College Park Driveway Repair Scheduled With Condemnation

Council Approves Request by Property-Owners Majority For City Repair, Maintenance Of Rear Drives; Church Seeks Access Thru City Tract; Canvassing Laws Tabled

With 118 of 181 College Park property owners agreeing to convey roadways in the rear of houses in the development for city repair and maintenance, Newark City Council approved condemnation proceedings to complete the project "as soon as possible" at last Monday night's regular meeting.

Reporting that Section IV in College Park "is one of the worst sections insofar as need" is concerned, City Manager Stiff said, "Just like the Burma Road. My suggestion is that we proceed to encourage signatures and try to get in there and get the people out of the mud by some means." Out of 48 property owners in the section, nine have not agreed to convey the drives to the city for repair and maintenance, Stiff reported.

"I think we should start on Section IV and proceed with condemnation," Stiff added.

City Solicitor Clyde M. England, Jr., affirmed that "properties will have been benefited by what is being done," and Councilman David H. Doehliert's proposal "that we begin condemnation for the entire project and that work begin as soon as possible" was approved.

Stiff said it is "doubtful if we could do the major portion of the project this year."

Church Access

A delegation from the First Assembly of God Church, denied access by the state from Old Capitol Trail to their Windy Hills property, requested use of the city driveway at the water tower.

"I think this is a State Highway Department problem," Councilman Olan R. Thomas said, opposing church use of city property.

"I don't think the church will deprecate property values," Thomas said, adding that he would like to see the city assist in getting access to Capitol Trail.

The estate has denied access because of "a serious traffic condition if people have to come out on Old Capitol Trail," he reported.

The Rev. Thomas Lazar, pastor of the church now located at Lovett Avenue and Benny Street, said that the congregation had outgrown its facilities, necessitating the move to the Windy Hills property.

"This site was purchased on the state highway, the church thought it had access to the property, a spokesman said.

"Is access going to be denied?" Councilman Doehliert asked. "I have heard this is good reason to go to court," he said.

Reporting that the congregation had "exhausted all possibilities" other than litigation, Attorney Jacob Balick said that any litigation would be against the state.

Protestor

Martin Gronka, a resident of Windy Hills with property abutting that of the church, objected to proposed access through city water tower property because necessary "relocation of property will require tearing up of adjoining property."

He pointed out that two concerned owners "are living on limited income," Gronka said that the church has not "exhausted all possibilities—there are people who would like to purchase their property."

Doehliert said that traffic committee had recommended church access at the water tower, and urged "fairness—this committee granted access to a couple of other property owners there. I move that the petition be granted, with paving to be completed before construction begins, and that church to pay full costs, and that sidewalk be provided." But his motion failed to receive a second.

Councilman Frank J. Osborne, Jr., proposed that an engineering report be prepared on feasibility of access through city property, at a cost not to exceed $300, and this motion was approved in a 6-1 vote over Thomas' dissent.

Committee Appointments

Clarence I. Kuntz was appointed to the bi-racial committee for the unexpired term of Evan Seymour through next Feb. 1, with Seymour's move from the state, and Fal V. Jones was appointed to a three-year term as a member of the parks and recreation advisory committee, effective last Sept. 16, succeeding Kennedy Hall.

Clarence Taylor was reappointed solicitor for the Newark Planning Commission, and Joanne Perry was appointed as secretary, pending adoption of the 1968 municipal operating budget.

Paul Pristavek, Jr. Wins Dolphins As Submariner

Storekeeper 3/C Paul P. Pristavek, Jr., USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pristavek of 34 Mavista Circle, Fireside Park, Newark, has earned the right to wear the Silver Dolphins of a submariner—a crew member aboard the nuclear-powered submarine USS James Madison.

His submarine qualification was granted after he demonstrated proficiency in the operational system of his submarine.

The James Madison is one of the United States Polaris missile firing submarines, and is homeported at Charleston, S.C.

Mack Emmert Named Secretary For Local C. of C.

Navy Air Corps Vet. Aide For W. W. Laird, Lecturer To Receive $11,000 Salary

Mock Emmert, a professional lecturer, and administrative assistant at the University of Delaware, served with the U.S. Navy Air Corps 1943-46; participated in the NROTC program at Penn State, 1948-49, and was commissioned an ensign in the U.S. Navy.

He received a BA degree in commerce and finance with highest honors at Penn State in 1949, and his master's degree in business administration from Harvard in 1951.

He attended the University of Wales in Great Britain in 1951-52 on a Rotary Foundation Fellowship, and was named by the Jaycees as "Delaware Young Man of the Year" in 1959.

Emmert was employed with the DuPont textile fibers department in marketing, research, and sales development, 1953-56, before joining the Laird organization.

With W. W. Laird, he led a re-development program for the Island of Symi, Greece.

Valley Forge Leader New Shue School Dedication Slated Sunday, Nov. 19

Dr. Kenneth D. Wells.

The Wilmer E. Shue School at 1500 Capitol Trail will be dedicated Sunday, Nov. 19, at 2:30 p.m. in ceremonies to be held in the school cafeteria.

The principal speaker at the dedication of the building to honor the late Superintendent of Schools Wilmer E. Shue will be Dr. Kenneth D. Wells, president of the Freedoms Foundation at Valley Forge.

