SAFETY SPEAKER TALKS ON LIGHT

NEWARK LIONS HEAR ADDRESS ON ACCIDENTS

New Jersey Municipalities
League Director Urges
Better Lighting

STREETS AND HIGHWAY Night Motor Collisions Are Causing Death Rate To Increase Yearly

Declaring that "if we cannot control the skill and judgment of automobile drivers, we must control their ability to see," Arthur F. Loewe, widely known authority on highway safety lighting, delivered an address to the Lions Club of Newark at the Newark Country Club Tuesday evening on the specific things that must be done if the terrible toll of street and highway accidents is to be materially lowered in the very near future. Mr. Loewe, educational director of the safety committee of the New Jersey State League of Municipalities, and special representative of General Electric Company, emphasized the astounding death toll from night motor collisions. He pointed out the great reductions in casualties where safety lighting has been put into effect. Technical questions were answered by E. H. Powell, General Electric engineer.

Speaking of the tremendous automobile death toll on American streets and highways, Mr. Loewe reminded his audience that "no longer are the deaths numbered by 37,000 but, according to the latest figures, 85,500."

"Indeed this is a problem which cannot be solved overnight, but it can be solved by clear thinking and acting, by attacking every problem individually, and supported by a tremendous back-log of general education."

Two members of the Council of Newark, C. Emerson Johnson and George F. Ferguson, with George F. Jackson, president of the Newark Chamber of Commerce, heard the talk.

Causes of Accidents

The speaker pointed out that the study of accident reporting forms would indicate that those commonly assigned causes of accidents reported are:

1. Drunk.
2. Defective brakes.
3. Lights dim or out.
4. Glare.
5. Skidding.
6. Speeding.
7. Failure to stop.

The meeting will be preceded by a luncheon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul D. Lovett, Old Oak Road, at one o'clock.

The following members of the Newark unit will be hostesses: Mrs. Lovett, Mrs. Francis Lindell, Mrs. K. D. Conrad Lewis, Mrs. Harry Gabriel, Mrs. Allyn Cooch, Mrs. Leon Case, Mrs. Orville Little and Mrs. A. E. Tomhave.

Three famous radio serials are being presented over WDEL every morning, Monday through Friday.

The first program, "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," is heard from 10 until 10:15. This is followed by "John's Other Wife," and at 10:30 the famed "Just Plain Bill."

Sessions Planned By Association To Select Committees

E. H. Shallcross, president of the New Castle County Agricultural Conservation Association, announced today that a series of community meetings have been scheduled throughout the county for Friday evening, June 25, at 7:30 o'clock, standard time, for the purpose of electing a community committee to represent each of the five agricultural conservation districts.

Schedule Arranged

The following schedule of meetings will be in effect: Brandywine, Christians, Mill Creek, and White Clay Creek Hundreds at County Agent George E. Worrlow's office, 91 East Main Street, Newark, under direction of George K. Ball; New Castle, Red Lion and Pencader Hundreds at St. Georges Trust Co., St. Georges, Del., under direction of Benjamin W. Vinton; St. Georges Hundred at Fire Hall, Middletown, under direction of E. H. Shallcross; Appoquinimink Hundred at Maloney-Money Office, Townsend, under direction of Harris B. McDowell, Jr.; and Blackbird Hundred at the Blackbird School House, under the direction of Walter L. Marker.

These community committees will consist of a chairman, two other members, and one alternate. The chairman of each community committee becomes a member of the county board of directors.

Farmers Urged To Attend

Farmers who signed work sheets in the 1937 agricultural conservation program are urged to attend these meetings in the district their farm is in.

RODNEY SCOUT CAMP TO OPEN

Twentieth Season Starts On Sunday; C. F. Urfer Is Directing Head

Beginning another season which promises to be a great success, the Rodney Scout Camps of the Del-Mar-Va Boy Scout Council will open on Sunday, under the direction of Clarence F. Urfer, associate scout executive, with camp experience both here and at Baltimore Scout Camp, Camp Lindeau on the Severn River near Annapolis.

This will be the twentieth season for Camp Rodney, which counts among its "alumni" men and boys of every community in Delaware and the Eastern Shore of Maryland. Scouts who have spent a summer at the camp know that facilities and program are unsurpassed, and that leadership is the best to be found on the Peninsula.

Two New Sailboats

With two new sailboats and a new car canoe, the Rodney "fleet" is in prime condition. Waterfront Director "Eddie" Cantwell will be on hand to see that every boy gets full use of the boating equipment.

Dr. J. A. H. of Baltimore will be resident camp physician. His duties will be to make daily inspections, teach first aid, and supervise the general health and sanitation.

