Newark Celebrates Hallowe'en With Annual Mardi Gras Event

Estimated Crowd Of 14,000 Participates In Celebration
With Parade, Free Midway Games, Refreshments; Falcon
Hi-Y Wins Top Float Prize For "Cape Canaveral" Entry

In one of the largest crowds to witness a local parade, some 14,000 persons jammed the streets of Newark to watch take part in last Thursday's Hallowe'en Mardi Gras.
Of the six float entries, Falcon Hi-Y, a newcomer to the category this year, won the first place trophy with their "Hallowe'en at Cape Canaveral" entry—an eight-ft.
high pumpkin, with a glistening white rocket, smoke and the trimmings. The boys designed and built the float themselves.

The trophy, an innovation in 1958, is a custom-made original, with figures representing achievement and the traditional Mardi-Gras float, and donated by Young & Belle, Mrs. Delaware.
Mrs. Dorothy Kuttner of Brookside and H. G. Young presented the trophy to Falcon Hi-Y Club President Norman Neide.

Mrs. Delaware
Mrs. Delaware presented the trophy to all other prize winners of the parade.

The second place float trophy was won by Kappa Phi Tri-Hi-Y's "Can-ibal Party." Entitled "Kanna Phi Boyle Cooking," black garbed, carrying savans surrounded a large black pot that bubbled and spoke its way down Newark's Main Street.

Third place float honors were awarded to Our Two New "entry."
The parade moved out on time at 7:15 p.m. from the Newark Shopping Center in one of the earliest parties of the Mardi Gras history.
The press of the crowd standing 15-deep at the reviewing stand, saw things as they crowded forward to see the small fry on parade.
The crowd at the end of the parade made it difficult for those trying to work their way along the street, but there were no incidents of malicious mischief reported along the parade route.

Some 4,000 youngsters from three to 16 look part in post-parade festivities. At the 14 free midway games sponsored by Hi-Y club volunteers is supervised by YMCA Industrial Management Club members.
10 prizes were won, while 110 pounds of cider and 75 pounds of candy were consumed.
The evening was disappointing for hundreds of teen-agers as street closures failed to materialize due to mechanical failures of two public address systems.
Chairman Stanley Francis said this celebration has been one of the largest in Mardi Gras history and the many thousands of participants again are to be congratulated for their enthusiastic, excellent behavior.
The celebration is planned and sponsored by a Mardi Gras committee of community organizations.
This year's committee included 35 members—tops in its six year history.

Fair Hill; Five Persons
Hurt As Auto Hits Pole

automobile accidents on Route 273
near Newark early last Friday morning.

Hill and Newark, John F. Walter, 21, of Hillcrest, driver of one car, received a compound fracture of the upper left thigh and a broken rib, cuts of the eye, upper lip, and tongue; Allen Hovder, 19, of Rising Sun, another driver, fracture of bruises.

The four injured in this accident were taken to Union Hospital, Elkton, in ambulances of the Aetna

State police said Walker was driving east on 273 and his car failed to make a turn in the road. It skid-ded to the left, crashed head-on with the car driven by Hovder, and spun around in the road, and collided with the car driven by Paul Everett Lowes, 23, of Oxford. Lowes was uninjured. He and Hovder were driving west.

Window-Painting Contest Winners Named In Newark

Hallowe'en Mardi Gras
Features Artist Work
By Local School Pupils

Prize window-painting artists in the Hallowe'en Mardi Gras contest have been announced, but with 60 winners, averaging 6x8-ft. in size, it was stated that "the excellent quality of all paintings has made the selection of the winners most difficult."
Linda McFall and Joan McDowell, painting on the Acme window of the Newark Shopping Center, were awarded top honors in the high school division.

Winning artists from the Oglethorpe Junior High School were Pat Parker and Cynthia Brink for their painting at the Newark Real Estate and Insurance Company window in the Brookside Shopping Center.
Central Junior High champion painters were Franklin Deck and Jay Bakana for their painting at Foster Barber Shop.
A second place award went to John Casey, and third place was awarded Peggy Hoffman and Sue Steward for window pictures at the Newark Department Store.
Jenny, Carolyn Hopkins and Simpson won second prize for painting at Clayton Hardware, and first prize went to Vivian Hurst and Ann Batten, for their Food Fair window at Brookside.

