Season's Greeting!

Newark Rallies to Support Community Celebration

Exercises on Academy Grounds to Surpass All Former Town Undertakings

Everyone Joins to Make Success

Newark's community spirit has arisen and declared itself. For many moons that spirit was "down and out" but with Christmas season at hand the people of this town were asked to rally to the support of a Community Christmas celebration. Has that call been answered? It has and surpassed the expectation, inasmuch as it has been a hard thing of late to get the Newark people interested in community work but this time they have come through with flying colors.

This was what was needed to make the Christmas celebration of the town, the biggest event ever, and that is just what is going to be. The people here, now have only to turn out at the Academy grounds, on Saturday evening, Christmas eve, at 8.45 o'clock, to make the affair the event of events.

The committee in charge of the affair is as follows: Mayor Frazer, E. Clifford Wilson, Mrs. J. Cann, Mrs. J. O. G. Duffy, Miss Dora Wilcox, Mrs. Norris Worrall, Mrs. F. M. K. Foster, Mrs. Anna Armstrong, Miss Freda Ritz, Miss Nellie Wilson, E. H. Vogt, Dr. Walt Steel, Frank Fader, Mr. Gallaher, Mr. Pryor, Charles Hubert, Mr. Ellison, Harry Bonham, Warren Singles, Mr. Dougherty and Mr. Beale, Mr. Hoffecker and Mr. Dean. This committee was appointed at a meeting held at the home of Mr. J. P. Cann, last Wednesday evening and they are bending every effort to have next Saturday night go down in the annals of Newark as the biggest Christmas eve that has ever been celebrated in these parts.

Miss Dora Wilcox, who is connected with the Woman's College, has been leading the local singers but will not be here over the holidays. This appeared at first as a thorn in the side of the committee, but William "Bill" White, the community sing leader of Wilmington, is going to act as "pinch-hitter" and everyone who has ever seen him in action knows that his work will be of the highest nature. Mr. White is so enthusiastic in his work that people who never turned a tune in their life are singing with the bunch before they know it. Mr. White is to lead the

High School Xmas Exercises

Students Will Present Interesting Program in Opera House—Playlet A Feature

Lower Grades Also Have Programs

Every year the entertainment of the Newark High School at Christmas time, is one of the banner events of the year and the people of the town look forward to it like the little boy does to the coming of the circus. These people are not going to be disappointed this year, for the program that is to be presented by the students is one of the cleverest ever arranged.

The entertainment will have to be held in the Opera House this year, inasmuch as the assembly room of the school is not large enough to hold one half the student body and inasmuch as the whole student body and the parents of the scholars will be present a large hall had to be obtained.

Those members of the school who are to take part this year have been practicing for the past few weeks and an entertainment of the "first water" is assured. The program this year is one carried out on more original lines than is generally the rule with school undertakings. Nearly all the numbers on the program are the work of the students. The big feature will be a playlet presented by members of the Junior and Senior class, entitled "A Christmas Gift That Came Late." The skit was written and will be staged by six girls from the Senior class. Anyone who has seen this playlet rehearsed by the cast knows that its success is assured.

The program will be presented on Friday afternoon, at 1 o'clock, and the parents and friends of the High School students are invited to attend.

The primary and grammar schools will not be far behind their older school for each room in these schools will have their Christmas program and some excellent numbers have been prepared.

The program of the High School entertainment follows:

- Musie, Mandolin Club.
- Recitation, "Jest Before Xmas," George Chalmers.
- Reading, "The Other Wise Man," Mildred Major.
- Instrumental solo, Evelyn Worrall.
- Recitation, "Annie and Willie's Prayer," Anna Little.
- Original poems, "A Ballad," Erica Grothum; "The Newark Academy," Wilkins Cooch.
- Instrumental Duet, Alice Charsha, Gladys Rose.
- Recitation, "Here Comes the Bride," Sarah Pierson.
- Play, "A Christmas Gift That Came Late."

SMOKING SMOKERS SMOKE AWAY

Tobacco Thieves Make Latest Haul at Kilmon and Griffin Restaurant

Smoke out the smoke thieves, every merchant in Newark who handles smokes, not of the sausage variety, thinks this is about the only way to clear away the smoke and discover the smoke thieves who even fail to leave a trail of smoke behind them so the authorities will have a clue to work on. The latest host to these smokers is the restaurant of Kilmon and Griffin, on Elkton avenue.

Sometime, either late Monday night or early Tuesday morning, thieves broke into the restaurant and stole about $45 worth of cigarettes and cigars and $3 in cash, that was in the cash register. Mr. Kilmon on his arrival at his place of business on Tuesday morning, found that the window that leads into the kitchen, had been "jimmied," and on investigation found that his tobacco department had been pretty well cleaned out.

Just about a week previous the Buckingham store was entered and a large quantity of smokes taken. These two places, together with the two local pool parlors, have been keeping the thieves in smokes for sometime past. The two parlors were entered sometime ago. The thieves who seem only to be after smokes and money are thought to be persons familiar with the town and know just when is the best time to make their hauls.

After the recent robbery many merchants along Main street suggested banding together and hiring an officer to patrol the town all night. At the present the town officer goes off duty at 12 o'clock, leaving the stores without police protection for several hours, the hours are the best for the thieves for they are the wee hours of the morning when everyone has left the streets.

Public Spirited

Charles Hubert, manager of the Opera House, announced to the school children on Monday that he would entertain them again this year with a movie as in the past. The younger children will attend at 1 o'clock and the older ones at 3 o'clock. The event was held this afternoon.

Brightening Up

The Odd Fellows' Hall is being repainted.

Taxes Due

The taxpayers of Newark are going to save themselves 5 per cent on their bills if they are paid before January 1. Many of the taxes are yet unpaid and if not paid before the first of the year the above penalty will be added.

Christmas Eve in Newark

Old Academy Green, hallowed with memories of yester years, is the setting for Newark's First Community Christmas Celebration.

The season's tree will glow in Yule colors and at 6.45 in the evening, Newark will assemble to voice the Carols of Christmas. It's the Community Celebration and it's Christmas, so every man, woman and child should be there.

Let Merry Christmas be more than words of Greeting. Join in this chorus of Good Will and Cheer and Give of the Spirit that hovers over us all at Christmas Tide.

Death Claims Mrs. Daniel Thompson

One of Newark's Most Beloved and Esteemed Women Died Monday Night

The death of Mrs. Daniel Thompson on Monday night at 11.40 o'clock, although expected, brought a cloud of grief upon Newark for it had lost one of its most esteemed and beloved citizens. The deceased has been seriously ill since Tuesday evening, December 13, when she was stricken with apoplexy while a guest at a bridge party given by Mr. and Mrs. Alfred A. Curtis. From that time until the time of her death Mrs. Thompson had fought off the fatal hour.