The camp nature program will be directed by Carroll Cox of Kennett Square, University of Delaware natural science student, assisted by "June" Gant. Craftwork is under the direction of Francis Parkes, industrial arts teacher of Warner Junior High School, Wilmington.

Registrations Made

Associate Director of Camp is James Glaves of Pittsburgh, a veteran Rodney leader, who directs the scout advancement and hiking program.

Delaware and Eastern Shore scouts have received applications for enrollment, and many boys have already reserved a place for themselves at Rodney. Registrations of 244 scouts have already been received. Delaware, so far, has listed reservations as follows: Wilmington 123; Delaware City 9; Harrington 1; Dover 12; St. Georges 2; Smyrna 3; Middletown 2; Milford 3; Bear 1; Lewes 10; Seaford 2; and Rehoboth 1.

MAY RECEIPTS SHOW DECLINE, STATES EWING

Farm Prices In General Go Under Scale For April Of This Year

FEW GRAINS INCREASE

Prices received by Delaware farmers for the crops and products they have for sale, in general, were lower on May 15, than on April 15 this year, according to word received at the University of Delaware Agricultural Extension Department from J. A. Ewing, federal agricultural statistician, College Park, Maryland.

Mr. Ewing's report for May 15 showed that among the grains there was no change in the farm price from the previous month for oats and rye, while corn rose from $1.04 per bushel on April 15 to $1.09 on May 15. Likewise, soybeans rose during the month to $2.50 per bushel from $2.20 per bushel. Wheat, on the other hand, slumped to $1.34 a bushel on May 15 from an April 15 price of $1.44 per bushel.

Poultry Prices Average

Chickens and eggs also showed a general decline in farm price. On May 15, eggs were bringing the farmers 20.1 cents per dozen while chickens were averaging 20.1 cents per pound. On April 15, these commodities were bringing the farmers respectively 21.3 cents per dozen and 20.3 cents per pound. Turkeys, however, showed a slight increase, raising from 23 cents per pound to 23 cents per pound between April 15 and June 15.

A brighter prospect for truck produce was indicated with a general increase in farm prices. Hay was bringing the farmer more money as were apples and sweet potatoes. Milk and butterfat both declined somewhat, milk bringing the farmer $2.00 per hundred pounds on May 15 as compared to $2.05 on April 15 while butterfat fell to 34 cents per pound from 35 cents per pound.

Increase Over 1936

The report showed that the prices received by Delaware farmers had increased in all instances over the May 15, 1936, prices with the exception of the truck crops. Index figures for all groups, using the prices received during the five year average for the period August, 1909, to July, 1914, as 100, showed that farmers on May 15 were receiving an average of 24 per cent higher prices than for the base period while on May 15, 1936, the index figure was 105 or 5 per cent higher than the base period. For the United States as a whole, the May 15, 1937 index figure was 128 and for May 15, 1936, it was 103.

Grover Tennyson Surratt, son of Mrs. Walter R. Powell, 43 E. Main St., has been placed in the Altoona, Pa., office of the Coca Cola Company of America. A graduate of the University of Delaware this year, Mr. Surratt reported at his new post on Monday.

LONG-AWAITED RESTS ARRIVE FOR FACULTY

Many Already Are Enjoying Vacations; Many Teach In Summer Session

PLANS MADE, HOWEVER

Professors and research men, connected with the University of Delaware, are now prepared to enjoy that long-awaited vacation which follows the strain of teaching or delving into the secrets of the unknown.

For a few of them, however, the tension will not be broken until the close of the summer session at the end of July, but this has not stopped many from making plans for a much needed rest-cure.

Sailed For Paris

Dr. Walter Hüllihen, president of the university, with Mrs. Hüllihen, sailed last Saturday on the S. S. Champlain of the French Lines, for Paris where they will join an inspection tour of the Foreign Study Plan. During the latter part of July, they expect to attend a conference at Geneva when the possibilities of having the educational plan adopted there will be discussed.

Prof. and Mrs. C. O. Houghton, following the summer session, expect to drive to Pottsdam, N. Y., where they will visit Mrs. Houghton's mother for the rest of the summer.

In July, Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Palmer, professor of bacteriology and hygiene, plan to motor through the New England States to Niagara Falls and then take a tour through Montreal, Canada.

Prof. R. W. Heim, instructor in vocational agricultural education, expects to spend a week at the Daniel Boone Camp in the Alleghenies, north of Williamsport, Pa.

Vermont Bound

Prof. Howard K. Preston, instructor in theoretical and applied mechanics, and Mrs. Preston are planning a lengthy visit in Vermont which will begin the latter part of July.

Dr. George H. Ryden, head of the history department, immediately following the close of summer school, will drive to the home of his brother in Wisconsin, where his family, of Kansas City, Miss., will join them.

