Gentlemen:

As the time draws near for the final adjournment of the 105th General Assembly, I wish to express to you my official and personal thanks for your most helpful cooperation during this Session. You have not only enacted into law a great many measures of substantial benefit to our fellow citizens, but also demonstrated in an able manner the successful operation of our form of government. I think the people of Delaware have occasion to be eminently pleased with the past winter's work of their Representatives at the State House and I also feel the Delaware electorate is deserving of especial commendation in their selection of the men chosen last November to represent them in these legislative halls.

That the honest, conscientious and constructive service you have rendered as public officials may be emulated by succeeding members of the Legislature—is, I am confident, an event to be desired by all who have an interest in the affairs of State.

Respectfully yours,
