Indian Guide Tribes
Plan Tockwogh Event

Counselors for the Newark YMCA-PTA day camp staff have been appointed in Grace Miller, Ginger Lanier, Joan Byram, Lydia Richardson, Connie Parker, Jody Otto, Winnie Hall, Fred Kutz, Bill Shue and Tom Lackman. Grace Miller and Fred are all members of last year's camp staff.

The counselors will have two training sessions before camp opens and will visit and prepare the site before the first period begins. Each counselor will be responsible for some eight to ten youngsters, and Miss Anne Beyerlein, day camp director, will be in charge.

Camp will begin June 27 and will continue for four weeks until July 22. Registrations for swimming and day camp can be made by calling the YMCA office, and parents are urged to register their youngsters as soon as possible.

All six of the Newark YMCA Indian Guide tribes are planning to attend the annual long house meeting at Camp Tockwogh on Saturday and Sunday, July 11 and 12, for fathers and sons who have been members of the Indian Guide program this past year.

Newark tribes are the Cherokee, Navajo, Comanche, Blackfoot, Fox and Apache, which have been meeting twice a month. The big feature of the weekend will be the visit of Chief Sunrise, a full-blooded Indian, who will stage a full-dress ceremonial and will help with the formal induction of new tribes.

Any father and son interested in joining an Indian Guide tribe and attending this weekend affair may do so by calling the YMCA office, 4-6767. This program is for boys, 6 to 9.

Newark C. of C. Ladies Night Fete Planned Thursday

Annual Program Includes
"Monte Carlo" Feature,
Trick Shot Golf Artist

Members of the Newark Chamber of Commerce will present their annual ladies night program at the Newark Country Club next Thursday, it was announced today by President Hugh P. Gallagher, Jr.

Beginning at 6 p.m., the program will include a get-acquainted period, and a buffet style seafood dinner to be followed by a "Monte Carlo Night." As a special feature, members interested will be able to witness the trick-shot golf exhibition by Paul Hahn who is appearing at the club that evening. Members of the chamber and their guests will be admitted at a special price of 50 cents per person.

In past years, Mr. Gallagher pointed out, "the chamber has held its annual ladies night in January at which time officers for the next year were nominated and directors elected. This combination of a ladies night and business meeting has delighted the ladies and has been in the affair. This year the board of directors decided to separate the two events, holding the ladies night in June and the regular business meeting in January."

As part of the Monte Carlo program, each guest will be given a million "dollars" as a stake for the evening in the various games of chance. Those who are able to hang on to this stake or increase it may compete for a number of valuable prizes to be awarded at the end of the evening. Those who lose their original stake will have an opportunity to replenish their fortunes by playing bingo—shhh!—with the winner of each game receiving a million play dollars.

Other officers include Wm. H. Naudain, Fred H. Smith and Dallas Lore, vice presidents; Secretary Wm. D. Marney; Tall Twister Wm. Sawin, and John McVough, lion tamer.

Among the guests was another Silver Jubilarian, the Rev. Herbert T. Rimlinger, J. C. D., pastor of Mother of Sorrows Church, Centerville, Md.

Father O'Neil was presented with a purse as a remembrance from his parishioners, and with a spiritual bouquet from the children of the parish.

Dental Hygiene Program Planned For School Pupils

Medical Check Indicates
Need For Improved Care
Of Newark Child's Teeth

A complete medical program for the Newark school district, as recommended by the Parent-Teacher Association health committee, some two years ago, will be established in September with inauguration of the dental hygiene phase of the medical-dental health program.

School Superintendent Wilmer E. Shue announced today that a special meeting has been scheduled for June 8 between school administrators, Newark dentists, and Dr. Edward Gliwa and Dr. John R. Downes of the Board of Health, for the organization of a dental health program in the local public schools as approved by the Newark Board of Education.

It is planned to employ a dental hygienist as a full-time member of the school staff to periodically clean teeth and check school children's teeth, and to work with teachers and pupils in an educational program on nutrition and proper care of the teeth.

