110 ATTEND BOY SCOUT DINNER; 14 GET AWARDS

Lt. Col. Zimmer Is Speaker At Affair; Honor
Court Is Held

A number of advancements and awards, topped by a Life Badge for Charles Skinner, were presented at the annual Blue and Gold Dinner of Boy Scout Troops 55 and 56 last Wednesday in the First Presbyterian Church. About 110 scouts, parents and guests attended.

The speaker was Lt.-Col. L. A. Zimmer, who stressed the importance of the scout theme "Be Brave." Courage, he said, is not fearlessness since every human knows fear to some degree but is the ability to overcome fear when the need arises.

The entertainment program was highlighted by two skits one a parody on a quiz program and the other a mock surgical operation.

Dr. T. A. Baker presided, and M. L. Draper introduced the guests. The invocation was by the Rev. H. E. Hallman, and the dinner was served by Group V of the Women's Auxiliary of the church.

Second highest awards at the Court of Honor were Star Badges presented to Don Miller and M. L. Draper, Jr. Other advancements were awarded as follows: Second Class Badges—Franklin Beers, Richard Beldyk, Roger Guffman, Lane Phillips, Wright Pofnerberger, Erik Schumann, Frederic Hegler, Jr., and Eugene Wollaston; First Class Badges—William Thompson and Edward Sobolewski; Merit Badges—Don Miller, pioneering, swimming, public health, cooking, first aid, Charles Skinner, coin collecting, civics and personal health; F. B. McCann, Jr., public health; M. L. Draper, Jr., personal health, public health.

Troop committee members in charge of arrangements for the affair were: H. Dann, A. Oram, C. S. Rankin, F. Stiegler.

ital Equipment Vanishes from Firehouse; Loss Grave

Who walked off with the firemen's dog pan?

This indispensable gadget is missing from the local firehouse, and Charles Moore urged this week that the borrower return it at once.

Its loss has severely crippled the social life of the firemen and has disrupted plans for the bingo party to be held tomorrow night for the benefit of Camp Barnes.

The pan is used to boil hot dogs for the festivities. What would a fireman shindig be without hot dogs?

William Derriekson Is Now Lieut.-Colonel

The Department of the Army announces the promotion of Major William B. Derriekson, Jr., of Newark, Del., son of Mr. and Mrs. William B. Derriekson of Selbyville, to the grade of lieutenant colonel in the Regular Army.

Col. Derriekson has been stationed in Okinawa the past year as director of supply to the Chief of Transportation, Ryukyus Command. His wife, Mary, daughter of Mrs. Myrtle Bell, of Newark, and their children, William B. III, 12, Eva, 6, and Robert 4, joined the colonel at his overseas station last September.

Commissioned in the Reserve upon graduation from the University of Delaware in 1928, Col. Derriekson became an officer of the Delaware National Guard in 1935. Called to federal duty with his unit in 1940, he served in the South Pacific, European and African theaters and was commissioned in the Regular Army in November 1947. He is a former employee of the Continental-Diamond Fibre Co., of Newark.

FINAL DRAFT OF CHARTER IS APPROVED

Referendum Planned If Bill Passed

A final draft of the proposed new charter, containing the latest amendments as outlined at last week's public hearing, was approved for submission to the legislature by the Town Council at a special meeting Friday night.

Before giving it a final okay, Council inserted a clause in the draft calling for a referendum here on the charter if and when it is approved by the General Assembly. This means that the charter will not become effective here until residents have had a chance to vote their approval.

The referendum clause provides one vote for every qualified voter on the town registration list and requires further that a special registration day be held at least ten days before the referendum to permit qualified voters not now on the list to become eligible to cast a ballot.

Most of the session was taken up with a discussion of just how the charter referendum should be carried out. Some wanted it conducted under the regulations for a bond referendum as provided in the existing charter, with multiple votes for property owners. Others suggested a compromise providing one vote per person with a sixty per cent majority required to carry.

After a lengthy debate, Council finally conceded to the wishes of the spectators present and made it a simple majority.

Used Music Instruments Are Sought By Schools

A request for second-hand music instruments was issued this week by the Newark Schools.

Officials are planning to expand the instrumental program, and additional instruments are needed.

Residents who own instruments which they are not using are asked to donate them to the schools. Gifts will be gratefully received. Especially needed are violins and violin bows.

Anyone willing to aid the program is asked to call the school office, 3521.

NHS Will Query Ex-Pupils On Value Of Curriculum

Criticisms Of School
Training To Be Sought
Thru 300 Questionnaires

A survey of ex-pupils of the Newark Schools is being planned to determine what criticisms they have of their education here in the light of their after-school experiences.