Aetna Volunteers Collect $8,776.33 With Sunday Calls

Newark Firemen Seek $18,580 As Fund Goal
For Annual Operation

Aetna Hose, Hook and Ladder Company volunteer firemen returned to homes in the area last Sunday after distributing fund campaign material in house-to-house calls on the previous Sunday, and collected $8,776.33. With $1,856.50 raised earlier in the week, donations amount to $10,632.83.

The firemen have a campaign goal of $18,580, to meet the cost of new apparatus and for maintenance of other equipment.

Newark volunteer firemen receive no pay. Financial help from the city, county and state is insufficient to carry out the program of the department.

Fire Chief Clifton Knotts and Aetna President John List are directing the firemen in their campaign, which will continue through November.

Letters have been sent to industry and business and postage-free envelopes were left at area homes for the convenience of those wishing to mail in their contributions.

Deputy Fire Chief Olan Thomas reported that in Todd Estates, residents were of the mistaken belief that the fire service costs $100 per call. Thomas said this is not so and that no charges have ever been made for fire or ambulance service.

Firemen visited homes in the city,
in Brookside, Chestnut Hill Estates, Delaplane Manor, Roseville Park,
Todd Estates and other developments.

Fire trucks will be located outside the four city banks tomorrow night where donations will be accepted.

18th Bundle Day Clothing Donations Sought At Schools

During the week of Nov. 18, students in Newark public schools will gather good, used clothing for children and adults in underprivileged areas of the United States, as well as for victims of disaster at home and overseas, through the 18th annual, nationwide Bundle Day clothing collection sponsored by Save The Children Federation.

Parents, friends and neighbors are urged to empty clothes storage areas of good, used winter and summer garments their families no longer need. Low-heeled shoes and overshoes are especially needed.

Also requested are serviceable coats, dresses, pants, underwear, socks, shirts, sweaters, skirts, caps, blankets, sheets and baby clothes.
Clothing may be brought or sent to school in bags or cartons to be repacked for shipment.

Donated clothing is sent to southeastern mountains, where it is made available through S.C.F. clothing centers at very low prices, enabling a poor but proud people to maintain self-respect.

Additional clothing is distributed without charge, through county welfare and attendance officers to those who cannot afford to pay.
Clothing is also stockpiled for disaster use in this country and overseas.

Planning Commission Reserves Decision On Motel, School Site, Other Petitions

Residents of Silverbrook opposed the rezoning of the Correll property at 622 South College Avenue from residential to business for construction of a motel, and Jacob Balick, attorney for the owners,
was supported by Martin Gauger, president of the Newark Board of Education, in a petition for the vacating of certain streets proposed in the Cherry Hill development to permit consummation of a school site sale.

But the Newark Planning Commission, meeting in public session for the first time last Monday night, deferred decisions on both petitions, along with decisions on three other petitions, pending further study and a special meeting scheduled for 7:30 p.m. Friday, Nov. 13.

William G. Murray, a member of the realty firm of Young & Williams, said that the depth of the lets in the Silverbrook area permitted a buffer zone between the residential and proposed commercial properties, and H. C. Young cited the city need for a modern motel with its facilities and revenue.

A plat with details of the project was discovered unexpectedly by the Planning Commission after the meeting adjourned, and Martin Gauger assured the commission that the school was willing had obtained an option, and had made a down payment for the site.

City Manager Francis Neide urged that the streets be vacated and that the plat be redesigned for non-school development.

served educational institutions and conferred with educators in those countries.
The trip sponsored by the National Education Association was made possible for Mr. Shue by local industrial and business establishments.

Anti-Air Pollution Ordinance Planned By New Committee

Four Local Industries,
State, U. of D. To Work
With City For New Law

Representatives of four local industries, the State Air Pollution Authority, and the University of Delaware will work with City Manager Francis Neide to recommend an acceptable anti-air pollution ordinance for Newark as the result of an agreement made at an informal discussion meeting Tuesday night with City Council.

