NOW WE'LL RAISE THE BRIMMING GLASS ON HIGH,
AND, AS THE CHIMES ARE RINGING,
TOAST OUR FRIENDS, THO FAR OR NIGH,
WHILE WINTRY WINDS ARE SINGING

CHRISTMAS FOR EVERYONE

HAPPY SURPRISES FOR THE LITTLE ONES

Joy and Gladness, in all the fullness of the Christmas season, were abroad this afternoon, when the plans of the Children's Committee of the New Century Club, came to a successful conclusion. "The grandest, loveliest time" the little ones pronounced it, for they were there with all their friends. About three hundred and seventy-five children—all who could be found in the community under the sixth grade in the public schools—were the guests of honor, on the occasion.

The children were in a singing mood and made the building ring with "America" as a starter for the afternoon. The song had hardly passed away when a gay jingle of a tune that Santa was announced that Santa was a spot light on the stage displayed the kind old fellow in his most jovial mood. Santa declared he had come to spend the entire afternoon. In the midst of the murmur of pleasure over the arrival of this good old friend the lights were switched off and the favorite story of Golden Locks was told, in fascinating fashion, by pictures thrown upon the screen. After a Christmas song a second picture, "Wild Animals at Large," provided thrills of a different nature, as the animals moved about in lifelike fashion. A two-part song, "Christmas Bells," followed. But every surprise seemed to be better than the last. After an expectant hush, a curtain at the rear of the stage began slowly to rise, at length revealing a great fragrant pine, resplendent in Christmas tree glory. The tree was ablaze with many colored electric lights which shone from the dark green boughs with the brilliance of great jewels. From this time on Santa Claus and his assistants took charge of the afternoon. Big rosy apples, tasty home-made cookies, and cunning candy canes were distributed to every child. Santa Claus had stored his greatest generosity, however, in a tarlatan stocking, packed with over a dozen interesting toys for every child. The packages for the boys contained such treasures as games, a whistle, a top, several balls, etc., while the girls' stockings were bulging with cunning jointed celluloid dolls, a watch and chain, and favors which delight the little ones.

The afternoon was made possible by the hard work of the Children's Committee and the generosity of the townspeople, many of whom have contributed liberally. A generous reserve of the funds has been held for the purchase of gifts for needy families in the community.

CHILDREN ENTERTAIN MOTHERS AT SCHOOL

Parent Teachers' Association Formed

The fifth grade, Newark Grammar School, presented an interesting Christmas program last Friday afternoon, having as their guests about thirty-five parents of the children. The room was attractively decorated with Christmas greens. Neat and attractive programs prepared by the children were the subject of favorable comment on the part of the visitors. A copy follows:

"Dear Mother Goose," the school "I Wish You a Merry Christmas," Mary Keeley; "The Golden Age," Mildred Major, Clyde Robinson, Jesse Conner, and Wesley Wollaston; "Santa Would Like a Kiss," Emma Lovett; "Long Nights," Robert Major, George Green, and Robert O. Hayes; "The Night Before Christmas," Robert Cook; sleighing song, Leah Poole; "What Would Santa Do?" Isabel Dobson; "Christmas Wishes," Bayard Lindell, Gerald Dixon, Herbert Henning, and George Jackson; "Harry's Letter," Leonard Fossett; song, "Holy Night," girls and boys; "World of Trouble," Violet Rowan Olive Porter, Sarah Steel and Isabel Dobson; "Who Made the Speech?" Ethel Lovett; "Jolly St. Nick," Frank Dunlevy; "Something to Remember," Ruth Richards, Rose Pilnick, Marjorie Rose and Gertrude Graham; "Seems to Me," Sarah Steel; "Those I Love," Leah Poole; Christmas song, Dorothy Hoffecker; "Christmas Bells," Delena Leak, Mary Dempsey and Naomi Riley; "Oh, That Wonderful Stocking," Olive Porter; "Wise Men," Gertrude Brown; "The Doctor and the Sick Baby," Emma Lovett and Robert Major; "Mother Hubbard's Christmas Cupboard," Theresa Cagle; "How Did Santa Do?" Mildred Major; "The Tea Party," Kathryn Johnson; "Just for Christmas," George Green; "Hark, the Herald Angels Sing," school.