The deceased was the wife of Daniel Thompson, State Auditor. He was with his wife at the time she was stricken and was at her bedside at the time of death.

Mrs. Thompson was one of the most public spirited women of the community and there was never anything too much trouble for her to do and during the war her work with the Red Cross helped that body to the success it enjoyed in this town. She was president of the local chapter of the organization at the time of her death and was likewise a member of the New Century Club.

Funeral services will be held from her late residence on Main street at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon, with Rev. Hallman, of the First Presbyterian Church, in charge. She was a worker at this church and took part in many of the church events. Interment will be made at the Head of Christiana cemetery.

Besides her husband she is survived by one son James, aged 15 years, a student at the Westtown, Pa. Friends' School, and a sister Miss Annie M. Hossinger. Mrs. Thompson was a sister of the late Joseph H. Hossinger, former Mayor of Newark and a sister-in-law of Mrs. Laura Hossinger, secretary of the Town Council.

CHRISTMAS SEALS STILL ON SALE

Local Workers in the Fight Against Tuberculosis Still on the Jump

Many local persons have received mail during the past few days with a Christmas Seal Stamp on it. Every piece of mail that Uncle Sam is now handling should have one of these seals on it, for every one of them is one cent's worth of the fight that is being waged against tuberculosis. Newark people have three more days in which they can buy these stamps and use them and as they are sold at one cent a piece there is no financial reason why everyone should not buy them and buy them again. Miss Jane Maxwell is in charge of the local sale of stamps and reports though a great number of the stamps have been disposed of the figures this year are not as large as in previous ones.

Every stamp that is sold in Delaware is a help against the dreaded disease right in the State as none of the receipts are sent to other points. It is at Christmas time that everyone should be willing to do his best to help his fellow man who is not quite as fortunate and by buying these stamps you are helping some poor soul in a fight against death.

The stamps are being sold in many of the stores of the town and there is no reason that every parcel post-marked Newark should not also bear a Christmas seal.

Newark Host to Boys and Girls

Yearly Pilgrimage of State Club Workers Next Week

Alexander D. Cobb in Charge

Next week will see both the sections of the University of Delaware closed and a great dent will be made in the local population by the departure of most of the students for their homes. But this gap is going to be filled as a result of the Third Annual Junior Farmers' Short Course, which will be held here as per custom.

Every year public spirited citizens and institutions offer scholarships to the Boys' and Girls' Clubs of the State, for a one-week visit to the University of Delaware. And every year these lucky lads and lassies make a pilgrimage to Newark. This year about a hundred will be in the party, which is larger than most years. Rooms will be provided in Harter Hall for the congregation and meals will be served at the University.

These scholarships are awarded to the boys and girls for some feat performed by them in their club work and this year representatives for every part of Delaware will be in the party. They will arrive here on Tuesday morning and will not spend an idle minute until they leave on Saturday.

When a boy or girl receives a reward for something they have done of special note, they do not look forward to a prize of all work. With this in mind State Club Leader Alexander D. Cobb, who will be in charge of the body, has mixed his program with instruction and recreation.

The male members of the party will receive instruction in judging corn and livestock, of work in the soils laboratory, budding and grafting of fruit trees and will take a trip of inspection to the experimental farm.

The young ladies will receive instructions in canning, baking and sewing. They will also be taken through the various departments of the Women's College.

The feature of Tuesday evening's program will be an address delivered to the body in Wolf Hall by Theodore T. Marth, former State Club Leader.

The program on Thursday night will be in charge of the girls and the boys will feature on Friday night.

Miss Agnes Medill, New Castle county; Miss Helen L. Comstock, Kent county; and Miss Dorothy Emerson, Sussex county; all County Club Leaders, will be present, as will be the following County Agents, R. O. Bausman, New Castle county; Russell E. Wilson, Kent county; and M. C. Vangh, Sussex county.

COMPANY E IN FALL SPORTS

Basketball fans of Newark will get a chance to see a real battle on Friday night at the armory, when either the National Guard or Chesbrook quintet of Wilmington, will be the attraction. The local five is one of the best that has ever been organized in Newark and the lads need support and it is the place of every basketball fan to be on hand for the game on Friday night.

The boys in Co. E, have run off several successful smokers and arrangements for the next event are now being made. The event will be held on Friday, January 6. One of the features of this card will be the wrestling match between Ernie Corning, of Newark, and Lewis Robinson, of Elkton.

CHRISTMAS SPIRIT GREET'S REHAB BOYS

Rehabs' "Dugout" Formerly Dedicated

Capt. "Bob" Woodside Greet's Old Comrades at Rehabilitation House-warming

For the past seven days the Rehabs have been having the time of their lives and the Christmas season has brought happiness to these lads that they will not soon forget. Everyone in Newark has an interest in these boys and they have proven in the past few days that they are in for making the boys of the school realize this fact. This was proven at the house warming held last Thursday night and at the entertainment given the Rehabs on Monday night by the New Century Club.

There is not one member of the Rehabilitation students that is going to forget that house warming and dedication, on last Thursday night, especially the address by Captain "Bob" Woodside, whose right name is Captain Robert T. Woodside, but he seldom gets that "front handle" for the boys in the army liked "Bob" the best and so does the captain. This officer had a number of the local Rehabs under him during the war and the reception he received last week was "fit for a king."

Captain Woodside is head of the Veterans of Foreign Wars, and has taken part in two wars, the Spanish-American and World War. There have been many speakers tell of the terrible war that drained United States of the pride of her manhood but it is doubtful if a more vivid description of the fray could be

CHORAL CLUB'S SECOND MEETING

Attendance Shows Improvement But the S. R. O. Signs Were Not Out

The second meeting of the Newark Choral Club, on Monday night, in the High School showed a bigger attendance, but still there is a lot, and a big lot at that, of people who should have been on hand who were not there. With an organization of this kind, opened to the public, it is hard to understand why the people of Newark do not grasp it. The Community spirit is the best spirit that can rule a town and that it is the object of the Choral Club and therein lies the reason that every person in this town should turn out and make this club a success.

On Monday night the meeting was taken up with the practicing of Christmas carols that are to be sung at the Community Christmas exercises. Miss Dora Wilcox led the singing and brought out the best that was in the singers.

The most enthusiastic spirit that prevailed at the first meeting of the club was again evident and with every member plugging to make the club a success the reward must come.

With the winter weather on us many of the younger people of the town surely find the evenings dragging on them. The Choral Club can help you solve this problem and if everyone would turn out for just one meeting there is no doubt that they would attend every meeting in the future. It is the Choral Club that is behind the Community Christmas services to be held on Saturday night, and after Newark sees the success that this affair is, there is no doubt that many people will attend the meeting of the club in the future.

During the winter it is expected that several recitals will be given by the club and with Miss Wilcox as a leader the local club should stand second to none in the State.