The group will include representatives from Chrysler, National Vul-canized Fibre, Curtis Paper, Continental-Diamond, the State Air Pollution Authority and the uni-represented at last Tuesday's meeting.

The committee will go over an anti-pollution ordinance proposed by council, and will consider model ordinances and a code suggested by the American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

The group will work directly with Neide who believes, "We can draft an ordinance that will be enacted by council and will benefit everyone concerned."

At the start of the session, Mayor Frank Durnall read a letter of complaint from a local doctor claiming that the soot was so bad at his house that his wife had to use a vacuum cleaner on the bed before retiring. The mayor said this was but one of the many complaints.

Harry T. Camper, full time employee of the State Air Pollution Authority, pointed out that complaints could be directed to the authority's Dover office.

Driver Lights Cigarette While Auto Strikes Pole

An automobile driven by Enoble
Swift, 40, of 60 Kennard Drive, Newark, collided with a power pole on West Cleveland Avenue last Saturday at 3:05 a.m., with damages estimated at $500 by Newark police.
Swift, turning west from North College onto Cleveland Avenue, was lighting a cigarette when the car hit the pole some 300-ft. beyond the intersection.

The boys could have kept the caps for some personal, exciting, experimentation—or they could have left the dangerous devices in the street where they found them. In either case, tragic results may have ensued.

Instead, two of the boys retraced their steps to report their find to the police, while the other two kept watch over the dynamite caps in the street.

Mayor Frank Durnall commended
the little fellows for their judgment, and Chief Cunningham said "Few adults would have handled the situation as well."

Borchardt, American Field Service president for the Newark branch, has announced that Elizabeth Keeney, 30 Kells Avenue, is the nominee for the northern school program under which a student goes to school in Europe for the first half of her senior year, and Diana Duff, Robert Raun, and Sandra Scott are nominees for the summer program under which American teenagers live as members of families abroad during July and August.

Senior Class President Alan Adams spent last summer in Greece. Selections were made by a committee of community, school, and student representatives, with Mrs. Hugh Gallagher, Mrs. Jerome Weinberg, Mrs. Joseph Shields, Gertrude Weaver, Jeanette Thoroughgood, Mrs. Gerald Borchardt, Rita Siikala, Stanley Francis, Charles Hoover, Alan Adams, and Ted Houle.

Delaware Food Market Report

By Anne Holberton
U. of D. Agricultural Extension Service

November is a month of thanksgiving for abundant harvests. It is also a month of thanksgiving for the truly wonderful advances in food distribution.

Supplies of turkeys are plentiful and will continue to take care of the Thanksgiving rush.

Another on the plentiful foods list is pork. Supplies continue to be about 10 per cent larger than last fall.

Fresh cranberries, as well as the three canned items—jellied cranberry sauce, whole cranberry sauce and cranberry cocktail—are all in plentiful supply. Serve the chilled juice as a pleasantly satisfying introduction to the meal. Jellied cranberry sauce is appealing served in round slices or cut into gay holiday silhouettes. Fresh whole cranberries are perfect for your roast turkey and pork entrees.

More November plentifuls are apples, potatoes, onions, sweet potatoes, rice, lard and broiler-fryers. For holiday baking, almonds and filberts are abundant.

Look for good buys on "greens"—particularly spinach and kale. Other winter-type vegetables in fair to good supply are white turnips, brussels sprouts, cauliflower, broccoli and rutabagas.

Meat specials for the weekend include steaks and a good many pork items; lamb and veal.

Apples, oranges, grapefruit and coconuts are best buys at the fruit counter this weekend.

The National Grange sent National Deputy Sherman Ives of Connecticut to assist the Lacey's with the Florida organization. Many of the new grange members are former grangers who have retired and come to Florida to make their homes.

The annual meeting of the Mill Creek Hundred Association of Churches will be held Saturday in the Hockessin Methodist Church House, with a covered dish supper at 6:30 p.m. preceding the business session and program.

ANOTHER PROBLEM FOR THE SCHOOLS

Time was when reading, writing and arithmetic, along with a smattering of Greek or Latin and a dab of history, made up a good basic education.

