W. W. BACON RE-ELECTED REPUBLICAN GOVERNOR

James F. Hearn Only Republican To Win Out On County Ticket

Republican majorities in rural New Castle County, Sussex County and a slight Republican lead in Kent County enabled Governor Walter W. Bacon, incumbent Republican candidate for re-election, to defeat Dr. Isaac J. McCullom, Democratic candidate, by 1,777 votes (one Sussex County dist. missing) in the election held Tuesday that saw President Roosevelt swept into office for an unprecedented fourth term with a popular vote lead of approximately two and one-half million over Governor Thomas E. Dewey, New York.

A strong early lead in Wilmington city districts gave Dr. McCullom a decided advantage in early returns but when rural county districts began reporting Governor Bacon overcame the Democratic lead of 2,702 piled up in Wilmington and emerged with a majority of 262 votes in the entire county. Kent County (McCullom's home county) gave Bacon a majority of 83 votes and Sussex County came through with 1,432 for the Governor to give him an estimated majority of 1,777 in the state.

The rest of the State ticket went Democratic as did all county offices in traditionally Democratic Kent County with Republican candidates winning all offices in Sussex County. In New Castle County incumbent Coroner James F. Hearn was the only successful Republican candidate, defeating Andrew P. Gornowski by 260 votes.

In contest involving Newark candidates Weldon C. Waples, Republican candidate for Senate from the sixth senatorial district (Red Lion and St. Georges Hundreds), was defeated by John R. Butler, Democrat by a majority of 102 votes.

John B. McDaniel, Middletown Republican candidate for Representative from the Eleventh District (Pencader Hundred) defeated Ralph Smith, Democrat, by a majority of 109 votes.

Clarence E. McVey, incumbent Republican, defeated James C. Robinson, Democrat candidate, for representative from the Ninth District by a majority of 240 votes.

Four out of the five voting districts in White Clay Creek gave substantial Republican majorities with District No. 2 (Dennison Garage) the only local district giving the Democrats even a slim majority.

From the unofficial returns it was evident that Republicans held control of both houses in the Legislature. In the Senate, Republicans will control eleven seats to the Democrats six while in the House of Representatives Republicans are conceded nineteen seats to the Democrats fifteen.

The general theme for the day will be "Rebuilding with Christ, the Hope of the World." Admiral C. W. Nimitz, commander-in-chief of the Pacific Fleet, United States Navy, has endorsed Men and Missions Sunday with the following comment: "Alert to do God's Will, and supported by His Presence, all of us carry on, confident that the day is not far distant when freedom's holy light shall shine forth as never before, and, as never before, God's will shall be done on earth as it is in Heaven."

DELAWARE FARM FRONT THIS WEEK

Thanksgiving Turkeys Are Again Scarce

The Delaware Crop Improvement Association will hold its 36th Annual Exhibit at the Armory in Dover December 14, 15, and 16, according to C. E. Phillips, secretary of the organization and agronomist for the Delaware Agricultural Extension Service. Premiums for the show are provided by the Delaware State Legislature.

December 5th has been set as the date for AAA community committee elections, according to an announcement from C. E. Ocheltree, chairman of the state AAA committee. Farmers will be notified of voting places by their county committees. All farmers are urged to take this opportunity to help administer the AAA program.

Two major changes in the OPA used agricultural containers regulation bring under its coverage farmers' cooperative associations and open lot dealers. Farmers' cooperative associations, formerly covered by the General Maximum Price Regulation, are now entitled to higher prices established for sellers under the used agricultural containers regulation. Open lot dealers in California, Washington, Oregon, Utah, Nevada, and Arizona previously could not qualify as dealers and thus receive dealers' prices set up by the regulation. This minor change states that the dealer is entitled to the dealer's mark-up for good containers in the lot only if he reconditions those in the same lot which need repairing.

The War Production Board has announced approval, as of October 17, of 35 applications for production of additional farm machinery under the "spot authorization plan", which permits scheduling of production that will not impede the war effort. Applications have been approved for manufacturing harvesting machinery, dairy and poultry equipment, wheel type farm tractors, wagons, and earth working machinery.

Under the turkey procurement orders, only about one-half of the turkeys needed for holiday dinners for service men and women have been procured. It is imperative that the Army get 60,000,000 pounds of turkey as soon as possible so that the order can be terminated, but the order will not be terminated until this quantity is procured. It is taking longer to meet military requirements for turkey this year than last, because military requirements are considerably higher and also because there is a shortage of labor in processing plants. Turkeys for civilian Thanksgiving may be short of the demand, though the crop this year is expected to be the biggest on record. For later holidays, civilians should have plenty. But the sooner the Army is sold enough to meet needs, the sooner the embargo will be removed.