CLUBMEN TO VISIT

University of Delaware to Entertain Kiwanis Club

The University of Delaware will have as its guests on January 11, the Kiwanis Club, of Wilmington. The clubmen will arrive in Newark shortly before 7 p. m. and then proceed to the college where dinner will be served.

New Century Club Host to Rehabs

Monday Night Will Go Down in Annals of Jolly Good Times

There was never a comrade in the army and navy who did not know when he had a good time and if you want to know if the New Century Club showed the Rehab boys a good time on Monday night ask any of them and they will every one answer in the affirmative. Ask if the members of the New Century Club are good fellows and again that affirmative answer will be forthcoming. If every one in Newark could have been to the affair on Monday night they would have seen why the former fighting boys, who are now getting themselves in shape to go out and take their places in the world, are so strong for the New Century Club.

Although the party on Thursday night took a lot of "pep" from the Rehabs they were all fresh and bright for this week's affair and in keeping with the time of the year Queen Goodwill held the sceptre.

The ladies of the New Century Club worked their hardest to make Monday's party a success and their efforts were well rewarded and every Rehab extended a vote of thanks to the hostesses of the evening.

Probably the thing that struck the boys best in this event was the homemade cakes that were served. Most of the boys that are located in the Rehabilitation School are many miles from their homes and getting home

"Peace on Earth, Good Will Toward Men"

With the Proposed Laying Down of Arms, 1921's Christmas Brings Happiness

Everyone Joins in Carols of Peace "Peace on Earth, Good Will Toward Men."

Christmas, 1921, dawns upon us, clearer, steadier and brighter than any since 1918. The latter holiday came upon us brightly inasmuch as it saw the first peaceful Christmas during the four years duration of the World War. Then Freedom waved her wand over us and the spirit of despotism was trampled in the blood covered fields of Europe. It then seemed that peace had joined hands with humanity, and that human destruction had come to an end, as the greatest and dearest Christmas gift the universe had ever received.

The burdens of taxation, unemployment and debt took the brightness off the peace Christmas, and the brightest season of the year in 1919 and 1920 seem running back to the rut of those in which the war Christmas floundered.

Now at our threshold comes the Christmas of 1921 with promise of peace, the universal and lasting kind, this peace can never be guaranteed but the consummation of this ideal seems nearer at hand than ever before. And although the country is gripped by a general depression, one cannot help but feel happy and joyful when one looks back upon those years when our boys were falling by the scores in Flander Fields. The financial status of the public is much lower than then but when one stops, and thinks of the terrible loss of life that brought about those days of high wages and extravagant gifts, they surely would rather make a living sacrifice than see one soul cast before the altar of War.

Newark is part of that country which has taken the lead that promises to bring us to the days when arms will not be tolerated and why should we of this community not make this the most radiant and Christian Christmas of all years.

MUSICAL TREAT

Orpheus Club of Wilmington to Give Concert on January 10th

Music lovers of Newark have a rare treat in store for them when the Orpheus Club of Wilmington presents its concert in Newark. Arrangements, which have extended over a period of time, have resulted in the booking of the Orpheus Club for a concert in Newark on January 10th. In view of the success which the Orpheus Club received in Wilmington, the townspeople of Newark should feel very fortunate in being able to hear and entertain such an organization.

The Orpheus Club is composed of Wilmington men, fifty-one voices, who sing for the joy of singing. It is because of this that the concerts of these men are always so inspiring and successful. The concert to be given in Newark is the expression of interest which the Orpheus Club has in the University of Delaware and in Newark.

Dr. Julian Adair, of Wilmington, is President of the Orpheus Club and Frederick S. Smith is the accompanist. The Orpheus Club has been very fortunate in securing the services of Mr. Ralph Kinder, of Philadelphia, as conductor. Noah H. Swayne, 2nd, of Philadelphia, is the soloist. Mr. Swayne is well-known in musical circles and scored a big hit at the concert given by the Orpheus Club in Wilmington recently. He is the possessor of a rich bass voice and has achieved much success as a singer in other cities.

STANTON NEWS

The Stanton Community Association held its regular monthly meeting on Friday evening, December 16. The bulletin board is completed and ready to be placed.

The association was pleased to learn the condition of the trolley track had been repaired and is now in very good condition.

The association by resolution, appointed a Relief Committee to look after the needy of the town.

The school under the direction of the teacher, gave a Christmas program.

Miss Dorothy Hatfield was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Dickey recently.

Mrs. C. B. Major was a Newark visitor this week.

Charles P. Dickey and son expect to start a building operation as soon as spring opens.

Mr. and Mrs. Cummins and son have been the guests of Mrs. Cummins' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. E. Briggs.

FATHER'S CONTRIBUTION

It was a missionary sermon, and a little girl who had accompanied her father to the hall seemed restless.

When she reached home she asked her mother whether the natives of Africa wore any clothes.

"No," replied her mother.

"Then," retorted the observant young lady, "what was the use of that button father gave to the collection?"—Philadelphia Record.

OVER AT ELKTON

Michael Hartnett, aged 81 years, a retired farmer and father of John J. Hartnett, court stenographer, died Saturday evening at his home in Elkton. He was a native of Ireland and came to Elkton when a young man and had spent practically his entire life here. He was a member of the Elkton Catholic church. His wife and four children survive him.

This installation service of Rev. James E. Grant, the newly elected minister of Churchville Presbyterian Church, was held Sunday afternoon. Rev. Edward Niles, moderator of the Baltimore Presbytery, presided. The sermon was preached by Rev. David Hughes. The charge by Rev. James J. Coale; charge to the minister by Rev. George W. Meade; installation prayer, Rev. W. A. Price.

Common Sense

Many Ford owners can afford to own and operate any car they may choose, but they prefer a Ford "because it is a Ford."

For "because it is a Ford" means dependability, ease of operation, efficiency—and it means sure, quick transportation.

And "because it is a Ford" means good taste, pride of ownership and genuine Common Sense.

The Ford Sedan, a closed car of distinction, beauty and convenience, is the ideal all year 'round car, for pleasure or business—for the farm, town or city. It gives you all that any car can give at a much lower cost for operation and maintenance.

Ford Cars of all types are in great demand, so place your order at once if you wish to avoid delay in delivery.

Thank You -- and we'll merit your approval

The Editorial, "Kells, an Institution," which appeared recently in the Every Evening is no idle compliment. We wish, here, to acknowledge our appreciation. Such words coming to us rural folk from our city contemporary is unusual. That the work of the boys and girls at Kells has been recognized and has received the approval of such an observer prompts us to carry on the work and to make the Real in Craftsmanship more nearly approach the Ideal of our shop. The Head, Heart and Hand in our triangle Imprint is worthy of our best and that it has been appreciated is both compensation and inspiration.