Prof. and Mrs. T. D. Mylrea and family, are planning one of the most restful vacations—a summer at Lake Temagami, Canada. They will leave on June 28. Prof. Mylrea is an instructor in civil engineering.

George L. Schuster, professor of agronomy and assistant dean of the school of agriculture, and family, will spend a summer of boating, fishing, and swimming at their cottage at Hanes Point.

Dr. A. S. Eastman, head of the chemistry department, and Mrs. Eastman, following summer school, are planning their annual motor tour to Vermont where they will visit Dr. Eastman's parents. They also expect to attend the annual meeting of the American Chemical Association at Rochester, N. Y.

PARK READY FOR RACES SATURDAY

Local Lodge Host To Elks' Orders In Four-Day Session

Williams S. Brice, Annapolis, Md., was elected president of the Tri-State Association, Independent Benevolent Protective Order of Elks of the World which met in a four-day conference here. Oliver Wilson, of Newark, was elected third vice-president, the lone local man to take office.

Ceremonies started Sunday, in charge of a special committee headed by Exalted Ruler Roland B. Wilson, head of the Newark lodge, I. B. P. E. of W.

An educational meeting, in charge of the Rev. Luther F. Smith, was held Sunday evening in Mt. Zion U. A. M. E. Church. He was aided by Pearl Brown, Truly Hatchell, Joseph C. Parks and the Elks' choir and glee club.

Public Meeting

A public meeting was held Monday night in the Pilgrim Baptist Church with addresses being given by Exalted Ruler Wilson and Daughter Ida Garrett. Responses were made by W. S. Brice, E. Winchester, Edward W. Bundy and Margaret Bishop.

Following a business session Tuesday morning, over 1,000 delegates took part in the parade which formed on Cleveland Avenue and covered the town. The convention hall was held at nine o'clock that evening.

Clyde Bishop, general chairman, and Charles Hayman, chairman of the committee on arrangements, conducted the closing business session which was held at nine o'clock Wednesday morning.

At the final session, it was decided to hold the 1938 convention at Frederick, Md.

POLICE AVERT TROUBLE HERE

Negro Arrested With Loaded Gun As He Lay In Wait For Marked Victim

Quick work by Chief of Police William H. Cunningham averted a possible tragic ending of the parade staged Tuesday by the Independent Benevolent Protective Order of Elks of the World, when Herbert Winston, 37, a Negro, was arrested with a loaded shotgun as he lay in ambush on Cleveland Avenue west of College Avenue. Taken into custody, Winston admitted that he planned to kill a New London Avenue Negro named James Fields, whom he thought was riding in the first car of the procession. Witnesses stated that the man had been loitering with the gun for almost an hour before his apprehension.

In addition to the loaded gun, Winston was carrying twelve additional shells when arrested. Arraigned before Magistrate Benjamin Eubanks Tuesday night, Winston, who has worked for the B. & O. Railroad for 13 years, was committed to the New Castle County workhouse pending trial by the Court of General Sessions.

Other Negroes Arrested

Magistrate Thompson held Robert Tolson, 25-year-old Negro, of Ray Street, for court trial Wednesday afternoon following his arrest by Wilmington police on charges of stealing clothing, cash and jewelry from the Deer Park Hotel.

Florence Fletcher and Rebecca Hackett, colored, were held by Magistrate Thompson Monday under bail fixed at $200 and $1,000, respectively, for an alleged attack with an ice pick on May Comfort, another Negro, three weeks ago. The victim was released this week from the Homeopathic Hospital, Wilmington, where she had been treated for her wounds.

Earl Pendleton, 24, and James Pendleton, 27, both colored, posted $500 bail apiece on assault and battery charges, when arraigned before Magistrate Thompson this week. They were arrested by Officer James Morrison on June 12.

C. OF C. HEADS TRY TO PLACE TRACK GUESTS

Charge Many Residents With Excessive Demands For Rental Of Rooms

HORSES ARE ARRIVING Million Dollar Plant Ready At Delaware Park For Inaugural Saturday

While Chamber of Commerce officials were busily engaged this week in trying to place the greatest influx of temporary residents ever to hit Newark, some 1,200 to 1,500 horses of all kinds, mostly from stables along the Atlantic seaboard, were being received for the inaugural meeting of the Delaware Steeplechase and Racing Association which opens at Delaware Park Saturday.

Prices of rooms soared to unprecedented heights here, as the demand far exceeded the supply. According to late Chamber of Commerce reports, every available room in Newark is being occupied except in houses where prices asked—some as high as $17 a week for a room without private bath or board—were considered exorbitant.

In view of the fact that several better hotels in Wilmington are only asking $10 weekly for private rooms with bath, officials of the commerce group pleaded with residents to be more reasonable in their demands.

