BENEFIT FOR RED CROSS TO BE GIVEN

'Thunder Rock' Will Be Presented By University Drama Group

"Thunder Rock," outstanding dramatic success of the wartime London Theatre, will be given two benefit performances for the Red Cross War Relief Fund on February 6 and 7 in Newark by the University Drama Group, Newark's community theatre. The play had the largest run of any dramatic work in London since the war, and British players are still flocking to see it after almost two years. The author, Robert Ardrey, received one of the Playwriting Company's awards in 1938 as one of the most promising young American playwrights.

Rehearsals have been under way for two weeks under the direction of Mrs. C. R. Kase. L. Parker Thomas has finished his designs for the very unusual setting, a lighthouse. Mrs. Paul K. Muselman is in charge of production and Mrs. Muselman is business manager.

Members of the cast include Mrs. Edward Schoenborn, Mrs. L. Parker Thomas, Miss Dorothy Stowe, C. E. Matson, George Boli, G. Taggart, Thomas Deitz, L. Parker Thomas, and Joseph Gould.

At the regular January meeting of the Drama Group to be held next Tuesday evening, at 8 o'clock in the lounge of Old College, members will present the one-act play "The Purple Door" by Walter Prichard Eaton. In the cast are Mrs. Robert Boyd, Mrs. George Hyde, and Mrs. Robert Spencer. Mrs. Spencer is directing.

A feature of the program for this meeting will be a talk by William Penn Fink, drama critic and a member of the Wilmington Drama League. His subject will be "Headaches of a Dramatist." Mr. Fink is directing the current production of "Half Night" for the Drama League. At last year directed the shortened version of "The Taming of the Shrew" which was runner-up in the Community Theatre Division of the Delaware Play Festival.

There will be an election to fill the office of President, recently vacated by Richard Ryan, who has moved to Indiana.

SOLDIERS' BOOK DRIVE UNDERWAY

Mrs. Bausman Heads Committee In Charge

The Victory Book Campaign, organized to collect books for the use of soldiers, sailors, and marines in army camps, on ships, and in Red Cross and R.C.O. centers, is underway with individuals and groups in Newark doing their share toward reaching Delaware's goal of 20,000 volumes. Mrs. Robert O. Bausman is director of the project in this area.

A survey made in army posts indicates the wide variety of books in demand. Fiction, detective, and mystery stories, humor and historical novels, sports stories and westerns are all wanted. But in addition, text books are valuable to men trying to pursue their interrupted educations. Such books as those on seamanship, business, accounting, mathematics, and other hand will be welcomed as well as volumes of poetry, music, opera, and recent biographies.

Mrs. Bausman has named the following staff of assistants: Miss Edwina King, John K. Speicher, Samuel E. Cameron, Mrs. Alex D. Cobb, D. A. McClintock, Mrs. Walter Hullahen, W. D. Lewis, Rev. Andrew W. Mayer, Miss Adele Thomas, Vernon Steele, Rev. H. Bennett Hallman, Rev. O. A. Bartley, Mrs. Frank K. Simons, and Rev. Eugene J. Kramer.

Books may be left at the Newark New Century Club on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday, or at the town and Memorial libraries. Members of the century club are urged to bring their contributions to the regular meeting of the organization on Monday.

FORMER AG HEAD EXPIRED MONDAY

Charles A. McCue To Be Buried At Cass City, Mich.; Wife, Son Survive

Funeral services will be held at Cass City, Mich., this afternoon for Charles A. McCue, former dean of the University of Delaware's School of Agriculture, who died Monday afternoon at the Delaware Hospital, Wilmington, after a long illness.

Confined most of the time to his home since his resignation in June, 1939 because of failing health, his illness became worse about a month ago and he had been seriously ill since that time. Dean McCue, son of the late Charles E. and Catherine (Campbell) McCue, was born in Cass City.

He was educated at the public schools of Cass City, and was graduated from Michigan State College in 1901. He did graduate work at the University of Pennsylvania from 1911 to 1914.

In 1901 he entered the employ of the U. S. Forest Service as field assistant and two years later became graduate assistant in the department of horticulture of Michigan State College, later becoming assistant horticulturist and instructor in horticulture there.

