STOLEN POLICE CAR IS RECOVERED

Thief Abandons Car In Seaford Motor Badly Damaged

With hundreds of cars on the streets of Newark, a thief selected the town's Police car to steal early Saturday morning.

Officer Elmer Morrison was cruising East on Main St. about 1:45 A. M., when the Police red light flashed on denoting that someone was calling the police on the phone. The police headquarters being the closest phone to answer, Officer Morrison drove to the police station and parked the police car along side the office while answering the call. As the officer started to leave the building another call came for the police and while answering this call he heard a car door slam and a car drive off.

When he reached the street to get the car and answer the two calls which called for investigations, he was unable to find the police car. But, like a good officer, he used his own car and after investigating the two calls returned to the police station and sent out a call to the State Police to be on the lookout for the police car.

Word was received from State Police about 7:30 Saturday morning that the car was abandoned in Seaford and had been taken to the Bridgeville Police Station. It was stated that the motor of the car had been badly damaged when the cooling system of the car run dry and the car would have to be towed back to Newark.

At Seaford it was stated that the person who stole the car left it in the middle of the street and jumping out of the police car and made off with another car from that town.

Town officials went to Bridgeville and towed the police car home Saturday. It was stated that the car was insured and the town would be under no expense to have the car put back in shape. The Rittenhouse Motor Company has loaned the police department another car to use until repairs can be made.

CIRCUS DAY IN NEWARK SEPT. 29

Hunt's 3 Ring Circus Now On 51st Tour

Hunt's big three-ring circus is out again, opening at Dameron's Field on Wednesday, Sept. 29 for the fifty-first consecutive year. Retaining the most popular of the famed circus acts, this mammoth show under new canvas this year, proudly presents some of the most amazing of the newest entertainment acts ever to be offered at an outdoor circus.

Over half a century ago, Charles T. Hunt started his first circus on the road. Now, aided in the management by his three sons, all born to the circus, they are bringing their complete troupe to Newark.

Trained animals, dancing elephants, a mole menagerie of wild and strange beasts, a museum of curios collected from all over the world, troupes of acrobats, acrobats, bareback riders, the largest collection of clowns, and now, augmenting the regular circus band will be one of the largest organs ever built for outdoor performances.

"I've always been proud of presenting a real three-ring circus in a manner that wins for us a welcome every time we come back to a town," said the veteran circus man yesterday, "and this year I not only keep up the tradition of my shows, but offer a greater program of entertainment. This is the third big war I've experienced, and I know that in war time a real old-fashioned circus show is one of the finest morale builders that can be offered to the people."

Motor Vehicle Department officials at Eighth Street and Bancroft Parkway foresee probable congestion in the Wilmington office in the last few days of the month. PRACTICE AIR RAID DRILL HELD MONDAY

Dr. Skinner Issues Warning About Gas Attack In Next Test

Newark experienced its first test air raid of the month on Monday night and the test raid came as a complete surprise to the local Civilian Defense personnel.

Mrs. F. A. Wheelless of Orchard Road and her daughter, Miss Estelle Wheelless were at the Warning Center when the Yellow or first warning signal was flashed over the wires at 7:55 o'clock and they immediately began sending out warning calls.

The first Blue signal was flashed to the local Warning Center at 8:23 p. m. and all street lights were put out at once but traffic was allowed to proceed.

The majority of the Civilian Defense personnel received their first warning that a test raid was in progress when the whistles and sirens started to blow and the street lights went out. They at once proceeded to their stations.

The Red signal denoting that enemy planes were supposed to be in this vicinity was given at 8:33 and all traffic was halted and all pedestrians were required to seek shelter.

The second Blue Signal came through at 8:43 at which time traffic was allowed to proceed. The All-Clear was given at 8:53 when the street lights were turned on.

During the test raid a simulated incident was staged at Rose Street and Cleveland Avenue when an unexploded time bomb was supposed to have been dropped at the intersection. The district was blocked off and auxiliary police rerouted traffic around the danger zone until Dr. Glenn S. Skinner and his crew of bomb experts arrived to take care of the bomb and render it harmless.

Dr. Skinner stated last night that the signal warning of a gas attack would be given by householders beating on tin pans. Such signal, he stated, should only be given upon authorization of Civilian Defense personnel.

Dr. Skinner further stated that during the next test raid there would be a test gas attack and all householders should follow instructions contained in the circulars pertaining to Self-Help in Gas Attacks which were recently distributed from door-to-door.