The Craftsmen who study and work at the Art of Printing at the Shop called Kells, express their appreciation to the Editorial Desk of the Every Evening.

Merry Christmas

Christmas is not only an Anniversary, but an atmosphere. It is not just a Day but a season. It is not a celebration, but an attitude of mind. It is a time of the calendar when man is at his best. Christmas Greeting down Sordidness, and brings Smiles; Christmas Gifts defeat Selfishness and encourage generosity, and Christmas Song creates Gladness where Sadness so oft abides. Custom has set aside this season, it seems, for the reconsecration of our lives and rededication of our living. "Good Will toward Men," the season's slogan, sometimes directs our thoughts and energies in the coming year. It's a time when all the world grows younger. Songs and Cheer, Children and Home Comings—there's something about it that lessens the hard materialism of the work-a-day world. It is a time when to feel is grander than to think. It's a time when men dream and are not ashamed, and speak of Ideals and are not afraid. It's a time when Conscience, and Kindness splash joyously over all our deeds—and Love rules indeed.

Back, back, through the Centuries, yonder on the Plains of Bethlehem, the Wise Men followed the Star. And as it lighted them to Him whom Christmas celebrates, so its gleam has shot through the ages and does influence our day and civilization.

A sordid day, a hard world it would be without Christmas Morn. But with it and its growing inspiration and influence, we are approaching the Ideal of Calvary, born on Christmas Day.

So kind friends and neighbors and strangers a-travel, our Greeting! With "Tiny Tim" we say, "God Bless you, every one."

MERRY CHRISTMAS.

Community Christmas

Just another word about the Community Christmas Celebration. While a bit new to Newark it is really a custom of long ago. "Community" is a catch word of the hour but it is not a new word. It was revived during the war. Of late years through our successes and independence, we were beginning to lose sight of the advantages of co-operation and the pleasures of mingling with those about us. Democracy was in danger of being crystallized into castes. Individualism was looming large and was losing a bit of Americanism. Out of the necessities of winning the war, came Community Spirit—and the word Community came again into its own. Various reasons are assigned for our war record. Various personalities and events are awarded the credit. But to us, the philosopher of History will honor the Community spirit, that sprang up from the past, as the determining factor.

A Community Meeting, Sing, or community celebration is localized Americanism. It's an old word and old custom. Back in colonial New England, and Virginia, community affairs inspired and gave success to those days. Back even in old England with its Merrie Christmas and Carol singers, community life dominated rural Anglo Saxon. Community life made our settlements, Community spirit won our Independence and Community Life has defended our Country in every threatened danger. America at its best is Community life in active spirit and co-operation.

So our Community Christmas celebration is of happy omen. Think what Newark could be made to be—if the spirit of this occasion would permeate the days and work of the coming year.

Our best greeting to those who conceived the idea, to those who are planning and working out the details and to all those who attend. The Light of the Ages is reflected in those sparkling bulbs and Good Will toward Men can be made a practical reality as well as a religious creed.

CHURCHES

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN

First Presbyterian Church, like all other institutions, is feeling the Christmas spirit and from now until the first of the New Year, the holiday spirit will be foremost in the minds of the people of the church and Sunday School. Rev. Hallman, pastor of the church, has been working for several weeks on the program and now has arranged one of the finest that the church has ever had.

The children's Christmas Party is to be held in the lecture room tomorrow night, at 7.30 o'clock.

The annual Christmas entertainment which is of an excellent character this year, will be held in the church on Friday evening and the warning that the S. R. O. signs have been dusted off ought to be sufficient. The services of the Sunday School and Church on Sunday will be taken up in the greater part with special Christmas sermons and music.

M. E. CHURCH NOTES

The spirit of Christmas is the prevailing one in the Methodist Episcopal Church this week. The entertainment for the Sunday School Children will be held tonight at 8 o'clock in the church. Old Santa has been there and touched his brush to the surroundings. The decorations are purely in keeping with the times; one feature will be an electrically decorated Christmas tree.

The Sunday services this week will all be of Christmas nature.

At 6.30 a. m. a special Dawn Service will be held, with the preacher speaking on "Christmas and the Home."

At 10 a. m. the Sunday School meets.

At 11 a. m. the regular morning preaching service with the subject, "The First Christmas Congregation."

At 7.30 p. m., the regular evening preaching service with the subject, "The Dayspring from on High."

All the sessions on Sunday will be featured by special Christmas music rendered by the augmented choir.

On last Monday evening the Ushers' Union of the church met and elected six new members into the organization. Authority was given the athletic committee to purchase quilts, basketball outfits and a punching bag.

ST. THOMAS'

St. Thomas' Episcopal Church is already for the observance of Christmas. The program this year is unusually interesting and the result of hard work on the part of the various church members.

Today was celebrated as St. Thomas' Day.

The Girl's Friendly will meet tonight at the home of Mrs. Wright.

Thursday evening at 7.30 o'clock choir rehearsal will be held.

On Friday evening Santa Claus is going to make a visit to the Sunday School pupils and teachers and everyone of them will receive a box of candy from his pack.

On Christmas evening from 11 to 12 o'clock there will be choir singing and the regular sermon.

NEWARK RALLIES

singing in Wilmington on the same night but he has moved his work back in that place so that he might come here and help with the celebration.

A silver star in every window with a light burning beneath it is a symbol that many people of Newark will show this Saturday evening and all who can display this sign in their windows are asked, by the committee in charge of the celebration, to do so. A large silver star will be one of the features of the tree trimming and a searchlight will be played on it throughout the exercises. Messrs. Fader and Wilson are on the committee to look after this end of the exercises and will also have charge of the decorating and the lighting of the tree.

At the meeting last Wednesday evening it was decided to hold the exercises on the Academy lawn instead of the Knoll as had been the first location announced. This change was made to comply with the requests of persons living in the eastern section of the town. After consideration the committee felt that this site was more central and therefore decided to hold the celebration there. A large tree will be erected in the next few days. Mr. E. H. Vogt is the general chairman of the committee.

It fell upon the shoulders of Mayor Frazer to get the services of Mr. White as leader and he found it one of the easiest jobs he ever undertook for the Wilmington man entered into the spirit of the thing as though he had been a citizen of Newark. The mayor also arranged for the purchasing of 500 sheets containing the carols that will be rendered during the exercises.

That music will not be in want is evident as both the Continental and Red Men Bands will be on hand to accompany the singers. Messrs. Hubert and Pryor had charge of this end of the program and found the musicians very willing to give their services.

Harry Bonham is head of the finance committee and Mrs. Cann is conducting the publicity work. Both these workers have found the whole community eager to help to its utmost.

George Moore is looking after the purchasing of the tree which will be paid for, by money subscribed by public spirited men and women of the town.