The medical phase of the school health program has proved very satisfactory, Mr. Shue said, but 70 percent of the defects discovered as a result of such medical checks, had to do with the condition of children's teeth. The school superintendent also stated that the school fluoride specialists, on their tour of inspection, reported school children in this area to have "the worst teeth and the most fillings" encountered, as a lack of dental care.

The complete school medical program will be administered by a health council consisting of the superintendent of schools, school principals, nurses, physical education instructors, and cafeteria managers working in conjunction with the PTA health committee.

George Pierce describes the circumstances of Enos' death in two letters which recount his search for his brother on the battlefield and throughout the camp following a battle in Virginia on May 23, 1864. Other soldiers inform him that Enos may have been killed near a Confederate battery, and George writes, "Our regiment is cut to pieces."

Only two months later, on July 26, George was struck by what may have been a stray bullet while walking with a friend, James Hamilton. A gribover report, on July 27 to Elias Pierce reported, "He was in good spirits and wished me to write to you."

Battle Souvenirs Of Local Boys Recall Tragedies Of Civil War

Historic moments of the War Between the States are recalled in exhibits now being displayed in the Memorial Library on the University of Delaware campus.

The display consists of letters, bullets, bayonets, and other mementos sent home by Enos W. Pierce and George Kirk Pierce, two youthful residents of Newark, who enlisted in the 97th Pennsylvania Volunteers in 1861. After two years of service, the boys returned home, only to reenlist on October 30, 1863. This decision was to prove fatal to both sons of Elias Pierce within the brief span of two months.

During their tour of duty, the boys described in rather colorful mis-spelling, the persistence of mosquitos and fleas in their camp near Jacksonville, Fla.; a rebel challenge to the infantry earthworks and waved their sabres in defiance; and a rebel raid in which the lieutenant in charge was literally caught without his pants. Sorry, Confederate raid!

Letters from the two boys are shown from such historic locales as Jacksonville and Port Royal and Seabrook Island, S.C.

George Pierce describes the circumstances of Enos' death in two letters which recount his search for his brother on the battlefield and throughout the camp following a battle in Virginia on May 23, 1864. The social service committee of Hockessin Friends Meeting will serve a supper and hold a flower sale at the meeting house on Saturday evening. Proceeds will be used for improvement of the meeting.

The Ladies' Auxiliary of the Hockessin Fire Company will sponsor a flower and plant sale Saturday and Sunday at Malin's Garage on Lancaster Pike.

Plans were discussed for the observance of the 110th anniversary of the school. Mrs. Evans, Mrs. Rollin Atterner, and Mrs. Elsie Stradley were appointed as the anniversary committee.

Fun night was observed and prizes awarded the winner.

The school has sent its quota for the Junior Red Cross Memorial Day cups, 394 napkins, 50 menu covers, and 12 pounds of candy. This goes to the Veterans Hospital.

Play Day will be held tomorrow from 2 to 3:30 p.m. ending with refreshments.

Mrs. Stradley Entertains Sophie and Stanley Springer, Barbara Cannon, and Shirley Barlow, were the club officers entertained by Mrs. Stradley last Saturday at lunch and with a movie in Newark. Two other students, Betty Springer and Raymond Naudain, also received this treat for being chosen the best girl and boy citizen at the school.

The Daniel Harrises showed films of their recent Florida trip.

The grange will hold a business meeting next Wednesday and the sewing entries of curtains and dusters will be judged.

Union 4-H Club will meet Saturday evening with Peggy Harris at Berkley Farms.

Katharine Jones Advises On Proper Food Storage

Proper food storage is one secret in serving tasty meals and making your food dollar last longer. It will cut down food spoilage and waste. Wrap fresh meat and poultry loosely in waxed paper, says Miss M. Katharine Jones, with the Agricultural Extension Service of the University of Delaware. Store meat in the coldest part of your refrigerator, and wipe it off with a damp cloth when you are ready to use it. Wrap fish and shellfish in moisture-proof paper or put in a tightly-covered container, and keep them no longer than two days at the coldest temperature.

Store your eggs large end up in a covered container in the refrigerator. If you want to keep left-over yolks, put a little cold water over them. To prevent evaporation, store left-over egg whites in a covered dish.