Following the entertainment, the committee appointed at the last school entertainment to prepare by-laws for the proposed Parent Teachers' Association reported. The Constitution and By-laws as submitted were adopted and officers elected as follows: President, Mrs. Clinton O. Houghton; vice-president, Mrs. Edward L. Richards; secretary, Mrs. Howard Williams; treasurer, Mrs. William H. Cook. The By-Laws pronounce eligible to membership "anyone interested in the schools." Meetings are to be held the last Thursday afternoon of every month at the public school building. No dues are asked of the members.

Professor Rich explained the purpose of the organization: to study the welfare of the child, and to create a better feeling between the teacher, the parent, and the child. The president named a program committee, Mrs. Miss Manns, chairman; appointed chairmen, Hayes, and Mrs. Social Committee with Agnes Mac. The Association was decided that the Association should be an organization that in Community Meeting to be Tuesday evening, January 13, work of a program relating will be given. Similar organizations number thirty.

QUICK WORK BY AETNA BOYS

Fire At Christiana Pumping Station

"Emergency call—7 miles to fire. Arrived, 3 section hose attached, fire out in less than an hour," is the latest Aetna record, made today.

A few minutes to twelve the Aetna boys received call from the Pennsylvania R. R. Pumping station at Batten's Dam. The house occupied by the formen caught fire from some burlap lying close to a defective flue. A call was rung in at the same time to the Reliance and Liberty of Wilmington. The Newark boys beat their record. They made a roundabout trip of 7 miles, connected up and had the fire extinguished when the Wilmington companies arrived. One room of the upper floor was gutted and most of the roof was destroyed.

The railroad buildings and equipment there gave, for a time, a serious aspect to the fire. Railroad officials from Wilmington arrived on the scene in time to see the result of the effective work done by the local company.

Nearly every week recently, the wisdom of Newark's investment in this up-to-date fire fighting equipment is demonstrated.

Christmas Greeting From Grand Master

The following Christmas greeting from John T. Magee, Grand Master of the I. O. O. F. of Delaware, was read at the meeting of Oriental Lodge, No. 12, Newark, last Thursday evening.

To the Members of the I. O. O. F. of Delaware:

Dear Fraters: With the anniversary of the birth of Christ the Prince of Peace at hand, we His followers, view with distress and aching hearts, the hands of war that is engaging our brethren of foreign lands, and turn with loyal hearts to our Redeemer, praying that His Spirit may continue to lead us in the paths of righteousness and peace. And that we of this Brotherhood, while we are so peaceably situated should offer, with overflowing hearts, in this season of Christmas, rejoicing and thanks to Almighty God; ever remembering those who are less fortunate. And added to that prayer should be the spirit of the Christmas Season, the glory of doing unto others as we would have them do unto us.

The unfortunate we have with us at home, and at our very doors. The widow, the orphan, the friendless, the unloved, the path of comfort, this happy season.

The devastation of war has laid its hand on many of our Brethren in foreign lands, and to the wives and little ones of such, our prayers and above all our charity, would be a welcome visitation.

Let us proclaim that true Christian Brotherhood, and may Friendship, Love and Truth prevail, and may the dove of peace hover over our land and may the Prince of Peace ever be your guide.

Fraternally,
John T. Magee,
Grand Master.

