TRANSCRIPT
TESTIMONY OF RICHARD T. DILLARD, ESQ.

SENATE CHAMBER - JUNE 16, 1988

SENATOR SHARP: I would like to request the privilege of the floor for a very brief period of time for an explanation from Rich Dillard, the Minority Party attorney.

SENATOR CORDREY (presiding): No objections. Mr. Dillard, will you please state your name and who you represent.

MR. DILLARD: Rich Dillard, Senate attorney.

SENATOR BAIR: Mr. Dillard, let's try to make some sense out of this. The opinion that you brought us from the Supreme Court, which was some twenty years ago that said if a bill is a super majority bill, it must have in its enactment clause whatever that super majority is. That's correct?

MR. DILLARD: That's correct.

SENATOR BAIR: And you found on subsequent...you found this like about twenty minutes before we came to the floor, and in your subsequent research after you made the statement, you discovered that what? It had been...

MR. DILLARD: It had been modified to the extent that it is no longer a conclusive presumption that the enrolled bill doctrine so presumes that it only got a simple majority, but its no longer conclusive and the court will look to the legislative journals to determine whether in fact it was an ultra majority vote or not.

SENATOR BAIR: Quite frankly, that doesn't make any sense to me. But let me see if I can put it in layman's terms. That if a bill indeed requires a two-thirds majority, lets say, we have in the past just, if it passed with two-thirds, no problem.

MR. DILLARD: That is correct.

SENATOR BAIR: And what you found in that twenty one, whatever it is, year reading from the Supreme Court is that you had to change the enactment clause or the fact that it got two-thirds didn't matter. Is that correct?

MR. DILLARD: That's also correct.

SENATOR BAIR: And that was....that has serious consequences in terms of a lot of legislation that has come through here because we have not on many of these bills that were recognized as being two-thirds bills, Town Charters, all this kind of thing, we have not bothered if it was discovered that that enactment clause was left out, we have not bothered to amend it and to waste another pile of paper. But simply if it passed with two-thirds, that was fine.

MR. DILLARD: Unless you wanted to send it back to the other house.

SENATOR BAIR: Well, for games perhaps. But in terms of the thing actually passing. O.K.?

MR. DILLARD: Correct.

SENATOR BAIR: And so what we've been doing over the last...I've been here for eight years, is if the bill indeed is a two-thirds bill, and if it got two-thirds vote, whether it said so in the enactment clause, that's fine and that's where we are right now.

MR. DILLARD: That's correct.

SENATOR BAIR: O.K. Now the bill that was before us, Mr. Murphy was on the floor, you were on the floor. In your opinion, for that bill to pass with all the provisions and all the inclusions in it, did that bill have to be a two-thirds bill?

MR. DILLARD: If the bill was to be applied to everyone that was listed in the bill, yes, it would need to be two-thirds to cover everyone.

SENATOR BAIR: O.K. And now the interpretation that you, the more recent interpretation that you have from the Supreme Court is that it didn't matter whether it said "be it enacted by two-thirds of the members of the House and the Senate", whatever, as long as it passed with the two-thirds then we were fine.

MR. DILLARD: That's correct.

SENATOR BAIR: Thank you.

SENATOR CORDREY: Senator Sharp.

SENATOR SHARP: I ask that Mr. Dillard be excused.

SENATOR CORDREY: Thank you. Oh, Senator McDowell, do you have a question?

SENATOR MCDOWELL: Mr. President, I just want to point out I'm glad that Mr. Dillard has given us this explanation. I would point out thought that it is a little late. We took a vote based on the earlier explanation. Of course, Mr. Dillard had said that he had not had much time and I certainly think he was frank in saying that. And I'm glad that he has had the chance to come forward.

SENATOR CORDREY: Senator McBride.

SENATOR MCBRIDE: Mr. President, I have a comment to make to Mr. Dillard, if I may. Mr. Dillard, I would just say that it takes a real man to admit mistakes, and I congratulate you for it.

SENATOR CORDREY: You're excused, sir. Senator Sharp.

SENATOR SHARP: I would like to ask the Secretary of the Senate to make a transcript of the last few minutes of comment on what transpired as far as the bill so we can keep it on file for future reference when it comes to these enacting clauses, if you would.

SENATOR CORDREY: No problem.