Questionnaires will be sent to some 300 former students next Wednesday, according to Supt. Wilmer E. Shue, in an effort to get facts on what phases of the curriculum have the most student appeal and prove most valuable in after school careers. The aim is also to find out why many pupils drop out of school before graduation. The results will be used to bolster weak spots in the curriculum in order to prepare students more adequately to take their places in the workaday world.

The survey, part of a state-wide program, is being conducted here by Miss Dorothy Markert, guidance supervisor. The questionnaires will be preceded by letters asking cooperation. Included in the survey will be both graduates of the local high school and pupils who dropped out before completing their education.

The letters, which will be mailed on Monday, state the purpose of the survey as follows: "We are interested in making the Newark High School better meet the needs of its pupils. We are asking ourselves the question: Is the Newark High School really helping all the student in our school today? One of the best ways to learn this is to find how you as a former student feel about the training you obtained while attending our schools."

The questionnaire, containing about 28 inquiries, take from 15 to 20 minutes to fill out. Names are not included in the form.

Some of the questions are as follows: "Do you feel that the teachers in your school should have been more or less strict or about the same? What person (teacher, coach, counselor or other) were you best able to 'talk over' problems with when you were in school? What subjects or activities did you pass up in school that you wish now you had taken part in?"

$197,412 IS EARMARKED FOR SCHOOL

$118,477 Will Be State's Share In Building Plans

A total of $197,412 has been earmarked by the State Board of Education for the Newark building program, it was announced at the February meeting of the local board of education on Friday night.

Of this figure, $118,477 represents the state's share, and the remaining $78,935 is the local district's portion. The latter, it was reported, is already on hand, and officials do not contemplate any further local assessment to complete the construction work already planned here.

Tax receipts for February amounted to $263,67, according to the treasurer's report.

Robert C. Gallaher, board member, reported on the hearing which he and Wilmer E. Shue, superintendent of schools, attended recently in Dover. The hearing was before the Joint Legislative Finance Committee.

In further business, the board reviewed the leave of absence policy for the district and heard a report on what other districts in the state are doing in this respect.

Two teachers, Miss Mildred Leopold, school librarian, and Miss Margaret Sluiter, fourth grade, were granted brief leaves in order to be married.

Newark Pythians Plan Annual Banquet Tonight

Oseola Lodge, No. 5, Knights of Pythias, will hold its annual banquet tonight in the New Century Club.

The speaker of the evening will be the Hon. W. George Skinner, district deputy supreme chancellor, of Union Bridge, Md.

The glee club of the Elkton High School will provide the entertainment under the direction of Samuel L. Diehl, M. C.

Willie T. Gray heads the dinner committee, which includes Herbert F. Wood, T. Ray Jacobs, James Mullen, Grant Ritchie, Lenine George and Earl Carney Wolven.

Carl Sandburg To Speak Here Tuesday

Carl Sandburg, poet, balladeer, raconteur and foremost biographer of Lincoln, will speak at the University Hour program at Mitchell Hall, University of Delaware, on the evening of Tuesday, March 1. His talk, at 8:15 p. m., will be open to the public without charge, according to Dr. Frederick B. Parker, chairman of arrangements.

The 71-year-old Sandburg had a background of haphazard schooling (though he finally was graduated from college) and itinerant laboring before he published his earliest poems in 1904. It was 10 years later before he received recognition. In 1915, his "Chicago Poems" were published, followed by "Cornhuskers," "Smoke and Steel," "Slabs of the Sunburnt West," and "The People, Yes," among others. Meanwhile, he spent years upon his six-volume biography of Abraham Lincoln, including two volumes of "The Prairie Years" and four of "The War Years."

"Cornhuskers," published in 1918, shared the Pulitzer Prize for poetry in that year, and "The War Years" received the Pulitzer award for biography in 1939. Sandburg's works also include several books for children, "The American Songbook," a collection of songs, ballads and ditties which have helped shape America.

NHS CONCERT DATES FIXED

Plan Annual Spring Programs

The annual spring concerts of the Newark schools will be held April 28 and May 6. The first will be the high school program, and the second will be presented by the elementary grades.

The latter will mark the first appearance of the junior orchestra, which is now being organized. Ernest Wilder, high school music supervisor, and Miss Esther Fenton, elementary music director, are working on the programs.

Under a temporary arrangement this term due to the absence of Miss Fenton, the high school mixed chorus is working under the direction of Frederick B. Kutz.

The New Castle County Band, to which Newark has contributed eleven pupil musicians, is currently holding rehearsals once a week in various schools. The group plans a concert tour of county schools the week of March 28.

Musselman Optimistic On Fluorine Plan After Visit To Newburg, N. Y.

The plan to treat the town water supply with Fluorine as a curb on tooth decay in young children gained new impetus when Dr. P. K. Musselman returned last Thursday from Newburg, N. Y., where he took a delegation of local officials to get facts on the Fluorine experiments there.