The ceiling price on hogs weighing 240 pounds and under has been extended to hogs weighing 270 pounds and under, the OPA has announced. The price is $14.75 a hundredweight, Chicago basis. Hogs weighing over 270 pounds are priced at $14.00 per hundredweight, Chicago basis. This action, effective October 30, 1944, was taken because of the greatly improved feed situation in relation to the number of hogs and because the hog crop for the current season of 1945 is below anticipated production. Wholesale and retail price levels will not be affected.

Originally, all hogs sold at the highest ceiling. However, on May 15, 1944, on account of adverse feed situation, hogs weighing over 240 pounds were given the lowest ceiling to preserve corn stocks on hand for more vital war purposes.

Seeking to assure the nation ample reserves of petroleum for greatly expanded peacetime uses, ten oil companies now have geo-physical crews working in Alabama, where oil was recently discovered in the western part of the state.

This is probably the first time you've ever seen War Bonds fishing

That man in the boat up there is Bill Brown. In about five minutes he's going to land the biggest bass in the world—well, almost the biggest.

The time is 1954. And even Mr. Brown doesn't know yet about the big one he's going to land. But Bill is working hard today—in 1944—saving money—and buying War Bonds and still more War Bonds. After all, the Browns have two boys in the Navy and as he says, "It's little enough that we do, but it's the best we know how."

The happy side of Mr. Brown's saving is that he's laying the ground work for a secure old age for his wife and himself. And according to Mr. Brown, "that means fishing."

1944 is a good year for saving money. Because of the war there is a shortage of purchasable material. Because of this shortage prices are higher and dollars can't buy as much as they probably will 10 years from now, say. If you will plan your saving now—work it out with pencil and paper—your spending later will be more profitable to you and your family. And the best way to save now is to buy War Bonds. Another good way is to add regularly to your bank account so that you will have ready cash for emergencies.

Your bank account may help you to hold your War Bonds straight through to profitable maturity.

Help the nation's efforts to keep your living costs DOWN, the buying power at your dollar UP.

Craftsman Narrowly Escapes Injury

On Friday evening on the Singler Road about 2 miles from Elkton, Harry H. Cleaves, head Craftsman at Kells narrowly escaped serious injury when his car was struck by that of Allmon Hamilton of Fair Hill, driven by Walter Brown of Providence.

The latter car was running without lights, a circumstance which was largely responsible for the accident.

The occupants apart from a general shaking up, were not injured but both cars were badly damaged and were removed by ambulance next morning for repairs.

Homecoming Day

As previously noted, next Saturday is the date set for the big Home-Coming Day at the Red Men's Home. Plans are about completed and all look forward to a notable celebration.

Donnell's Grove Sold

The Women's Home Missionary Society of the Presbyterian Church will meet at the home of the Misses Eleanor and Etta Todd tomorrow (Thursday) evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Local Man Wins Automobile

Much local interest centered in the carnival last week by the members of the Singler Fire Company of Elkton. Many residents attended each night. Charles W. Strahorn of this town broke all selling records when he disposed of 100 automobile coupons in three hours. Among these was the coupon which "brought home the bacon" for Chester Moore was awarded the automobile on Saturday night.

The fire company cleared over $6,000. Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Wright are spending a couple of weeks at Atlantic City, N. J.

School Board Holds Meeting

A meeting of the local school board was held last night at the high school building. Routine business was transacted and a substitute teacher, Miss Jones, confirmed. The site for the new building was discussed. A report on terms for the Huber Company was received from D. C. Rose.

The secretary reported that the county treasurer on advice of counsel will not honor bills presented until after the decision concerning the code is rendered by the State judges after Friday's hearing.

To Hold First Meeting

The New Century Club will hold its first meeting of the 1919-20 season in their club rooms on Tuesday afternoon, October 7, at 2:30 o'clock.

A short business meeting will be followed by the reading of a report from the State Federation held in Wilmington early in June.

A reception will then be given to the officers, elected and installed at the close of the last club year.

Those officers are as follows: president, Mrs. H. T. Neale; first vice-president, Mrs. J. O. G. Duffy; second vice-president, Mrs. J. P. Cann; recording secretary, Mrs. C. A. McCue; corresponding secretary, Mrs. George L. Townsend; treasurer, Miss Eleanor Harter; press correspondent, Miss Nellie Wilson.

