on Perfumes Monday

Miss Josephine St. Mary, who is connected with the organic chemical department of the E. I. duPont de Nemours Co., will address the Newark New Century Club on the subject, "Interior Perfuming," Monday.

Miss St. Mary received her B.A. degree in organic chemistry from Barnard College, Columbia, in 1933, and is now working for her master's degree at the University of Pennsylvania.

A demonstration will accompany her talk and the program promises to be an interesting one. Miss St. Mary's hobby is "perfumes."

Recently she spoke on the same subject before a class in interior decoration at the Wilmington High School, and before a women's group of the Grace M. E. Church in Wilmington.

Mrs. Joseph M. McVey, chairman of the program committee, is in charge of the arrangements for the afternoon.

Ellison Renamed Fire Chief With Stoll as Leader

CHIEF ELMER J. ELLISON

Newark's veteran fire chief, Elmer J. Ellison, was re-named for the twelfth successive year last Friday night, when Daniel Stoll was returned as president for his second term, following the annual election of the Aetna Hose, Hook and Ladder Company.

Other officers are: vice-president, Charles M. Eissner; secretary, C. W. Colmery; treasurer, J. Earl Dougherty; first assistant chief, Charles Tasker; second assistant chief, Edwin Shakespeare; chief pipeman, Ewell Buckingham; assistant pipeman, Earl Crow, John Cunningham, John Cornell, Clifford Moore and Nathan Davis; recorder, Charles E. Moore; directors, A. B. Eastman, Clement Cannon, Henry Gregg, Dr. G. W. Rhodes, Robert Cook, C. W. Colmery and Messrs. Stoll, Eissner and Dougherty.

Succeeded Wilson

While refusing to divulge the exact length of time he has been a member of the fire company, Chief Ellison admits that he has been affiliated for more than thirty years. He succeeded the late E. C. Wilson as chief in 1925, after serving as assistant from 1912.

The latter year marked an upturn in the affairs of the Aetna company. Only $29 was in the treasury when the Wilson-Ellison combination swung into action.

A financial committee consisting of George Brooks, E. C. Wilson, J. H. Hossinger, G. I. Durnall, A. L. Beals, Edward Bailey and Harvey Hienal was formed on August 2, 1912.

Purchase Motor Equipment

Encouraged by the progress of the committee, plans were made for the purchase of a gasoline driven engine on February 26, 1913.

That no time was lost during the summer is indicated by the fact that a new motorized engine was delivered on September 6 at a total cost of $7,500. James McKeon was the chief engineer and named C. W. Storch, A. Franklin Fader and Chief Wilson as his assistants.

The automobile engine was the third in the State of Delaware and the first owned outside of Wilmington.

George Madden's Orchestra At Country Club Next Week

Marking the first affair since New Year's eve, the Newark Country Club will stage a public dance on Saturday evening, January 23.

The highly popular George Madden and his noted group of musical artists will provide rhythm for the affair.

Salon of Photography To Be Open on Monday

The Delaware Camera Club has issued invitations for the fourth annual and third international Wilmington salon of photography to be held in the lecture hall of the Public Library from 1 to 9 p. m., on weekdays starting on Monday, January 18, and ending on January 31.

A private showing will be held on Monday evening at 8 o'clock, it was announced by Stanley G. Ford, president.

FORCE MAKES 255 ARRESTS DURING 1936

110 Apprehensions Made For Motor Law Violations; 37 Reckless Drivers Fined

ACCIDENTS TOTAL 29

A total number of 255 arrests, 110 of which were violations of motor vehicle laws, was made by the Newark police force, consisting of Chief William H. Cunningham and Officers LeRoy C. Hill, Sr., and James E. Morrison, in 1936.

Reckless Driving Tops List

Of the 110 apprehensions for motor law violations, 37 were made for reckless driving to top the list of arrests. Excessive inebriation cases numbered 26 while ten arrests were made for drunken driving.

Accidents for the year totaled 29, with one fatality. Seven cars were stolen, two breaking and entering and two petty larceny cases were brought before the court. Four fugitives from justice were taken into custody here.

Police calls over the telephone system numbered 746 for the year and overnight lodging was provided for 440 transients.

Parking Arrests Few

Parking arrests numbered two for exceeding the three-hour stopping period and seven for double parking in the town.

Other charges and the numbers of arrests were as follows: breaking and entering, 2; petty larceny, 11; drunk and disorderly, 17; no weight slips, 2; selling without a license, 4; no operator's license, 21; improper brakes, 4; failure to stop at traffic signal, 2; knowingly permitting an unlicensed driver to operate an auto, 2; no mirror, 4, and non-support, 6.

Other Cases

Also included in the report were the following arrests: passing worthless check, 6; assault and battery, 19; over-loaded truck, 8; sodomy, 1; bastardy, 1; harboring a female child, 1; carrying deadly weapon, 1; using a female child, 2; obtaining goods under false pretense, 2; no fares, 5; vagrancy, 4; disorderly conduct, 12; unregistered motor vehicle, 15; trespassing, 7; threatening bodily harm, 5; interfering with operator, 2; learner's permit, 1; resisting arrest, 2; and larceny, 13.

Haney In Charge When Lions Cite Prospects

Following a special course in public speaking, George M. Haney, manager of the Wilmington Auto Sales Company of Newark, made his bow as an orator before the regular weekly meeting of the Newark Lions Club at the Deer Park Hotel, Tuesday evening.

Chairman of the session, Haney introduced individual members of the body who gave short talks on business prospects for 1937. President Joseph M. McVey officiated at the gathering.

Plans were announced for the entertainment of District Governor Joseph Moltz of Baltimore who will make an annual visit next week.

Seven Titles Taken by Local Growers In State Crop Exhibit at Greenwood

Seven first places were won by Newark entries at the annual show of the Delaware Crop Improvement Association held last week at Greenwood, although corn growing honors went to Kent and Sussex counties when both Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Sapp, Houston, were acclaimed producers of the championship single ear and ten-ear samples, respectively, and Grace Hopkins, Lewes, showed the finest ten-ear sample in the boys' and girls' class.

According to Carl Tucker, past president of the association, the exhibit this year contained more high quality entries than any of the recent shows. M. O. Pence, extension agronomist at Purdue University and former county agent leader in Delaware, judged the show.

Individual Winners

Champions from Newark included J. O. Koelg, Jr., who took the interstate class event for yellow corn; Stinson Eastburn, county champion for ten ears yellow corn; Thomas Baker, county champion ten ears white corn; Otis Astel, boys' and girls' class county champion ten ears yellow corn; William Smith, state champion wheat; Charles Davis, state, red clover; and Stinson Eastburn, a dual winner when he was awarded the county corn crown—white and yellow.

Irvin Pinder, Middletown, was declared the county champion in the boys' and girls' class for the finest display of corn samples.

Winners by Class

Interstate Class
Yellow corn: J. O. Koelg, Jr., J. O. Koelg, Sr., and Stinson Eastburn, all of Newark; Matt Harding, Cambridge, Md.; Franklin O'Brien, Seaford, and Frank Melvin, Houston.

Take Oath of Office Next Tuesday

RICHARD C. McMULLEN
Governor-elect

EDWARD W. COOCH
Lt.-Governor-elect

Democratic victors in a bitter campaign last November, Gov.-elect McMullen and Lt.-Gov.-elect Cooch will be inaugurated at the Opera House, Dover, next Tuesday. They will jointly head a delegation from Delaware for the second inauguration of President Roosevelt at Washington on Wednesday.

4-H CLUBS SEEK POLICE ON HUNT COUNTY LEADERS OF TWO CAPTORS

Training Schools Announced by McCauley; Drive to Start Next Week

A drive to obtain local leaders for 4-H club groups throughout Delaware will be launched next week with the inauguration of a series of training schools for volunteer local leaders in the three Delaware counties, it has been announced by C. E. McCauley, 4-H Club agent at large with the Agricultural Extension Service at the University of Delaware.

The schools, which will be held one night each week in each county for five weeks, are to start in Newark, Tuesday; in Dover, Wednesday, and in Georgetown, Thursday. For the next four consecutive weeks, the New Castle County meetings will be held in Newark on Tuesdays, the Kent County meetings in Dover on Wednesdays, and the Sussex County Meetings in Georgetown on Thursdays.

