'Remote Control' At Mitchell Hall--Phenomenal Success Predicted From Advance Ticket Sale

Able Cast Plus Splendid Play Will Probably Draw Capacity House

Thursday evening, March 16, brings a new type of play to the followers of the theatre at the University of Delaware. "Remote Control" is the radio mystery play which Walter Winchell described thus: "Shivers, quivers, shakes and shudders in new hit—a realistic melodrama chuck full of the material that lifts the fuzz off your cheeks and arms. It is a departure from the familiar brand of mystery farce, what with its numerous novelties, its radio station studio setting, its sensational 'stick up' by Chicago's Ghost Gang. In sum, a thriller."

The play has been acclaimed one hundred per cent entertainment, not only by every critic in the world's biggest city, but by a capacity patronage at the Forty-eighth Street Theatre in New York. To begin with, the entire play takes place in the studio of a broadcasting company, WPH, located atop the Potter House, in Chicago. The story centers around a murder that takes place during a broadcasting feature from the station. A Dr. Workman, a spiritualist, is mysteriously shot during his half hour on the air. His death is coupled with a series of bold robberies that have been terrorizing Chicago. With the arrival of the police, suspicion points with baffling directness, at different times, to such interesting persons in the story as Walter Brokenchild, a radio announcer extraordinary, who is, of course, the play's hero; then to Ralph Shugart, the control engineer, and so on to various members of a great cast of people. The romance of the play finds life in the love of Walter for Helen Wright, his secretary, who, her love called to powerful test, manages to "carry on" in his stead when he is detained by the authorities. Throughout the play are fascinating incidents, some gorgeously gay, others dramatic, and all of them absorbing and of interest.

For the past week the cast has been polishing off the details in their technique and from all indications should present an entertaining performance filled with laughter, and breath-catching. Music, a dance, murder, and love fill the play with opportunities for the characters to show their ability.

On account of the financial condition existing at this time the business staff has stated that they will accept checks for the sale of tickets.

Miss Blue and Miss Gold

The selection of Miss Helen Layton and Miss Catherine Broad as "Miss Blue" and "Miss Gold" resulted from the election recently conducted by the Blue Hen Staff.

The results of the Class Ballots will not be made public until the issuance of the Blue Hen.

Institute D. C. Forum As Discussion Group

Will Include Economics And Foreign Relations Clubs

Last Wednesday, a meeting of the Economics Club was held, and several changes were instituted. The present club has been expanded to absorb the nucleus of a proposed International Relations Club, and its name, in order to represent something broader, has been changed to that of Delaware College Forum. It is hoped that this group will be able to combine with the Forum that has been in existence for several years at the Women's College in the event of speakers, joint meetings, etc.

At the meeting Mr. Weirs of the Economics Department, continued his discussion of the gold standard, and its relation to the recent developments which have forced our President to act.

A future election will probably take care of any difficulties as to officers of the new organization, which has authorized Dr. Ryden to correspond with International Relations Club in order to reorganize the Delaware group as a member.

Open House at Women College Proves Success

"Open House" at the Hilarium proved highly successful last Saturday evening, a capacity delegation from the Men's College being very much in evidence. An orchestra and the radio provided dance music and refreshments were present in the form of punch and pretzels. Judging from the favorable comments heard from both ends of the campus, it appears that all present enjoyed themselves to the utmost, and all are looking forward to an early repetition of "Open House."