GUILD MEETING TODAY

Needlework Guild Week October 10-16

The Newark Branch of the Needlework Guild of America will meet this afternoon at the home of Mrs. Charles B. Evans, 19 N. College Avenue at 3:30 o'clock when plans will be made for National Needlework Guild Week which has been proclaimed by Governor Walter W. Bacon for the week of October 10-16, at which time there will be an extensive drive for new members.

The requirements for membership is that you should give two, identical, new articles of wearing apparel or household linens, or a donation of money, to the nearest branch of the Needlework Guild.

The Needlework Guild of America was founded in this country 58 years ago, to help the needy of the communities. Today, there are over 700 Branches throughout the country, with one million members.

This means that two million new garments are distributed each year by the Guild to people who need them desperately. Many of the garments have been given out through the American Red Cross, with which the Needlework Guild is affiliated. Others are placed through missions, shelters and relief associations.

New clothes, from the skin out, for a little five year old orphan boy who never in his life before had a brand-new outfit—clean sheets, towels, and pillow slips for a sick and poverty-stricken woman in a hovel of a home—it's in ways like these that the Needlework Guild brings rays of happiness and hope, and plain, everyday comfort into the lives of our less fortunate neighbors.

Defense Council Staff To Meet

The regular monthly meeting of the Staff of the Newark Civilian Defense Council will be held on Monday evening, September 27 at the Elliott Building on Main Street it was stated today by Harry L. Benham, general chairman of the local defense council.

POULTRYMEN FACE FEED SHORTAGE

Garry Miles Offers Hints In Solution

"Will we have poultry feed this winter?" is the foremost question in the mind of every Delaware poultryman this fall. Estimates indicate that livestock numbers have increased about 30 per cent this year, while available feed supplies have decreased about 11 per cent, and the poultry industry will suffer its share of the shortage.

Garry A. Miles, extension poultryman for the Delaware Agricultural Extension Service, reports some possible solutions to this feed shortage problem, worked out at a recent meeting of the Northeastern Poultry Producers Council.

Most practical use of the feed available must be made. So the poultrymen suggested that broilers be marketed at 3 pounds or less rather than fed to heavier weights, since broilers over 3 pounds require more feed per pound of gain. Strict selection of pullets for the laying house should be made in order to take out the marginal producers which are not making the best possible return for the feed they consume. A check of the laying flock should be made each week to remove and sell hens which have stopped laying or are ready to stop.

And there should be no avoidable wastage of the feed supply itself. Feed hoppers should be checked to determine whether or not feed can be scratched out, spilled, or overrun. If there is wastage from the hoppers, remodel or replace them. Store feed where there will be no spoilage, and where rats cannot get to it. Rats eat a lot of feed and waste more.

Mr. Miles says that correction of what appears to be minor inefficiencies may counteract your feed shortage problems.

Oil Rationing Periods Announced by OPA

Periods for use of fuel oil stamps have been set by the OPA. It was announced at the office of Charles W. Hardesty, state OPA director, announced early this week.

The No. 1 stamps are good until Jan. 3; No. 2, from Nov. 30 to Feb. 7; No. 3, from Jan. 4 to March 13; No. 4, from Feb. 8 to Sept. 30; and No. 5, from March 13 to Sept. 30.

There is an overlap for each period of about a month to allow for any delays in delivery.

One unit is at present worth 10 gallons.

DELAWARE'S FARM FRONT THIS WEEK

Support Price On 1944 Pigs Set At $12.50 CWT

Delaware farmers who plan to obtain ground limestone and phosphate as conservation materials in lieu of AAA payments this year should place orders immediately to insure delivery in time for seeding, according to C. E. Ocheltree, chairman of the Delaware AAA Committee.

In an effort to encourage seeding of more winter cover crops and legumes this fall, the AAA recently announced a supplemental production practice allowance available to producers participating in the AAA program to be used for obtaining additional conservation materials. Costs of materials farmers order through AAA are deducted from payments due them under the Agricultural Conservation Program. Farmers can get complete details of the program from County AAA offices.

Use of ground limestone and phosphate is recommended by soil specialists both to increase fertility through promoting heavier growths of legumes and to provide additional pasture for livestock, says Mr. Ocheltree. This year, probably more than ever before, farmers need to give their land all possible protection against erosion and to do everything they can to increase the fertility of the soil, on which depends the production of essential foods in 1944.

In addition to that purchased through regular trade channels, Kent and Sussex farmers have already ordered 120,000 pounds of crimson clover to cover 6000 acres through AAA.

C. E. Ocheltree, chairman of the Delaware USDA War Board, has announced that there is no more corn available at the present time through the Commodity Credit Corporation. Unfilled orders which have been placed with the State War Board will be kept on file to be filled if more corn is available later, and if more corn is made available, announcement will be made through the Delaware Farm Front column.