Time also was when the sky was the limit, when it took weeks or months to learn about the latest trouble in the Indian territories or across the sea.

No more. Things have speeded up, stretched out, interlocked, overlapped and generally complexed themselves so as to be practically unintelligible to anybody.

The basic education of yesterday has become about as adequate for modern day life as the Pinta, Nina and Santa Maria would be for space travel. Our educational system has struggled manfully to keep up with the expanding needs of our society—and with a good measure of success. Still, the graduates coming out of our high schools are scientifically and economically illiterate.

Science is a specialized field that must be entrusted to the specialists. But economics is something that every family head, housewife, jobholder, businessman, taxpayer, voter, public official and legislator has to cope with individually, collectively and constantly.

Economic knowledge is important enough in the affairs of individuals. When the future of whole communities, states and the nation rest on policies and candidates chosen by popular vote, economic knowledge is imperative.

Something new needs to be added to the basic three "r's" of education—and that's basic economics, taught early and thoroughly in our schools.

Prestons To Speak On Trip To Africa For Church Women

Dr. Daniel J. Preston, a Wilmington surgeon, and his wife, recently returned from a two-month medical mission in an African hospital, will speak and show slides at a meeting of the group three of the Women of St. Thomas Episcopal Church, tonight at 8 o'clock in the parish house, Mrs. John Hitchens, Jr., and Mrs. Edmund Thompson are co-chairmen, and Mrs. Theodore Ludwig and Mrs. Frank Nelson will be aides.

Dr. Preston and Mrs. Preston who is a registered nurse, traveled to the Freda Carr Hospital, Uganda to serve the staff surgeon who had been granted a two-month leave. The hospital has been operated by the Anglican Church Missionary Society of London for 30 years. Although the hospital is staffed by British physicians, the nurses and medical aides are natives. The hospital serves one surgeon for the 250,000 people it serves. Some patients travel 100 miles or more through the bush for treatment.

"The Junior Red Cross specializes in promoting the humanitarian ideals of the Red Cross through programs and activities carried on at local, national and international levels," Mrs. Phillips said.

Canadian Players To Offer Chekov's "Cherry Orchard"

Non-Musical Group Plans Third Straight Appearance For Annual Artist Series

For the third successive year the Canadian Players will appear on the campus of the University of Delaware as a part of the annual Artists Series. The Players are the only non-musical group included in the series.

This year the well-known theatrical company will present Anton Chekov's "The Cherry Orchard," at 8:15 p.m., Friday, Nov. 6, in Mitchell Hall auditorium. It is an optional selection for season ticket holders, but previous performances by the Canadian Players have been presented before near-capacity houses. Tickets are available at the university bookstore in the Student Center.

The Canadian Players were formed in 1954 by Tom Patterson, founder of Canada's Stratford Shakespearean Festival, and actor-director Douglas Campbell. The first small group of actors taken from the Stratford Festival, has developed into a truly representative Canadian company.

In its five years its plays have been seen by audiences from Canada's northlands, to the southern United States. Everywhere, audiences and critics have acclaimed this young and vigorous Canadian group. "The Cherry Orchard," was the last play written by Chekov before his death. It is said that he was a gay and cheerful man and he refers to "The Cherry Orchard" as a comedy although by our standards it is extremely sad despite its few flashes of humor.

A beautiful and tragic story, its scenes and characters will remain with the viewer long after the final curtain has fallen.

Maynard Conkey Runs For 3 Touchdowns As Yellowjackets Beat Brandywine, 26-7

Newark Halfback Maynard Conkey scored three touchdowns—two in the first period, and the first of these an 86-yard sprint off-tackle—as Coach Bob Hoffman's Yellowjackets beat Coach John Modica's Brandywine squad at Newark last Saturday, 26-7, before a slim turnout of local fans outnumbered by the visitors' support.

Conkey followed up with another off-tackle dash for 25-yards and a second touchdown, and Arnie Saunders, end, kicked the extra point to give the Yellowjackets a 13-0 advantage at the quarter.

