At Ground-Breaking Ceremony at Head of Christiana

Summer Sessions Of Public School Planned For Area

Newark special school district officials have announced plans for summer school sessions so that parents may plan with their children, and register in order that school administration can arrange for courses to be offered.

The summer program for elementary and secondary school pupils will begin Monday, June 22, and continue through July 31. Elementary classes are scheduled in the Brookside Elementary School on Marrows Road, and secondary school classes at the Newark senior high school.

Junior and senior high pupils may enroll in make-up, enrichment, or in acceleration courses. Make-up courses will be for those who may fall during the regular school year.

Enrichment courses will be offered in band, choral work, and typing. Special emphasis is being given to developing acceleration courses for those who wish to complete a full year's course during the summer session—in mathematics, biology, languages, physics, and chemistry.

School officials emphasized that course offerings are "entirely contingent on maximum enrollments for each class group," and that courses will be offered only if there are sufficient enrollments to insure minimum class sizes.

Summer school sessions for elementary school children will again be offered this year in remedial and developmental reading, as well as in instrumental music.

School officials encourage parents interested in having children participate, to contact their elementary school principal prior to the closing date for registrations on May 29.

As in past years, transportation to both secondary and elementary school summer sessions will be the responsibility of parents.

Head Of Christiana Presbyterian Church Breaks Ground For Educational Building

Ground-breaking ceremonies were held last Sunday morning at the Head of Christiana United Presbyterian Church, for the new educational building to be erected on the green of the present and third church building, now 101 years old. The first church was built of logs over 250 years ago.

This new educational building, 40x64-ft., will be a two-story brick structure with full basement. The contract has been awarded to David R. Eastburn, Jr., of Newark, for October 1959 completion at a cost, with furnishings, of $55,000.

The Rev. Robert W. Tull, pastor, turned the first three spadeful of earth; and James Tunnell, Jr., president of the New Castle Presbytery board of trustees, extended congratulations from the Presbytery.

Others participating in the special ceremony included Martha Ford of Newark, a member for 60 years; W. H. S. Bouchelle, Leeds, Md., an elder for 32 years; Clossie Mench and Larry Timmons, building committee; Edmund Miles, chairman of construction; and Fred Martenis, president of the local board of trustees.

"This educational building marks another milestone in the life of this historic church," Pastor Tull said of the church just off Nottingham Road, west of Newark, with its membership including residents from New Castle County, Del., Cecil County, Md., and Chester County, Pa.—the same as membership of the early congregation.

The Christian education committee, with Willard Raleigh, chairman, is working on placement and arrangement of classes and departments.

Other leaders for this project included John W. Milburn, treasurer; John T. Milburn, financial secretary; and Roger Watkins, chairman of finance.

Roast turkey and mushrooms will be on the menu this Saturday at the public supper to be served in the Hall Memorial Building for the benefit of the Christiana Presbyterian Church. Serving will begin at 4:30, with Mrs. Olan Cleaver, general chairman, and Duncan Anderson in charge of tickets. A variety table will be featured.

Mark Franklin, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Homiller of Hillside Heights, was baptized Sunday morning in the Presbyterian Church, the Rev. Donald A. Crosby officiating.

Elder Roy Pleasanton and Mr.

Crosby were delegates at a meeting of the New Castle Presbytery on Tuesday. The regular Tuesday evening Bible study session was cancelled this week.

Mrs. Donald Douds of Hanover Presbyterian Church was guest speaker at a meeting of the United Presbyterian Women of Christiana on Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Rhoads Speck. Mrs. Douds showed slides and described Warren Wilson Junior College near Asheville, N. C., a self-help Presbyterian school where she served as nurse last summer.

Children of the Presbyterian Sunday School enjoyed an outing and hot dog roast at the A. H. Jones home on Saturday. Rhoads Speck was chairman.

A number of young married couples gathered in the Hall Memorial building last Tuesday for an evening of square dancing. Harry Barnes was the caller.

Cub Pack 125 sponsored by the Christiana Presbyterian Church, held a meeting last Thursday in the Hall Memorial Building. Bobcat badges were awarded to Tommy Kelly, Danny Green, and Raymond Houck. The boys put on an "audience participation" television show with parents as the audience. In the absence of Cubmaster Bill Dennis, who was ill, Committeeman Floyd Cooper was in charge.