The support price on hogs sold between October 1, 1944, and March 31, 1945—which means next spring's pig crop—has already been announced by WFA so that farmers can begin to plan for next year. This price is $12.50 per hundred pounds, Chicago basis—$1.25 lower than the present support price—and applies to hogs weighing 200 to 240 pounds.

C. E. Ocheltree, chairman of the State War Board, explains that the purpose of the new support price is to curb farrowings of 1944 pigs and to encourage marketings of lighter weight hogs. Feed limitations make it necessary to use it as efficiently as possible, and there must be plenty for dairy cattle and poultry.

There should be enough to feed out farrowings next spring of about the same numbers as in the spring of 1942—61 million—if the pigs are sold at normal weights instead of at the heavier weights which have been marketed during the past two years. And that will mean that we will have plenty of pork and still not use too much of the available feed producing it.

Newark, Delaware, Thursday, September 23, 1943

TO SET 1944 PRODUCTION GOALS SOON

Representatives of Delaware Agricultural officials will meet soon to discuss possible 1944 food production goals and discuss price supports and conservation measures for immediate food production increases.

They will meet with Washington agricultural officials here in the State instead of attending the regional food production conference which has been held in past years. At these previous conferences, goals for each state have been suggested by national representatives on the basis of national needs. This year each state will figure out its own goals on the basis of production facilities within the state.

At the meeting here in the State, Delaware's agency heads will determine next year's State commodity goals. These goals will represent the group's determination of the maximum contribution which the State can make to wartime food production, bearing in mind the overall needs of the Nation as well as the many factors locally affecting production.

The first step of the procedure for working 1944 goals is now under way in the determination of national needs, based on military, civilian, Lend-Lease, and other requirements.

The Delaware meeting for the establishment of 1944 food production goals and the study of agricultural measures in connection with the food production effort will be called by the State USDA War Board, which includes representatives from the Delaware Agricultural Extension Service, the Agricultural Adjustment Agency, Farm Security Administration, Soil Conservation Service, Forest Service, Farm Credit Administration, and other state and federal agencies.

FERTILIZER OUTLOOK BRIGHTER

Although the fertilizer outlook for 1944 is more encouraging than it was last year, the supplies are still limited and there will continue to be restrictions on the quantities which farmers can buy for their crops.

The restrictions for the 1944 crops will be based on pounds of fertilizer per acre rather than on pounds of nitrogen. This new basis is provided in a revision of Food Production Order No. 5. Restrictions will again follow recommendations of the Agricultural Experiment Station in each state in order to insure most efficient use of available supplies.

Revised grades and rates of application for Delaware in line with the revised order have just been prepared by C. E. Phillips, forage crop specialist for the Delaware Agricultural Extension Service, and E. P. Brasher, truck crops specialist. These recommendations indicate the quantities of plant food available in the different grades and the fertilizer recommended for use on each crop.

In order to simplify fertilizer purchases, these recommendations have been supplied to every manufacturer and distributor of fertilizer in the State so that he can work out with the individual farmer the amount of fertilizer which can be used for each crop.

DAMAGE FROM PEACH TREE BORER AVOIDABLE

Delaware peach trees need not suffer serious damage from the peach borer every year, says Harvey L. Chada, extension entomologist for the Delaware Agricultural Extension Service. Sometimes young peach trees are completely girdled and die, and older trees are so lowered in vitality that their resistance to disease and other insects is lowered.

Chada says the most satisfactory control of the peach borer has been obtained by using paradichlorobenzene in the fall at the end of the egg laying period. Apply the "PDB" crystals in a continuous band about 1 or 1 1/2 inches wide around the tree and 1 or 1 1/2 inches from the trunk, not allowing the crystals to contact the trunk. Rates of application vary with size or age of the tree. For trees 1 to 3 years old, about 1-4 to 1-2 ounce should be used; for those 4 to 5 years old, 3-4 ounce; for trees 6 years and older, 1 ounce; and for unusually large trees, 1 1/2 ounces or more.

After the chemical has been placed around the tree, several shovelfuls of soil should be packed over it to prevent surface loss of the gas. About four to six weeks after the application has been made—when it has had time to do its job—or early next spring, the mounds should be torn down and the ground leveled so that the next generation of borers will not enter the trees higher up on the trunk.