Professor Blanshar To Address P.K.P.'s Swarthmore Savant Will Also Lecture At College Hour

The initiation of new members to Phi Kappa Phi, honor society of the University, will take place on Tuesday, March 21, rather than on March 31 as was erroneously stated in the social calendar of last week's "Review." The initiation will be held in the Delaware College Faculty Club rooms in Old College at 6 p. m. The annual dinner will be held in the dining room of Old College immediately after the initiation. The speaker at the dinner will be Professor Blanshar of Swarthmore College. Professor Blanshar will also speak at the College Hour in Mitchell Hall on Tuesday, March 21. The newly elected members to Phi Kappa Phi are: Edward Harry Ehart, Jr., George Luther Heppie, James Pierson Hollis, James Percy Hoopes, Frederick Kelso, John Frederick Kiefer, Charles Louis Paruszewski, Adair Rogers, Lewis Edward Simon, Alexander Charles Tweed, Robert Riddell Vennum, Janereed Anderson, Catharine Elizabeth Broad, Mary Elizabeth Cloud, Velma Elizabeth Halliwell, Jennie Louise Morris, Annabel Morton, Aileen Pyle, Mary Elizabeth Marguerite Sterling, Helen Everett Sweetman, and Marjorie Wolf White.

Women's College Frosh Hold Annual Formal

The annual Women's College Freshman formal was held Saturday evening in Old College Hall. Dorothy Ross, president of the class, headed the receiving line. Others in line were: Mary Matlack, Dean Winifred J. Robinson, Miss Amy Rextrew, Miss Rena Allen and Mrs. Donald P. Ross. Other guests were: Velma Halliwell, Frances McGee, Annabel Morton and Elizabeth Cloud. Eddie Griffin's orchestra furnished the music. Mary Louise Wolfenden was chairman; Margaret Broad, in charge of the favors; Jean Wood in charge of patronesses, and Beulah Papperman in charge of music. Helen Dutter led the grand march. Other class officers, who followed Helen Dutter in the procession were Elizabeth Deakne and Alice Brene.

Beezie Saved or A Villain Foiled

Mr. Beelzebub Böowulf-Heinz, a resident of Newark whose present address is c/o Sigma Tau Phi, was found missing when he failed to show up for his meal on Monday afternoon, March 6. At first, we thought that Beelzebub might have been successful in soliciting a ride into Wilmington—we finally found out we were almost right in our first guess except about the soliciting part of his ride. It seems as if one of the officers of this fair city took it upon themselves to enforce some law hereabouts by taking Beelzebub to the dog-pound in Wilmington. The members of the fraternity were highly alarmed and the burden of finding Beelzebub fell upon the able shoulders of Oscar Tucker. He immediately called up Governor Buck. When the connection was made he was told that he had called up the right person! Governor Buck further told Oscar that we should try to get the dog before 7:15 the next morning. If we were unable to do that he was to be called up again and Beelzebub's reprieve would be elicited by word of mouth directly to the official in charge of the dog-pound.

Bright and early the next morning "Syd" Kaufman and "Porky" Ableman started out for Wilmington to save Beezzy from a dire fate. When they arrived at the dog-pound, Beezzy was no longer to be found! They returned empty-handed and heart-broken to break the news to the folks back home. That evening, when the fellows were attempting to do home-work and always reminding themselves of Beezzy, the phone suddenly rings. After the usual scramble, the agile member at the phone yells that Beezzy had been taken out by Carl Cohen before Sid and Porky arrived.

Goethe's Life Topic For College 'Movie'

German Department To Show Nine Reel Film In Wolf Hall

The German Section of the Department of Modern Languages and Literatures will offer its second public program of the school year on Tuesday afternoon, March 21, at 4:10 in Wolf Hall. The Redslob "Goethe Film," which has been showing in American Colleges and Universities for the past few months, will be shown at that time.

The film was made in Germany under the direction of Mr. E. Redslob, one of the leading German actors and their costumes are reproductions of their costumes as reproduced with careful historic exactness, and offers the spectator a rapid survey of the period—1749-1832.

Some knowledge of the period is pre-supposed and a list of readable books on the life of Goethe is posted in Memorial Library. The presentation of the film (which is not a talkie) requires an hour and a half. The showing is free and open to the public.

"Pete" Rice, Delaware S. C. Head, Also Regional President, To Be Chairman

The feature of the convention will be an address by Mr. W. C. Holland, Secretary of the International Student Confederation who speak on "Work Camps in Germany." Mr. Holland has spent several years abroad investigating these camps and is an authority upon their functions.