He came to the University of Delaware, then Delaware College, as professor of horticulture and horticulturist of the experimental station in 1908, and eleven years later he was named director of the agricultural station, dean of the school of agriculture, and director of the University Extension Service.

In 1929 he made a tour of England and Continental Europe to study agricultural practices in those countries.

The author of numerous papers and horticultural bulletins, Dean McCue often spoke before horticultural societies, appearing at virtually all meetings of the Peninsula Horticultural Society up until his illness in 1939.

He was secretary and treasurer of the Association of Land Grant Colleges and Universities from 1927 to 1928 and was editor of the association bulletin for several years.

Dean McCue was a past president of the American Society for Horticultural Science, a fellow of the American Association for the Advancement of Science, a 32nd degree Mason, and a member of the Delaware Consistory. He was a member of the Newark Methodist Church and of the Faculty and Newark Country Clubs.

His wife, the former Miss Essie B. Willis, and one son, John Beebe McCue by a former marriage, survive.

Friends were permitted to call from 7 until 9 o'clock, Tuesday night, at the Shellendorf Funeral Home.

DEFENSE COMMITTEE CONDUCTS SESSION

Citizens Urged To Register At Local Office In Elliott Building

Harry L. Bonham, newly-appointed chairman who succeeded D. A. McClintock, presided over a meeting of the Newark Defense Committee, held Tuesday evening in the offices of the Council of Newark.

Other members who attended were: Mayor Frank Collins, Mr. McClintock, Mrs. Alex D. Cobb, Carl S. Rankin, Mrs. F. Allyn Cooch, Jr., Charles E. Grubb, Mrs. Leon H. Ryan, M. James Parsons, Alfred Deck, R. E. Stone, Chief of Police William H. Cunningham, Sgt. Leroy C. Hill, and Vernon Steele, secretary.

Mrs. Cooch reported that approximately 140 people had registered for service under the civilian defense system, and stressed the point that workers required for service in Newark will greatly exceed the present enrollment. She urged prompt registration at the Elliott Building, 26 East Main Street. All civilian defense personnel is required to register before accepting any community tasks.

Citizens registered will be classified and assigned to duties that they are best fitted to perform.

Mr. Bonham received reports from police and fire officials as to the training of civilian police, air raid wardens, and firemen. According to Chief Cunningham, 17 zones have been established for patrol by civilian police and seven zones patrolled by air raid wardens. Each group is receiving intensive instruction in courses covering police duties, chemical warfare, first aid, and other allied defense subjects.

Members of the Aetna Hose, Hook and Ladder Co., under Chief Elmer J. Ellison, are training for defense service and 60 men are now available for duty.

Mrs. Cobb, who is taking a course in air raid protection in Wilmington, recommended that local merchants be asked to stock special types of fire extinguishers for use against incendiary bombs which have been employed successfully in London.

Other women taking the course are: Mrs. M. W. Hanson, Mrs. Jay Robinson, Mrs. Louis A. Stearns, Miss Isabelle Ashbridge, Mrs. Harold Sheaffer, Mrs. J. W. O'Daniel, Mrs. Marjorie Golder, Mrs. J. Fenton Daugherty, and Mrs. Robert O. Bausman. Upon completion of their studies, they will conduct classes here, and a meeting will be held on Wednesday for the purpose of organizing this work.

REES HEADS SPOTTERS AT POSSUM PARK POST

U. of D. Professor Succeeds Bissell As Chief Observer; Coats Needed

Dr. Carl J. Rees, professor of mathematics at the U. of D., has been appointed Chief Observer for the Civilian Airplane Observation Post No. 1B, succeeding Alfred E. Bissell, it was announced yesterday. Louis T. Staats continues as First Assistant Chief Observer.

Post 1B, located at Possum Park, has been operated under the Wilmington American Legion Post since it was established but, due to its geographic closeness to Newark, it was thought it should be operated and manned by Newark personnel.

Newark's other observation post, located near Glasgow, is operated by the J. Allison O'Daniel American Legion Post No. 10 with F. Allyn Cooch as Chief Observer and Gerald Gilligan as his first assistant.