Dr. Wells attended the University of Akron, Northwestern University, the University of California, and the California Institute of Technology, and has been awarded degrees by Temple University, Florida Southern, Trinity College, Texas Christian University, and Salem College.

Among his awards are the National Association of Foremen Award "for outstanding contribution in the advancement of human relationships in industry," the Honor Citation of the Military Order of the Purple Heart "for meritorious and conspicuous service to community and fellow citizens," the Gold Medal of Merit of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States "in recognition of his dedication to the principles of Americanism," and Distinguished Service Medal "for stimulating public appreciation of democratic Americanism."

Wells is a trustee of the American Humanities and the National Scholarship foundations; a member of the National Court of Honor, Boy Scouts of America; and of the national advisory board, Invest in America.

Presiding at the dedication ceremony will be Dr. George V. Kirk, superintendent of Newark schools.

The Rev. R. Jervis Cook of the Newark Methodist Church will deliver the invocation and benediction, and Cheryl Walker, William George, and Barbara Harrington, Student Council leaders at Newark's other three junior high schools, will present a portrait of Wilmer E. Shue to the school.

The portrait will be accepted by Albert H. Jones, president of the Newark Board of Education.

The man in whose honor the school is being dedicated will speak on the program, and the Wilmer E. Shue School Band under the direction of Philip H. Taylor will perform at dedication ceremonies.

YWCA Ladies Day Events Scheduled For Wednesdays

Wednesday is a special day for ladies at the Newark YWCA, with weekly luncheon guest speakers, followed by a swim in the new pool.

The swim can be a relaxing dip, or a corrective clinic with Red Cross instructors giving pointers with individual stroke instruction.

Something for all features is an introduction to rhythm swimming with Ruth Vossell.

The time for the swim special is from 1 to 2:30 p.m. every Wednesday thru Dec. 13.

The homemakers evening program include figure toning and swimming. Exercises will be introduced by Janet Chance from 7:30 to 8:30, and there will be a swim from 8:30 to 9:30 p.m.

Another Wednesday evening special is a modern dance class offered by Mrs. Elizabeth Miles from 8:30 to 9:30 p.m. thru Dec. 13.

700 New Items Of Clothing Contributed For Needy In Needlework Guild Program

The annual business meeting and in-gathering of the Newark Branch of the Needlework Guild of America was held at the Newark Senior Center last Friday, and Mrs. John Sinclair, president, reports that 700 items of new clothing were contributed during the October drive.

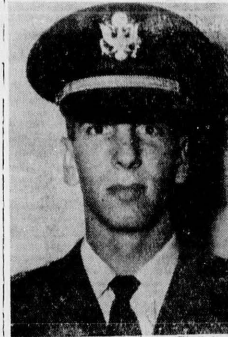

While the Needlework Guild is national in scope, it is local in giving, and all garments collected by the Newark branch are distributed to residents of the Newark area.

Although the clothing drive is held during October, work of the Guild is year-round and new clothing is made available to those who need it whenever requests are received.

In thanking members and friends for the "many beautiful and practical articles they donated for their less fortunate neighbors," Mrs. Sinclair expressed the wish that these new garments may bring to those who wear them, "not only warmth and comfort, but courage and hope for brighter days."

A special tribute was paid to the Newark Senior Center for its participation in the work of the guild and for its hospitality on this occasion.

Wins Army Commission

ABERDEEN PROVING GROUND, Md. William S. Welles, 22, was commissioned an Army second lieutenant on completion of the Ordnance Officer Candidate School at Aberdeen Proving Ground, Md., Oct. 3.

During his 23 weeks of training, the lieutenant received basic officer instruction at Ft. Knox, Ky., and finished his schooling at Aberdeen where he received ordnance training in weapons, combat vehicles, supply, maintenance management and leadership.

His wife Nancy, lives at 260 Elkton Road, Newark.

Capt. C. D. Hackney Saves Jet As Gear Fails For Landing

Capt. C. David Hackney of Fairfield, a Capital Airways pilot, landed his DC8 jetliner safely in Anchorage, Alaska, on Wednesday last week despite a damaged landing-gear system.

Hackney, 48, of 102 Meriden Drive, was piloting the craft with 165 Vietnam-bound servicemen from McGuire Air Force Base in New Jersey.

He was notified about halfway to Anchorage that rubber peeled from one of his wheels had been found along the field at McGuire.

Bits of the rubber had blown into the undercarriage, damaging some hydraulic cables, he said, but he had no difficulty landing.

The plane carries a crew of 10, and is chartered to the military by Capital Airways.

Mrs. Hackney said such incidents are all part of his job. He has flown servicemen to Vietnam several times before, she added.

Their son Lee is a linebacker for the University of Delaware football team.

To Feature Sunday Raybourn As Candidates For Queen

Dr. Kenneth C. Madden, state superintendent of schools (standing) will be a guest Sunday on the radio program "Newark Schools on Parade" heard at 12:30 p.m.

Dr. George V. Kirk, superintendent of Newark schools (left) and H. Nelson Freidly, Jr., host of the Sunday series, will discuss Delaware education, its problems and opportunities, and in particular, the Educational Advancement Act, with Superintendent Madden.

University Offers Visit To College For Youth, Parents

Dec. 9, Program Planned For High School Seniors, Juniors, Moms And Dads

College-bound high school juniors and seniors and their parents throughout Delaware are invited to Newark on Dec. 9, for a day-long look at their state university.

