NUMBER 8

COMMENCEMENT AT DELAWARE

The Affair is Expected to Be Of More Than Usual Interest this Year

The program for what will probably be the greatest commencement in the history of Delaware College is practically completed. The exercises will start this year on Sunday, June 6, and end Wednesday, June 9, which is one week earlier than it has been the custom to hold the commencements in the past. This one will be one of unusual interest, as it is expected that announcement will be made, possibly at the meeting of the Board of Trustees, relative to the extension plans that have been considered for some time, which include purchase of the many properties that options have been secured on by the college authorities in Newark.

On Sunday, June 6, the usual Young Men's Christian Association meeting will be held in the Oratory at 1 o'clock in the morning and the sermon will be preached by President Evans of Crozer Seminary, Chester, Pa. Rev. U. Franklin Smiley, of West Presbyterian Church, Wilmington, will preach the baccalaureate sermon in the Oratory at 8 o'clock that evening.

Monday morning, June 7, all will be welcome to visit and inspect the college farm, as well as Delaware College and the Women's College, but there will be no program of entertainment. Monday afternoon the class day exercises will be held in the Oratory. At 5 o'clock in the afternoon President and Mrs. Mitchell will entertain the graduates at their home on Depot Road, and in the evening the Agricultural Club will repeat the play, "The Jonah," which was given recently with such success.

Tuesday morning, June 8, the trustees will hold their annual meeting, when officers will be elected, reports submitted and other business transacted.

The same morning the usual competitive drill of the cadets for the Roberts medal will take place.

At 2.30 o'clock in the afternoon the Alumni will give a spectacular parade on the athletic field.

At 3.30 o'clock the inter-class field and track meet will be held.

In the evening at 6.30 o'clock the Alumni reunion and luncheon will take place and at 8 o'clock there will be a concert by the orchestra and inter-society debate.

The commencement exercises, will take place at 10.30 o'clock Wednesday morning, in the Oratory. The address to the graduates will be made by President Thwing of Western Reserve University. The student orators will be Russell Paynter, representing the arts and science department; Allen Sherwood Wise, representing the engineering department, and Washington Irving Brockson, representing the agricultural department. At 12.30 o'clock, following the exercises, luncheon will be served to visitors and alumni members. The annual business meeting of the Alumni Association will be held in the gymnasium at 2 o'clock, and at 2.30 o'clock there will be a reception at the Women's College. The Alumni and Varsity will play the annual baseball game at 4.30 o'clock in the afternoon.

"Cap Night" Commencement Week

Plans are being made by the three lower classes to hold a "Cap Night" during Commencement Week. This, though an old stunt at other institutions, has never been established at Delaware. The date will probably be Saturday night, June 5. The students will assemble at 8.30 and march to the D. C. Rose Field, where a big bonfire will be lighted. After speeches, songs, yells, cheers, and snake dances, the Freshmen will encircle the fire, throw off the bonds of the first year man, and cast the little red cap with a green button into the crackling blaze. The band will keep the crowd full of "pep." And a night shirt parade by the Freshmen will add to the hilarity.

Straw Hat Day For Delaware

At the "Smoker" held in the oratory Friday evening, May 7, it was suggested that May 15 be designated as the annual straw hat day at Delaware.

This date is the occasion of the Annual Interscholastic Meet on Joe Frazer Field and no better day could be determined upon for a straw hat day than this annual event.

Do We Want A "Get Together Hour?"

There has been some discussion among the student body as to the need of an hour each month set aside for a meeting of the student body to talk over activities of the college and phases of student life. Many believe that such an hour would further our common interests. In the past when it was necessary to hold such a meeting, in order to have the largest number possible of the students present, we had to meet during the noon hour. This has proved inconvenient for both the student body and faculty. It meant "hurry to lunch and hurry back" for the students. Then if the meeting did not come to a close before recitations were resumed, there was a conflict of interests between students and faculty when we appeared at classes ten or fifteen minutes late.

Dr. Mitchell, upon being approached on the subject, stated that off hand he believed that the faculty would set aside a certain hour each month for such a meeting if the student body felt a keen need for it.

Inspection Of Cadets

On Monday, May 3, Captain S. J. Bayard Schindel, General Staff, U. S. Army, made the annual inspection of the Delaware College cadet corps. The battalion was formed in dress uniform on Frazer Field at 2 o'clock; and, after the review and inspection, battalion, company, and close order drill was held until 4 o'clock, when the cadets fell out for twenty minutes to change into the service uniform. Skirmish and open-order drill, Butt's manual, bayonet drill, and calisthenic exercises, were then given. The battalion was dismissed at 6 o'clock. The inspection was very satisfactory; the appearance and general deportment of the cadets was in every way a credit to the college.