EDUCATION IN RURAL DELAWARE

PROFESSOR RICH ASKS INTEREST OF STUDENTS

Professor Mary E. Rich in a talk to the Delaware College students in chapel last Saturday morning, discussed the extension work of the department of education connected with the new Women's College. The first aim of the department, Professor Rich declared, is to help the teachers of the State. Since taking up the work in Delaware Professor Rich has visited seventy-five schools. She reports the teachers eager for help, eager for ideas that they may use in the schools, and in the majority of cases doing better work than their equipment warrants. In one instance the visitor's question "How many dictionaries do you have?" called forth from a child the reply "Half a dictionary." Again a teacher was found puzzling over how to fit sixty-two children into forty-two desks. Many of the children sit all day facing the light and the desks in many schools are fixed, close to the stoves.

The second object of the department, the speaker stated, is to get everyone interested in the schools. In accomplishing this, use is made of various outside agencies: the Carnegie Foundation, the department of education, at Washington, reports from the Universities of Wisconsin and Texas, etc. The department also keeps in touch with the work of the leading educators of the country. It is working in co-operation with parent-teacher associations, the W. C. T. U., the local chapters D. A. R., the New Century Clubs of the State, It needs the interest of everyone.

Professor Rich came, she said, to ask the interest and help of the students of Delaware College. She suggested three ways in which the individual student might promote the aims of the department—ways apparently simple, yet measured by effect, great and worth while. "Will not every one of you," the speaker asked, "when home on your Christmas vacation make it your business to find out three things: (1) Is the shutters and seats properly adjusted in the school in your home community? (2) What does the thermometer register in the schoolroom on the average school day? (3) Is it the habit of the teacher to keep the windows open from the top (all the windows about an inch, is the better way)?" Professor Rich closed with an earnest endorsement of the plan for consolidation which she declared must be the final goal for the rural schools of Delaware.

Automobile Accident Near Glasgow

One man was seriously injured and two others received minor cuts and bruises when an automobile turned turtle in the road near Glasgow early Sunday night and they were caught beneath the overturned machine. The men refused to give their names.

The accident happened opposite the Presbyterian manse in Glasgow. As the men, in a light runabout were attempting to pass a large touring car their machine suddenly swerved and running up an embankment, turned turtle, pinning the men beneath.

Persons nearby rescued them from beneath the car, and a physician, after examining one of the trio, ordered him to the Union Hospital at Elkton. The car bore a Maryland license tag.

Ordination at St. Thomas

The first ordination service in St. Thomas' Episcopal Church since the Rev. Rollin A. Sawyer was elected to the priesthood in 1895 was held on Sunday when the Rev. Wm. L. Haupt, son of the rector, the Rev. Walter G. Haupt, was duly ordered priest by the Bishop of Delaware. Mr. Haupt accompanied by father, and pastoral staff received and examined the candidate. Following the singing of the ancient hymn, Veni, Creator Spiritus, came the laying on of hands and the delivery of the Bible into the hands of the new priest. After this came the celebration of the Holy Eucharist at which many communiated. Mr. Haupt is a graduate of the University of Pennsylvania and the General Theological Seminary, New York, and has for some weeks been in charge of St. Anne's Church, North East, Md.

When it comes to real service, apply to the Aetna Fire Company. They are certainly making good out in rural districts.

Republican Legislators Meet Governor

Republican members-elect of the Legislature were to meet with Governor Miller, Congressman-elect Miller and the Republican State Central Committee, at the latter's headquarters in Wilmington on Monday, to arrange for the organization of the General Assembly at the coming session. Charles H. Grantland, of Wilmington was said to be the likely choice for Speaker of the House and Senators Harry J. Anderson and Oliver A. Newton of Sussex, were suggested for President pro tem of the Senate.

School Teaching In Delaware

We are safe in saying that at least fifty per cent of the teachers now holding certificates are not competent to teach school, and the serious part of it is, that they are the product of our public school system. After ten or twelve years of public school training they are not competent to teach the rudiments of an education. The teachers are demanding higher salary and no doubt their demands are just, but they are getting more than they are worth as teachers. —Sussex Republicans.