History and Purpose

The purpose of the schools, according to McCauley, is to enable active volunteer local leaders and others desiring to become leaders of 4-H clubs to obtain instruction in the history and purpose of the work; methods of working with groups of young people and recreation and subject matter for project requirements. The schedule for the schools, which will be similar in the three counties, has been worked out by A. D. Cobb, assistant director of extension at the University of Delaware and state club leader with (Continued on Page 4)

Pair Force Youth Into Auto; 13-Year-Old Lad Later Freed Minus Shoes

State police are investigating the abduction of Norman Hitchens, 13-year-old son of Frank E. Hitchens, Little Baltimore, who was picked up by two men last Friday night, detained in an automobile against his will and finally released without shoes some two hours later.

The youth, who was returning to his home after accompanying several other boys on a "coon" hunt, was grabbed by the men as he walked along the road, according to his father.

Few Clues Given

Thoroughly frightened by the ordeal, the lad was unable to give the police much information concerning his abductors. He thought they were in a car bearing Pennsylvania tags and that one of the men was tall and the other of about medium height. The parents are offering a reward for the arrest of the pair.

Worried over the boy's failure to return from the hunt at a normal hour, Mr. Hitchens was thoroughly angered when Norman finally reached his home after a footsore tramp of almost two miles over open fields. The matter was immediately reported to Chief of Police William H. Cunningham here who relayed the matter to the state police.

Covered with Bag

According to the boy's story, he was walking along the road near his home when a car stopped beside him. Two men, he stated, jumped out and immediately covered his head with a bag.

Placed in the car, he was driven around the country for about two hours before being turned loose in a meadow some two miles from his home.

The men removed his shoes before freeing him, he added.

Local Resident Departed Saturday for World Tour

Among those who sailed on Saturday for a trip around the world on the liner Empress of Britain were: Mrs. E. B. Wright, Sr. of Newark, Mr. and Mrs. J. Warren Marshall and their daughter, Miss Eleanor A. Marshall, and Miss Alice S. Pusey, all of Yorklyn, Del.

The Canadian Pacific Liner Empress of Britain sailed from Pier 59 N. R., at noon on Saturday bound on her sixth annual cruise around the world. Her itinerary includes Madeira, Gibraltar, Algiers and the Mediterranean ports. From there she proceeds through the Suez Canal to India, Ceylon, Straits Settlements, Siam, Java, Bali, the Philippines, Japan, China and Hawaii. She will return to the United States via California and the Panama Canal on May 14.

Reported Car Stolen

Shortly after receiving a call from Elkton, Morrison was informed in a telephone call from Meehan that his car had been stolen. The suspect was promptly picked up at the Newark Diner.

According to Morrison's report, Meehan stated that his car had been taken while he was in Elkton and that he had come to Newark in a taxi. Failing to satisfy the officers with answers to other questions, however, the man was held.

COOCH HEADS LOCAL PARTY AT CEREMONY

Large Delegation from This Section Will Be Present for Inauguration

GOVERNOR TO RECEIVE
Former Newark Man Assigned As McMullen Aide at Washington Rites

Headed by Lt.-Gov.-elect Edward W. Cooch, Mrs. Cooch, Thomas and Edward W. Cooch, Jr., prominent Democrats from White Clay Creek and Pencader Hundreds will be in evidence next Tuesday at Dover for the inauguration of Mr. Cooch and Governor-elect Richard C. McMullen. A detachment from Battery E, 198th Coast Artillery, D. N. G., will participate in the parade under the command of Lieutenant Harry C. Powell.

Chancellor Josiah O. Wolcott will administer the oath to both of the State's new chief executives, according to plans for the affair announced this week.

Leaders at Washington

Following the State's inauguration ceremony and traditional ball Tuesday night at the Dover Armory, Messrs. McMullen and Cooch will head the Delaware delegation at the inauguration of President Roosevelt in Washington the following day.

A former Newark resident, Major Thomas H. Chambers, U. S. Army, will be Governor McMullen's aide when he arrives in the Capitol. Major Chambers, who attended school here and formerly worked for the Continental Fibre Company, is a son of the late John Chambers.

Program Completed

The program for the inauguration in the Dover Opera House at noon next Tuesday has been completed by the joint legislative committee of which Rep. George Lester Daniels, Townsend, is chairman.

Approval of the program was given by Mr. McMullen this week. Adj.-Gen. Weller E. Stover assisted the committee in working out details for the ceremonies.

Governor Buck and Governor-elect McMullen will go to the Opera House in the same automobile. The two houses of the General Assembly will convene in joint session on the stage at the Opera House and will be in charge of the ceremonies there. Lt.-Gov.-elect Cooch will preside.

Parade to Follow

There will be a parade following the inaugural ceremonies. The new governor will hold a public reception in his parlors in Legislative Hall from 2 to 2.30 o'clock. The inaugural ball will be held in the state armory starting at 9 o'clock. No invitations are being issued for the ball which is open to the public.

Mr. Cooch will take the oath of office in the Senate chamber before going to the Opera House for the governor's inauguration.

Maryland Police Hold Newark Man On Motor Charge

Arrested here early last Thursday morning by Officer James E. Morrison following a call from Cecil County authorities at Elkton, Michael Meehan, a blacksmith who lives at Polly Drummond's Hill, was turned over to Deputy Sheriff Elwood Racine on a hit and run charge.

Meehan, reported as an employee at Berry Wiggins' Ellendale Farm, is charged with having been involved in an accident at Elkton at a late hour on Wednesday night of last week. According to the Maryland police, he deserted his car and fled from the scene of the collision.

Reported Car Stolen

Shortly after receiving a call from Elkton, Morrison was informed in a telephone call from Meehan that his car had been stolen. The suspect was promptly picked up at the Newark Diner.

According to Morrison's report, Meehan stated that his car had been taken while he was in Elkton and that he had come to Newark in a taxi. Failing to satisfy the officers with answers to other questions, however, the man was held.

Lesson for January 17

JESUS THE WATER OF LIFE

LESSON TEXT—John 4:7-26.
GOLDEN TEXT—Whoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him shall never thirst. John 4:14.
PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus Answering a Woman's Question.
JUNIOR TOPIC—How a Stranger Became a Friend.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Jesus Meets His Greatest Needs.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Jesus Meets Our Deepest Need.

Life, light, water, bread are elemental, fundamental things. Life must come from God. But it can exist only where there is light, and only God gives light.

It is therefore a blessed and significant fact that Jesus was declared to be the life of men. He also says of himself that he is the "light of the world" (John 9:5); "the bread of life" (John 6:35). In our lesson today we see Him as the one who gives "living water" (v. 10).

The incident at Jacob's well in Sychar took place when Jesus, leaving Jerusalem because of increasing hindrance to his work, goes up to Galilee. Unlike his Jewish brethren, who detoured around the land of the hated "half-breed" Samaritans, he "must needs go through Samaria," for there was a sin-sick soul that needed him.

Space will not permit a full consideration of all the beauty and the depth of spiritual truth found in this story.

I. A Sinner Tacitly Approached (vv. 7-15).

Every Christian is by his very calling a soul-winner. We dare not delegate this responsibility to the pastor or missionary. As soul-winners we are vitally interested in our Lord's approach to this woman who was far from God, apparently hopelessly involved in sinful associations, a citizen of a hostile nation and an adherent of another religious faith.

By asking a favor of her he tactfully placed himself (as does any petitioner) for the moment, on her own plane. He was not a distant, learned religious leader deigning to cast a bit of religious philosophy to her. He was a tired, thirsty man asking for a drink of water. But he was more! He was the gracious Son of God, ready to give the water of life.

II. A Moral Problem Faced (vv. 16-18).

One may speak knowingly of the promises of God's Word, and may understand the "way of salvation," but one will never find peace and joy until there is a frank and open facing of sin in the life. Let us make no mistake at this point, for the moral law of God is the same now as it was on that far-off day when Jesus brought the woman of Samaria face to face with her own sin.

III. A Theological Problem Solved (vv. 19-24).

Possibly in an effort to evade her moral problem by theological discussion (a common practice in our day, too), and partly because of her ignorance of true worship, she asks a question about a controversial matter relating to outward ceremony. Is it not a singular thing how men who know nothing of spiritual life delight in the propagation and defense of organizations, and in the conduct of outward religious exercises?

True worship is revealed (v. 23) as being (1) "in spirit." We do not cast aside all external helps to worship, but real worship goes through and beyond both place and symbol to real soul-union with God (2) "in truth." Sham, superstition, hypocrisy, have no place in true worship. We can worship in truth only when we really know the truth. MacLaren rightly said, "The God to whom men attain by any other path than his historical revelation of himself is a dim, colorless abstraction, a peradventure, an object of fear or hope, as may be, but not of knowledge." Truly spoke Jesus— "We know what we worship" (v. 22).