A varied and highly entertaining program has been arranged by Mr. Rice. The various plenary sessions and discussion groups will occupy all of the first day and part of the second. An informal dance will also be given in the Commons of Old College in honor of the delegates.

The tentative program is as follows:

EDITORIALS

WELCOME TO DELAWARE, N. S. F. A. DELEGATES

We of Delaware invite you to consider yourselves as our guests in all respects during your stay at our University. We consider Newark the farthest northern outpost of the real Southern hospitality and endeavor to do our best to support that claim. This is the first time for many years that Delaware has been host to such a group and we welcome this opportunity of being the scene of N. S. F. A. deliberations. Do not hesitate to ask any student on the campus for directions or assistance. We hope you depart with pleasant memories of your brief sojourn with us—you will always be welcome to return—so we hope that you will leave us, not with "adieu," but with "au revoir."

SUPPORT "REMOTE CONTROL"

Thursday night a highly talented cast will give the mystery melodrama "Remote Control" in Mitchell Hall. For the sum of thirty-five cents we guarantee an evening's entertainment. It is really up to the student body to get behind our dramatic organizations and support this type of institution. It is all well and good to have a victorious football team, but it is just as essential that our college distinguish itself in other fields. The field of dramatics is one of the most widely publicized of any extra-curricular activities. There is no reason why dramatics should not be given the cordial support here that they get elsewhere. So let's see a big turn-out Thursday night!

TO CHATTER OR NOT TO CHATTER?

Not because Dr. Sypher disapproves of Chatter, but because the editor deems it a "lot of unmitigated rot," that "feature" is being eliminated from The Review. We have always felt that it was an insult to the dignity of a college paper to run such a feature, and will not assume the responsibility for its perpetuation. However, inasmuch as this is the official organ of the students of this university, should one hundred students have enough desire for Chatter to be continued as to mail the note printed elsewhere on this page, we shall, much to our disgust, continue to print it. However, if a hundred or more students do not mail this slip to us, Chatter is lost and irretrievably damned, to our immense joy.

Phi Kappa Tau Holds Annual Formal

To the smooth strains of George Kelly's music, the Phi Kappa Tau fraternity danced in formal attire last Friday evening in Old College. Appropriate decorations for the occasion were in evidence. Those in the receiving line included Dr. and Mrs. Hullihen, Dean and Mrs. McCue, Dr. and Mrs. Manns, Miss Kelly, Mrs. Johnson, Lewis Learned and Miss Louise Price. Approximately seventy couples, representing the active chapter, alumni, and guests of the fraternity, attended this most pleasant affair.

So successful has been the better clothes bureau of the University of Utah, founded to help poor co-eds to wear good clothing, that its activities are being extended to the men students.

In the Editor's Mail

While there are men of highest intelligence in all professions yet tests of student groups indicate that engineers average somewhat higher than any other group. In a very large test made recently the engineers ranked higher even in liberal arts than did the students in liberal arts. Engineering calls for high ability in mathematics, chemistry, physics and in fact nearly all the liberal arts and sciences. Certainly no one without excellent abilities can do well in engineering.—From Philadelphia Record, March 9, 1933.

Democrats through and through, these Roosevelts! There are many innovations at the White House these days. A new atmosphere has been noticed by visitors. How to describe that atmosphere is a little difficult. But there is less restraint, more freedom, more informality about the place than there had been under Hoover, Coolidge, Harding, or the later days of Woodrow Wilson. (Wilson once chased Sally McAdoo, daughter of his son-in-law, out of the White House fountain where she was wading.) It seems less like the residence of a Chief Executive and more like an ordinary home. Chiefly it radiates the personality of its new mistress who meets her guests at the door instead of making them await her ceremonial descent as was the custom of her predecessors, who serves tea rather than the customary ice water at all her receptions, who has graciously set aside a few hours each week to chat informally with feminine news reporters, who walks through the streets of Washington unaccompanied. Democracy personified.