Pastor Remembered

The Bible Class of the M. E. Sunday School gave their pastor a surprise last evening, following the Christmas entertainment held in the church. A fine big turkey and other substantial gifts, reminders of their visit were left at the parsonage.

Fire On Chillas Property

One of the most serious fires in this section for years was that of last Friday, when the residence of D. W. Chillas, near Newark, was burned. Fire had been discovered early in the evening, from a defective flue, but the trouble was believed to be entirely over. About nine o'clock were discovered on the roof of the big stone dwelling, and the alarm sent to Newark. Aetna Fire Company responded promptly and spent the remainder of the night fighting the flames. Owing to their efforts about half of the building was saved, and practically all of the valuable antique furniture, heirlooms of the family. The new automobile engine was put to splendid use, by means of a 1000 feet of hose, connecting with White Clay Creek. The property, owned by the heirs of Arthur Chillas, was insured in the Franklin and Chester County Fire Insurance companies for $2650, which will practically cover the loss.

Up-to-Date Service In Newark

The word "Hustle" is only another name for Al Stiltz. Or, if not one and the same man, they are at least closely related. He is right on the job. His latest stunt appeared Monday afternoon—an Auto bus for depot service. Fourteen passengers is the capacity in a perfect beauty car—a regular limousine, heated and ventilated—it is a compliment to Newark. Meets all trains from early morning to 9.28 at night at popular price. Other service by appointment. It's hat's off to Stiltz and why not a New Year Greeting of prosperity for this addition to Newark's Transfer service! He deserves it.

Christmas At Presbyterian Church

Children of the Presbyterian Sunday School are preparing a pleasing program to be given in the church on Christmas night. The exercises of the evening will be in charge of the men of the Sunday School.

FRESHMEN WIN INDOOR MEET

SOPHS LOSE IN LAST EVENT

Before several hundred spectators the Delaware College freshmen defeated the Sophomores last Friday in the annual indoor meet by the score of 24 to 20. The meet was very close. It was only by winning the final event, the tug-of-war, that the freshmen finished with the larger score. Previous to the last event the score was 18 to 14 in favor of the Sophs. The tug-of-war counted ten points and gave the Freshies the honors of the evening.

The freshmen won one of the wrestling bouts; won one first and a draw in the boxing bouts and the tug-of-war. The sophomores won the high jump, two of the wrestling bouts, one boxing bout and got a draw in one boxing bout.

One of the features of the meet was the running high jump, the first event contested for. The sophomores were represented in this event by Marshall and Smith, while Bratton and Crockett jumped for the freshmen. Marshall won the event and established a new indoor record for the local as he cleared the bar at 5 feet 3 inches. The previous indoor running high jump record was 5 feet 1 1/2 inches. Bratton proved a close contestant for the honors but missed 5 feet 3 inches after making 5 feet 2 1/2 inches.

The second event was the middleweight wrestling in which Tom Wilson, a sophomore, weighing 162 pounds, met Bratton, a freshman, whose weight was 165. For some unknown reason this bout was put on immediately after Bratton got through the running high jump event and he was no doubt well fagged out from his exertion in that event before starting to wrestle. Wilson got two easy falls in 20 and 40 seconds.

D. Horsey, a freshman, won the light-weight wrestling bout, throwing Brower, a sophomore, in 55 seconds and the second fall in slightly less than three minutes.

Horsey weighed 125 and Brower 126.

Tom Wilson added five more points to the saphs' score when he threw Ernest Wilson, in the heavy-weight wrestling bout. He got the first two falls but had more trouble in getting his namesake's shoulders on the mat than he did with Bratton. E. Wilson weighed 164 and T. Wilson 162.

Much interest centered in the boxing bouts and two of them were exciting. In the lightweight bout "Mike" Fidance, the crack quarterback of the football team, bested Miller, a freshman, although the latter had the advantage of 12 pounds in weight. Except for the first round, Fidance forced the fighting and kept Miller covering up and running away most of the time. Dr. Charles H. Blake, who refereed the boxing bouts gave the decision to Fidance.