Both posts are equipped with warmly constructed booths containing stove, lanterns, telephones and comfortable facilities. The outstanding need at both posts is long, heavy coats for warmth on cold nights. Any local person having such coats which they are willing to loan for this purpose are requested to contact the Newark Post office.

Additional volunteers are also needed at the Possum Park Post where the shifts are three-hours weekly, or semi-weekly. Any able-bodied citizen willing to volunteer to serve one or more shifts should contact either Dr. Rees or Mr. Staats.

LIONS HEAR COOCH ON DEFENSE

Chief Observer Outlines Local Defense Program

A complete outline of the Civilian Defense program as it is being applied locally was given members of the Newark Lions Club by F. Allyn Cooch, Chief Observer of a local Airplane Observation post, at their regular weekly dinner meeting in the country club Tuesday evening.

Mr. Cooch's resume of the various units which are being formed here were interspersed with timely and helpful suggestions for a complete program of preparedness both in the home and industry.

Taking up the possibility of the Club purchasing Defense Bonds, this matter was referred to the finance committee, composed of John R. Fader, chairman, Jos. McVey and A. E. Tomhave, for investigation and their recommendations.

Emery Adkins, basketball coach at the U. of D. was introduced as a Lion Club by past president A. E. Tomhave.

Carroll Mumford, chairman of the bowling committee, announced that the club bowling team had finished fourth in the first half of the season's schedule and listed individual averages which will be found under Tuesday Night League, on the sports page of this issue.

Local Milk Prices Increased Again

Following Wilmington distributors of milk in Newark, local milk dealers are advancing their unit prices again this week.

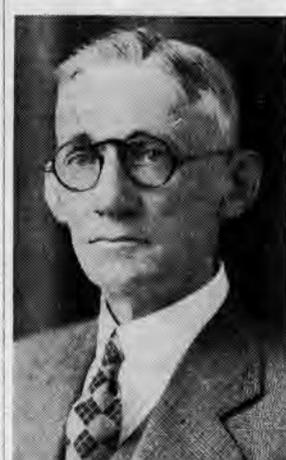

Forced to advance prices one cent on the quart several weeks ago, local dealers are again faced with the necessity of a one cent increase.

Despite the advance, local dealers' prices remain lower than those of Wilmington concerns serving this community. New prices on local milk, effective January 15, will be: Grade A, 16c a quart, 8c per pint; Grade B, 13c a quart and 7c per pint.

PUPILS IN AIR DRILL

Three Plans Are Adopted By School Authorities

Students at the Newark Public Schools staged their first air raid drill on Tuesday following an assembly demonstration on how to behave during a bombing.

Three plans to protect the children have been adopted and in this week's maneuvers, Plan "A" which provides merely for a shifting around of students within the building was followed. Those pupils who had been instructed to leave rooms considered unsafe, moved to assigned shelters in the basement, accompanied by monitors and student aides. Those remaining in the class rooms set up barricades for protection against flying glass and bomb splinters.

William K. Gillespie, principal of the high school, has been appointed air warden for his building, and M. James Parsons has been named for the primary and industrial arts buildings.

Plan "B" provides for partial evacuation of the children and under this setup, those who could reach their homes within a specified time limit would be permitted to leave. The third plan provides for complete evacuation of the school building which would be done under the supervision of the auxiliary police.

Lesson-Sermon

"Life" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon to be delivered Sunday morning at eleven o'clock at the First Church of Christ, Scientist, Park Place and Van Buren Street, Wilmington.

CEILING IS PLACED ON PRICE OF TIRES

Maximum Price On Retreads Went Into Effect Last Monday

Serving notice that the prices of used tires would be fixed in the near future to halt "serious profiteering," the government placed price ceilings this week on charges that may be made for retreading tires. The retread schedule went into effect on Monday and was ordered into effect, Price Administrator Leon Henderson said, "because profiteering in used and retreaded tires had reached a point where it cannot and will not be allowed to continue."

For a 600 x 16 tire, the size used on most lower-priced passenger cars, the maximum permissible charge for retreading or top capping when the best grade of cambelback is used is $7.50. If done with second grade cambelback, the maximum is $6.45.