Now is the time to make those applications, says Mr. Chada. The female moths lay eggs on trunks and lower branches of the trees during the summer, and upon hatching the larvae drop or crawl to ground level and bore directly into the bark or enter cracks and begin to feed. Damage is caused by the feeding of the borers on the growing tissues, usually on the trunk just below the surface of the soil, although the larger roots are sometimes attacked. The fumes of the PDB kill the borers, which are now beginning to go into the trees. The chemical is less effective after the soil temperature drops below 60 degrees F, because little of the crystals change to a gas below this temperature.

VACATION VITAL TO MILK COWS

To keep up good milk production during her next lactation period, a cow needs to have a vacation or dry period of about 60 days before calving.

Only the good cow that milks persistently throughout the year has to be checked or "dried up" so that she can get this vacation. The average cow "goes dry" earlier than the owner desires. However, for those cows which must be checked, it is important to do the job properly.

The Department of Animal and Poultry Industry at the University of Delaware advocates just one method of drying up a cow, according to Prof. T. A. Baker—stop milking her.

Prof. Baker says that this simple method has been used in experiment station herds all over the country, and herdsman in some of the leading commercial herds have been using it with success for years.

Many farmers will not believe that such a simple method can be satisfactory. They believe that if the milking of the cow is stopped abruptly, the udder will fill up and burst.

As a matter of fact, when an udder fills up the milk producing mechanism is abruptly checked and there will be no further milk production. The milk that is in the udder will gradually be absorbed.

The act of milking stimulates the flow of milk, so the cow cannot be dried up properly by milking her at less frequent intervals.

The continued bombing of Germany will eventually bring Hitler to his last days.

How About That!

How About That!

It's always a new source of surprise to me—that so many people should be proud of so many different home states, accents, ways of doing things.

At the very least, it means lots of people singing nostalgic ditties like the presently popular "Wanna Go Back to West Virginia" or the older "California, Here I Come", "Sidewalks of New York".

When people can't be in their local "Garden of Eden", they try to transplant a couple of shoots in their old territory. They order the town newspaper, they look up the people who may have been within shouting distance back home, they turn out for the types of celebrations that restore memories of home—whether it's clam-bakes, cocktail parties—or a West Virginia Jamboree.

I remember being in Constitution Hall in Washington, D. C., when Benny Goodman gave it its first injection of a swing orchestra. It seemed that the local dowagers were content to nod their heads slowly to the music. But the kids who saved swing records, subscribed to "Down Beat", recognized the clarinetists in every band in the country, were very much at home and grinned with a "That-really-is-solid" expression.

At a West Virginia Jamboree held in Elkton recently, the people who were at home to gettar-playing, the shuffle of a square dance, the unemotional sing-song of the figure-caller filled the Hollingsworth Recreation Hall and listened untiringly to the nasal chants that seem (to the "furriner") to be made out of one musical recital.

Tonight, at the Century Club, war workers from square-dancing backgrounds (newly acquired or inbred) have been invited to the New Century Club to hear and dance to the Arizona Rangers. It should have all the ingredients of a package from home.

They Call Themselves "Musicals"

If you probe around sympathetically, you'll find lots of talent in the community of gals away from home.

The latest hobby to be tapped was four-part singing and the early scores show good results.

Those now signed up for singing modern music in harmony are: Vivien Janney, Dorothy Drake, Ruschia Music, Julia Adams, Thelma Skaggs, Evelyn Torrisi, Faye and Betty Perry, Millie Stuzman, Lorraine Tobin, Georgena Stuart, Martha Murray and Mickey Saunders.

Aside from the Charlie-horses that accompany stretching "haven't-bowled for years" muscles, the odds are in favor of fun for war workers—male and female—who turn out for that sport at the Legion Bowling Alley.

Triumph workers will play Wednesday nights—and leagues will be whipped into shape as soon as some of the converts learn the formula for downing pins.

Afternoon Services At The Head of Christiana Church

Services will be held in the afternoon at the Head of Christiana Church on Sunday, September 26. Sunday School will begin at 1:30 p. m., and the church service will be held at 2:30 p. m.

Harold L. Stanley, superintendent, will have charge of the Sunday School hour. The topic for discussion will be the International S. S. lesson "Abiding Values From Israel's History."

A special Rally Day program will be presented at the church service with the theme centering about the word "Rededication". The choir will present several appropriate musical selections, and the pastor Rev. Evan W. Renne, will speak on the topic, "Our Heavenly Father's Business".

The first Sunday in October, is World Wide Communion Sunday. On that day, at the morning worship hour at 11 o'clock, the regular quarterly communion service will be held, with reception of new members.