The annual strawberry festival and chicken salad supper will be held on June 2 starting at 5 p.m. Mrs. Robert M. Walker is super chairman with Mrs. Herbert Pierson as hostess for the dining room with Mrs. Horace M. Woodward co-hostess.

Other chairmen include Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Woodward, publicity; K. B. Pierson, table construction; R. M. Walker and R. P. Maclary, tickets; Mrs. Ernest Townsend, cake; Mrs. Lamar Le Bron, fancy work; Mrs. Richard Oswald, candy; Gheen Stephenson, ice cream.

Mrs. H. W. Pierson's class, punch; Jane Frederick's class, fish pond; Mrs. H. Woodward and Mrs. R. I. Klair's classes, flower and plant sale; Mrs. Townsend, Mrs. R. Klair, and Mrs. Albert Fager, decorations; Merritt Armor, lights; Herbert W. Pierson, treasurer.

This '55 Buick must have something that folks just won't do without!

PICK YOUR CAR FROM THE HOTTEST-SELLING BUICKS IN HISTORY

There's a Buick to fit every purse and purpose—the bedrock-priced SPECIAL, the high-powered CENTURY, the extra-spacious SUPER (illustrated here in the Riviera model), and the custom-built ROADMASTER.

Twelve months ago, in the public price, we said that this looks like Buick's biggest year—and we weren't fooling.

But what has happened—and continues to happen—is almost beyond belief.

People buy up these stunning new Buicks practically as fast as we get them from the factory. Buick production—already revised upward several times—keeps forging ahead to new highs every month to meet the mounting demand.

And Buick sales keep soaring higher and higher—outstripping by far the phenomenal success of last year—the success that moved Buick into the "Big Three" of America's best sellers.

What is it about the '55 Buicks that folks by the hundreds of thousands just won't do without? It's many things.

It's styling that's boldly distinctive and fresh as tomorrow. It's beauty of line and beauty of interior décor. It's a ride that's level, firm and steady. It's a new sweetness of handling. It's great power—wallowing new V8 power of record might.

But above all, it's a new kind of performance, from a new kind of automatic transmission that was born of flight thinking.

It's Variable Pitch Dynaflo*—engineered from the principle of the modern plane's switch-pitch propeller—and what it brings you in the way of pure thrill, mere words can't describe.

Just you drop in on us this very week and try it. That way you can see what a terrific automobile—and a terrific buy—the hottest-selling Buick of all time really is.

*Dynaflo Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional extra cost on other Series.

Greatest Show On Earth To Feature 100-Ton Herd of Performing Pachyderms

The largest herd of performing pachyderms ever assembled is featured in the new 1955 edition of the Ringling Bros. and Barnum & Bailey Circus.

To stage this massive production, John Ringling North imported 20 new baby elephants from India and added to his already vast adult herd.

"Holidays," most glittering of the extravaganzas created for the new show, presents a kaleidoscope of colors, costumery and lavish floats. Hundreds of human and animal artists participate in this pageant dedicated to the festive days on the American calendar.

The aerial ballet this year features bevy of beauties in a romantic aura of South Pacific charm.

The stirring finale, entitled "Rainbow 'Round the World," brings a final burst of color and beauty to the latest entertainment triumph of John Ringling North.

In addition to producing the four spectacles, Mr. North composed all of the music for them.

Held over by popular demand are the Three Nocks, Swiss stratosphere artists, who execute chilling feats on high swaying spars, and the Palcos, Saboteurs and Falcons, world-famous flying quartettes.

There are acts aplenty for lovers of fine horsemanship. The superb dressage riders, Marion Seifert, Nadia Houcke and Alexander Konyot are unequalled in their specialties. The finest in equestrian exhibitions will be seen with the Justino Loyal Troupe and Honka Karoly, who, like her cousin Evi, is a riding ballerina.

And of course there are whole regiments of clowns and cages and cages of rare wild animals. An 80-car circus train is required to move the great entertainment colossus from city to city.

Performances are held at 2:15 and 8:15 p.m., with doors opened at 1 and 7 p.m.