IV. The Messiah Declared (vv. 25, 26).

Jesus honors this poor fallen woman by making to her his first declaration of himself as the Messiah. He is the high and exalted one, but he is at the same time the friend of sinners. To the learned ruler of the Jews, Nicodemus, he spoke of the new birth. To the poor woman of Samaria he declares his Messiahship.

And she forthright left her water pot and went to bring others to him.

Height of Our Destiny

It is from out of the depths of our humility that the height of our destiny looks grandest. Let me truly feel that in myself I am nothing, and at once, through every inlet of my soul, God comes in, and is everything in me.—W. Mountford.

Love and Fears

The warm loves and fears, that sweep over us as clouds, must lose their finite character and blend with God, to attain their own perfection.—Emerson.

ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE REP. TO BE GUEST

Assembly Program Fri.

BOARD IS ORGANIZED

By Edna A. Dickey

Christiana, Jan. 13.—Next Sunday morning at the M. E. Church, Rev. Ivanhoe Willis, a representative of the Anti-Saloon League of the Wilmington Conference, will be the speaker. In the evening at 7:30, Rev. Green will have for his theme, "Foot-sore Religion."

Last Sunday evening, the Christiana Improvement Association worshipped in a body. Rev. Green spoke on "Beds of Affliction"—being Atheism, Agnosticism, Election, Inconsistency, Self-righteous and Procastination.

The evening of January 24 will be known as "Bringing in the Sheaves Night."

"An Old Hymn Service" will be held on the evening of January 31. Old hymns of the church will be sung and a history of each will be given by the pastor.

A candle light service will be held Sunday evening, February 7.

Trustees Elect

The following trustees were elected last Sunday evening: Mr. William Appleby for a period of two years; Mr. Frank Hawthorne, 2 years; Mr. John Perkins, 2 years; Mr. Wilmer Hawthorne, 3 years; Mr. Robert Elliott, 3 years; and Mr. George McCarns, 3 years.

Following the election the board organized. Mr. William Appleby was elected president, Mr. George McCarns, vice-president; Mrs. Alma Lynn, secretary; and Mr. Henry Eastburn, treasurer.

The Society of Salem Young People will hold a Christmas party at the parsonage on Friday evening. A meeting of the Boy Scouts will also be held.

The annual covered dish supper of the Christiana M. E. Social will be held on Friday evening January 22, and that of Salem Church on Wednesday evening, January 27.

Mr. Charles Green of Norfolk, Va., brother of Rev. Richard M. Green, was the week-end guest of Rev. and Mrs. Green. Rev. Green accompanied his brother to Staten Island, N. Y. on Monday.

Removed To Hospital

Mrs. May Draper has been removed to the Wilmington General Hospital from her home here.

Mr. Harry Marshall who has been confined to his home for several weeks with illness is little improved. Mr. Marshall is one of the oldest residents of Christiana. His presence in our community life is very much missed.

Mrs. Elizabeth Vincent, who has been quite ill, is improved. A surprise birthday party was tendered Mr. Peter Walker last Friday evening. A very pleasant evening was spent.

Work on the new bridge is progressing. The pouring of cement was started last week.

Dr. H. B. King, superintendent of elementary schools, visited Christiana-Salem Consolidated School last Friday.

Program Planned

The following assembly program will be presented next Friday morning from 9 to 9:30 by the first and second grades under the direction of Mrs. Margaret Thornton, teacher:

Garrett, Miller Company Sells Electrical Supplies and Household Needs to Big Area

Completeness of stock and managerial versatility have been the foremost factors in enabling Garrett, Miller Company to stand out in bold relief in the electrical supplies business.

For 40 years the same high standards of endeavor have been included in the company's roster, with the management giving its best to the trade and upholding the standards of the industry through its many changes.

Frank S. Garrett, co-founder of the business with the late Henry K. Miller, is aided in directing the firm by R. S. Grover, who has been affiliated with the company since its inception.

Diamond State Brewery Makes Lager According to Original Stockle Formula

When the Stockle formula for beer brewing was put into active use in 1872 it marked the inception of a new and popular type of the amber beverage. Today the same quality and uniformity of flavor is available in Diamond State Fine Lager Beer, manufactured by Diamond State Brewery, Inc., of Fifth and Adams Streets, Wilmington.

The original Stockle formula is still in force and has been utilized to make the product the best available since the firm began brewing again last September. Twenty employees are engaged in the plant, each realizing that he has a job to do and accomplishing it according to the output demands of the clientele.

Three trucks are used to distribute the beer throughout the entire district.

Adolph G. Dangel, president; William Conley, vice-president and Joseph A. Errigo, secretary and treasurer, are responsible for the present standing of the firm and its products.

The brewery is maintained under the most sanitary conditions and contains all of the most approved methods and facilities for producing superior brews under the best conditions.

Crossan Abattoir Produces Quality Pork Products For Appreciative Clientele

Relied on by homes throughout this entire section of the state and appreciated for the many unusual service aspects associated with it, the provision enterprise of Eugene W. Crossan, at 2902 Washington Avenue, Roselle, holds sway as one of the bright lights of its activity.

The abattoir is operated on the most modern and sanitary lines, with approved measures in force. Mr. Crossan has gained wide recognition for the sausage, scrapple, fresh and smoked hams, bacon, loins and shoulders of pork and various other products which are dressed in his own establishment after the hogs are killed on the premises.

Pure lard and similar by-products of the industry are also sold by him.

The Crossan retail meat shop at Eighth and Madison Streets, Wilmington, is one of the best known places of its kind in the city and holds the patronage of scores of discriminating housewives.

Crossan provisions are sold from the Pennsylvania state line to New Castle and Newark, taking in all territory in the intervening area.

Mr. Crossan knows how to please discriminating people and in offering only the highest quality pork products has met with the success that he rightfully deserves.

Brown And Leikel Marks Early Milestone In Career in Purchase of Amoco Station

Progressive strides taken by E. C. Brown and M. C. Leikel, of Wilmington, have brought them into extensive recognition during the last year. Their concerted efforts and devotion to the requirements of the motoring public have enabled them to gain and hold the confidence and approval of a legion of customers.

Each has 15 years' experience to his credit, thus giving the firm of Brown and Leikel an excellent background and sound foundation on which to build in the future.

At Seventh and Washington Sts., Wilmington, the enterprise maintains a battery and ignition service which is regarded as second to none in the city. The best of service, courtesy and attention combines with the expert knowledge of the partners to assure the most discriminating patron lasting satisfaction.

The firm recently assumed charge of the Amoco service station at Maryland Avenue and Mill Road, Richardson Park, a one-stop spot that has been popular with motorists since its inception.

While Amoco products are found there exclusively the station also offers scientific motor and carburetor analysis with the aid of Allen devices. Motor trouble is quickly

Associated Wilmington Laundries Extends Its Service Scope to New Castle County

Washday was never looked forward to by housewives before the era of modern laundries. Taking the "blue" out of Monday has been the work of Associated Wilmington Laundries, of 417 West Second Street, since a merger brought about the present strengthened and versatile condition at the model plant.

Founded in 1904 as Turner Brothers, the business enjoyed a career marked by several prominent milestones and gave New Castle County a laundry service of metropolitan aspect.

In 1922 a merger brought the present firm style into being and widened the firm's scope of activity appreciably.

With 34 trucks calling and delivering all over the area, Associated Wilmington Laundries holds the confidence of housewives who appreciate the prompt and efficient schedule upon which the fleet operates.

Every department of laundering is engaged in, while cleaning and dyeing are also provided by the concern.

Modern methods are employed exclusively and the personnel of 250 is engaged under the best conditions.

Oberly Brick Co. Supplies Contractors With Quality Products to Meet Demands

Commendable business and trade advances at Oberly Brick Company, 909 Orange Street, Wilmington, have been made in late years with the management always taking into consideration new demands of the trade and offering the last word in service and the satisfaction for all concerned.

Founded in 1889 by James B. Oberly, the business continued under his directing hand until his demise in 1923. His son, Howard B. Oberly, had been affiliated with his father in the activity since the business was launched and became president in 1930.

Associated with him in the management of the plant are Harry C. Craig, vice-president; J. W. Bartlett, secretary; and Mary M. Dugan, treasurer.

Manufacturing all kinds of bricks for building, the firm maintains wholesale and retail distribution departments and sells its output all over New Castle County and its environs.