A financial canvass for the Methodist Church will take place this Sunday afternoon. Canvassers will meet at the church for lunch and a discussion period before calling in homes of the area.

Vicki Lynn, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McCall Jr., South Old Baltimore Pike, was baptized in the Methodist Church on Sunday morning, the Rev. Arley B. Golden officiating. Also baptized at the same service was Robert Wayne, baby son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hendrickson, North Old Baltimore Pike.

The Christiana-Salem WSCS will meet in the Christiana Church at 8 p.m., next Tuesday. Joy Circle is planning a trip to Washington, D.C. on that day. Anyone interested in joining the group should contact Mrs. Lynam McDowell.

A request to the Christiana-Salem school board to re-run the referendum on consolidation with the Newark special school district, was the outcome of a public meeting in the school auditorium sponsored by the local PTA last Wednesday.

After hearing Dr. Howard Row, assistant superintendent in charge of secondary education, and Dr. Paul Johnston, supervisor of research for the State Department of Education, who presented Dover's official facts and figures on consolidation vs. independence, members of the audience—about 80—unanimously voted to request another referendum. The feeling among many parents is that the March 14 referendum, which defeated the consolidation issue by a vote of 236 to 195, was based on misunderstanding among many residents of the district.

"Fact Sheets" on school problems were distributed, and these may be had by any resident of the district by request to the school office of Mrs. William Graden, committee chairman.

John Currinder, PTA vice-president, presided and introduced the impartial moderator of the discussion period, Edward W. Schall, a state PTA official from the Mount Pleasant school district.

County health officers, assisted by PTA volunteers, are at the local school this afternoon to give the fourth polio vaccine shot.

The Christiana Fire Company Auxiliary will sponsor a turkey dinner in the firehouse on Sunday, April 26. First table will be at 2 p.m.

Nat Morse Announces Rookie Selections For Newark American Little League Play

Nat Morse, president of the Newark American Little League, has announced the selection of rookies for the year to fill out the 15-boy roster for each of the six teams in the American league.

"Spirited bidding marked the auction, and the managers were well pleased with the crop of rookies moving up as a result of gaps left by 1958 graduates," President Morse said. "Many fine candidates could not be chosen simply because of insufficient vacancies—even with the addition of a completely new team," Mr. Morse said wistfully.

Morse pointed out that this season marks the 20th anniversary of Little League Baseball which started in Williamsport, Pa., for a few youngsters in 1939, and which has now mushroomed to include 4,759 official teams with some 750,000 boys. "In spite of this tremendous expansion, many boys everywhere are disappointed each year when they cannot play because of team shortages," Morse mused.

The new team—the Orioles—is sponsored by the First Presbyterian Church, with John E. Cronin and Richard Wilson, managers.

The Cubs, managed by James Ochs and Aubrey Fisher, selected Tim Coffin, Tom Foster, Aubrey and Jeff Fisher as rookie replacements.

The Indians, sponsored by the Newark Lions Club and managed by George Lynch, chose five new players in John Ludlow, Richard Leader, Bryon Stradley, David Clark, and William Miles.

The VFW Phillies, managed by Lloyd Wells and Bill Morgan, acquired rookies Ronald Rust, Kirk Bailey, Pat Joyce, Earl Stoddard, William V. Wilson, and Francis Zevnik.

The Chrysler Dodgers, with Albert Dager and Rudy Basta as managers, picked up rookies William Holley, Robert and Doug Wescott, and Terry Gregg, while the Optimist Braves with Harry McKenry and Richard Lawson as managers, acquired five rookies in Bill Murphy, Mark Brown, Kevin Kennard, Bill Walls, and Richard Bowman.

A meeting of the Newark American Little League will be held next Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the Newark Methodist Church. All parents of Little Leaguers are urged to attend.

Charles M. "Skipper" Wetzel, former Newark resident now living the life of Riley—or Wetzel—in the heart of Pennsylvania's top trout country, receives an accolade in the current issue of Sports Illustrated magazine feature "The Perfect Angler."