The project appears entirely practicable for Newark, he said, adding that he is very optimistic over the possibility of introducing the process here.

The Newark group, he reported, got complete data on the results of the Newburg project and is in full agreement that a similar experiment would be feasible here. Those who made the tour with him were: Councilman Rodney H. Dann, E. H. Biddle, local board of health member; and Drs. Louis Smith and Francis Kramer of the Biochemical Foundation staff.

Dr. Musselman warned, however, that a number of technicalities must be ironed out before the project could be launched here. Even if it is finally authorized by the Town Council, he stated, it is probable the experiment would not get underway until summer.

First, he said, there has to be a further study made to determine the exact type of equipment that would prove

$5000 GOAL IS SET FOR RED CROSS DRIVE HERE

Zone Heads And Solicitors Will
Map Plans Here
March 2, 8 P. M.

With $5,000 fixed as their goal, Newark area workers in the 1949 appeal of the Red Cross will rally on Wednesday, March 2, to map campaign plans.

All solicitors, the 40 zone chairmen, and the campaign committee for the area are expected to attend, R. O. Bausman, campaign chairman, said. The meeting will be held at 8 p. m. in the Century Club, and, as last year, light refreshments will be served. Solicitation materials will be distributed.

Last year, the get-together of solicitors was held at the parish house of St. Thomas' Church, but because of the large number to attend, the Century Club has cooperated in providing facilities this year.

According to Mr. Bausman, the $5,000 quota compares with $6,000 actually raised in the Newark area last year, and he joins A. P. Colburn, branch area No. 1 chairman for the Delaware chapter, in predicting that both the quota and last spring's receipts would be topped this year.

All solicitation will be carried out in homes, rather than through groups at their places of employment, Mr. Bausman said. A Special Gifts Committee will seek gifts from industrial concerns.

Organized on a geographical basis, the fund committee includes: R. O. Bausman, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Shakespear, A. P. Colburn, Mrs. C. M. Cooper, Mrs. Howard Greene, Dr. J. R. Downes, Stanley Gibbs, Herman Handloff, Richard L. Cooch, Ralph L. Hawthorne, Mrs. Walter Huihien, Mrs. Stephen Barczewski, Jr., Robert C. Lewis, George M. Haney, Francis Reinhardt, Alex. D. Cobb, G. Cunbert Webster, W. A. Wilkinson, W. Francis Lindell, Percy F. Stewart, S. A. Guerrieri, and Mrs. Joseph P. Patnovic.

Under their direction, zone committee chairmen and members will be selected. In addition to Newark, Branch Area No. 1 includes Christiansa, Bear, Oglethorpe, Sunny Side, Salem and Milford Cross Roads. The area is bounded roughly by the state line on the north and west, Limestone Road on the east, and Route 40 on the south.

Mayor Appoints New Assessment Unit Head

Appointment of D. D. Lanning, of Dallow Road, as chairman of the town Committee on Assessment Procedure was announced this week by Mayor Ford McBerty. Mr. Lanning succeeds F. A. Wheeler, who resigned.

Employed in product development work with the DuPont Company's Rayon Department, Mr. Lanning, who was transferred here recently from the Buffalo Plant, had wide experience in public affairs while living at Grand Island, N. Y., on the Niagara River.

The object of the committee, which he now heads, is to study practical and suitable procedure for assessing real estate here in a more equitable manner. It is hoped the group will make its recommendations for reforms to the Town Council in time for the 1949 assessment which begins in April.

Main Street 40 Years Ago

A little faded by time but still clear enough to revive fond memories of old Newark is this winter scene of Main Street about 40 years ago.

reproduction of a postal card taken by Edward Herberner, it was discovered recently by Mrs. Charles Choate Street, while looking in an old trunk. It pictures East Street at a time when sleigh races were popular, and, according to old horse owners came from miles to race their prize outfits from the Park Hotel to the Newark

Lumber Company.

In this scene, the sleighs apparently are returning from such a race. Only person among the bystanders who can be identified is the man on the right who has moved out from the spectators and is intently inspecting the sleighs. He is George Chalmers, deceased, formerly of Possum Park Road, near town.

The building on the extreme left is now an apartment house, with the Self-Service Laundry in the basement. At that time it was the residence of Dr. H. G. M. Kollock. The next building where the Newark Restaurant, Danne-man's shop and Jiffy Shoe Repair now are, was then owned by the Choate family.

Building barely visible on the right was the Geist store, now the Newark Farm and Home, with Theo. S. Jones next.

The entire town in those days followed the sleigh races with high interest. Some of those who competed each year in the contests were: Daniel Thompson, John Pilling, Lewis Dickey and Harry Kendall and many others.