The carols which will be rendered are "Silent Night," "It Came Upon the Midnight Clear," "Little Town of Bethlehem," "O Come, All Ye Faithful," and "Hark, The Herald Angels Sing."

The Board of Education and trustees of the Academy allowed the use of the Academy grounds.

The school children will take an active part in the program and are to meet at the High School and proceed to the grounds under the direction of teachers who will be in charge. The Choral Club is to meet at the home of Mrs. Cann at 6.30 o'clock.

NEW CENTURY CLUB

"goodies" was like receiving them when "Over There."

The event was termed an "Old Fashioned Party" and that was just what it was with every ex-fighter going back to his kid days and playing and enjoying the games that we have all played and enjoyed. Miss Madge Nickerson led the "fellows" in these old fashioned games and many of the Rehabs thought that they would never remember many of the stunts that were played on Monday night, for the first time in years but they all came back as though they had just been to a party yesterday, where these games had been played.

"Jim" Hastings, one of Newark's fighting sons led in the singing and altho Jim professes he is not skilled in the art of music he got away with his job in tip-top form and every one present joined in the popular songs that constituted part of the program. Miss Elizabeth McNeal accompanied the singers.

Quite a number of the Rehabs were not able to get to the party but they were not forgotten for the ladies of the Century Club had ice cream and cake taken to these lads in their quarters.

The decorations were in keeping with the season and were well commented on. There was dancing.

PEACE ON EARTH

tions are going to take this Christmas back into the realms of the yesteryears when Christmas was a time of giving more than a time of receiving. The latter idea through years has come down to the present generation until Christmas in this country has been commercialized to a greater extent than in any other quarter of the world. But we of the present time are grasping the folly of this idea and are trending back to the customs of the past when Joy ruled supreme.

It is gross selfishness to make December 25 bright for ourselves and yours, unless you consider mankind as yours. It must be remembered that Christmas is the birthday of Him who looks over and guides us all as His own and surely He does mean us to be happy on this of all days while our neighbors suffer.

PAGE GEORGE

Postmaster Bowen has listed the following unclaimed letters: R. T. Baker, William Lewis, Robert Leak, Major Brown, Mr. and Mrs. J. Porter, H. F. Cavendar, George Washington, Ethel Biddle, Earl Reese, Alice R. Knott, Clarence Betts, Harrow Towes, W. T. Atkins, Margaret Helen Johnson.

"George Washington, Newark, Delaware," is on the list of unclaimed letters at the local post office. Local authorities recall the name but are unable to locate him just at this time. He is remembered locally for the part he played around Cooch's Bridge, Mill Town and Brandywine. It is tradition that he was down at Welsh Tract about the time the flag was unfurled. It's hardly likely that any of the British Arms Delegation are looking for him. They have a very unpleasant recollection of his activities.

Postmaster Bowen does not know whether to try and forward the letter to George or not. We knew that the mails were in a pretty bad condition at one time and also have heard of people who have waited two and three years before receiving their mail, but it is hardly possible that the letter in the Newark postoffice has been travelling in the mails since the days of the revolution and so it must belong to some up-to-date George.

A SCOTT FITZGERALD PHILOSOPHER

Jones was up for disorderly conduct at a dance due—er—to a cause. As he sent him away, the Dean put in a little paternal touch.

"It's too much wine, women and song, Jones," he said; "you will have to reform."

"Yes, sir," replied Jones thoughtfully. The Dean was somewhat stunned to read in The Prince, next morning: Jones Resigns From Chapel Choir.—Prince.

PERSONAL COLUMN

On this page appear items of personal, social, church, club and civic interest. Most of the events of special interest to women appear in these columns.

There is a name that has appeared frequently whose work is silenced—Mrs. Cora Hossinger Thompson. She was a friend of the old and young. She had that rare faculty of being sympathetically interested in the work and problems of others and was always offering and giving a gracious and willing aid. Modest and unassuming she was a woman of force and wielded an influence that was unusual. A home-loving character, yet she took her part in civic affairs. Her work during the war was exceptional in its efficiency and devotion. She, by her personality, brought out the best of thought and energy of her friends. Her life was an inspiration. Her influence lives.

Miss Katherine Graybill, connected with the laboratory of the State Board of Health spent the last week-end in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad K. D. Lewis, of Wilmington, were week-end guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert L. Lewis.

Mrs. Paul DeW. Lovett and son, Paul, of Red Bank, N. J., are the guests of her mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Jaquett.

Miss Margaret Cook, of Allentown, Pa., is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Cook.

Miss Alice Leak, of Philadelphia, is spending several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Leak.

Mrs. H. C. Herdman is visiting her sister, Mrs. Ralph Johnston, of Elmere.

Mrs. Alfred Hitchens is being entertained by her daughter, of Newport.

Kent Roberts Greenfield, of Yale, formerly associate professor of history at the University of Delaware, was the week-end guest of Alexander Blair, Jr.

A. B. Ruth, of Stanton, formerly a business man here in Newark, was a visitor this week. Back in the 70's he conducted a drug store on Main Street, which he says has grown up in an astonishing manner.

Mrs. Ray Baldwin has issued invitations for a children's party to be held at her home in Elk Mills, December 28. Several local children will attend.

Miss Alice Palmer has returned to her home in Rehoboth, after spending a week with Miss Mabel Smith.

Dr. Walter Hullihen will spend Christmas at home, but will leave December 28 on a hunting trip through North Carolina.

Dr. G. H. Harter will spend two or three days in Philadelphia and New York during the Christmas holidays.

Dr. W. O. Sypherd will spend Christmas in Dover. The middle of the week he will attend a meeting of Modern Language Association at Johns Hopkins, Baltimore, Md., and will spend New Year's in Atlantic City.

Dr. F. M. K. Foster will spend Christmas at home. He also will attend the meeting of Modern Language Association at Johns Hopkins.

W. A. Wilkinson and family will spend Christmas in Washington as the guests of relatives.

R. W. Thoroughgood and family will spend the holidays in New York.

R. O. Bausman will spend the holidays in Kennedyville, Md.

Miss Betts will spend Christmas at her home in Scranton, Pa.

Miss Matthews will spend Christmas at her home in La Bainsville, Pa.

H. B. Shipley will spend Christmas in College Park and Martinsburg, W. Va.

G. A. Koerber will spend the holidays in Philadelphia.

Leo Blumberg will spend the holidays in Wilmington.

A. G. Wilkinson will spend the holidays in Newark and Boston.

C. S. Rankin will spend the holidays in Newark and Philadelphia.

Dr. W. L. Bevan will spend the holidays in New York.

The following members of the Faculty of the University are spending the Christmas holidays with the other home folk here in Newark: Mr. Koon, Prof. Houghton, Mr. Clark, Mr. Detjen, H. K. Preston, A. D. Cobb, Katherine Woods, M. O. Pence, R. B. Harris, E. C. Van Kuren, Dr. Penny, Dr. Palmer, Mr. Baker, Mr. Upton, Mr. Farr, R. E. Salleski and W. F. Lindell.