The day will include a briefing session at which prospective collegians and their parents will learn about admission policies, costs and financial aid, cultural opportunities, and student life in general.

There will be tours of the campus conducted by university upperclassmen; luncheons in various dining halls; and special interest meetings in the seven undergraduate colleges.

"All in all, the day will provide a brief but complete picture of opportunities at the university," Dr. Robert W. Mayer, director of admissions and records reports.

Mayer's office and the Delaware Congress of Parents and Teachers are sponsoring the traditional event.

Bayard K. Olmsted, state PTA president, will speak at the morning session.

Other morning speakers will be Dr. John W. Shirley, acting university president; Mayor Col. Edward G. Allen, director of financial aid; Dr. George G. Windell, associate professor of history; and John E. Hovatt, vice-president for student affairs.

Reservations should be returned to the university by Dec. 1. The cost includes registration materials, morning coffee period, and luncheon.

Hopkins Reports U.S. Post Office Awards Winners

Charles S. Hopkins, superintendent of mails and officer in charge of the Newark Post Office has announced awards for sustained superior performance at the local post office for the period through Sept. 30, 1967, to Alfred H. Raybourn and Elmer D. Saxton.

These awards are contingent upon an employee having maintained a superior standard in performance of duties in relation with all other employees in the same craft, for a period of not less than six months, and include cash of $250 and certificates.

Raybourn, after serving with the U.S. Navy, has been a city carrier for five years. He resides at 12 Madison Drive, with his wife Catherine and four children.

Saxton, after 23 years with the Army, has been a clerk at the local post office for two and one-half years. He lives at 20 Gill Drive with his wife Agnes and son William.

Another son, David, is in Vietnam, and their daughter Clara lives at 4 Mallory Drive, Brookside.

Awards for suggestions to improve postal conditions were made recently to Charles Harrigan, 79 Martindale Drive, and Bayard Montgomery, Rising Sun, Md.

Harrigan contributed an idea that has resulted in more efficient parking of post office vehicles, with annual savings of $1,800.

Montgomery, in charge of the box section, suggested installation of additional sorting cages for flat, oversized mail, to reduce handling with savings of over $1,200 annually.

Five Local Girls Named As Candidates For Queen

Five Newark girls are candidates for Homecoming Queen this Saturday at the University of Delaware. The coronation candidates are Marilyn Chambers, Mary Jo Robinson, Barbara Cameron, Susan Rash, and Roxanne Jones.

Democratic Chairman

Robert F. Sauscerman

Sauscerman Wins Democratic Party 6th District Post

Former Democratic chairman for Pender Hundred, Robert F. Sauscerman has been elected chairman of the 6th County Council District of the New Castle County Democratic Party.

Sauscerman was elected at a meeting of party members from the 21st, 22d and 24th Representative Districts last Sunday night at the Knights of Columbus Hall in New Castle.

His election was part of the Democratic reorganization which ends Nov. 4, with selection of the party's county officers.

Sidewalk Requirements Upheld By Council At Public Meeting

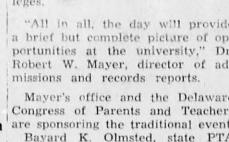

Mandatory Sidewalk Construction On All City Streets Remains Municipal Policy Despite Major Protest From Third District Residents Of Arbour Park Development

At a public meeting attended by some 100 persons last Tuesday night in the Central Junior High School Auditorium, Newark City Council reaffirmed the municipal policy to have sidewalks constructed on both sides of all streets "as soon as possible" with a 6-0 vote in the absence of Councilman William M. Coverdale of the second district.

Spokesmen from all but the second district presented their views for or against the mandatory municipal sidewalk construction program, and major opposition was voiced by Arbour Park residents of the third district, along with Attorney Howard Berg as a representative of the Arbour Park developer.

Demanding to be heard at 10:15 p.m. with a 10:30 deadline for resolving council's stand on the sidewalk policy, Berg cited the need for professional advice on where sidewalks were and were not necessary, and City Manager Edward R. Stiff, referring to the Arbour Park contingent, replied that "if the developer had abided by regulations, these people would not have been here tonight."

Information Manager

Jesse S. Raybourn

Heads Information Service For Firm

The appointment of Jesse S. Raybourn as manager, informational services, was recently announced by the Produce Packaging and Marketing Association. Raybourn retired from the U.S. Army as a lt. colonel last Aug. 31, after 23 years of military service.

Born and raised in New Mexico, he entered military service from the University of New Mexico and served in Africa and Italy during World War II. Nearly one half of his service has been in overseas areas, including Korea and Vietnam.

Prior to retirement, he served as an Army adviser to the Delaware Army National Guard.

A graduate of the U.S. Army Command and General Staff College, Raybourn received the Joint Service Commendation Medal, the Army Commendation Medal with two Oak Leaf clusters, the Air Medal with four clusters, and the State of Delaware's Distinguished Service Cross.

As informational services manager, Raybourn will prepare association publications; develop and disseminate current packaging and marketing information to association members; and serve as association liaison with public and private research agencies.

The Produce Packaging and Marketing Association is a national, non-profit trade association of firms located throughout the United States and Canada that market fresh fruits and vegetables.

The organization's national headquarters has been located in Newark since 1958.