In the second period, Co-Captain Carl Rice rifled a 15-yard pass to Fullback Bob Burton in the Brandywine end zone for the third Newark touchdown, and the Yellowjackets were comfortably in command, 19-0, at the half.

Somewhat to Coach Hoffman's dismay, the Yellowjackets coasted through much of the third quarter as Brandywine marshalled a sustained drive for 50-yards and a touchdown by Hunter Viden, topped by an extra point pass from Monty Kennedy to Viden.

In the final quarter, Newark shut the door on their visitors and rang up a final seven points.

Quarterback Carl Rice threw a 30-yard pass to Conkey, who ran another 30 for the last touchdown, his third of the day.

Art Carney's kick was good, and it was Newark 26, Brandywine 7, as time ran out.

Meanwhile, Mt. Pleasant stopped William Penn, 12-6, and retained a 3-0, first place in the Blue Hen Conference race, with 3-1 Newark as runner-up.

The Yellowjackets play here this Saturday against Wilmington High School's Red Devils, with kick-off scheduled for 2 p.m.

Hoffman's starting line-up for Saturday has Arnie Saunders and Ronnie Pyle at ends; Merle Taylor and Don Frank, tackles; Bill Maul and Co-Captain Monty Jackson, guards; and Alan Beldyk, center.

Co-Captain Carl Rice will start at quarterback; Charlie Word is expected to start in place of Left Halfback Marshall Saunders, who injured a muscle in last Saturday's game; Maynard Conkey will be at right half; and Bob Burton at fullback.

Halfback Lloyd Wells, who broke his collarbone early in the season, is back in uniform but out of action, and Halfback Norman Neide, who injured his back before the first game, has been scrimmaging with the varsity.

$500,000 Profit For Liberty Bowl Contestants Seen

Newark Touchdown Club Becomes Charter Member In New Football Project

A half-million dollar split—$250,000 apiece for the two top college teams with 75 per cent of gross receipts—was predicted by A. F. "Bud" Dudley for the Liberty Bowl football game to be played Dec. 19 in Philadelphia's Municipal Stadium.

Addressing the Newark Touchdown Club luncheon meeting last Monday at the Newark Country Club, Dudley explained the Liberty Bowl promotion which is to match the top team in the East with the best in the nation. As possible opponents, the president of the Liberty Bowl Association cited Syracuse and LSU.

Preparations for the Liberty Bowl game began in March, 1957. The said, with a request presented to the NCAA. After two and a half years of preliminary work, the 44 original applicants for another major bowl game were reduced to one—the Liberty Bowl.

The third Saturday of December was selected because of past favorable weather, and to eliminate prolonged training for the bowl teams. Dudley reported that an NBC-TV contract had been signed for the Liberty Bowl, sponsored by L&M cigarettes, and Whitman's L&M.

The Newark Touchdown Club agreed to purchase charter membership in the Liberty Bowl—the being sought—and President Bayard Perry will distribute 16 tickets for the first Liberty Bowl football game. Jim Leonard, former head coach of the Pittsburgh Steelers, was a guest of the Newark Club.

Wayne Pollari, football coach for the unbeaten Mt. Pleasant leaders in the Blue Hen Conference, and former Newark High School and University of Delaware athlete, will be the guest speaker at next Monday's luncheon meeting of the Newark Touchdown Club, Program Chairman Leroy Hill has announced.

Church Volleyball League To Begin Play Monday

Recreation Church League Volleyball competition will begin next Monday night when five well-balanced teams make their bid for the championship trophy.

League Director Jim McMeans has announced that all games will be played at the Brookside Elementary School, and emphasized that this year's league "should be an exciting one due to ever-increasing popularity of volleyball in the area."

Any other team entry is requested to contact the Newark Recreation office, 315 Delaware Circle.

The Surf—And Red Mill The surf fishing was slow, and after spending the day catching three small blues, a small flounder, and several sizeable skates, we stopped at Red Mill Pond in the sunset where Big Damon boated a big bass; Billy caught two nice pickers and a yellow perch; and we came ashore in the dark with a string of two bass, three pike and the perch after some 60 minutes' fishing.