With 50 workers employed and eight trucks in operation the concern holds the confidence and esteem of a vast clientele, while the attention given to orders is always prompt and efficient.

The yard of the plant at Thirty-sixth and Broome Streets, has all modern facilities.

James Bradford Co. Marks Ninetieth Year As a Leading Member of Paint Mfg. Field

Through several successive eras of management James Bradford Company, of 212 Market Street, Wilmington, has followed a path of progress since its founding as a paint firm on a humble basis back in 1847.

James Bradford gave the business a foundation that has remained through four-score and ten years to become a model of business and trade accomplishment in a field that today has competition galore.

Bradford's Prepared Paints are the standard of the industry and hold sway in favoritism with painters, contractors, builders and householders everywhere.

Serving a vast area, the firm has clients in New York State, Philadelphia, Harrisburg, West Chester, Eastern Shores of Maryland and Virginia, Winchester, and throughout the entire state of Delaware.

The territories intervening in this region are also served by the concern.

Only the best pigments, leads and other ingredients are used in the line of prepared paints, while uniform quality has been a leading element in enabling the products to hold their place of acceptance through the years.

A personnel of 22 workers is employed under the management of William Berl, Jr., president; Henry Marston, vice-president; F. M. Elliott, secretary, and Walter M. Francis, 2d, treasurer.

Cramer Service Station Proves Versatility Of New Castle's Popular Justice of Peace

Capable of holding the recognition and commendation of the people as an official and business man, Justice of the Peace W. Leslie Cramer, of DuPont Highway, south of Hare's Corner, near New Castle, is known all over the section for the many commanding influences that he has exerted.

Devoted to the interests of the motoring public, his popular service station offers 24-hour service every day in the week and has maintained unusually superior standards of work to ascertain that the customers are always satisfied.

Amoco and Esso products are offered, while lubricating and kindred services are available.

The station was founded in 1933 by Judge Cramer who has held his present position on the minor bench for several terms. He attained added recognition a few years ago when he was elevated to the position of mayor.

Chandler H. Gebhart is Aided by His Wife In Serving Clients at Modern Funeral Home

Professional endeavor and the dignity which the field reflects have been outstanding elements in placing Chandler H. Gebhart, of 531 Delaware Street, New Castle, on his present pinnacle as a funeral director.

During the 34 years he has been active in the work Mr. Gebhart has studied his endeavor faithfully and well, attaining the rank of authority through his original appointment to the Board of Undertaker Examiners of the state.

Governor Buck appointed and reappointed Mr. Gebhart to the office, while Governor Robinson reiterated his predecessor's selection by again naming him to the all-important role. Mr. Gebhart is valued by his colleagues in the group and holds the office of treasurer.

The Gebhart funeral home has accommodations for about 200 persons and possesses full facilities and many aids to assure the last word in satisfaction for all who call upon it for service.

Mrs. Mary A. Gebhart assists her husband in the firm and has proven an invaluable aid.

Deemer's Inn Invites Thousands Yearly With Many Attractive Features Presented

Amid surroundings that delight the guest and present an atmosphere of welcome and hospitality, Deemer's Inn is situated at Deemer's Bench.

The popular rendezvous has been established for three years under the management of Frederick J. Voss who has put forth much personal initiative and his best endeavor to give the customers a service of many parts.

The cuisine at Deemer's Inn is the prevailing feature associated with it, for the finest foods and skillfully prepared and served in an appetizing manner to delight the most fastidious patron.

Seasonal foods are always in evidence to suit the individual tastes of the guests. Rooms to accommodate transients are found there, as epic and span and comfortable as the rest of the inn, reflecting the policy of attention which has guided the management's activity.

A roller skating rink spanning 40,000 square feet and the largest of its kind in the state is also hailed as the best by enthusiasts of the sport.

Located on one of the most beautiful water expanses in Delaware Deemer's Inn fronts on a mile of waterway and has a pier 1,000 feet long where Summer guests enjoy bathing, fishing and other recreations.

The J. Allison O'Daniel Unit No. 10, American Legion Auxiliary, will hold a covered dish luncheon at the home of Mrs. Paul D. Lovett, Old Oak Road, Friday, January 15, from 12 to 1:30 p. m. All members and their friends are urged to be present.

Juniors Install Officers At Meeting Monday Night

Officers of the American Flag Council No. 28 were installed Monday evening by Deputy State Councilor Andrew Ulrich, of Wilmington.

Upon taking the chair, Councilor Gregson gave a lengthy address on our duties to the council and officers. New committees will be named at the next session.

Invitations have been mailed to all councils for the fortieth anniversary celebration on January 25, in the New Century Club.

"Tuesday evening, we journeyed to the Middletown council where we spent an enjoyable evening," said A. Neal Smythe, publicity chairman of the organization. "Later in the evening," he continued, "we had a luncheon in the dining room."

"At the table," he said with a laugh, "Brother Beck took all in, even admiring the silverware."

Friday night, January 22, we go to Townsend Council, and I know this will be a big night," he concluded with a sly wink.

"Sure it's BIG BUSINESS!"

"A fellow asked me one time: 'How does it feel to work for a big corporation?'"

"Well sir, for a minute I didn't know what to say. I never thought of our gang that way. Of course we're big! You've got to be big to serve more than 36,500 telephones in Delaware and something like 14 1/2 million all over the country. And I suppose a lawyer would call us a corporation. But shucks! I'm not a corporation and my boss isn't either. None of the boys in our gang is a corporation. Just ordinary fellows doing our jobs the best we know how. Trying to give you the best possible telephone service 365 days in the year."

Thousands of businesses—big and small—are growing bigger with the help of long distance service. In the past ten years, long distance telephone service has steadily advanced in scope, speed and clarity. Again and again in the same period there have been reductions in long distance rates. Long distance takes you there and back faster...easier...at lower cost.

NEW SHERIFF BRINGS NEW DEAL

Indicating that he plans to carry out his campaign promises of eliminating many evils connected with the office, Sheriff John M. Ulmer started shuffling the deck for a New Deal shortly after being sworn in last week.

The new sheriff was greeted with a surprise when he stumbled over the fact that New Castle County has been laboring along with no less than 223 "special deputies." They weren't on the public payroll, of course, but their presence and activities represented a purpose that wasn't of the highest order.

Many of the so-called "special deputies" were found to be collectors for installment houses and other agencies. Many of the "deputies" were unscrupulous in using their privileges by threatening delinquent customers with criminal prosecution unless they paid their debts contracted by purchasing articles on the installment plan.

With the view of wiping out such a misuse of constitutional authority, Sheriff Ulmer has revoked the power of all County Special Deputy Sheriffs who have been granted privileges by former administrations.

He seeks the merited support of the public in asking that all cases where special deputy badges are shown without a certificate of his authority, be reported to his office.

Meanwhile, collectors for installment firms are forced to do their dunning without aid of special privileges from the sheriff's office. All of which is heartening for the citizens of New Castle County and as it should be.

Mr. Ulmer's move is both enlightening and encouraging.

YOU CAN BE WRONG AT THE RIGHT-OF-WAY

Here lies the body of Samuel McKay

Who died maintaining the right-of-way.—Epitaph

According to the Delaware Safety Council a large number of our state accidents, a great many of which result in death, occur each year because some impatient motorist tries to pass the car in front on a hill or curve. Safety authorities are unanimous on condemning this practice as one of the most dangerous of all traffic sins. Stay in line and be safe. It might take a few seconds more but it will be well worth the delay.

Officials of the Council find, by careful study of the accident statistics, that many operators do not pay sufficient attention to stop signs and signals. They fail to observe stop signs by coming to a complete stop. Failure to do so is an important cause of accidental death and injury. Regardless of whether the road seems to be clear of traffic, play fair with the officials and with yourself too by obeying your traffic laws. The Council finds that "didn't have right way" is written on a large number of our state's accident reports and behind this phrase all too often lies failure to observe stop signals.

The problem of priority at unguarded intersections is sometimes puzzling. A good rule to follow, which incidentally is the law in Delaware, is to give the motorist on the right right-of-way when two cars approach at right angles at the same time. If the other motorist is on your left, you can go first but be sure he understands your intention. The settlement of the right-of-way problem is never worth a crash.

EDITOR'S MAIL BAG

January 13, 1937

Editor Newark Post,
Newark, Delaware.
Dear Sir:

There seems to be quite a number of varied opinions in regard to the parking situation in Newark. I have a suggestion which is not original, but is carried out, I believe, successfully in other towns and cities. It is as follows: the Town Council passes an ordinance to permit any property owner and resident of Newark to apply to the Council for a permit to regulate parking in front of his property, property owner to have the choice of 10 minute, one-half hour or hour parking.