Stables Are Filling

Since Sunday the stables at the new race course have been steadily filling with horses from Long Island, New England and Maryland as the opening day draws near.

Conducted under Jockey Club conventions, the 25 days of sport is under the direction of Edward Burke, builder of the Havre de Grace course and director of its racing for a quarter of a century. Delaware Park racing will be marked by a daily purse distribution of about $12,000 and the running of three stakes, each carrying an added money value of $10,000, two of $7,500 each and two at $5,000 each. The $10,000 affairs will be the Kent handicap, an opening day feature for 3-year-olds exclusively; the Sussex handicap for 3-year-olds and over of all kinds, and the New Castle handicap for mares 3-years-old and over.

Two-Year-Old Feature

The $7,500 stakes will be the Diamond State, for 3-year-olds, and the Brandywine handicap for 3-year-olds and over, and the $5,000 specials will be the Christiansa and Polly Drummond stakes for 2-year-olds. The

Carnival Opens Tomorrow Night On Maxwell Estate

Lesson for June 27

LESSON TEXT—Hebrews 11:3-10, 17-22.
GOLDEN TEXT—These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.—Hebrews 11:13.
PRIMARY TOPIC—God's Honor Roll.
JUNIOR TOPIC—God's Honor Roll.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—
Heroes of Faith.
YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—
Faith Tested and Triumphant.

The great "heroes of the faith" chapter, Hebrews 11, provides an excellent review summary of the messages in Genesis, which we have studied during the last three months. Fittingly, the entire account, from the Creation to the hope for the future expressed by Joseph, revolves around the word "Faith." The patriarchs had many noble qualities but these were all rooted in the fundamental of all virtues, namely, that faith in God without which "it is impossible to please him" (v. 6).

Our study may well attempt no closer analysis of the text than to note the results of faith as they appear in the verses of our lesson.

I. Understanding (v. 3).
Philosophy and human research frequently bog down in the confused bypaths of unbelief and partial knowledge, but faith cuts right through the clouds and the confusion and "understands" that God is the creator of all things. If you want to know, believe God.

II. Worship (v. 4).
The world abounds with cults and religions of almost unbelievable diversity, and of appalling insufficiency for the needs of man. Only when man does as did Abel, and worships God in accordance with God's holy law will he obtain "witness that he is righteous."

III. Fellowship (v. 5).
Here again faith triumphs. The societies and associations of man fumble around trying to establish "good will," "fellowship of faiths," and what not, only to fail. But when a man knows God as Enoch did, then he is ready for true fellowship with his brother.

IV. Assurance (v. 6).
When a man trusts God implicitly the uncertainties of life vanish. It is an easier thing to talk about than to do, but, thank God, it can be done. We must believe not only that God is, but by faith we must recognize him "as the rewarder of them that diligently seek him."

V. Salvation (v. 7).
Saved by faith—that is the story of the Christian, even as it was the story of Noah. The ark is typical of Christ. Only in him is there salvation.

VI. Obedience (vv. 8, 9).
The world has a ribald saying, "I don't know where I'm going but I'm on my way," which represents a dangerous philosophy of life. But faith in God enables one to go with Abraham who "when he was called went out, not knowing whither he went." He knew God and that was enough to call forth unquestioning obedience.

VII. Vision (v. 10).
Men of vision—that's what we need, we are told. Well, then we need men of faith who can see the unseen, who can see "a city which hath foundations" even in the midst of the wilderness.

In the fields both of secular and spiritual achievement vision has marched before victory. Carey, Judson, Livingstone, every great missionary, dreamed dreams and saw visions before they achieved lasting victories in distant lands.

VIII. Resurrection (vv. 17-19).
God gave a promise and the only means of fulfilling that promise was about to be taken away, but Abraham did not hesitate for he believed that God was able and ready to raise the dead if necessary to fulfill his promise. Have all our prospects been dashed to the ground? Is everything hopeless, humanly speaking? God is both willing and able to make all things work together for good and for his glory.

IX. Hope (vv. 20-22).
The forward look—that is the look of faith. Isaac's blessing concerned "things to come." Jacob, too weak to stand alone, leaned on his staff and worshiped, and passed on the covenant blessing. Joseph gave commandment concerning his body, looking forward to God's fulfillment of the promise.

Christian hope is not a wishful desire that an unbelievable thing may somehow occur. That is an unbelieving misuse of the word "hope." To a child of God hope means a well-grounded assurance that God will keep his word.

Right and Wrong

Conscience is that faculty which perceives right and wrong in actions, approves or disapproves them, anticipates their consequences under the moral administration of God, and is thus either the cause of peace or of disquietude of mind.

Opportunities

There are people who would do great acts, but because they wait for great opportunities, life passes, and the acts of love are not done at all.—F. W. Robertson.