The middleweight boxing bout was stopped in the second round when W. O'Daniel, the sophomore, dislocated his thumb. Davis, the freshman was given the decision. O'Daniel weighed 129 and Davis 137.

The heavyweight boxing bout between Smart, a sophomore, and Lauritsen, freshman, furnished some excitement and both boys were well tired when the four rounds were up. The referee gave it a draw. Smart weighed 167 and Lauritsen 161. Both were bleeding at the end of the fourth round. Lauritsen from the nose and Smart from a wound that Lauritsen opened over his left eye.

In the tug-of-war the seven freshmen pulled the sophs nearly out of the building and thereby captured the meet. The contestants in this final event were Creadick, Lauritsen, Grey, E. Wilson, Bratton, M. Mitchell, and H. Alexander for the freshmen, and Marshall, T. Wilson, Smart, Loomis, Beauchamp, Fidance, Hopkins and Ruth, for the sophomore class.

Stone Undergoes Inspection

The stone being used in the new City-County Building being erected in Wilmington, is permitted to enter the city only after a thorough inspection by experts; in order to make sure that it is free from the eggs of the gypsy moth, a pest prevalent in some parts of New England. The Department of Agriculture has concluded that eggs of the gypsy moth are frequently carried on stone and has consequently placed a quarantine on quarry products in the infested districts. This means that stone quarried in these districts cannot be moved interstate to outside points until it has been inspected and passed by the department. Notice to this effect has been sent to the New Haven railroad, which is preparing a circular for shippers on the subject.

Quarantine Includes Christmas Trees

The restriction on shipping due to the prevailing hoof and mouth disease, has affected Santa himself, for the Christmas tree is under the ban in many districts. Dealers in the city report the arrival of only about one-half as many as last year.

The majority, as well as the best, of the trees come from New England States, particularly Maine. A small quantity come from Pennsylvania and some from Maryland and Virginia. The spruce pine, with fine needles and the balsam firs with coarse needles are to be seen in the local market. The prices range from 25 cents for a tree four or five feet high, for table decoration, to $2.50 for monster trees 16 feet high. A tree about 11 or 12 feet high would ordinarily cost about $1.25.

Christmas Greeting For The Schools

A pleasing and neatly-arranged Christmas greeting has been issued by Dr. E. L. Cross, the superintendent of the free schools of New Castle county. It is printed on heavy paper, with the holly leaves and berries, in one corner and close to this in red letters "Merry Christmas." The letter is dated New Castle, Dr. Cross' home, December, 1914, and is as follows:

A TEACHER'S CREED

"I believe in boys and girls, the men and women of a great tomorrow; that whatsoever the boy soweth the man shall reap. I believe in the curse of ignorance, in the efficacy of schools, in the dignity of teaching, and in the joy of serving another. I believe in wisdom as revealed in human lives, as well as in the pages of a printed book; in lessons taught not so much by precept as by example; in ability to work with the hands as well as to think with the head; in everything that makes life large and lovely. I believe in beauty in the school room, in the home, in daily life, and out of doors. I believe in laughter in love, in all ideals and distant hopes that lure us on. I believe that every hour of every day we receive a just reward for all we are and all we do. I believe in the present and its opportunities, in the future and its promises, and in the divine joy of living. Amen.

MY RESOLUTIONS.

"I am resolved to make the above my creed; to study it carefully and frequently until its beauty and its power grip my life; to dedicate anew my strength and mind and heart to the important and beautiful, though difficult, work of my profession; to make myself more and more worthy of my vocation, and efficient in it, by introspection, regular study, and constant effort; to be cheerful and hopeful; an example and an inspiration to the boys and girls in my school; to do all I can to help the community in which I live and work; to make the coming year larger and better than the past one; to get such a vision of life and duty and opportunity as will make me a blessing to some one every day. "For I shall pass this way but once," and every day counts.