COMMUNITY RECREATION FACTS AIRED

Workable Plan Is Outlined To AAUW Branch

A community recreation program which offers something to everyone from four years to eighty was described by Miss Jessie Haag of the Health and Physical Education Department of West Chester State Teachers' College before the Newark Branch of the American Association of University Women at its general meeting last night.

The recreation program was inaugurated in 1944 in Lansdale, Pa., a town with a 9,761 population, 75 manufacturing plants, 15 churches, and six service clubs, and has since become a model for similar projects elsewhere. With the guidance and encouragement of representatives of all groups in the community, the program was carried through by the efforts of the young people themselves and resulted, in its first year, in a 70 per cent decrease in juvenile delinquency.

Among the projects successfully operated by the Junior Youth Council under organized adult guidance have been the acquisition, decoration, and furnishing of a Youth Center with a lounge, dance floor, and facilities for pool, ping-pong, and other games; a baby sister agency, an employment agency, movies, live shows, contests, seasonal parties, dances, outdoor summer recreation centers, swimming instruction, and a basketball league. In the four years of its existence, the Youth Center has chalked up an attendance of over 100,000. Adult outgrowths of its activities include a little theater group, an orchestra, and a choral group.

All activities are carried on under the eyes of trained supervisors, with parents acting as hosts and hostesses at the Youth Center.

The project is financed by membership fees, donations from local industries, and the local Community Chest.

Mrs. Francis Squire presided over the business meeting following Miss Haag's talk. Miss Vera Gould, membership chairman, reported a current membership of 85. Mrs. Frederick Kutz, education chairman, reported a contribution from the Branch to the Council for Delaware Education and outlined education bills now pending in the Legislature.

Mrs. Squire discussed the Delaware State A. A. U. W. meeting in Dover on January 25 at which it was announced that the Department of Physical Education at the University of Delaware is now accredited by A. A. U. W. She announced also that the state conference will take place on Saturday, April 9, in Wilmington and is open to all members. Mrs. L. A. Grettum has been appointed a hostess for this meeting. Mrs. Marcus Olson and Mrs. R. L. Hardy will be among the registrars, with Mrs. Francis Bratton, Mrs. G. Taggart Evans, Mrs. Ned B. Allen, and Miss Lorna Wells acting as delegates. The speaker at this meeting will be Miss Lesley Frost, daughter of Robert Frost. Her subject will be: A Modern Poet Looks at the Modern World.

Mrs. Ned Allen was appointed delegate to the national AAUW convention in Seattle, Wash., on June 19-23.

Mrs. J. C. Weinberg, fellowship chairman, read a letter from Mile Yolande Loesch, of Luxembourg, holder of the Delaware A. A. U. W. fellowship and a student at Brown University.

The next general meeting of the Newark Branch will be held on April 25, with Mrs. George W. Rigby, president of the Delaware division, as guest of honor.

The following study group meeting are scheduled:

The social studies group will meet on Monday, March 7, at 8 p. m., at the home of Mrs. Earl Helmbrecht, 47 West Delaware Avenue. Mrs. Helmbrecht will speak on juvenile delinquency in Delaware.

Lou Staats Attends Atlantic City Parley

L. Staats, of Newark, has just returned from Atlantic City, N. J., where he attended a conference of several hundred Purina feed dealers.

R. G. Leavitt, of St. Louis, Missouri, Ralston Purina sales manager for the Eastern region, sounded an optimistic note for farmers as he reviewed the prospects for 1949. He pointed out that feed prices should be lower during the year while the demand and prices for meat, milk and eggs are expected to remain good. Citing opportunities for feed dealers to serve farmers, he said that a record number of chicks will be hatched and started this year and an increase in the number of pigs farrowed on the nation's farms is expected. To help feed this increased poultry and livestock population and add to the world food supply is the job the feed dealers have ahead of them for 1949.

Deaton Is Lauded By Leading Trade Journal

It is easier to earn fame abroad than honor in one's own community—that might well be the story of Charles A. Deaton, manager of the Fairlawn Market here on East Main Street.

It took two articles in nationally circulated business magazines to point up the fact that Deaton is doing a bang-up job in his small grocery sandwiched between two supermarkets.

The first article appeared in the February issue of "Keplinger," read widely by the nation's businessmen, and the second was the lead story in the "Progressive Grocer," the country's foremost publication for food merchants.

Both articles cited Deaton for his resourcefulness and courage in meeting the stiffest kind of competition. They attributed his success to efficient merchandizing, willingness to accept a small profit margin, excellent quality of his products, especially fresh vegetables; up-to-date store lay-out; and insistence on cleanliness. Another important factor, the article said, was his friendly customer-winning personality.