Let Mr. H. R. Rich of Chicago tell you why he got out of the "All Three" class!

"I'd been driving one of the 'All Three' cars. I've no complaints... it was a fine car. But with better times returning I wanted to get back in the 'big car' class again. The low delivered price on the Nash LaFayette '400' simply amazed me. Actually it cost me just a FEW dollars more than one of the 'All Three'."

Look at that car in the picture. It's a great big 117-inch wheelbase Nash LaFayette "400". You get a 90 horsepower, six cylinder engine. You get larger hydraulic brakes, stronger all steel body, extra-wide seats, more headroom, legroom.

White Clay Creek Is Bathing Hazard

Bathing in any but recognized and approved bodies of water is being strictly discouraged by the State Board of Health, since many invitingly cool lakes, ponds, and streams hide sewage and contamination beneath their shimmering surfaces.

Typhoid is all-too-frequently contracted through ill-advised bathing in unsafe bodies of water. While these lakes and streams may not be the immediate dumping place of some community sewage system, they may be fed by some stream that is, or be contaminated by underground seepage from a nearby farm.

Thus it is unwise for parents in the vicinity of Newark to permit their children to use White Clay Creek as a swimming site. The stream has been contaminated in the past by unscrupulous people who are wont to use it as a disposal plant for dead animals, garbage and rubbish. Numerous swamps and pastures constantly drain into the creek.

Steps have been taken for the opening of the University of Delaware swimming pool for the use of people in the community. About $100 of the $400 needed for operating the pool has been contributed. People in Newark and vicinity will do themselves a service by supporting the venture—by contributions and by sending their children to the pool for recreation.

O'Connell Announces Swimming Schedule

Ralph O'Connell, under whose direction swimming will be conducted at the University of Delaware pool this summer, announced the following schedule effective Monday, June 28.

Morning hours, boys ages 9 to 12—9 a. m., to 10:30 a. m.; morning hours, girls ages 9 to 12—10:30 a. m., to 12 noon. Afternoon hours, boys ages 13 to 18—1 p. m., to 3 p. m.; afternoon hours, girls ages 13 to 18—3 p. m., to 5 p. m.; adults, Tuesday and Thursday evenings, 7 to 9.

The pool will be open daily, Sunday excepted, and will not be open on Monday, July 5. The schedule is subject to change at any time. Admission fees will range as follows: morning, five cents; afternoon, ten cents; and adults, twenty-five cents.

Grange Groups Vacation As Meeting Dates Change

Delaware Grange will only have two meetings a month, the second and fourth Monday nights. The fourth Monday in July will be a picnic at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert P. Robinson.

The lecturer's hour was in charge of Mrs. Marie Shelby, Flora of Delaware Grange, and was as follows: readings, "Facing the Sun," "Midnight and Queen Bee" by Mrs. Weer; reading, "Father's Day," by Mr. Chandler Gebhart. A flower guessing contest was won by Mrs. Edna Pordham. The members displayed bouquets of flowers they had grown in their own gardens. The worthy state lecturer, "Yours Truly," being the only "stranger present," was asked to decide which display he considered the most artistic. After much deliberation he came to the conclusion that the one arranged by Mrs. Alvin Ruth was the best.

Candidates Received

Harmony Grange, No. 12, held its regular meeting on Monday evening with Master Ralph I. Klair presiding. A class of three candidates, Margaret Mitchell, Paul Mullins and Einar Atoutland, was initiated in the first and second degrees. It was decided to hold a picnic at the Rock Chamber Farms in the near future. It was also decided that starting July 1, the Grange would take a six weeks' vacation. The home economics committee reported having sent a "sunshine bag" to Mrs. Mary V. Walker, who has been confined to her home for a number of weeks on account of a nervous breakdown.

AT FILM PREMIERE

Estelle Taylor

Wilmington native and divorced wife of Jack Dempsey, Miss Taylor, who is also noted for her screen and stage successes, will attend the premiere of "The Singing Marine," at the Aldine Theatre, Wilmington, Friday night. Many notables will view Dick Powell's latest vehicle in its bow to the screen world.

Hollywood In Wilmington

When a world premiere of a motion picture, replete with a Hollywood atmosphere, comes east—it's news! But when the premiere and festivities take place in Delaware—it's headlines! All of which is by way of announcing that the first showing anywhere of Warner Brothers' musical picture, "The Singing Marine," will be at the Aldine Theatre, Wilmington, on Friday starting at 11:45 o'clock, with a night "premiere" at 8:15 o'clock.

Movie patrons who have long been regaled with cinema shots of Hollywood's elite attending a gala premiere at the far-famed Chinese theatre in the filmdom capital, will now have the opportunity at first hand, of attending one of these openings and witnessing a grand gathering of film and civic personalities.