The program for the club year is nearly completed and gives promise of being more than usually interesting.

Enjoy Picnic Supper

A delightful picnic supper was enjoyed on the lawn at the S. J. Wright residence on Thursday evening. Corn was roasted picnic style in the fire place of the pool room, and music, bowling and other games enjoyed by the guests.

Those present included in addition to the Wright family, Mr. and Mrs. J. Pearce Cann, Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Bonham, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Truitt, Mr. and Mrs. George L. Townsend, Jr., and Miss Ethel Campbell and Edith Spencer.

Miss Margaret Cook spent the weekend with Miss Elizabeth Dawson of Elkton.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Warner McNeal are spending a vacation at Asbury Park, N. J.

URGE FALL FERTILIZER USE FOR CROP YIELD

Proper Usage May Develop Increased Crop Production

"Proper use of fertilizers during the fall could increase considerably the yields of crops for feed supplies as well as grain crops for human and industrial consumption," says C. E. Phillips, agronomist for the Delaware Agricultural Extension Service. Since no additional land would be needed and little additional labor, Mr. Phillips points out that these increased yields of crops highly essential in the war food program would contribute to greater productive efficiency on most farms, too.

With the prices of fertilizers now low in relation to the prices of most farm products, it will pay to use more of these materials than is generally used. Moreover, fall is the best time to get needed fertilizer supplies, since it is usually the slack time in fertilizer sales and distribution. In support of his ideas on increasing yields through fall applications of fertilizers, Mr. Phillips points to results obtained by research scientists of the Delaware Agricultural Experiment Station as well as to actual farm experiences.

At Newark, wheat yields have been increased as much as 13 bushels per acre by an application of 300 pounds of an 0-12-12 fertilizer. At Milford yields have been increased from 11 bushels to 21 bushels by an application of 300 pounds per acre or 3-12-6 in the fall and a spring nitrogen top-dressing. Many farmers in the State have had similar experience.

The recommendations for fall fertilizer of small grains are 300 to 400 pounds per acre of a 2-12-12 or a 3-12-6 fertilizer on sandy soils or heavier soils low in fertility. On heavier soils, usually higher in fertility, the same amount of an 0-14-7 should be used. However, if clover is to be seeded in the grain it will pay to use an 0-12-12. Research data also show that the use of fertilizer on winter legume cover crops results in an appreciable increase in plant growth which when turned under is reflected in greater yields of succeeding crops. Increased yields of corn following fertilized rye and vetch have much more than paid the additional cost of the fertilizer. For fall seeded legume cover crops, use of 300 to 400 pounds per acre of an 0-12-12 is recommended.

Fall is also a good time to fertilize pastures. Applying fertilizer this fall will mean that the pasture plants will go through the winter in better shape and get an earlier start in the spring. An application of 300 to 400 pounds per acre of superphosphate or 0-14-7 is recommended for heavier soils, and the same amount of 0-12-12 for sandy soils.

Secondly, the company you work for is probably paying terrific taxes—and these taxes are, after all, partly out of your production. If taxes were less, your wages might be more.

by
J. H. (Sureshot) Rumer

Anything appearing in this column is purely the opinion of the writer and does not express the views or policy of the paper. Any exceptions should be taken up with the writer.

As everyone now knows, the election is over and while this paper has supported the Republican candidates, Sureshot was always told that after the election was over, the person who was elected was our president and we should all do everything we can to support the choice of the majority of the people.

I very well realize that throughout the land there are a lot of SORE-HEADS, fatheads and BONE HEADS and in many of the population's minds there will be a great deal of bitterness. That should not be the proper attitude. F. D. R. showed by his early preparations that he was an able general and he has planned this election for a long time, moving his pawns around until he had voters placed where they would do the most good for his side.

I am sure that this election will not make everyone feel good, but what could make everyone in this world feel good. If our commander-in-chief will now settle down and get this war over real soon and get our sons and daughters and all the rest of the fighting forces back home to their loved ones, I am sure that most everyone will be satisfied. Sure, I know that some folks will never be satisfied.

Newark should be proud of the way the public acted on election day. No disturbances were reported anywhere throughout the day in our fair town for which we all should feel real glad.

The Newark football team will go to Wilmington Friday afternoon and will do everything in their power to wallopp the P. S. duPont football team.

Coach Stanley Gibbs feels real about having his team in fighting shape for this game as this is one of the most important games on the Yellowjacket schedule. P. S. is one of the Wilmington BIG 3 and Newark is always gunning for those three big-shot teams. Against the BIG-3, the score for 1944 is 1 to 1, Newark having wallopped Brown Vocational and lost to Wilmington High.