Our idea of an optimist these days is a pickpocket.

In the excitement of last week former President Hoover seems to be the "forgotten man."

Rumor has it that members of the Salvation Army in Reading, Pa., who, before Prohibition, prayed in front of saloons, were holding services in front of closed banks during the bank holiday last week. After the bankers got through preying on the depositors, the Salvation Army prayed for them.

President Roosevelt's laconic special message to Congress on Monday asking immediate legislation legalizing and taxing beer and light wines is in line with the platform on which he was elected. It brings Speaker Rainey's prophecy of beer by April 1, a substantial step nearer realization. There's liable to be some pop-eyed practical jokers this April-Fools Day.

The crowning epithet: You gold hoarder.

All of his shiny dimes gone, John D. Rockefeller found himself cash "busted" along with the rest of the country last week when the bank holiday was on. As a result he was left with no dimes and only a few five dollar bills on hand—100 to be exact. Pin-money, John D., pin-money.

Shades of Teddy Roosevelt! Teddy made a habit of touring the country during his administration, and personally informing the people of the U. S. concerning the problems confronting the government explaining in detail the policy followed by the administration. And now, the second President Roosevelt only a week in office follows in the great Teddy's footsteps. His radio address on Sunday evening did much to clarify the situation for many and tended to uphold that confidence which he has installed in the hearts of the citizens of the U. S.

The bank holiday did one thing. It made a lot of people realize what the other fellow goes through when he has no money.

A "Female Aid Society" has been organized at the U. of Washington to rent fraternity pins to unattractive Co-eds at reasonable prices.

"Things I Knew You Didn't"

That the reason you don't see the "dirt" column "Chatter" in this week's issue or in any other future issue is because Dr. Sypher objects. . . I thought this paper was for the students. . . Did I hear . . . Freedom of Press? ? ?

That if you happen to see the words "Gossypium Purificatum" on your prescription, don't pull your hair or get excited, for it's only absorbent cotton.

That if you call your sweetheart "Mel" she probably won't understand what you mean at all. (It means honey!!)

That Ed Bardo our Phys Ed instructor holds the New England championship record in the 50 yd. swim.

That if you turn to page 317 in your Webster and place your finger under the word "Haberdasher" it says "a dealer in ribbons, laces, needles, silks," and here I thought he was a man who sells men's wear, ties, socks, etc.

Spring begins in Delaware about the 1st of April and frost seldom occurs until middle of October. . . Rainfall is 40-45 inches annually . . . and Delaware is free from the severest storms.

Hey! rub 2 lumps of sugar in a completely dark room and they will give off a faint light. . . (Two lovers=heat! !)

That a Governor of Delaware cannot serve a third term . . . and that Delaware College was closed from 1859-1869 . . . and re-opened in 1870. . . No students.

That eating pie, cakes and sweets during your training period is O. K. Coaches say it "cuts" the wind . . . a fallacy, my lads, look it up in Walter Camp's Book on Training.

That the total endowment and educational plant of the University of Delaware is estimated at $1,875,000.

That Delaware received the nickname "Blue Hen State" during the Revolutionary War. A Delaware officer was heard to say that no cock was game unless it came from a blue hen, thereafter, Delaware soldiers were called Blue Hen's Chickens. . . And that's the story my children.

That tree they chopped down in back of Purnell Hall was only 20 years old.

That Dr. Clement, French Prof., once taught French to John Boles, the Movie big-he-man . . . but, oh, what a student.

That a certain Eng Prof likes this drinking song:

"Give me liquor when I die,
Let me lap it let me lick it,
Let me drink the bucket dry,
Just before I kick it."
He'll be able to fulfill that wish soon . . . (hic.)

That in the coming stage play, "Remote Control" there are 21 actors, 3 acts; that "Fluke" Thompson is the funny man, Lawrence the most versatile, and the show will take two hours of your study time—then add on an hour for escorting and refreshments.