Although the film will be delivered to Lew Black, manager, by airplane and will be shown at the regular afternoon performance, the official premiere will be that evening.

Floodlights, decorations, radio interviews and general hubbub, which mark events of this kind, will likewise feature the affair at the Aldine.

State Theatre News

Friday and Saturday

These two days will find "Good Old Soak" starring Wallace Beery. The film is taken from the hit play by the same name by Don Marquis, famous newspaper columnist, who struck with humorous irony at the era of prohibition in America. The story recalls much to the generation of the time and presents an amusing picture for those who were too young to appreciate it then. It is an admirable cross-section of typical America in the days of drought without venom but never lacking truth. Beery plays the most appealing role of his long screen career. Supporting him are Una Merkel, Ted Healy, Eric Linden, Betty Furness and that ever popular star of the old days, George Sidney.

A thrilling western will be added to the bill on Saturday.

Monday and Tuesday

Something decidedly new comes to the screen in M-G-M's "Night Must Fall" with Robert Montgomery and Rosalind Russell in the leading roles. Skillfully directed by Richard Thorpe, this daring story presents an entirely new technique for crime fiction on the screen. Without the element of mystery, the story introduces a pathological killer whose mission is known to the audience before he starts to act. The supporting cast includes some of the members of the original London cast who appeared during the run of 55 consecutive weeks on the stage. The drama is lightened with liberal comedy and an amazing romance between Montgomery and Miss Russell. In all the film is different, daring and decidedly entertaining screen fare.

NO... all silverware is not alike!

In silverplate as in all other things, there are varying degrees of quality. To prove this just turn over an old tea spoon and you will probably see unmistakable signs of wear at the back of the bowl and handle. It is the constant rub, rub, rub of daily service that wears through ordinary plated ware at these points. But this cannot happen to Holmes & Edwards... because it's Sterling Inlaid. Before plating, solid blocks of sterling silver (not simply an extra or sectional silverplate but actual blocks of sterling silver) are inlaid deeply into these two wear points of the most used pieces.
It explains why...

ROAMIN' WITH

Sport of Kings

The inauguration of horse racing and legalized gambling at Delaware Park this week can, in a financial sense, do a lot of good—or harm—for the community in general. It depends entirely upon how the community handles racing and its manifold temptations to reap something for nothing.

That it is impossible to "beat" the horses is a certainty. Regarded as a sport and taken in small doses, racing can provide many pleasant afternoons for the average individual. Any and all attempts to take the ponies to the cleaners, so to speak, however, will prove more than costly, especially for an unsuspecting novice, who through beginner's luck or blind chance, might happen to have a few shekels riding on a long shot's back. Some Delaware people, who have never seen anything but a plow horse before, will strike that kind of luck at the outset. Those same people will be wise to remember the axiom: an end the good beginning bringing a sad ending.

Barnum Was Right
We aren't qualified to moralize on any subject and, realizing that, we aren't endeavoring to attempt it now. Concerning horses, however, we have passed through the various stages of ecstasy, after winning, and despair, after losing. And it's quite different—moralizing and merely reciting reactions born through experience.

There's probably no thrill greater than to hang your carcass over the rail, clutch a two-buck ticket in your hand and root like a— for some favored dog to stick his nose across the wire in front of the pack.

It's an expensive thrill, however, and for anyone to practice it daily is simple proof that the late P. T. Barnum's crack about a sucker being born every minute is quite correct. Where Mr. Barnum erred, however, is in the idea that only two a minute are born to take the sucker. Around race tracks, the birth rate of "takers" must be a thousand to one.

Fearless Freddie
Whatever else is said of Freddie Baldwin, a most remarkable fellow whose baseball reputation extends far beyond his native Aberdeen, it can never be hinted that he is lacking in courage.

While hundreds of people in this section have both cheered and jeered Freddie for his actions on the diamond, only a comparatively few fans know that he is a much, much better than average scrapper. Spectators at Oxford last Sunday were given a convincing demonstration, we are told, when Freddie literally smacked George Smith, a hometown boy, all over Cooper Field.

Smitty and Freddie have been in each other's hair for about three years. Both are valuable to the point of being nerve rasing, when in the mood. Having seen them in action on opposing sides of the diamond, we can picture the events that led to Sunday's difficulties. Those boys are past-masters at heckling.

With Smith at bat in the ninth inning, Baldwin came in to pitch. His third toss found a mark in the middle of Smith's back. Smith retaliated by throwing first the bat, then the ball—at Freddie's head. Freddie ducked, only to use the incident for an excuse to smack Smitty around a bit.

They oppose each other again this Sunday at Oxford and the meeting should be of interest. Freddie, incidentally, will be in Newark with Taylor Biles' Oxford Bi-Staters on July 25. That's a good date to remember.