"Retreading" is the process of removing old rubber down to the fabric and application of new rubber to the tread surface and side walls. "Top capping" means the application of new rubber to the tread surface only. "Cambelback" is the material used.

Each treaded or recapped tire sold must be accompanied by a statement to the purchaser as to whether the tire had been retreaded or top-capped, the market price of the cambelback used, and the depth of the tread in the center of the tire after completion of recapping or retreading.

All dealers in such tires must post in their shops a copy of the government's maximum price list.

TIRE BOARD APPROVES TWO CARS

Police Car And Ambulance First To Be Equipped

Two of Newark's quota of three tires in the passenger car class have been sold, one to the ambulance and another to the police car, it was announced yesterday by Leon H. Ryan, chairman of the local tire rationing board.

It has been estimated that there are 35 eligible vehicles in the passenger and small truck classification, 38 vehicles in the large truck class, and one motorcycle. Newark's quota, which limits the number of passenger tubes to two, also includes three truck tires and two truck tubes.

Rationing quotas for each board in New Castle County for the period starting Monday and ending Jan. 25, inclusive, were announced this week by Levy Court Commissioner J. Francis Blaine, New Castle County coordinator.

The county is allowed 66 passenger car tubes, including 38 for Wilmington and 28 for the rural county, and 54 passenger car tubes, including 32 for Wilmington and 22 for the rural county.

A total of 128 truck and bus tires are allowed New Castle County, including 78 for Wilmington and 50 for the rural county, with 106 tubes, 64 of which are for Wilmington and 42 for the rural county.

Quotas for the rural districts were listed as follows:

There was a record attendance. Mr. Collingswood outlined briefly the work of the council, and presented the Rev. Ralph L. Minker, coordinator of the Mill Creek and Christiana Hundreds. Rev. Minker spoke of the gravity of the situation, and expressed the hope that everyone would work for the purpose of winning the war behind the front lines.

AIR PATROL COMPLETES MISSIONS

Delaware Wing Class 100 Percent Ahead of Any Other State

Delaware Wing of the Civil Air Patrol flew on two official missions during the past week—becoming the first state wing to fly on official patrol business.

In addition, at a recent meeting in Harrisburg, Pa., the Delaware group was classed by National Commander John F. Curry as "100 per cent ahead of any other state by the only measurement we have in Washington—the percentage of pilots sending in applications for patrol membership."

The flights were made Thursday night, when Training and Operations Officer Hugh R. Sharp flew over the duPont Building in Wilmington to check results of a blackout test, and on Sunday, when three of the patrol's planes flew throughout the state for the benefit of air raid spotters.

In Sunday's flight, the three airplanes covered the state at announced altitudes of 1,000, 4,000, and 8,000 feet in order that the spotters, who are required to report the altitude of passing planes, could learn what they look like at the various heights.

It was originally scheduled to have a fourth airplane fly at 15,000 feet, but a high overcast blanketed Wilmington at the time the flight started, and the highest flight was abandoned because of visibility conditions.

It was announced, however, that further such flights are being planned, and that a plane will be flown at the 15,000 foot level as soon as weather permits.

George Ehringer of Dover, head of the state's air raid spotting system, reported the flight was a great success. Spotters throughout the state saw the flight of three airplanes and reported it to the interceptor command, he said.

Meanwhile, Commander Hoiris announced enlistments of licensed pilots are still being sought by the patrol. It is expected that eventually all pilots in the state will sign up for duty with the volunteer defense organization.

During the week, R. M. Carpenter of Wilmington, well-known Delaware sportsman and aviation enthusiast, donated to the patrol use of his Stinson Reliant airplane and a pilot to fly it. The airplane will be available to the patrol at all times, Mr. Carpenter said.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED

While Newarkers have responded to the call for volunteer service in the Civilian Defense program, there is still need for men and women in many local fields.

The local Red Cross workroom can well use a number of women volunteers. Ladies willing to help with this work should contact Mrs. R. W. Heim at once.

One of the nearby Airplane Observation (Spotter) posts is in need of additional personnel for both daytime and night shifts. Any able bodied citizen whose sight and hearing is not impaired is capable of doing this work satisfactorily. Volunteers for this work should contact Dr. Carl J. Rees, at the U. of D., or Louis T. Staats, at the Foxden Farm.