Sigma Nu Wins Intra-Frat Basketball Title

Gain Title By Downing S. P. E., 36-25

In a bitterly fought, and an exceptionally rough basketball game, Sigma Nu nosed out S. P. E. last night in the Taylor gym, 36-25. This made five straight wins for the O'Connell squad, and gave them the title. Incidentally, the first and second place winners of last year were reversed: S. P. E. having won the title from Sigma Nu five last year. In the two other games played since last Friday, Sigma Nu defeated Theta Chi 42-17 and S. P. E. trounced P. K. T. 45-27.

The Sigma Nu-S. P. E. game last night was, as per usual, bitterly and roughly played. During the first three quarters the teams battled on even terms. Midway in the last quarter the Snakes began to pull away from their neighboring rivals. They soon had a substantial lead which they retained to the closing whistle. Sigma Nu and S. P. E. were tied with the number of field goals scored, but they had a winning margin of 9 fouls.

In the three games played, Wilson, Lawrence, Samuels, Minner, and Steinle were leading scorers for their respective teams. The scores:

THIS AND THAT

R. C. M.

Spring! . . . It's right around the corner. What does this mean? Easter vacation . . . baseball . . . track . . . tennis . . . golf. Basketball suits have been put in company with moth balls. Swimming is a sport which knows no seasons.

Only yesterday "Doc" Doherty tried to hurry spring a little by sending his baseball candidates out-of-doors. I don't think you can do it "Doc" but good luck in your efforts.

Golf will get under way next week. Coach Lewis is particularly anxious to get his golfers started early due to the tough schedule which has been arranged. The golf league which is being formed has still some minor details to straighten out before they can make definite arrangements about schedules, rules, and jurisdiction.

Coach Jones' racquetball will not be called out until after the Easter holidays due to the condition of the courts. The schedule has not as yet been completed.

Coaches Charley Rogers and Ed Bardo are planning to hold intra-mural track and swimming meets which should be of great interest to the University. The question mark now is where are they going to get medals for the wards? They have both gone to to much trouble to plan these functions for the students and I am sure the Athletic Council will come to their aid in putting these events over.

To the victor belongs the spoils! Sigma Nu takes the spoils. I will now see how much trouble I dig up for myself by picking a 1st, 2nd, and 3rd all fraternity team. Please remember that we all have our own opinions but I happen to be the one writing this column. Here goes

Irish O'Connell seems to be turning out nothing but winning cage teams. His Sophomore team won the Interclass Cage loop by defeating the Seniors in the last game. The Sigma Nu team also won the Frat cage loop and again Irish had the honor of doing the substitution and telling the boys how (?)

Sophs Win Cage Title By Defeating Seniors

Pie And Minner Lead Scorers

In the Taylor gymnasium last Thursday afternoon, the Sophomore class team defeated the Senior five to win the inter-class basketball title, 26-23. Minner and Pié led the scoring for the second year men. The Seniors had previously defeated the Juniors and the Sophomores had downed the Freshmen.

The game was a close and hard fought battle, with the Sophomores having the edge during the major part of the conflict. The Seniors led the Sophs in the scoring of foul goals by the margin of 7-2, but the Sophs led in two pointers by scoring 12 to the fourth year men's 8. Baseball Candidates Prepare For Opener

First Game April 3rd

In an effort to speed up the training of his baseball squad, "Doc" Doherty ordered his men outside yesterday afternoon for a short time. Due to the condition of Frazer Field, little progress was reported. Despite the muddy footing, the diamond aspirants did succeed in getting used to seeing the ball under natural conditions.

The men who reported for the first time yesterday were: Hurley, Kelley, Wilson, Caulk, Carlson, E. Thompson, Greer, Lynam, Garbutt, W. Mayer, Majeski, Entriken, Records, and G. Thompson. This squad will be augmented by several regulars from last year's squad in a few days.

"Doc" Doherty has little more than two weeks to condition his squad for the Southern trip which starts the baseball season. The first game is scheduled for April 3 with Bridgewater College. This is the first of 6 games which will be played on the Southern trip. These games take place during the University's Easter holidays.