BLUE HEN ACES SEEK TITLE AND TROPHY IN ANNUAL TEST

Low Carey Takes Favorite's Spotlight; Bartoshesky, Wells And Rice Also Expected To Enter; Wheelless Conceded Good Chance; Round Robin To Be Held For Women

By Ace Seeds

A quartet of University of Delaware stars, led by Captain Low Carey, has placed its bid for the town championship which will be decided by the second annual NEWARK POST tourney, scheduled to start Sunday on the college courts.

Besides Carey, Bill Wells, veteran Hen performer, and Steve Bartoshesky, freshman sensation, have entered the competition for the statuette trophy. Lee Rice, who has also played several seasons under Blue and Gold colors, has placed his bid for the title in the annual event.

With Carey a decided favorite to carry off final honors, Chauncey (Sonny) Wheelless, former Blue Hen leader, leads the parade of local aspirants favored to figure prominently in the final rounds. Should Wheelless' performance reach top form, his bid will be a strong one for the championship. Wells, one of the most improved players on Coach Ralph Jones' team this spring, gave the Ocean City turnout several tough battles in practice sessions and is not one to be overlooked.

Since the influx of college performers, Ned McCully, 1935 champion, eliminated in the semi-finals last year by C. Roy Donoho, 1936 winner who not defend this year, has been pushed into the background of favorites but the former ruler of the courts can still be looked upon as a threat.

Others expected to pass by the early rounds are Jack Sinclair, Elwood A. Miller, Dr. C. R. Kase, Bob Medl, George Mix, and Leo and Chris Laskaris. Miller and Mix, newcomers to the Newark tennis circle, are reputedly crackerjack players and should figure in the running.

Conspicuously absent from the ranks of contenders will be the champions and runners-up in both the 1936 singles and doubles contests. C. Roy Donoho and Fred Davies, singles finalists, will not be on hand this year and the doubles teams of Dr. C. L. Day-Davies and Dr. Francis H. Squire-Prof. R. W. Jones, who figured in the wind-up matches, will not play in the 1937 classic.

Due to Carey's fine showing during the college season, he will be a top-heavy favorite to walk off with the championship honors.

Doubles pairings finds Miller and Mix; Chris and Leo Laskaris; Tom Laskaris and Marshall McCully; Wheelless and Sinclair; and Ned McCully and Jack Bridgewater. Many entries have not been received as yet.

All those wishing to participate are requested to file an entry blank before midnight Friday. The draw will take place on Saturday, players informed of their opponents and play will start Sunday morning.

Four have entered the Newark Post round-robin tourney for women which will take place at the same time as the men's affair. Entries will close at the same time for this competition which lists Mrs. Francis H. Squire, Mrs. A. M. Ball and the Misses Anne Chalmers and Mary Lou Gaffney as starters. Each contestant will play every other entry twice and the victor will be decided by the highest percentage. A gold medal will be awarded to the champion.

The complete line-up for the tourney is expected to consist of: Carey, Wheelless, Sinclair, Wells, Cronhardt, Bartoshesky, Rice, Miller, Mix, Tom, Leo, Chris and George Laskaris, Bill Fletcher, Wilson Nichols, Dr. Kase, Harry Williamson, Bob Hancock, Jim Thompson, Marshall McCully, Ned McCully, Bob Medl, and Jack Bridgewater.

Club Average Climbs

Always a great batting team the Phillies are no exception this year. Now that "Chuck" Klein has recuperated his eye the Phils have made a steady climb in club batting. Their collective average at the moment is .270, only 8 points behind the pace setting Chicago Cubs.

Triple Play And Flying Fists At Oxford Imbroglia

Fans at Cooper Field, Oxford, last Sunday were treated to something more than a ball game as Taylor Biles' Bi-State League aggregation humbled Chester County League outfit, 7-1. A mighty blow that carried over the rightfield fence was registered by "Marvel Marvin" Lucas, Bi-State shortstop; a triple play—Lucas to Cooney to Richardson; and a ninth-inning display of fistcuffs between Freddie Baldwin and George (Loud Mouth) Smith served to keep the fans on edge.

Biles' charges settled the issue in the first frame by scoring three runs. After Cooney had been retired, Lucas teed off on the first pitch and drove it far over the distant wall in right. It was the first ball ever hit over the fence in that sector.

Baldwin Hits Well

Baldwin, with four blows in as many trips to the plate, led the Bi-Staters' 11-hit attack. Morris, who went the distance for the Chesco team, issued six passes. George (Sadie) Aiken and Toy Jebb divided the mound duty for Biles and kept six opposing hits well scattered.