The cost of the permit should be enough to pay for the two signs which would be furnished by the town together with a nominal sum for perhaps extra police work but it should be kept as low as possible.

Said permit should be renewed annually. This would give the opportunity to any business man on Main street or any other part of the town to practically control parking in front of his place of business and even if all of the business places on Main street should apply for these permits there would still be considerable space left from the B. & O. railroad to the center for three hour parking.

Isn't it worth trying?

Interested.

State Theatre House Notes

Friday and Saturday

Set in the colorful background of New Orleans in the gay 70's, "Rainbow on the River," Bobby Breen's new singing vehicle produced by Sol Lesser for RKO Radio release, offers film patrons of this theatre a lavish musical drama boasting a strong story plot, a fine cast, elaborate settings and a group of songs by the talented nine-year-old star. May Robson heads the supporting cast of the young songster who skyrocketed to fame in his debut picture "Let's Sing Again," after having won wide popularity as Eddie Cantor's radio protégé. Charles Butterworth, Louise Beavers, Benita Hume and Henry O'Neill essay important roles. More than a thousand atmosphere players appear in the several spectacular sequences. One of the highlights of the film is the singing of the famous Hall Johnson Choir of fifty-four Negro voices in cotton-picking and Mississippi levee scenes. A picture for both young and old to see. Don't miss it.

ROAMIN' WITH RUTLEDGE

The Lump Came Up

A panicky finish by Lyl Clark's basketball proteges almost resulted in a P. M. C. victory last Saturday night in the tiny excuse of a building the University of Delaware uses for a gymnasium.

Holding a 13-point lead with less than five minutes to play, the Hens suddenly lost their perspective. Instead of protecting the margin that should have been theirs, they coasted them home with plenty to spare, the local collegians turned the contest into a track meet.

Where a bit of orthodox pass work and some elementary handling of the ball would have left the desperate Cadets in the well known lurch, the Hens suddenly resembled a gang of coeds rushing for an hour alone with Robert Taylor.

And did the Chester lads like it? Every time a wild Hen heave sailed out of bounds, the scrappy Soldiers, with a sprightly youth named Spang leading the pack, converted the chance into a field goal.

Delaware captured its fourth victory of the season and remained undefeated on the home boards, but the four-point margin at the finish had spectators holding their breath.

No Excuses

If titles for poor sportsmanship were handed out it is highly likely that spectators at the University of Delaware court games would gain the palm with plenty to spare in many cases.

Lending an unbiased ear to the chorus of jeers unfolded at the contests, one might suppose that referees were agents of the devil—or Hitler.

Lieutenant George Fletcher, one of the officials of the game last Saturday, aroused the ire not only of the spectators, but seemed not to please Coach Clark with his decisions, as well.

Yet Fletcher gave Delaware a "break" when he permitted "Teedie" Wilson, captain of the local quintet, to remain in action after the latter had aimed a ball at the official with considerable gusto of a not-too-friendly nature. Fletcher realized possibly that Wilson would soon chase himself to the showers via the personal foul route. He did.

A better break for officials at local contests and less heckling from Delaware's bench might have a more favorable reaction for the Hens. Something worth trying anyway.

Seen and Heard

Dr. Walter Hullihen, according to a Wilmington paper, entertained members of the 1936 University of Delaware football team on Tuesday night.

Dignified Dr. Wilbur Owen Sypher, head of the English department at Delaware, would do well to check on this. An early morning call to his office brought the telephone response, "he AIN'T in."

Some members of the Rising Sun, Md., Fire Company are raising stink over the fact that Taylor Biles, president of the body and manager of the recently formed basketball team, is enlisting non-members from Oxford, Pa., to perform with the quintet. The team, it is reported, will fill a vacancy in the Cecil County Basketball League, which failed to invite Newark's 1935 and 1936 champions this year because, so it's noted about, non-Maryland players weren't wanted in the loop.

Recruiting Notes

Capt. H. Wallace Cook, commanding officer at the local State Armory, resents a crack in this space some weeks ago anent the fact that Newark basketball devotees are refused the privilege of sporting their ability in the place.

He hangs the welcome sign out on two counts. One means of using the armory is by paying $28 a night for games, under a state law, and the other is by enlisting in Battery E. The "Cap" claims a willingness to sponsor a team providing basketball

BALTIMORE PASSERS STOP BLUE AND GOLD TEAM IN CLOSE GAME

Bees Take 44-35 Verdict After Exciting Battle; Delaware Quint Shows To Advantage; Count Tied Four Times; Jay Vees Win as Swimmers Lose

By "The Roamer"

Coach Johnny Ogden's well drilled band of University of Baltimore basketballers handed the University of Delaware passers their initial defeat of the season on the local boards by taking an exciting, 44-35 decision last night. It was the Hen's third reverse against four triumphs for the campaign.

Close Throughout

Despite the safe margin sported by the Bees at the end of the game, the tilt was close and hard-fought throughout. Battling a superior foe that made good use of a well filled bag of tricks, Delaware turned in its best effort of the season before the home fans to stay in the ball game until the last 50 seconds of play.

Although never gaining a lead, the Hens pulled the spectators from their seats on numerous occasions as they staged beautiful rallies to reduce Baltimore's endless advantages. The count was tied at 7, 9, 11 and 12 in the first half before the Bees spurred to hold a 23-13 lead at the rest period.

Hens Make Comeback

Starting the second session with their most prolific scoring spree of the battle, the Delaware passers counted eight points in the first two minutes of play to make the score read 23-21 against them.

From that point until the closing 50 seconds of action, the Blue and Gold dribblers were right in the thick of the scrap. They never were more than four points behind the Bees and managed to fight their way to within a single marker of deadlocking the issue on three occasions.

Baltimore's closing outburst proved fatal for the local forces, however, as Reisinger and Probst placed the game on ice for the Free Staters with telling double-deckers in the final seconds of action.

Sheats Outstanding

Pitted against the vaunted Vic Probst, who lived up to the glowing advance reports anent his ability, Earl Sheats, Delaware's freshman center, was the outstanding performer for the home horde.

He shared scoring honors with Daly and Carey while doing a great job of holding Probst in check until the closing minutes of action. Daly, with a grand exhibition of floor work, snapped out of the holiday hangover that marred his efforts in the P. M. C. battle.

Hayman gave a good account of himself before leaving the contest on fouls, while Pennock, although given little chance to show his stuff, indicated that he is ready for a starting berth again.

Vic Probst, Bohemian center for the Baltimore outfit, paced his mates in chalking up points with a collection of 14 and proved to be the best pivot man to show here since the appearance of Guokas, St. Joseph's, last year.

Eddie Puluino, diminutive forward, counted 13 markers to share scoring honors with Probst. The majority of Puluino's points were made easy by the fast and deceptive passwork of the visitors.

Mike Pellino, a guard and keystone man of a pivot play that bothered the Hens, showed the fans some adept ball handling, while George Reisinger hung up a pair of well aimed long shots that bordered on the spectacular.

Ogden Absent

Despite the absence of their head coach, Johnny Ogden, who was forced to miss the game due to important duties connected with his job of serving the Baltimore Orioles as general manager, the Bees turned in a sparkling exhibition. Assistant Coach Bucky Miller handled the team.

Delaware's swimmers suffered a loss at Swarthmore yesterday afternoon.

"THE ROAMER"

VI
DEFENSIVE PLAY
PART B

Individual brilliance and coordinated team-play! That is the difficult combination called for by man-for-man defense, the oldest and most common form of defensive play.

Defensive Play

The principle of this style of defense is that each man is assigned one opponent for whom he is responsible. Usually the guards watch the opposing forwards, the center guards the center, and the forwards take the guards. Some coaches instruct their teams to follow their men all over the court, while others think it better to allow their men to drop back to the middle of the court when they lose the ball and pick up their opponents as they enter the scoring zone. The strategy here is to gain as many moments of rest for your men as possible.

Two-Style Combination

A combination of the two styles of defense is possible. When this system is used, the team drops back into a zone-defensive position upon losing the ball. Two offensive players are allowed to enter scoring territory and are covered by the men in the back line of defense. The third man to enter is taken by the man through whose territory he passes. The two remaining offensive men are taken by the other defensive players.

If three offensive players remain outside scoring territory—i.e., in front of the defense—the zone defense is used. As soon as there are three men in the scoring zone, a switch is made to man-for-man defense.