"A merry Christmas and a happy New Year to you, and through you, to every boy and girl in your school.

Sincerely yours,

E. L. Cross

Christmas Mail Moving

Postmaster General Burleson, in a statement issued last week, promised the public "successful dispatch and delivery" of Christmas parcels and letters. The vast bulk of mails, he said, already had begun to move and was being handled promptly and well.

The "mail-your-parcels-early" suggestion recently made by the department had good effect. Traffic began in large volume earlier than last year and, officials believe it will greatly reduce the usual rush of the few days immediately preceding Christmas Day.

Have You Red Cross Seals

The other day a little boy went into a store, where the Red Cross Christmas Seals ornament the window and asked for some stamps to sell.

"I haven't got a cent," he admitted, "but I can sell a lot of the stamps and I want to do it."

"All right, here are twenty-five," said the woman in charge. "I'll trust you. Go ahead."

It was not long before he was back with the money and anxious to sell more. He was accommodated, and is still working for the cause when he can get time to do so.

Perhaps it was curiosity that prompted the question, but anyway he was asked why he was so anxious to help sell the seals.

"Well, my father and two sisters died with tuberculosis," said the boy, "and I know that this money will go to help other sick people, and so I am going to do all I can for them."

Have you bought your share of Red Cross Seals.

Agricultural Notes

A conference of the three County Agents—Messrs. Levi Cooch, M. O. Pence, and W. C. Pelton—will be held at the College early in January for the purpose of considering plans for the extension work of the coming year. Mr. H. H. Morgan, assistant chemist in the experiment station is making an official test of some of the Holstein cattle owned by Mr. H. F. duPont of Winterthur. Miss Marion C. Butterworth of Massachusetts, has been appointed secretary of the Experiment Station to succeed Miss Baker, who will return to Washington on March 1. Miss Butterworth who is a graduate of Boston University and holds the degree of B. S. in Secretarial work from Simmons College of Boston, has for the last five years been secretary to the principal of Bradford Academy, Bradford, Mass., and will therefore come to Delaware with considerable practical experience.

Professor Hayward, dean of the agricultural department, attended the conference of state leaders in agricultural work recently held at Chicago. This conference brought together most of the state leaders in the northern and western states. After it was over, Professor Hayward visited the University of Wisconsin, at Madison, Wisconsin, and the University of Kansas, at Lawrence, Kansas, for the purpose of interviewing possible candidates for the work of extension in home economics in Delaware.

The Agricultural Extension Department of the College has purchased a Percheron filly from Mr. E. B. White of Leesburg, Va., for Mr. H. F. duPont of Winterthur. Mr. White is President of the Percheron Society of America, and has one of the best Percheron studs in this country. The College farm has also sold Mr. duPont an imported mare weighing 1790 lbs., and a high class Percheron stallion which weighed 1815 lbs. when he left the farm. With these animals Mr. duPont is planning to found a Percheron stud on his farm at Winterthur. The College Farm has sold a Guernsey calf to Mr. McCutcheon of New Jersey, and another one to a breeder in Illinois, as well as a pair of yearling Jersey heifers to Mr. White of Harbeson, Delaware. Berkshire pigs have also been sold to Mr. George Green of Newark and Mr. Wm. McCabe of Selbyville. All of these animals will be shipped as soon as the quarantine in New Castle county is lifted.

Women's College Notes

Among the gifts recently received by the Women's College of Delaware were the following: $10 from the Zwannandael Club of Lewes, $50 for trees from the Wilmington New Century Club, a complete set of Scott's Waverly Novels from the Waverly Club of Landenburg, Pa.

Miss Robinson entertained the women of the faculty at dinner at the Deer Park hotel last Wednesday evening. The Women's College as well as Delaware College, will be closed for the Christmas holidays from December 23 to January 4.