Volunteers for sundry other units are needed in abundance. Every local resident willing to cooperate should immediately register at the office in the Elliott Building, 26 East Main Street.

PROTECT YOUR TIRES

Sound advice is forthcoming from the Newark Tire Rationing Board as it swings into the second week of activity under the ban on new tires and tubes.

The Board offers the suggestion that automobile owners would be wise to list the serial numbers of tires on their cars and record them for future use in case their tires should become lost or stolen.

Such serial numbers are plainly stamped on the outside of each casing and afford splendid means of identification. We strongly urge that each automobile owner take advantage of this suggestion.

DESPICABLE TRICK

There is little doubt that the destruction of 1,200 feet of fire hose belonging to the Singery Fire Company, of Elkton, was the dastardly work of the lowest of human elements—the saboteur.

No more despicable trick could have been perpetrated. The sneaking tactics of those who would stoop to pour sulphuric acid on fire equipment necessary for the protection of civilian population has drawn nation wide condemnation—and justly so.

It is to be hoped that other communities will profit by the Singery Company's sad experience and take every precaution to prevent similar destruction in their respective communities.

Newark's Aetna Hose, Hook & Ladder Company is congratulated upon its manifestation of neighborliness in offering the loan of hose pending replacement of the lost equipment by the Singery Company.

WELCOME NEWS

Welcome indeed is the news that the Stanton Bridge has been opened to public travel.

Under construction for several months, the closing of this bridge has worked an undue hardship on motorists throughout the state to say nothing of the residents of Stanton who were compelled to either wade the creek or travel in a wide detour.

Replacing an old iron structure, termed too narrow for safety, the new bridge is of concrete and steel construction erected at an approximate cost of $45,000.

CHARLES A. McCUE

The community is saddened over the loss of Dean Charles A. McCue. Newark has lost a beloved and prominent citizen. The University of Delaware has lost one of its most loyal, capable and progressive members of the faculty.

Connected with the University here since 1908, Dean McCue was for twenty years Director of the Agricultural Experiment Station, Dean of the School of Agriculture and Director of the University Extension Service.

Dean McCue will be sadly missed by his many former students, co-workers and friends.

AUDIENCE ENJOYED FIGARO

Performers Are Praised For Fine Mozart Comedy

A decidedly new turn to the usual type of music program both surprised and pleased the large audience in Mitchell Hall last Tuesday evening. A group of young American artists presented an English version of the humorous opera classic, "The Marriage of Figaro" by Mozart. The traditional country and costume were eliminated and instead the audience was brought into the imaginative background for its play by the descriptive comments of a narrator.

The production, excellently cast, left the audience with the feeling that the success was not due to the efforts of one individual but by the high standard of performance of the group as a whole. The sparkling libretto abounds in humorous situations and is so constructed that the unfolding plots and counterplots move along in rapid succession. This fast-moving quality of the play demands the type of youthful verve so definitely revealed by the artists of the evening. Their interpretations "sparkled" and the audience was led into the spirit of the opera with apparent enjoyment.

There can be no doubt that a real purpose is achieved in opera presentations such as the English version of the Mozart classic. The Newark Community Concert Association is to be congratulated on the choice for one of its programs. It is hoped that a similar type program can be included in one of its future series.

WE WERE ALL SET TO CROW about Emery Adkins and the zone defense which his Delaware team employed so successfully against Washington College, Saturday night, when along came West Chester to crum our cackles right back in our throat.

Nevertheless, the victory over the Shoremen should not be forgotten in the face of the Rams' decisive conquest, and the feat of holding the Chestertown rivals to three points in the opening quarter, and only two in the third, should be marked up in the annals of Delaware College as some kind of a record.

Fortunately for the invaders Monday night, their long-range guns began to click, especially during the last half, and the Hens' newly-adopted defense was blown the way of all flesh.

DESPITE THE FACT THAT THE Teachers were "on" however, we still think the game could have been pulled out of the fire had not the Blue and Gold representatives gone suddenly haywire and turned what was already a rough contest into a pitched battle.