Proposed Postoffice Site Vetoed By Government
From Issue of February 27, 1949

Postoffice Site

Site for the new postoffice on Delaware Avenue, originally agreed to by the town and the university, has been disapproved by the U. S. Treasury Department. The question of where Newark's new postoffice will be is, therefore, once again in a muddle. The Treasury Department actually owns the lot on the corner of South College and Delaware Avenues, for which the university offered the Delaware Avenue site. The Treasury Department overruled the town's agreement with the university.

Recovering From Accident

Mrs. William H. Cook slipped and fell on Main Street recently and suffered injuries to one leg and hip which for a time were thought might develop into grave complications, but she is reported now to have every chance of complete recovery. The accident occurred near Dr. Kollock's residence.

May Move Heiser House

It has been learned that the Heiser home on Main Street, next to the College Library, is to be moved to a new site on East Delaware Avenue soon. Mr. and Mrs. Heiser and family are moving this week into the house on West Delaware Avenue, recently vacated by Prof. and Mrs. R. W. Heim.

The Stork

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Balling, of Academy Street, are receiving congratulations upon the birth on Monday of this week of a baby son. The newborn has been named William Joseph. Both mother and child are reported to be doing very well.

A baby son came to grace the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hurlock on lower Depot Road last evening. Mother and child are doing nicely, it is reported.

Birthday Party

A birthday party was given on Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. William Crowe in honor of little Miss Eva Gregg's seventh birthday and Billie Barrow's tenth. A replica of George Washington's cherry tree was the greatest attraction. Among those present were: Bertha Singles, Dorothy Barrow, Rebecca Barrow, Edna Crowe, Myra Hall, Myrtle Bolton, Eva Mae Gregg, Irvin Crowe, Dick Keesley, Freddie Crouch, Edwin Smith.

Young People Gather

Mr. and Mrs. D. Lee Rose gave a dinner last Friday, Feb. 22, in honor of the birthday of their daughter Miss Marjorie Rose. The guests included Miss Louise Matthews, Miss Sara Steel, Miss Edith Rose, Miss Olive Porter, Miss Alice Charsha, Miss Dorothea Rose, Miss Mildred Fulmer, Miss Elizabeth Crooks, Mrs. W. M. Coverdale and Miss Irene Wilkinson.

Personals

Welsch Tract School has been closed for several days. Miss Carpenter, the teacher, has chicken pox.

Mrs. Robert Houston is recovering slowly from the effects of a fall at the home of Mrs. Laura Hossinger.

Miss Harriett Wilson is rapidly recovering from a recent operation performed for appendicitis.

Goose Wins Golden Egg For Master

Sidney, a silly goose, goose-stepped himself to fame recently.

An Egyptian goose owned by Clifton T. Alden, Roslyn Heights, L. I., he won a race against seven fellow ganders who are on exhibit at the 18th annual New York poultry show.

When the race started, the geese refused to budge, but someone frightened Sidney, and he was off. The rest waddled along behind. Goose-track officials spread some corn just over the finish line, and with that incentive, Sidney won by a beak.

He waddled 50 yards in about five minutes and his master got a golden egg for his trouble.

"The paintings vary in character and technique, according to the different artists represented," Miss Baily said. "The influence of such a master as Paul Klee may be seen in some of the pictures."

Power Generator Plan Not Practical, 'Taxpayer' Says

February 22, 1949
dependent source, for a steam plant to take care of the needs of Newark.

At any of the meetings attended by the writer, the engineer's report was not mentioned in any way whatsoever.

WHY? The writer has been told that a manufacturer and distributor of electricity guarantees to sell to municipalities and industry electricity 10% lower than they can actually manufacture it, either by oil or steam, and if this is true it is ridiculous to take up anyone's time in discussing a power plant for the Town of Newark, especially when the engineer's report is an adverse one.

At one of the meetings at Newark High School, it was stated that the annual report of the Town of Newark for the fiscal year ending February 29, 1948 did not reflect the true financial condition of Newark. If this statement is true, certainly the taxpayers of Newark are entitled to KNOW the true facts about the condition of our town, and before the mayor and council submit any bills to the state legislature for any increase in taxes or revenue, should have prepared a true and just report of the town. The engineer's report follows:

(Signed) Taxpayer
For several months, propaganda has been spread over the town by several individuals that Newark could manufacture its own electricity at a tremendous saving.

Attached herewith is a report submitted by our town engineer several weeks ago to the town council, showing the cost of generating electricity on a small 200 kw plant.

Attached also are figures furnished the writer at his request from an independent source, for a steam plant to take care of the needs of Newark.