The defensive work of Dilly Richardson at first base for the Bi-State outfit and Doug Woodsworth, Chesco shortstop, served to electrify the fans on numerous occasions.

Aiken was helped by the triple play in the third. Chesco runners were on first and second with none away when Goldie lined to Lucas. He tossed to Cooney, who rifled a throw to Richardson for a lightning three-ply killing.

The fistie display came in the ninth, when Baldwin was brought in from left field to pitch to Smith. Incensed at being hit in the back, Smith first heaved his bat, then the ball at Baldwin's head. Losing no time in retaliating, Baldwin, according to reports, tossed a brace of knuckles that found a mark on Smith's jaw and eye. Jebb returned to the mound to end the contest by fanning Bea.

In an effort to even the series, Cooper is importing a pitcher from Philadelphia for the second game of the set, which will be played at Oxford on Sunday.

Crack Speed Boat Kings Are Entered In Affair; Dave Gerli's Craft To Race

EXTRA CLASSES ADDED

Lady Gen, David Gerli's noted in-board runabout, will race in the eighth annual North East River Yacht Club regatta at North East, Md., on Saturday and Sunday. Gerli is a member of the Columbia Yacht Club, New York.

Newly-Created Classes

This crack racing craft falls into the newly-created classes F and G of inboards. Other late entries of top class speedsters resulted in the addition of a class for 91-cubic inch hydroplanes and official mile trials, making upward of forty contests for the two days of competition at this upper Chesapeake Bay water sport center.

A ninety-one cubic inch boat will be driven by Edward A. N. Kerr, of Konkors, N. Y., to guarantee speedy competition in that class. Douglass C. Fonda, whose boats are rated among the speediest hulls in the country, one of the best known drivers in the United States, has entered outboards in classes A, B, C and F.

Frank Maxa, of Havre de Grace, will be on hand with his Class H in-board runabout, Frandel, with which he took a number of prizes on the Chesapeake Bay last season. Henry Pippin, of Elkton, will race his in-board of the same class, Sea Queen. Although no official entry has been received, George Ward, of Wilmington, noted speedboat racer, is expected to enter his Class F runabout, Hi Ho, in the competition. This boat was a winner last season at Stone Harbor, Atlantic City, Baltimore, Havre de Grace, North East and Miles river.

Prize Craft To Race

Others entering include R. K. Wells, of North East, with a Class H runabout, and Dr. Cecil H. Bagley, of Baltimore, with Wilmer III, a boat with which he has made speedboat history.

The opening day will be devoted largely to sailboat contests. During the afternoon there will be a rowboat race, a workboat contest and events for women's inboard runabouts. Sunday morning, the main day of the regatta, will be taken up with outboards. The larger and speedier in-board racers will go into action during the afternoon.

This regatta will launch the bay season's seven-event circuit. Officials of the club have arranged a program which they expect to provide competition of the highest class.

Harold W. Holt is commodore of the yacht club. Louis Burk is vice-commodore, Alex McDaniel rear-commodore and R. K. Wells, fleet captain.

Country Club Golfers In Semi-Finals For Titles

The semi-finals for the first and second sixteen championships of the Newark Country Club will be played Saturday, Al Ginther, chairman, announced this week.

Survivors in the upper bracket will be paired as follows: George F. (Long Ball) Anderson versus J. A. Julian, and R. B. Stewart, Jr., versus H. A. Turner, Junior. Anderson registered a quarter-finals triumph over Bob Good, 4 and 3, while Stewart was downing B. Franklin Richards, 1 up in 19 holes. Julian and Turner advanced by default over H. B. McCaully and Ray Wollaston, respectively.

Second sixteen semi-final jousts will feature C. O. Houghton against Ray L. Burnett; and C. H. Jeffers, Jr., versus H. B. Fisher. Houghton was carried to the 19th hole before defeating J. F. Anderson, 1 up, in the quarter finals, as Fisher and Dr. G. W. Rhodes staged a 20-hole marathon before the former won, 1 up. E. K. Bisham defaulted to Burnett, while Jeffers defeated C. H. Hopkins last week.

Title matches will be played on Saturday, July 3.

Newark Boy Rides At
Bel Air On Saturday

John Joseph Moore, 14-year-old Newark High School student, of 47 E. Main St., will ride Miss Elsie Dempsey's poney, Chico, at the Bel Air, Md., Fair Horse Show on Saturday. Entered in the small pony class, poney race, jumping and saddle events, Chico will be handled by Moore in all tests.

The combination won first place in the small pony class at St. Georges on May 29, repeated the triumph at Cinder Lane, Elsmere, on June 12, and finished second in the poney race the same day.

Despite his youth, Moore is regarded as a promising horseman. He has specialized in handling ponies for three years. At the age of 11 he developed a food diet for ponies that astounded veteran handlers.