Dr. R. W. Heim will spend the holidays at his home in Williamsport, Pa.

E. R. Hitchner will spend Christmas at his home in Woodstown, N. J. During the holidays he will attend a meeting of Bacteriologists in Philadelphia.

Mr. A. E. Tomhave will spend Christmas in Newark, and part of his holidays in Pennsylvania.

Mr. H. G. Dimmick will spend the holidays at his home in Perkasia, Pa.

Mr. Noble will spend the holidays in Philadelphia, Pa.

Prof. H. E. Tiffany and family will spend Christmas with C. C. Brokaw at Fairhill, Md.

Major L. B. Row will spend the holidays in Washington and New York.

Capt. Gabriel Mackenzie will spend the holidays in Hagerstown, Md.

Lieut. S. M. Prouty will spend the holidays in Wilmington and New York.

R. W. Kirkbride will spend the holidays in New Wilmington, Pa., and Cleveland, Ohio.

G. E. Brinton will spend the holidays in Oxford and Lancaster, Pa.

Prof. M. V. Smith will spend the holidays in Newark and New York.

Coach Derby will spend the holidays in New York.

Mr. C. J. Reese will spend part of the holidays in Lancaster, Pa.

Mrs. M. C. Armstrong will spend Christmas at her home in West Grove, Pa.

Miss Dorothy Hawkins will spend Christmas at her home in Wilmington, Del.

Miss Ethel Campbell will spend Christmas with her sister at Farmington, Del.

Dean McCue will be in Toronto, Canada, during the holidays, attending a meeting of American Association for Advancement of Science.

Mr. Claude Phillips will spend Christmas at his home in Delmar, Del.

Mr. Lamkey will spend Christmas at his home in Illinois.

Mr. Alexander Blair will spend Christmas in New York.

Dean E. Laurence Smith will attend a meeting of Modern Language Association at Johns Hopkins, also meeting of National Collegiate Athletic Association in New York, during the holidays.

Prof. Dutton and family will have as their guests over the holidays, Hon. and Mrs. Thomas A. Smith of Ridgely, Md., and Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Smith, Jr., of Newark, N. J.

Holiday Schedule

Superintendent Owens announced today that the schools of Newark will close on Friday and reopen on January 3, 1922.

Master Anderson Hurt

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Anderson, while playing on Sunday, fell and injured his wrist.

Sigma Nu Dance

On last Friday night the Sigma Nu Fraternity of the University of Delaware, gave a formal dance in Old College. About fifty couples were in attendance. The room was decorated in an attractive manner with the colors of the fraternity, black and gold.

Among those in the receiving line were, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Cooch, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Ayerst, Mr. and Mrs. William Kirk, Mr. and Mrs. H. Warner McNeal, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Williams, Miss Winifred J. Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Short and Mr. and Mrs. John Pilling.

Baby Daughter

Congratulations are being received by Mr. and Mrs. Pierce K. Crompton of the birth of a baby daughter.

Invitations Out

Invitations have been issued for a large luncheon and reception to be given by Senator and Mrs. Coleman duPont on December 31st, at their home, 808 Broome Street, Wilmington. Both the reception and the buffet luncheon will last throughout the afternoon for the convenience of out of town guests and others who arrive later than the invitation hour of 1.30.

More Work Starts

Work has started on the new moving picture palace to be conducted by Louis Handloff, the local merchant. The theatre will occupy the site where Mr. Handloff formerly conducted his department store.

To Represent U. of D.

A. D. Wilkinson, of the University of Delaware, will leave here next Tuesday to attend the New England Conference of University Financial Officers. The conference is to be held in Boston.

Christmas Music

A sextette composed of members of the Minnehaha Band will leave the home of C. F. Denney on Saturday night at 12 o'clock and go about the town playing Christmas Carols.

NEWS TID-BITS

The depression that is gripping various parts of the country at the present time was felt last Saturday at Cumberland, Md., when 570 men in the heavy repair shop of the B. & O. Railroad were furloughed indefinitely.

Entry blanks for the twelfth annual exhibit of the Diamond State Poultry and Pigeon Association of Wilmington, have been distributed to the members. The entries will close December 27 and indications are that this year's show will be a banner event.

Wilmington is planning her biggest community Christmas. Already the singers and other participants are well versed in their work.

Rumors were afloat in Newark this week that efforts were being made to have every church bell in New Castle county rung on Christmas Eve at 7 o'clock. No one could be found to confirm this rumor.

A big alcohol haul was made in West Grove, Pa., recently, by State Police. Many gallons were found in a touring car. Several neighboring towns report similar hauls but thus far the bootleggers have steered clear of Newark.

Further efforts to try and locate automobiles at the bottom of the quarry hole near Port Deposit, Md., have been stopped because of the lack of funds to promote the work. One Essex car and several parts from other machines were found before the work was stopped.

Newark might keep up with other towns by placing a Welcome sign at the entrances of the town. Many of the towns in this vicinity have such signs and out-of-the-State motorists are warm in their praise of the same.

With the Christmas season at hand every father and mother is buying, dressing or fixing up dolls and it is an interesting fact to know that dolls were made in Nuremberg as long ago as 1400.

A farmer was in Newark recently and said that with the local busses he hardly thought it safe on Main Street with his horse and team. Wonder what he would do in London where at one point 640 busses pass on an average each hour.

Ceylon exports 14,000,000 cocoanuts each year.

Advance reports on the excellent potato yield through the use of disease-free seed is causing Pennsylvania farmers to order much more good seed for next year's plant.

There is an island called Christmas Island in the Pacific ocean, so called because Captain Cook discovered it on Christmas Day, 1777.

Senator T. Coleman duPont was last week appointed on three committees, being assigned to those on commerce, education and labor, and expenditures in the executive department.

Hairdressing is the leading occupation for women in Japan, no less than 25,000 of them being engaged in this line of work.

A movement has been started in Laurel to have a canal dug from Laurel to Delmar. The route has already been surveyed. Residents of Delmar are anxious to have the waterway extend to the Wicomico River at Salisbury, Md. This would reduce the water trip from Laurel to Salisbury from 100 to fourteen miles. A petition is being prepared for presentation at the next session of the Delaware Legislature.

Small Houses

For the benefit of the small-home builder who cannot afford the cost of individual planning by an architect, there has been incorporated the Architects' Small House Service Bureau of the United States, says Popular Mechanics.

Much more complete plans and specifications for small homes than are otherwise available to their builders have been prepared, and the idea is to market these through regional bureaus in much the same way as a wholesale clothing manufacturer markets his goods. On account of the wholesale nature of its business, the bureau will be able to afford the employment of the very best architectural talent available. The plans are for houses of from two to six rooms and the average cost for each set of plans and specifications will be about thirty-five dollars.