The author, identified only as "Sparse Grey Hackle"—and that nom de plume includes Red Smith and a host of other angling authors with thinning, greying locks—writes:

"Charlie Wetzel is the best netter I ever saw. He uses one of those big 'snowshoe' nets, and he doesn't even get it out until the fish is on its side and completely tucked. Standing erect, facing downstream, he sinks the net deep and draws the fish over it. Slowly, gently, he raises the rim of the net, tilting it from side to side to free the meshes from the fish's fins. Then he quietly, deliberately lifts the fish out of water, and it lies in the net as if hypnotized until Charlie grasps the upper meshes to hold it shut."

Delaware's trout fishing season opens this Saturday, and Newark's White Clay and Pike creeks have received the major share of the state's stocking of brook, brown, and rainbow trout.

Warden Will Wideman officiated at the recent trout transfusion, and some stirring sport is in store for sportsmen purchasing the special trout stamp required for legality with this type of fishing.

Hatchery fish or native, a trout's a trout—and his taking is well worth the while for any angler. Reams of copy written of trout fishing, beginning with Sir Isaac and his Compleat Angler, may appear unduly embellished. But a day on a trout stream will convince the skeptic that such writing hardly does justice to the theme. If there is any exaggeration, it is in the finesse required to take a trout. Fishing for, and catching trout is simpler than the experts would have you believe.

Fishing for big game out of Key Largo, Herman Harhoff had his hands full with a 45-lb. amberjack just off the Florida East Coast on a recent trip with his father, Louis. "That was the big one," Herman said, still starry-eyed. "But we had

Capt. Dick Duerr Hits Two Homers In Lehigh Victory

Capt. Dick Duerr blasted two home runs to power the University of Delaware to a 6-0 win over Lehigh here on Tuesday afternoon behind the shutout pitching of Al Neiger.

Duerr hit one in the fourth inning and another in the sixth to account for three of the Blue Hens' five earned runs.

Neiger, meanwhile, struck out 16 and walked only three to extend his string to 27 innings without an earned run.

The victory brought the left-hander's record to 2-0, and he has yet to allow an earned run.

Neiger seemed to get stronger as the game wore on. He struck out the side in each of the seventh, eighth and ninth frames. He had a string of seven consecutive strikeouts going before Lehigh's Pete Jeffers drew a walk in the ninth.

Coach Harold Raymond guided the Hens to a 3-1-1 record on the southern swing.

Babe Ruth League Offers Openings For 50 New Boys

Positions for some 50 newcomers in the Newark Babe Ruth League are open with the formation of two new teams in the now six-team league, and the graduation of 20 players over the 15-year age limit.

Registration and tryouts will be conducted this Saturday at the Central Junior High School field, from 12:30 to 2:30 p.m. for boys 14 to 15, and from 2:30 to 4:30 for 13-year-old boys.

"To be eligible to play in the Babe Ruth League, you must register with your birth certificate," Ken Fell stressed yesterday.

"The Dads are needed, too," Mr. Fell emphasized, "to come out and help make this season a success."

a wonderful day with yellowtail, snapper, and smaller fish," he said, with a long look of longing south across Newark's East Main Street.

Initial Pony League Practice Scheduled Saturday For 8-12-Year-Old Newark Boys

The first player call and practice for the Newark Recreation Pony Leagues is scheduled for this Saturday at 9:30 a.m. at the Newark Junior High and Medill School fields, and 350 boys, 8-12 years of age, are expected for this first tryout.

All boys from Roseville Park, Delaplane Manor, Capitol Trail from the White Clay Creek Bridge, Red Mill Road, Harmony Hills, Sycamore Gardens, Newkirk Estates, Hillside Heights, Birchwood Park, Tanglewood, Ogletown, Christiansa, Chestnut Hill Estates and the Eden-Bear areas are to report to the Medill diamond. All other boys are to report to the Newark Junior High field.

Some 250 boys are expected to return from last season's 16 teams which made up the American, National, Major and International Pony Leagues, and another 100 are expected to be on hand for mass drill and organization Saturday morning.

The Recreation Pony Leagues are open to any 8-12-year-old boy in the Newark special school district. The boys must be eight before the playing season and cannot turn 13 during the season. All new candidates for the leagues must have copies of their birth certificates when they register Saturday morning.