Many Important Points

In all defensive play, these points are important. (1) Play close enough to your man to prevent a shot, but not so close that a sudden start or feint will fool you. (2) Keep your eye on the ball and the man—you can then take advantage of interceptions and loose balls. (3) Never rush an opponent. (4) When your man is contemplating a shot, keep waving your arms to distract him. (5) Never leave your feet to stop a long shot. (6) Avoid unnecessary fouling, especially in the closing minutes of a tight game. (7) Always keep between your man and the basket. (8) If you lose the ball, take a defensive position at once—for what avails the best defense after the other team has scored?

SHOWS AT STATE

"The Masked Marvel"

Although his identity is being kept secret by the sponsors of the Better Billiards Program, "The Masked Marvel," who is billed as one of the ten leading pocket billiard players in the world, will unmask when finally beaten.

Len Fossett, barbering baritone and a brother of the talented Jack Fossett of local fame, will endeavor to beat the "Marvel" in an exhibition match at Jimmy Martin's State parlors Friday night.

In addition to the match, Martin's program includes a demonstration of trick shots by the unknown visitor.

Front Post in Billiards
Race; Martin Ousted

Following a series of startling upsets that marked the opening of the 1937 portion of the Tri-State Pocket Billiards League's schedule, Champion Fred Brown, Port Deposit, emerged at the top of the heap by snaring two important wins.

He was pushed to the limit on Wednesday night at Oxford where Horace (Tubby) Ringler, performing before a home crowd pushed the champ to a 125-123 count before dropping the decision.

Last week, Brownie beat his protégé, Don Cunningham, 125-85, at Port Deposit.

Fossett Wins - Loses

Handing Jimmy Martin his first defeat of the campaign, 125-93, in a local battle last week, Jack Fossett looked headed for bigger things until he ran afoul of Huss at Oxford on Monday night to lose, 125-83.

Ringler defeated Huss last week, 125-112, to split his two starts since the holiday recess.

Tommy Riale, champion in 1935, took a neighborhood match from his fellow-townsmen, "Tip" Hanna, at Rising Sun last week, 125-75, to bring his record on a balanced keel for the race.

Race Is Tight

As a result of all the action, Martin is in second place, one-half game behind Brown, and one-half game ahead of Fossett and Ringler who are deadlocked for third position.

Important matches are in the offing for the coming week. Two "crucial" meetings are listed for the State Parlors in as many nights. Brown and Fossett play there on Tuesday and Martin entertains Huss the following night.

Baseball Team Given Permit to Use Dameron's Field for Trap Tests

PLAYERS MEET SUNDAY

Plans for the resumption of trap shoots under the sponsorship of the local independent baseball team were announced at a meeting of club heads last Friday night. With Jack Edman and Paul Whiteman again in charge, the initial affair will be staged on Saturday, Jan. 23. They will be continued on a weekly basis for an indefinite period.

S. E. Dameron, owner of the property along Ogletown Road near the end of East Main Street, has granted permission for the team to again use his field for the shoots.

Leaders Discouraged

While endorsing reports that they will both resign before many weeks, Huey Morris, president, and John Murray, secretary-treasurer, withheld the action until definite plans for the coming summer are partially made.

The meeting last week proved disappointing to the heads of the team, when only three men reported. In addition to the three officers, Edman, George Jackson, a director, and Henry Jackson, who handled tickets, were the only people present for the session.

Players Disinterested

Morris denounced members of the team who fail to take any interest in the manifold affairs not connected with the playing field. In classifying them as selfish and spoiled, he stated emphatically that while he is willing to lend help toward the support of a Newark team, he will not stoop again to the many things he was forced to combat last summer in aiding players who do not appreciate the things done for them.

In a second attempt to enlist help for completing preliminary plans before the mid-winter meeting of the Bi-State League next month, Morris has called another meeting for Sunday at noon. The session will take place at Jackson's Hardware Store, 90 E. Main Street.

Although they presented a close knit defense, the Newark High School YellowJackets were beaten by a strong Wilmington team Friday due to their inability to convert many shots. Wilmington's winning margin was piled up in the first quarter when Newark failed to get one point while the Red Devils gathered eight.

Egnor played the best game for the Jackets while Sigmund was best for the Devils.

Goldey Conquers

Leading until the closing minutes of the game, the Newarkers were tied by a fighting Goldey team, Monday. Three Jackets were removed from the game via the foul route which handicapped the Highlets and the Goldey team scored nine points, winning 36-27. Bill Butts led the scoring with six field goals and seven charity tosses for a total of nineteen points.

On Friday, the YellowJackets will play a strong P. S. duPont team on the home floor. The first game be-

Fenton Daugherty that the Athletic Council would, in all probability, file a claim for the redemption of the Federal Government's athletic tax infringed for the past four years, were the major developments in the local institution's sport activities this week.

First Since 1922

Roberts, in taking the Blue Hen grid helm, becomes the first local boy to receive this distinction since 1922 when John Davidson Williams, sorrel-head halfback led the Blue and Gold team through a successful season boasting of six victories and only three defeats. Walter Dean (Dick) Holton, also of Newark, captained the squad the year prior to William's reign at the helm.

Selection of Roberts as grid leader was announced at a dinner given for the football squad Tuesday night at the Hotel duPont, Wilmington, by Dr. Walter Hullihen, president of the university. Jack Hodgson, retiring captain was presented a silver cigarette case, a personal gift from Dr. Hullihen.

Roberts, who is rated as one of the most consistent ground-gaining backs to wear Blue and Gold colors for many years, received his early football training at the Newark High School. Four years of experience at the local institution were followed by a year at Beacom Business College where he re-affirmed his ranking as one of the best school-boy backs in the state.

Starred as Freshman

Not exceptionally fast, but with an assortment of tricky spins and reverses, Roberts lost little time in flashing into the Delaware sport picture when, in his freshman year, he

Faculty Wins

Led by "Irish" O'Connell, playing his first game here since he graduated from Delaware, the high school faculty scored their initial victory in the New Castle County League by thumping Newport 31-24 Thursday night.

On Tuesday, the Jackets' reserve team scored a 20-16 victory over Elkton High School. Hill and Robinson tied for scoring honors with 8 points.

FLASHES

By BILL FLETCHER

WILBERT (CIGGY) BUTTS, 165 pound Yellow Jacket southpaw, flashed into the Newark High School basketball spotlight Monday afternoon when he swished the cords for a total of 19 points, six field and seven foul tosses, in a losing battle against the Golden business men.

While the Jackets "BILL" FLETCHER were dropping the decision, Ciggy was accounting for over two-thirds of the 77 points registered. His performance has established him as the nucleus of the local attack and Coach William E. Gillespie is now highly expectant of placing another Newarker in a prominent state ranking. Although, "there's many a slip twixt, etc," early exhibitions bear out this belief.

AN INTERESTING POINT was cited by Coach Gillespie in the statement, "Curiously enough, with this year the exception, our outstanding forwards have developed in pairs."

Looking back, he enumerated the boys who were rated better than average at the scoring posts. Jack Daly and Ferris Wharton, now performing for the University of Delaware; Charlie Pie and Paul Whiteman; and John Holloway and Harry Williamson. All these men have been developed since Coach Gillespie took up the sport reins.

Butts, at the present time, appears to be the only capable basket guager and as a result, is expected to form the center of Newark's cage attack.

Carty Douglass, six-foot-five center is also showing rapid development at the pivot post. With 2 field goals and two fouls, Carty led the scoring in the Jackets' initial battle with Wilmington.

According to Coach Gillespie, he displayed a rare ability to snag loose passes along with an untutored shoot-eye that smacks of potential. He'll be placed under the basket, on the offense, with Butts to collaborate in the local attack.

At the present time, his most prominent virtue is a consistent tap-out.

BASKETBALL POWERS THAT BE have also smiled down on the high school when dealing out centers for our high school club. Vic Willis, Bill Dean, Bill Holloway and Douglass are a few examples of the calibre of the players handed to us during Coach Gillespie's reign.

The Jackets' brain trust largely attributes the two defeats suffered by the locals to lack of ball-handling. "They don't have the skill that would come with consistent practice," he said.

Thus, the failure of the boys to show enough interest in the sport when not in the gym is more or less responsible for the clumsy ball juggling so detrimental to the coordination of any team. Unlike football, which kids in this section start playing while in the cradle, so to speak, basketball suffers because play is limited to the regularly scheduled practice and game sessions. The comparative success of Newark football team bears this out.