Sport Honors Again Come to Uncle Sam

United States Shows Supremacy in Major Athletic Events of Year

The good old U. S. A. landed on the top of the sport heap again this year. American supremacy was well established in such international events as tennis, track and field events, boxing, golf, polo, motor boat racing, automobile racing and rifle competition.

In all sports of international competition, with the one exception of men's golf, the United States reigns supreme. Even in men's golf honors would seem to rest with Uncle Sam, as Jock Hutchinson took the British pro title, while Mitchell and Duncan failed in this country, but Jock is not American born, and learned his golf abroad.

Here is a partial record of international sports:

Boxing—Jack Dempsey K. O.'d Georges Carpentier, France, 4 rounds. Pete Herman, bantam, K. O.'d Jimmy Wilde, British, 17 rounds.

Men's Tennis—Tilden, Johnston, Williams and Washburn defended the Davis cup against Japan in challenge rounds, winning five straight. Tilden won British title; also world hard court in France.

Women's Tennis—Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory, Norwegian born, but United States citizen, lost to Mlle. Lenglen, France, but when Suzanne came to this country Mrs. Mallory won easily, the French girl defaulting after the first set.

Men's Golf—Jesse Guilford won national amateur title, in which Hunter, British champion, and Tom Amour, Scotland, reached match play rounds. Hunter won British title after elimination of formidable United States team. Jim Barnes won open title. Abe Mitchell, England, did not turn in final score, and George Duncan, England, was well down list. Jock Hutchinson, of Glen View, won British open title.

Women's Golf—Marion Hollis won national title. Miss Cecil Leitch was eliminated in early rounds. Miss Leitch is British champion. Miss Leitch won Canadian title from Miss Alexa Sterling.

International Polo Cup—American team, composed of Devereux, Milburn, Hitchcock, Stoddard and Webb, challengers, lifted the cup, defeating England.

Automobile Racing—Jimmy Murphy, United States, won the Grand Prix, Paris.

Motor Boat Racing—Maple Leaf VII, challenger, sank in races at Detroit, for Harmsworth cup. Miss America II, defending for the United States.

Track and Field—Combined Harvard-Yale team defeated combined Oxford-Cambridge varsity team. Princeton-Cornell team tied with Oxford-Cambridge team. French relay team easily defeated at Penn. relay carnival.

International Rifle Competition—American team won at Geneva, but Swiss, who have won several years in succession, protested that the United States team used artificial aids that had an advantage in sighting, &c.

Swimming—American team composed of Ludy Langer, Kealoha and Harris won principal international events, and set world records in Australia.

PLAN FOR NEXT BASEBALL SEASON

Newark Should Be Represented With Cracker-Jack Team

Newark has proven in the past that a baseball team of class will receive the support of the fans of this town and the outlying districts but the past few seasons have not been up to the standard set when many fast games were staged on local diamonds. Now is the time to get together and organize for the coming season and several prominent young men have been talking lately of starting a campaign to organize a first class team here in 1922.

Neighboring towns are now working along this line and many of the Eastern Shore teams have reported great progress toward next year and have even invited this town to take part in a schedule to be played. But as yet nothing definite has been done, but with a population of several hundred more than some of its competitors, Newark cannot afford to stay "asleep at the switch" much longer.

To make a success of a ball club finances are needed and this is one of the items that looms big in the "Army of Discouragement" and which has kept many local fans from putting a team on the field. This is a big item but other towns have overcome this obstacle and obtained much money toward the welfare of next year and there is no reason why Newark cannot do the same if the proper spirit is installed in the work. A better advertisement for a community cannot be had than a first class ball club and what business man is there, that will not stand behind an organization that is bound to help him. The University of Delaware puts a fast nine on the diamond but the college season comes to a close so early that the real dyed-in-the-wool baseball fans don't consider it a toothful.

Get the ball rolling boys and knock out the eyes of neighboring towns with a championship nine next year.

"Then He Took Up Golf"

This is an off season for golfers, but oh what the local club wielders will do to the course of the Newark Country Club when the season rolls around. It's a long way, in the minds of the golfer, until the weather will be fit for the game but it will be around in short order.

The local course was finished too late this year to be of much playing value but it is now in tip-top form and the members who tee off next year will have laid out for them one of the best golf courses in these parts.

DERBY'S NEW JOB

University of Delaware Coach Now With Wilmington Quintet

S. R. Derby, who coached the football team of the University of Delaware during the past season, is now coaching the Wilmington Collegiate Association's basketball team, which is composed of former college players, including Alexander and McCaughan, members of the best quintet ever turned out at Delaware. The Wilmington five had dropped two games before Derby took charge and in the first game under his guidance the team came through with flying banners.

JACK WILLIAMS CAPTAIN

Local Gridiron Product to Lead Blue and Gold in Football

University of Delaware will be led on the gridiron next year by John D. (Jack) Williams, the line crushing full back of the team this year. The election of a captain for next season's team was held yesterday and Williams was the most popular candidate. It is unusual for a Sophomore to be elected as captain of the eleven but there were no Junior men among those who are letter men and eligible for the office. Williams was "green" material when he turned out for the football team two years ago but in his service with the Blue and Gold he has developed into one of the best line cracking backs ever turned out at the institution. The newly elected captain is a product of Newark High School.

The election took place immediately after the formal presentation of the varsity "D" to first string men of the past season in college hour yesterday morning. Dean E. Laurence Smith, '96, president of the athletic council, gave the letters out. The men receiving them were: Captain Holton, Captain-elect Williams, Akin, Price, McKelvie, Lilly, Schaeffer, Young, Jackson, Rothrock, Hurf, Goffigan, and Manager Louis Roemer.

PROSPECTS OF N. H. S. BASKETBALL TEAM

Coach McDonald Has Hard Proposition to Solve

Coach McDonald, of the Newark High School basketball team, is working hard to get the team in shape for the season.

Although three varsity men have graduated there has been a large number of candidates to report for practice who are showing up well. Captain Hopkins, Henning and Crompton are the only varsity men left from last year. Hayes and Schwartz are out of the game this season on account of injuries received in football a few weeks ago.

The local boys have a hard schedule before them this year. Their first game was played Friday, December 16, with Friends School, Wilmington, the latter team winning 29 to 9. The Newark High boys tussled for the championship of the State last year and are out this year to make a still better showing.

E. H. S. Varsity

Letters Awarded

At the Elkton High School last week Coach Fred C. Hill awarded football letters to those players who competed in eight quarters during the season. Those entitled to the letters were Deibert, Captain; Beers, Dean, Crothers, Dunbar, Kay, Lawrence, McCune, Peterson, Pierson, Skillman, Sparks and Walter, Manager.