Tennessee Jimmy Godsey, the carp champion president of the New Castle Rod and Gun Club, has released his top secret carp bait formula for publication to aid local sportsmen in reducing Delaware's over-abundance of water-rolling carp.

Assemble ingredients of 1/2 cup of yellow corn meal, 1/2 cup of white corn meal, one cup of flour, 1 cup of water, four tablespoons of honey; 1 teaspoon of anise oil; one white sock, and one less highly prized saucan of boiling water, Jim explains.

Mix meal and flour, add the cup of water, and then add and mix the honey and oil of anise. Mix again, pour the gooey mess into the sock—a discarded nylon stocking will do, too—and boil for 30 minutes. Cool, empty out the sock, and knead the dough until the old forearms ache. Then find yourself a carp hole, fish the bottom, no sinker, a tiny cork float—and look out! Those carp will give you a fit.

Godsey is quite a salesman as well as a carp fisherman. Last Sunday morning, he talked the Old Master, Arnold "Ducky" Stewart, out of bed at an early hour and the three of us went out into the fog and a northeaster for a go with the carp in a special sluice-water duck pond of Ducky's.

The Channel Bass Man wasn't overly enthusiastic about Godsey's bait—or carp, either. He had just returned from some stirring rounds in the Ocaoke surf with some 10-lb. bluefish. "Like having a very mean wildcat by the tail," Ducky stated simply, describing his experiences with the big blues. "But I'll still take an old channel bass," the champ said with a familiar gleam in his eye.

A two hour stand at the carp pond failed to produce a fish, and Ducky threatened to dig up a few worms and show Jim how, while Godsey blamed the wind, the lack of sunshine, and Mr. Stewart's choice of location.

And finally, Godsey's charm bait paid off. Attracted by the abundance of chum tossed into the water, the carp began to strike and even Ducky Stewart was convinced—but not converted.

He has too much of that Ocaoke sand in his shoes, along with memories of the red-gold channel bass of Carolina's roaring white surf.

Governor Calls On Public To Observe Memorial Day

Governor J. Caleb Boggs this week called for the proper observance of Memorial Day on Monday, May 30, and said that such observance should have as its incentive "the prayerful gratitude of us all for the sacrifices made in the name of freedom."

The chief executive particularly urged that the flag of the United States be properly displayed during the day, with the flag at half-staff until noon and then "raised high on their standards for the remainder of the day to show the pride we have in those who brought victory to our nation's cause."

TB Society Head Appeals For Bissell Sanatorium

Dr. Gerald A. Beatty, president of the Delaware Anti-Tuberculosis Society has appealed to members of the Delaware State Legislature for the appropriation of funds to maintain the Emily P. Bissell Sanatorium as a first class tuberculosis hospital for the next biennium.

"I am certain that this cannot be done if House Bill 598 is passed by the Legislature," Dr. Beatty stated. "This represents a tremendous cut under the appropriation recommended by the permanent budget commission. It might well prove disastrous. I don't like to think what might happen if the Emily P. Bissell Sanatorium has to curtail its present program."

5 years

THAT'S right! If you were to spend $22.83 every minute for the next five years . . . day and night—Saturdays, Sundays and holidays included—your total expenditure would be about $60,000,000. During the next five years that is the approximate amount we will be spending to construct new generating, transmission and distribution facilities in order to meet all expected needs for gas and electricity in 1960. We are planning ahead . . . building now to meet future needs . . . assuring you the service will be ready whenever you have need for it . . . enough for a growing peninsula—for all the new homes, new factories, new stores, and all the new ways you'll be using gas and electricity in the future. So, whatever your plans, proceed with confidence, knowing that tomorrow . . . next year . . . and in the years of the future, there will always be an ample, dependable supply of gas and electricity ready to meet all your needs. Our confidence in your future progress and prosperity is expressed in the continuation of our expansion program—including the $60,000,000 we plan spending during the next five years.

THEY PRESERVED OUR FREEDOMS

Letters To The Editor

4 Kentway
Newark, Delaware
May 23, 1955
Dear Sir:

As retiring officers of the League of Women Voters of Newark we wish on behalf of that organization to extend to you our thanks for the many ways in which your paper has been of help to us in furthering our program of letting the people know about their government.