Don Connell Wins First Place Prize In Beagle Stakes

Donald Connell of Newark won first place with his 13-inch class beagle, Currie's Sookie, during Saturday's 1958 Winners Stake of the Eastern Beagle Club at Hallowick du Pont's estate near Newark on March 28.

Other Newark winners were Arthur Abel, third, with Tony of Walnut Hill; Lou Eckrich, fourth, with Oakwood Susie; and Bob Connell, fifth, with Connell's Thomas.

Don Connell won first and second places last Sunday at the final field trial until next September, with Furry of Walnut Hill and Currie's Sookie in the 13-inch class.

A league for 15-17-year-old boys, and a league for 12-18-year-old girls will be formed later.

Managers' meetings are scheduled April 14 for the City and Industrial Leagues, and on April 22 for the Church League.

COACH TALAROWSKI Cites Yellowjacket Speed, Experience

Newark Nine Prepares For Tuesday's Opener With Eight Lettermen

Coach Joe Talarowski's Yellowjackets have displayed hitting speed and experience as they prepare for their season opener against William Penn in Newark next Tuesday.

Ace Jaquette and Bill Pollari, both holdovers, may supply the pitching demanded of a pennant-winner Jaquette compiled a 3-0 record last year, and Pollari was 1-1 as the Newark nine copped six of 10 games.

Talarowski has six other lettermen, including Third Baseman Luke Lackman, who hit a fantastic 430 last year, and Outfielder Frank Jezzy, 334.

Other lettermen are Walt Mackey, catcher; Carl Rice, first base; Dave Stimmler, shortstop, and Alan Adams, infielder.

Top new prospects include Marshall Saunders and Lloyd Wells, outfielders; Bill Thompson, second baseman, and Pearlle Hubbard, pitcher.

Hubbard, a sophomore, is a brother of Herman Hubbard, last year's star Newark High outfielder signed by the Milwaukee Braves for a $10,000 bonus.

Intermediates End Regulation Season To Begin Playoffs

The Newark Recreation Intermediate Boys Basketball League concluded its regular season last Monday at the Armory, as the league-leading Bandits trounced the Aardvarks 78-23.

Captain Guy Johnson paced the winners' attack with 10 baskets and two fouls for 22 points, and John Link, the league's top scoring ace, hit for 16 and a total of 180 points for the season.

The Bandits' Rod Blansfield and Vernon Hayman each scored 14, and Jack McCold contributed 12 points in the winning cause.

Jack Hummel netted 10 points for the Aardvarks, followed by teammate Herb Word with eight.

The top four teams in the Intermediate League will compete in the playoffs to be held April 9, 13, 16, 20, 21 and 23 at the Armory.

COACH Raymond's Nine Plays Today At Navy; Faces In Saturday Home Stand; Tennis, Lacrosse, Track Scheduled For Saturday Tests; Golfers Play Tomorrow

Spring sports activity at the University of Delaware shifts into high gear with action on all fronts this afternoon. Coach Harold Raymond's baseball team, the only squad has seen extensive action up to now, continues its schedule with a game at Navy this afternoon. The Hens will play against PMC on Saturday at 2 p.m. on Frazer Field.

The lacrosse and tennis teams opened their season yesterday at Swarthmore and at Temple, and Coach Rocky Carzo's stickmen meet Stevens Tech on Saturday, while Rutgers entertains Roy Rylander's netmen.

Carzo looks to a better season this year after his team racked up a 3-6 record in his first year as coach. He said the team has better balance and better defense but lacks scoring punch.

Coach Rylander's tennis team will be seeking to equal last year's 11-1 record—best in the school's history.

The varsity and freshmen trackmen are set to face the season's strongest opponents in Lehigh at Bethlehem, Pa., this Saturday.

Last year's opener with the Engineers proved the only blemish on the Hens' six meet schedule.

The team looked strong in the running events in pre-season practice meets last month, but felt the loss of Cliff Browning in the field. Browning was one of the top trackmen last year.

Coach Irv Wisniewski's golf team, a veteran squad that compiled a 4-5 record last year, will open by entertaining Bucknell at the DuPont Country Club Louviers course tomorrow at 1:30 p.m. The Bisons, looking for improvement over last season's 5-8 record, boast five re-

Barwick Warns Of Oats Treated By Fumigation

Oats fumigated with ethylene dibromide must be aerated thoroughly before they can be fed to laying hens, or losses in egg production may result, reports Ralph Barwick, poultryman at the University of Delaware.