With five minutes to play, the Hens trailed by only six points, but at this point the local cagers, sensing a possible comeback, increased their pace and were charged with no less than six fouls in the last three minutes. In front, 38-32, the Teachers promptly converted three straight penalty shots to increase their margin to 9 points, waived two more, and to top off the contest, Jay Smith tossed in another charity point as the game ended. In other words, more than half of the Rams' winning margin was scored in the last three minutes and one of the six fouls was committed as Sadowski was dropping in a two-pointer for the Hens.

To top it all off, Thompson, a key man in the offensive, and Runcie, whose three field tosses in the last quarter proved that he was definitely "on" were tossed out on their ear in the late stages as a result of this sudden fouling spurge.

SCORING DURING THE HENS' first four games has been fairly well divided, although Conrad Sadowski, long-range gunner, holds a decided edge with 17 field tosses and eight foul conversions for a grand total of 42 points. He is followed by Capt. Freddie Mitchell, who has tabbed 16 action shots and three fouls for 35 points.

Three cagers, Runcie, Thompson, and Barlow, are deadlocked for third honors with 22 points each. Runcie has swished 10 field shots, 2 fouls; Thompson has six double deekers, 10 penalty conversions, and Barlow has dropped in 8 two-pointers and marked up eight from the charity stripe.

Although the team's foul-shooting mark is at a disgustingly low point, Sadowski is also leading in all-important penalty conversions. He has missed only two in 10 attempts for a percentage of .800. The squad's mark is 31 conversions in 63 attempts for a percentage of—hold your breath—492. As far as the number of fouls is concerned, Thompson tops the list with 10. He has had 21 attempts, however.

ZONE DEFENSE NETS HENS 37-30 WIN OVER SHO'MEN BUT RAMS TRIUMPH, 42-35

Washington College Invaders Baffled by Barricade As Blue And Gold Turns Tables; Conrad Sadowski Paces Team's Scoring

Employing an air-tight zone defense, Coach Emery Adkins' University of Delaware courtmen racked up a surprise 37-30 conquest over Washington College, Saturday night, but suffered their second defeat of the season at the hands of West Chester State Teachers' College on Monday when the invading Rams, who dropped shots in from all angles, ran up a 42-35 triumph.

The Hens ran up an early lead on the Shoremen and had little trouble staying in front, but after piling up a seven-point edge in the opening stanza against the Teachers, faltered and never got back into the ball game except for a brief moment in the third period when the count was knotted at 19-19.

The Hens threw up a zone defense Saturday night to send Washington College back to Chestertown, Md., on the short end of a 37-30 count. The barricade thrown up by the Blue and Gold contingent is especially adaptable to Taylor Gym's small floor and proved particularly effective in the opening frame when the invaders collected only two points, and again in the third, when they were forced to be satisfied with a lone action shot.

George Barlow took the opening tap-off and put the Hens up front with a layup shot and after Lou Yerkes had knotted the score for Washington, Barlow again dropped a double decker to give Delaware a lead which it never relinquished.

At the end of the first quarter, the Blue and Gold enjoyed a four-point margin which was increased to eight during the second period, but the Shoremen succeeded in cutting down the lead to trail 17-21 at intermission.

The Blue and Gold, its defense functioning perfectly, really went to town in the third canto, and with "Buck" Thompson pacing the attack, rolled up a 28-17 margin before Frank McNiff finally dented the cords for Washington's first field loss after eight minutes of play. Barlow tallied again before the quarter ended and the Hens sported an 11-point edge at the close of the third quarter.

Washington, with McNiff pacing the offensive, staged a mild rally in the finale, but was unable to catch the Hens who were safely entrenched with a seven-point margin at the final gun.

Conrad Sadowski tossed in five shots from the field and three penalty conversions for 13 points to pace the Hens, while McNiff was big gun for the invaders with six field tosses.