The use of this equipment to generate during peak demand periods on the basis of probable 10 cent fuel oil, will cost 4.33 cents/kw hr. for that electricity fed into the town distribution system. This same power now costs approx. 2.67 cents/kw hr. If fuel oil drops from 12.4 cents to 10 cents over the next 18 months to 2 year period, the monthly energy charge under our present contract might be reduced if coal follows oil in price decline, probably reducing the cost per kw hr. to about 2 cents. The net loss to the town would be approx. $8,500, annually assuming no reduction in energy charge from the present basis.

The use of this equipment to generate at its capacity on the basis of 10 cent fuel oil will cost 2.73 cents/kw hr. This same power now costs approx. 1.53 cents/kw hr. In 18 months or two years this would reach 1.45 cents/kw hr. On the basis of supplying 1,520,000 kw hr. of the town's electric requirements a loss of about $18,000, would result assuming no reduction in energy charge from the present basis.

Recommendations.
It is recommended that the safety to continuity of operation of the Town's essential facilities be accomplished in the following manner:

1. Install a second feeder from Delaware Power & Light system on the south side of town to supply emergency service to water pumping and present main sewerage pumping system.
2. Install a feeder from Delaware Power & Light system on the north side of town to supply emergency service to North Side Sewerage Pumping System.

WALLPAPER REMOVED BY STEAM Heat,

FILLIN' IN

At last Friday's special Council meeting, during a tense moment in the deliberations over the proposed charter, we got to thinking about the cigar and its significance in human affairs. How, we asked ourselves, did men go about pondering momentous problems or weighing far reaching issues before the cigar made its appearance in history? Certainly, no man in a responsible position today would undertake to consider a serious question without first lighting a cigar, and no conclave of males would dare make an important decision without enveloping itself in a cloud of cigar smoke.

This being so, one would expect the local Council to work in a particularly dense Havana cumulus, and it does. Five of the seven members of Council are exclusive cigar men. The other two, Mr. Durnall and Mr. Wheeler, may sneak one occasionally, but we're not sure. With this percentage, though, it is easy to understand how, towards the end of long and heated sessions, the Councilmen find it difficult to identify each other.

The longest and fattest cigar at these meetings is smoked, appropriately enough, by Mayor McBerty. Mr. McBerty is physically the smallest member of Council, and it is sometimes hard to tell whether he is holding a cigar in his mouth or a cigar has him suspended from the end of it. Also of startling size is the pocket knife Mr. McBerty uses to snip off the ends of his cigars. This looks like a folding broadsword and when, during grave moments in the debates, he snaps open the gleaming blade, a distinct hush comes over his colleagues, and there is an uncomfortable feeling that heads are about to roll. Everyone breathes easily again, though, when he merely bends to decapitate another cigar.

Most rapid puffer and voluminous smoke producer is probably Councilman Hopkins, who also has the distinction of being the most vicious cigar muncher. He wrecks havoc with a cigar from both ends.

The Councilman most generous with his cigars is Mr. Ramsey, who will proffer one at the slightest encouragement and has been known to bring entire boxes to meetings, passing them around to both his colleagues and the spectators.

The neatest cigar handler and one capable of building up the longest ash is Mr. Battersby. He manipulates his stogie with meticulous care and taps tidy segments into the tray at regular intervals.

The lawmaker man who appears to get the most out of his cigar both in degree of satisfaction and extent of consumption is Mr. Dann. When he rears back to consider one of those problems upon which the fate of Newark hinges, he blows smoke ceilingward with the air of a man who can know no greater pleasure. And, when he deposits the remnant of his cigar in the tray, it is a butt that most desperate butt speaker would spurn.

We have noted further that the smoke at Council meetings increases in direct ratio to the importance of the issues at stake. Sometimes the deliberations become so grave that it is necessary to open a window. When this happens, we half expect to see a frantic delegation of citizens rush in to complain about the Smog that has suddenly blanketed the town—or perhaps a horde of alert Aetna men, brandishing axes and squirting hoses.

We predict that in the end Council will either have to install a ventilator or invoke its own anti-smoke ordinance against itself.

In view of the threat to eyes and lungs that attendance at Council meetings entails, it is remarkable how many residents turn up to watch the proceedings. During the recent series of meetings on the charter, attendance was high.

We suppose Council, even though its meetings are public, could forbid audience participation in the discussions, but we're happy to report it doesn't. In fact, the lawmakers encourage kibitzing from the galleries and always lend a courteous ear. The result is Council meetings are taking on the character of old-fashioned Town Forums.

At last Friday's special meeting, there was plenty of kibitzing. Before the session was over almost everyone present had had his say, and the topics ranged far afield. There were impromptu lectures on philosophy of government, definitions of democracy, and discussions of the fine points of parliamentary law.

All in all, it was an instructive evening, one well worth the price of admission.

The only drawback, as we see it, to turning Council sessions into informal town meetings is the possibility that pressure groups or small-scale lobbyists may form the habit of descending on Council to steamroller its decisions.

