AMERICAN CONSULAR SERVICE

Berlin, Germany, March 11, 1932.

My dear Friend:

I have just had letters from my colleagues at Zürich and Budapest, and I feel quite sure that the matter of Dr. Csato's visa will now go through without difficulty. My colleague at Zürich tells me that Dr. Csato has been there and that he will make formal application shortly for a visa, and my colleague at Budapest says that he is prepared to grant a number. This, of course, for your information. I am glad to have been able to be of service.

I do hope that you are going to stay at Arosa until it is entirely safe for you to undertake again your only too heavy responsibilities. Now that you have made such a good start I hope you will stay until you get the really full benefit of the cure. It seems that I will not see you before I leave for home, but I trust that we may see you shortly after our return.

Believe me, with every good wish,

Cordially yours,

George S. Messersmith.

P.S.- In spite of all the noise and talk and in spite of the pessimism in certain quarters, I feel sure

sure that Hindenburg will be re-elected, and I am getting to believe more and more that my original conviction that he may be elected on the first ballot will be realized. There is already a reaction. There are some very wellmeaning and some very powerful people in the country who have been saying very loudly that Hitler will be able to accomplish things which previous German Governments have not been able to do, but 1 think their confidence has been shaken in the last days. Hitler has made too many promises. -