Your coverage of City Council meetings during the past year has been extensive and complete. This is indeed a service to the citizen and taxpayer who is often unable to attend these meetings in person but is nonetheless concerned about the problems of the community as a whole.

Your feature, "How Your Washington Representatives Voted on National Affairs Last Week," is of tremendous value to those who believe with us in the great American ideals of a responsible electorate and intelligent use of the ballot. Might we suggest that readers clip and save this feature with an eye to the 1956 general election?

Your May 12 editorial entitled "The History of Liberty" struck a responsive chord in the minds of many who are seriously concerned over public indifference to the true meaning of our American heritage of freedom. Organizations and adult education groups nation-wide are currently taking up this challenge and initiating forums for public discussion of the meaning and legal basis of the Bill of Rights. The League is at present working with leading citizens in the community with a view of establishing such a forum in Newark.

Our many thanks for your cooperation in carrying the League column of questions and answers on the workings of local government over a period of several months. Only a heavy work load has caused the discontinuance of the "Citizens' Corner," and we hope to take it up again in the near future. Last, but by no means least, may we express appreciation for your fine coverage of our entire LWV program? A citizens' public interest group like ours can have no better friend than its local newspaper.

Yours very sincerely,
Norma B. Handloff, President
Ruth Kranz, Public Relations Chmn.

120 Youths Enter DPIA Jr. Broiler Poultry Program

Chairman Walter Pyle Announces Deadline Of June 1st For Entries

One hundred boys and girls have already signed up for the 1955 Junior Broiler Program, according to Ed Melville, state president of the Delaware Poultry Improvement Association, sponsor of this annual event.

June 1 has been set as the deadline for entries by Walter Pyle, chairman of the DPIA education-research committee supervising the project. Delaware boys and girls between 10 and 19 years of age are eligible to enter. Cards must be signed by the contestants' parent and either his vocational agriculture instructor or 4-H club agent to insure proper supervision of the project. Entry blanks should be mailed to Silas McHenry, assistant extension poultryman, Box 150, Newark.

This program encourages boys and girls to raise a good flock of chickens, keep records and follow good management practices. Each entry consists of at least fifty straight-run chicks, which are wing-banded at one day of age for identification.

Hatchery Donations
Most of the chicks are donated by hatcherymen who are interested in helping boys and girls with this worthwhile project. However, contestants are encouraged to obtain their own chicks, making sure that they are meat-type birds from a pullet-riser-type clean source.

Broilers will be grown to ten and one-half weeks of age, then six of the best birds selected for dressing, judging and display at the close of the project. Cash awards will be presented for the twenty best entries at an Awards Banquet. Each contestant will receive complimentary tickets for himself and parents.

Training sessions are held in each county before the contest finals to show contestants how to select their best birds. Last year, Dr. R. C. Smith, W. T. McAllister and Silas McHenry from the University of Delaware taught the classes.

One hundred sixteen contestants completed the contest last year with 3.8 lbs. average live weight of the

Teaching Credits Offered At U.D. In Special Course

AAUW Sponsors Program To Aid Former Teachers, Grads In Reinstatement

College graduates who were teachers and those who would like to enter the profession will have a chance to earn necessary educational credits.

A new course to be given by the University of Delaware's extension program in cooperation with the Wilmington Branch, American Association of University Women, will give the necessary six credits for those college graduates who once held teachers' certificates. Upon completion of the course a recertification status would be granted.

For those graduates who never held a teacher's certificate, the course would mean a start toward the 18 required credits for certification.

The two-phased program is aimed at helping to relieve the teacher shortage which educators of the state have described many times as critical in face of increasing student enrollments.

The course is planned for the 1955-56 fall and spring semesters as part of the university's extension program.

Meetings are scheduled for 7 to 9:30 p.m. Wednesdays in Alexis I. duPont School. Those interested are asked to call Mrs. S. Marston Fox in Hillel.

The AAUW participated with other groups in a study of teacher recruitment needs earlier this year. Dean William O. Penrose of the university's school of education is working out details of the program with the AAUW.