With Skipper Gibby Young and Bob Kidwell, we cruised down Chesapeake Bay from North East two Sundays ago to the Chester River where three lines with an assortment of bucktails, porkrind, and spoons trolled for hours and miles through some of the world's finest striped bass water—without a strike.

Rugged Robert Kidwell with a light spinning rod had several stirring sessions snagging seaweed, but this marine hay-making provided the only fishing excitement of a long day.

The wildfowl panorama, however, was something to see, and all hands had excitement enough when a low-flying jet thundered overhead to shock us with a sound wave that caused the cruiser crew to believe the boat's engine had exploded. It hadn't. That almost happened later when the flywheel flew off the engine water pump.

The trolling trip was pretty well satisfied with the day despite a cold approach to the marina through the black, windy night over the North-east River until we learned later that 20 rock had been taken by a trolling party in another boat just upriver from our field of operations.

Hens Face Owls In Season's Home Finale With Saturday Tilt At Delaware Stadium

Temple University's Owls will provide the opposition for the University of Delaware football team in the Hens' home finale this Saturday, with kick-off time at Delaware Stadium slated for 1:30 p.m.

The Owls, under Coach Pete Stevens, will be the fourth Middle Atlantic Conference university division opponent for the Hens, current leader for the Lambert Cup, symbolic of football supremacy among the East's small-college teams.

Delaware meets Bucknell in the conference and season finale on Nov. 21 at Lewisburg, Pa.

Coach Dave Nelson's Blue Hens whipped Temple, 35-14, last fall at Temple Stadium. Delaware boasts five straight victories over the Owls since becoming an Eastern power under Nelson.

Temple and Delaware have been football opponents since 1913. The Hens took the first two meetings before the Owls grabbed decisions in 1950 and 1951.

There was a lapse in the series until 1954 and the teams have clashed annually since, with Delaware building up a 7-2 lead under Nelson's direction.

The Owls surprised by holding Delaware scoreless in the first quarter of their 1958 engagement but the Hens pushed over three touchdowns before halftime, and coasted home. Since defeating the Hens, 13-7, in 1951, the closest Temple came to victory was in 1956 when the Owls dropped a 14-7 decision at Newark.

Walter Announces 1st Round Results In Billiards Play

First round results in the Newark Billiards Handicap Tournament have been reported by Promoter Charles "Bunny" Walter, with play continuing in three classes.

Former Champion Neil Beckett defeated Chum Tweed, 100-97, while in other Class A play, Bayard Robinson edged Warren Pouraure, 100-95; Helmer Johnson stopped Lum Thorp, 100-80; Jim White beat Van Johnson's 98; Harvey Johnson topped Al Hammer's 90; and Bob Everett won over Martin Johnson's 84.

In Class B competition, Bud Walling scored 83 in losing to Lou Fisher; Paul Kelly's best Arthur Moore's 55; and C. Sullivan topped Fred Boulanger, 100-74.

In 50-point Class C competition, Richard Mullins scored 44 in losing to C. Cotton; Kramer topped Bob Fulton's 43; Fred Hudson beat George Mullins' 42; and Bobby Huff won over John Moore's 34.

A lost opportunity is the greatest of losses.

Flying Finn Olaf Homen Sets 5th Harrier Record

Carl Olaf Homen, the Flying Finn and exchange student, continued to star in cross-country running for Delaware last Friday, setting his fifth record in as many meets as the Hens beat Johns Hopkins, 20-42.

Homen ran the 4.3-mile course in 21:38.5, lowering the home course record that he set the week before.

Teammate Wes Stack was second, less than a minute behind.

His performance, which took the spark out of the Rutgers attack, earned him a position on the weekly ECAC All-East team.

A junior, Heinecken outbid both Frantz and Reeder, seniors, for the starting assignment.

As a pass receiver, he has caught three aeriels for 47 yards, a touchdown pass on a conversion, and has scored 16 of the Hens' 194 points.

A lost opportunity is the greatest of losses.