Mr. and Mrs. Raybourn with their three children reside in Newark.

Mayor Handloff Proclaims Week For Cleaner Air

Mayor Norma B. Handloff has proclaimed the period Oct. 22-28 as "Delaware Valley Cleaner Air Week" for the City of Newark.

"Air pollution is a menace to the health, comfort and economy of all people," Mayor Handloff declared.

"The Delaware Valley Regional Cleaner Air Week Committee has been established this year . . . for the purpose of providing a united educational program for clean air through special events and communications."

The mayor said, urging Newark citizens "to inform themselves as to the cause of air pollution and to join with their neighbors and cooperate in programs actively supporting the goal of clean air in this region."

John J. Williams To Address GOP Saturday Dinner

Guest speaker at the annual Greater Newark Republican Men's Club dinner this Saturday, will be U.S. Sen. John J. Williams.

The dinner will be served at 7:30 p.m. in the Aetna Fire Hall on Ogletown Road, and tickets are available to the public.

Rundy Rundell is general chairman of the dinner assisted by Rod Willis and Bob Lucas.

Ticket chairmen are John Guy and George Bierlin.

Members of the Newark and Suburban Republican women's clubs will decorate the hall, and the publicity committee is made of Natalie Thomas and Pat Kraft.

The dinner is co-sponsored by the White Clay and Pender Hundred committees, Newark AYR, and both Republican women's clubs.

Mandatory Sidewalk Construction On All City Streets Remains Municipal Policy Despite Major Protest From Third District Residents Of Arbour Park Development

Coverdale of the second district.

Spokesmen from all but the second district presented their views for or against the mandatory municipal sidewalk construction program, and major opposition was voiced by Arbour Park residents of the third district, along with Attorney Howard Berg as a representative of the Arbour Park developer.

Stiff, referring to the Arbour Park contingent, replied that "if the developer had abided by regulations, these people would not have been here tonight."

Recess

Mayor Handloff terminated the discussion, declared a recess, and when the meeting was reconvened, council upheld the sidewalk ordinance but rescinded 1966 construction requirements held in abeyance pending settlement of the Arbour Park dispute.

Mayor Handloff reviewed sidewalk laws, and established audience participation procedure at the beginning of the meeting, calling for discussion on the sidewalk program by district.

Two spokesmen from the first district urged enforcement of the sidewalk ordinance, and there were no opponents.

Bernard Doordan said "We have an ordinance, it should be enforced," although he cited his transportation provided for school children in his area where there were no sidewalks, while no buses served pupils residing on his adjacent street walkways.

Robert H. Osterloh urged immediate construction of a sidewalk on the south side of Nottingham Road as "ordered 16 months ago" to provide safety for school children, and to eliminate the blind, hazardous intersection of Casho Mill Road with Nottingham Road by removal of the bank for sidewalk grading.

Councilman Frank J. Osborne, Jr., said that he had not been contacted by his constituents concerning the sidewalk program and added that they "apparently are in favor of sidewalks."

Third District Proponents

Thomas J. Pollock, Kenneth C. Lambert, and Kenneth Lewis of the third district, spoke in favor of mandatory sidewalk construction.

Pellegrine pointed out the need for walks on South College Avenue, citing the "hazardous intersection of the Chrysler plant and University of Delaware property. He said that some existing sidewalks on university property were fenced off, while there are none at the new athletic complex. "It sounds as though I have a personal vendetta against them, but I do not," he said of the university.

Lambert said if "sidewalks were needed when the ordinance was passed, they are needed now" and termed it "unfair, inequitable, and unjust to impose this on one and not another. Every property owner should be compelled to do what the others are doing," Lambert concluded.

Leah urged sidewalk construction in "weighing a child's life against property beauty."

A petition representing 70 families in Arbour Park was presented opposing sidewalk construction in what was termed "a wooded area with one entrance and exit, and no through streets."

Arbour Park Protest

Charles G. Maass, spokesman for Arbour Park residents, said that better than 93 per cent of Arbour Park families do not want sidewalks and "if we want to live in an area without sidewalks, we should have that right," he added.

Maass pointed out that 188,000 linear feet of sidewalk construction would be required at a cost of $500,000 in the city, with some 10,000-ft. of sidewalk to be in Arbour Park. He said that it would cost as much as $17,500 to blast rock for 350-ft. of sidewalk in sections of the development; that the proposed sidewalk would "stop halfway up Arbour Drive" with abutting county property, and that this sidewalk would "lead nowhere forever."

Evening Rainbow Glows Over Shopping Center

A perfect rainbow arched across the heavens in last Thursday evening's golden sunlight at the Newark Shopping Center.

Former Councilman Sam Diehl, who apparently had been looking for the pot of gold at what had appeared to be one end of the rainbow, was admiring the vision in the sky—and the ends of the rainbow had shifted eastward against the black cloudbank to Polly Drummond Hill and Lumbrook.

Red Cross Leader Dr. Zenas Clark Century Club Guest

Mrs. J. Fenton Daugherty, chairman of the education department of the Newark New Century Club, will present Dr. Zenas Clark, vice-chairman of the Delaware chapter American Red Cross, for next Monday's program at 1:30 p.m. in the clubhouse.

Dr. Clark will speak on "The Red Cross At The Time Of Disaster."

Evil Byassee, director of music for Newark High School, will bring a group of young people to give a short music program.