State Club Officer

Mrs. Ella Boyden

The past president of the Newark Club, Mrs. Ella Boyden, was elected second vice president of the State Federation, and delegate to the Northeast Regional Conference to be held in September in Manchester, Vermont. Mrs. Boyden was general chairman of a committee for the Delaware Federation. Several members of the Newark B.P.W. Club attended all sessions of the Convention, along with the delegates from Newark, Mrs. Eleanor Eskridge and Mrs. Peggy Cronin Alden.

Mrs. Ruth Harris, Newark B.P.W. president for 1955-56, was chairman for the state hobby show, held at the Warner School, in conjunction with the Convention. As her contribution, Mrs. Harris displayed flowers made by her from wood pulp material—a hobby learned from Mrs. Dorsman of the GOC Center. Mrs. Peggy Cronin Alden, Newark, exhibited a group of early New England paintings from a collection once exhibited by the Cronin family in the Boston Museum. Mrs. Robert Stafford, Newark, arranged a beautiful and interesting display of items which she brought from Japan. This display included ceremonial kimonos, slippers, block prints, toys, and many other articles showing the Japanese way of living.

Mrs. Sara Sage Newark, displayed original oil paintings made by her as a hobby on canvas and trays. The next meeting for the Newark B.P.W. club is scheduled for June 6. It will be a picnic, and will be held at the home of Mrs. Ella Boyden, Church Road, near Newark.

New Plane Spotting Site At Ralph Vannoy Farm To Replace Kells Ave. Post

A Teen-Agers' Club of the Newark Ground Observer Corps post has been organized with 39 members. W. W. Brackin, post supervisor has announced that a new site has been chosen for the observer post. When the aluminum and glass building arrives, it will be erected on the farm of Ralph Vannoy, on Route 896, the road to New London, Pa. This shelter will replace the converted timekeeper's shack now in use on Kells Avenue near the Pennsylvania Railroad.

The new building, costing nearly $300, is due to be received on or before June 15. Mr. Brackin said. The GOC Teen-Agers Club recently elected James Jackson as president; Earl Gibson, vice president; Nancy Miruk, secretary and treasurer; and Richard Simpers, sergeant-at-arms. On the advisory council are George Teague, Joan Herbert, Marlin, and Jack Stiggins.

Mrs. Birgith Miruk is chief adviser of the club. Other advisers are Miss Virginia Phillips, Miss Jean Phillips, Mrs. George Tweed, Mrs. Kathleen Graham, and Mrs. Mary K. Bailey.

Dean Cites Future Career Potential For Ag Students

Young men and women who are looking for a job with a future would be wise to consider agriculture, says George M. Worrlow, dean of the school of agriculture at the University of Delaware.

Recent surveys indicate that eight major fields of agriculture—research, industry, business, education, communications, conservation, services, and farming—would, and could employ 15,000 new college graduates each year in more than 500 different kinds of jobs. At present, our land-grant colleges are turning out 8,500 young men and women each year in agricultural sciences. That's 6,500 trained persons to fill 15,000 jobs, or about two futures for every agricultural graduate.

Dean Worrlow gives these reasons why college training in agriculture offers great opportunities: Research programs already planned by state experiment stations and the U.S. Department of Agriculture will need 12,000 more trained agricultural scientists by 1960.

Many of agriculture's problems require men trained in agricultural engineering. As an illustration, the farm equipment industry can use 2,000 additional men a year for the next five years; the food and water industry, 1,500 a year; and the water and irrigation engineering industry, about 250 men during the same period.

Conservation estimates indicate that more than 3,000 new agricultural graduates can find jobs in the agricultural business field each year.

It is quite possible to be fond of a man who neglects his mother. Even his mother is often fond of him.

Conway Pitches Two-Hit Victory Over Wm. Penn

Newark High Halts Losing Streak With 7-1 Decision; Faces Elktion Tomorrow

Coach Charlie Griffith's Newark High nine met Elktion in a twin bill on the Maryland club's diamond today. The Yellowjackets will close out their season next Tuesday afternoon against P. S. duPont High.