Heinecken Swipes Pass For Early Season As Hens Take Lead, Beat Rutgers 34-14

End Mickey Heinecken intercepted a Rutgers pass to run for 25 yards and a touchdown in the very early minutes of the first quarter in the mist at New Brunswick last Saturday, and Coach Dave Nelson's Fighting Blue Hens were out in front to stay as they rolled to their sixth straight victory in an undefeated season, walloping Rutgers, 34-14.

Quarterback Gampy Pellegrini passed to Heinecken for the conversion, and Delaware led the shock-out, double-reverses, faked-out the Scarlet to the end zone, and it was Delaware 14-0.

Rutgers' renowned air attack grounded by the Hen line and Scarlet was forced to punt on the fourth down to the Hen line.

Turner, John Bowman and Vitch, Delaware's "Three Husbands," moved the ball from the Rutgers' four first downs to the Hen line.

But Rutgers' Bob Simms recovered a fumbled pichout on his own nine-yard line, and Quarterback Frank Lugosy assigned Tailback Bill Speranza the job of scoring.

Speranza handled the ball six straight times for short yardage to the Rutgers 38.

Taking to the air he hit End Paul Benke at the Delaware 47, and then passed to Wingback Dick Penek for the conversion.

The Rushniks crisscrossed the field, double-reverses, faked-out the Scarlet to the end zone, and it was Delaware 20-6 at the half.

At the beginning of the period, Rutgers drove from the 31 to the Delaware 12, when Garvin recovered the Scarlet's 57.

One play later, Pellegrini over: Bowman passed to Speranza for the conversion, and led, 28-6.

Delaware scored again in a tacular Pellegrini to Dick Benke pass covering 35 yards, and Hens had taken over on the 37.

An interception of a Rutgers flat pass resulted in a touchdown romp for Quarterback Larry Brown, and Rutgers score, in the closing seconds.

Panelists Feature Local High School Assembly Program

Leaders in Education, Government, Industry Address Student Body

A panel of educational, governmental, and industrial representatives addressed the Newark High School assembly on Oct. 21, in a program arranged by Charles Hoover, and Jeannette Thoroughgood. Frazer Jones conducted opening exercises.

The panel included Dr. Ernestine Moore, personnel director of the Wilmington Trust Company; Dr. William Fletcher, director of admissions, the University of Delaware; John Kane, training supervisor, National Vulcanized Fibre Company; Paul Maddock, U. S. Civil Service Commission; and Miss Thoroughgood.

Mr. Hoover outlined the type of biographical and evaluative material included in each student's file, which, he explained, are frequently referred to by the military services, the FBI, college admission officers, and potential employers.

The panel emphasized the importance of regular attendance, motivation, and application of achievement as related to potential, behavior and conduct, indication of leadership, and evidence of ability to get along with others.

Dr. Fletcher, directing his remarks primarily to college-bound students, stressed the need for good, qualifying grades, and for a high degree of application. He said that many admission officers assign second place to full activities program, feeling that "activities are no open door to college."

Dr. Moore and Mr. Kane reminded students that industry is concerned with what the student has to offer, and how well his qualifications may serve industry.

With applicants for any civil service job, Mr. Maddock said, the government uses individual files as a means of checking the honesty of the student in answering questions given on application forms and in an interview.

Loyalty Day will be observed Sunday at St. Andrew's United Presbyterian Church in Brookside, and at both worship services—9:45 and 11 a.m.—members of the congregation will dedicate their 1960 pledges of time, talent, and substance, a ceremony marking conclusion of the every-member canvass effort.

Visitation Planned By Methodist Men In Church Canvass

One hundred men of the Newark Methodist Church will visit homes of church members this Sunday afternoon and evening as part of the every-member canvass being conducted by the church in preparation for the new fiscal year which begins Jan. 1.

These visitors will participate in a service of dedication at 9:30 and 11 a.m. on Sunday, present their commitment cards and meet at the church at 1:30 p.m. for final instructions and assignments. Regular meetings will be held Sunday at 9 p.m., next Wednesday at 8:30 p.m., and Sunday, Nov. 15, at 2 p.m.

John H. Cronin is chairman of the canvass, and John McClelland is chairman of visitation.