Mrs. Robert C. Berry and Mrs. Paul Hodgson are hostesses for the day.

A short business session will precede the program.

"The Brig" Opens 36th E-52 Season At Mitchell Hall

The University of Delaware's E-52 University Theatre opened its 36th season last night with "The Brig" by Kenneth Brown.

The play's director, Dr. William Bruhl, has staged a production which directly involves the spectator from the moment he enters Mitchell Hall.

Professors Brooks McNamara and Michael Rabbitt, designer and technical director of the department of dramatic arts and speech staff, have combined in creating a transformation of the university's theatre into a total environment including both actors and audience.

The action of the play has been staged by Bruhl throughout the entire auditorium.

The play will be given five performances nightly through Saturday, with a 2:30 p.m. Saturday matinee.

PUBLIC MEETING AND SIDEWALKS

Newark's lady mayor is to be congratulated for a well conducted public meeting on a most controversial issue last Tuesday night.

Mayor Norma B. Handloff carefully and clearly explained local legislation concerning Newark's sidewalk construction program; proposed an orderly procedure for hearing spokesmen from some 100 persons present in the Central Junior High School auditorium—and during the next two-and-a-half hours, presided over a smooth-running, constructive session in which all who desired to speak, had the opportunity to do so.

The mayor and five councilmen present, courageously upheld the ordinance requiring sidewalk construction—to the disappointment of a large group of new residents in a newly annexed development. They don't want sidewalks in their sylvan setting—and understandably so.

However, there probably would be few sidewalks built by property owners anywhere without duress, and sidewalks throughout the general area of the city are necessary.

Council is not unreasonably adamant, and we doubt that any sidewalk will be required at a completely unsuitable site, simply to satisfy the letter of the law.

County Home Ec Agent Mary Keller Cites Safety Measures For Young Hallowe'ener

It's witching season—and 3-ft. high witches, goblins and ghosts soon will be knocking on doors. Hallowe'en is exciting fun—don't let it turn into a disaster for your child, says Mrs. Mary Keller, extension home economics agent for New Castle County.

A costume's mask is half the fun, yet a mask can be dangerous if it blocks your child's vision. Make-up can be just as imaginative as any mask—and far safer. With Mother's lipstick and eye make-up, your goblin, ghost or pirate will look as ferocious as he could possibly want. Put a thin layer of cold cream under the make-up and use it again to remove the mask; it's much easier than scrubbing.

Costumes can be hazardous, warns Mrs. Keller. Most are not fireproof, and many are extremely flimsy. Keep away from lighted candles and jack-o-lanterns. And, don't allow your youngster to wear costumes that trail on the ground. Children can trip and fall while dashing back and forth in the dark.

Ghosts are safer than witches—since on dark roads motorists can see light-colored costumes much more clearly.

A jack-o-lantern grinning into the dark is a Hallowe'en tradition; don't let that grin turn into a fire. Plastic or cardboard pumpkins should never be used with a real candle; use a small flashlight fastened so the hot bulb is well away from the pumpkin's side.

Perhaps the greatest Hallowe'en hazard is internal. If your trick-or-treater eats a six month's supply of candy in one night, he'll probably be miserable for a week. Put some aside and dole it out over a few weeks' time, Mrs. Keller advised.

Never give suckers with hard sticks to the goblins knocking on your door. Why not give fruit, cookies, popcorn balls or small packages of raisins this Hallowe'en? Parents, at least, will welcome these more nutritious treats.

Sidewalks

He cited grading costs in the area as exceeding six costs for the rest of the city; the loss of trees and topsoil with such construction, and said of the rural atmosphere—"That is why we moved there."

With mandatory sidewalk construction, Mass said, speaking of the program for the entire city, it would cost "$7,000 for tree removal in Dr. Mayer's (fifth) district."

Another spokesman said he had purchased property in the area three days ago "because there were no sidewalks," and cited the development as "identical" with his prior residential communities in New York State and in Pittsburgh where there was "no accident record."

Alden H. Bugher urged sidewalk exemptions for "low density areas." He said that he had objected to required construction at his property, but had since been glad for the installation as a safety measure for school children. Duff suggested that the "cost is something that should be shared."

Albert B. Root urged the need for sidewalks to Rittenhouse Park, and that a "dead end street be no restriction" against sidewalk re-

News-Journal Co. Plans New Office To Serve Newark

The News-Journal Co. will open a branch office in Newark next month, according to Charles M. Hackett, vice-president and executive editor.

The third operated by the News-Journal papers outside of Wilmington—others are in Dover and Georgetown—the Newark office will be at the northwest corner of East Main and Chapel streets.

Hackett said the office will be staffed by personnel from the news, advertising and circulation departments and will provide full facilities, including classified advertising. The office is being established as a convenience to the public and advertisers, Hackett said, and will enable the News-Journal to "better serve one of Delaware's largest and fastest growing communities."

2d Masonic Lodge Constitution Slated For This Saturday

A charter was granted to a second Masonic lodge in Newark at the recent 162nd annual communication of the Grand Lodge of Ancient, Free and Accepted Masons of Delaware in Wilmington.

The new lodge will be known as Solomon Lodge No. 36, and will hold its first communication in the Newark Masonic Temple, 207-25 Delaware Avenue, on the second Wednesday of each month except July and August.