SURE SHOT

Monday afternoon the local firemen were called to Polly Drummond Hill to extinguish a field fire. Some of the members of the company were much surprised when Sureshot grabbed a broom and started over toward the fire. They were afraid possibly that I was going to break the broom. They were sure that I would not use it to put out the fire with. As a rule Sureshot does not like to put out field fires but he figured that there might be a lot of bunnies burned up and the local gunners would not have much game to shoot at.

Well, folks, shortly after returning home from this fire we were called to George Read Village where there was another field on fire. This time Sureshot did not use a broom. He used a shovel.

On the way home from the last fire George Neighbors who was driving the fire engine stopped the apparatus to keep from running over a kitten. Safety of life is one of the mottoes of the local firemen, even to the lives of cats.

The most important topic of the week is the fact that the Newark Police car was stolen early Saturday morning. There have been many stories circulated about the town regarding the stealing of the police car, most of which are unfounded. It was even said by some that one of the town officers was asleep in the back of the car.

Now Sureshot investigated the case and he can assure you one and all, the town officers don't sleep while on duty. If you don't believe that, try and pass a Red light and see if you are not requested by one of those On-The-Job boys to visit the judge.

The stealing of the town police car was just unfortunate. Some years back I had my car stolen and the same officer who was on the job Saturday morning was on the job the night my car was stolen and he did everything an officer should do to try and recover my car.

Seriously cars are too hard to get now to have them stolen and the sooner the practice is broken up, the better. Our police department is no joke and the person responsible for trying to make a joke of it by running off with the cars should be apprehended and punished. Car thieves and Hoss thieves should both be punished by hanging by the neck until he ceases to kick.

League bowling will get off to a bang-up start this Friday night when the Friday Nite league opens up.

Was just talking with members of the Newark Rotary Club and Nelson Seiber, publicity director of the club stated that the Rotary will again be bowling in the Friday Nite league and expect to lick the pants off all comers. Now that is some order, but with such bowlers as Doc Tiffany, Russ Silk, Hank Krages, George Jackson, Sam Handloff and himself the club should do real good. Seiber stated that they would like to have Al Deck bowl with them again this year (if he can let the chickens alone, long enough).

The Rotary Club may not have everything all their own way it has been stated by other clubs that will be in the league. Milford Cross Roads will have a team; the Masonic lodge will again be on the job as well as the Danita organization. A new team this year will be Minnehaha Tribe of Red Men. Paleface teams had better watch out or those Redskins may creep up on them and then scalps would fly.

The Monday Nite league is said to have formed and are expected to be gin rolling this coming week. The Tuesday Nite league is not fully scheduled as yet but Jim Megilligan, manager of the alleys stated that the Wednesday Nite league is just about made up.

On Thursday evenings Megilligan stated there will be an All-Girl league when the ladies and girls of the town will have a chance to strut their stuff. Last Saturday several girl bowlers were at the alleys and they did real well. Alice Fulton rolled 133; Alberta Brierly scored 129; Betty Foster's score was 141 and then there was Adeline Foster with a score of 161. I am not sure if it was 16 or 161 so we will give her the benefit of the doubt.

Ace Aiken was at the alleys Saturday night and he was doing all right: 173-188. John Lawrence the new teacher at the local school was bowling with Ace and his score was just 68.

Newark's test air raid and blackout was completely wrecked this week when B. & O. railroad trains pulled into the local station with their lights blazing merrily despite the fact that all business places and households are required to be in total darkness. There Ain't No Justice. Now, something should be done about that. They are no better than anyone else and if they can't blackout they should stop running.

Sole Leather Supplies For Civilians Increased

The War Production Board has moved to correct "an acute shortage" of sole leather for civilian shoe repairs by ordering 25 large leather-cutting firms to divert substantial portions of their output to civilian channels.

The order said the leather to be diverted will somewhat exceed the average monthly deliveries to shoe repairers during the 1937-41 period.

Reduced hide production and military and lend-lease demands caused the sole leather shortages, WPB said. The supplies to be channeled for civilian use will be diverted largely from lend-lease stocks.

PIGEON DIES ON SPOTTING POST VISIT

Leg Bands Only Identification Of Dead Bird

An unidentified, slate colored, carrier pigeon flew into the Possum Park Observation post Tuesday afternoon, looking travel worn and fatigued. Alighting meekly on the observation platform, the pigeon huddled in a corner and died within a few minutes.

James M. Barnes and Samuel E. Dameron, on duty during the four to seven o'clock shift Tuesday afternoons, noticed and commented on the bird but noticed no signs of illness. They were surprised to see it slump and die without displaying any symptoms other than fatigue.