"Ignorance is bliss"—Columbia University reporters questioned people on the street and found that five out of six think that college students are loafers.

Radio Play Big Success

On Monday evening, March 13, the stage of Mitchell Hall was converted into a radio studio and the E-52 Players made their radio debut in an adaptation of Oscar Wilde's "Importance of Being Earnest." Members of the cast were forced to conform to studio broadcasting rules for a period of three-quarters of an hour. The limitation on speaking proved especially irksome to the girls. Twelve-second periods for coughing were permitted ever five minutes.

In a room ten feet from the improvised studio some of the players, when not on the air, listened to the play through a set operated by Mr. Thomas Dowling. Criticisms of reception were transmitted frequently to the members of the cast as they stood before the microphone.

At this writing the avalanche of fan mail had not yet descended upon the cast. The mail will be taken care of by Mr. T. Willey Keithley, who has instructions to release it to the cast in quantities small enough not to interfere with the students' studies.

Mr. Keithley also has instructions to withhold any mail which

The difficult task of adapting the play for radio broadcasting was in the hands of Miss Dorothy Deiser. Miss Deiser is already at work on another play which may be produced over the air some time in April.

The cast was as follows: Lady Broadwell, Miss Marjorie Brewer; Gwendolen Fairfax, Miss Cecilia Gordon; Cecily Cardew, Miss Catherine Broad; Miss Prism, Miss Virginia Harrington; John Worthing, Mr. Gerald Kadel; Algernon Moncrieff, Mr. T. Willey Keithley.

Cigarettes, like Foods — need Seasoning

*That's the part Turkish
Tobaccos play in making
Chesterfields Taste Better*

SMOKERS notice a certain "touch" in Chesterfields that comes from having just enough Turkish tobacco in them . . . a spicy, aromatic flavor that's much the same to a cigarette as seasoning is to food.

For only by blending and cross-blending the right amounts of mild Domestic tobaccos with the right amount of Turkish can we get the flavor and aroma that Chesterfield smokers enjoy.

Next time, ask for "The Cigarette that Satisfies". . . you'll get Chesterfields, with Milder, Better Taste.

Because Grover Cleveland served two terms not in succession, it has been a controversial question whether Franklin D. Roosevelt is to be the 31st or 32d president of the United States. The inaugural meads have settled the matter. They call Roosevelt the 31st president, meaning that Cleveland was one and not two presidents of the United States.

ILLUSION:

In India, the fakirs present a spectacle to tourists. Two lovely performers break bottles and lamp chimneys before the eyes of the audience, and throw the jagged pieces into a box already filled with broken glass. They step barefooted into the box and do an Oriental dance in the glass without injury.

EXPLANATION:

The performers toughen their feet in a strong solution of alum water and thoroughly rub them with pulverized resin before they appear. They throw the freshly broken glass around the edges of the platform. The glass on which they actually do dance is very thick, heavy, and filed or ground so that the sharp edges are rounded off. The girls just pretend to dance on the sharp glass.

CAMELS

It's FUN TO BE FooLED ...IT'S MORE FUN TO KNOW

One of the tricks of cigarette advertising is to pretend that "Heat Treatment" is an exclusive process, making one cigarette better than any other.

EXPLANATION: All cigarette manufacturers use heat treatment. It is a routine process of manufacture. The first Camel cigarette ever made was manufactured under the heat-treating process. Every one of the billions of Camels produced since has received the necessary heat treatment.

Harsh, raw tobaccos require intensive processing under high temperatures. The more expensive tobaccos, which are naturally mild, call for only a moderate application of heat. Heat treatment never can make cheap, inferior tobacco good.

It is a fact, well known by leaf tobacco experts, that Camels are made from finer, MORE EXPENSIVE tobaccos than any other popular brand.

This is the most important statement ever made in a cigarette advertisement. Weigh its words. Consider what it means. Then try Camels.

Camels are fresh...in the air-tight, welded Humidor Pack.