Speaking of special editions, we stand uncovered before Publisher Wickes of the Delaware State News at Dover. The Christmas number appearing last week was a little masterpiece in the weekly newspaper world. News, special articles by Delaware's Great, advertising—and the printing, too, makes it the best publication we have seen from Delaware this year.

We wish to express appreciation to our friends, the Bowen Brothers of the Delaware Ledger, for their gift of the First Volume of the Newark Post. The beginnings of the Newark Post make interesting reading—at least to us. The full year's publication is given us complete in a good state of preservation.

School Entertainment

Christmas bells rang merrily last evening in the Newark M. E. church, when the children of the Sunday school gave their annual Christmas entertainment. After musical selections by the orchestra, the following program was ably rendered:

Singing by the school, led by orchestra.
Prayer.

A LETTER FROM HOME FOLKS

Is the best Xmas present of all

A subscription to THE POST for some old Newarker is just that—a weekly letter from Home Folks. Their social doings, who won the prize at the Bridge Party, how much the Church made at the supper, the latest rummage sale—all read with greatest interest by those away. Then, too, the latest improvements, news of Council, New Century Club doings, Fire Department and Lodge events—even the advertisements are eagerly read.

"THE POST gives us more news than all our correspondents" says one of our foreign subscribers who was reared in Newark.

So as a tip suggestion, send THE POST as your Christmas Greeting to some old Newark friend. We have cards to send them which will announce the fact.

New Post Office Site

The deal for the purchase of a site for a new postoffice building to be erected in Newark was closed last Friday, when money was paid and the papers of sale signed for the lot on the northeast corner of Delaware and South College avenues. The new Federal property is made up of parts belonging to G. W. Chambers, R. T. Jones, Dr. W. H. Steel and Richard Boulden. The lot is 119 feet front on South College running 147 1-2 feet deep on Delaware avenue.

This completes the first step toward a Federal building for Newark.

SQUIBS

Our style and purity of diction is often the subject of sarcastic smiles among present day students. Crude in expression, blunt in punctuation as our writing is, our readers will appreciate the niceties of our mother tongue as given by one of the coming literary lights. The conversation was something like this:

"Yes, this is my last year at old High. I try out Delaware next year—that is if I slide through. Have worked off all my Math except Trig and that's a cinch. 'Merican Lit is simply a trot, believe me! They say Sy's English Lit is fierce and that he is long on themeing. Sorry to leave old High, but it's so long to Tipperary—and it's shy on pep. So long, old pal, got to bone on my Lit. She's a bird for tomorrow. How about Latin? Remember the song, 'My pony boy.' Good night shirt!"

Another Carload of Food This Week For Stricken Belgium

Last Thursday, through the noble response of Delawareans, we were able to ship our first carload of food to the starving Belgians.

Now let us make this our slogan: A carload a week. Let us all work and give and ask friends to give in humanity's name for the relief of this starving people.

More Food a Necessity

"We need," said a Belgian Committeeman, "200 tons of wheat daily." "We are able to distribute less than a quart of soup, and about a pound of potatoes daily, with a tiny quantity of meat occasionally." "In offering our heartfelt thanks to the American people we pray them to allow their generosity to continue for without them we should have starved, and without them we must starve."

Belgians Uncover to Our Flag

"The Americans have saved us from starvation," was the cry on every lip, the committeeman goes on. "Every American seen in Liege was hailed as a benefactor. Whenever an automobile carrying an American flag passes in the streets the people take off their hats."

Tell Belgium Delaware Gives

Let us tell Belgium that food is coming for her hungry millions, her starving women and babies. Let us tell her "Delaware gives." A small donation from each of us will make that carload this week a certainty.

NOTE---The following letters addressed "Santa Claus, North Pole," have been left at this office to be forwarded through the columns of THE POST. Believing the occasional slips of the pen, which have caused the letters, in so many instances, to fall in the wrong places, will make the notes only more appealing to Santa, we are reproducing them, unedited---Ed.