Solomon Lodge has been operating since May under dispensation. Elmer W. Randall, Jr., grand master, has designated this Saturday for the constitution of the new lodge at ceremonies to be held in the Newark High School Auditorium at 4 p.m.

Officers are Milton L. Draper, worshipful master; Albert J. Miller, senior warden; David H. Calhoun, junior warden; John F. Link, treasurer; George T. Reed, secretary; Jerome J. Bredall, assistant secretary; Kenneth A. Chantler, senior deacon; Harry C. Gebhart, junior deacon; Everett Hale, senior steward; David S. Isminger, junior steward; William A. Barr, chaplain; and J. Earl Newman, tier.

The constitution dinner will follow in the school at 6 p.m., with William H. Cantwell, past grand master, the speaker.

Master Masons living in the area are invited to attend the constitution ceremonies and dinner. Reservations for dinner may be made by calling Draper, Link, or Reed.

Consultants Plan Shopping Survey Of Business Area

Planning consultants for the City of Newark will conduct a shopper questionnaire survey in the downtown area next Wednesday from 6 to 9 p.m., and on Saturday, Nov. 4, from 9 a.m. to 5:30 p.m.

Questionnaire forms will be distributed by volunteers from the League of Women Voters and the Girl Scouts at eight locations along Main Street and in the Newark Shopping Center.

Purpose of the survey is to determine shopper attitudes to existing conditions in the central business district.

In case of inclement weather, the survey will be conducted Nov. 8 and 11.

Consultants also will survey downtown merchants concerning their thoughts for the future of the area.

Anyone wishing to register should contact Mrs. Floyd K. Swope.

State Turns Down Additional Buses For Local Schools

The State Board of Education has rejected additional buses for pupils in the Newark school district based on a report of the Unique Pedestrian Hazards Committee.

In rejecting Newark's bus needs, the state accepted recommendations of the committee appointed a month ago by State Superintendent Dr. Kenneth C. Madden. The opinion was written for the State Board by Raymond S. Pusey, chief of the traffic division of the State Highway Department.

No member of the Newark school district staff nor area resident was a member of this committee. Two area residents and one staff member were permitted to ride through the district with the committee, but these local people had no voice in committee action, local school officials report.

The Unique Pedestrian Hazards Committee was made up of Preston G. Eisenbrey, state supervisor of transportation; Sgt. Joseph B. Ewing, Delaware State Police; Francis J. Jamieson, of the Delaware Safety Council; and Pusey of the highway department.

In matters of bus transportation, the state is the final authority.

By the time this young fellow is ready for college, electricity — "the energy of progress" — will have helped make more wonderful changes in our way of living, education and transportation.

Right now Delmarva Power & Light Company is sharing in research and development projects in the electric power field that will make tomorrow better than today. While we're working to provide the best possible electric service now, we're also at work to make the future better with electric service that's ever more useful, dependable and low in price. In fact, during the next five years our plans call for the expenditure of $210 million for new and additional facilities.

That's progress!

Capt. Bill Fletcher Runs For 60-Yd. TD With Intercepted Pass; Swann Scores 3

Trailing 7-6, Co-Capt. Bill Fletcher intercepted a Red Devil pass to race 60 yards for a touchdown and put Coach Bob Hoffman's Yellowjackets champions ahead to stay with their 41-7 romp and fifth straight win last Saturday at Wilmington High School.

Hoffman's Blue Hen Conference champions in quest of their second successive undefeated season, met Coach Billy Cole's Colonials from New Castle at Newark this Saturday with a 10:30 a.m. kickoff.

William Penn is 3-1-1 for the season after a 13-1 tie by Dickinson last Saturday. And Newark defeated Dickinson 53-13 the week before.

End Gary Hayman took Quarterback Bob Tucker's pass for a 31-yard touchdown to open the scoring in the first quarter against Wilmington, but another Hayman—Wil-lington's Bill—tied the score on a two-yard slant, and Gary Giannone's kick put the Red Devils on top of the 7-6 count.

In the second period, Fletcher took the play away from Wilmington with his interception, and the Yellowjackets rolled on from there.

After a Red Devil ball carrier was tackled in his end zone for a two-point safety, Yellowjacket Halfback Pedro Swann scored the first of his three touchdowns for the day by plunging for one-yard.

Tucker passed to Hayman and ran for the second extra point to provide Newark a 22-7 halftime advantage.

In the third quarter, Swann scampered 22 yards to score, and in the final frame, dashed five-yards for his third touchdown.

End George Toulson took Tucker's pass for the conversion. Tucker passed to Hayman for a five-yard touchdown to conclude the scoring as the Yellowjackets won 41-7.

Newark Notes

by GIBBY YOUNG

OLD RIVALS

Coach Bob Hoffman's undefeated Yellowjacket champions of the Blue Hen Conference A-Flight, meet their always tough rivals from Wm. Penn High School in New Castle this Saturday morning at 10:30 at Newark—and Coach Billy Cole's Colonials constitute a real threat to the Yellowjackets' second consecutive unbeaten football season.

But Bob Hoffman's Yellowjackets have played like the champions they are, and we believe that Newark will have too much speed, power, and finesse for the Cole Colonials.

Heinecken Warns Of Owl Pro-Type Saturday Offense

Delaware's defense is in for a busy afternoon when the Blue Hens host high-powered Temple in Delaware Stadium this Saturday at 3:30 p.m.