'VARSITY ATHLETICS

On May 5, in the first of the inter-class baseball games the Juniors defeated the Seniors 23 to 0. Bounds pitched for the Juniors, and allowed the Seniors only four hits. The Seniors lost because of their numerous errors. The score by innings follows:
Juniors 0 0 0 2 4 8 9 —23

Side-lights on the Game

Cann was manager, catcher, pitcher, and grandstand for the senior team. When he caught a fly ball in the second inning, he put down his glove, and joined in the applause.

Bounds, the bow-legged "biffer" bowled a bouncing "bingle," bringing both ball players home.

Handy and Jones had a game of football in the third inning. Handy touched Jones with the ball, and immediately the senior did a flip-flop. Incidentally, Handy had his nose broken.

It was announced yesterday after the game was over, that "Gumshoe" Irwin, the scout for the New York Americans, was down to see the game. He signed "Shorty" Alderson to a contract to play in the New York Sunday School League. Good boy, Shorty!

When Jones stepped up to the plate in the second inning he batted cross-handed. When he came up the next time he batted left-handed. One of the fans remarked about it. Joseph's sponsor replied that he could hit them just as well one way as the other—or else not.

"Harp" Lindsay had a good day at short. He accepted three chances faultlessly. "Harp" had some shamrocks in his pocket, his enemies declare.

"Turkey-red" Wills appeared in his old uniform. Of course everyone knows "Connie" is an ex-Boston Red Sox player, don't they?

Dorsey signed a contract yesterday to coach the "Newark Giants." His fielding at third base was sensational. Many times, when the ball seemed to be going to third, Dorsey fooled everybody, and let the sphere bounce to left field.

"Beef" Ramsey was the slugger of the day. He lived up to his reputation for speed on the bases. Keep it up, Beef; you will soon be a "Ty" Cobb.

Coach McAvoy has informed Morrison that he, Coach McAvoy, wishes said Morrison to report for 'varsity practice. "Soapy" is a novelty. He is a port-sider.

Our suggestion for the umpire of the next game is—"Robby." Just think, if "Robby" had officiated in the Senior-Junior game. Wouldn't the Seniors have got square with him?

Delaware Wallops Washington

On Friday, May 7, "Buck" Hoch twirled Delaware to a glorious victory over her old rivals, Washington College. "Buck" was the hero of the game; it was his hitting that put Delaware in the lead. In the sixth inning with the bases full, he knocked a three-bagger. Don Horsey also helped the "Blue and Gold" considerably when he rattled pitcher Biddle so effectively in the third inning. Score by innings:

Washington 0 3 0 0 0 2 0 1 0—6
Delaware . 0 0 0 1 0 5 0 3 x—9

Delaware Representatives At Johns Hopkins

Delaware will be represented at the inauguration of Dr. Frank Johnson Goodnow on May 20, 1915, as president of Johns Hopkins University. This promises to be a great occasion as many of the leading men of our country will be present including President Wilson and Secretary of State Bryan. Delaware representatives will be Dr. George A. Harter, Professor Elisha Conover, and Professor George E. Dutton, all of whom are Johns Hopkins men.

On May 21, following the inauguration of Dr. Goodnow, suitable exercises will be held at the formal opening of the new building of the University at Homewood.

Delaware Men Receive Fellowships

Recently W. I. Brockson, '15, was recommended to the Iowa State Board of Education by Iowa State College for an appointment to a graduate research fellowship in that college. According to authentic information Mr. Brockson's appointment will be only a matter of a few weeks.

Several weeks ago Paul Emerson, '14, who is now doing graduate work both here and at the University of Pennsylvania, received an appointment to a fellowship at the same institution.

Tennis At Delaware

Hitherto tennis has been an undeveloped and almost unnoticed branch of athletics at Delaware College. With two excellent courts on Joe Frazer Field, Delaware College may now look forward to some interesting and lively matches with other colleges.

Professor Dutton, who is recognized in Delaware as an excellent tennis player, has kindly consented to coach our 'varsity squad. He knows the fine points of the game, and should be a valuable aid to the Delaware team.

Many of the students have been on the courts every afternoon, and much interest has been shown by the student body in the elimination games that have been played in order to select the 'varsity men.

We meet Drexel Institute, at home, on May 11, 1915, and the University of Maryland, at Baltimore, on May 19, 1915. The results of the elimination games follow:

Wier, '18, defeated Brown, '15, by default; M. R. Mitchell, '18, defeated Groff, '16, 7 to 5, 5 to 7, and 6 to 2; Walls, '16, defeated Hoey, '18, 6 to 4 and 9 to 7; Sumwalt, '18, defeated Gooden, '18, 6 to 1 and 6 to 0; R. H. Pepper, '17, defeated Wheeler, '18, 6 to 4, and 6 to 2; Grieves, '15, defeated Gibney, '15, 6 to 4, 5 to 7, and 6 to 3; Martin, '16, defeated Smith, '18, 6 to 4, 7 to 5; Lauritsen defeated Martin, '16, 8 to 6, and 6 to 3.