It is a fact that a dozen or so people in a small room can make a lot of noise, and the uproar can easily be mistaken for the Voice of The People. Still, it must be remembered that the majority of Councilmen are cigar smokers, which means they are by nature men who puff reflectively before they act.

JACKETS FACE CONRAD IN LAST HOME TILT TOMORROW; TO CLOSE AT MIDDLETOWN

Revive From 74-45 Trouncing By Red Devils Last Friday To Defeat Mt. Pleasant, 39-33, On Tuesday; Season Finale Nears

Winding up the current campaign, the Newark High courtmen meet Conrad here tomorrow night and Middletown away next Tuesday.

The past week, the Jackets made a quick comeback from a 74-45 walloping they absorbed from Wilmington High on Friday to overcome Mt. Pleasant, 39-33, on Tuesday night here.

In the latter contest, Newark jumped to a 7-4 lead in the opening quarter and moved into high in the second with an 18-point outburst. Although the visitors outscored the Jackets, 24-14, in the second half, the latter were able to cling to their lead.

Harrison and Records paced the Newark attack with 11 counters each. Also potent on the offensive was Nagle with nine points.

Last Friday in Wilmington, the Red Devils outclassed the local club all the way, taking a 15-5 lead in the first and never relinquishing the advantage. Harrison and Nagle tried valiantly to keep Newark's attack functioning, but the total gradually piled up against them. Harrison turned in 12 points and Records 10.

The Southside basketball team defeated Elkton, 53-44, last week. It was a closely fought contest throughout the first three quarters, but the Newark boys pulled away to a decisive margin in the final stanza. H. Folk and E. Schuen shared scoring honors both with 10 points. Ron Bramble was close behind with 8 points.

Local Keglars Make Creditable Showing In National Tourney

Some In Line For Minor Cash Awards; Adams Goes Tempermental

The Newark team which entered the National Bowling Tournament in Atlantic City on February 14 and 15, turned in a creditable record, despite the fact that it was the first taste of national competition for most of the members. Several are in line for cash awards.

In the 5-man team event, Newark rolled up a 2697 score, which may possibly earn a minor cash prize.

Paul Whiteman and Bob Hopkins turned in a 1184 for the doubles, also in the money. In the singles, Kinsey Whiteman knothed 596, which, according to past records for the tourney, also may win a cash prize when the totals for the competition are complete.

Curiously enough, Morris Adams, who is rated as something of a "pro" and who has seen action before in the tournament, failed to make a showing, as did Charlie Elssner.

Gentlemen: Much to my enjoyment the last copy of the Post listed bowling scores. Previously all teams, and individual scores were listed, but apparently something crowded them out.

It is good to see some part of the bowling back and hope it continues.

Yours truly Ernest L. Lomax.

HENS FACE DREXEL IN LAST HOME TILT SATURDAY; TAN TEAM TO MEET LEHIGH HERE

Winter Sports Start To Taper Off At University; Cagers To Wind Up At Haverford Wednesday; Gridders To Open Spring Training, March 7

Saturday will be the last "big day" in winter sports at the University of Delaware, as the indoor events are starting to taper off to clear the way for outdoor activities.

The Hen cagers will meet Drexel Tech in the fieldhouse Saturday night, with a freshman-jayvee match set for 7 o'clock and a varsity clash at 8:30.

Lehigh will bring a strong swimming team down to compete against the victorious Hen tankmen. The Delaware Chickadees will swim against the Lehigh jayvees at 3 o'clock in Taylor pool, and the varsities will start their meet an hour later.

Delaware's wrestling team will travel to Easton, Pa., to meet the Lafayette matmen, in a freshman and varsity double bill.

The cagers will have one game left, a double bill against Haverford on the Pennsylvania court next Wednesday, and the Blue Hen acrobats will meet West Chester here next Saturday, March 5.

These matches will end the Blue and Gold indoor sports activities at Newark. The swimming team will still have the Middle Atlantic States and Eastern Collegiate conference championship finals, and the matmen will have the Middle Atlantic tournament on their schedule.

The Blue Hen gridsters will start spring training March 7, with baseball, track, golf and tennis practice already well under way by that time. Lacrosse also will be resumed after early practices last fall.

The Hen athletes presented a successful series of sports contests Saturday before about 200 "old grads," here for the midwinter alumni day, and half a hundred high school gridders from all sections of Delaware, who were guests of the athletics department.

The cagers lost their varsity basketball game to Swarthmore under the towering heads and nimble fingers of two six-foot-fivers, Jim Reilly and Dick Hall, with a 67-60 score. Reilly broke his 32-point record for a single game by sinking 38 tallies.