"Temple's pro-type offense is extremely explosive, every bit as dangerous as Hofstra's," says defensive backfield coach Mickey Heinecken, who scouted the Owls for Delaware.

Delaware is 1-1 in the Middle Atlantic Conference and 1-4 overall. The Blue Hens have a win over Lafayette and a 33-31 loss to Hofstra in the MAC.

Temple is 3-2 for the season, and 1-0 in the conference, beating Hofstra 35-22 two weeks ago.

"Temple lost Quarterback John Waller with a broken finger in its game with Dayton last week, but his loss doesn't hurt them nearly as much as it would another team," Heinecken notes. "They have Tom DeFolice, a senior quarterback who has been alternating with Waller, and he may be even more difficult to defend."

DeFolice has completed 21 of his 37 passing attempts for 306 yards and has gained another 60 yards on the ground.

He will have an outstanding group of receivers available, led by Spread End Jim Callahan and Flanker George Agallias.

"Callahan could play anywhere in the country," Heinecken says of the Owl end. "He has good moves, great hands and deceptive speed. He is a threat to score every time he catches the ball."

Agallias has pulled down 19 passes for 207 yards and Halfback Mike Busch has caught 10 for 107 yards and a touchdown.

Busch, a hard-running 190-pound sophomore, is the team's leading rusher with 72 carries for 229 yards.

Senior Fullback Mike Derchak is second with 68 carries for 190 yards.

"Temple is also going to give us some problems with their defense," Heinecken notes.

"They have a very big, mobile defensive line; a fine linebacker in Rich Nelson; and an excellent defensive back in Arnold Smith."

"I was very impressed with Middle Guard Gerry Tarsdowski and End Wayne Colman," Heinecken concluded.

Marty Apostolico Hails NHS Champs As TD Club Guest

"I don't see anything wrong with Mr. Hoffman's coaching," Marty Apostolico said as guest speaker for the Newark Touchdown Club luncheon meeting last Monday.

The "only thing I hate to see about Newark is that the Tucker boy is only a junior!" Marty Apostolico said, referring to the Yellowjacket quarterback.

He cited the Newark High School football team as "great," and predicted a Yellowjacket win over William Penn this Saturday.

"We ran through their line at will," he said of Dickinson's 13-13 tie with the Colonials last week.

The former Blue Hen star said the Blue Hen Conference organization has improved the caliber of local football "100 per cent" since his playing days at Wilmington High School when there was no championship test.

President Bob Pilnick announced that Attorney-General David P. Buckson would be the toastmaster for the annual Touchdown Club banquet in December, and invited all interested persons to join the club at weekly noon luncheon meetings.

and others.

Anyone interested in booking this team may contact Paul Barth, 1315 Magee Avenue, Philadelphia 19111.

"Efficient" Is Word For Hens' Victory As Delaware Defeats Lafayette By 21-2

Efficient maybe the best word to describe Delaware's 21-2 victory over Lafayette last week—and the game movies prove it.

"We were 64.8 per cent efficient against Lafayette," Blue Hen Coach Tubby Raymond noted. "We consider a play efficient if it gains at least four yards or we get a first down."

Raymond compared the efficiency rating to the 44 per cent effort against Rutgers the week before. The Blue Hens scored 21 points in each game, but the difference was the manner in which they controlled the game against Lafayette.

"Our efficiency helped us move the ball and use up the clock at the same time," Raymond noted. "We controlled the game because we controlled the ball."

The Blue Hens drove 75 yards for a score the first time they gained possession, but the key drive was a 90-yard third quarter march that gave the Hens their third score and ate up more than 10 minutes.

John Miller, the best fullback among defensive ends in the East, is the team leader in rushing in spite of the fact he carried only once against Lafayette. He has 275 yards rushing for the season.

Miller, a senior from Westmont, N.J., filled in at fullback when regular John Spangler was injured the week before the season started. A regular defensive end, Miller was so impressive as a fullback that he was named to the weekly ECAC Division II All-East team the first two weeks of the season. The Hens need his services more as a defensive end, and Spangler's return to form has apparently ended Miller's two-way performances.

Multi-talented sophomore halfback Tom DiMuzio is second to Miller in the rushing department with 73 carries for 221 yards and is the team scoring leader with 28 points.

DiMuzio, a converted quarterback, gained 74 yards rushing; completed a pass for 20 yards; caught a pass for a 28-yard gain—and scored two touchdowns against Lafayette.

Capt. Art Smith Honored As Top Defensive Back

Delaware Football Captain Art Smith has been chosen defensive back of the week on the Eastern College Athletic Conference Division II All-East football team.

Smith was picked for his play in last Saturday's 21-2 victory over Lafayette.

The senior from Vineland, N.J., intercepted one pass and knocked down four others.

Bill Brown Brightens Harrington Track As 'One-Man Gang' Despite Eye Handicap

HARRINGTON — Mention the name Bill Brown around Harrington Raceway and you're certain to evoke favorable comment.

It's not that Brown is a giant among horsemen—or even that he owns a consistent winner. His stable comprises just one trotter, a six-year-old gelding named Swift Song, and he's been anything but swift—or consistent.