Bobby Conway turned in a fine pitching performance here Tuesday as the locals halted a three-game losing streak with a 7-1 win over William Penn High.

Conway allowed only two hits and struck out nine, while his teammates clubbed Connell for nine.

Penn scored its lone run in the first inning to take a brief lead. But the Jackets came back to tally a singleton in their half of the frame and then forged ahead in the third with a four-run outburst. They added single runs in the fourth and fifth frames to complete the scoring.

Lee Schaffer and John Slack paced the hitting for the local club with two each.

Brown Vocational put on a fat fourth last Friday to outslug Newark, 10-8. The Vocational club collected 14 hits off Pitchers Ray Klansky and Jim Martin, while Newark could collect only eight.

Martin paced the hitting department with two for three.

After some spotty, preliminary action with the carp waterweights of the Mud Mill Pond tumbler, one of Mud Mills' top-ranking heavies picked up Tennessee Jim Godsey's doughball bait and ripped some substantial yardage from a humming reel spool in less time than you can say Maureen O'Hara. And Miss O'Hara mentioned because her role in the film, "The Quiet Man" involved a situation similar to that which occurred last Saturday when the fish of the day was lost in the course of some one-sided conversational distinction.

You may remember how the Irish colleen was pouring her heart out to the parish priest while the good father was busily engaged with a rampaging salmon. The fish made a last lunge while Maureen's advice—the clergyman-fisherman's advice—the leader broke—and the good man turned, livid with rage and frustration, to dash the flyrod into the river at his fair companion's feet.

Innocent Victim
 Little Bill was the hapless victim of a similar display of temper on Saturday. Understandably interested in the fish, he was caught in the intent of the fisherman, maintaining a running fire of interrogatory conversation during the entire 15 or 20 minute period in which the parent was parrying the thrusts of the big fish. Racing to the far end of the pool, the carp rolled over on its side, a swirl of surface water, changed direction, and swept back close to the snag-studded bank with every good possibility of tangling that trailing line to a fare-thee-well.

We got out of that one all right, and then the big fish—a 15-pounder, at least—tried the same tactics on the far side of the tumblerhole. And somehow, we came out of that, too.

Information Please
 "How big is he, Dad? Why don't you pull him out? Is he bigger than the one I caught? When are you going to get us some cokes? What is it, a carp? Let me get him in the net," are some slim samples. And the net, by the way, was a long-handled crabnet of vastly inferior proportions for the fish at hand, a wonderful instrument for losing said fish.

Even when you don't answer questions directed your way at a better than 30 per minute rate, such a quiz can build up a certain amount of tension.

And then, finally, when the big fish was surging tiredly close to the bank—we made an effort to slide him out on a gradual slope of sandy beach—was a great roll of muddy water, a broad, bronzed tail churned the surface, and the carp disappeared in the depths leaving a shaken angler holding a rod from which trailed a limp length of empty line.

Poor little boy! He got both loads of a double barreled verbal barrage. But his father said he was sorry, the seven-year old fisherman who doesn't nurse injured feelings, was quick to forgive and forget, and things went on happily for the big carp.

Tons of Fish
 With host Art Ashton and Little Bill's Mommie, we fished on into the cool of the evening—caught a few two and three pound carp from the pool and observed hundreds of the big fish wallowing and splashing in the fast water shallows at the sluice-gate outlet. A spear fisherman could have taken a ton of fish in a half-hearted effort, but they weren't much interested in hook and line offerings.

Wilmington Handicap Heads Opening Day Card As Delaware Park Opens Saturday

By NORVIN "RIP" COLLINS

For the 18th time in the past 19 years there will be activity at Stanton as Delaware Park opens its 32-day meeting Saturday with the running of the $10,000 added Wilmington Handicap.

Among the leading entries for this race, a six-furlong dash for three-year-olds and up, will be a great favorite of ours, Mrs. J. R. H. Thouron's Royal Governor. This gusty old campaigner won the event in 1949 and then turned around on the following Monday, after only a day's rest, to win the Brandywine, at a mile and a sixteenth. A feat, which to our aged and creaking memory at least, has never been duplicated by any other stake horse. Two races in three days is comparable to pitching both ends of a baseball double header.