UP AND COMING, according to further reports, is the diminutive Jackie Pie, who promises, in the near future, to fill the boots of his departed brother, Charlie, in grand style. With two more years to develop, Jack is, even now, displaying much the same characteristics of his predecessor with an uncanny ability to "flip 'em in" and stick like a leech on defense.

Hach Morrison and Sam Cole are also being looked upon as two comers in the guard posts, while Aiken is regarded as a fair player but nervous and high-strung. Sheaffer, the little Pie's running made on the J. V. team, also promises results in a year or two.

ACCORDING TO THE COACH, Wilmington Highlets are in for a battle when they engage the Jackets in the return encounter on the home court. The boys are licked when they walk on the Red Devils' court, it seems, and this psychological disadvantage invariably proves the undoing of the home team when displaying its wares on the city lads' playground. While a definite victory is not predicted, nevertheless, a more spirited and closer clash is expected when the two clubs tangle on the Newark boards. At any rate, the home-town lads won't have a mental anchor over which to stumble.

NEWARK HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

By Bill Richardson
Editor "Yellow Jacket Buzz"

The gay color of Christmas has disappeared from the halls and rooms of Newark High, and once more students have returned to their own duties. The most important undertaking the week immediately following the holidays was the formation of an organization for students' participation in school government. The first meeting of the Student Council was held on Wednesday of last week.

Members of this body include the presidents and vice-presidents of the junior high home rooms and the presidents of the sophomore, junior and senior classes. Nomination of officers will be the first step in the organization.

Commercial Club Acts
Under the direction of Miss Dorothy Rothwell and Mr. Oscar R. Suttles, the Commercial Club has developed into an active organization. The club has decided to investigate the possibility of sponsoring dances following important basketball games.

At a meeting of the Journalism Club, it was planned to make the next issue of "The YellowJacket Buzz" a Valentine's Day edition. It is hoped to sponsor a dance following the basketball game with Wilmington High School on February 12. A special effort will be made to contact and invite members of the alumni. It is the desire of the club to provide money to make a better school magazine.

The business staff reports, at the present time, the "Buzz" in excellent financial condition. Home room reporters will be invited to attend the meeting next Tuesday.

Plays Reviewed
Four plays entitled, "Sham," "Spreading the News," "A Night at an Inn," and "The Boy Comes Home," are being looked over by the Senior Dramatics Club.

A special meeting of the senior class was held in the auditorium at noon on Tuesday. President David Anderson was in charge of the session. An effort is being made to find someone to coach the play, "I'll Leave It To You."

The school library was put in excellent condition over the Christmas holidays. Over two hundred new books have been purchased. Among these are biographies and vocational books.

Seniors Make Nominations
A special meeting of the senior class was held in the auditorium on Tuesday, Jan. 5, in an effort to find someone who will assume direction of the play, "I'll Leave It To You." Try-outs for parts in the play will be held soon.

A meeting of the Student Council was held in the auditorium on Wednesday, Jan. 6. The following persons were nominated for president and vice-president of the student government organization: John Doordan, Thomas Ingham, Paul Skillman and William Richardson. The one receiving the second highest number of votes will become vice-president.

The following were nominated for the office of secretary-treasurer: Ruth Sinclair, Edith Counahan and Edward Cooch.

Student Council Meets
A meeting of the Student Council was held in the auditorium on Tuesday.

Although the voting took place on Tuesday, the votes from all the home rooms have not, as yet, been tabulated.

"Ladies of the Jury," a hilarious comedy by Fred Ballard, is the play to be presented by the faculty this year. It is under the direction of Miss Anne Stantner, and the tentative date for the presentation is either Jan. 29 or Feb. 3.

Several dances have been planned, following basketball games, by the Journalism and Commercial Clubs. The first in a series of four will be given this Friday following the contest with P. S. duPont.

school when given his award for basketball at the climax of the current campaign—he now ranks with Bob Egner, Bob Ewing and Ren George. Jackie Doordan, should he succeed in earning his "N" for basketball will probably go down in Newark history as the smallest to receive three letters for athletic achievements.

TOWN BOASTS FIRST TWINS IN 40 YEARS

Dinner Held at Home of Proud Parents Following
Christening
ELECT FIRE OFFICERS

By Mildred Gebhart

Hockessin, Jan. 13.—The first christening of twins in 40 years took place in the St. John's Church on Sunday, January 10. Rose Marie and James Joseph are the twins of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gormley of this community. The ceremony was performed by Rev. James M. Grant assisted by Rev. Roderick Dwyer.

The following guests attended the dinner held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gormley after the ceremony: Mr. and Mrs. William Meehan and children, Katherine, Joan and Billy of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Nilan and children, Ann, Kitty and Teddy; Mr. John McLaughlin and Mrs. Katie Minn of Kennett Square, Pa.; Rev. James M. Grant, Rev. Roderick Dwyer of Wilmington; Miss Eleanor Echaffear, Mrs. Margaret Gormley, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Halloran and children, Joseph and John; Mrs. Thomas Toughy, Miss Alice Toughy, Mrs. Vincent Lamborn, Miss Mary May, Miss Janie Gahagen, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Taylor, John Phillip and Francis Gormley, all of Hockessin and Yorklyn.

Fire Officers Elected

At a recent meeting of the Hockessin Fire Company, the following officers were elected: president, Clarence G. Collins; vice-president, Charles Gormley; secretary, Elmer Taylor; treasurer, Robert B. Kelton; financial secretary, Clarence Highfield; fire chief, John Winters; assistant fire chief, Charles Gormley; second assistant chief, Charles Lake; chief engineer, Oliver W. Eastburn.

Temporary officers have been serving since the company was organized in October.

The board of directors includes the officers. The trustees are Percy Highfield, three years; Ernest Crossan and William Williams, two years; Oliver W. Eastburn and Robert Gebhart, one year.

The following committees were selected: investigating, the Rev. James M. Grant, D. D., Edward Halloran, Joseph Stinitia; building, Caleb Wilson, Clarence Highfield, T. Leslie Woodward, Irvin Sagers, and Elmer C. Taylor; entertainment, William Williams, chairman; publicity, the Rev. James M. Grant, chairman.

Constructing Building

Construction of the new fire house is well under way. It will be a one-story building, 32x36 feet, and will be constructed of concrete blocks with a stucco finish. Mr. Caleb S. Wilson is the contractor and expects to complete the building within two weeks.

Mr. James H. Polke, the lay delegate to attend the annual conference of the M. E. Church, was elected for the term of four years, on Sunday. The reserve delegate, Mr. Fred E. Gebhart, was also elected at this meeting.

On Wednesday evening, January 27, the Fourth Quarterly Conference will be held in the Hockessin M. E. Church for the Hockessin-Cedars charge. Rev. Walter Gunby, district superintendent of the Wilmington district, will preside.

Knight Leaders Installed

On Thursday evening, January 7, Grand Chief James B. Frazer of Newark, and his staff of grand officers of the Knights of the Golden Eagles, installed the officers of the Hockessin Castle, No. 15, at the Hockessin lodge hall. They were as follows: Past chief, Laurance B. Colmery; noble chief, Fred E. Gebhart; vice-chief, C. Montgomery Gebhart; venerable hermit, Ellis Malin; keeper of exchequer, Harvey C. Woodward; clerk of exchequer, Lewis W. Colmery; master of records, W. C. Pierson; worthy bard, Howard M. Pierson; worthy chamberlain, Kemper B. Pierson; esquire, Swithen Springer; ensign, Howard M. Pierson, Jr.; first guardsman, Earl Malin; second guardsman, Elmer Malin. Two officers, W. A. Crossan, high priest and Norman Malin, sir heard, were not present to be installed.

Addresses were made by Grand High Priest, George Walters of Christiana, and the Grand Chief James B. Frazer. Mr. Frazer announced that a public installation would be held at Pendercastle Castle at Glasgow on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. John F. Jackson, of Yorklyn, entertained the members of the Ladies Aid Society of the Hockessin M. E. Church at her home on Friday evening, January 8.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Osborne were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Marker of Dover, on Sunday.

INDUCT GRANGE HEADS

By Mrs. Harriet W. Knotts

Stanton, Jan. 13.—The newly organized Fellowship Club met at the Parish house of St. James Church Wednesday night for the purpose of selecting officers for the coming year. Those chosen were: Evelyn Bradley, president; Paul Lynam, vice-president; Ann Boyce, secretary and Joseph Harris, treasurer.

Following the business meeting, games were played and refreshments served.