Upon examination, the spotters found the pigeon wore two leg bands—one circular band obtained only by cutting off the bird's foot, bearing the legend "AU 43, W 2211". Another slightly thinner band bearing simply the numerals "0 8470" was clamped around the bird's other leg.

The pigeon's owner may have the bands by calling for them at the office of the Newark Post. Incidentally it would be interesting to know just who did own this bird and where it came from.

Lieut. E. F. Moore of Indianapolis who lectures motorists on how to avoid accidents, recently reported a collision between his police car and another automobile.

SOLDIER'S DOG IS REJECTED FOR SERVICE

Corp. Wilson Offers Dog; Too Young For Service

Shortly before returning to camp Corporal Ralph Wilson, a member of the 198th Coast Artillery who recently returned to the United States from Bob Cat Island, offered his Chesapeake Bay Retriever, "Dogwood" for active service with the armed forces.

Due to the fact that the dog was too young Corporal Wilson was informed that it was not eligible for active service. It was stated that the organization in charge of dogs for active duty regret that they cannot use this dog.

The official requirements for dogs needed for active duty are as follows: Dogs may be purebred or cross-bred—must not be less than 20 inches high at the shoulder—weight at least 50 pounds—must not be storm shy or noise shy—must not be one year or more than five years old.

Five more dogs have been enlisted in "Dogs For Defense" and one cat has also been signed up during the past week it was stated by Mrs. H. C. Boden, in charge of local recruiting. Mrs. Margaret D. Cann, South College Avenue has enlisted her Fox Terrier Buster II as a Chief Petty Officer in the Navy. Mrs. Cann's dog is eight months old and was recently injured resulting in having to have a leg amputated. Mrs. Cann states that despite the loss of one leg the dog can still jump a hedge.

"Matey" an English Setter, owned by Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Hanson, Orchard Road, has been enlisted as a Second Class Petty Officer in the Navy. "Mugsey", a female Gordon Setter, owned by the R. Rogers Fouracre children, Townsend Road, has been enlisted as a Seaman in the Waves.

JACKETS RECEIVE INTENSIVE WORKOUT

Joe Talucci Elected Captain Of Team

Newark High School's football team has been put through some intensive practice this week on the school athletic field by Coach Roland Jackson. The boys have been instructed in both offensive and defensive plays and while it is always a hard job the first part of the season to whip together a new team Coach Jackson seems to have the whole-hearted support of all the boys who are out for the team.

Yesterday afternoon the team held an election and Joseph Talucci, a senior and president of his class was chosen to lead the team in their short schedule.

Another game has been secured and it was stated that the Yellowjackets will play Wilmington Friends School on the later gridiron, Friday, October 15.

Coach Jackson will have two fast youngsters in the tailback position in Len George and Brandon Davis, both of whom look good in practice. At the halfback spots will be Walter Martin, Bill Hamilton, Jay Williams, Roger Holton and Robert Casho with Byard Widdoes and George Getty as reserve backs.

Louis McCormick and Donald Griffin will act as quarterbacks.

Out for ends are: Buddy Cataldi, Corbet Vansant, Robert McHenry, Gerald Gilston, Gilbert Walker and Harvey Gregg. Tackles will be: Leon Ryan, John Hamilton, Marvin Butler and Francis Crossan.

Guards are: Henry Hammond, Graham Lomax, Kenneth Beers, Nelson Lee and Anthony Gaskiewicz with the two Talucci boys, Joe and Sammy at the center spot.

Hawthorne Top Jockey Set Down for 10 Days

Tony Skoronski, leading jockey in the current Hawthorne meet with 16 winners faces the possibility of losing out in the race for top riding honors after being set down for a 10-day period on Tuesday.

Skoronski drew the suspension for cutting across the field too sharply in the seventh race, in which he piloted Volcano to second place. Jockey H. Carden, who was up on Lum's Pride, the favorite, was fined $25 for striking Tony with his whip.

It had been an active day for Skoronski. He started the day by steering Azimuth to victory in the first half of the daily double and was tossed from his horse, Yar, in the sixth event.

DEEP WELL WATER PUMP BOUGHT AT NEWPORT

Defense Council Concentrating On Third War Loan Campaign

Newport, Sept. 23rd — The Newport Defense Council is making a concerted effort to go "over the top" in their bond drive during the coming week in the Third War Loan Drive.

The Bond Committee got into full swing Monday evening when all workers were mobilized at their section headquarters, from which point they started their house-to-house canvass for bond pledges.

The Crest Theatre of Woodcrest is cooperating with the Newport Council, and has arranged a special movie performance for Sunday evening, Sept. 27th. The admission to the show will be the purchase of a bond. At the performance, there will also be two speakers who will speak; one from the Newport Council and the other from the local business community.