War Intervenes
 Racing at Delaware Park has been going on since 1937, with the exception of 1943 when it was interrupted. The present meeting will have to go some to top last year's record-breaking 32-day performance. Fifteen records in all, from attendance to money wagered, were shattered.

To get back to the opening feature, The Governor will face, should he go postward, Alfred Roberts' Eastonwin, winner in 1953, and at least one of Mrs. Ada L. Rice's four eligibles of Cerise Reine, Mr. Paradise, Ring King and Snuggler. All are top notch handicap performers.

Mrs. Rice's Pat Bull was the winner of this event last year.

Top event of the meeting will be the $150,000 Delaware Handicap, for fillies and mares, which will be run on Saturday, July 2.

This event is the richest race in the world for ladies only and is expected to draw an even larger field than last year's $100,000 New Castle Handicap. The latter was won by Gainsboro Girl, who topped

Bankers, Porter's Capture Opener In Babe Ruth Play

Equitable Security Trust and William H. Porter, Inc., opened play in the Babe Ruth Baseball League here last Saturday with victories. The Bankers returned back Curtis Paper, 9-6, as Linton gave up three hits and fanned nine. In the other game Porter scored twice in the seventh to nip Newark Lumber, 6-5.

Witnesses Conduct Weekend Assembly At Newark Armory

More than 700 Jehovah's Witnesses ended a three-day assembly in the Newark armory on Sunday, and James W. Filson, Brooklyn representative of the Watchtower Bible and Tract Society, keynote speaker, said that "man desires better conditions if he is honest of heart and if it is these honest-hearted ones that Jehovah God will bless with endless life in a new world without end."

Mr. Filson, said that men have tried to build a new world but failed because they cannot go beyond imperfect human limitation. The activities began Friday evening with a model theocratic ministry school followed by instructions on training for the ministerial work.

The baptism of 31 persons highlighted Saturday's session.

The assembly ended with a summary of the weekly Watchtower lesson by Daniel Kovacic from Cambridge, Md., and a brief scriptural discourse by Gene Shalkoski, circuit supervisor of the Delmarva Peninsula.

Filson concluded the program with a talk on "The Happiness of Giving," after which he expressed his gratitude to the people of Newark for their hospitality and especially for the use of the Armory.

Delaware Food Market Report

By Anne Holberton
Consumer Information Specialist

Meat and Poultry

A lamb patty grill or a lamb loaf is the most economical way to enjoy the spring lamb now on the market. Both are prepared from ground lamb, one of this week's best buys at the meat counter. Other wise choices include lamb shoulder roasts and stew meat.

Pork remains attractively priced. Among the best values are Boston butts, picnic shoulder, shank halves of ham and spareribs.

Other good buys this week are ground beef, blade cut chuck roast of beef and young Delaware chicken for broiling and frying.

Seafood

Shad, sea bass and porgies are the most attractively priced fresh fish this week. There are abundant supplies of frozen sea fish as well, and these all are reasonably priced: scallops, haddock fillets, cod fillets, whiting, ocean perch and halibut.

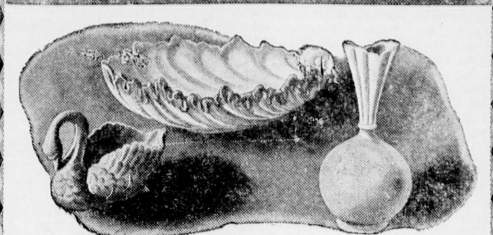

Fruits and Vegetables

Warm weather has increased supplies of local produce, lowering prices. There are good supplies of fresh asparagus. More Delaware strawberries are available and prices are slightly lower. Radishes, scallions, rhubarb and New Jersey lettuce are good buys.

Pineapples, bananas and avocados are in good supply at fair prices. The bulk of the Valencia orange harvest is later than usual this year. And this large volume is keeping prices fairly low. Lemons are featured at excellent prices in many stores.

Broccoli and squash prices are weaker this week. Lettuce and celery remain at attractive levels. Potatoes promise to come down in June because larger supplies of the new crop are arriving on the market.