New Instructors At Delaware

The committee on instruction in the Board of Trustees is on the lookout at present for four or five young graduates of our leading universities to assist the present teaching staff. This year the faculty has been somewhat overcrowded with work owing to the additional classes at the Women's College.

DELAWARE ALUMNI IN PENNSYLVANIA

Former Students Of The College Organize Section In Pittsburgh

Dr. Samuel C. Mitchell, president of Delaware College, has received an interesting letter from R. B. Harvey, a graduate of the class of 1912, who is now in the sales department of the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company, at Pittsburgh, giving details of the organization in Pittsburgh on April 24, at the Fort Pitt Hotel, of the "Delaware College Alumni, Western Pennsylvania Section." There are a large number of Old Delaware graduates working in Pittsburgh and vicinity. Mr. Harvey gave a list of those who attended the meeting when the organization was effected and the concerns they are now connected with as follows:

W. L. Hirsh, class 1900, Bureau of Water, and T. B. McKeown, 1900, No. 510 House Building; H. F. Ferguson, '04, J. R. Kelley, '08, and R. W. Cranston, '14, with the W. P. T. Co; R. B. Harvey, '12, I. S. Lank, '13, S. M. Shallcross and Emery W. Loomis, '14, with the Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing Company; D. Raymond McNeal, '14, Westinghouse Machine Company; W. L. Fader, '02, General Electric Company, and F. E. Ferguson ex-'14, McKeesport.

The following officers were elected: W. L. Fader, president; T. B. McKeown, vice-president; R. B. Harvey, secretary, and S. M. Shallcross, treasurer. The secretary was instructed to take steps to find out the names of other Delaware men in the district to get them in the organization.

This organization promises to be a live one and will do much to keep Old Delaware before the public in that district. Each number agreed to subscribe to the Alumni News, the first issue of which was published several weeks ago. A number of them are also planning to attend the commencement exercises this year. The members discussed the matter of keeping on the lookout for men graduating from high schools in their home towns in Delaware with a view to having them consider Delaware as the college for furthering their education.

New "Farmer" Board

On Thursday evening, April 22, a new editorial board for the "Delaware Farmer" was elected. The new board consists of the following men:

Editor-in-Chief—Robert Weimer
Asst. Editor-in-Chief—W. C. Newton.
Animal Husbandry—E. W. Seeley
Horticulture—L. G. Mulholland
Agronomy—W. V. Marshall

THE NEW REVIEW

This issue of the Review must be regarded as a transitional number entirely tentative in its nature. It is an absolute departure from previous editions and it prophesies greater changes to come. We have felt for a long while that the Review was not fulfilling its purpose,—that it was not reaching the student body. We have felt that it was not performing its function of being the most unifying, intellectual force in college undergraduate life. Surely the college paper should be all that. And this state of affairs we have attributed partly to the limitations of the Review itself and partly to the lack of interest and general apathy of the student body.

In a college like Delaware it is exceedingly difficult to have a paper which will appeal to engineers, agriculturists, and arts and science men. It would be easy enough to make an adequate appeal to everybody were we in a position to publish two papers,—one containing all the news of the campus, and the other being purely literary in character. But we cannot publish two papers at the present time; so it is a question which of the two types would be the better appeal to the majority of men. A number of arts and science men have held that we should retain the literary form of the Review; they have held that it is more dignified than a news-sheet,—more fitted to represent us as a college. We must say to these arts and science men that there has been a great paucity of literary material of any merit; we have had but few literary efforts published which we should care to hold up as exponents of our efficiency in philosophy, English composition, and our acquaintance with those things which make for "sweetness and light." The engineers and "aggies," on the other hand, have openly confessed that they do not care for the Review as it now stands, and we feel that they have some good reasons for their dissatisfaction. The paper needs more "snap," more life. It needs to be more intimately connected with the student body; it needs to feel more sensitively the pulse of the campus.

And so, fellow students, we of the editorial board have decided that we shall make a change. Just what that change will be, we do not know as yet. Probably we shall issue the paper, in its present leaflet form, every week. We shall fill it with news of the campus, announcements of lectures, and desires of the instructors, criticisms of existing conditions, student thought on student life in all its phases, a few literary efforts should they prove sufficiently meritorious, a calendar of social and athletic events, and a department for jokes.