The Newport Town Board at a special meeting this week purchased a deep well pump at a cost of $102.00. This purchase was necessary in order to obtain adequate water supply for the town. Using a test pump, it was determined that the town had obtained 50 gallons per minute continuously for 24 hours a day for 7 days. This would give a supply of 72,000 gallons a day, which is ample, as the total consumption is approximately 35,000 gallons a day. The Town Board recently developed a new well at an approximate cost of $2,000. They will continue to develop further wells to assure residents of the town of a plentiful water supply.

The Woman's Club of Newport will hold their annual Flower Show on Thursday, Sept. 23rd, with Mrs. S. C. Jones, Chairman in charge.

The Women's Society of Christian Service of the Newport Methodist Church sponsored a Fellowship Supper in Wednesday evening, when members and friends of the church were guests. Full activities were discussed and a program was enjoyed.

Book of War Bonds and Stamps was presented at the Krebs School this week under the direction of Mrs. Ben-Jack K. Bogis, War Bond Chairman, and the total sales amounted to $538.25. These grades were 100 percent in their purchases, namely Miss Edith Patterson sixth grade; Mrs. F. L. Wharton's seventh grade and Mrs. Margaret Ford's seventh grade. Weekly sales will be conducted at the school. These children made an outstanding record last year.

Mrs. F. L. Wharton's seventh grade of the Krebs School elected officers this week, as follows: President — Buddy Draper; Secretary — Janet Berry; Treasurer — Ralph Ruth, Jr.; Program Chairman — Thomas Dempsey.

Mrs. Dorothy Pyne's third grade of Krebs School elected officers this week, as follows: President, Betty Altman; Vice President, Rodney Harper; Secretary, Charles Goudy; Treasurer, Billy Dunn.

Pupils of the second grade of the Krebs School, under the direction of Miss Jane Lynam, teacher, have completed Leaf Booklets in their nature studies. The children collected the leaves while on hikes and have arranged and identified them in their binders.

Kindergarten pupils at the Krebs School, under the direction of Mrs. A. M. Mann have been studying primary story this week.

Newport Boy Scout Troop No. 73 met Friday evening in the Krebs School with 42 members present. They reported on an over-night hike enjoyed this week to Thompson's Bridge. At night they enjoyed campfire, and had a watermelon surprise party and a scavenger hunt. The various patrols of the troop have resumed meetings and are planning activities for the winter. At New Year's they plan a visit to Brown's Lodge near Camp Rodney for a two day stay.

No Lawn Can Be Better Than The Feed and Seed you give it For Goodness Sake—Use SCOTTS LAWN SEEDS Full Value Plant Food Furnished and Applied by WILLIAM HOMEWOOD DEAN Landscape Service Newark, Delaware

LAST winter was hard on field seed production—a lot of it was winter killed during the severe weather. Along with the weather, labor shortages and increasing Lease shipments have cut down on supplies available to patrons. Some seed stocks are going to be very short—particularly legumes. Southern States seed men report that Red, Mammoth and Alsike Clover will be on the short side... alfalfa will be scarce... and the supply of Crimson Clover will be about 20% smaller than last year. Vetch and Rye Grass supplies are also limited... and small grain seeds are definitely short. All this emphasizes the importance of ordering seed early. Talk over your plans now with your local Southern States Cooperative Service Agency and book ahead for your own protection.

Once you've had a good dose of the Red Measles, you don't have to worry about them from then on. That's what happens to Clover and Anthracnose disease. Clover that's grown in the Mid-western and Eastern states where Anthracnose is prevalent develops a resistance to this disease. That's why all Southern States Clover Seed is selected from the Anthracnose belt. This Anthracnose-resistant Clover Seed is clean, hardy and highly resistant to injury from this disease which is common to Southern States territory.

Remember, feed starts with seed. Through Southern States Cooperative which had its beginning in 1923 as the Virginia Seed Service, farmers have been providing themselves with high quality adapted seed for the past twenty years.

IT'S A FACT! that farmers who purchase Southern States Kem-Fee treated seed will get up to six extra fast-germinating quarts in every bushel at no extra charge.

dent. The adult classes will study the regular inter-national S. S. lesson "Abiding Values from Israel's History."

The mid-week prayer service will be held at the Red Men's Home on Wednesday night at 8 o'clock. In the absence of Rev. Cross, the speaker will be Sanders Campbell, a senior at Faith Seminary.

Rev. Cross and his wife will return for the services on October 10 after spending a vacation with their parents in Scranton, Pa.