Both teams played top basketball. It was one of the Hens' best games of the season, and Garnet fans gave similar credit to their quintet. As a striking contrast to the towering Swarthmore scorers, Delaware's top scorer was five-foot-six Ace Hoffstein, whose long and spectacular set shots aided him in sinking 21 points, more than twice the next man's score on the Hen team.

The Chick cagers continued their usual winning habits with a 49-45 victory over Swarthmore's jayvees, paced by Bill Kee, of Wilmington, and Johnny DeGasperis from North Jersey.

Delaware's swimmer won their sixth match in eight starts with a 50-25 victory over Lafayette, where the sport is being revived after a year off, but the Chick tankmen lost to the Leopard jayvees, 43 to 32.

The Blue Hen wrestlers scored an overwhelming victory over the Cadets of P. M. C., 31 to 3, allowing the soldiers but one decision, while falls were scored by Tom Runk, Dave Scott, Hank Paris and Ted Youngling. Chip Firmani won the 128-pound class by forfeit and Tex Franklin and George Snyder were held to victories by decision. Away from home, the Delaware tankmen and the West Chester Teachers exchanged leads through an afternoon of acrobatics, with Teachers ahead at the opening of final event, the tumbling contest, that event Delaware's captain, Downing, took a first and Lee LeC second, to take 10 points to the Teachers' six, giving Delaware the match a 49-47 score.

The fencers from the Henhouse evaded Haverford but those experienced swordsmen outclassed them, 24 to 10. Delaware is just resuming fencing year after many years of inactivity official sword circles.

Newark Loses Shore Loop Court Contest

Bows To Laurel, 62-52 In Paced Game

Newark's court team bowed to Laurel, 62-52, in the Eastern Shore League encounter before 500 fans at Laurel Armory last Saturday night.

It was a hard fought contest all the way, with rangy Joe Cataldi leading the Newark attack. He worked the boards for 16 points and was second by Bill Challenger with 14.

This wasn't enough to stop Evans, Laurel forward and the League's leading offensive threat, who poured in seven from the field and from the penalty stripe for an 18-point total. Cooper, Laurel's center, out through with 16.

Beechnut Tree Seeds Among French Gifts

School Children To Plant Nuts On Arbor Day

Perhaps the most lasting gift of all those sent to Delaware in the French friendship boxcar was a bag of beech-nuts, which are destined eventually to dot the entire state in the form of trees.

Presented to the University of Delaware's extension division, the nuts are to be turned over soon to school children for planting on Arbor Day. The nuts are from the forests of France.

Two small trees are among the other gifts made to the university, and they have already been planted on the campus, and marked.

Last Friday, the university opened in the Memorial Library a public exhibition of French gifts of book, manuscripts, currency, musical scores, and other articles. The display, which is in the southern alcove of the library's periodical room, will remain about two weeks.

The gifts include three manuscripts, beautifully bound copies of literary or artistic works, a history of France in a very limited edition, two small framed paintings, musical scores, silver coins, cancelled paper currency and certain insignia of the Resistance forces. The diversity of the donors is striking; among them are various writers, artists, composers, scholars, publishers, a trade union.

CLUBWOMEN HEAR TALK BY ANDERSON

Family Court Aide Discusses Work Of Unit

Mr. C. Wilson Anderson of the Family Court of New Castle County, discussed the work of the court before the New Century Club of Newark at its meeting on Monday. Mr. Anderson, who was introduced by Mrs. Milton L. Draper, told of the procedure of the court and the opportunities it offers to individuals or families who come for advice and help.

The court is hampered at present, said Mr. Anderson, by inadequate quarters and a lack of probation officers. Mr. Anderson pointed out that Delaware has won increasing recognition throughout the country for its work in Family Court and is one of only 18 states having such an organization.

Mrs. Henry Weitz presided over the business meeting. The art exhibit of hand painted china was arranged by Mrs. Kenneth Steers, Mrs. Middleton Hanson, and Mrs. Edward A. Curtis, and was discussed by Miss Edwina Long who showed several of her own china paintings.

Mrs. J. Harvey Dickey was tea hostess, assisted by Mrs. Frank Moody, Mrs. T. D. Smith, Mrs. William Swan, Mrs. Harvey Steele, Mrs. Elgin Shaw, and Mrs. Raymond Schultz. Mrs. Joseph McVey poured. A red, white, and blue color scheme emphasized the patriotic holiday approaching, and the tea table featured an attractive centerpiece loaned by J. Elmer Betty, florists.

The cast for the first skit, "Snow

White and the Seven Dwarfs," included Doris Griffith as Snow White, along with Albert Folk, Harry Perkins, Martin Schaen, Eugene Stiltz, Lewis Young, Richard Grant and Ronald Burris.

A scene from Pinocchio was shown next with Mary Boyer as the Fairy and Robert Wright as Pinocchio.