Their zone defense shattered by long-range artillery, Coach Adkins' Blue Hens were handed a decisive 42-35 defeat by West Chester, in Taylor Gymnasium, Monday night. It was the Rams'

JACKET CAGERS NOT IN GROOVE

Slated To Meet A. I. duPont On Local Boards Friday Night

By Olly Williams

The Newark High School cagers are certainly not in the well-worn groove when it comes to producing successful conquests. This fact was emphasized Friday night when they collected only five field goals in dropping a 36-17 decision to P. S. duPont.

However, the squad has its virtues. If you want to behold the best impromptu comedy that you ever saw, visit the gymnasium any day of the week about 3:30 except week-ends. There you'll find good stiff competition for the Marx Brothers (there are only three of them) or the Four Stooges, but not for any capable basketball combine.

Most of those kids can shoot rabbits better than they can shoot baskets. I'll grant you this, though, most of them hit within six feet of their goal. Yes, and with some hard drilling, they'll begin to blacken the area next to the basket. Of course, to touch the hoop they'll have to drill incessantly; but then, maybe they'll get a few new centers, guards, and oh, yes—guards.

As a matter of fact, they could do with a new team.

The tossers of old Newark High look pretty sad indeed. Maybe a shot of adrenalin would help matters some.

The actual practice seems to be a drudgery, judging from the players' reactions. Each man stands in place and laboriously makes an attempt at shooting for the basket. From the looks of things at the gymnasium, high-gear basketball doesn't begin until the young man has reached college.

When they do move, it's all wasted motion and hardly any effort is made to follow the system of play drilled into them by their mentor, Bill Gillespie.

During the game, the painstaking work of their mentor goes for naught, for the boys revert back to the system employed during their younger barn-playing days.

Disappointed by the showing made by the veterans against the Dynamiters, the starting lineup for Friday evening's A. I. duPont-Newark game was selected by Coach Gillespie through a set-shooting contest, with George Schaefer, Herb Slack, Harry (Boudreau) Morrow, Bob Tate, Andy Walp, Jim Davis, and Octavio (Stump) Cataldi emerging victorious.

The Jackets' mentor believes that although the Pickers are in the same class with P. S., the local court will give the home team an advantage. The P. S. duPont machine, according to Coach Gillespie, triumphed over the Newarkers because of their successful overloading of our zone defense and a highly-potent offensive quintet. The Jackets also failed to solve the Dynas' sliding zone barricade.

NEWARK PASSERS ABSORB DEFEAT

Handed Decisive 36-17 Setback In Opener By P. S. duPont

Unable to find the scoring range in their 1942 debut, Coach Bill Gillespie's Newark High School cagers were handed a 36-17 setback at the hands of P. S. duPont, Friday night.

The Dynamiters, led by Bill Cole and Eddie Comegys, with eight and seven points, respectively, moved off to a 10-3 lead during the first period, boosted their margin to 20-8 at the halfway mark, and waltzed home with the verdict.

Held to 10 points through the first three quarters, the Yellowjackets displayed their best ball of the game in the final period when they scored seven points to nine for P. S. duPont.

The Dynahs had a 13-5 advantage from scrimmage and made good 10 of 15 fouls, while Newark collected on seven of nine tries from the penalty stripe. Joe Moore and Don Huston, each with four points, led the scoring for the Jackets.

How to Distinguish Nationality of Aircraft

Civilian air raid spotters will have no difficulty distinguishing Axis planes from those of the United Nations if they memorize the markings illustrated above. American and British planes have designs of red, white and blue, and Russia has a red star. Watchers on the southern border occasionally may see the red triangle of Mexico. Axis raiders are easily spotted through the familiar black cross and swastika of Germany, the round red raising sun emblem of Japan and the Roman fasces insignia borne by Italian planes.

Read This Challenge - -

YOU can buy Asco Coffee with confidence. If it does not please you as well as (or better than) any other brand of coffee, return the unused portion in the bag and we will replace it without charge with a pound of any coffee we sell regardless of price.

Our coffee is slowly roasted by an exclusive method of scientifically controlled heat... no more burnt or half-done beans... every bean is evenly toasted a golden brown through and through. That's the way to give you every bit of the delicious coffee flavor and delightful aroma you enjoy in a satisfying cup.

Buy a pound of Asco Coffee on the guarantee above... you'll get quality with economy... it's your guarantee of more cups of good coffee for less money.