Auto Destroyed by Fire On Elkton Road Saturday

The Newark firemen were called Saturday afternoon when an automobile owned by Chester Wilt of Elkton, Md., caught fire opposite the farm of Robert Weimer on Elkton Road about two miles south of Newark.

By the time the firemen arrived, the car, a model A Ford Coupe, was a mass of flames — the gas tank having exploded.

NEW RATION BOOK TO BE ISSUED SOON

Book No. 4
Designed To
Last Two Years

War Ration Book Four, for use beginning in November and designed to last at least two years, was explained Monday by the Office of Price Administration.

The new book, it was announced, will be issued at a nationwide school-house registration the last 10 days of October, and will combine point and unit stamps. There will be 384 stamps, printed in blue, red, green and black.

The red and blue stamps will be used in conjunction with red and blue tokens, to be introduced early in 1944 and given as change in stamp expenditures for meat, dairy products and processed foods.

The green stamps will be used on an "interim basis" with blue processed food stamps, much in the manner the brown stamps of book three are now being used in the meats-fats program.

Twelve of 96 unit stamps, printed in black, are designed for sugar. The same number are marked for coffee, which no longer is rationed. These and 72 others marked "spares" will be reserved for any additional foods rationed, OPA said.

Use of the new book for two years compares with four or five months for earlier ones. But the cost of printing and distributing book four—about $1,500,000—will be about the same, OPA stated.

Exact times and places of the school-house registration, arranged because of lack of time for a mail distribution, will be announced later, OPA explained, as regional offices complete their plans.

$181,475 IN BONDS PLEDGED

Far Short
Of Quota

Newark's Third War Bond Drive has netted $181,475 it was stated last night by George L. Townsend III, general sales manager for the campaign.

This figure is far from the quota of $700,000 but Mr. Townsend has stated that with the proper effort on the part of all Zone Captains and their workers in going after the many smaller sales that are possible from persons of moderate means the figure will greatly increase.

It was also stated by Mr. Townsend that sales reported from the local Post Office were well ahead of last year and it is believed if everyone gets behind the drive for the remaining days that Newark will reach its goal.

The third turn-in night is scheduled for Monday, September 27 at the Elliott Building on East Main Street when all Zone Captains are urged to make complete reports of their sales and pledges.

Ackie Stiltz
Writes Newark Post

Dear Friends,

Just a few lines to say hello and thank you for sending me the Post as I certainly do appreciate reading it. So far, I have received about four issues. I had quite an experience—I was working down town and I met Lt. John Applegate—I imagine Johnny was as glad to see me as I was him. I like Sicily better than I did North Africa. Maybe I was there at the wrong time of year. The heat was terrific at times—120 degrees. Flies and ants usually took over wherever we were. Everywhere we went the Arabic kids cried, "Smoky-smoke or 'boom-boom'—Cigarettes or candy." Sicily is much better. We can buy plenty of grapes, canteloupes, watermelons, and almonds. Everybody must have a garden as they all sell these. Here the kids cry, "Caramella—Cigarettes Pal!" even the grown folks. Last night we heard Italy had surrendered and really was a thrill for all. The church bells rang, the Italians were singing and shouting, and we were all saying "Home by Christmas"—we hope. Sure miss Newark and everyone. I am with a good outfit and am doing the work I did before I came into the Army. Really swell. Drop me a line and I will answer any questions you might have.

Thanks again,
A Newarker—Ackie.

COMPLETES OCS COURSE

Robt. F. Wideman
Made Lieutenant

Robert F. Wideman, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Wideman, 44 Prospect Avenue, has successfully completed the officer candidate course at the Anti-Aircraft Artillery School, Camp Davis, N. C.

Second Lieutenant Wideman received his commission last Thursday. After a short furlough he will resume his duties in the Anti-Aircraft Artillery.

The Anti-Aircraft Artillery School is one of the most difficult officer candidate tests in the Army. Not only do candidates have to meet high standards of leadership necessary to all officers, but they must be able to master and put into practice the complicated technical art of anti-aircraft artillery.

Their studies and practical work involve mainly the means and actions by which swift flying enemy aircraft can be shot down or kept from successfully performing bombing missions.

prizes for the best crop and poultry exhibits.

The work program for the coming year will be entered in a national contest whereby the Chapters will be judged on what they plan and how well they carry out their program. The main factors in determining the winners will be by a scrapbook kept containing newspaper clippings, snapshots and stories about the boys and their activities.

Vernon Connell represented the local chapter at the regional public speaking contest held at Rutgers University, New Brunswick, N. J. He was the county and state winner from Delaware.