Coach Gibbs is high in his praise for the work being done by LeRoy C. Hill and Oscar Morris who have been giving a lot of time helping to whip the team into shape for a successful season. The Newark boys are very fortunate in having such a fine coach as Stan Gibbs and the assistance of those other two fellows who are devoting so much of their time to helping out and not getting paid. Both of these men are doing this work out of their desire to see the local boys win and the boys are sure to fight hard this week.

The Newark Town Council held their regular monthly meeting on Monday night and voted to purchase some sort of apparatus to put chlorine in our water just to satisfy certain people. I still say that if our Maker had intended use to drink all that doctored water He would have fixed it that way in the first place. For my part, they may use that stuff in Wilmington, but everyone knows that our water, if they will let it alone, tastes much better than that stuff you drink in Wilmington.

The trains on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad are still belching smoke as they roll through town and the folks that hang their wash out on the line are still fussing and complaining. No one can really blame them. This week I received a letter from a resident of the town who enclosed a page from a business magazine which told about another section of the country where the residents complained about the smoke nuisance. The railroads in that particular part of the country went in to a huddle and their engineers and efficiency experts got together and developed a jet or some kind of device to make the engine eat its own smoke. The article went on to say that these devices were very inexpensive and could be installed with a minimum of trouble.

What has happened to the letters from the public and even from the boys and girls in the armed forces. There was no mail this week. Not even a complaint. That is bad.

The Newark firemen are planning their annual turkey banquet which will be held in the fire house on some night in December. They have a good committee picked out if Jack Tweed don't take too many samples off the plates as he passes them around. Kip Moore is another one that will bear watching. I'll bet some of the firemen will do without anything to eat for several days just so that they can put away a lot when it is free.

The 4-H Club members throughout the county have been doing a good job of helping to win the war according to a story released this week by Mrs. Clara Skoglund who is County 4-H Agent for New Castle County. Those kids have been putting in a lot of their play-time working. They and their leader can't be praised too much for the effort being put forth.

The trials were held under favorable weather conditions with game plentiful and a large gallery on hand all day to watch the running of the hounds. Dinner was served in the clubhouse at noon under the direction of Mrs. R. V. Buckingham and Mrs. John W. Cochran.

The drawings which took place at the clubhouse this morning found the hounds placed as follows:

1945 STATE CROP GOAL CONFERENCE NOV. 21-22

USDA War Board, Representatives To Hold Meeting In Wilmington

Members of the Delaware USDA War Board and representatives of all other agricultural agencies in the State will hold their annual state war foods goals conference, to determine what share Delaware can produce in 1945 of the agricultural products which will be needed to sustain the war effort, in Wilmington on November 21 and 22. In addition to regular state agricultural groups, a team from the various agencies in the U. S. Department of Agriculture is expected to take part in the conference. The meeting will be held in the auditorium of the Delaware Power and Light Company.

The State's wheat goal for 1945 has already been set at 65,000 acres, compared with 68,000 acres grown in 1944; and the rye goal has been set at 11,000 acres, compared with 15,000 acres grown in 1944.

Tentative goals for all other commodities as recommended by the War Food Administration will be mailed to the State by November 10 in order to permit War Board members to review the suggested goals prior to the meeting on November 21 and 22. These goals set up by the WFA are based on total needs and capacity of the various states to produce. The State committees then set up their own goals to meet these national needs insofar as it is possible with the facilities which are available within the State.

"In view of the turn the war in Europe has taken in the past few months, it is possible that production goals for next year may be below those for 1944 in the case of several commodities," said C. E. Ocheltree, chairman of the State USDA War Board and of the State AAA Committee. "In past war years, a particular goal has been considered as the minimum we had to have to keep our war effort going. This year, we probably will consider a goal as that amount which we need to keep our war machine running with the full knowledge that any additional amount may become a surplus commodity."

Be Quick To Treat Bronchitis

Chronic bronchitis may develop if your cough, chest cold, or acute bronchitis is not treated and you cannot afford to take a chance with any medicine less potent than Creomulsion which goes right to the seat of the trouble to help loosen and expel germ laden phlegm and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes.

Creomulsion blends beechwood creosote by special process with other time tested medicines for coughs. It contains no narcotics.

No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding you must like the way it quickly allays the cough, permitting rest and sleep, or you are to have your money back. (Adv.)