In order to bring out such a paper weekly, we shall need the help and the interest of every Delaware man. We shall want every student to think of himself as an amateur reporter and to turn in all the news which he thinks of general interest. We want to make this paper the biggest single influence in Delaware College life. And to this end, we the new editorial board, pledge you our best efforts. We shall welcome suggestions of all kinds. You, the student body, can help to mold the paper into a more perfect index of your own life and ideals. As we have said before, this number represents the Review in a transitional stage, in a state of plasticity. Your impress will, in great part, determine its final form.

LOCALS

It is rumored that Doc Harter intends to hold his finals under the honor system. It goes without saying that more than one "physicist" will wish for a rubber conscience when that time comes around.

K. O. Kienle and One-Round Carswell met in a fast and furious bout the other day. It was one of the classiest little scraps ever staged in Newark, and those who witnessed it may congratulate themselves upon having seen the solution to the "irresistible force and impassable barrier" problem of much discussion. When the smoke had cleared away, both warriors were carried from the scene of combat by admiring friends. To all appearance the scrap was a draw, but J. H. Jones, Jr., Kienle's manager, and Jim James, who books Carswell's bouts, promise another engagement between their respective scrappers. Library books, chairs, and table-legs will be the weapons. The gate receipts will go to found a home for indigent Tom-cats.

The morning after the Orchestra Concert in Wilmington, Bake Taylor favored the "Commuters' Club" with his presence on the 8.20. Bake hadn't had time to change his dress suit and so easily "beat" his way to Newark by pretending to be the president of the road.

Jones and Ruth, forming the Sophomores' stellar quarter-mile relay team, recently cut their time for the quarter down to 79 4-5.

On a recent visit to the Affiliated College we noticed that the hands and pendulum of the large hall clock were missing. These essential parts evidently were removed as punishment to the clock for registering the hour of 10 p. m. so early in the evening.

Bowen, 18, is suffering from a badly sprained face. He tried to look pleasant when the picture of the battalion was taken, and was unable to resume his natural expression.

After the Drexel game, Lee Rose heard someone say that there was a bad hole in the infield. The next day Lee went out with a wheelbarrow full of soil to patch things up, but couldn't find the hole referred to. Now he's looking for the guy that made the remark. They were seated on the sofa, The engagement was quite new; In a ring he had invested, She had promised to be true.

She started with a pout, But he promptly moved up closer, And left no room for doubt.

Ruth—"Beauchamp, would you marry a girl if she was as pretty as a picture?"

Kienle (signal corps)—"Gee, I have an awful headache.

Woodman—"You must be mis-

As a result of too much home-made pie eaten shortly before, Hopkins keeled over after doing double time around the field. The hospital corps got busy and carted him off. Evidently "Hop's" wound wasn't serious, as he resumed drill shortly afterwards.

Delaware Victorious Over Haverford

Bob Wallace pitched another shut-out on Saturday, in the Haverford game. Only twenty-nine men faced him in nine innings. One man knocked a single to centre field which Gray fumbled, the Haverford man taking third. Wallace caught this player napping soon afterward thus ending Haverford's only chance to score. Score by innings:

Delaware . 0 2 1 0 0 1 0 0 x—4

Two base hit, Gray. Stolen bases, Doherty, 3, Lukens. Sacrifice hits, Gray, D. Horsey. Double plays, Wallace to Geoghegan, Chandler to Hanneman to Sangree. Struck out, by Wallace, 10; by Buzby, 8. Base on balls, off Buzby, 1. Time 1.40. Umpire, Ryan.

Gettysburg Shades "Blue and Gold"

Delaware lost to Gettysburg in her first track meet of the season, score 57 to 42. Crockett, Manning, and Captain Smith broke the Delaware records while Bostock and Schaffer broke Gettysburg's. Crockett broke both the hurdle records at Delaware, Manning broke his own high jump record and Smith smashed the broad jump record.

100-yard dash—Won by Bostock, G.; Manning, D., second; Smith, D., third. Time, 9 4-5 seconds.

Pole vault—Nixon, G., and Hesse, G., tied for first place; Gibney, D., third. Height, 9 feet, 2 inches.

Sergeant Frazer sprang quite a surprise on his many admirers by his appearance at inspection. Some one was heard to remark that if service stripes were given for each year in service, instead of three, the sergeant would have looked like a zebra.

McCaghey broke three buttons and four hooks off his uniform during the skirmish drill on the 3rd.

There is a certain originality and distinctiveness in the clothes you buy at this Store, that makes them seem made to your measure.

And the quality, workmanship and style in the clothes cannot be duplicated elsewhere at even near the prices we ask.

For these reasons the better dressers come here. They are on the safe side. They know that new styles and materials come here first.

As an additional economy, we give Pink Stamps with every purchase. A filled book is redeemable in any merchandise you may select from this Store, to the extent of $3.00.

Store opens 8:30, closes 5:30, Saturdays at 9:30 P. M.