The Department of Agriculture has issued a bulletin stating that limited tests have shown that ethylene dibromide in oats can reduce the size of the egg. However, experimental results show that grain can be aerated so no ill effects will result from feeding.

Horticulturist Charles Dunham Advises On Care, Future For Easter Gift Plants

Did you receive a plant at Easter time? And do you wonder what to do with it?

According to Dr. Charles W. Dunham, University of Delaware horticulturist, some of these plants will grow outside—others are good house plants—and a few are not suited for either house plants or outdoor culture. The following list of some of the Easter plants will give you an idea of what to do with them.

The species of common Easter lily is not reliably hardy in this locality. They will often flower again in the fall if put outdoors, however. After danger of frost is past, sink the pots in the ground in a well-protected place with partial sunlight, Dr. Dunham suggests.

They should be kept in this location about two weeks. After that, remove from the pot and transplant into the garden, using about one-half handful of fertilizer well mixed into the soil before planting.

Hyacinths are bulbous plants which are hardy in this climate. Keep them in the house in a cool, sunny location until after blooming. They can be set in the garden after danger of frost is past. However, hyacinths which have been forced for Easter blossoms sometimes do not bloom in the garden the next year and it may take several years before the bulb regains its vitality.

Tulips are hardy in this area and may be kept in the garden as soon as frost is over. Put in a good location away from shrubs and spade in a small amount of fertilizer before planting. Don't cut the leaves off until they wither and die.

Most Easter hydrangeas are

These plants are not too well suited to this locality as the flower buds are often killed by frost in the early spring. If protected with a bushel basket over the top during winter, most will come thru and flower.

There are many different types of azaleas sold at Easter time. Some are hardy and some are not. They should be hardened off after flowering and then planted in the garden, providing soil conditions as needed for any outdoor azalea.

The gardenia is a house plant only and not hardy in this area. It does not grow well under conditions in most homes. If you would like to try them as a house plant, plant them outdoors in late spring in a sheltered spot with partial shade. Take up in the fall before frost and try to keep it growing as a house plant.

Counsel-Guidance Summer Institute Scheduled At U.D.

The University of Delaware has been selected as one of 40 universities and colleges to hold a Counseling and Guidance Institute this summer.

Funds for the special program have been allocated under provisions of the National Defense Education Act authorized by Congress and administered by the U. S. Office of Education.

The university will receive $25,000 to operate its institute from June 22 through July 31. Although it has been scheduled during the regular summer school session, it will function independently.

Delaware's institute, under the direction of Dr. Wilfred A. Pemberton, professor of psychology and education, and supervisor of counseling and testing for the dean of students office, will be tailored to the needs of counselors and potential counselors from high schools in this vicinity.

Dr. Pemberton, who joined the staff of the University of Delaware in 1951, is a graduate of the University of Chicago and has had 10 years teaching experience in public schools. He has been chief petty officer in the U. S. Navy, counselor and chief examiner for the University of Chicago Guidance Clinic, and a psychological consultant to industry.

Financial Records Provided By Wives Aid At Tax Time

Now that spring and income tax time is here, most of us are finding it hard to sit down and work at those fearsome forms.

It is the time of year when husbands appreciate the financial records the woman in the house has been keeping all year... if she has been keeping them.

Miss Patricia A. Middleton, home management specialist with the extension service at the University of Delaware, says the modern wife in many homes handles her family's small finances—the day-in day-out spending—and makes sure that recurrent bills get paid on time; utilities, doctor and dentist, charge accounts and installments, life insurance premiums, mortgage or rent.

A wife may keep a folder or she may keep receipts, cancelled checks and bills in one particular desk or dresser drawer. When a husband and wife sit down to work out their joint income tax returns, the little woman turns up all the badly needed papers that back up the tax deductions.

Often it is the wife who sees the hidden value of maintaining charge accounts at the gas station, the drug store and elsewhere. Charge accounts provide a month-by-month record of gasoline and sales taxes, for prescriptions and other deductible drugstore items.