It's the man rather than horse that makes the story in the case of Everett (Bill) Brown. He's practically a one-man gang around the track, feeding and grooming his charge. Bill does practically everything but drive, and he'd probably give that a try if allowed. But he can't. You see, Bill Brown is blind, and has been since a youth of about 12.

"It was a disease," explained the likeable Brown, now 53. "It started slow and gradually took away practically all my sight. I can still see a little, mostly at night, but can't make any 'distinguishable' characters."

Helping Brown to bear up under the ordeal is a stray pup he picked up in the Harrington stable area a year ago. A mixed German shepherd, she's constantly at his side.

"She was just a long-legged little pup that somebody kicked out," said Bill. "I took her under my wing to keep her from having to scrounge for herself. I worked with her for a few weeks to be a guide dog, and she took to it immediately. It was like a miracle."

"She was a natural. At first I used some old binder twine for a harness. She was working well by the second or third day. I've never seen an animal take to anything so quickly. Then I tried her with a regulation harness my wife sent me. She made the change without a hitch."

Brown's wife also is blind and makes a living performing secretarial work in Maryland. Brown is campaigning at Harrington for the third straight year.

Mrs. J. N. McDowell Wins Club, Senior Golf Title Awards

Trophies were presented to tournament winners in this year's women's golf program at the Newark Country Club, at the annual fall luncheon last Tuesday in the clubhouse.

Mrs. Howard Armstrong, women's golf program chairman, presided at the luncheon and Mrs. Harry McCavana, trophy chairman, presented the awards. Mrs. Robert Westcott is chairman for next year's program.

Mrs. John N. McDowell received trophies as winner of the Newark Country Club and senior championships, with Mrs. Clifford Winton and Mrs. Walter Ingram, runners-up in the club and senior tournaments.

Mrs. Brandon Davis won the first trophy in the C. Sweeney Classes of Eight Tournament, with Mrs. Thomas J. R. Stephens, runner-up; and Mrs. Major W. Gasper and Mrs. John Dawson received trophies as winners of the second and third flights.

Mrs. George Weber won the Newark Post Trophy, and Mrs. Martin Van Hook was runner-up.

Mrs. Charles Smith won the Oakland Tournament, with Mrs. John Dawson, second; and Mrs. Winton won the Chrysler Tourney, with Mrs. William Jones, runner-up.

In the Avon Better-Ball-of-Partners Tournament, Mrs. John Mueller and Mrs. C. R. Whitcomb won first place trophies, and Mrs. Russell Menard and Mrs. Harry McCavana received runner-up awards.

Mrs. Ben Frye was awarded the trophy as most improved golfer, and prizes were presented to Mrs. Paul Weatherly and Mrs. Bruce Sharp for scoring holes-in-one.

Joanne Witmyer, Darinda Tanzella Head "Y" Diving

The Newark YWCA health education department is offering a diving workshop on Wednesday and Sunday evenings beginning Oct. 23.

The Wednesday evening program under the direction of Joanne Witmyer is for the beginning and intermediate participant. Fundamentals of springboard diving will be taught from 6:30 to 7:15.

The Sunday evening program is for boys and girls interested in competitive diving. This session will be directed by Darinda Tanzella, who holds titles in Middle Atlantic AAU low board, high board and platform dives.

Mrs. Tanzella, a member of Vesper Boat Club, taught diving at Tannal School.

McNelis Lists Outlets For NHS-Cavalier Tickets

Tickets for the Newark-Middleton football game to be played on the Cavaliers' field at 8 p.m., Friday, Nov. 17, are available in Newark at the News Stand, Sun Ray Drug and at Happy Harry's Discount Center, NHS Athletic Director John McNelis reports.

The Cavaliers with a 50-win streak under coach Bill Ekins, upset favored Sabaturn last year, but probably will be underdogs in the Nov. 17, contest with Coach Bob Hoffman's Blue Hen Conference Yellowjacket champions.

CHS Halfbacks Glen Thompson, Fred Neal Give Vikings Lead Before Loss To P. S.

Christiana led 6-0 in the first quarter, and moved out into a 12-6 second period lead at P. S. du Pont last Saturday before dropping behind on the 20-12 halftime count and losing 33-12 to the Dynahs.

"They were too fast for us," Viking Coach Sam Dixon said of the Dynahs, 2-3 for the season, while Christiana has suffered five successive setbacks along with Mt. Pleasant.

The Vikings entertain the Green Knights of Mt. Pleasant in a Homecoming Day game at 1:30 p.m., this Saturday.

Junior Halfback Glen Thompson took a hand-off to race five yards for the first touchdown and Viking lead last Saturday, and Fred Neal, sophomore halfback, dashed two-yards with another hand-off for the second Christiana TD.

Sophomore End Randy Spinks brought the Viking fans to their feet with a brilliant 30-yard run, and Tackle Jerry Thorpe with 10.

Also playing for Coach Sam Dixon's Vikings against P. S. du Pont were Quarterbacks Cliff Houston and Dan Shanor; Halfback Bruce Ryser; Fullbacks Neil Fairchild and Harold Resinger; Ends George Cavannah and Jerry McCarns; Tackles Andy Rash, Dave Peterson, Dave Webster, Lee Moore and Duane Deal; Guards Bob Stefanisko, John White, Don Deal, Joe Mocerello, Jesse Moore, and Jerry Gearhart; and Centers Tom Hudson, Chuck Gruver and Bill Sutton.