MORE TIRES PREDICTED

"A" Book Holders Outlook Gloomy

The tire situation for "B" and "C" ration book holders was brighter this week but the outlook for "A" motorists was still gloomy.

The OPA announced that 1,850,000 new auto tires will be available for "B" and "C" motorists in November, an increase of 250,000 over the October quota. The November allotment, OPA said, is expected to satisfy normal monthly replacements, but will be insufficient to permit broadening of eligibility requirements for "A" card holders.

In addition, OPA said, the quota will enable local ration boards to work off "a few" of an estimated backlog of 850,000 approved, but unfilled, applications from "B" and "C" holders for new tires. A monthly quota of 2,000,000 tires will be required to fill these requests.

Deputy OPA Administrator Max McCullough warned that the tire situation still remains critical and most motorists must resort to recapping to keep their cars in operation.

"Mortals and Immortals" is the lesson-sermon of First Church of Christ, Scientist, at Park Place and Van Buren Street, Wilmington, Del., on Sunday, Nov. 12, 1944.

NURSING EDUCATION EXPLAINED

Miss Oglevee Talks At Women's College

Miss Christine L. Oglevee, of the College Counseling Staff sponsored by the National Nursing Council for War Services and the U. S. Public Health Service which administers the U. S. Cadet Nurse Corps, spoke to the Women's College, University of Delaware, students yesterday afternoon on the subject of war-time nursing and post-war opportunities in nursing.

Since completing her college training in bacteriology, Miss Oglevee has served as head nurse and night supervisor in Miami Valley Hospital, Dayton, and White Cross Hospital, Columbus. Before she was appointed to the counseling staff she was directress of nurses at Allegheny Valley Hospital. She has contributed numerous articles on "The Teaching of the Biological Sciences in Schools of Nursing" and "Nursing as a Career".

Miss Oglevee told her audience that unprecedented opportunities are offered now and will be offered after the war in the fields of nursing education and administration, in public health nursing, psychiatric nursing, and in other specialties. College women, she said, are responding to the challenge, since their numbers are twice the percentage of the new student nurses today as 10 years ago. Miss Oglevee pointed out that there are 150 or more schools of nursing connected with colleges and universities offering a degree as well as the entire list of 1300 state-approved schools of nursing. The U. S. Cadet Nurse Corps offers an expense-free professional education in more than 1000 of these schools, including tuition, maintenance, uniforms, and a monthly stipend to all qualified applicants who pledge themselves to remain in essential military or civilian nursing for the duration of the war.

FARM HELP MAY REMAIN FOR WINTER

Housing Seen Only Problem For Farmers

Delaware farmers can have the use of foreign laborers throughout the winter provided they place them in private housing on the farms soon.

Arrangements have been completed through the War Food Administration's Office of Labor to allow any of these laborers who wish to do so and who are needed to remain in this country throughout the winter, according to J. Frank Gordy, emergency farm labor supervisor for the Delaware Agricultural Extension Service. Camps will not be operated, but enough of the workers already in the State have indicated a desire to remain here through the winter to supply farmers who wish to house them.

Arrangements must be made to keep workers before the camps close, which is expected to be soon. In addition to the advantage of having the use of the workers all winter through this plan, farmers will have them on hand to start work early in the spring.

Most farmers will be able to provide adequate housing without difficulty. Housing must meet the requirements of the Office of Labor and the State Department of Health. Further information on housing can be obtained from the labor camps or from the county agricultural agent's office.

Eighty-two Bahamians were placed in private housing in Sussex County during the month of April this year, and since that time, 450 Jamaicans and Bahamians have been placed with 146 different farmers in the State. Most of the farmers who have housed the workers found it more satisfactory than transporting them from camps. They not only were sure of having the workers and saving transportation, but most of them felt that relationship with the workers was better, and they used the same workers regularly so that they need not train new men.

Calvin Cabbage Rites Are Held Tuesday

Calvin Cabbage, 86, of Newark, died Sunday in the Delaware Hospital of injuries suffered 10 days ago in a fall. He was a retired employee of the American Ice Company in Philadelphia, and had lived for the past eight years at the home of his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Holton, South College Avenue and Kentway, Newark.

In addition to his daughter, he is survived by two sons, Benjamin C. Cabbage of Albany, N. Y., and Milton F. Cabbage of Philadelphia, and two grandchildren, Dorothy C. Holton of Newark and Benjamin C. Cabbage of Albany. A brother is seriously ill in the Delaware Hospital.

Private funeral services were held Tuesday from the home of his daughter, followed by interment in the Welsh Tract Cemetery.