Among those present were: Evelyn Bradley, Ann Boyce, Anna Knotts, Virginia Bradley, Vera Devine, Joseph Harris, Vincent Cannon, George Johnson, Paul Lynam, William Bradley, Edgar Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Boulden, Mr. and Mrs. Warren, Naomi Brooks, Elva Jean Riker and the Rev. Earl Dickey.

Newly elected officers of Diamond State Grange were installed at a meeting of the body held Wednesday, January 6.

On behalf of the grange, the new master, Ernest Lacy, presented Mr. Mitchell and his retiring assistants with beautiful potted plants.

Short talks were made by some of the visiting members and Mr. Lacy.

The Ladies Aid Society of Stanton M. E. Church met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Calvery Talley on Thursday.

Miss Mary Dougherty, of Newark, spent the week-end with Miss Anna Knotts.

W. Lawrence Knotts, Jr., son of the Rev. and Mrs. L. L. Knotts, who has been employed at Chester, Pa. has been transferred to Wilkes Barre, Pa., where he will move with his family within a few days.

Mr. Herbert Smith, of Eastburn Heights, has taken charge of the Sunday paper route, formerly served by Joseph Michael who died recently.

Engagement Announced

The engagement of Miss Gertrude Sharp, Wilmington, to Mr. Howard Galloway was recently announced. Mr. Galloway is the son of Mrs. Mamie Galloway and the late Rev. John Galloway, a former pastor of Stanton M. E. Church.

Among the sick who are much improved are: Mrs. Harry Long, Mr. Claude Brooks and Mrs. Jane Bullen. William Crawford, Jr. has returned to school following a brief illness.

Waverly Club Meets

Members of the Waverly Club held their first meeting for the new year at the home of Mrs. Willard Cloud, Kennett Square, Pa., on Wednesday afternoon, January 6.

Plans are being made for the installation to be held on January 25.

snatched a pass and scored to provide the winning edge in a 7-0 victory over Dickinson.

Since that time, Dick has displayed an ever-improving brand of football and has established himself as a dependable offensive and excellent defensive back. His selection to the captaincy is an honor that has been earned and is well-deserved.

Paul F. Pile, Sr. and Arthur C. Huston, Sr., both of Newark, are also former Delaware football captains.

May Seek Redemption

The announcement made by Dr. Daugherty indicates that the University of Delaware will fall in line with a group of state-supported schools, protesting the right of the Government to levy a tax on a state institution.

Four schools have already informed the Internal Revenue Bureau that they will not pay the 10 per cent tax. Three cases have reached court and other institutions are waiting developments before taking a stand.

Government attorneys said they expect the Supreme Court will be requested to review one of the pending cases.

The College of William and Mary, Virginia, was the latest to object. On Saturday, it was formally denied the Government's right either to compel a state institution to collect taxes or to levy and collect state taxes from a

Inviting Hotel Louise New Castle Showplace

Combining the best features of hostelry, bar and grill, Hotel Louise, at Third and Delaware streets, New Castle, is one of the most popular stopping places for transients in the area.

Located directly opposite the old court house, the establishment has been a landmark in the area since its founding in 1904.

Under the capable management of John Ries it has risen to its present heights and holds favor with many discriminating people in and near the community.

With sleeping accommodations for 50 guests and seven rooms with baths, Hotel Louise is famous for its unusual cuisine. Meals are served from early morning until midnight, while special platters and various tasty dishes are offered on the menu which is always complete with the best.

Beer, ale, porter, wines and liquors are served to further widen the scope of the hotel's activity.

Busy Bee Dairy Output Finds Favor With Homes

To householders the name Busy Bee has become a symbol for purity and wholesome qualities in dairy products.

Behind the significance attached to the brand is the 17-year program of William Smith, founder and head of Busy Bee Dairy, 1916 West Fourth Street, who has given his every attention and effort to making the enterprise one of the best and most satisfactory in Wilmington.

Wholesale and retail distribution of milk, cream, butter and other dairy products has brought the firm its present degree of recognition.

Nine workers are engaged at the plant which maintains the strictest measures of sanitation. Cleanliness, in fact, has been one of the dominant characteristics of the firm since its inception.

Mr. Smith operates five trucks throughout the area giving prompt and efficient delivery throughout the year and making reliability one of the most prominent elements of Busy Bee Dairy.

General Distributors Handles Best Brands

With the return of beer the public was given a new appreciation of distribution of the popular amber beverage and General Distributors, Inc., of Maryland Avenue and the Reading railroad, Wilmington, was among the first to instill confidence in its clients and provide them with the best of service.

Back in 1932, when the concern was formed, it operated under the name of Old Home Beverage Company, but a year and a half ago it took its present firm style and has found greater recognition in the ensuing period.

Budweiser, Ballantine's, National and Valley Forge Special brands of beer are in stock, with Ram's Head and Ballantine's ale, and Scheidt's and Ballantine's brands of porter offered.

state institution. Refusing to pay future taxes, the college will also seek refunds of levies paid in the last four years.

In Atlanta, last Tuesday, Federal Judge E. Marvin enjoined the government from collecting football game taxes from the University of Georgia and Georgia Tech. He said: "Athletic programs and contests for which admission is charged under the decision of the Court of Appeals in this case, are an essential government function of the State of Georgia."

Football Is Business?

The government argues football is a business and that men were hired specifically to play football. Federal efforts to collect taxes from the University of Iowa already have reached two courts and a suit has been instituted to collect from the University of Minnesota.

Informed sources estimated Uncle Sam might lose $1,000,000 annually in revenue, if the final decision goes against him.

Tax paid by the University of Delaware on football receipts totalled $403.03 for 1936, according to Charles E. Grubb, business administrator. Since a claim cannot be filed after four years have elapsed, should the colleges win their point, Delaware will be refunded an amount of approximately $1,200 for the past three years.

The lasting popularity of sausage has been made possible largely through the work of such firms as Beste Provision Company, of Liberty and Logan streets, at the Pennsylvania Railroad, Wilmington, which has given the public the highest quality products and best of service over a span of 16 years.

Manufacturing sausage products, the firm kills and prepares hogs at its abattoir and uses only the best ingredients to assure entire satisfaction for the customers.

Hams, bacon and similar pork products are also in stock and have been instrumental in making Beste's output the standard of the industry.

Beste's Best brands hold favor with housewives, restaurant owners and others who are interested in procuring the very best foods of all kinds.

A personnel of 45 employees is kept busy in the various departments of the plant, while six trucks are operated to cover the entire state.

Agostini Mushrooms Popular In Big Cities

Mushrooms are among the most widely appreciated of all special foods and their wholesome, flavorful aspects will win even the most confirmed epicure.

The endeavor of such members of the mushroom growing fraternity as Carlo Agostini, of Faulk Road, Holly Oak, has made possible the serving of mushrooms, fresh from the beds, on home and restaurant dining tables in New York, Philadelphia, Newark, Baltimore and other metropolitan centers.

Mr. Agostini ships his output to these areas and has ascertained that the customers always receive the best.

Select crops are grown in the Agostini plant and through every stage careful attention is given to the development of the fungi by the management.

The fine specimens from the Holly Oak location have gained the acceptance of gourmets wherever they are served.

Booker Co. Sells Fruit To Large Trade In Area

Wholesale distribution of fruit throughout all of New Castle County has been the work of George B. Booker Company, of 102 East Fourth Street, Wilmington, since its inception in 1874.

The initial plans and original policies of George W. Booker, who founded the business, have been followed to the letter by his sons, George B. and Harvey Booker, present directing heads, who have also added several impressive activities and measures to their roster since the death of their father in 1926.

Many contacts in various sections of the country enable the firm to bring to Wilmington and other towns in the county the best in fresh fruits and vegetables, while the business measures and ideals which are in force at the Booker location have instilled confidence in dealers, hotel owners, restaurateurs and others who buy from the firm.

Three trucks are owned and operated by the Bookers to speed delivery.

Hammond's Esso Sta. Is Service-Minded

Popular with a large clientele of motorists which appreciates its every service, Hammond's Esso Service Station, of Concord Avenue and Monroe Street, Wilmington, has established itself as one of the commanding figures of its activity.

For the last three years George Hammond has given his best to the customer list and has established many original service policies and innovations to give the fastest, most reliable and thorough endeavor.

Esso products are offered exclusively, while tires, batteries and other motoring needs are also in stock.

Three pits are operated by Mr. Hammond for lubricating cars in the most approved manner.

His four employees are as interested as he is in making the entire program of the Esso station superior and uniform at all times.