After the presentation F. Willard Walter, Manager, addressed the student body, expressing the heartfelt thanks of the team for their earnest support.

Brilliant Electric

Sign Has Few Lights

An electric sign recently tried out with success replaces the individual lamps in the rim of the letter with small mirror reflectors, according to Popular Mechanics. These reflect the light supplied by two 25-watt lamps, placed near the center of the letter and fitted with opaque caps, so as to be invisible from the front. An arrangement of this kind will effect a considerable saving in lamp renewals and current consumption.

The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse

A Rex Ingram Production

"Surpasses Them All"

"Perfect" - "Superlative"

"Words Can't Do It Justice"

"Really Great" - "Wonder Work"

Many of the leading photo-play reviewers confess that they could not express the sense of power and beauty with which they were impressed after seeing "The Four Horsemen." Those who found words tried to outdo each other in voicing their astonished admiration at the Rex Ingram achievement. Their competition in this regard does not bring out to the slightest degree the greatest of this masterpiece of the cinema world.

In an effort to convey to the mind of the public an idea of an unusual picture's impressiveness, producers of photoplays often have resorted to a listing of statistics: a mention of the money spent on it, the gross weight of steel and stone used in structural work, the mileage of the film exposed, and the like.

As well gauge the greatness of a master's painting by the number of tubes of color he has used, as to argue that "The Four Horsemen of the Apocalypse" is the supreme picture play in the screen's history merely because it required over a million to make, a year to photograph, and six months to prepare for the camera.

And so, despite the interest of these off-the-screen facts, we ask you to forget them. The picture can achieve its aim only when you respond in the measure intended to its drama; when you share the joy and the dejection of its people to the fullest; when you thrill as they thrill to the big moments in life; when you, watching their images on the silver screen, veritably live their experiences.

REHABS' DUGOUT

weaved with words than that presented by the veteran who talked from his heart to his former comrades last week.

The speaker told of the character of the men who were taking advantage of the schooling offered by the Rehabilitation Schools and urged on the people at large to look upon these men as coming assets to the country instead of liabilities as has been the case with many of the wounded men of previous wars.

"They hate this hero stuff" was the way Capt. Woodside expressed himself in regard to the many compliments piled on the shoulders of ex-service men. In a brief but vivid manner the speaker told his audience how the Yankees had entered the fray, when the French and other allies thought it was too late, and stemmed the tide of the onrushing Huns.

Captain Woodside after telling of the bloody side of life came down to the present day and told of the conference on the matter of arms, now in session in Washington. He said that he hoped that it would never be necessary for another American boy to offer himself as a sacrifice on the altar of war but urged them to prepare themselves at all times in case they should have to make this sacrifice so that the conditions would not exist as they did in the last war.

The speaker closed his address with the poem "Your Flag and My Flag." He received a big ovation when he took the front of the platform to start his address, but this sounded like a whisper, in comparison with the three lusty cheers he received when he finished.

The most impressive part of the ceremony, although not so arranged was the flying of four doves about the room and finally perching on the large American flag that was part of the decorations. This happened after Capt. Woodside's address. Director Raymond M. Upton told the boys that a large cake would be served and brought the cake to the center of the hall and then proceeded as to cut it but instead took off the top and out flew four doves. After circling the room several times, these symbols of peace, perched on the flag. The matter of doves taking to the flag was not arranged beforehand but proved a hit of the evening. James King, a member of the local school was responsible for the idea of freeing the doves from the cake.

Director Upton delivered the address of welcome and other speakers were President Hulihan, Dean C. A. McCue and members from the Rehabilitation divisions in Philadelphia and Wilmington. Edmund A. Owens delivered the address of welcome for the Rehabs.

The music for the evening was furnished by the University of Delaware Band. Mr. Charles Ernst of the Wilmington Community Service led the body in singing of army and popular songs. Mrs. Van Dera sang several solos accompanied by Miss Edith Braunstein.

The affair was held to introduce the people of Newark and vicinity to the new quarters of the Rehabs in the newly built offices at the rear of Wolf Hall. The quarters are fitted out up-to-date and the large gathering was more than surprised at appearance of the building on the inside.

Before the affair adjourned dancing and refreshments were enjoyed.

in Jacksonville, Fla., last Thursday. From this point they drove by automobile to Palm Beach.

Faculty Club Party

The Faculty Club, of the University of Delaware, held one of its banner events of the season last night, when the Christmas party was held in Old College. The affair was a big success and everyone of the hundred or more present enjoyed themselves from "soup to nuts." Professor G. E. Dutton, president of organization, presided.

Vocal selections were rendered by Miss Eleanor Duffy and Miss Mary Houston. These were well received.

Three-minute talks on Christmas were given by President Hulihan, Dean Robinson, Dean E. L. Smith, Dean M. V. Smith, Dean C. A. McCue and C. S. Rankin. These short talks were one of the features of the program and went over "big."

Dr. W. O. Sypherd read several selections appropriate to the occasion. Christmas carols were sung by the gathering under the direction of Miss Dora Wilcox.

Dancing and refreshments were also on the program.

Review Board Banquet

The directors of The Review, the weekly publication of the University of Delaware, on Monday night, entertained at a banquet in the Commons. The event was one of the best of the college year and every one present enjoyed every minute of his stay. One of the features of the evening was the arrangement of the room, a Christmas tree was placed in the center of a square formed by the festive boards.

Dr. Sypherd read from "Troia." Dr. Foster deplored the fact that literary societies existing on the campus and urged The Review to start the movement to organize a society of this nature.

Dr. Hulihan and Dean E. L. Smith delivered remarks to those present and were well received.

The guests in attendance were: Dr. Hulihan, Dean E. L. Smith, Dean Van G. Smith, Dr. W. O. Sypherd, Dr. F. M. K. Foster, Dr. W. E. Smith, of Wilmington Dr. E. V. Vaughn, Alexander Blair, Prof. G. E. Dutton, J. H. Harper, F. R. Deppe, Coach H. B. Shipley, George Carter, Major Row, J. Paul Winthrop, Charles Carswell, C. O. Houghton and Paul Rinard.

We wish to thank the people of this town and community for their patronage during our short time here. You have shown your appreciation for a store of the different type. We wish to announce that about January 1st we will open the largest and most up-to-date meat department to be found in town, and as to quality and price you are to be the judge. We will make an announcement of the opening date in a short time--watch for it.

We are prepared to fill your needs for the holidays. Plum Puddings, Mince Meat, Fruit Cake, Nuts, Figs, Dates, Filled Figs, Filled Dates, Cider, Candy of every kind, Mechanical Toys of all varieties, Cigars, Cigarettes, and Pipes, in fact, anything you might need to make Christmas merry. Wishing you all a

VERY MERRY CHRISTMAS

Yours

J. R. FULTON, Owner and Manager.
